LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

PARK CLUB'S GOOD TIME.

A VARIED PROGRAMME RENDERED FOR THE MEMBERS' PLEASURE.

Lehigh University Banjo Club Furnish Sweet Music on String Instruments—An Original Monologue Given by Mrs. Serrell.

If it had no other attraction, the Park Club would add many names to its list of members on account of its delightful entertainments. Another entertainment was held last evening and it was enjoyed by a large number who completely packed the pretty little hall and gallery. A small stage had been erected in the front of the hall and covered with rugs, while screens, palms and fancy tables gave a charming appearance, perfectly in keeping with the rest of the club house.

As the last comers were hurrying to remove their wraps, William N. Runyon, a member of the house committee, came to the front of the stage and in a witty speech introduced seven members of the Lehigh University Banjo Club as the "Seven Stars of Bethlehem." They were Messrs. Pittinos, Ayers, Gross, Wilson, Wood Jessup, Fletcher Hallock, of this city. "The Belle of New York" march was the selection rendered and everybody declared that they well deserved the title of "stars," as their rendition of the march was excellent.

Mr. Pettinos, leader of the banjo club, was next introduced and sang "I Want Yer, Ma' Honey," with guitar accompaniment. His encore, "Lively Old Flea," sent his audience into roars of laughter that did not cease until an original monologue by Mrs. Lemuel W. Serrell was anounced. Mrs. Serrell appeared in a charming evening gown and gave an amusing selection. The plot of the monologue was simple, but very good.

The new wife wanted to go to a dance but her husband sent word that he would not be home until late, "detained at the club on business." The poor wife meditated over her sad fate and, at last, decided to have a club at home. Her attempts to learn how to be a club man were very amusing. At last, after arranging the room like an up-to-date club, the wife started for the reception alone. After the vigorous applause had ceased, a quartette, composed of Elmer E. Runyon, Geo. O. Stevens, Alfred E. Holmes and Wm. N. Runyon, rendered a very pretty selection. Music by a male quartette is always very pleasing, but this was of unusual excellence. All four are good singers and their voices harmonized especially well. A medley from "Princess Bonnie" by the banjo club followed and concluded, with its encore, the first part.

The second part opened with a well rendered baritone solo by Alfred E. Holmes, and the "Stars" played a patrol, "The Passing Brigade," that pleased the audience. Fletcher Hallock has entertained Plainfield audiences before with his novel "mouthophone" solos, but last evening he had entirely new selections. He was accompanied by banjo and guitar, and had to give two encores before he was allowed to depart. His second, "The Streets of Cairo," completely brought down the house. A lively selection by the quartette was greatly enjoyed and then, by request, Mr. Pettinos sang "The Summer Man," which so pleased his Park Club audience last year. The Lehigh boys brought the evening's entertainment to a close with a well-rendered selection and encore.

The floor was then cleared and some of the young people remained for an informal dance, while others went to the basement, where the ivory balls clicked and flew over the green cloth and the pins in the bowling alleys went down before the well directed balls of the experts.

Will Apply For a License.

Carl Kearth will apply to the Common Council Monday evening for a liquor license for Michael Watson's grocery store at the corner of Grant avenue and South Second street. The necessary number of signers have been secured, but it is not probable that the application will be granted.

Vocal Sight Reading.

Miss Anna O. Marsh of 915 Madison avenue, will organize a class for boys and girls between nine and twelve years Thursday, Feb. 6th, at 3:45 p.m. Three dollars for ten lessons. For further particulars address as above. t s

Many merchants are well aware that their customers are their best friends and take pleasure in supplying them with the best goods obtainable. As an instance we mention Perry & Cameron, prominent druggists of Flushing, Michigan. They say: "We have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our customers, as it is the best cough medicine we have ever sold, and always gives satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50c per bottle at Reynold's pharmacy, Park and North avenues, T. S. Armstrong, manager.

ANOTHER OLD DEED.

A Sheepskin Indenture Possessed By Wallace V. Miller, of This City.

Any relic of "ye olden times" is always looked upon with interest by the present generation. Some time ago a deed dated 1725, belonging to ex-Mayor John H. VanWinkle, was described in The Daily Press. Wallace V. Miller, proprietor of the Hotel Grenada, has in his possession another deed of almost an equal age. A number of years ago when the building that formerly occupied the site of the Love building at the corner of Watchung and North avenues was being torn down, the workmen found between the walls an old deed written on sheepskin. The head carpenter presented it to Mr. Miller.

This deed closely resembles the one belonging to Mr. VanWinkle, except that the latter has an indented end to enable it to be recognized, while the other has an oval hole cut in it, which of course corresponds with one in the other copy of the deed. The handwriting is very legible and is written backhand, with the important words printed. There is a noticeable use of both "the" and "ye," while the old-fashioned "s" is used entirely. The first part of the deed reads as follows: "This Indenture made this Fourth Day of July, Anno Domini, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty, Between Charles Empson, of the Burrough of Wilmington, (formerly called Willingtown), in ye county of New Castlemen, Deleware Marinor, and Mary, his wife, on ye one part, and Robert Louston, of the said Burrough Marinor, on ye other part."

The property transferred in the deed is a water lot on Christiana Creek, near Wilmington, and was given for a consideration of fifty pounds.

The preservation of both the sheepskin and the writing is quite remarkable, while the seal remains intact.

KING'S DAUGHTERS SOCIABILITY.

A Pleasant Programme Followed Out Yesterday Afternoon.

One of the most energetic of all the young ladies' charitable societies in Plainfield is the Dorcas Circle of King's Daughters. Yesterday afternoon, most of the members gathered in the parlors of the home of Miss Maud Lowrie, president of the circle. The afternoon passed pleasantly and an attractive programme was given. It consisted of a soprano solo by Miss Katherine Glenn, a piano solo by Miss Alice Coard, a contralto solo by Miss Ethel Holmes, a recitation by Miss Grace E. Overton, and a soprano solo by Miss Elfleda A. Whiting, with autoharp accompaniment.

Miss Overton's recitation, "A Cup of Tea," was especially fine, and was enjoyed by all. Conversation interspersed the different numbers and after the close of the programme refreshments were served. The table was decorated in pale green. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Grace Langdon, chairman, Miss Mary Brown, Miss Blish and Mrs. Harry Lowrie. The entertainment was arranged by a committee consisting of Miss Delphine Bowers, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Cornwell, Miss Little and Miss Etta Blish.

Big Subject to Lecture On.

A large audience of intelligent women listened to an interesting and instructive lecture by Madame Swamstead, of New York, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday afternoon on "Woman, Her Physical and Mental Needs, Her Present and Future Possibilities." The subject was handled scientifically and with great delicacy and clearness. It was well illustrated by physical poses and charts. A request was made by many present that the lecture be repeated.

Afflicted With Spasms.

A most remarkable case is that of Mrs. H. Bradley, colored, of West Third street, who was seized with spasms last Monday night. Between that time and 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday she had forty-four spasms. Dr. Simpson is in attendance and Mrs. Bradley is now on the road to recovery, though she is still very weak.

"Omnia" Flour.

This flour prepared from the whole of the wheat makes the most delicious bread, gems and griddle cakes of any flour on the market. 24½ lb. sack, $1. Ask your grocer, or served direct by the Hygienic Food Co., Orange.

Went Through the Ice.

While skating on Coddington's pond yesterday Sydney Craig, of Dunellen, followed the hockey block out on the rotten ice. The ice broke and young Craig fell in. He managed to support himself by the ice and crawled out at last.

Call and Get One.

The Daily Press fire-alarm cards are now ready for distribution for 1896. Call at the business office and get one. You will need it when the fire gong blows. They don't cost a cent.

BROKEN NECK, AND LIVES

ENDURANCE OF A NEGRO GIANT NOW IN THE HOSPITAL.

If the Man Dies Somerset County Will Have Another Murder Trial—His Assailants Surrendered by Bondsmen.

A giant negro who has lived for five weeks with a fractured skull and a partially broken neck is now exciting the wonder of the medical staff of the Muhlenberg Hospital. The man is hourly expected to die, and at his death the Somerset county authorities will have another murder case on their hands—says the New York Sun.

Big "Jack" Schenck, the injured man, lived at South Bound Brook, where he was noted for his great strength and endurance. On Christmas Eve he went to the Lime Kiln Club ball at Mulvey's Port Reading Hotel. The ball broke up in a free fight. There was a reckless use of razors, but Jack's strength saved him. Among the men knocked out by his blows were Benjamin Hall, George Brokaw and Horace Brokaw. Jack left for home early in the morning, and when near the Central Railroad tracks he was waylaid by three men. He was pounded into insensibility with clubs.

A colored woman told the authorities that three negros jumped on Schenck's prostrate body and clubbed him repeatedly. One of then, she says, struck a match to see if their victim still breathed, and then shouted, "Give him some more boys, he ain't dead yet."

Jack remained unconscious a week from the effects of his beating, and then his jaws were locked and he could not tell who his assailants were. After several days he gave their names on the installment plan, and the brothers Brokaw and Hall were arrested and confined in the county jail. For five weeks Jack was attended by a local physician, and his assailants were released on bail. Recently his condition became worse, and yesterday he was taken to the Muhlenberg Hospital, where it was discovered that his skull was fractured and that the spinal column was splintered.

The accused negroes were surrendered last night by their bondsman, County Clerk Frank Somers. Two of them were at once placed in the county jail. Horace Brokaw is still at large, but the authorities expect to capture him before morning.

Assignee's Sale.

The assignee's sale of the property of John Albertis, the Washingtonville grocer, was held yesterday, T. J. Carey acting as auctioneer. A number were present from this city. Everything was sold at good prices, and it is thought that the total amount received will easily equal the estimated value.

December and November to Wed.

Amie Dumazeaud, the oldest clerk in the County Clerk's office, Elizabeth, and Miss Mary E. Brittin, who has charge of Elizabeth's Public Library, it is said, are about to surprise their friends by getting married. The intended bridegroom is over sixty years old and the bride about fifty.

C. B. C Talk Temperance.

An important meeting of the Cracker Barrel Club was held this morning, when the growing evils of intemperance were discussed pro and con. The orator was John Goodwin.

Trial for Right of Property.

The case of Canning against McLoughlin, trial for right of property, was adjourned indefinitely in Justice Mattison's court this morning, by consent of the interested parties.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, met last evening and the initiating team held a full-dress rehearsal.

—Last evening Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, paid the funeral benefit due the heirs of James G. Connelly, who died at South Hampton last April. It was not paid before owing to the difficulty of settling Mr. Connelly's accounts.

—An accident happened to one of John Tier's horses yesterday while the men were cutting ice on the pond. The horse stepped on a thin piece of ice and broke through. It was thought that the animal would drown before he could be rescued. The men finally got him out and he escaped any serious injury.

A meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Football association will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building to discuss the question of holding an indoor meet. All those interested are invited to be present.

J. Worth Coddington, of Somerset street, is contemplating a pleasure trip of a few weeks duration, and is undecided whether to visit Florida or Texas.

CHEMICAL ENGINE HERE

A THING OF BEAUTY AS WELL OF SERVICE AT FIRES.

It is Lighter Than the Ordinary Engine and is Ready for Use at a Moment's Notice—A Detailed Description of It.

The chemical engine has arrived. It came yesterday afternoon soon after three o'clock and was immediately conveyed by Frank Hand to the fire department headquarters. A curious crowd gathered there all the afternoon and examined the stranger and commented on its appearance. It did not have to blush on account of the latter, however, for, if good looks have anything to do with it, the chemical engine is a grand success

In the front of the engine is the seat for the driver, directly behind of which is a patent hose reel, and then comes the two tanks, side by side. These tanks, which contain the chemical fluids, are brass covered and each contains 60 gallons. In them is kept a mixture of soda and water, while right above them is hung a jar of sulphuric acid, which, by the turning of a handle, is upset into the solution of soda. Gas is instantaneously generated and the engine is ready for work. These generators are connected to a main pipe, in which is a pressure guage and from this main pipe run two other pipes, one connecting with the hose on the reel and the other with a coil of hose in a wire basket under the generator. Only one tank will be used at a time, and numerous valves control the flow from the two tanks and into the two lines of hose. The preparing of the engine for a fire is very simple. The handle of an agitator in the generator is turned to thoroughly stir up the contents and then another handle is moved that empties the sulphuric acid into it. The tanks are so arranged that after one is exhausted and the other is being used, the first can be re charged very simply.

The hose is an inch in diameter and has a three-eighth inch nozzle attached. Two hundred feet of it are on the patent reel, which can be unreeled at pleasure and still not break the connection with the pipe from the generators. One hundred feet more is coiled up in the basket in the rear. This is also connected.

Besides the chemical properties of the engine, which is to be known as Chemical Engine No. 1, an extension ladder, several buckets, axes, hooks and crowbars are attached to different parts of the engine, while a very effective door opener is carried in a handy place.

The metal parts are most highly polished brass, except the frame of the engine and other supporting parts which are of steel and iron, painted in red and gold. A handsome lamp is placed on either side of the seat while two torches and two hand-lanterns will serve to illuminate the rear.

The new arrival will probably be put in order for use today. George Feiring and the team of greys, that have drawn the Gazelle steamer, will look after Chemical Engine No. 1, and take it to the fires. A test will be given in a few days.

The engine was built to order by Charles T. Halloway, of Baltimore. It weighs 4,700 pounds, about 1,000 pounds less than ordinary steamer.

A Fowl Thief.

Several nights ago someone visited the farm of Mr. Frazer, a prominent citizen of Pumptown, and relieved him of the greater part of his poultry. The fowl catcher made away with 138 chickens, 13 ducks and 11 geese. Mr. Frazer had a large number of fat turkeys but these, as it is their custom to roost high, were safe from the clutches of the thief, clear out of reach in the top of a large walnut tree.

Don't Delay.

Sympathy is a good thing in its way, but if your child has a tendency to squint, don't waste time in sympathy, but remember that properly adjusted glasses will save it from the surgeon's knife, and that a visit to Collier's, 103 Park avenue, will insure your child the relief it needs, and save it from the pain and suffering that delay will necessitate.

Appointed to Preach Before Bishops.

The convocation of New Brunswick holds its tri-monthly session on Tuesday, February 4th, in New Brunswick. Rev. S. P. Simpson, of St. Stephen's church, of this city, has been appointed by the Dean to preach the sermon before the Bishops and the convocation.

For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief. This is specially valuable in cases where the pain is caused by a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale at Reynold's pharmacy, Park and North avenues, T. S. Armstrong, manager.

HEAVY SUBJECTS TALKED ABOUT.

High School Students Indulge in Weighty Discussion.

The regular meeting of the Kappa Delta Phi Society, of the Plainfield High School, was called together by the president, J. Hazelwood Craig, yesterday afternoon in the High School building.

The subject of the programme was a "Hat Talk," the subjects and speakers being as follows: F. Wilbur Cornwell, "What Effect Will the Prussian Turkish Alliance Have on the Political Affairs of Other Countries?" J. Hazlewood Craig spoke on the subject, "Will Japan Become Aggressive?" Henry Eggerding gave his opinion of "What Ought to Be Done in Armenia." "The Work of the Kappa Delta Phi" was the subject chosen by Paul W. Kimball. Charles Noble spoke upon the subject, "Can England Afford to Fight Either the United States or Germany?"

The programme committee reported that next Friday the programme for the meeting would be a "Hash Debate," the subject to be announced at the time of the debate.

The following officers were then elected for the coming two months, except the president, who only holds office for one month: President, Henry Eggerding; vice president, Paul W. Kimball; secretary and treasurer, Charles Noble; critic, J. Hazlewood Craig; sergeant-at-arms, Sydney R. Titsworth.

LOST HEAVILY IN PRESENTS.

The Young Bridegroom Thinks He Would Have Received $5,000 in Gifts.

The New York papers this morning contained the following from Newark concerning the Smith-Baglin wedding, in the exclusive announcement of which The Press scored a signal beat over the sweat shop News:

Harry Baglin was seen at his home, No. 297½ High street, this afternoon. He said: "Yes, it's true we were married on Sunday night. We were to be wedded on April 12 next, but concluded to be married quietly. We will be the losers by about $5,000 in presents, however, by the change in the programme, as the wedding would have been one of the biggest affairs of its kind ever held in Plainfield. But my father-in law is going to make up for that in a measure by giving us a big reception some time next month."

Cases of Absentmindedness.

A true case of absentmindedness was noticed at the North Avenue station this morning when a New York commuter jumped on the Royal Blue Line train bound for Washington. After entering the car he felt as though he was going in the wrong direction and alighted from the train just in time to catch his train for New York. In connection with the above another similar case was noted a few days ago when a business man left his bicycle near Reynolds' pharmacy and started to catch a train for New York. His wheel stood where he left it all the afternoon and in the evening a policeman's attention was called to it. He placed it in the rookery and two days later the owner came after it.

Y. M. C. A. Programme.

The preliminary programme of the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Y. M. C. A., to be held at Jersey City, February 13th to 16th, has been issued and is brimful of good things. President Murray, of this city, will give a review of the work for 1895, and D. A. MacPhie will conduct a conference on "Gymnasium Men's Bible Class: How Can it be Made Successful?" The programme contains the names of a number of the brightest and best known men both in professional and business life in this section of the country and the convention will probably exceed any of the previous ones thus far held.

Up-to-Date in Name, Anyway.

The social club composed of young men of this city, the organization of which was exclusively told in the Daily Press at the time, met again last evening at Pierson's cigar store on Watchung avenue. The young men are thoroughly up-to-date in all their actions and so they have chosen an up-to-date name, the Twentieth Century Club. That name was chosen at the meeting last evening. Rooms have been secured in the Babcock building and electric lights put in. The club meets again next Tuesday night.

Free at White's This Evening.

Free to every purchaser this evening in White's housefurnishing and china department—a fine satsuma pepper or salt shaker, neatly decorated. Special Saturday night bargains throughout the store.

—Thule Lodge, Swedish, will meet this evening in Red Men's Hall.

—U. B. Crane, hatter, 120 West Front street, has a large line of spring styles Rossmore hats. Prices are right.

GOD GIVES ALL PEACE.

REV. C. E. HERRING SAYS THE DUTY OF MAN IS TO FEAR GOD.

The Revival Meetings Will be Continued Next Week in the Park Avenue Baptist Church—Two Union Services.

The attendance at the Crescent Avenue church last evening gave unmistakable evidence that the people have no desire to bring the revival meetings to a close. The usual song service was conducted by David E. Titsworth, after which Rev. Dr. Richards read the Scripture and Rev. Cornelius Schenck offered prayer. An impreseive portion of the service followed when Mr. Lewis sang "I Will Sail the Wild Seas No More."

Rev. C. E. Herring then read the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel of John to the twenty seventh verse and took his text from the latter verse which reads: "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you."

In part, he said: This is a time of peace. Christ came to tell about peace. Men look upon life as a sorrowful thing. They believe that hopes are dreams and are never realized. This is the attitude of man without God's peace. I am not here to tell you about something that is afar off, but how to go through life with perfect peace and rest. There is a peace of God which shows that His Spirit has a resting place within us. You look at a ship's chronometer and it is always the same whether tempest-tossed or not; and a man can be so adjusted with the Divine law that he, too, can always be the same. If your life is one of trouble and discouragement Christ can make it one of peace. You ask how? To one whose mind is staid on God, He does give peace. There are Christians here tonight who can testify to that. The whole duty of man is to fear God and serve Him forever. If we centre our mind on God we will have peace, a peace that passeth all knowledge shall keep us. We should trust God and so obtain that perfect peace which He gives.

I like the Christian Endeavor pledge which says: "Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength, I promise Him that I will do whatsoever He would like to have me do." Trusting is the foundation of all.

We read that a man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves. The fact that He went down caused him to fall among bad men.

Lean on the Lord in all your weakness and take the gift He offers. It is not too much for Him to give. Let God fill every avenue in your soul with His love and then you will have perfect satisfaction. May we say tonight "Lord Jesus, help me to look to Thee." Look tonight and live.

Mr. Herring closed his remarks by offering an earnest prayer. Another effective solo, "The Clanging Bells of Time," was then rendered by Mr. Lewis.

Dr. Richards stated that he was very sorry that the meetings were going to close in his church, but was glad that the invitation from the Park Avenue Baptist church had been accepted and meetings would be held there every night next week except Saturday.

Two union services will be held tomorrow evening, one in the Crescent Avenue church where Rev. J. W. Richardson will preach and the other at Trinity Reformed church where Dr. Yerkes will preach.

The after-meeting last night was in charge of Dr. Barnes and much good resulted therefrom. Almost the entire congregation remained.

Entertained at Euchre.

The Misses Marlow, of Dunellen, entertaind their fellow-members of the Young People's Progressive Euchre Club of Dunellen and North Plainfield, last evening. Miss Maud Benton won first lady's prize. John Fisher and Robert Carpenter tied for the first gentleman's prize. The latter won on the play-off. Mrs. Marlow, Miss Emma Marlow and Miss Sadie Barrett were all tied for the second prize and Miss Marlow was the lucky one in the cut. The other second prize went to Charles Coriell. After dainty refreshments were served, a leap year dance concluded the evening's pleasure.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowls, of Hollands, Va., has to say below will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had la grippe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle at Reynold's pharmacy, Park and North avenues, T. S. Armstrong, manager.

THE DUNRAVEN CASE

Final Report of the Committee Made Public.

The Earl's Charge Not Only Not Sustained by Evidence, But Completely Disproved—Its Origin the Result of Mistake—The Principal Points in the Dispute Explained.

New York, Feb. 1.—The report of the special committee of the New York Yacht club that investigated the charges of fraud in the recent international yacht races preferred by the Earl of Dunraven is made public today. The report after stating at length the origin of the tronble, the correspondence which passed between interested parties regarding the charges, the action of the yacht club in instituting the investigation and the evidence deduced at that investigation summarizes the result as follows:

All the Result of Mistake.

Upon a careful consideration of the whole case the committee are unanimously of the opinion that the charge made by Lord Dunraven, and which has been the subject of this investigation, had its origin in mistake; that it is not only not sustained by evidence, but is completely disproved; and that all the circumstances indicated by him as giving rise to his suspicion are entirely and satisfactorily explained. They deem it, therefore, but just to Mr. Iselin and the gentlemen concerned with him, as well as the officers and crew of the Defender, that the committee should express emphatically their conviction, that nothing whatever occurred in connection with the race in question that casts the least suspicion upon the integrity or propriety of their conduct. And the committee are not willing to doubt that if Lord Dunraven had remained present throughout the investigation, so as to have heard all the evidence that was introduced, he would of his own motion have withdrawn a charge that was so plainly founded upon mistake, and that has been so unfortunate in the publicity it has attained, and the feeling to which it has given rise.

Defense of Cup Committee.

The only points in Dunraven's charges which reflected directly on the integrity of the cup committee were those in reference to the omission of the committee to remeasure the Defender on the same day of the race, or to put a representative on board of her to remain during the night, justifying his suspicion that her displacement had been tampered with between the race and the measurement on the following day. To this the committee says: It has already been pointed out that a remeasurement of the Defender after the race on the same day was impossible, because the Erie basin, where alone it could take place, was too far distant to be reached until too dark to make it; and Lord Dunraven was so informed by Mr. Fish when the request was made. It was fully proved that such measurement could not be made by artificial light. The remeasurement that took place on the next day (Sunday) at 10 o'clock in the morning was, therefore, the earliest possible. In regard to the request, which Lord Dunraven states that he made to Mr. Fish for transmission to the cup committee, namely, that each of the two yachts should be taken into the charge of the committee for that night, it is conclusively shown that no such request reached the committee.

Why More Ballast Was Necessary.

The placing of additional ballast on the Defender is explained as follows: After the arrival of the Valkyrie in the United States, it was found that she was stripped of her fittings, water tanks, bulkheads, etc., and not in a condition to comply with the rule of the New York Yacht club. A clause was accordingly introduced in the detailed agreement for the cup races, executed on September 4, waiving that rule. On the 4th and 5th of September the Defender, while at New Rochelle, was stripped and had all her fittings, water tanks, bulkheads, etc., taken out of her, which were weighed and found to be about 7,000 pounds. Before this material had been removed from the upper part of the vessel, Mr. Herreshoff and Mr. Iselin had estimated that its weight could be efficiently replaced by two tons of loose ballast in the hold.

Extra Ballast in Plain View.

Two tons of lead, consisting of forty-seven pigs, were therefore obtained from New York, carried by steamboat to New Rochelle, and there put in the hold. The weight of the material removed proved, however, to be greater than they had anticipated, and they accordingly decided to add one ton more of lead ballast; and another ton was thereupon sent from New York to the Erie basin. On the 6th of September, the day of the first official measurement at the Erie basin, and prior to the measurement, this ton of lead, consisting of twenty-one pigs, was placed temporarily on the cabin floor of the Defender, above the place it was to occupy in the hold in plain view of all aboard.

Removed To Be Sawed in Two.

On the evening of the 6th of September, the day before the race, it being found that this lead could not be stowed in the hold without the pigs being cut in two, it was carried on to the Hattie Palmer, her tender, and each of the twenty-two pigs was cut in two, carried back again and stowed in the hold of the Defender. About five tons of lead ballast were in like manner put on board the Valkyrie shortly before the measurements, some portion of which at the time of the first measurement was temporarily placed on her cabin floor.

COMMENT OF BRITISH PRESS.

All Unite in Declaring an Apology Is Due from Dunraven.

London, Feb. 1.—The Standard today, commenting on the finding of the committee of inquiry of the New York Yacht club in Lord Dunraven's charges, says: "It may be acknowledged that the finding although hostile to Lord Dunraven's contention is studiously courteous and is well calculated to lay the unpleasant business to rest." The paper adds that it regrets that Lord Dunraven was unable to hear all the evidence. No doubt if he had and deemed it sufficient to elucidate his suspicions he would have been the first to admit his mistake. "We trust that Lord Dunraven may, as the committee believes, after studying the whole rebutting evidence, be convinced of his mistake and arise and accept the hand the committee has held out and so bring to an amicable conclusion a matter which has caused a great deal of angry feeling between the two great yachting peoples of the world."

Instant Apology Necessary.

The Chronicle says: "The committee was so strong and distinguished that its finding must be received as a conclusive verdict. The verdict is expressed in language of the most studied courtesy and consideration. Under the circumstances the committee could not have been considered blameworthy if, on the completion of Lord Dunraven's monstrous charges, it had commented upon them in language of the greatest severity. The only question that now remains is: What is Lord Dunraven going to do? It will be the opinion, we are confident, of all British lovers of the best kind of sport that there is only one course open for him, and that is to make an instant and complete apology, in terms which shall be exhaustive, and which shall rival in consideration the language of the gentlemen whose painful duty it has been to place his gross and most unfortunate error beyond the possibility of doubt"

Dunraven's Haste Regretted.

The Morning says: "The decision will be loyally accepted by Lord Dunraven and his fellow yachtsmen here. There is no course left open but to withdraw the allegations. It is a thousand pities that Lord Dunraven acted so hastily. The incident must now be regarded as closed."

THE CASE OF HAMMOND.

His Plea for British Interference Considered Injudicious.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Senator Jones of Nevada called on Secretary Olney yesterday afternoon and presented to him a long cablegram from John Hays Hammond, now in jail at Pretoria, South Africa republic, charged with sedition and treason, presenting Hammond's position in the troubles between the Boers and the Uitlanders. Secretary Olney told Senator Jones that the United States government was doing all that could be done to protect the interest of Hammond and other Americans in the Transvaal, and would not relinquish the efforts in their behalf. Neither Mr. Olney nor Senator Jones would talk about the matter, but it is said that both are of the opinion that Hammond's sentiments as expressed in the cablegram are exceedingly injudicious, particularly his plea for British interference at the request of the United States.

LIFE AND PROPERTY LOST.

Queensland Swept by Tornado and Floods.

Brisbane, Queensland, Feb. 1.—Great loss of life and very large destruction of property have been caused in the northern part of this colony by a tornado and floods. It is impossible as yet to tell how many persons lost their lives, but it is known that great numbers were drowned. The damage to property is estimated at $2,500,000. Several coasting vessels are missing, and it is believed that they have either foundered or been driven ashore and that all aboard of them were lost.

Shocking Accident to a Mill Girl.

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 1.—Mary L. Boyd, 17 years old, an operative in the West Boylston woolen mill in Oakdale, had her hair caught in a loom yesterday afternoon and a piece of the scalp, a foot long and four inches wide, was torn from her head. She was brought to the city hospital in this city, where it is said her chances for recovery are small.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot trade dull but prices are higher. February, 72⅝c.; March, 73⅛c.; May, 71⅛c.

Corn—Spot trade dull at old prices. February, 36⅜c.; May, 36¼c.

Oats—Spot held steady, but quiet. February, 24⅜c.; March, 25¼c.; May, 25⅝c.

Pork—Spot steady and firm prices. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $10.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; [illegible]

TRADE OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Everything Points to a Good Spring Business.

January Maturities Met More Satisfactorily Than Expected—Money Market for Loans Easy—Gratifying Signs in the Iron and Steel Business—Big Orders on Hand.

New York, Feb. 1.—Dun's weekly review of the state of trade will, to-day, say: Though business is still waiting, there are some signs of definite improvement. It is now believed that the first payment for bonds will cause no further pressure, and the money markets are easier as respects loans on collateral, though the difficulty of making commercial loans still checks operations. But large maturities at the end of January have been met more satisfactorily than was expected, and merchants and bankers report that the signs promise a good spring trade. No increase appears as yet in the demand for the principal products, unless for some forms of iron and steel, in which good contracts have been made this week, and uncertainty as to congressional action still affects both industries and commerce, but the increase in inquiry and the reports of dealers are deemed assurances of large trade coming whenever the uncertainty is over.

Big Orders for Iron and Steel.

Signs of improvement in the iron and steel business are gratifying, even though they spring from combinations which have raised the price of coke and allotted the output of Lake iron ore. A contract for 20,000 tons rails, Pacific delivery, taken by an eastern concern in competition with foreign makers, a contract for 8,000 tons plates for the East Jersey Water works, contracts for 4,100 tons cast pipe at $19.20, taken by Alabama works, with contracts for the Commerical Cable and other buildings here covering 3,500 tons, are the main features, but there is also a better demand for wire nails after long stagnation, and also for sheets. Pig iron is rather weaker, southern works competing sharply while speculative buyers of some months ago are selling below furnace prices.

Boots and Shoes and Cotton Goods.

The demand for boots and shoes does not enlarge, though prices still decline about 3 per cent. for the week, and hides and leather are both lower. After falling 16.5 per cent. from the highest point, boots and shoes still average 6.6 per cent. above the level of a year ago, while leather, after declining 19.3 from the highest point, still averages 8.2 above a year ago. Buyers show no increase of confidence and most of the shops in operation are working part time. The cotton mills are discussing curtailment of production, as goods continue weak, with an output largely exceeding distribution, though the week has brought considerably more inquiries, and a larger spring trade is still hoped for. Woolens are practically unchanged, as each passing week of open weather diminishes the prospect of profitable business, while jobbers, clothiers and retailers have considerable stocks of heavy goods remaining.

Business Failures.

Failures in three weeks in January show liabilities of $17,836,511 against $10,685,060 last year, and $25,811,840 in 1894; in manufacturing $6,661,128 this year against $2,479,193 last year, and $9,124,562 in 1894; and in trading $10,317,360, against $8,165,267 last year, and $14,758,263 in 1894. Failures this week have been 404 in the United States against 354 last year, and 70 in Canada against 54 last year.

Excitement Too Great for an Inquest

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Feb. 1.—Coroner Foust has decided to postpone the holding of the Hollidaysburg Iron & Nail works boiler explosion inquest until next Tuesday afternoon owing to the great excitement prevailing and the fact that deaths of other injured employes are expected.

Salem, Mass., Embezzler Run Down.

San Francisco, Feb. 1.—Clarence Murphy, wanted in Salem, Mass., for embezzling $60,000 from the Salem savings bank two years ago, was arrested in this city yesterday. Murphy attempted to escape after being captured, but was frustrated.

Ex-Judge Harlo Hakes Dead.

Hornellsville, N. Y., Feb. 1.—Ex-judge Harlo Hakes of this city died last night aged 73 years. He was a member of assembly in 1856, district attorney in 1862, register in bankruptcy in 1867 and in 1883 chosen judge of [illegible]

Typhoid Fever.

 Rapid Convalescence

is experienced in this slow and dangerous disease, when the patient's strength is properly maintained until the crisis is passed. Don't force the stomach and other organs already weakened by sickness to wear themselvess out in a vain attempt to obtain nourishment from improper foods. Feed the sufferer with milk and that great food product. It is absorbed immediately into the system with the least possible effort on the part of the various organs. Besides making new flesh and blood, it strengthens all of the vital centres, enabling them to expel existing poisons. It is a germicide, and antidotes the fever microbes. In addition, its beneficial effect on the ulcerated condition of the bowels, so common in this disorder, is marvellous.

Bovinine

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

In Buying a Piano or an Organ

do not fail to examine the latest Mason & Hamlin models. Recent improvements render them unexcelled. Old pianos or organs taken in exchange. Instruments sold for cash or easy payments.
Catalogues and full information free.
Pianos of reliable makers from $200 upwards.
Mason & Hamlin Co.
136 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

CATARRH
ELY'S Cream Balm

COLD IN HEAD
Is quickly absorbed, cleanes the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell.
It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c. at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS 56 Warren st., New York

A. Lusardi,
120 North Ave.,
will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope Secretary.

GEO. O. STEVENS' COAL
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

M. Powers & Son.
Superior quality of
LEHIGH COAL.
No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.
Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

California IN THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF
OVERALLS.
Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.
D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters
will be found at
Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

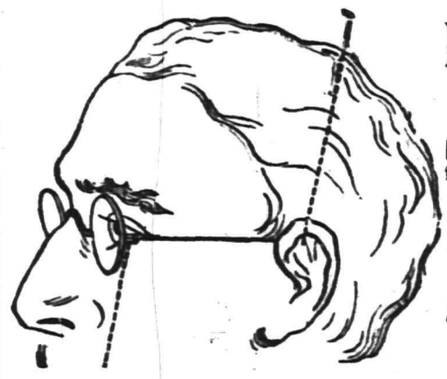
THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS
Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.
The Tway Piano Co.,
88 FIFTH AVE.,
near 14th st., New York.
"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL F. W. HAND,
132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED Buckwheat Flour.
Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by
FRENCH BROTHERS,
City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,
301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.
Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,
EYE SPECIALISTS,
1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.
Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at
107 East Front Street,
Dunham's real estate office,
EVERY THURSDAY
from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.
Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate
For sale or to let.
MONEY to loan on first mortgage.
E. C. Mulford,
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.
Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

Economize.
One and a half teaspoonfuls
Horsford's Baking Powder.
gives better results than two full teaspoonfuls of any other. TRY IT.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
220 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.
B. H. McCullough, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating
All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.
325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

Edwin B. Maynard,
Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 188a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

PLAINFIELD
Business College.
Rooms 415-417 Babcock Building.
Four courses—Commercial, Shorthand, Penmanship, English. Four teachers. Excellent systems. Reasonable rates. Both sexes. Students are making rapid progress. Begin at once. Five days and four nights a week.
PROF. A. A. PHELPS, A. M., President.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES,
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

DOLLS. DOLLS. DOLLS.
Dressed and Undressed. All the latest styles of Wooden and Iron Toys.
HARPER'S,
411 Park Avenue.

Furs, Capes and Jackets
to be sold until Feb. 1st, at 50c on the dollar. We offer this inducement previous to storing goods away.
H. KOHN,
318 West Front st.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER. Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Do not be deceived by infringements of name, package or cigarette.
THE ONLY GENUINE
Sweet Caporal Cigarettes
Bear the fac simile signature of
Kinney Bros
on the package and on each cigarette.
TAKE NONE WITHOUT.

TRY IT ON.
There is such a large assortment of rings—plain, fancy, with setting and without—to be seen at Collier's, that a selection is a little difficult. But you are quite certain to get one finally that will afford you satisfaction.
103 PARK AVE.
Established 1869.

An Open Door
in this wintry weather is dangerous. A slamming door is a nuisance. The ECLIPSE CHECK AND SPRING closes doors and keeps them closed—without noise, too. Simple, durable easily applied and adjusted. Sample at our store.
A. M. GRIFFEN,
119 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

SALISBURY'S DEFENSE

Supports Monroe Doctrine in its Proper Sense.

Expresses Sympathy for Armenians, But Denies That England Is Bound To Fight the Turk To Make Him Govern Justly—Sultan Bad, But Not Responsible for All Misdeeds.

London, Feb. 1.—Prime Minister Salisbury delivered a speech here last night in the course of which he rebutted the statements made Thursday night by John Morley to the electors at Arbroath concerning the Monroe doctrine. Mr. Morley said that Lord Salisbury had blundered in seeming to question the Monroe doctrine, and that if there ever was a question that should be arbitrated it was the Venezuelan boundary question. Lord Salisbury said last night that although the doctrine formed no part of international law, his dispatch to Secretary of State Olney supported it as a rule of policy as strongly and distinctly as possible, but in the form in which President Monroe himself understood it.

Pleads for the Sultan.

The prime minister expressed sympathy with the Armenians, but denied that Great Britain was under any obligation to declare war against the sultan of Turkey in order to compel him to govern justly, and cited the treaties in proof of his contentions. He ascribed the atrocities to the passions of race and creed. He believed that the sultan's government was wretched and impotent, but there was no ground for imagining that the sultan had instigated the massacres. It might be asked why Europe did not interfere. He could only answer for England. She had lacked the power to do the only thing necessary to end the troubles, namely, to militarily occupy Turkish provinces. None of the powers wished so to occupy them.

Must Act with the Powers.

Lord Salisbury said he concurred in the belief that the only authority, albeit was an evil one, in that country was the prestige of the sultan's name. Patience must be exercised and his majesty must be given time to enforce the reforms he had promised. He remarked upon the gradual return of order in Anatolia during the last few weeks, although he admitted that these signs should not be trusted too much. He concluded by declaring that if Great Britain did not co-operate with the other powers she must act against them, which would lead to calamities far more awful than the Armenian massacres.

STREET RAILWAYS.

Phenomenal Growth of Business of the Massachusetts Roads.

Boston, Feb. 1.—The annual report of the railroad commissioners on Massachusetts street railways shows that eleven companies were chartered last year, six of which are being operated, while four have not been begun. The roads built last year made 149 miles of track. Massachusetts companies now own 1,155 miles of track. Gross assets of the companies were, September 30, $56,212,670. The total income from all sources for the year ending September 30, was $13,246,371; expenditures, $12,595,212, leaving a net balance to carry to the surplus of $651,159. Cash dividends of $1,606,196 were declared. The report says the growth of business was almost phenomenal. There was carried the previous year in round numbers, 220,500,000 passengers; last year, 260,000,000, a larger increase than any two preceding years combined.

ON SUSPENDED SENTENCES.

The Hyams Brothers Will Probably Be Released Monday.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 1.—Attorney Francis L. Wellmen of New York is here engaged with other counsel of the Hyams twins in negotiating for their release on suspended sentences. The prisoners will be brought up at police court Monday next and probably be released on their consenting to leave Canada and go to London, England.

Murdered His Wife.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 1.—Thomas F. Kippie, a German brass molder, last night murdered his wife, Mary, at their home on Silver street. The deed was the outcome of a protracted domestic quarrel. After the murder Kippie threw away his knife and started to run, but was captured and lodged in the station house.

New Postmasters.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The following appointments of postmasters have just been made: Pennsylvania—Sarah A. Bachman, Slatington. Massachusetts—George Cushing, Hingham. Connecticut—Charles Harrington, Essex. New York, Edgar F. Doll, Woodbury.

Washed Overboard and Lost.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 1.—The British schooner Nevada, Capt. Iverson, at Lunenburg from the West Indies, reports on the passage out her mate and four men were washed overboard, but two of the men were washed on deck again.

Dead of His Injuries.

New Orleans, Feb. 1.—Jerry Duggan, the deputy sheriff who was murderously assaulted by a prisoner in the parish prison on January 22, is dead of his injuries.

Below the 50,000,000 Mark.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The treasury gold reserve at the opening of business to-day stood at $49,230,852.

THE HOUSE BOND BILL

Senate Will Dispose of It This Afternoon.

Discussion To-day Being Conducted Under the Five Minute Rule—Mr. Vilas Declines To Permit Tillman To Divert Him from His Arguments During His Speech.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Contrary to general expection yesterday the senate did not adjourn over until Monday, but is in session to-day, discussing under the five minute rule the house bond bill, with the committee's free coinage substitute, the final vote, by agreement, to be taken this afternoon. There was very little difficulty in reaching the agreement—the proposition coming from Mr. Harris, dem., Tenn., and Mr. Hill, dem., N. Y., stipulated that the agreement should not preclude the offering of amendments or substitutes, or a motion to postpone indefinitely, and Mr. Harris accepted the stipulation. There were three speeches made on the subject yesterday afternoon. Mr. Vilas, dem., Wis. spoke for two hours and three-quarters in opposition both to the bill and the substitute. He yielded to an interruption from Mr. Mitchell, rep., Ore., who characterized the demand that the last issue of bond must be paid in gold after the syndicate had obtained them at a lower price because they were specifically made payable "in coin" as "a bunco game." Mr. Vilas declined, however, to let Mr. Tillman, dem., S. C., divert him from his argument by questions. He closed with a eulogium on the democratic party "yielding neither to the reactionary forces of old absolutism nor to the lurid fires of anarchy." The other two speeches were in support of the free coinage substitute. They were made by Senators Bate, dem., Tenn., and Pasco, dem., Fla.

Speculation on the Vote.

Washington, Feb. 1.—A prominent anti-silver senator this morning places at three the majority for the free silver substitute for the house bond bill upon which the senate will vote this afternoon and intimates that there is a possibility of its defeat. Senator Jones of Arkansas, in charge of the substitute, says it will carry by at least five.

TO STARVE OUT SPANIARDS.

Cuban Rebels Will Try To Avoid Pitched Battles.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 1.—A brother of Antonio Maceo, the second in command of the Cuban insurgents, is living in this city. He has received letters from his brother confirming the reports that it is not the policy of Gomez, the rebel commander-in-chief, to fight a pitched battle with the Spanish troops. His intention is to avoid meeting the royal troops in the open field, and to hold the tobacco districts, thus preventing the Spanish government from deriving an income from the taxation of these estates. The letter adds that the Cubans are not so anxious as report has made them to be recognized as belligerents. Maceo says that if such recognition was accorded to them they might, as belligerents, be held responsible for damage to certain property which the exigencies of war have compelled them to destroy, while as rebels no responsibility to foreign governments attaches to them.

Destroyed Telegraph Lines.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Havana, Feb. 1.—It is reported that rebels have destroyed the telegraph line and damaged the railroad track south of Bejucal, a short distance south of Havana. It is supposed that it is the work of some of Gomez's followers. Acting Captain General Marin has left San Antonio de los Banos and gone in pursuit of them. No details are obtainable. Gen. Canellas had an engagement with the rebels yesterday, but no details have been received.

J. FRANK CLARK.

Robbed of His "Pin Money."

Albany, Feb. 1.—The room in the Stanwix hotel occupied by assemblyman Everett Brown was entered the other night and some "pin money," as Mr. Brown terms it, stolen. It is said that the amount taken was eighty dollars. Other valuables, including a watch, chain and diamond pin were not touched. The theft was not reported to the police.

Jobs Going a-Begging.

Albany, Feb. 1.—The state civil service commission are finding great difficulty in obtaining suitable applicants for the positions of instructors in piano tuning at the state school for the blind and in pattern making and book binding at the state industrial school. Examinations for these positions are to be held on February 6 and 7, respectively.

To Search for a Disabled Steamer.

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 1.—The steamer Windsor Lake started out at midnight last night to search for the disabled steamer reported as having been sighted by the British bark Gratia, which arrived here yesterday from Oporto.

Appointed Stenographer.

Albany, Feb. 1.—Comptroller Roberts has appointed Chas. R. Webber of Buffalo, from the civil service eligible list, as stenographer in his department, at a salary of $100 a month.

Acquitted of Murder.

Rome, Ga., Feb. 1.—Mrs. Joanna Montgomery, who was on trial for the murder of her husband, was acquitted last night.

The Cough Which Lingers because of a run-down condition of the system, and is not affected by ordinary cough medicines, will yield readily to
Scott's Emulsion
because it gives strength to the weakened body and enables it to throw off disease.
50 cents and $1.00
At all druggists
Scott & Bowne, Chemists, New York.

READING COLLIERIES CLOSED.

After This Week They May Be Operated on Half Time.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—That the Reading company purposes to confine itself within the limit of coal production allotted to it for February by the coal road presidents was shown by the fact that all its collieries were shut down last night. It is probable that they will be started up again next week on half time.

BRAVE AMERICAN WOMAN.

Refuses To Leave Hihad Where She Is Sheltering Armenians.

London, Feb. 1.—The Chronicle today publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that an American lady doctor at Hihad refuses to leave for Marsovan, she being the only protector of 240 Armenian women and children who have taken refuge in her house and garden.

Mrs. R. J. Vance Burned.

Hartford, Feb. 1.—Mrs. R. J. Vance, wife of ex-Congressman Vance of New Britain, was badly burned yesterday afternoon. While heating wax on the kitchen stove her clothing caught fire. She ran from the house and rolled over in the snow. Her burns, though serious, are not fatal.

Pettibone Mine Fire.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 1.—The fire in the Pettibone mine, caused by an explosion of gas Thursday, is now confined to the old workings in the mine. The spot where the flames are raging is a dangerous one, as there have been numerous cave-ins there of late.

Ordained as Pastor.

Hartford, Feb. 1.—The Rev. Harold Pattison was ordained as pastor of the First Baptist church last night. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. T. Harwood Pattison of Rochester, N. Y., father of the pastor.

Sergeant Sails for London To-day.

New York, Feb. 1.—L. J. Sergeant will sail on the Campania to-day to assume his duties in London as advisory member of the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.

Law School Lecturer.

Boston, Feb. 1.—Irving Browne of Albany, N. Y., has been selected to succeed the late Charles Theodore Russell as lecturer in the law school of the Boston university.

To Command the Katahdin.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Commander R. P. Leary has been assigned to the command of the new ram, Katahdin.

No Smoke; No Work.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 1.—Thirty iron workers employed in the Waterbury Machine company's works have struck because of a new rule that they must not smoke while working.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

105 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 1, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Rain Tonight, and Warmer Sunday. Clearing Cooler Sunday Night.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 42 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 1—Hope chapel sociable at Mrs. Samuel Smith's, on South Second street.
February 1—One of the Bravest, at the Music Hall.
February 3—Common Council meets.

The first of February and nothing but slush. When are we to have winter?

A lecture was delivered in this city, yesterday, on "Woman." Most people, however, have heard plenty of lectures by woman, and of the kind that was not intended to reach but one set of ears.

The prayers said at the opening of the Senate and House might be shortened without any spiritual loss.—Tribune.

And this from a Republican paper to a Republican Legislature. Does The Tribune infer that the members of the Legislature are so good that prayers can make them no better, or does it insinuate that they are so bad that they are past reformation. Which?

It is to be hoped that the stranding of the St. Paul off Long Branch will finally convince the Government that that particular point of the Jersey coast is a good site for a foghorn. It's the same old story every year, though the unlucky vessels are not often the size and importance of the beached American liner. The point where the St. Paul lies is down on all the charts as one of the most dangerous of the Atlantic coast, and yet, with life saving station No. 4 just above, at Monmouth Beach, and station No. 5 just below, at Deal Beach, great steamships can run their noses into the sand between them in a fog without warning.—Freeholder in New York Press.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Dryden, of West Seventh street, is visiting friends in the city.

Richard G. Simpson, of Watchung avenue, has recovered from his recent indisposition and has returned to his duties in Columbia College.

Dr. F. C. Ard, assisted by Drs. Berg and Murray, successfully removed an abscess from the left ear of Maude Agnes, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Martin, of La-Grande avenue, yesterday afternoon.

Dunellen.

C. W. Smith has gone to Waterbury, Conn.

The Board of Education will hold a meeting Tuesday evening.

Tuesday evening the regular meeting of the Borough Commissioners will be held.

T. Milliken, of North avenue, who has been visiting at New York, has returned home.

Mrs. Walter Smith has returned home from her visit with friends at New Brunswick.

Mrs. W. Terry, of Washington avenue, is visiting friends at Brooklyn and New York.

Sunday morning in St. John's church mass will be celebrated, it being Candlemas Day.

Mrs. Conley, of North avenue, has returned home from a visit with friends at Glen Gardner.

Mrs. Bachelor and daughter Miss Helen, formerly of this place, but now of New York, spent Thursday with Miss Emogene Smith.

A valentine leap-year dance will be given at the Park Hotel on the evening of February 14th. Prof. Wendall, of Bound Brook, will furnish the music.

New Market.

Mrs. Hannah Netson has returned home from South Orange.

Mrs. Maitland and daughter have returned home from Newark.

Mrs. Stitbing, who has been visiting Mrs. Stanly Day, has returned home to Jersey City,

The Progressive Euchre Club of this place are preparing to hold a clam-chowder supper in the near future.

The Baptist church during the revival services have distributed "surrender cards," which are doing much good.

The meetings being held in the Baptist church are well attended, through the untiring zeal of Evangelist Huffman. The services which were held all day Wednesday were well attended. The singing is also much appreciated.

—Trinity Commandery, No. 17, Knights Templar, will meet Monday evening. The order of temple will be conferred.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Samuel Wilcox, of Murray Hill, was in town yesterday on business.

Charles Haynes, of West Seventh street, is visiting friends in Bayonne.

Miss Florence E. White, of West Front street, is out again after an illness.

Miss Susie Boss, of Central avenue, is very much improved from a recent illness.

Samuel Sloan, of Watchung avenue, will spend Sunday with relatives in Philadelphia.

Fred VanEps, of Park avenue, has returned from Jersey City, where he has been visiting.

Miss Jennie Simpson, of Craig place, is entertaining a young lady friend from Philadelphia.

Miss Maggie Harold is a guest at the home of her uncle, L. W. Serrell, of West Front street.

Miss Grace Yerkes, daughter of Rev. D. J. Yerkes, of West Seventh street, is visiting out-of-town friends.

Miss Flora Petrie of East Sixth street, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. X. Hutchingson, of Newton, N. J.

Dr. Fred Sutphen, of Liberty Corner, called on Plainfield friends yesterday for the first after his recent illness

Mrs. Colles Pond, of 72 Willow avenue, has issued cards for a studio tea February 7th and 8th from 4 until 6.

Frank Rathburn, of New York, has been the guest of Philip B. Macintyre, of the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company.

Mrs. Wilson and children, of Fairview avenue, have returned home after spending three months' in Boston.

Miss Louise Kulenlen and her sister, Lena Kulenlen, of Dunellen, have returned home after visiting Plainfield friends.

Mrs. J. C. VanDyke, who has been confined to her bed for the past five weeks, was able to sit up for the first time yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and son, of Philadelphia, were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jacquett, of Westervelt avenue.

George Firstbrook, of the West End, returned last evening from a four-weeks business trip through New York and Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Ida Houseman, of East Third street, who has been dangerously ill, is no better, and slight hopes of her recovery are entertained.

Mrs. Eliza A. Parse, of Grove street, leaves for Knoxville, Tenn., on Thursday afternoon next, February 6th, by Royal Blue Line, to spend the balance of the winter.

Mrs. Samuel Smith, of the West End, who recently fell and dislocated her shoulder, still suffers considerable pain. It will be a long time before she can use her arms.

Charles Smith entertained about twenty of his friends, at his saloon on Thursday evening. The menu consisted of a steamed clam supper. Everyone had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

Steven Workman, the colord porter at the Jersey City station, has gone to Pullman after the new private car for the Directors of the Central Road. It is to be one of the finest private cars ever made.

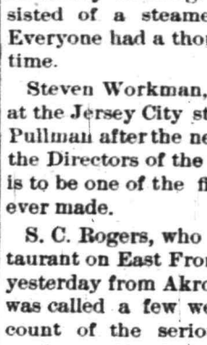
S. C. Rogers, who conducts a restaurant on East Front street, returned yesterday from Akron, Ohio, where he was called a few weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his mother. She died shortly after he arrived and was buried on last Sunday.

Too Tired to Smile

Weak, Weary and Worn

Dizziness, Impure Blood—Cured by Hood's.

Many weak and worn-out women know just what this means. In totally unfit condition for work, they force themselves through the daily routine of duties, almost too discouraged to even look for relief. But it is to be found in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which makes the blood pure, builds up the nerves, makes the weak strong and gives a cheerful spirit. Read this:



Mrs. Wm. Smith
New York City.

"I have suffered more than tongue can tell from dizziness and severe pains in my head. I also felt so low spirited that I often said I wished I was dead. A friend suggested that I try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I gave it a trial and was more than surprised to see what a great change came over me after I had taken the first bottle. I felt better right away. I have now taken nearly five bottles and am happy to say I am entirely cured. I would advise all suffering on account of impure blood to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It will cure." MRS. WM. SMITH, 319 E. 88th St., N. Y. City.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with everyone who tries them, 25c. per box.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

Cured Gen. Buzzell, Department Commander of New Hampshire G. A. R.

The Famous Commander Writes to the People to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura. It Cured Him. It Will Cure You.

GEN. CHARLES E. BUZZELL.

Gen. Charles E. Buzzel, of Lakeport, N. H., Department Commander of New Hampshire G. A. R., has something of interest to say to the people in regard to the remarkable curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Few men are more widely known than Gen. Buzzell, who is Street Commissioner of Lakeport, and the most prominent builder and contractor in the State. The General says:—

"I was terribly run down in health and as a result of over-work, became nervous, weak, tired and without my old-time energy and ambition. I grew so fearfully nervous that I could not rest nor sleep nights, but would be obliged to get up and walk about several times each night. I would get tired nervous so easily and quickly that it became almost impossible for me to attend to my business. At the same time I had most severe and distressing backache.

"I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and it helped me right away. My nerves were strengthened and invigorated that the nervousness left me, and I could again sleep soundly nights, and wake mornings refreshed and feeling strong and vigorous. The backache is completely cured. I am now perfectly well and better able than ever to attend to my business. I have recommended this wonderful remedy to several others and it has cured them all. I urge people to use it because I know it will make them well."

Gen. Buzzell's case was like thousands of others.

People from overwork, strain upon brain and nerve or other causes, break down in health, feel that they are physically weak and that their nerve strength, energy and power are greatly diminished. Just so sure as night follows day will prostration and debility, the wreck of nerves, brain and body, follow if a cure is not immediately sought.

Neglect is the fatal thing. Never allow the first symptoms—the tired feeling the weakened nerves, the loss of power, of endurance, the lack of snap and energy—to drift you into total loss of health. Take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy now and it will cure you as it cured Gen. Buzzell, as it has cured thousands upon thousands of others. It is the great curer of disease, the great strengthener of nerves the great builder up of blood, the great invigorator of brain and body. It will make you well.

Do not class this most valuable remedy with patent medicines. It is a physician's prescription, and its discoverer, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th st., New York City, has the largest and most successful practice in the world in nervous and chronic diseases and can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

Library Acquisitions.

The follwing is the bulletin of books added to the Free Public Library during January:

Awthorp, W. F., Musicians and music lovers.
Barlow, J., Manrun's fairing.
Brooks, E. S., Boy of the first empire.
Brown, A., Meadow grass.
Bunner, H. C., and others, Modern poster.
Couch, A. T. Q., Delectable duchy.
Crawford, F. M., Constantinople.
Crockett, S. R., Men of the moss-hags.
Dictionary of national biography, v 45.
Doyle, A. C., Stark-Munro letters.
Earle, Mrs. A. M., Colonial dames and good wives.
Field, Eugene, Love songs of childhood.
Field, Eugene, Second book of verse.
Field, Eugene, With trumpet and drum.
Gordy & Twitchell, Pathfinder in American history.
Grant, R., Bachelor's Christmas.
Henty, G. A., Through Russian snows.
Hooper, L., Book of flowers.
Howe, Julia Ward, Is polite society polite?
Hudson, M. C. A., Alice and Phœbe Cary.
Johns Hopkins Studies, v 14.
Kipling, R., Second jungle book.
Knox, T. W., Boy's life of Gen Grant.
Lang, A., Red true story book.
Parker, J. H., Introduction to Gothic architecture.
Passaic Library, Catalogue.
Raymond, W., Tryphena in love.
Sachett, W. E., Modern battles of Trenton, a history of N. J. politics.
Smalley, G. W., Studies of men.
Weyman, S. J., Memoirs of a minister to France.
Woods, R. A., and others, Poor in great cities.
Woolson, C. F., Dorothy and other stories.
N. J. Geological Survey, Ninth annual report.
U. S. Census Bureau, Population and resources of Alaska.
U. S. Census Bureau, Indians taxed and not taxed.
U. S. Census Bureau, Mineral industries in the U. S.
U. S. Census Bureau, Population of the U. S., part 1.
U. S. Census Bureau, Vital and social statistics, part 3.
U. S. Census Bureau, Wealth, debt and taxation, part 2.
U. S. Census Bureau, Insurance business in the U. S.
U. S. Census Bureau, Manufacturing industries, part 3.
U. S. Census Bureau, Transportation business, part 2.
U. S. Census Bureau, Compendium of eleventh census, 2v.
U. S. Geological Survey, Ninth and fourteenth annual reports, 3 v.
U. S. Department of Agriculture, Report to Fifty-fourth Congress.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

—Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation. 25c.

—There is a place for everrything, and the proper place for Peck's toilet combs and brushes is in your dressing cases.

—Edsall devotes his advertising space in today's Press to interesting news items about his Commercial Palace.

—A reception and banquet will be tendered to their field force in Everett Hall, East Fourth street, New York, this evening, by the Prudential Insurance Company. Superintendent R. M. Dawson, of this city, will be in attendance.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

SPRING SEASON AT PECK'S.

Grand Display

Wash Fabrics and Embroideries.

Exhibition Now Open.

THE DALZIEL

ART SCHOOL,

309 East Front St.,

Is An Established Success.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique—Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at THE WOMEN'S SCHOOL OF DESIGN, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

EDSALL'S

Commercial Palace - - Babcock Building.

News Items.

—About Edsall's Commercial Palace.

"Stock taking" is over:—splendid news.

—Business will go on now with a big boom.

—Many desirable articles in "odds and ends" can be purchased very cheap.

—Our china and housefurnishing departments have been changed and so improved that you would hardly recognize it as the same place.

—Everything has been over handled and classified, so that each article is shown in its proper place, and with its kind.

—Many who have visited the department under the management of the new superintendent Mr. J. Linn Edsall, remark that it's a pleasure now to walk through and see the fine new wares so artistically arranged.

—New beginners in housekeeping and older ones as well, will find this department just the place to get their needs supplied at a great saving of money. Come in and see.

—Another splendid improvement has also been made that you will be pleased to see, viz:

—The grocery department has been transferred from the east to the west side in our big basement.

—And enlarged to twice its former size in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing trade in this department.

—The trade in this department has increased away beyond our expectations since we put in a complete line:—you know now we keep everything in the grocery line.

—And the people have found out that we sell just as good goods and at as low prices as in the New York department stores.

—So the orders are coming in right and left, and we are now running two delivery wagons for groceries alone, and —We honestly believe we will be compelled to put on two more wagons inside of six months at the rate trade is increasing now.

—This is not mere newspaper advertising, the wagons are on the road every day.

—And if you take notice they are well filled with goods too. Honest dealing, selling goods for just what they are, giving the very best possible quality for the least money, is what does the business. That's our motto.

—The Commercial Palace enters upon the present year's business thoroughly equipped in every respect, and better prepared than ever before for a most successful future.

"One May Smile and Smile and Be a Villain."—Shakespeare.

That's True

Ain't it? And it's so with shoes. Plenty of shoe truck looks well. You can rely on what we sell you. Here are some.

Woman's Cork Sole Button and Lace Boots

real value $4, our price $3. Women's double sole button and lace boots value $3, our price $1.98. Women's $3, $4 and $5 button boots, principally small sizes, we will clear out at $1.48 a pair.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO., —Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	17	9
Park	885	18	10
Roselle	893	18	10
Union C. C. Club	831	8	16
Cranford	837	5	21

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Cranford C. C.	4	4	1557
Elizabeth A. C.	4	4	1547
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	1	1597
Orange Valley	5	2	1534
Elizabeth	4	2	1670
Plainfield	3	4	1464
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	5	1516

The Union County Country Club and the Cranford Athletic Club rolled two games in the Standard League last night on the Union County's alleys. Each club won a game, the scores were low, and there was little or no interest taken in the contest. The only feature of the game was the wind-up in each game, Capt. Charles C. Beebe, of the County's, making thirty on the tenth in the first, and twenty-nine on the tenth in the second. The score in the first game was, Country Club 790, Cranford 730: second game, Country Club 700, Cranford 725. The players were as follows: Country Club, Burnet, Jackson, Beebe, Wharton, Fleming; Cranford, Cox, Shaw, Cox, Ussing, H. Cox.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The directors of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club will hold a meeting on Wednesday evening.

The Ocean county hounds had a fine run this week on the road to Toms River. Among the spectators from Lakewood who were present at the finish of the hunt, near Toms River, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, of West Seventh street.

After much agitation a class for women and children at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium will be started next Thursday. Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, a graduate of Dr. Sarheant's Normal School of Physical Training, will be the instructor. The objects of a progressive course in physical trainiug are to provide a system of recreative and developing exercises for those who wish to build up their physique and keep themselves in vigorous condition; to furnish a series of æsthetic movements as a means of attaining poise, grace and suppleness; to give those in poor health special treatment and to assist children to form correct habits of walking, standing and sitting. Patients sent by physicians will receive careful attention.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

James R. Dungan, of Somerville, was in Plainfield yesterday on business.

William Waters, of Somerset street, has gone to Asbury Park today to visit friends.

Harry Williams, of East Front street, has gone to Brooklyn to spend Sunday.

Miss Ida Core, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tier, of Bank place.

C. E.'s May Use the White House Lot.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The house has passed the joint resolution permitting the society of Christian Endeavor to use the white lot just south of the White House during its national convention in Washington next July.

His Remains Identified.

Hartford, Feb. 1.—The body of the man killed by the cars Wednesday night near Newington has been identified as that of Morris O'Connor of Holyoke, Mass., who left that city Monday. His son has come on for the body.

Mutual Admiration.

"Bykins' wife thinks he is a wonderfully smart man," remarked a friend of the family.

"Yes; it is a very happy arrangement. She thinks he is a wonderfully smart man and he thinks she must be a very smart woman to realize how smart he is, and they get along beautifully."—Washington Star.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be curred by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The safe doors for the new vault in the First National Bank arrived yesterday.

—Joseph Bros., the West Front street shoe dealers, contemplate moving to Newark at an early date.

—Noah Dove Encampment, No. 28, I. O. O. F., will hold their regular meeting Thursday, February 6th.

—Under grant from the U. S. Government the world-famed healing waters are used in "Pura Blood."

—The last Hope chapel-industrial fair will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Wharton, West Third street.

—Woolston & Buckle began work yesterday in the rooms of the Camera Club preparing them for the coming loan exhibition.

—Twenty-five dozen four-in-hand tecks and strap bows are being closed out at H. M. Jaquett's previous to his removal at 18 cents each.

—It is surprising what a sale MacDonald has had this week on his 20 cent creamery butter. Try it. He says it pays to advertise.

—The Four-in-Hand Club has issued invitations for a dance to be held in the Fanwood Club house, Wednesday evening, February 12th.

—A wheel on Roger's new delivery wagon tightened on the axel and refused to go around in front of the Revere House yesterday afternoon.

—A reception and dance will be given at the home of H. A. Smith, on Prospect and Hillside avenues, on the afternoon and evening of February 11th.

—J. Howard Leggett, the East Front street druggist, has received a handsome new showcase, also the glass for his fixtures, which will be put in today.

—Blood and nerves are very closely related. Keep the blood rich, pure and healthy with Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will have no trouble from nervousness.

—Stephen Moore, the baker, of Liberty street, has moved to the corner of West Fourth and Liberty streets, where he will still carry on the baking business.

—The initiating team of Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., of this city, did the initiatory work for Pride of Pioneer Council, No. 66, of Bound Brook, last evening.

—Madam Swamstead, of New York, delivered a highly interesting lecture yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A., building on the "New Woman." There was a large attendanee of women.

—In the contract cases of Powers et ux., against Baily et ux., and Laire against Cranmer, which were tried before Justice Newcorn yesterday, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in each case.

—On Wednesday, February 19th, the Grand Lodge, K. of P., will hold their annual session in Trenton. It is expected that there will be an unusually large number from this city in attendance.

—A meeting of the committee of the Plainfield Camera Club in charge of the loan exhibition will be held this evening to decide upon the date for coming exhibition, and to arrange other necessary plans.

—The slippery condition of the streets caused a horse belonging to Baker & Mead, Scotch Plains grocers, to fall on Park avenue, near North avenue, yesterday afternoon. The shafts were broken, and is was with difficulty that the animal was placed on his feet.

—E. H. Holmes, 208 Madison avenue, opposite the Electric Light Works, has a large yard containing the best grades of coal for all porposes. He also sells well-seasoned kindling wood. Woolston & Buckle, the North avenue painters, will take your order for him, or you can reach his office by telephone No. 49 A.

—Somerset county, which is rich in historical facts, should have a historical society. There are many relics of years gone by that could be placed in such rooms. Then at the meetings papers could be read on some of the interesting places or of some noted personage. Such a society should be started. The cost to each member would be small.—Somerville Messenger.

Mrs. S. P. Simpson, of Watchung avenue, is confined to ner home with a severe attack of neuralgic grip.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THEATRICAL.

"One of the Bravest" will hold the boards at Music Hall tonight. This realistic play has not been over-estimated. It is a good play and as a rule the company is unusually well balanced. Everything about it is well done. The leading characters impersonate modern and reaonable people, nor does the villian chew the scenery into fragments, or pick his teeth with a bowie knife. On the contrary it is an easy, natural performance all through, and thoroughly enjoyable. It is a pretty melo-drama, the plot treating of scenes hovering about the life of a fireman in the metropolis with the usual love thread running through it, and the customary comedy singing and dancing introduced. The heroic role of Larry Howard, the young fireman, who has translated his life in the fire department into numerous exciting mimic adventures, and has brought with him the probable events about the engine house, and the reflection of the "lurid glare." He is distinctly a new stage type and the character is not over drawn.

Herbert Hall Winslow, the author of several wellknown plays, perceived that some people were getting despondent over the hard times, so he produced "A Cracker Jack," as a sort of gloom dispeller. He succeeded well, for the name in itself is sufficient to assure theatre goers the play is full of life and excitement. The incidents are intensly interesting and thoroughly realistic. The great scene of the play occurs in the third act, which represents the rescue of a falsely condemned man from the hands of a lawless mob of western vigilantees, who have actually strung up their innocent victim. It is a realistic picture of eastern and western life. "A Cracker Jack," will be seen at Stillman Music Hall next Tuesday.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

DIED.

MOORE—Suddenly, in New York City, Thursday, Jan. 30, 1896, David M. Moore of this city, aged 55 years.
Funeral services in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church Sunday, Feb. 2, at 4 p m. As the casket will not be opened in the church, Mr Moore's friends will be able to see him from 1 to 3 at his residence on Sunday. 2

JOHNSON—In this city Friday, Jan. 31st, 1896, Mrs. Sarah F., widow of the late Rev. Orrin Johnson, aged 90 years, 3 months, 26 days.
Funeral services from her late residence, 340 East 2d street, Sunday, Feb. 2, at 2 p. m.

MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

LECTURE

Prof. A. D. F. Hamlin of Columbia College, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Architecture in Florence,"

at the

CASINO,

MONDAY AFTERNOON,

February 3d, at 3:30 o'clock. Doors will be open to the public at 3:20.

ADMISSION. - 25 CENTS.

W. L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.
Telephone Call 42-B.

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, 35 cents.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

A meeting of the friends of

Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth, and the work accomplished by the Salvation Army, to be held at

Carnegie Music Hall,

57th st. and 7th ave., New York.

Monday Evening, February 3, 1896.

Hon. Chauncey Depew, chairman. Brief addresses expected from Hon. Wm. L. Strong, Mayor of New York, Bishop E. G. Andrews, Rev. A. H. Bradford, D. D., Rev. Josiah Strong, D. D., Wm. E. Dodge, Robt. Fulton Cutting, and others. Free tickets can be obtained at this office and Reynolds' drug store.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

BLACKSMITH wanted; responsible man for the country. Address Sage, care Press. 1 30 3

LOST.—Child's silver watch and chatelaine. Suitable reward if returned to 946 Prospect ave.

LADIES—I make big wages doing pleasant home work, and will gladly send full particulars to all sending 2c stamp. Miss M. A. Stebbins, Lawrence, Michigan.

RESPECTABLE German woman, speaks English, with a quiet child 10 years old, wants a position as housekeeper in good family; more for a good home than high wages. Call 76 Willow avenue.

HORSEMAN or coachman wishes a position in handling trotters or as coachman; can show 6 years A 1 reference. Address Horseman, care Press.

WANTED—A waitress with Plainfield references at Mrs. Waring's 900 Park avenue. 2 1 3

WANTED—By gentleman in private family, 3 unfurnished rooms in house with modern improvements; good location. Address terms, etc., E. K., care Press.

WANTED—Situation at general housework. Call at 219 Somerset street.

A REFINED young lady would shampoo ladies' hair at their residences, curling done if desired Best of references given. Address P.O.Box 795, Plainfield, N. J.

$75 CASH buys Victor bicycle; perfect order; guaranteed until May. Vic., care Press. 1 25-2 1

FOR SALE—At a bargain, 11-room house, and a 7-room house, both with improvements and in good location; terms to suit. Inquire Jacob Voehl. 1 21 6

WANTED—An experienced cook and laundress. Must have references Call at 95 Mercer ave. 1 31 3

WANTED—A white girl for general housework in small family. Apply at 1104 Putnam avenue. 1 31 2

FOR SALE—A saddle horse. Bridle wise. Price $60; Pony phæton in good order. Frank Hedden, 118 East Fourth street. 1 31 2

WANTED.—A girl for general housework; a good laundress and plain cook; reference required. 340 Franklin place; none but reliable girls need apply. 1 31 tf

FOR RENT—1016 Putnam ave., corner Carlton ave., pleasant commodious house; all improvements and in good order; large lot; immediate possession; rent to begin April first. H. L. Moodey, 603 Watchung ave. 1 30 6

TO LET—Furnished or unfurnished house and 2 acres land; all improvements; ¾ mile from Netherwood station. Address B., care Press. 1 30 2

TO LET—Brick barn, 216 West 2d st; stalls for 2 horses and wagon shed. Inquire Wm. C. Ayers, 203 West 2d st. 1 27 tf

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

FINE flat; best location; 7 light rooms; bath, city water. Apply 612 Park avenue. 1 21 tf-eod

FOR RENT—Third floor, 35x100, of 310 and 312 Park avenue; building to be finished by April 1; can be arranged to suit tenant. Boice, Runyon & Co. 1 23 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let alarge sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Nothing

Like being well posted and knowing just where to place your money where it will bring the best results. To look around our store at the goods and prices you would almost think they grew and it cost nothing to grow them, the prices are so small.

SUCH AS THESE.

MUSLINS.

7c for Fruit, Dwight Anchor and Lonsdale Muslins, 7c; 8x4 bleached sheeting 14c; 9x4 do 16c; 10x4 do 19c; 8x4 brown sheeting 13c; 9x4 do 14c; 10x4 do 16c.

DRESS GOODS.

14c for 36 inch fancies, 18c for all-wool mixtures, 54 inch all-wool mixtures 27c; 54 inch all-wool checks 37c; 45 inch all-wool serges 31c; 54 inch imperial black serge 50c.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

The making costs you nothing it's only the price of material that you pay for. 23c for fine corset covers; 43c for fine embroidered night robes, 55c for fine embroidered skirts. It will take no search light to find

Bargains at Every Turn.

25c for men's white wool shirts, 25c for men's colored wool shirts, 50c for men's all-wool scarlet shirts, 69c for do, double breasted shirts; 10c for men's seamless socks, 3 pair for 25c, 15c for children's fine Lisle thread hose, 47c for men's unlaundered shirts, usual price 75c, 75c for ladies' chamois gloves all colors and one of the best made for service, 75c for a corset that is equal to any $1 corset made, $2.48 for roll of 20 yards of fine matting, 39c for Jap rugs size 18x36, 25 winter coats for ladies to go for 98c each, 13c for the best Turkish towel made, worth 25c.

Housefurnishing Department.

JUST FOR FUN—Pleasure goes with business here. Prices make it pleasant to sell goods. Therefore the following prices tell the story, and a glance through our enlarged department will convince you. Enough said.

23c each 100 japanned bread boxes, No. 1 size, made out of good quality tin, for this sale only. They won't last long at the price—23c each. 23c each

59c each Copper bottom wash boilers No. 7 size, good quality tin and 14 oz. rolled copper bottom. For this sale at 59c. 59c each

5c each 500 papier mache table mats will stand the heat, neatly decorated, choice of all sizes, small, medium or large, worth 15c. To close at 5c each. 5c each

15c pair Stove mitten and dauber, the best, does away with a brush, just the thing for bicycle use, can be used for all kinds of polishing and cleaning. The pair for 15c. 15c pair

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Uutil that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS.

Acorn Brand Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y-eod

Snow, Sleet, Feet.

CorkSole Shoes, Double Sole Shoes, Rubbers.

Store Closes 8 o'clock, Except Saturday.

A. WILLETT & SON,

Feet Fitters.

WAR BALLOONS.

Many of Them Used During the Siege of Paris.

An Excellent Method of Getting Within the Enemy's Lines—Ballooning Has Since Become an Important Branch of Military Study.

The last big European war taught the French more about ballooning than they would otherwise have learned in a generation. At the beginning of the war the government rejected many proposals from balloon makers to construct a number of war balloons, but when they were shut up in Paris they gladly turned to the balloon to help them. They turned all their disused stations into balloon factories, and sought the services of the few experienced aeronauts then available for the teaching of the use and management of the balloon to the people. During four months 66 balloons left Paris, of which number only three have never been accounted for. This is remarkable when it is remembered that no lights were allowed in the night ascensions, and the balloons could only be sent up under cover of darkness.

One hundred and sixty persons, including Gambetta, were carried safely over the Prussian lines, and 2,500,000 letters were sent. The balloons also took with them pigeons, which were sent back to Paris with letters and dispatches. The messages were written and photographed down very small on exceedingly thin paper. This was rolled up, inserted in a quill and attached to the tail feathers of the pigeon. When it was received in Paris the photograph was put under a microscope and the message read. One of the balloons, the Ville d'Orleans, left Paris at 11 o'clock at night, and arrived near Christiana, Norway, 15 hours later, having crossed the North sea in its remarkable voyage. Most of the aeronauts were sailors, who were chosen because of their familiarity with the management and steering of boats at sea, and they proved very capable. During the entire siege balloons formed the only means of communication with the outside world for the imprisoned inhabitants, and nothing could have taken their place.

Since then ballooning has been made an important branch of military study, and the course through which the ballooning corps has to pass is becoming daily more scientific and severe. The war balloon must be compact, always ready for action, and very strong. It is not large enough for two. It is always captive—that is, it is secured to the earth by a cable. It is seldom emptied of its gas, and is, therefore, always ready for action at a moment's notice. The equipment of a balloon corps, besides the balloon itself, consists essentially of two wagons, one large and heavy, somewhat resembling a lumber truck, and the other considerably smaller. The former is used to fasten the balloon to, and is provided with large reels containing about 2,000 yards of twisted wire rope. The smaller wagon is filled with iron pipes containing gas, and is technically called the "tube wagon."

At the word of command the balloon, always inflated, is released, and bounds upward to the height of several hundred feet, uncoiling the rope after it. The officer in the car takes up with him maps of the surrounding country and a field glass. The position and arrangement of the enemy are marked down on the maps with different colored pencils, indicating cavalry, infantry, etc. These marked maps are then placed in a leather bag, which is attached to a ring, which slides down the cable to the ground, where a mounted officer awaits it, and carries the message to the general in command. Other means of communicating the information have been tried, such as by telephone and phonography, but many officers still cling to the colored pencil method, which, they say, is very sure and effective.—Chicago Record.

THEY TOOK NO CHANCES.

Congressman Helped Mike Out in Dispensing Hospitality.

One of the Massachusetts congressmen lives near Boston. He has a beautiful estate, his admiration for which is shared by his coachman, Mike. The other day Mike brought a couple of his Irish friends upon the place and after escorting them around the grounds and showing them the stable ushered them into the hall.

There, somewhat to his surprise, he met his employer, but the latter was determined not to be outdone in hospitality by his coachman. "Bring your friends into the dining-room, Mike," he said, and into the dining-room the trio followed him. "Now, my men, of course you can have what you like," he remarked, as he stood by the sideboard; "but I have a drink here that I think you will like. There is a story to it, by the way," he added, "which may interest you. It is called Benedictine, and it is made by monks up on the Alps. They fill a little flask with it and send out their St. Bernard dogs to find travelers who may be overcome by the cold. When a poor, half-frozen fellow is found he drinks a little of this cordial from the flask and then he is able to follow the dogs to a place of shelter." The men listened to the story in silence. Finally one of them mustered up courage to speak. "Have you any gin?" he asked. "Certainly," said the congressman, as he laid aside the cordial. "Help yourself." The men took a good, substantial drink of the gin and smiled happily over its familiar taste. "That wasn't bad," said one of them. "Now bring on your dog liquor."—Washington Post.

At the Dentist's.

Young Lady (timorously)—Who was that screaming just now?

Dentist—Don't be alarmed; it was a patient who was being treated free of charge.—Journal Amusant.

FIRESIDE FRAGMENTS.

—If you possess a cozy corner with a shelf at the top have a zinc trough made to fit it and fill this with some hardy foliage and flower plants. They will last a long time and add greatly to the beauty of the room.

—Small pieces of toilet soap which are too little to be used may be utilized. Make a bag of Turkish toweling about seven inches square and put into it all the small pieces of soap. When it is three-quarters filled sew up the end and use the bag as if it were a cake of soap —Cream Toast with Poached Eggs.—Prepare toast as usual. Lay each slice in a saucer before adding dressing, and then finish with a delicately poached egg. Eggs broken into separate sauce dishes or patty pans, and steamed until the whites are set, will present a more appetizing appearance than when dropped into water.—N. Y. Ledger.

—To make pastry successfully, it is important that it should not be much handled, and that the hands should be cool. It is, in fact, acknowledged that persons with cold hands make lighter cakes than others, generally speaking. For this reason a china rolling-pin will be found preferable to one of wood.—Liverpool Mercury.

—Salmon Steak.—Steep for an hour or so four middle-cut, good-sized salmon steaks with a glass of sweet oil, salt and pepper and the juice of a lemon. About half an hour before serving, broil them light brown over a charcoal fire, and garnish with quartered lemons and serve with a bowl of tartar sauce.—Boston Budget.

—Crumbs spread over the tops of dishes should be mixed evenly with melted butter over the fire. This is a better method than having lumps of butter dotted over the crumbs after they are spread. When the sauce bubbles through the crumbs on top of a scallop dish the cooking is completed.—The Cook.

—Egg Dressing for Salads.—Take the yolk of one hard-boiled egg, one teaspoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of made mustard and one tablespoonful of butter. Cream the ingredients and add gradually two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Chop the white of the egg fine and add it to the salad. This is especially desirable for cabbage.—Housekeeper.

GOING UP-STAIRS.

To Do This Gracefully Is to Be Accomplished.

The woman who finds herself at the top of a flight of stairs, breathless and exhausted, gasping and blowing in a distressing manner, has undergone an awful physical strain. The heart and the stomach have been made to do double duty, that of the lungs and their own combined, with more often only one-half of the room required to do it in, from the compressing force of the stays. Consequently, one of the most graceful actions that a woman is called on most often to illustrate is transformed, by the ignorance of a few rules of physical culture, into one of the most ludicrous and sorry sights imaginable.

The woman who clutches her skirts in front midway between the hip and the knee heads her body from the hips almost in a bow and drags up, laboriously exhausting her vital energies at every step, is making a foolish and a ridiculous mistake, for which she suffers severely long before arriving at the top.

One of the handsomest pictures painted of feminine beauty is that of a lovely woman ascending a fine, old staircase. Her slender figure is gracefully erect, her lovely face on the column-like throat turned half over her shoulder. The arms are bare, and droop with perfectly natural grace to her knees, where the silken skirts are daintily lifted to allow the free play of tiny, slippered feet. The lady is in the act of ascending, and seems to float upward, the personification of grace itself.

One imagines that he can see her catch her silken skirt at either knee, lifting it just to the ankle, expand her chest, hold her shoulders well back and her arms down. Then the slender body rests squarely on the hips, not dragging forward, and, standing perfectly erect, she glides upward, easily and gracefully.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Domino Evening Cloak.

The latest make of evening cloak recalls the domino style, well plaited in at the back, so that the base is wide and ample. These plaits have to be diminished and arranged in a most clever way on the lining that supports them to prevent the back looking clumsy. Immense hanging sleeves, wide enough to take in any other kind of sleeve, add to the voluminous appearance of the garment. An elegant one worn by a marquise at the fetes given to the king of Portugal was of yellow lampas broche, with silver, lined with ermine, and revers of the same fur, showing in front a long white satin gilet covered with point d'Angleterre. The same lace was quilled inside the ermine-lined sleeves, falling on the arms in a most becoming way.—Detroit Free Press.

One Point in His Favor.

"I haven't lived with you 25 years without finding out you're a brute!" wrathfully exclaimed Mrs. Rangle. "I know a million reasons why I'd hate to be you, and only one why I'd like to be you!"

"What is that one reason, madame?" fiercely demanded Mr. Rangle.

"Because you've got a good wife!" she screamed.—Chicago Tribune.

Finance, National and Personal.

"No," said the man who picks up bits of wisdom wherever he can, "I never like to hear Blykins start out to show how all the indebtedness of the country can be liquidated and financial affairs put into shape at short notice."

"Why not?"

"He nearly always winds up by borrowing two dollars on his own account."—Washington Star.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

THIRTY years' observation of Castoria with the patronage of millions of persons, permit us to speak of it without guessing. It is unquestionably the best remedy for Infants and Children the world has ever known. It is harmless. Children like it. It gives them health. It will save their lives. In it Mothers have something which is absolutely safe and practically perfect as a child's medicine.

Castoria destroys Worms.
Castoria allays Feverishness.
Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd.
Castoria cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic.
Castoria relieves Teething Troubles.
Castoria cures Constipation and Flatulency.
Castoria neutralizes the effects of carbonic acid gas or poisonous air.
Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or other narcotic property.
Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep.
Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk.
Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose."
See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Creamery Butter
20c Per Pound at
J. F. MACDONALD'S
Uptown Grocery.

Will Remove
IN MARCH TO
JACKSON BUILDING
And Are Now Selling
At Reduced Prices
Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.
Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

GOOD CLOTHING
Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our clothing. It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits
have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits
for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,
850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,
177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE
Jersey Poultry
AT LOWEST PRICES.
Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks
Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.
Great Reduction
in price of all kinds of
MEAT
Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.
A. G. Vogeler.
131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.
Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,
125 Park Ave.
E. P. THORN
solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality
Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c
TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE
Bee Hive
Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3 ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.
Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.
Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.
Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Stables attached J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Eagle Meat Market,
35 Somerset Street.
Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.
C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patrick	McIntyre C E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Ladie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?
Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at
W. R. BROKAW'S
Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.
Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.
MRS. L. ADAMS,
114 EAST FRONT STREET,
Opp. First National Bank.
Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,
DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF
FRESH FISH.
Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.
230 Park ave., ooo. North ave
Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 51, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 25, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 36, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 09 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 18, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 22, p m; 12 36 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 36, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 39, 7 48, 8 20 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 3 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 03, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 02 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh. Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh. Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 53 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 53 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

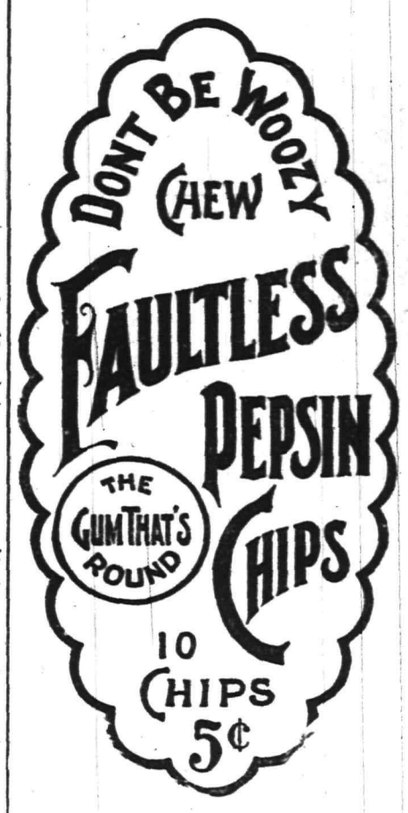
For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
R. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,
EXCAVATORS.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.
Cesspools Built.



Send 5 cents for a sample package to Faultless Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sled Prices.

32c	Redeced From	43cts.
36c	"	48cts.
56c	"	75cts.
71c	"	95cts
73c	"	97cts.
94c	"	$1.25.

R. C. Rand, 140 W. Front st

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

North Plainfield Taxes

In conformity to law, the taxes and assessments against property in the Township and Borough of North Plainfield.

REMAINING UNPAID

January 31, 1896,

will be recorded at the County Clerk's Office as the first lien against your property, after which the names of such Delinquents Will Be Published.

H. N. SPENCER, Collector.

1 23 12

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST.
13 Grove street. 1113 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

THE ONLY

Agency for

Huyler's

IN PLAINFIELD

—IS AT—

LEGGETT'S PHARMACY,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Huyler's Prices.

Open day and night.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

No. 2243.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

DIVIDEND NO. 38.

The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent (4 per cent) on the capital stock of this bank, out of the earnings of the past 6 months, payable on and after Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1896.

WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29, 1896. 1 29 3-2 1 3 4

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

Neuman Bros

Annual reduction of 10 per cent on all

GROCERIES

and leading brands of

New Canned Goods.

Broadmeadow's extra quality tomatoes only $1.15 per dozen; extra quality Jersey packed tomatoes only 95c per dozen; best reserve sugar corn only $1.25 per dozen or 11c can; extra quality early June peas $1.25 per doz., or 11c per can; Huyler's extra premium chocolate only 16c per cake, 30c a pound; Royal baking powder 43c a pound; Cleveland's baking powder 42c per lb; 5 lbs extra raisins for 25c.

Watchung Ave. and 5th st

Scott's Emulsion

is, above all other things, the remedy for sickly, wasted children. It nourishes and builds them up when ordinary foods absolutely fail.

50c. and $1.00 at all druggists.

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

THE THIEF ON THE SHIP.

"Mrs. Melhurst's compliments, sir, and would you please come down to her stateroom immediately?"

I had just shut myself into my little office on deck, having run through the ship's accounts before turning in that night. It is quite a mistake, by the way, to think that we pursers have no more onerous duties to perform when at sea than to watch over the passengers' comfort, read papers on Sunday and keep a store of nautical information at our finger ends for the benefit of every curious voyager. Nowadays the purser of a crack American liner—making, perhaps, a record passage of six days or so—has his work pretty well cut out for him during the entire voyage.

On the present occasion I had scarcely got my accounts fairly in hand when I was interrupted by a slight tap at the door. I arose at once and opened it, and there stood Mrs. Melhurst's Canadian maid, with flushed face and nervous, agitated manner.

"Is there anything wrong?" I asked, with some surprise, when she had delivered her message.

"There is, sir," she replied, hastily.

"All I know—"

She was about to make some other statement, but pulled herself up suddenly and tripped along the deck without another word.

I switched off the electric light, locked the door and hurried away after her. When I got to Mrs. Melhurst's stateroom I saw at once that something had occurred to cause her serious anxiety. The berths, the couch and even the floors were littered with the contents of cabin trunks and hand-bags. In the midst of the confusion stood the lady herself, looking decidedly perplexed and annoyed.

"This is very singular, Mr. Morse," she said, pointing to an empty jewel case which lay open on the upper berth. "My diamond ornaments are missing."

"You don't say so!" I exclaimed, in sheer astonishment.

"I do say so!" she replied, sharply. "You can see for yourself that they are gone."

"How did it happen?"

"I cannot possibly tell you. At dinner this evening I happened to mention to Mrs. Latimer that I had picked up a certain crescent-shaped brooch on the continent. She expressed a wish to see it. When the tables were cleared I came in here, took out the brooch and left the jewel case lying on the berth, but when I got back the case was empty."

"How long were you absent?"

"Not more than half an hour."

I was totally staggered. I examined the lock carefully, but there was absolutely nothing to show that it had been tampered with. I could hit upon no better suggestion than that Mrs. Melhurst might possibly have mislaid the jewels somewhere. This had the sole effect of exasperating the lady to such a degree—for it seems that she had already searched every nook and corner in the cabin—that I was glad to beat a retreat in order to lay the matter before the captain.

I had just got to the head of the saloon stairs when I heard some one bounding up after me, three or four steps at a time. I turned and saw Mr. Carter—who, by the way, had made several voyages with us on previous occasions.

"I say, Mr. Morse," he said, taking me confidentially by the arm, "you've got some queer customers on board this trip."

"How so?"

"Why, some one's gone and walked off with my silver cigarette case, a couple of rings and a pair of gold—"

"The deuce!"

"Well, it looks uncommonly like as if the individual you refer to had a hand in the business, for I don't see how any ordinary mortal could get into one's cabin, with the door bolted on the inside, unless he managed to squeeze through the porthole."

'Pon my word, things were beginning to look serious and no mistake! I lost no time in hunting up the captain and made him acquainted with the state of affairs. He was just as much puzzled as I was myself. The first thing next morning he sent a message to Mrs. Melhurst, requesting a private interview in his cabin on deck. He also signified his wish that I should be present. We both questioned the lady closely, but her replies did not tend to throw any light upon the singular occurrence.

Nevertheless, we determined to keep a close watch upon the stateroom in future. It was pretty evident we had a "black sheep" on board—probably an old hand at the business. For the next few days we had no further complaints. The thief was evidently "lying low," waiting until tranquillity was restored before making a fresh attempt. Meanwhile I kept my eyes open. I observed the little peculiarities of the different passengers and took particular note of the manner in which they occupied their time.

On board ship when you find a man who shows a marked preference for his own society above that of the loungers on deck or habitues of the smoke-room one is inclined to jump at the conclusion that he has some solid reasons for his exclusiveness. If, in addition to this, he happens to be of an uncommunicative disposition, with black hair and swarthy complexion, given to wearing a slouch hat and long coat—rightly or wrongly, you put him down as a decidedly suspicious character.

Now, we happened to have a passenger on board—a Brazilian named De Castro—who tallied in every way with this description. But for the fact that I had conclusive evidence to show he could not have been directly concerned in the robberies—for inquiries proved he had remained on deck the whole evening—he certainly would have been treated to a private interview in the captain's cabin. As it was, I was forced to conclude that black hair, swarthy complexion, slouch hat and cloak were quite compatible with a man's innocence.

Nothing further occurred to excite suspicion until the last day or two of the voyage. Then, one evening after dinner, word was brought to me that three other staterooms had been rifled in the same mysterious manner. Watches, jewelry and even money had disappeared, though in all three cases the passengers stoutly declared they had left their doors locked.

When the alarm reached me I happened to be standing in my deck office. I had in my hand 20 sovereigns, which I had just taken in exchange for American money to accommodate one of our passengers. I didn't wait to lock up the gold; I simply placed it on my desk, switched off the light and hurried away. I had no fear for the safety of the sovereigns, my door having a particularly intricate lock, in which I took good care to turn the key before leaving.

I remained below for an hour or so, investigating these fresh complaints, but, as in the other cases, I was utterly unable to make head or tail of them. Vexed and bewildered, I went back to my office, unlocked the door, turned on the light, and mechanically stretched out my hand to take the sovereigns from the desk. My hand closed upon nothing more solid than thin air—my little pile of gold had vanished!

For a moment or two I stood there gazing blankly before me, so utterly confused and dismayed that I could scarcely bring my wits to bear upon the mysterious affair. Then I managed to pull myself together, and took a look around my little cabin. In the course of my observations my eye happened to rest upon the port hole, which stood wide open, the weather being oppressively hot.

I regarded the innocent looking porthole with the air of a veritable Sherlock Holmes. I went outside and thrust my arm in through the opening, but my hand did not reach within fully two yards of the desk. Still, it struck me as being the only way by which the thief could have got at the money, and I determined to put my theory to a practical test.

I hurried down into the saloon, where most of the passengers were congregated. As yet few of them were aware of the robberies, for we had kept the matter as secret as possible. I went straight up to a young American gentleman who I knew had a great many trinkets in his stateroom and was rather careless too in the way he left them lying about.

"Don't show any surprise," I whispered, glancing around at the other occupants of the saloon, "but might I ask whether your stateroom is locked?"

"It is."

"Well, just pass me your key; I want to try a little experiment. Wait till I'm gone and then stroll up on deck. Let yourself be seen—on the lower deck particularly—but don't pay too close attention to anyone you may notice loitering there."

I went and shut myself in the stateroom, crouching down so that I could just keep an eye on the porthole over the top of the lower berth. I remained in that cramped position until my limbs fairly ached, and I was half inclined to give it up as a bad job.

But suddenly, as I glanced up at the porthole, my blood ran cold, and in all my life I never had such difficulty to keep down a yell. In the dim light I saw a long, thin hairy arm thrust in through the opening. The next moment a small black hand had fastened upon a leather case lying close to the window and withdrew it as quick as thought almost.

I sprang to my feet and bolted outside into the passage. I dashed up the saloon stairs and made for the lower deck. There, just about the spot where I judged the stateroom to be situated, I came face to face with the Brazilian, De Castro. In spite of the heat he was wearing his long cloak with the deep cape, and had his eternal cigarette between his teeth. He looked at me with an air of frank surprise, and I looked at him with an air of profound suspicion.

Suddenly a happy thought flashed through my mind. I turned round and sprang down the saloon stairs, running full tilt against the chief stewart, who was standing at the bottom.

"Get me a handful of nuts—quick!" I cried.

When he brought them I hurried back on deck. The Brazilian had moved away a little toward the stern. I went close up, stood right in front of him, and then began deliberately to crack the nuts.

He regarded me with a pitying sort of look but I paid little attention to him. Presently I saw a corner of the cape drawn aside and behind a pair of small, gleaming eyes fixed greedily upon me.

I was enough. My suspicions were confirmed. I flung the rest of the nuts in the sea, and walking straight up to De Castro, said:

"I must ask you to accompany me to the captain's cabin."

"Vot you mean?" he asked, drawing back.

I was determined to stand no nonsense, and straightway took him by the shoulders. The moment I laid my hands upon him I heard a vicious snarl under his cape; it was pulled suddenly aside and out flew a monkey.

The little brute went at me tooth and nail. I saw the gleam of a knife, too, in the Brazilian's hand, but I let him have my fist straight between the eyes before he could use it, and he measured his length upon the deck.

The quartermaster came running up and the rascal was dragged off to the captain's cabin. When searched there Mrs. Melhurst's diamonds, Mr. Carter's cigarette case and rings and a miscellaneous collection of other valuables were found upon him. In his stateroom we discovered a perforated box, apparently intended for the use of the monkey, who was evidently quite as accomplished as his master.—Cassell's Journal.

MUNYON'S

Victory Couplete

The Old Method of Doctoring Gives Way to Munyon's Improved Homoeopatpic Remedies.

Don't Kill Yourself With Poisonous Drugs—Get Munyon's Guide to Health and Cure Yourself.

Mr. Michael Garmnn, 723½ Broad street, Johnstown, Pa., says: "Eighteen years ago my rheumatism began in my knees and hips and finally spread all over my body in such a severe form that I had to use a cane to walk with. The pains in the shoulders also became so bad that it was agony to lie down. My wrists, shoulders and knees were continually swollen, and I had to lay off work months at a time. I employed doctors without number, and as to patent medicines, I have taken barrels of them. Liniments I used until the flesh was raw, all to avail. Pains would shoot through me, almost tearing the joints apart. Three days after beginning the use of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure I noticed decided benefit, and in less than four weeks I was completely cured. Have not had an ache or pain since."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure never fails to relieve it in 1 to 3 hours, and cures in a few days. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Catarrh Remedies positively cure. Price, 25c. each.

Munyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures pains in the back, loins or groins, and all forms of kidney disease. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Female Remedies are a boon to all women. Price 25c.

Asthma Cure, with Asthma Herbs, $1.

Munyon's Nerve Cure stops nervousness and builds up the system. Price 25c.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in 3 minutes. Price 25c.

Munyon's Pile Ointment positively cures all forms of piles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates all impurities of the blood. Price 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost powers to weak men. Price. $1.00.

A separate cure for each disease. At all druggists. 25c a bottle.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

It Costs Little and Does Much.

Remark when you attend a play or concert how many people disturb the performance by coughing. One man begins and the cough seems to be contagious. The interruption is a great nuisance, and there is no need of it, for any one may cure a cough with the Pineola Balsam, which costs 25c. It soothes the inflammation in the throat and loosens the mucus which clogs the air passages. A few doses of Ely's Pineola Balsam stop a cough and heal a sore throat.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5½c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5½c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

[Notices under this head are published by The Daily Press free of charge, when supplied fresh each week by authority. Copy must be in hand by 10 a. m. Saturday to insure insertion, and should be supplied Friday when possible.]

Junior Y. M. C. A. Bible Class, 9:30 a. m.

Boys Meeting Y. M. C. A. Hall, 4:15 p. m.—Led by D. A. MacPhie.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest—Morning prayer and sermon, 10 a. m.; Sunday-school, 9:45 a. m.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) Church—Rev. William H. Miller, pastor. Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school, 2:30; evening devotions, 8.

St. Mary's (R. C.) Church—Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor. Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; evening devotions at 8. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m.

W. C. T. U. Rooms—Consecration services 9 a. m.; gospel temperance meeting 4 p. m., led by Joseph Gavett. Mr. Lewis, of the Crescent Avenue church choir, will sing.

Rev. M. Ahlberg, pastor of the Swedish church, will preach the last time tomorrow night at 7:30 in Grace church. The theme will be "The Heaven is Our Home."

The Bible Class conducted by Physical Director MacPhie will be held at the Y. M. C. A. at 5:15 p. m. The Conversational Bible Class will meet at the same hour and place.

Monroe Avenue M. E. Chapel, Rev. William C. O'Donnell, pastor—Preaching services at 11 a. m. Sabbath-school, 3 p. m. Union service at 7:45. Rev. G. K. Newell will preach.

Y. M. C. A. Building, 4:15 p. m.—A. B. Clemens, formerly of Plainfield, will speak. Miss Anna P. Hardenbergh, contralto of the Crescent Avenue church quartette, and a male choir will sing.

St. Stephen's Church, Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector—Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; Sunday-school, 9:45 a. m.; Holy Communion and sermon, 11; evening prayer, 4:30. Free stages from railroad station at 10:30 a. m.

Grace Church, Rev. E. M. Bodman, rector—Early Celebration of Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; litany, Holy Communion and sermon, 11 a. m.; Sunday-school, 3 p. m.; children's evening service, 4.

Trinity Reformed Church—Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor. Divine worship at 10:30 a. m. The pastor's subject will be "Jesus Ever the Same." At 7:30 p. m., union service. Sunday-school, 2:30 p.m.

Warren Chapel—Rev. Joseph O. McKelvey, pastor. Preaching service, 10:30 a. m. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m. There will be no evening service. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the morning service.

First Church of Christ (Disciples of Christ)—Rev B. W. Hand, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. Lord's Supper, 12 m. Sunday-school, 3 p. m. Christian Endeavor meeting at the close of the Sunday-school session.

Park Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor—Morning, 10:30, preaching by the pastor, theme, "Emptying Himself of Honor, to Be Filled With Glory." No evening service. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m.

First M. E. Church, Rev. C. R. Barnes, D. D., pastor—Services at 10:30 a. m. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m.; Epworth prayer meeting, 6:45 p. m. No service in the evening on account of the union services.

Church of the Redeemer, Rev. Dr. Jocelyn Johnstone, rector—Morning service and celebration of the Holy Communion, 11:15; evening prayer and sermon, 4:30; Sunday-school, 3 p. m. At the evening service Dr. Johnstone will preach on the Creed.

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Herbert F. Randolph, pastor—At 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. preaching. Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll will occupy the pulpit owing to the illness of the pastor. Epworth League, 7 p.m. At 2:30 p. m. Sunday-school.

The Church of the Holy Cross, P. E., Rev. T. Logan Murphy, rector.—Morning prayer, sermon and celebration of the Holy Communion, 11: Sunday-school, 3:15 p. m.; afternoon service, 4:30. The themes at tomorrow's services will be selected from the compositions of Barnby, the composer, who died a few days ago.

First Presbyterian church music: Morning. Prelude, andante con moto in F, Calkin; anthem, Another Six Days Work is Done, Schnecker; offertory, nocturne in E flat, Chopin; postlude, offertorio in B flat, Thomas. Evening—Prelude, offertoire in E, Loretz; anthem, Rock of Ages, Reed; How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me? Pflueger; offertory solo, "Just As I Am," Bartlett, Miss Glen; postlude, Cujus Animam, Stabat Mater, Rossini.

From Blarney's Isle.

Bridget (applying for a situation)—Oh, yis, mum, Oi lived in my last place t'ree weeks, mum.

Mrs. Van Nobbs—And why did you leave?

Bridget—Oi couldn't get along with her, she was so old and cranky.

Mrs. Van Nobbs—But I may be old and cranky, too.

Bridget—Cranky ye may be, mum, for faces are sometimes deceiving; but owld, niver.

And Bridget got the place.—Pearson's Weekly.

Rapid Recovery.

Husband—My dear, you should go out and take a walk. You need exercise.

Wife—Can't you see I'm nearly dead? Exercise, indeed!

"Oh, I didn't know you were so ill. Well, if you are unable to go out, you won't want that $50 I brought home for you to go shopping with, and I might as well take it back."

"N—o, dear; leave it. I think I'll be better soon."—N. Y. Weekly.

How It Came About.

"I think a girl who whistles is very unattractive."

"Well—I don't know. Whistling brought about my engagement."

"How was that?"

"I puckered up my lips to whistle, and Charley couldn't resist kissing them, and so of course—"—Harper's Bazar.

United States Government Under Grant

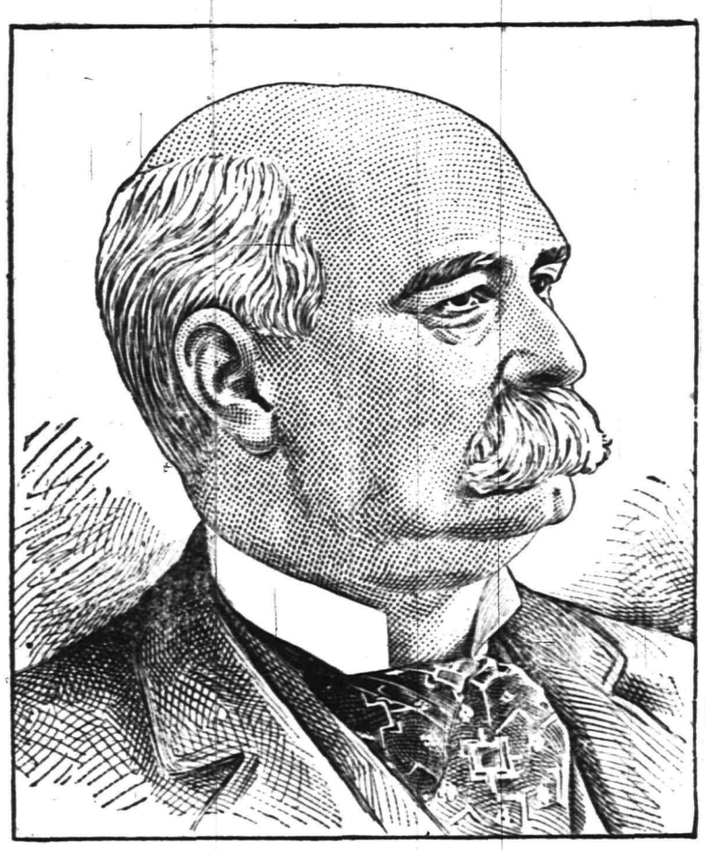
Have Permitted the World-Famed Healing Waters of Hot Springs, Ark., to Be Used in the Preparation of

"PURA BLOOD."

Leading physicians who are specialists in the treatment of blood diseases agree that "Pura Blood" is the best medicine to be used in all such troubles, in proof of which indorsements of this remedy have been received from many of the most prominent physicians. Book containing same, together with a full description of Hot Springs, Arkansas, its famous waters, its miraculous cures, and the grant from the United States Government, permitting the celebrated curative waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas, to be used in the preparation of "Pura Blood," will be sent free to any address. "Pura Blood" is for sale by druggists, price $1 per bottle. Billups & Co., of 26 Cortlandt st., New York, are sole agents.

He Helped Make Chicago.

L. A. Gilbert, the Great Land Man, Cured of Rheumatism by Paine's Celery Compound.



The most striking personality in Chicago, and the oldest real estate dealer, is Mr. L. A. Gilbert. Mr. Gilbert is now over 60 years of age; in the 50's he was in the Rockies gold hunting. Since 1868 he has handled more property in Chicago, and is known to more home-owners than any other man in the business.

Mr. Gilbert at one time suffered from rheumatism and sleeplessness. He made trips to Hot Springs, and tried other methods of treatment without avail. To satisfy a friend who had taken Paine's celery compound for similar troubles, and knew what it could do, Mr. Gilbert tried it, and but a very short time elapsed before he was entirely freed from both these troubles. Mr. Gilbert himself says:

Gentlemen—I have suffered with rheumatism and sleeplessness for years, caused by exposure while prospecting in the mountains years ago. For years I had to take electric bath massage and take trips to Hot Springs in order to get a little sleep and relief from pain. To cap the climax I have been suffering from indigestion and pains in the heart region. Paine's celery compound was recommended to me by friends who knew what they were talking about, and I took it. From the start I noticed improvement and I am now in the best of health, and able to get around as lively as any youngster I know. Yours truly,

L. A. Gilbert.

The most rational way of getting rid of rheumatism, neuralgia and insomnia and getting back sound health is to husband every mite of strength and to set about a radical, all-round restoring of the tired system with Paine's celery compound.

It is your business to furnish the body with nervous energy, as fast and abundantly as you can, and to get a richer, purer blood supply. There is no way in which this restorative process can be so swiftly brought about as by using Paine's celery compound.

There is nothing known to physicians of the most extensive practice equal to Paine's celery compound for purifying the blood and making strong, healthy nerves. Unremitting work at last brings down the vitality of the strongest men and women. Everyone has felt that ambitionless, listless feeling. There are many persons who manage to keep about their business because they are not sick abed, who are nevertheless sadly "out of health." Paine's celery compound exactly fits the cases of these uneasy, sleepless, sallow faced men and women. They are on the perilous edge of some organic disease. Paine's celery compound will drag them back and plant their feet squrely on firm ground. By regulating the nervous system and compelling the vitiated blood to gain a larger proportion of red corpuscles, all the organs of the body whose business it is to repair and rebuild the tissues are aroused. Paine's celery compound does not fail to increase the appetite, to augment the powers of assimilation, to increase the weight of the body, to purify the blood and to stop the progress of structural changes when liver and kidney diseases have fastened themselves upon the system.

There is not a single city without some perfectly attested cure of liver and kidney disease, chronic constipation, salt rheum, plaguing eczema or general poor health, by the use of Paine's celery compound. Impaired strength and unstrung nerves, made known by numbness of the limbs, nervousness and a dissatisfied state of the mind—all these weaknesses become things of the past after taking that best of health givers—Paine's celery compound.

SULLIVAN'S CONDITION WORSE.

He Is Feverish and the Wounds on His Head Are Much Inflamed.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 1.—The condition of John L. Sullivan is not as satisfactory this morning. The wounds on his head are suppurating and much inflamed and the patient is irritable, restless and feverish. His manager, Mr. Glickauff, met the newspaper men and stated that the physician's orders were to let no one see Sullivan and that the ex-champion was in no condition to talk and wished no one but his wife to see him. A large number of telegrams have been received making inquiries concerning the pugilist's condition and some offering assistance. The latter were promptly declined, as Sullivan needs nothing. A change was made in physicians yesterday from Dr. J. N. Dixon to W. R. Ryan, the change being due to the fact that Dr. Dixon declined to go to the hotel in the middle of the night when Sullivan's wounds became painful. There is no immediate prospect of the patient's recovery and should erysipelas supervene it will be a very serious matter for the ex-champion.

Sympathy for Sullivan in New York

New York, Feb. 1.—The accident to John L. Sullivan on a railroad near Springfield, Ill., caused a mild sensation among the sporting people of New York. Rumors that John L. was dead reached the city and caused considerable excitement. There seems to be a general feeling of pity for the old-time fighter, and many expressions of regret are heard.

Her One Failing.

The new woman can wheel with the grace of a bird;
She can outdo a golfer in pluck;
She can swim like a fish in the blue of the sea—
But she always will run like a duck!
—Town Topics.

Authoritative.

Big Sister—Dick, I think it is time little folks were in bed.

Little Dick (on Mr. Nicefellow's knee)—Oh, it's all right. Mamma said I should stay here until she came down stairs.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Flatterer.

Mr. Softly (despairingly)—But do you not think you could learn to love me?

Miss Brightly—Oh, dear me, Mr. Softly! what a prodigious student you must think I am.—Judge.

Low Down.

"Enpec played a mean trick on his wife while she was away."

"What?"

"Taught the parrot to scream: 'You talk too much!'"—N. Y. World.

THE WALLER CASE.

A Desire Not To Strain Our Relations with France.

Washington, Feb. 1.—It is understood that the state department is only delaying its transmission to congress of the documents in the case of ex-United States Consul Waller of Madagascar, now imprisoned in France, pending negotiations still proceeding by which it hopes to be able to announce the release of Waller from prison. No other explanation has been vouchsafed regarding the matter. The senate resolution calling for all documents in the case was passed December 9, and a similar resolution which was introduced in the house was amended after consideration by the foreign affairs committee and presumably after conference with the state department to exclude the correspondence between Consul Wetter, Mr. Waller's successor in Madagascar, with Secretary Uhl, it having been learned that it would be incompatible with public interests to publish these. The resolution was adopted December 28 and very soon afterwards it was known at the state department that all the letters were copied and ready for transmission. It was also understood that these papers got as far as the White House on their way to the capitol. There they seem to have rested. Developments are daily expected in the negotiations and probably unless Waller's release is shortly secured the correspondence will go to the house of representatives. The objection to that course is said to be a desire that the friendly relations so long existing between the United States and the French republic should not be even temporarily interrupted.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

AT THE

Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium,

Plainfield, N. J.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

Classes Mondays and Thursday, February 1st to May 1st, at such hours as suit the convenience of members.

TERMS.

Women for three months $15, for one month $8.

Girls for three month $12, for one month $6. Private instruction $2 per lesson.

Chart and prescription $1.50. Instruction in fencing $15 per term of twelve lessons in classes of three. Swimming $12.50 per term of ten lessons. Payments in advance.

Chamber Music Concert,

AT

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

Don't Doubt

OUR

Word!

WE ARE

Closing Out

our immense stock of

WALL PAPER, PAINTS, SHADES, RUGS, MOULDINGS, ETC.

Let us do your

Spring Decorating.

Edward Love,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

Grand Final Clearing Sale

—OF—

Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks

previous to stocktaking, February 1, We propose to close out every winter garment. Notice the extraordinary reductions.

LADIES' JACKETS—LATEST STYLES.

Ladies boucle jackets, shield front, large pearl buttons, mandolin sleeves reg. $10 jacket, for $6.49.
Ladies' brown jackets, shield front, velvet collar and cuffs, large pearl buttons, reg. price $18, for $13.
Ladies' diagonal jackets, 28 inches long, reefer front, large pearl buttons, were $15, now $12.
Misses' fancy mixed jackets, velvet collar, mandolin sleeves, reefer front, were $8, now $5.
Misses' navy blue jackets, reefer front, ripple back, mandolin sleeves seams piped with velvet, large storm collar, reg. price $12, at $7.98.
Misses' jackets, blue and white mixed, double faced goods, velvet collar, 4 large pearl buttons, were $12, now $7.49.
Children's Gretchens, fancy mixtures, sailor collar, newest styles, were $10, now $6.98.

777 and 779 Broad Street,

Newark, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

Saturday, February 1

Grand scenic production of the greatest of all comedy dramas,

ONE OF THE BRAVEST.

The most realistic drama ever produced. A legitimate plot treating on the scenes hovering about the life of a fireman in the great metropolis.

Bright comedy, catchy songs and new dances. A cast of Metropolitan favorites. Realistic scenes and exciting situations. See the opium joint, the steamship explosion, the burning of a firemen's house on the Bowery, the exciting rescue scene.

One night only

Tuesday, February 4.

The phenomenal success, that picturesque comedy surprise,

A Cracker Jack

A comedy drama true to life.

A play written for the people.
Crowded with exciting incidents.
Overflowing with merriment.
Charmingly enlivened with the best specialty novelties obtainable.
Presented with a cast of reorganized metropolitan artists.

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1 Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, L't'd.

SEE PORTLAND RANGE—IT'S FINEST MAKE IN THE LAND.

Know About Our Bargain Room?

You'd better, provided saved money is an object to you. This room of ours is fairly bubbling over with odd pieces and single patterns of a kind in carpets and furniture—all new goods, taken right from stock—now marked in plain figures at one-half former prices. Here's a part of the room's contents:

BEDROOM SUITS, varied woods and designs—in some cases only one pattern of a kind—splendid values.
PARLOR SUITS—rich and effective coverings—choice construction; not a suit here that you'd be ashamed to own.
DININGROOM FURNITURE, every kind—chairs, extension tables, sideboards, etc.
RANGES AND STOVES—fine bakers and heaters—good and new.
MISFIT CARPETS—all displayed on the walls; rare chance in every weave.

OUR NEW STORAGE BUILDING at 88, 90, 92 Bank st—rooms are large, cleanly and locked—vans call for goods—terms rock bottom.

Amos H. Van Horn, L't'd., 73 Market st.

Furniture, Carpets, Etc. Near Plane st., Newark, N. J.

Low Prices, Easy Terms. Goods delivered free to any part of State. Telephone 580.

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering.

Men's seamless half hose.....10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy.....2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black.....2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose.....10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes.....15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee.....18c
Large white cotton towels, only.....10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for.....$1.00

Spring Embroideries

WHY PAY MORE When You Can Get

Extra Philadelphia creamery butter, (in 1 lb prints).....22c
Full cream cheese, per lb.....10c
Soup beans, per quart.....7c
Dried green peas, per quart.....5c

Big reduction in teas and coffees; best qualities of tea reduced from 60c to 38c, 3 lbs for $1.00. Best Java and Mocha 31c per lb. Best Java combination coffee, our price 18c per lb, sold elsewhere for 25c and 28c.

FULPER'S, 207 West Front Street

Don't forget the number. Goods delivered in Dunellen.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

THE JURORS IN LUXURY.

SOMERSET FREEHOLDERS WONDER AT EXPENSE OF JOHNSON JURY.

A Bill of $6 From a Barber for Shaves—Freeholders Will Not Pay the Bills Until Itemized Accounts Are Given.

At the meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Somerset county, held on Friday last, with Director John C. Staats in the chair, the rural representatives of the nine different townships of that county were almost paralyzed with fright when the bills for the ease of the twelve jurors in the Johnson murder trial and the two constables who had them in charge, were read.

Consternation and surprise followed cold sweats from those of an economical mind when the bill of the proprietor of the Somerset House, John Willett, which is near the court house, was reached. Usually where a jury remains out overnight in Somerset county, a hamper containing crackers and cheese is provided them and the bill of John Willett's for five and one half days board and lodging for the twelve jurymen and the two constables, calling for $254, was more than a paralyzer.

The bill was ordered back to Mr. Willett, asking for an itemized account. How such an account could be contracted in so short a time was beyond their comprehension and the representatives of the county, in most parts of which a shave and a hair cut were almost unknown luxuries, were hardly prepared to hear a bill read for $6 from a Somerville barber.

Had the old ancient court house fallen in on them they could not have been more astonished. The members of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of old Somerset now understand that murder trials are luxuries.

A DECADE OF WEDDED LIFE.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Boehm Celebrate Their Tenth Wedding Anniversary.

The tehth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Boehm, of Somerset street and Grandview avenue, was celebrated yesterday afternoon and evening in a delightful manner. The guests were pleasantly entertained during the afternoon, after which all adjourned to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. Many handsome presents were received.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Mrs. and Miss Solomon, and Messers. J. Levy, I. Levy, A. Levy, and L. Levy, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. McVey, of Plainfield, and P. Metz, of New Market.

Another Murder Trial Started.

The trial of Nicholi Orchette, who killed the Italian sewer labor known as "Jack, No. 29," at Westfield, last fall, during a quarrel over a game of cards, was started at Elizabeth this morning in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge McCormick. After a few of the struck jury had been rejected, the following jurors were finally declared to be satisfactory by both sides: George H. Sanborn, John Stelle, William J. Biland, Peter H. Saeubreen, Dennis McGuire, Frank Hoplack, William H. Wellborn, George M. Miller, James Burnett, Samuel Robbins and Jacob Hyer.

Fourth Attack of the Grip.

Dr. G. H. Stephens, who is eighty-four years of age and one of the best-known men in Plainfield, is suffering with a fourth attack of the grip, which, owing to his advanced age and feeble condition, makes his condition rather serious. Many of his old friends will doubtless be sorry to hear that he is not financially as well off as one ought to be at four score years, and therefore not able to secure many little things that he should have in his present delicate condition. The Press trusts that his old acquaintances will not now forget him.

Grocer Fulper Assigns.

The grocery business of G.E. Fulper, 207 West Front street, has passed into the hands of Francis H.Leggett & Co., the New York wholesale grocers, by assignment, made on Friday of last week. The store has been leased to Vogeler the butcher, who will remove his business there on March first.

—It is reported that James Rabbitt Babbitt will apply for a liquor license tonight.

Many merchants are well aware that their customers are their best friends and take pleasure in supplying them with the best goods obtainable. As an instance we mention Perry & Cameron, prominent druggists of Flushing, Michigan. They say: "We have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our customers, as it is the best cough medicine we have ever sold, and always gives satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50c per bottle at Reynold's pharmacy, Park and North avenues, T. S. Armstrong, manager.

FUNERAL OF D. M. MOORE.

Large Attendance of Friends Showed Their Esteem for Him.

The very large attendance of friends at the funeral services of the late David M. Moore, held yesterday afternoon at 4 o clock in the Crescent Avenue church, was unmistakable evidence of the high esteem in which the decedent was held. The church quartette rendered an impressive selection after which Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards read the Scripture selection and spoke in substance as follows:

In Bible times the people were very apt to think that if a person passed away quickly it was anything but favorable, but God's word teaches us differently. If the Lord comes in the first, second or third watch it is blessed if we are ready. Of all the premature deaths of which we have record, that of Jesus Christ was the most. He was just entering upon the ministry with a life full of promise. There is a great deal of comfort needed today, for it is hard to reconcile ourselves. We are inclined to think that we could have given God counsel in this matter. We think he has made a mistake, and then we picture his home and business life and don't see how he can be spared. We think of him in the church and chapel. If God had taken our advice our brother would have remained many years. Today we need confirmation of our faith. Christ said, "It is expedient that I should go," and surely God makes no mistakes. It must have also been expedient that our brother should be called or else the Master would have kept him here.

A beautiful selection was then rendered by the quartette, and after Rev. J. O. McKelvey offered a touch prayer, they sang, "Sleep on Beloved," Dr. Richards pronounced the benediction.

While the remains were being carried from the church, an impressive funeral dirge was rendered on the organ by Mr. Smith.

The bearers were H. O. Newman, C. C. Tyler, Henry C. Squires, R. H. Cook, I. C. Pierson, and L. N. Lovell. Interment was in Hillside cemetery. Beside Mr. Moore's large Bible class being present, there were also a large number of friends from New York, personal friends of Mr. Moore. An opportunity was given early in the afternoon for the friends to view the remains at the house. There was a profusion of the choicest flowers, which had been sent by friends of the departed

A wreath of galax leaves, orchids and palm was a beautiful gift from E. R. Durkee, Mr. Moore's partner, and a handsome bunch of roses were given by the employes. The family floral piece was a wreath of galax leaves tied with broad bands of purple ribbon.

During the service Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," set to music by the organist of Westminster Abbey, was rendered by the quartette, and "Forever with the Lord," by Olmutz, a favorite selection of the departed, was also given by the quartette.

Both E. R. Durkee and the employes from New York were present at the funeral.

TRANSFERS AND CONTRACTS.

Plainfield Matters Recorded in the County Clerk's Office.

The following transfers of property have been recorded in the County Clerk's office from January 23d to 28th inclusive, as published in the New Jersey Contractor and Gazettee:

John Bates, Great Barrington, Mass., to Margaret McCarthy, Plainfield, lot, Second street, $1; W. G. E. See, special master, to Lewis W. Hulse, Goshen, N. Y., lots, Union avenue, Plainfield, $4,250; Joshua S. Salmon et ux, Boonton, Essex county, to John H. French, Plainfield, lot Union avenue, Plainfield, $800; Rosalie Casper and husband, Plainfield, to Charles Vermeule, lot, Third street, $500; W. A. Coddington, exr., Plainfield, to Chas. W. Park, Fanwood, 7 acres, Fanwood, $1; W. P. Smith, Plainfield, to Elizabeth P. Smith, Plainfield, two lots, Belvidere avenue, $1; Elizabeth P. Smith, to Georgianna H. Smith, Plainfield lots, Plainfield, $1; W. Palmer Smith, Plainfield, to Elizabeth P. Smith, two lots, Netherwood, $1; Elizabeth P. Smith to Georgianna H Smith, Plainfield, two lots, Netherwood, $1; William H. Caster, New Providence, to Louis Carter, Chicago, ten acres, North Plainfield, $250; Plainfield Real Estate Company, to Walter S. Arthur, lot, West Front street, Plainfield; Sarah G. Stevens, Hagerstown, Md., to Ella T. Slape, Plainfield, lot, Dunellen avenue, $1 200; Anna L. Beerbower and husband, Plainfield, to Thomas A. Rogers, Plainfield, lot, Front street, $450; Anna L. Beerbower to Alexander Sergeant, Plainfield, lot, Front street, $350; Sarah A. Dickenson, Jersey City, to John B. Mills, Plainfield, lot, Carleton avenue, Plainfield, $1,000; J. Fred McDowall, et ux., Hackensack, to Eugene W. Brokaw, Plainfield, four lots, Columbia avenue, Plainfield, $400.

The following contract has also been recorded:

Walter C. Arthur, Plainfield' with David Arthur, carpenter, mason, etc., West Fifth street, house Prescott place, $3,210.

The following property will be sold by Sheriff Kyte, Wednesday, February 5th:

Alfred H. Bird against John K. Vanness, Plainfield.

Where Donations Can Be Sent.

Donations for Hope chapel fair will be thankfully received by H. C. Squires, Watchung avenue; Mrs. G. K. Newell, West Fifth street; Mrs. S. R. Struthers, Central avenue; Amos Andrews, North avenue, or members of committee.

FURLOUGH FOR DR. LEWIS

HE WILL DEVOTE SIX MONTHS TO THE SABBATH TRACT SOCIETY.

His Duties to Be in the Line of Editorial Work in Advocacy of Seventh-day Observance—Will Not Leave His Home.

At a special meeting of the Seventh-day Baptist church held yesterday afternoon, the request of the Executive Board of the American Sabbath Tract Society, that Dr. Lewis be granted a furlough for six months to do some work for that society, was considered and granted. The proposed work is mainly of a literary character, including revision and additions to the literature published by the society from its office in the Babcock building, this city. This work has been made necessary by the changes which have taken place in the various movements and issues connected with the Sabbath question. The Doctor hopes to include in this revision a second edition of his "Critical History of the Sabbath and the Sunday in the Christian Church."

He will remain in Plainfield for the most part, without any change in his home surroundings. This "furlough" takes the place, for the present, of the plan which was proposed at the General Conference held here last August, to call Dr. Lewis entirely away from his church. It is not yet announced who will supply Dr. Lewis's pulpit during the furlough, which begins on the 10th of February. The church generously continues the pastor's salary as usual.

FORTY INDICTMENTS

And Two Presentments Brought in by the Grand Jury.

After being in session since the first Tuesday in January, and considering a very large number of cases, the Grand Jury came into court this morning at 10:30 o'clock, made their report, were thanked by Judge Van Syckle for attention to their duties and discharged.

There were forty bills of indictments and two presentments brought in, the two last being against the Board of Excise of Elizabeth, and six saloon keepers who had only been detected in violating the excise law on one occasion, which under the charge of the Judge was not sufficient for them to present an indictment. It is said that seventeen of the indictments are against Elizabeth saloon keepers for excise violations.

In the case of the Board of Excise the presentment set forth the law under the Werts act, which was construed to give the board the power of of a court, and the proceedings necessary to take in cases of violations of the laws which it is their duty to administer. It was their duty, so the presentment stated, to investigate all charges against saloon keepers and where they found that violations existed they should revoke the license and not grant another under a year. The reason the Board of Excise were not indicted was that no charges had been properly made to them, otherwise they would have been indicted.

BOTH WANTED FRONT SEATS.

Two Colored Brethren Go to Church and Land in the Rookery.

Two colored men visited the Colored M. E. church on West Fourth street last evening. They both wanted to get to the front and the anger of one rose because he thought the other was obstructing his way. They settled their difficulties outside, or started to when the law in the form of a blue-coated policeman appeared, and they were kindly assisted to the lock-up. This morning they appeared before City Judge De Meza and gave their names as Epie Wilson and William Henry Cox. They paid their fine of $10 in preference to going to jail for fifteen days.

For being drunk and disorderly around Elm place, John Burns received sixty days straight at Elizabeth.

The cider joints were responsible for the other culprit in the city court. Alonzo Smith drank too much of that beverage and began to make things rather lively on Cottage place. Before he had completely tore down the railroad embankment, he was arrested. He paid his fine of $3 and did not go to jail for ten days.

The Last a Pleasant One.

The last of the sociables in connection with the Industrial Fair to be held at Hope chapel, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton, 926 West Third street, Saturday night. There were about thirty present, who enjoyed the violin solos by Hugh Gray and vocal solos by some of the women present. Refreshments were served during the evening. These sociables have been very successful and the committee will meet the last of this week to count the receipts and make a report.

THE WORLD TO COME.

SUBJECT OF DR. YERKES AT TRINITY CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

Two Big Union Meetings Were Held Last Night—Rev. J. W. Richardson Preached in the Crescent Avenue Church.

There appears to be no diminution in the interest in the evangelistic meetings which have been held in this city for the last three weeks. On the contrary, the attendance seems larger than before. Last evening at the union services, while the Crescent Avenue church and Hope chapel were filled to overflowing, every seat in Trinity Reformed Church was filled, while some had to stand in the rear.

The service, at this church, opened with an anthem by the regular choir of the church. A portion of the eighteenth chapter of St. Luke, beginning with the twenty-second verse, was read by D. J. Yerkes, D. D. He took for his text, a phrase of the thirtieth verse of that chapter, "The world to come."

He said in part: The word, world, is used in various senses. In this case it is the age to come. I want to impress the importance of the world to come. Our body is of the earth, it returns dust to dust as it was. When we die and are done with this world, all that is peculiar to our physical body ceases. We go out from this physical existence to a spiritual world. The physical appears to dominate but, in the world to come, the spiritual will dominate. Some young men desire to be great in this world. The highest culture and power in this world is nothing in the world to come. The great things done in this world will not be great in God's eyes.

What soul in the world to come will feel the thrill of pleasures on this world? Neither success or misfortune on this earth will have anything to do with our condition on this earth.

There are only two ways that we can stand there and be acquitted. A perfect compliance with His laws, and a perfect belief and an attempt to follow Christ. The end may come suddenly, like a flash of lightning, and everyone must be ready to answer for himself. How many an humble son of Jesus Christ on this earth will be in high places up there. We know the consequences that inevitably follow good and bad conduct. You and I were made for that world. If we were made for this world we would remain here. This world is not the place for the expansion of our powers. Our goal is not reached in this world; it is up there. God has set before you and me the good and the evil. If we do not attain the good things of the future it is because of our own choice, for God opens the doors wide to us. Which is the most important, whether we set our thoughts of this earth or on those of up yonder? Will you choose tonight? We should give thanks for the beautiful things of this earth, but we should think more of the future. Whether we will be well enough in that world beyond depends on our standing with God. Eternal life, that's what we need. Oh, my hearer, think of the age to come! God sent His beloved Son to give you eternal life. Will you take it?

Rev. C. R. Barnes, D. D., followed with a few words in a similar strain, and closed with an earnest exhortation to his hearers to accept eternal life at once. Rev. Cornelius Schenck also spoke in a similar manner.

The union meeting held in the Crescent Avenue church, last evening, was one of the best thus far held. Every seat in the large edifice was taken. The Scripture lesson was read by Dr. Richards, and Rev.C. L. Goodrich offered prayer. As an offertory, the quartette sang, "O Lamb of God." Then Rev. J. W. Richardson took charge and announced as his text Matthew 27:22: "What Shall I Do With Jesus, Which is Called the Christ?"

A portion of his remarks were as follows: Pilate was only a man of the world, and as such he was a failure. Each heart is a court room, and each soul a judge. Tonight Jesus Christ stands before the door of each heart awaiting your judgment. He stands before you as he did before Pilate. What will you do with him? Your conscience appeals to Christ, but you say it will expose you to the world. Policy says better not, but you must decide. You have full knowledge and must pass judgment as to whether he is worthy of your confidence or not. The fact that Pilate washed his hands did not excuse him, Tonight the Son of the Living God is before you, and I hope you will not follow Pilate's example. How can you be unresponsive to His pleading. All you wish to be, He is. Is His crucifixion in this day nothing to you? It's a serious question, and what will you do? It is decidedly wrong to fear the criticism of our friends. You stand where Pilate did. Christ will not depart till you send Him away. It is not what you say so much as how you act.

There are no Jews here tonight to crucify Christ, but are there any here who will crucify him in their hearts? Christ is the only Saviour of mankind. He saves the soul all effects of sin. You may have a beautiful exterior, but your thoughts and desires may not be holy. Nothing sinful can enter the kingdom of God. There must be a change. Be honest with yourselves and decide now. Accept Christ and be saved. For 1900 years Christ's character has been under the microscope of human criticism, but not a blemish or stain can be found. Do you object to being saved? You will have to decide one way or the other. Will you crucify him? How will you treat Him tonight. You do need this Christ. He is adapted to all classes and places. What assurance have you, parents, that your children will meet you in heaven if the Lord Jesus Christ does not reign in your heart? If you reject Christ your children are likely to do the same, and the whole matter may rest on what you do tonight. Christ awaits your decision now. Be reasonable in your treatment of him. 1900 years ago he was uncrowned; now he is the crowned King with all the marks of royalty. What will you do with Jesus, which is called the Christ?

Dr. Richards closed with a brief prayer, after which E. E. Runyon and Mr. Lewis sang most impressively, "Some Day, Sometime."

After Rev. C. L. Goodrich pronounced the benediction a short aftermeeting was held in the chapel which was productive of much good.

Eighth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Titsworth, of 521 Madison avenue, celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary last Saturday evening with a home dinner, at which were gathered a number of relatives and friends. The decorations of the dining room were pink carnations. Among those present were Rev Dr. William A. Rice and daughter, of Westfield, who was pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, of Syracuse, at the time Mr. and Mrs. Titsworth were married, and who it was that tied the nuptial knot. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Page, of Brooklyn, Miss Page, of Baltimore, and several friends from Syracuse were also present.

A Century Old Chair.

Isaac A. Connett, of 203 Watchung avenue, is the proud possessor of an old-fashioned high back hickory chair, and was owned by his grandfather, Matthew Connett, who resided many years ago near the place known as Two Bridges, between Plainfield and Rahway. It is know to be considerably over a century old, and Mr. Connett prizes it so highly that he intends to replace the present worn-out cane bottom with a modern one, and after scraping the wood he will have it oiled and polished. It will then be put to use in the parlor of his home.

Auxiliaries of Salvation Army.

Plainfield will be well represented at the mass-meeting to be held in New York tonight at Carnegie Hall in the interests of Commander Ballington Booth and wife. The programme announces among the representatives of the auxiliaries on the platform, James McGee, Rev. W. R. Richards, Rev. H. K. Carroll, F. H. Andrews and Wm. D. Murray.

Who Has Old Relics?

Those who are in charge of the arrangements for the loan exhibition to be held at Hope chapel, desire any who may have articles which they deem worthy of exhibiting in the shape of relics of the Revolutionary period, medals, old coins, china, works of art, or manufacture, etc., to communicate with G. H. Fountain, of West Front street.

Delegates to the Turning Festival.

Charles Myer, Rudolph Speigel and Henry Sodour, of the Gesang and Turn Verein Society, of this city, were delegates to a meeting held in Newark, yesterday, to arrange for a prize turning festival to be held this summer. There were eleven societies represented. The festival will probably be held at Ridgewood Park, Brooklyn.

—Hood's Pill's cure nausea, sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. Sold by all druggists.

Secretary Harry Manning, of the Y. M. C. A., is attending a conference of secretaries in Newark today.

For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief. This is specially valuable in cases where the pain is caused by a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale at Reynold's pharmacy, Park and North avenues, T. S. Armstrong, manager.

BOBBING UP FOR OFFICES

HUNDREDS OF CLAIMANTS FOR FORTY OR MORE STATE PLACES.

Probable Work of the Legislature for the Week—Anti-Race Track Crusaders to Push a Prohibitive Amendment.

Today or Tuesday it is expected that Senator Voorhees's bill to simplify the form of bills and a numbering of laws will pass the Assembly and open the blockade against legislation, says the Sun. The law is to go into immediate effect, and to proceed with legislation with it pending would make it necessary to reprint and re-engross all bills acted upon, but not approved by the Governor before the approval of the Voorhees bill. It was suggested that the bill be changed to make it operative next year, in order that the work of the present session might not be delayed, but Senator Voorhees thought the reform should be effected now and that course was adopted. Because of the Voorhees bill, a number of measures, including some of importance, have been held back.

This afternoon Gov. Griggs will begin his second weekly seance with the office-holders. These are likely to continue as long as there is an office to be filled. The Governor has said that he does not consider it his duty to hurry the appointments in order to avoid the importunities of office-seekers, and that he will give to every applicant a hearing before filling the office for which he is a candidate. The number of offices which the Governor can fill this year is just forty nine, and the number of applicants runs into the hundreds. The offices range from a Supreme Court Judge to succeed Justice Dixon, with a salary of $9,000, down to manager of State institutions, who served without salary and at some expense to themselves. There are about a dozen offices in that class, leaving less than forty positions of profit. Nothing like the swarm of Republican office-seekers who were here last week has ever been seen here before.

At one time on Tuesday there were nearly a hundred of them waiting in the Executive Chamber for an opportunity to speak to the Governor. Among the applicants are men who have not been heard of in politics in a score of years, and others who have never done work for the party, but all want office in this era of promised reform. The places most sought after are the prison keepership and the chief inspectorship of factories and workshops, for which nearly every county has at least one applicant. For the prison keepership the list includes an ex Congressman, Senators, ex-Senators Assemblymen and ex-Assemblymen, ex Sheriffs, and those of less degree, while the seekers for the factory inspectorship are mainly Assemblymen ahd ex-Assemblymen.

The report circulated last week that a race-track bill, based on the Grey law in New York, would be introduced during the session had no basis, so far as can be learned, beyond the presence here of two or three Jerseymen interested in racing; but the rumor was sufficient to excite the Rev. Dr. Kempshall, President of the Citizens' League and leader of the anti-race track crusade in recent years. He has induced Senator Voorhees to promise to introduce a resolution this week recommitting the Legislature against race-track legislation, and an effort will be made to have the Legislature adopt the Constitutional amendment that was adopted last year prohibiting such legislation.

The proposed amendment is one of a number, including one reorganizing the higher courts and abolishing the lay Judges therein. The proposed constitution of the Court of Errors and Appeals is not satisfactory to many lawyers who prefer a court made of Judges who hear no other causes but those on appeal. An attempt is being made to agree upon an amendment satisfactory to all, and delay submission to the people, until next year in order that all might be voted upon then; but the race track agitation may induce action this year on the amendments to which there is no opposition, and thereby postpone the reformation of the courts for five years.

—The annual budget of applications for saloon licenses will be presented to the Common Council tonight.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowls, of Hollands, Va., has to say below will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had la grippe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle at Reynold's pharmacy, Park and North avenues, T. S. Armstrong, manager.

GOSSIP FROM BERLIN

Relations Between England and Germany Still Strained.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE MAY BE BROKEN

Efforts of John Bull To Draw Italy Into Russo-Turkey Compact—The Kaiser Abandons His Proposed Yachting Trip.

Berlin, Feb. 3.—The relations between the governments of Germany and Great Britain have not shown any signs of improvement within the last few days, and particularly since it became known that the diplomatic efforts of the latter have been directed toward involving Italy in the arrangement between Russia and Turkey, in an agreement independent of her present allies. The treaty binding the triple alliance—Austria, Germany and Italy—will fall renewable in 1897. Hitherto Germany and Austria have had no reason to suppose that there would be any change which would cause Italy to desire to alter the terms of the Dreibund pact, but within the last two weeks Signor Crispi, prime minister of Italy, is reported to have sent instructions to the Italian ambassadors at Vienna and Berlin to sound the respective governments to which those diplomats are accredited as to their views in regard to important modifications of the responsibilities of Italy under the conditions of the present treaty, and as the result of Crispi's correspondence with his representatives at foreign courts Count Nigra, Italian ambassador to Austria, an ardent supporter of the triple alliance, has gone to Rome to influence the maintenance of the Dreibund. In official circles here no alarm is felt that Italy's entire withdrawal from the terms of the treaty upon its expiration will be sought and accomplished.

Foreign Affairs Critical.

The critical condition of foreign affairs has altered the plans which the emperor had made for his spring outing. According to his present programme, he has abandoned his notion of going to the Mediterranean on a yachting trip, and the empress has also given up her sojourn at Abaggia. The kaiser on Thursday had a long conference at the foreign office with Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, minister of foreign affairs, and he also had a prolonged interview on Friday with M. Szogyeny-Marich, the Austrian ambassador.

German Women Want More Power.

According to the Berlin Post, the reform of the military laws which has been promised will not be brought before the reichstag this session. The time of that body will be absorbed by consideration of the civil code. An active agitation is proceeding among the German women with the object of obtaining the redress of grievance which the present code ignores, and it is the intention of the leaders of the movement to petition the reichstag for the introduction of clauses in the code which will concede to married women power to dispose of their own property without requiring the consent of their husbands. It is also sought on behalf of married women that they may absolutely control their own estate and use the earnings thereof as they may see fit. As the law stands at present the women of Germany are distinctly inferior in position to the males. It is not believed that the reichstag will grant the demands of the petition as the advocates of women's rights are chiefly found in the ranks of the socialists.

Anecdote Anent the Kaiser.

The fetes which took place on the occasion of the thirty-seventh birthday of the kaiser on Jan. 27 gave the old Berlin aldermen an opportunity to relate how the emperor's father, Kaiser Frederick III., when he was crown prince, invited a deputation of the aldermanic body then in office to come to the palace to see his baby son and heir, the present emperor. The story as told is that the babe was carried by the crown prince and was passed along the line of the deputation. Attracted by the brightness of the gold chains worn by the aldermen, the infant seized one of them and held the chain tightly, compelling the obese alderman to follow along the line until its father released its hold. As the little one was forced to relinquish his hold upon the chain he raised his hand in anger and at the same time set up a roar of rage, whereupon his father said: "You see a real Hohenzollern. What he once seizes hold of he never lets go."

Americans Arrested in Germany.

Among the persons arrested in Hamburg for an attempt to rob the North German bank in that city are three Americans. Two of them gave their names as Titts, claiming to be brothers, and the other gave the name of Taylor. All of them claim to be commission merchants in New York.

SUICIDE OF A WEALTHY WOMAN.

Mrs. Schwartz Turned on the Gas, Drank Laudanum and Then Shot Herself.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Angusta Schwartz, a wealthy widow, after suffering with neuralgia and grief over the loss of her husband committed suicide at her residence yesterday. She opened all the gas jets in her room, drank a quantity of laudanum and then placed the muzzle of a revolver in her mouth and sent a bullet crashing through her brain.

The Hyams Leave Canada.

Buffalo, Feb. 3.—Harry and Dallas Hyams, acquitted on the charge of murder, and held at Toronto on several minor charges, and who were released on bail yesterday, arrived in this city last night. It is not expected that they will return to Canada.

HIS UTTERANCES CONDEMNED.

Rev. Mr. Casson's Attack on the President Not Upheld in Lynn.

Lynn, Mass., Feb. 3.—The sensational utterances of Rev. Herbert N. Casson at the services in the Lynn Labor church yesterday, when the minister condemned the administration of President Cleveland in the strongest terms, and the resolutions endorsing Senator Tillman, are generally disapproved here. The speaker commented upon the recent action of Senator Tillman and said that his address and actions in the senate would never fade in the history of this country. The following are the resolutions which were unanimously adopted at the services: "Resolved, That we heartily endorse the brave and patriotic words of Senator Tillman; that we believe his charges against the democratic and republican leaders to be true and easily proven, and that we pledge ourselves to uphold him and his few colleagues so long as they defend the rights of the people against the legal tyrannies and embezzlements of the rich."

EIGHT KILLED. SIXTY WOUNDED.

Roof of a Catholic Church in France Falls on the Worshipers.

Paris, Feb. 3.—A terrible accident, resulting in the killing of eight persons and the wounding of sixty, occurred yesterday at Manlevrier, a village near Angers, in the department of Maine-et-Loire. The accident was due to the collapse of the village church in which mass was being celebrated. The structure was comfortably filled, most of the worshipers being women and children. Suddenly, and with very little warning, the walls began to sway, and before the congregation could get outside fell. The roof descended upon the struggling throng beneath, and it is surprising that no more than eight persons were killed. The condition of some of the injured is so serious that it is feared they will die.

BAYARD POPULAR IN ENGLAND.

A London Paper Regrets That He Is To Be Censured for His Speeches.

London, Feb. 3.—In its issue to-day the Daily News says it regrets the action of the committee on foreign relations of the American house of representatives in adopting a resolution censuring Ambassador Bayard for the statements uttered by him in his recent speeches at Edinburgh and Boston. It adds that Mr. Bayard is exceedingly popular here, yet he is a persistent defender of American interests. The paper admits that his speeches contained unusual attacks upon the commercial system of his own government, but says that it hopes he will not retire, seeing that the resolution of censure was adopted by a purely party vote.

THREW THEM FROM THE ROOF.

How a Father Saved His Children from Death in a Burning Building.

New York, Feb. 3.—While a fire was in progress in Rivington street yesterday, Joseph Kushner threw his four children from the roof of his house to the roof of an adjoining building, a fall of about thirty feet. Bertha, 8 years old, a cripple, had one of her legs broken. The others suffered from shock, but were otherwise uninjured. Mrs. Kushner, who tried to slide down a wire clothesline, fell when part way down and broke both legs. The father afterwards jumped, but suffered no injury.

B. & O. REORGANIZATION.

Elevation of C. O. Scull to the Position of Traffic Manager.

Pittsburg, Feb. 3.—A local railroad official is quoted as saying that the reorganization of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad includes the elevation of Chas. O. Scull, general passenger agent, to the position of passenger traffic manager of the system. The change will then make J. P. Schryver, now assistant general passenger agent, the general passenger agent at Washington.

SULLIVAN RECOVERING.

He May Be Able To Rejoin His Company To-morrow.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 3.—John L. Sullivan is recovering. The inflammation in his wound is subsiding and he eats and sleeps well. Dr. Ryan, his attending physician, thinks that if no unfavorable symptoms develop Sullivan will be able to leave here to-morrow to rejoin his company.

Shooting Affair at Scranton.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 3.—As a result of a quarrel on Sherman avenue last night John Learsen, a Swede, shot Charles Johnson, son of the woman with whom he boarded, and was himself mortally wounded with his own gun in the hands of Johnson.

Shut Down To Take Stock.

Providence, Feb. 3.—The William A. Harris Steam Engine Co., which made an assignment on Friday, closed its doors this morning and will remain closed until Wednesday for the purpose of taking account of stock.

Died in a Portland Hospital.

Portland, Me., Feb. 3.—Dr. S. T. Ellis, traveling inspector for the Equitable Life Insurance company of New York, died of typhoid fever last night at the Maine general hospital in this city.

Death of Col. W. C. Knight.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 3.—Col. William C. Knight, father-in-law of Gov. O'Ferrall, died in this city last evening, at an advanced age. He was a well-known writer on agricultural topics.

Grand Duchess Oldenburg Dead.

Berlin, Feb. 3.—Elizabeth, Grand Duchess of Oldenburg, died yesterday. She was a daughter of Prince Joseph of Saxe-Altenburg, and was born on March 26, 1826.

WORK IN CONGRESS

Matters Likely To Be Considered During the Present Week.

NO SESSION OF THE SENATE TO-DAY

Course of Procedure May Depend Upon Action of Finance Committee Upon the Tariff Bill—Jones' Action Still in Doubt.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The senate is not in session to-day, having adjourned over from Saturday until to-morrow. It has no unfinished business before it, and consequently the course of procedure during the week may depend largely upon the action of the committee on finance upon the tariff bill. Republicans hope to be able to report that measure to-morrow, but Mr. Jones of Nevada, who holds the balance of power in the committee and who has insisted upon the sugar schedule being raised in the same proportion as the other schedules, stated on Saturday that he thought the bill would not be ready to report on Tuesday. This was said some hours after the free silver amendment had passed the senate, and is therefore regarded as indicating that Mr. Jones' opposition to the speedy reporting of the tariff bill has something besides silver back of it. Mr. Dubois has kept his resolution providing for a distribution of the appropriation bills among the various committees in the background, because of his desire not to antagonize the silver bill. That being now out of the way, it is not unlikely that he may call this resolution up at an early day. The Cuban resolutions reported last week and the Davis resolution on the Monroe doctrine, both of which are on the calendar, may possibly be taken up, and if so will afford abundant opportunity for debate. The majority and minority reports in the Dupont case, involving the seat of a senator from Delaware, will be called up as a privileged question by Mr. Mitchell, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, at the first opportunity. For routine matters the senate has urgent deficiency and pension appropriation bills ready for consideration. Neither of them is likely to call for any great amount of discussion.

House of Representatives.

When the bond sale bill with the senate's free coinage amendment is reported in the house of representatives this afternoon it will probably be referred to the committee on ways and means, and if so, to-morrow, when that committee meets, it will undoubtedly recommend non-concurrence in the senate amendment. But whether or not this bill so amended shall be permitted at once to engage the attention of the house to the exclusion of other business has not been determined. The probabilities are said to be that it will be sent to conference without much debate, and the house will proceed with the appropriation bills. The District of Columbia appropriation bill came up this morning as unfinished business for further, and it is hoped, final consideration. The agricultural appropriation bill is already on the calendar and the Indian and military bills are waiting to be reported from the committees having charge of their preparation. The foreign affairs committee will be ready at some time during the week to report the resolution censuring Ambassador Bayard for his speeches at Edinburgh and Boston, England, and an interesting debate will doubtless occur when that matter is called up for action.

MORE TROUBLE FOR MINERS.

General Return of Disagreeable Conditions Looked for in Pennsylvania.

Pittsburg, Feb. 3.—The district executive board of the United Mine workers has adopted resolutions notifying the men to continue work until the joint committee of operators and miners meet to act on the circular just issued by President Dearmitt of the New York & Cleveland Gas Coal company. This meeting will probably be held early this week, and their decision is anxiously awaited. In some quarters it is feared there will be no end of trouble and a general return of disagreeable conditions within the next few months as a result of the recent declaration of President Dearmitt to return to the fifty-nine cents a ton rate, instead of paying the "uniformity" rate of fifty-four cents a ton.

Albany Feels Slighted.

Albany, Feb. 3.—Hon. John Boyd Thacher, mayor of Albany, has sent a letter to Senator Hill asking him to suggest to the proper authorities that Albany is the second oldest incorporated municipality in the country and since the nomenclature of cities is drawn upon for bestowing names upon our new cruisers that the name of this ancient city might with propriety be given to the next completed vessel.

Threatened with Total Blindness.

Cincinnati, Feb. 3.—"Deacon" Richard Smith, president of the board of supervisors, known the country over by newspaper men, is threatened with blindness. He is troubled with a cataract.

Silent but Certain

There is no discomfort, no disturbance of business or pleasure, no loss of sleep, after taking Hood's Pills. They assist digestion, so that natural, healthy habit is brought about. Hood's Pills are silent but nevertheless certain in their effect. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. 25c. Sold by all druggists.

Take HOOD'S PILLS only

A BOSTON GIRL'S LIFE

Saved from Ruin and Despair by the Timely Aid of a Noted Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Is there anything more truly pathetic than the cry for help that springs from the anguished heart of a young girl—a beautiful girl who sees ahead only suffering and uncerainty?

But oh, what joy and gladness her young heart pours forth when she realizes that her dreaded enemy, the blasting influence, is gone,—banished forever.

This sunshine and joy is now the happy portion of Miss Florence ——— of Beacon Street, Boston.

She often tells of her suffering from the suppression of the menses. The pain was excruciating. The doctors, instead of removing the cause of her ailment, plied her each month with morphine to prevent convulsions; but the trouble was permitted to exist.

When she could endure no more,—prostration was imminent and future hopeless,—her family procured a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which, surprising to all, rapidly and permanently cured her.

In writing to Mrs. Pinkham, pouring forth her gratitude and happiness, she says: "Oh! that I could make every suffering woman try your valuable medicine! How they would bless you!"

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.

Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

A. Lusardi,
120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p. m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

GEO. O. STEVENS COAL 747 WEST FRONT ST.

Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of
LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp railroad station.

Your Valuables
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

The Columbia Bicycle
Pad Calendar
For 1896

YOU NEED IT.

A Desk Calendar is a necessity—most convenient kind of storehouse for memoranda. The Columbia Desk Calendar is brightest and handsomest of all—full of dainty pen sketches and entertaining thoughts on outdoor exercise and sport. Occasionally reminds you of the superb quality of Columbia Bicycles and of your need of one. You won't object to that, of course. The Calendar will be mailed for five 2-cent stamps.

Address Calendar Department,
POPE MANUFACTURING CO.,
HARTFORD, CONN.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. t.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF
OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,
88 FIFTH AVE.,
near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,
132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED
Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

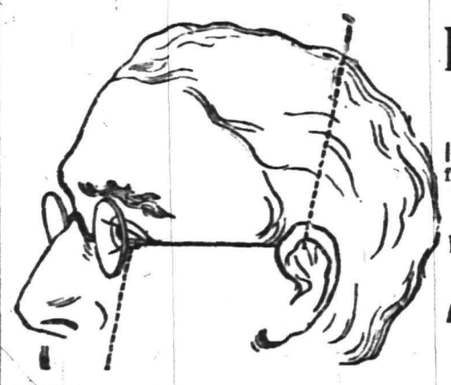
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,
EYE SPECIALISTS.
1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.
Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at
107 East Front Street,
Dunham's real estate office,
EVERY THURSDAY
from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate
For sale or to let.
MONEY
to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
108 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
220 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Special Sled Prices.

32c	Redeced From	43cts.
36c	"	48cts.
56c	"	75cts.
71c	"	95cts
73c	"	97cts.
94c	"	$1.25.

R. C. Rand, 140 W. Front st

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

Edwin B. Maynard,
Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply: testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair prices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters etc., Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

DOLLS. DOLLS. DOLLS.
Dressed and Undressed. All the latest styles of Wooden and Iron Toys.
HARPER'S,
411 Park Avenue.

Furs, Capes and Jackets
to be sold until Feb. 1st, at 50c on the dollar. We offer this inducement previous to storing goods away.
H. KOHN,
318 West Front st.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

Pure. Safe.
Prompt. Sure.
Pleasing. Speedy.
Allcock's Porous Plaster
is all this and more, too. The best external remedy known for every form of ache or pain resulting from colds, coughs, sprains, strains, rheumatism or neuralgia.
Never be Satisfied with any but ALLCOCK'S. Be not deceived by misrepresentations
Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills
relieve indigestion, bowel, liver and kidney trouble. Absolutely pure.

TRY IT ON.
There is such a large assortment of rings—plain, fancy, with setting and without—to be seen at Collier's, that a selection is a little difficult. But you are quite certain to get one finally that will afford you satisfaction.
103 PARK AVE.
Established 1869.

An Open Door
in this wintry weather is dangerous. A slamming door is a nuisance. The ECLIPSE CHECK AND SPRING closes doors and keeps them closed—without noise, too. Simple, durable easily applied and adjusted Sample at our store.
A. M. GRIFFEN,
119 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

ADVANCE OF REBELS

Remarkable Gains Made in Pinar del Rio Province.

PRACTICALLY IN THEIR CONTROL NOW

Maceo's Men Number 5,000 and All Are Mounted, Armed and in Good Condition—Not Fleeing from the Spaniards as Reported.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Havana, Jan. 29, via Tampa, Fla., Feb. 3.—Only brief items about insurgent operations in Pinar del Rio, the most westerly of Cuba's five provinces, have been cabled from here. Taken separately, they give only a vague idea of what has occurred during the past three weeks. Now that the conquest of the province has practically been completed, a review of the campaign may not be uninteresting. It will be remembered that when Maximo Gomez and Antonio Maceo with two large columns of mounted men invaded Havana province, coming almost to the gates of the capital city, and burning canefields, destroying railway bridges, stations and cars all over the province, that the two rebel leaders separated at the Pinar del Rio line. Gomez passed the line of troops thrown across the island south of this city, and Maceo began the conquest of the eastern province.

Maceo's Strong Force.

Spanish official reports have had him fleeing before the columns of Gen. Inque, Gen. Navarro and Gen. Arizon, being driven toward the jumping off place at the west end of the island. As a matter of fact he entered the province with 2,000 men, and he now has 5,000. All are mounted, armed and well equipped. He also has plenty of ammunition. He obtained 11,000 rounds at Cabanas and a large quantity at Guane. He captured one mule train containing 100,000 rations on its way from Coloma to Pinar del Rio city, and food has been scarce in the capital ever since. At San Cristobal, one of the first towns entered, Maceo found the houses covered with white flags in token of surrender. He was welcomed with cheers. He rested one day, added forty volunteers to his army and marched on, after hoisting a Cuban flag on the town hall and appointing a local government, including alcalde, secretary, etc.

Rebels Feted by the Residents.

At Palacios, Danos, Consolacion del Sur and nearly a score of other towns the same scenes were repeated until Mantua, the most western town of any importance, was reached. Here the inhabitants gave a ball in honor of the invading army, and Maceo stood as godfather to a newly-born child. These are a few of the incidents which the press censor eliminated from cablegrams to the United States. He permitted an account of the only serious engagement of the campaign in Pinar del Rio to be sent, but made it appear as a Spanish victory, when, as a matter of fact, Maceo captured the convoy of 100,000 rations, which the troops sent out of the capital to protect. Maceo probably had, all told, twenty-five men killed and fifty wounded in the conquest of the western province.

Work Stopped in Santa Clara Province.

From Cienfuegos comes news of insurgent doings in the province of Santa Clara. Business is at a standstill in all cities, railroads operate only when trains are guarded by detachments of troops, the grinding of sugar cane on all but one of the vast estates in that region has been stopped, and the will of the insurgents is law. An American mining prospector, who had a quantity of ore which he wished shipped to New York for assay, was told that his people would be shot if they attempted to haul the ore to the railroad. One lumber merchant who sent out a load of lumber after receiving a similar warning had his driver shot. Mills that had prepared to grind sugar were threatened with destruction if Gomez's order was disobeyed. On the other hand, the government talked about removing the small detachments of troops distributed among the plantations unless the latter began grinding. The owners of the estates are between the devil and the deep sea. J. FRANK CLARK.

Several Insurgents Killed.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Senor de Lome, the Spanish minister, has just received the following dispatch from Havana under yesterday's date: A detachment of the Espana battalion was attacked in Buena Ventura, province of Havana, by the enemy, who were repulsed with a loss of six men. Early in the morning of yesterday the column of Col. Vicuna in the Carlota plantation at Jovellanos, province of Matanzas, defeated part of the band of Lucret, killing five men. A detachment employed in repairing the railroad in Quintana, near Cardenas, province of Matanzas, defeated a band of forty men, killing one and wounding three others. The troops had one man seriously wounded. The advance guard of the commander-in-chief's column, on its way from Quibican to Guira de Molena, exchanged shots with the scouts of the enemy, killing one and taking one prisoner. Gen. Marin supposes that Maximo Gomez is to the south of his forces, detained by the commander-in-chief's operations.

SUAREZ VALDEZ,
Acting Governor-General.

Meeting of the Order of Berith Abraham.

New York, Feb. 3.—Four hundred and fifty delegates, representing every state in the union, of the Independent Order of Berith Abraham, met in convention at the Lyceum opera house last evening. The order is a charitable one. Edward Kohn was elected grand master.

MAY FLOAT TO-NIGHT

Wreckers Are Confident of Getting the St. Paul Off.

A FEW MORE TIDES ARE NECESSARY

Long Branch Crowded with Visitors Yesterday—Ate the Town Out of Provisions—Many Came from Philadelphia.

Long Branch, N. J., Feb. 3.—The wreckers in charge of the work of attempting to float the American line steamship St. Paul expressed confidence this morning that the great ocean palace would be pulled off the bar with two or three more tides, possibly to-night. Just what they base their theory on no one seems to know. Capt. Merritt, one of those in charge of floating the ship, says that she is below the sand in sticky clay, making it exceedingly hard to move her. She is in the sand and clay at least six feet, and at low tide her screws are out of water.

Crowds Visit the "Branch."

Long Branch, in its palmiest days, never saw larger crowds than those which have visited the "Branch" since the St. Paul has been aground. The crowds all week were considered very large, but that of yesterday exceeded anything ever seen here in midwinter. A conservative estimate places the number of sightseers at 25,000. The Pennsylvania railroad ran eight excursion trains from Philadelphia, but they could not accommodate the people who wanted to see the stranded steamer. Among the sightseers were hundreds of the employes of Cramps' shipyards, where the St. Paul was built. The chief engineer of the yards was one of the number. Two special trains were run from New York, and the trolley cars from Asbury Park brought thousands of passengers. Farmers drove in from the country, liverymen had all their rigs hired out, and bicycle riders were out in large numbers.

Not Enough Food for Sightseers.

Long Branch did not expect such a gathering, and as a result the accommodations were exceedingly poor. Restaurants ran out of edibles before 1 o'clock and were compelled to turn thousands away hungry. Some of the sightseers had wisely brought lunch with them, and in some cases they shared with their unfortunate friends. When it was seen that the restaurants could not entertain the visitors the bakeries and grocery stores were thrown open and did a land office business selling cakes, crackers and cheese. Boys selling pictures of the St. Paul coined money. Professional crooks mingled with the crowd on shore and got away unmolested. Several persons reported the loss of watches, pocket books and jewelry to the police. The fishermen were coining money rowing persons around the ship.

THE MURDER OF MRS. GRANT.

Boston Police Hard at Work on the Case. Arrest of Mrs. Quinlan.

Boston, Feb. 3.—The police are hard at work on the Grant murder case. Mrs. Sophia Grant was killed sometime before 11 o'clock last Saturday night at her home on Brighton street, Charlestown. It is was first believed that the murder was accompanied by robbery. Every drawer in the rooms on the floor on which the murder was committed, the second, was turned topsy turvey and in several instances the contents were scattered over the floor. The police believed that the murderer rummaged through the different articles in the room first, and that, being detected in his work by Mrs. Grant, he chased her into the kitchen and dealt her the death blows. That the woman had retired, and was suddenly aroused by the presence of the intruder, was also evidenced by the fact that she was clad only in a night robe when killed. Mrs. Grant has been housekeeper for her single brother, Augustus McLeod, since she left her husband, and was at first believed to have been alone in the house at the time of the murder.

The Murdered Woman's Sister Arrested.

Mrs. Ida Quinlan, aged 25 years, the sister of the murdered woman, is under arrest on suspicion. Stains of a suspicious character were found on the dress she wore Saturday night. The police claim that they are in the possession of other facts that throw suspicion upon Mrs. Quinlan. Mrs. Quinlan and her husband separated about four months ago and it is said that Mrs. Grant was partly to blame for the separation, owing to her efforts to convert Mrs. Quinlan to A. P. Aism. H. W. Grant, husband of the murdered woman, is janitor of a building in Providence, R. I. He voluntarily reported to the Boston police last night and satisfactorily accounted for his whereabouts the night before. He was not detained. Mrs. Quinlan complained of being ill after being locked up. The doctor who was summoned stated that he thought she was in a state bordering on delirium tremens.

To Overthrow Hohenlohe.

London, Feb. 3.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that the agrarian, conservative and Bismarck parties have entered into a scheme to overthrow Chancellor von Hohenlohe, who does not favor the emperor's proposals for increasing the naval strength of the empire.

Prof. Luther Will Not Leave Trinity.

Hartford, Feb. 3.—Prof. Fiaval S. Luther, of Trinity college, has decided not to accept the presidency of Kenyon college, Gambier, O., to which he was recently elected. He will remain at Trinity.

BIG FIRES!

Great Fires Are Constantly Burning.

Still They Will Go Out in Time if Not Replenished—Food is Fuel for the Body.

History records the occurrence of most disastrous fires. A few times our own country has been visited in this way with tremendous force. Yet how insignificant they seem when compared to the raging fires of the sun. A recent writer in one of our monthly journals, illustrates the enormous heat which the sun gives out, as follows: he says that if all the coal which exists on this globe could be placed in one mass, and then immediately burned up, it would not produce as much heat as the sun throws off into space in one-tenth of a second. Of course, we cannot comprehend what this means, But there is another fire constantly burning, of which many of us are not aware, although we live very close to it.

We all know that the human body is warmer than the surrounding atmosphere; while during cold weather the difference is very marked. What keeps the body warm? Because it is constantly burning up.

We replenish the fire in the stove by adding more coal or wood. The oxygen of the air unites with this fuel and heat is produced. The fuel for the body is our food; and the oxygen obtained from the air we breathe combines with it and heat is produced. This heat is constantly escaping from the skin. During summer we dress lightly to aid its escape. During winter we put on flannels, because wool is not a good conductor of heat, and will not allow it to escape so freely from the surface of the body.

If a person is plump in flesh, that is, if he has a layer of fat just beneath the skin, he has a medium which holds in the heat of the body, as a layer of wool does when placed on the outside of the skin. Persons who are plump in flesh do not shiver with every cool, invigorating breeze. Neither do they require so much food, for as the heat cannot escape so readily, so it is not necessary to add as much fuel. Plumpness means protection; defense against coughs and colds; shelter for an escape from neuralgia and sciatica; a shield to throw off nervous prostration; better security from the germs of consumption; an escape from a thousand aches and pains which cling to a body that is poorly nourished. Plumpness is prosperity, thrift, good nature, happiness.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites will not make you over-fat, simply plump, just about right. It puts that coat of fat over the body, pushes up the skin, and removes wrinkles and angles.

Scott's Emulsion contains more pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil than any other emulsion in the world, that will stand the test of time as being a perfect inseparable emulsion. Ask your doctor.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Interest in the Proceedings This Week Centres in the Senate.

Albany, Feb. 3.—The interest in legislation during the present week will probably be confined to the senate side of the capitol, where the consideration of new rules will be the subject of much discussion. The bill which provides for reciprocity in insurance matters with foreign countries, which is aimed especially at the Prussian insurance companies, will come up in both houses this week and will probably be passed and go to the governor the latter part of the week. The general hearings upon the excise question, which have extended since the first week of the session, are completed. There was never a question discussed in the legislature which has received the consideration that the excise question has this session at the hands of the senate committee.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY TO RETIRE.

Believed Now That Sexton Will Lead the anti-Parnellites.

London, Feb. 3.—The meeting of the anti-Parnellite section of the Irish parliamentary party to discuss the selection of a leader in room of Justin McCarthy, who, it is said, will retire from the leadership this week, will be held in Dublin on March 8. Mr. McCarthy's retirement is attributed solely to his declining health and arrears of work. It is the opinion now that Thomas Sexton, who represents North Kerry in the house of commons, will be selected to lead the party.

AN ODD SENTENCE.

Burr Must Attend Thirty Temperance Meetings or Go to Jail.

Burlington, N. J., Feb. 3.—On a charge of drunkenness, Charles Burr was sentenced by Magistrate Smith to attend thirty meetings of the temperance rescue organization, which is now holding meetings here. For every meeting which Burr fails to attend he will be compelled to serve a day in the county jail. Mr. Dennis, manager of the mission, was present at the time of the sentence, and Burr was given into his charge.

Philadelphia's $1,000,000 Fire.

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—The loss by yesterday's conflagration which destroyed the Hazleton building and the American Baptist Publication society's seven story building and damaged the Le Boutillier dry goods store and Hotel Lafayette was this morning placed at $1,000,000.

Boodle Alderman Taken to Prison.

New Orleans, Feb. 3.—After exhausting every legal device and quibble, Numa Duboussat, one of the convicted boodle councilmen, was last evening taken to Baton Rouge and placed in the penitentiary to serve his one year sentence.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

106 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 3, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Rain or Snow Tonight and Tuesday Warmer Tonight.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 33 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 3—Common Council meets.
February 3—English Lutheran services in the German Lutheran church.
February 3—Board of Education meet.
February 4—Supper of Warren Engine Company.
February 4—Lecture by Dr. Riggs in Crescent Avenue church.

At the present rate of progress the Legislature will be noted for what it has not done.

"A Democrat Elected" was the rather startling head on a piece of news in a New York paper this morning. The Democrat was from Kentucky.

It is expected that Senator Voorhees will introduce in the Senate tonight a bill providing that a salary of $6,000 be paid to the Clerk in Chancery and of the Supreme Court.

And still the St. Paul sticks in Jersey sand. It seems almost impossible that in this age of science and invention that the human mind can devise no means by which the big steamer can be hauled away from her perilous position. What a pity it will be if she goes to pieces.

Governor Griggs, of New Jersey, will entertain Governor O'Ferral, of Virginia, and sixty of the legislators of that State tomorrow. The Virginia delegation visits New Jersey for the object of inspecting the various stone roads around Trenton. Virginia is about to follow in the footsteps of New Jersey, and give road building a new encouragement by offering liberal State aid.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

August Huntington, of Yale, spent Sunday at his home on Franklin place.

Edward Waring, of Lehigh University, spent several days at his home on Willow avenue.

Miss Milicent Hinkley, of Syracuse, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Titsworth, of 521 Madison avenue.

E. S. Swalm, son of Charles Swalm, of this city, will assist in the rendition of a cantata at Hempstead, L. I., on Thursday evening of this week.

Miss Emily Banta, Miss Anna Hardenberg, Charles E. Lewis and E. E. Runyon, composing the Crescent Avenue church quartette, were delightfully entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. A. H. Atterbury, on East Ninth street, Saturday evening.

John T. Case, of Vine street, attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Ann Smith, widow of the late Peter Smith, on Saturday, at her home in Phillipsburg. She was a devout Christian woman and for the past three years had made her home with her brother, John T. Case, where she helped to cheer and comfort the sick and helpless wife who passed away but a short time ago.

Death of a Well-Known Man.

Isaac Van Alst Brower died at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. D. M. Demarest, yesterday morning, from Bright's disease. He was in his eightieth year. He was born at New York where he engaged in the importing of mahogany and other precious woods until 1853, when he retired. He soon after purchased a farm at Millstone and lived there until the death of his wife, last March, and then in June came to Plainfield. He was a member of the Unitarian church. He was an ardent Republican and was well known throughout the State.

Loan Exhibition Dates Set.

The committee from the Plainfield Camera Club in charge of the coming loan exhibition met Saturday night and decided to hold the exhibition from March 16th to 22th, inclusive. On March 14th a conversazione will be held for the benefit of the exhibitors, newspaper men and specially invited guests.

Lawyer Lindabury's Change.

Richard V. Lindabury, the prominent New Jersey lawyer, who has heretofore had his offices in Elizabeth, has opened offices in Newark.

—There will be Swedish-English service at the German Lutheran church this evening. Rev. Dr. Theleen, of Rock Island, Ill., will preach, assisted by Rev. E. Kionka, pastor of the church. The choir of the church will sing in English for the first time. All Swedes, Danes and English Lutherans are cordially invited.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Fred Fullerton, of Montclair, has been visiting friends in town.

Ira F. Randolph, of Chicago, is visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. John Manchester is very ill at her home on Lafayette place with the grip.

Henry Ryder, of Yale College, spent Sunday at his home on East Front street.

Miss Lillie Walter, of Brooklyn, is visiting her brother, E. E. Walter, of Park place.

Miss Minnie Stiglitz has resigned the position she held at White's dry goods store.

Miss Mary VanEps, of Craig place, has recovered from her illness and is able to be out again.

Miss Jennie Cuthbertson, of West Fourth street, spent Sunday in Philadelphia with her parents.

Burt Loomis, of Lehigh University, was the guest of Charles Cook, of Rockview avenue, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thorn, of South Plainfield, spent Sunday with Mrs. S. W. Milligan, of West Fourth street.

Raymond Strayer, of East Third street, celebrated his third birthday anniversary yesterday, appropriately.

Miss May Hughes and Miss Cora Sheppard, formerly of Edsall's, now have similar positions at White's store.

Mrs. Edward G. Ashbrooke, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles E. Horne, of Willow avenue.

Miss Sarah McK. Wright, has moved from the corner of Somerset street and Linden avenue to 170 Duer street.

T. S. Burr, of Sandford avenue, was able to go to business today after being at home for several days suffering with a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Saums and son, of Somerville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Hodge, of Plainfield avenue.

David Faulkner and family, of Martinsville, moved on Saturday to the house at the corner of Somerset street and Park place.

Thomas Buckley, of Watchung avenue, is home from Philadelphia, where he has been setting up presses for the Potter Press Works.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes have returned from their bridal tour and are now residing at their home on East Second street.

John Cuthbert, of New York, a former resident of this city, was in attendance at the funeral of the late David M. Moore yesterday.

Mrs. Clark Dillenbeck, of Philadelphia, is on a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Morrison, of Mountain avenue.

Miss Anna Gilby, of Westfield, who has been in the employ of Edward White for the past eight years, resigned her position Saturday night.

Richard Newton, formerly superintendent of the Climax Stopper Company, now of New York, spent Sunday with Caleb Dickinson, of East Fifth street.

Nathan Sloane, of East Fifth street, who has been bookkeeper at the Climax Stopper Company's works, goes to Boston tonight to represent the company there.

Mrs. C. J. Powers and her two children returned Saturday to their home at Phœnixville, Pa., after a short visit with Mrs. Powers' sister, Mrs. Wm. Worth, of Duer street.

C. C. Tyler, a former teacher of the well-known Berean Bible class of Warren chapel, but now of New York, attended the funeral services of the late David N. Moore in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Morecraft, of East Front street, fainted last evening just as she was leaving the Salvation Army Hall. She was carried to a side room and through the use of restoratives she was soon able to go home.

Charles C. Howard, of Putnam avenue, Worshipful Master of Anchor Lodge, was elected as Junior Sword Bearer of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of New Jersey, at their annual session at Trenton on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Keep, of Brookline, Mass., spent Sunday in town en route from Lakewood, where they have been stopping for some time. They are guests at the home of John H French, of West Seventh street, and Mrs. Keep will remain for a couple of weeks.

A delightful surprise party was given to Miss Helen Dickson, of Willow Grove, last Monday evening, by her father, Thomas Dickson, in honor of her twenty-first birthday. About sixty guests were present, a number of whom were from this city. Dancing occupied most of the evening.

The formal opening of Squadron A's new Armory at Madison avenue and Ninety-fourth street was marked by a brilliant military reception and ball last Friday night. Among the 2,000 fair women and brave men present were Miss Daisy Shepard and Messrs. Burritt Shepard and Harry Opdyke.

"Pure and Sure."

Cleveland's BAKING POWDER

"I am convinced Cleveland's is the purest baking powder made and I have adopted it exclusively in my cooking schools and for daily household use."

MRS. S. T. RORER, Principal Philadelphia Cooking School.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A social will be held at Grace M. E. church Friday evening of this week.

—The City Council will meet this evening and transact considerable business.

—The regular February meeting of the Board of Education will be held this evening.

—Stone Square Lodge, No. 10, F. and A. M., will hold their regular meeting this evening.

—The platform for the chorus choir was erected at the Park Avenue Baptist church, this morning.

—The Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of the church.

—Neuman Bros. grocery has been greatly improved by the introduction of the Welshbach burners throughout the store.

—Old Glory Council Daughters of Liberty, will hold an important meeting tomorrow evening in the Borough Council rooms.

—John Hand Camp, No. 28, S. of V., will meet in regular session tomorrow evening and every member is urged to be present.

—The New Jersey Division, Sons of Veterans, will hold their annual encampment at Trenton, Thursday, February 20th.

—Miss Hawley, of Plainfield, addressed the meeting of Christian Endeavor, Sunday evening, at the Presbyterian church in Westfield.

—J. Willard Urmston, the fancy penman, who attracted so much attention at Ocean Grove last summer, has established a Plainfield branch.

—The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sunday-school room.

—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold their monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church.

—The regular church prayer meeting of the First M. E. church will be held Wednesday evening. It will be followed by the monthly meeting of the official board.

—The fence in front of "The Chestnuts," the young ladies' seminary on West Seventh street, has been removed, greatly improving the appearance of the street.

—Four persons received the right hand of fellowship in the First Baptist church yesterday morning at the communion service. Two were by letter and two on confession.

—The Guild of the Church of the Redeemer will give a parcel and auction sale at the residence of Rev. Dr. Jocelyn Johnstone, Monday evening, February 10th, at 8 o'clock.

—The regular meeting of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will be held Tuesday afternoon, February 4th, at 2 o'clock, in the Bible class room.

—Every member of Ivanhoe Council, American Legion of Honor, is requested to be present at the meeting tomorrow evening. Grand officers will be present and important business transacted.

—The interiot of the Potter Press Works shops have been whitewashed throughout. A new crane is also to be erected which will be operated by compressed air. It will be a powerful machine.

—People are taking advantage of the great closing-out sale of wall paper at Edward Love's. There is no mistaking the quality of Mr. Love's goods, and as for the prices, well—they have been taken at such a surprise that they look as though they wanted to fall through the floor.

—All sorts of rumors are in the air regarding trolley projects to and through Bound Brook from New Brunswick and Plainfield. The Council has granted a franchise for the trolley on Main street, as far east as East street, but no farther. The use of the new extension of Main street should not be granted to the trolley road as that extension was built for the express purpose of avoiding the dangers incident to railroads.—Bound Brook Chronicle.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THEATRICAL.

The new management of the Stillman, catering as they do to the general public endeavor to change their bill of fare as often as possible. They announce for their next attraction a play of somewhat different cast from previous plays and one that will be likely to please their many patrons. The play is entitled "A Cracker Jack," and judging by the favorable criticisms is a good one. In fact there is more go in it than in the most gilt-edged article of a Chicago breeze and is acted by a company of superior merit. There is a happy combining of the comic and serious interests and the trimming of specialties are high above the average. In a word "A Cracker Jack" is one of the assured successes of the year—a roaring hit and a work of unquestionable merit.

Patrons of Music Hall will recognize a welcome visitor next Saturday night in the coming of Charles Hoyt's farce comedy, "A Trip to Chinatown." The engagement will be notable for more than one reason. The play holds the record of having had a longer run in the Metropolis than any other production, no matter how elaborate, that has even been seen in the city of New York. The presentation to be seen at Music Hall is identical with that given in New York. Not only does it embrace the same cast, but every particle of scenery is brought to this city for this engagement.

Dunellen.

Dan Knutter, of Greenbrook, is visiting friends in New York.

Mrs. Philip Smith, of North avenue, has been entertaining friends from Easton.

Mrs. Slape, of North avenue, is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Hull, of Sing Sing.

Mr. Bainbridge, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to his home in New York.

Miss Annie Smith, of Denver, Col., is spending a few days with Miss Randolph, of Jefferson avenue.

Mrs. Cooley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Terry, has returned home to Flemington.

Uncle John Tingley, who for quite a long time was stationed in Plainfield, has returned to this place and opened his place of business in the Laible building.

The Euchre Club met at the residence of the Misses Marlue, Friday evening, and were delightfully entertained. Many games of euchre and dancing were enjoyed.

—The Scott Mutual Aid Society will meet in Red Men's hall tonight.

—If you expect to get a suit in H. M. Jaquett's big removal sale, you had better be about it, for the assortment will soon be gone. Come early.

Take No Substitute.

Gail Borden Eagle Brand

CONDENSED MILK

Has always stood FIRST in the estimation of the American People. No other is "just as good." Best Infant Food.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given that the account of the subscribers, executors of Elizabeth Edgar, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the fourth day of March next.
Dated December 28th, 895.
CHARLES H. EDGAR,
FREDERIC A. BOOTH.
12 28 10-0 a w

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.

The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at

Karet's Fur Parlor,

49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice.

AT DENTON'S.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

SPRING SEASON AT PECK'S.

Grand Display

Wash Fabrics and Embroideries.

Exhibition Now Open.

THE DALZIEL ART SCHOOL,

309 East Front St.,

Is An Established Success.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique—Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at THE WOMEN'S SCHOOL OF DESIGN, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

EDSALL'S

Commercial Palace - - Babcock Building.

News Items.

—About Edsall's Commercial Palace.

"Stock taking" is over:—splendid news.

—Business will go on now with a big boom.

—Many desirable articles in "odds and ends" can be purchased very cheap.

—Our china and housefurnishing departments have been changed and so improved that you would hardly recognize it as the same place.

—Everything has been over handled and classified, so that each article is shown in its proper place, and with its kind.

—Many who have visited the department under the management of the new superintendent Mr. J. Linn Edsall, remark that it's a pleasure now to walk through and see the fine new wares so artistically arranged.

—New beginners in housekeeping and older ones as well, will find this department just the place to get their needs supplied at a great saving of money. Come in and see.

—Another splendid improvement has also been made that you will be pleased to see, viz:

—The grocery department has been transferred from the east to the west side in our big basement.

—And enlarged to twice its former size in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing trade in this department.

—The trade in this department has increased away beyond our expectations since we put in a complete line:—you know now we keep everything in the grocery line.

—And the people have found out that we sell just as good goods and at as low prices as in the New York department stores.

—So the orders are coming in right and left, and we are now running two delivery wagons for groceries alone, and —We honestly believe we will be compelled to put on two more wagons inside of six months at the rate trade is increasing now.

—This is not mere newspaper advertising, the wagons are on the road every day.

—And if you take notice they are well filled with goods too. Honest dealing, selling goods for just what they are, giving the very best possible quality for the least money, is what does the business. That's our motto.

—The Commercial Palace enters upon the present year's business thoroughly equipped in every respect, and better prepared than ever before for a most successful future.

"One May Smile and Smile and Be a Villain."—Shakespeare.

That's True

Ain't it? And it's so with shoes. Plenty of shoe truck looks well. You can rely on what we sell you. Here are some.

Woman's Cork Sole Button and Lace Boots

real value $4, our price $3. Women's double sole button and lace boots value $3, our price $1.98. Women's $3, $4 and $5 button boots, principally small sizes, we will clear out at $1.48 a pair.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO., —Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	17	9
Park	885	18	10
Roselle	893	18	10
Union C. C. Club	831	9	17
Cranford	837	6	22

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Cranford C. C.	4	4	1557
Elizabeth A. C.	4	4	1547
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	1	1597
Orange Valley	5	2	1534
Elizabeth	4	2	1670
Plainfield	3	4	1464
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	6	1516

The Y. M. C. A. bowling team will meet the Westfield Y. M. C. A. team in this city tonight.

BASKET BALL.

Those who went to the basket ball game in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Saturday evening, when the team from the Twenty-sixth ward branch of the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. played the local team, with the expectation of seeing the game with the Central Brooklyn team repeated, were pleasantly surprised. The Brooklyn boys, or rather men, greatly outweighed their Plainfield opponents, and most of them were taller than the local players. The visitors have been used to playing with a five-men team, and so the Plainfield team dropped two players. The game was a lively one, and especially pleasing to the Plainfield people. The local team came up and played a game of unexpected excellence, team playing being a principle feature. The game showed long and conscious practice, and considering that Plainfield was supposed not to have a regular team in the field, it was a great surprise. Hard play was noticeable in the first half, especially, and Koechli had to retire for one goal after being knocked senseless, but he came back and continued to put up his excellent game. At the end of the first half the score was 5 to 3 in favor of Plainfield. The visitors played hard, but the team work of the home team was too much, and the Plainfield boys led all the way, winning 11 to 8. The prettiest goal during the evening was made for Plainfield by Colthar. The ball was zigzagged up the line of Plainfield players into Colthar's hands and dropped in the basket in less than a minute after the ball was tossed up. The Plainfield boys all played a very good game and deserve great credit. Colthar, who is comparatively new at the game, showed up especially well. A detailed score of the game was as follows:

PLAINFIELD.

	Pos.	Goals from field.	Goals from fouls.	Fouls.
Colthar	f	1	0	1
Koechli	r w	4	2	1
Wagner		0	0	0
E. Moraller	c	4	0	1
Jessup	l w	0	0	0
M. Moraller	g	0	0	3
		9	2	6

BROOKLYN.

	Pos.	Goals from field.	Goals from fouls.	Fouls.
Francis	f	3	2	1
Forrest	r w	0	0	0
Rowlands		1	0	1
VanOs'r'nd	c	0	0	0
Weibe	l w	0	2	0
Vervont	g	0	0	1
		4	4	3

Referee—Victor Christofferson.
Umpire—Mr. Nelson, of Brooklyn.

CYCLING COMMENT.

J. E. Hall, of East Fifth street, rode over to Perth Amboy yesterday on his wheel and spent the day there with friends.

The Iron Age, a periodical of authority on bicycle matters, states in its last issue that the 1896 prices of wheels will range in list from $60 to $125 for regular made machines, while the juvenile wheels will list at $40 and $50. They also say that the workmanship and finish on the standard wheels be improved upon while there will be few additional features, as the improvements thus far made give no good cause for it.

—The two-year old son of James and Annie Cassidy died this morning at their home on West Sixth street.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.
West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

WHIST.

The Park Club four will go to Orange tonight to make an effort to recover the State whist trophy captured from them sometime ago by the Orange Whist Club. The Orange team has managed to hold the trophy ever since. The regular team of the Park Club, Messrs. Rogers, Howell, Townsend and McCutchen, will go.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—Dr. Richards conducted the after-meeting in the Crescent Avenue church last evening. His remarks were especially helpful.

—The contract cases of Lawler against Keely and Linke against Parker have been adjourned in Justice Newcorn's court for one week.

—Rheumatism is caused by lactic acid in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla neutralizes this acid and permanently cures rheumatism. Be sure to get only Hood's.

—At the meeting of the Gesang and Turn Verein Society held yesterday afternoon arrangements for the masquerade ball to be held February 17th, were completed.

—The Gesang and Turn Verein Society of Newark have extended an invitation to the Plainfield society to attend a masquerade to be held in Newark next Tuesday evening.

—The stock of fur capes, cloaks and boas from H. Kohn's, 318 West Front street, will be removed to Karet's fur parlor, 49 Craig place, where the goods will be sold at a great sacrifice.

—The seventh lecture in the course on the Eastern question will be delivered tomorrow evening in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church by Dr. Riggs, of New Brunswick.

—The boards were removed from Assemblyman Codington's new building this morning, and one of the handsomest store fronts to be seen is now admired by those passing the building. P. Marky will open a first-class bakery and confectionery in the building in a few days.

Getting Plainfield's Opinion.

J. Frank Lindsey, editor of the Morristown Chronicle, one of the best papers coming to the exchange desk of the Daily Press, was a pleasant caller at the Press office Saturday. Mr. Lindsey was in town to obtain opinions from Plainfield people on the benefits of the recently finished sewerage system. Morristown contemplates putting in a similar system.

Valuable Land Acquisition.

Many Plainfield people will doubtless be surprised to learn that the American Sabbath Tract Society have acquired that valuable piece of property on West Front street, between the Babcock and the Schepflin buildings, on which stood the house of Engine Company No. 2, several years ago.

What the Neighbors Would Say.

Little Grace had very curly hair, and it was a great trial to her to get it combed. One day during this process she was crying and making a greater disturbance than usual, when her mother said:

"What will the neighbors say when they hear you making such a noise?"

Pausing in her weeping she replied in broken accents:

"They will say: 'Why don't that woman spank that child!'"—Texas Siftings.

Real Heroism.

"Willie," said his mother, "your clothes are wet; you've been in the water."

"Yessum," said little Willie, bravely; "I went in and saved little Charlie Stebbins."

"My noble boy!" said his proud mother; "did you jump in after him?"

"No'm," said little Willie, proudly; "I jumped in first so as to be there when he fell in."—Chicago Record.

Hit Him Hard.

Saidso—Poor Chickenpek is in tough luck.

Quidso—What's the trouble now?

Saidso—He was out of town for a week, and when he came back found his wife, during his absence, had raffled off the furniture and skipped out, and he has now been indicted for allowing gambling on his premises.—Brooklyn Life.

Dangerous Symptoms.

"I fear that Maud is developing 'new woman' tendencies," said the anxious mother.

"What has she been doing?" asked the father, in genuine alarm. "Been wanting bloomers?"

"O, not so bad as that. But she used a buttonhook instead of a hairpin this morning to fasten her shoes."—Cincinnati Tribune.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

WANT MORE ASSEMBLYMEN.

Chatham Lochinvar Takes the Politicians to Task.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—The spirit of freedom of personal and local independence is the very life of a free representative State.

In 1845 the population of New Jersey was about 450,000. The number of Assemblymen was sixty.

In 1895 the population was about 1,800,000. The number of Assembly men still sixty.

While the population of the State has increased about 300 per cent, there has been no increase in representation.

The first demands of political equity call for constitutional amendments providing for increased and Assembly district representation. New Jersey must not become a political oligarchy.

A Nation or State may have art, poetry and science, all the refinements of civilized life, all the comforts and safeguards that human ingenuity can devise; but if it tolerates judicial or political injustice it is doomed and it deserves its fate. Only thieves and tyrants are afraid of the people and their representatives.

Why delay this needed reform? Republicans repond! Democrats answer.

The Constitution of the State allows county representation only.

This absolutely destroys minority representation and is contrary to the spirit of our institutions.

Mr. McGill received over 20,000 votes in Essex and the Democrats are without a single representative from that county.

Mr. Griggs received over 20,000 votes in Hudson and the Republicans are without a single representative from that county.

Is this just? Is it in harmony with the divisions and balances of our State and Federal systems?

Of the two opposite perils which have perpetually threatened the welfare of political society—anarchy on the one hand, loss of self-government on the other—Jefferson was right in maintaining that the latter is really the more to be dreaded, because its beginnings are so terribly insidious.

The number in the House of Representatives has been increased five separate times since 1845.

Since 1845, how many times has the representation been increased in the New Jersey Assembly? Not once.

Hypocrisy is the tribute that vice pays to virtue. So it is with the politicians. They love the dear, good people and champion their cause only when the people are alert and intend to have their own way.

Yours truly,
Chatham Lochinvar.

—Dr Richards will preach at the evangelistic services in the Park Avenue Baptist church this evening.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

W. L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.
Telephone Call 42-B.

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" our little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Chamber Music Concert,

—AT—

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

Ivanhoe Council, L. of H.

All members are requested to attend the meeting of Council Tuesday evening, Feb 4, at 8 o'clock. The Grand officers will be present. Business of special importance to each member will be presented. GEO. E. STILLMAN, Secretary.

A meeting of the friends of

Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth,

and the work accomplished by the Salvation Army, to be held at

Carnegie Music Hall,

57th st. and 7th ave., New York,

Monday Evening, February 3, 1896.

Hon. Chauncey Depew, chairman. Brief addresses expected from Hon. Wm. L. Strong, Mayor of New York, Bishop E. G. Andrews, Rev. A. H. Bradford, D. D., Rev. Josiah Strong, D. D., Wm. E. Dodge, Robt. Fulton Cutting, and others. Free tickets can be obtained at this office and Reynolds' drug store.

DIED.

CASSIDY—In this city, Monday, Feb. 3, 1896, James, son of James and Annie Cassidy, aged 2 years, 6 months and 21 days. Funeral services from the residence of his parents, 539 West 6th street, Wednesday, Feb. 5, at 2:30 p. m.

BROWER—In this city Sunday, Feb. 2, 1896, Isaac V. Brower, late of Millstone, N. J., in the 83d year of his age.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

WANTED—An experienced cook. 949 Central avenue.

LOST—Black and white muffler this morning. Finder will be rewarded by returning to this office.

WANTED—Girl for general housework; references wanted. 822 Park avenue. 1 3 2

$50 WEBER square piano for sale. Inquire at 123 West 7th street. 2 3 6

WANTED—Show cases, any shape, on loan or to rent for week. Hope Chapel Loan exhibition, D. Mc Innes, West 3d st.

WANTED—Situation as gardener by experienced man; best of city references. Address G. M., P. O. Box 383, city. 2 3 6

GOOD girls wanted for general housework; must have reference. Apply to Mrs. Day's office, 134 East Front st.

WANTED.—A girl for general housework; a good laundress and plain cook; reference required. 340 Franklin place; none but reliable girls need apply. 1 31 tf

FOR RENT—1016 Putnam ave., corner Carlton ave., pleasant commodious house; all improvements and in good order; large lot; immediate possession; rent to begin April first. H. L. Moodey, 603 Watchung ave. 1 30 6

TO LET—Brick barn, 216 West 2d st; stalls for 2 horses and wagon shed. Inquire Wm. C. Ayers, 203 West 2d st. 1 27 tf

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail broker 2 21 tf

FINE flat; best location; 7 light rooms; bath, city water. Apply 612 Park avenue. 1 21 tf eod

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Nothing

Like being well posted and knowing just where to place your money where it will bring the best results. To look around our store at the goods and prices you would almost think they grew and it cost nothing to grow them, the prices are so small.

SUCH AS THESE.

MUSLINS.

7c for Fruit, Dwight Anchor and Lonsdale Muslins, 7c; 8x4 bleached sheeting 14c; 9x4 do 16c; 10x4 do 19c; 8x4 brown sheeting 13c; 9x4 do 14c; 10x4 do 16c.

DRESS GOODS.

14c for 36 inch fancies, 18c for all-wool mixtures, 54 inch all-wool mixtures 27c; 54 inch all-wool checks 37c; 45 inch all-wool serges 31c; 54 inch imperial black serge 50c.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

The making costs you nothing it's only the price of material that you pay for. 23c for fine corset covers; 43c for fine embroidered night robes, 55c for fine embroidered skirts. It will take no search light to find

Bargains at Every Turn.

25c for men's white wool shirts, 25c for men's colored wool shirts, 50c for men's all-wool scarlet shirts, 69c for do, double breasted shirts, 10c for men's seamless socks, 3 pair for 25c, 15c for children's fine Lisle thread hose, 47c for men's unlaundered shirts, usual price 75c, 75c for ladies' chamois gloves all colors and one of the best made for service, 75c for a corset that is equal to any $1 corset made, $2.45 for roll of 20 yards of fine matting, 39c for Jap rugs size 18x36, 25 winter coats for ladies to go for 98c each, 13c for the best Turkish towel made, worth 25c.

Housefurnishing Department.

JUST FOR FUN—Pleasure goes with business here. Prices make it pleasant to sell goods. Therefore the following prices tell the story, and a glance through our enlarged department will convince you. Enough said.

23c each 100 japanned bread boxes, No. 1 size, made out of good quality tin, for this sale only. They won't last long at the price—23c each. 23c each

59c each Copper bottom wash boilers No. 7 size, good quality tin and 14 oz. rolled copper bottom. For this sale at 59c. 59c each

5c each 500 papier mache table mats will stand the heat, neatly decorated, choice of all sizes, small, medium or large, worth 15c. To close at 5c each. 5c each

15c pair Stove mitten and dauber, the best does away with a brush, just the thing for bicycle use, can be used for all kinds of polishing and cleaning. 15c pair The pair for 15c.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE Hatter, 120 West Front st

Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS.

Acorn Brand

Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y eod

Snow, Sleet, Feet.

CorkSole Shoes, Double Sole Shoes, Rubbers.

Store Closes 8 o'clock, Except Saturday.

A. WILLETT & SON,

Feet Fitters.

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION.

The Annual Ceremonies at the Executive Mansion.

The President Has to Shake Hands with Thousands of Persons Whom He Has Never Seen or Heard Of Before.

Special Washington Letter

New Year's day at the white house. How nearly 70,000,000 people, men, women and children, would like to see it! How they would sacrifice time, money, and even their appetites, in order to catch a little glimpse of the wonderful manifestations of pomp, parade, power; the uniforms of the men, the brilliant dresses and wraps of the ladies; the ceremonies of state and all the thousands of little incidents which combine to complete the scene from fairyland: the vainglory of social pride which pales

OF NO DEGREE AT ALL.

the festal days of Rome and Athens, which outshines the glories of Sardanapalus and the triumphs of Caesar and Napoleon.

The crowd would seem a motley mass of humanity to you, unless some one experienced in Washington affairs could be with you to explain who the people are, whence they came, what their objects may be, and how the programme is arranged and carried out to the letter. They commence to assemble early in the morning, although the president's reception does not begin until noon. In the growing, packing, pushing throng of the street there are people of high degree, low degree, and no degree at all. There are senators, representatives, captains, orderlies and disorderlies from every point of the compass. In the dense crowd are the wives and daughters of men of official prominence, as well as washerwomen, saloonkeepers, laborers and clerks from the stores and executive departments. Many a woman enters the crowd and loses her identity, because she wants to see what is going on, but has not such wearing apparel as would warrant her in appearing as a participant in the reception.

Nearly all of these people are lookers on, and very many of them have no intention of entering the executive mansion on account of a false pride which makes them feel that they should not be seen and recognized without fine raiment, or because they cannot visit the mansion with coaches and liveried attendants. Everywhere else in society they shine, but feel that they fall short of financial ability to properly appear before the president, his wife and the ladies of the cabinet who assist in the grand display just beyond the portals.

These president's receptions at the white house were inaugurated by President John Quincy Adams, and have become a part of the life of Washington city. They mark the commencement of the social season every year, which is continued without interruption until the Lenten season, when all gayety ceases—not to be resumed until the coming of another New Year's day, when the doors of the executive mansion are thrown open to the general public and the president announces, officially, his intention of holding a reception. On each occasion there is published a programme, granting a certain number of minutes to the several classes of public officials, followed by a reception of all classes of people who desire to see the chief magistrate and take him by the hand. On such occasions the corridor of the white house and the broad avenues leading up to the big front doors are alive with detectives, to prevent the entrance of any evil-disposed persons. First come the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court. Ten minutes' time is allotted to this part of the reception. The supreme court is given distinction because it constitutes a coordinate branch of the federal government. The congressional branch is next admitted.

Thirty minutes are allowed for the reception of senators and representatives. Then the officers of the army and navy, followed by the leading officials of the executive departments, are received during the brief period of 15 minutes. Then come the members of the diplomatic corps, comprising the envoys, ministers and other representatives of foreign nations, all of them dressed in their uniforms, according to their rank and title. These gentlemen, with the officers of our army and navy, give a dazzling display of gold lace and decorations of honor. Shortly after one o'clock, the official reception having been concluded, the doors are opened to the waiting thousands of plain people who come ostensibly to "pay their respects" to the president, but really to be in the swim so that they may afterwards tell their friends that they attended the president's reception, and give details of what they saw and heard.

The best place to see the reception in detail, if you can get inside of the mansion, is in the main corridor where the Marine band is playing all the while. Through the open window a favored visitor may stand and directly face the president and his assistants, thereby witnessing every movement which occurs in the big blue room. As the officials enter the room to the left of the president, the master of ceremonies announces their coming. First he will cry: "The Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States."

Immediately thereafter the learned lawyers approach. The chief justice takes the president's right hand, bows, and says: "Mr. President, I wish you a happy New Year." The president returns the pressure of his hand, and says: "Mr. Chief Justice, I thank you, sir." Then comes each associate justice, taking the hand of the president and making the same bow and uttering the same words, to each of whom the president responds with thanks, calling each man "Mr. Justice" so and so, whatever his name may be. Then come the other officials, each one addressing "Mr. President," with a similar felicitous expression, and being addressed in turn, according to his title, rather than by the name given by his sponsors in baptism. The entire affair is severely official. It is not enjoyable to an on-looker, except as a matter of curiosity. Of course, this is a splendid time, and an excellent place, to see all of the distinguished men; and those who have never witnessed such a scene would be delighted with the opportunity. Once is enough, however, for one who lives in constant contact with the people who participate in the affair. Upon no other occasion during an entire administration can anyone see the president for so long a time, and observe his manner of receiving the people.

But there is always something out of the ordinary when the regular public reception commences. Here come the dear people who are out for a good time, and who have not been accustomed to seeing a president or brilliant gatherings. The wife of the president stands immediately on his right, and gives her hand to all of the officials who call; and they in turn shake hands with the ladies of the cabinet, who stand in line on the right of the president's wife. But when the crowds come in they shake the hand of the president, and go bowing down the line to the ladies, who are already too tired to extend their hands to the hundreds who throng past them. As each individual enters the room, the master of ceremonies whispers quickly: "What is your name?" The response is given in a low tone, and the master of ceremonies says: "Mr. President, Mr. Smith." The president extends his hand and says: "Good morning, Mr. Smith." The president immediately turns about and gives his hand to the next caller, who is also introduced by name by the master of ceremonies. Thus the reception continues for another hour; and, if the crowd has not all filed by at that time, the doors are closed and the others who wanted to get in are barred out.

"GOOD MORNING, MR. SMITE."

It is funny to hear the announcements of names made by the master of ceremonies, if you happen to know some of the individuals. A Mr. Thompson may be introduced as "Mr. Thomas;" a Mr. Swift may be called "Mr. Smith;" and so on through the gamut of sounds of names. The celebrated Don Piatt, at that time one of the best known men in the country, published in his paper a story to the effect that when he called on President Hayes and gave his name to the master of ceremonies, supposing that Don Piatt was a name known to all men in Washington, he was amazed to hear the big man say: "Mr. President, this is Dam Pirate." It happened, however, that President Hayes knew Mr. Piatt, and laughed heartily as he greeted him by his proper name. I once called upon President Arthur, and the master of ceremonies announced me as "Mr. Shy."

When the notable officials pass by the receiving line they hasten through the east room, enter their carriages, and are driven to other receptions; keeping up the round during the entire afternoon. The general public, however, is not in such a hurry. They loiter in the east room until they fill it, although the ushers are constantly saying: "Pass along, please." Finally, when the crowd gets rather dense they shout: "Get along, there, and hurry up. This is no place to stop. Hurry up." Meantime, at the doors, other ushers are busily engaged in pushing people out as fast as they can, and right here many a loitering lady gets just too angry for anything, and wants to stop and scold the ushers; but other people are pushed out after them, and they are obliged to go away, doing their scolding to their companions.

And this, ladies and gentlemen, is New Year's day at the white house; that is, the public part of it. After the hurly burly bustle is over, the president and his family retire to their private apartments and enjoy their home dinner just as you and I and every one else would do, with freedom from the vain pomp and glory of this wicked world.

SMITH D. FRY.

Removal Sale!

Will remove to the much larger store, 129 East Front st., now occupied by Mr. Gavett, on or about March 25, 1896. I will therefore offer the following lines at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing,

also Neckwear, to reduce stock previous to removal.

Men's Overcoats $4 05, $7 20, $9.00, $10.80, $12.60 and Upward.

Men's Suits $4.05, $5.40, $6.30, $7.20, $9, $10.80 and Up

Boys' and Children's Clothing in proportionately low prices. 50c Neckwear in four-in-hand and tecks at 25C. A beautiful assortment. All the above goods are new this season. Watch this ad.

HARRY M. JAQUETT,

123 East Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

One Price CASH One Price

and money refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

GOOD CLOTHING

Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our cloth- It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits

have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits

for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.—made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE

Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3 ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.

Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.

Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.

Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached J. E. Beerbower, Prop

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patrick	McIntyre C E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Ladie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.

Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.

Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.

You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at

J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., ooo. North ave

Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 33, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 06 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 35, 10 35, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 42, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin, (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

9 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5.14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co., EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

Cesspools Built.

DONT BE WOOZY CHEW FAULTLESS PEPSIN CHIPS

THE GUM THAT'S ROUND

10 CHIPS 5¢

Send 5 cents for a sample package to Faultless Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

North Plainfield Taxes

In conformity to law, the taxes and assessments against property in the Township and Borough of North Plainfield.

REMAINING UNPAID

January 31, 1896,

will be recorded at the County Clerk's Office as the first lien against your property, after which the names of such Delinquents Will Be Published.

H. N. SPENCER, Collector.

1 23 12

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST.

13 Grove street. 1 13 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

THE ONLY

Agency for

Huyler's

IN PLAINFIELD

—IS AT—

LEGGETT'S PHARMACY,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Huyler's Prices.

Open day and night.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

No. 2243.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

DIVIDEND NO. 38.

The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent (4 per cent) on the capital stock of this bank, out of the earnings of the last 6 months, payable on and after Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1896.

WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29, 1896. 1 29 3-2 1 3 4

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

Neuman Bros

Annual reduction of 10 per cent on all

GROCERIES

and leading brands of

New Canned Goods.

Broadmeadow's extra quality tomatoes only $1.15 per dozen; extra quality Jersey packed tomatoes only 95c per dozen; best reserve sugar corn only $1.25 per dozen or 11c can; extra quality early June peas $1.25 per doz., or 11c per can; Huyler's extra premium chocolate only 16c per cake, 30c a pound; Royal baking powder 43c a pound; Cleveland's baking powder 42c per lb; 5 lbs extra raisins for 25c.

Watchung Ave. and 5th st

THE WOMAN OF FASHION.

Costumes Seen at Some of the Season's Masquerade Balls.

Children and College Students Particularly Enjoy This Sort of Social Entertainment—Art Students Utilize Their Knowledge of Costumery.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

There is a mystery about a masquerade ball which, through frequently disapproved of by their elders, is always fascinating to young people.

Nothing delights the little girls as much as to be allowed to dress up and play lady. And to "make believe" anything under the sun is the joy of any child's heart from the babe in arms to the 12-year-old. A boy shows innate characteristic when he "plays bear," or "choo-choos" his imaginary train of cars. The little girl who is not permitted to give outward expression to her natural love for masquerading becomes a dreamer, and perhaps reads unwholesome stories when no one is by. It is cruel to ridicule the innocent mimicry of a child and yet there are many who thoughtlessly do it. If a youngster of four or five chooses to think that a row of chairs is a train of cars, there is no harm in it. No more is it objectionable for a boy or a girl of from 12 to 18 to gratify a fancy that is a part of the childish imagination not yet lost. Children grow old fast enough, and if they want to "make believe" at 20 it is a sign that their hearts are still fresh and young, and should be encouraged.

MASQUERADING COSTUMES FROM LONDON.

College students as a rule manage to include a good many costume parties in their curriculum, and they are especially well fitted to take part as there is a wide field of literature and history with which they are supposed to be familiar to choose from.

The Art league in New York usually gives about four costume parties during the season and the art students utilize their technical knowledge of ancient and modern costumery to its utmost.

One of the funniest college costumes ever concocted was an enormous black bottle, with a place in the neck of it for the face which looked very much like a poison label without the crossbones. The bottle looked particularly well when waltzing which it did with considerable grace, but the individual who thus bottled himself up found it the warmest clothing he had ever worn, although it was made of nothing but pasteboard. Some of his chums were curious to know how he got into it and, on examination, found that there was no bottom to the bottle, and it was a very simple matter to drop it over the head.

Two other college chums dressed as twin babies with rag dolls about which they continually quarreled.

The more serious minded choose real historical or dramatic characters, such as the kings and queens of France and England. Elizabeth and Mary Queen of Scots are favorites, and by going together and treating one another with mutual scorn they can make things very lively.

A Twelfth Night party offers fine opportunity for historical costumery. Twelfth Night, as you know, is January 6—that was last Monday, this year, and a certain fashionable woman made the night memorable by one of the most unique entertainments ever given.

Her invitations were couched in old English and read something like this: "Ye shul be right welcum at ye lodgings of Mistress Joanes on ye eve of Twelvth Night at ye rynginge of Ye Curfewe."

A "wassail bowl" of "lamb's wool," was provided, and a page announced the guests as they arrived. The evening opened with the execution of the morris-dance, which is a good deal like a grand march done with a hop, skip and jump, or more precisely a sort of polka step. Maid Marion and Robin Hood were the leaders of the dance and clowns and jesters in ribbons and bells gave the scene a very stagy effect.

Everything was done in good old English style even to the refreshments.

The costumes represented all sorts of historical personages. There were King Arthur, and King John, and Louis this and Louis that of France. Hamlet and King Lear stepped out of picture books and tripped the undignified morris-dance as lively as any. Mary Tudor, queen of England, sent in an immense card with a gilded tobacco seal pasted on it as an emblem of royalty. There was a scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream," where Bottom and his friend, as guests of the evening, enacted the tragic story of Pyramus and Thisbe. Lancelot and the Lady of the Lake, Elaine, Guinevere, Marie Antoinette, Marie, the wife of Louis XV., and her hated rival, Mme. Pompadour, all passed the evening amicably together without regard to the anachronisms they were perpetrating.

A French modiste of Marie Antoinette's time wears a full gored skirt of flowered silk—just such silk as is displayed in the windows nowadays. The bodice has a full basque and a vest with six fancy buttons. A soft drapery of white muslin goes around the neck and is gathered in at the top of the vest. With the exception of the tight velvet sleeves this costume differs very little from what we are wearing now. The high crowned hat has a wider brim than those in fashion now, but the feather is correct.

A more elaborate costume is that of the time of Mme. Pompadour, from whom, by the way, date two well-known things—the pompadour style of dressing the hair and the saying: "After us, the deluge."

This costume has a skirt with an over dress draped panier fashion. Around the bottom is a full double ruche of stiff tarltan. Three bows set one above another trim the front of the skirt. The bodice has a decidedly long point in front with a soft, mull drapery around the low neck, finished with bows. The sleeves resemble those worn now and are made of mull gathered close a few inches below the shoulder. The hat is higher in the crown than is fashionable now, and has feathers on top and under the brim.

Two very striking costumes for a boy and girl are those worn by the people of Soudan. The girl wears a skirt of striped red and white silk which is so narrow that it almost suggests trousers, while the boy's suit is a very full empire dress over a suit of brown trousers and red stockings. He wears brown shoes and stockings and shiny bracelets on her arms. Further details can be gathered from the picture.

ANNIE LAURIE.

FRENCH GARB OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.

YOUNG MAN WAS SMART.

He Took Advantage of a Senator's Funny Mistake.

The Statesman Mailed the Wrong Letter and the Friendless Applicant Got a Fairly Good Government Place at Washington.

Back in the '70s, when Zach Chandler was at the head of the interior department, a young man from one of the western states came to Washington to try clerical life in one of the departments. He had been, says the Washington Evening Star, quite a ward politician in his western home, and imagined both the senators from his state would be glad to do him a favor. He spent several days taking in the sights at the capital, and then went up to the senate one afternoon and sent up his card to Senator Blank. The senator responded promptly, had the visitor shown into the marble room, and for some time they sat on the sofa together, talking of home news and the home crops. Then the young man broke the ice by informing the senator just what kind of a place he wanted—didn't care much what department it was in.

"Well, I don't know," said the senator. "Such places are not to be found every day, and there are hundreds here from about every state in the union looking for almost anything in the shape of an appointment.

"Come up to my house about eight o'clock to-night," said the senator, "and we'll talk the matter over."

Promptly at the appointed time he pulled the door bell, and was ushered into the library, where he found the senator puffing a cigar.

"Ah! Good evening, Mr. ——; I was just thinking of you," said Senator Blank. "I have written a strong letter to Secretary Chandler requesting him to give you a position in the interior department," picking up an unsealed letter from his desk and handing it to the young office-seeker, "and I would suggest that you call at his office and present it about ten o'clock to-morrow morning. I have also mailed the secretary a little note, letting him know that when I want anything in his office I want it badly."

The young westerner was bowed out of the room with smiles and a hearty handshake. At his hotel he sat down to think over his good luck; then he thought of the senator's letter, and pulled it out of his pocket and read:

HANDED HIM THE WRONG LETTER.

"Dear Chandler: Some time to-morrow morning a young citizen of my great and glorious state will call on you with a strong endorsement from me for a clerkship. I have no earthly interest in him, so I turn him over to your tender mercy. Let him down easy. Yours, "BLANK."

The young man dropped the letter, and a big sigh struggled from under his watch pocket. "I wonder what he said in the little note he mailed to the secretary?" thought the young candidate. Then he realized that the senator had given him the wroug letter, and he at once determined to call at the interior department the next morning and see what the next chapter would bring forth.

About ten o'clock the next forenoon the colored messenger bowed the young man into Secretary Chandler's office.

Senator Blank told me last night he had written you and advised me to call on you this morning," said the young gentleman.

"Ah, yes," smiled the secretary, good-naturedly, picking up from his desk an open letter and glancing over it. "The senator speaks of you in the highest terms, and is very urgent in his request for your appointment. Wait a moment," and, touching a bell, he sent for the chief clerk. After a moment's conversation with the chief clerk the secretary said:

"You are fortunate. There is a $1,200 clerkship vacant by resignation this morning, and I have ordered your appointment to the place."

A month later Senator Blank was walking through the patent office and in the corridor met the new clerk in his office coat. The senator was surprised and a trifle disconcerted, but he shook hands with his young friend and said he was glad to see him there.

"Well, I'm glad to be here," responded the clerk. "And senator," putting his hand inside his vest and looking squarely in the other's eye, "right in my inside pocket I keep that little personal note you thought you mailed to Secretary Chandler telling him when you wanted a thing you wanted it bad."

Explanations were unnecessary. The senator went out of public life and died long ago, but the clerk manages to squeeze along through the hard times on his $1,200 a year.

Kentucky Woman's Cat Farm.

Mrs. W. D. Thrasher, of Covington, Ky., has a cat farm on a small scale at her home. She raises only one breed of cats, the Angora. The cats are raised in an apartment arranged a good deal like a dog kennel. They require much care and, like a high bred dog, will develop according to the attention given them.

BIGGEST BICYCLIST.

He Lives at Bloomington, Ill., and Is Known as "Baby Bliss."

By far the biggest bicyclist in the world lives in Bloomington, Ill. He is Leonard H. Bliss, popularly known as "Baby" Bliss, and he weighs 502 pounds. We have had skeleton bicyclists, blind bicyclists and even a bicyclist who was able to ride his wheel without legs and only one arm, but none who is calculated to make such a weighty impression on the cycling world as "Baby" Bliss.

He stands (or rides) alone in his special weight. In fact, the latter is far from his purpose. He weighed only 476 pounds when he began riding last spring. Now he weighs 502 pounds and even makes some pretensions as a racer, and has actually beaten all comers in his class by scorching a quarter of a mile in one minute and seven seconds. This was on the Williams track at Galesburg, Ill. At this rate he would have covered the mile in four minutes and 28 seconds. He thinks he may do it yet, and is waiting for a real cold day to try it.

FATTEST BIKER IN THE WORLD.

Mr. Bliss is 22 years old. Strange to say, it was an alarming decrease in his weight which caused him to take to bicycle riding. Last January he was losing several pounds a week. He feared gallopink consumption, and a physician recommended bracing air and change of climate. To leave Illinois was impossible, so he took to the wheel.

Bliss is a conspicuous figure at the race meets, which he regularly attends. He is almost as great an attraction as the race meet itself. His wheel, of course, was made especially for him. It weighs 36 pounds and is stronger probably than any wheel ever built. He learned to mount and ride without the aid of an instructor. This in itself was a great feat. He is now, as one of his friends said, "a shining exemplification of what a noble specimen of humanity righteous living and proper exercise on a bicycle may produce."

DOG WAS A JOKER.

He Had a Memory, Too, and His Innocent Prank Showed It.

Dr. Buell, of Norfolk, Conn., owns an intelligent dog, now 11 years old, which for the first six years of its life was ill treated by a young man who did the chores for the doctor and too care of his horse. The young fellow was an excellent mimic of animal sounds and whenever he caught the dog asleep he would creep up to him and give a loud bark close to his ear. The dog would be startled and would jump up to defend himself.

Recently the young man came back on a visit. When he came into the house the dog looked at him, but gave none of the usual signs of recognition. That same day, while the young man was leaning on his elbow looking out of a window with his back to the door, Dr. and Mrs. Buell, with others in the room, noticed the dog creep softly up to the young man. All watched to see what the dog would do, ready to interfere

THE DOG WAS A JOKER.

if an attempt to bite the young fellow was made

But the dog was a joker. He had no intention of biting or scratching, but the memory of those six years remained with him and his time had come to take revenge. The dog raised himself until his mouth was close to the young man's ear, when he gave a tremendous bark, and then dashed out of the room. The young man was as frightened as if an earthquake had come.

Too Conscientious.

Not long ago a lady, calling on another, noticed the absence of a cherished parrot, and asked what had become of it.

"Oh, I had to give her away."

"Give her away! And you thought so much of her!"

"Yes; but you know I taught her to ask me in the morning: 'Did you sleep well?' and she was such a dear, faithful little thing that she used to wake me up all night long asking me if I slept well. Nothing could cure her of it—she was so morbidly conscientious—and so at last I had to give her to a night editor of our acquaintance!"—Youth's Companion.

THE GOSSIP OF GOTHAM.

The Astors Here Will Not Publish a Kinsman's Denials.

Mr. Morton Feels Quite Sure—Even George Gould Has the Political Fever and Shows It—George Gould Has Political Ambitions.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

Mr. Morton no longer feels any doubt of his nomination at St. Louis next June. He would never have permitted the use of his name had he entertained any such doubt. He has now gone to the length of arranging his affairs for the campaign next summer. There has been some attempt to make Platt the dish that ran away with the spoon in this business, but Mr. Morton is determined to be no spoon. On the contrary, he has Mr. Platt exactly where he wants him, and it absurd to suppose that Mr. Platt would try to sell his venerable friend out. Indeed, Mr. Morton has no more ardent supporter in the country than Mr. Platt. The notion that the latter proposes to make Mr. Reed a cat's paw is not creditable to the speaker's intelligence. It will be found when the convention assembles that Mr. Platt will be in charge of the Morton forces and authorized to make deals in the governor's name. The general belief in New York that Mr. Morton will get the nomination is so strong that the governor is already beginning to be embarrassed with appeals for patronage and support in all sorts of ways. Mr. Morton's friends aver that he would carry New York in any event, and he himself is known to share the belief.

PLATT AND MORTON.

The Angry Duchess.

Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt has made himself so unpopular in England, owing to his stand on the Venezuelan business, that even his daughter, the duchess of Marlborough, has become somewhat frigid towards him. The duke is alleged to have forbidden the duchess to have anything to do with Mr. Vanderbilt. The Saturday Review has pitched into the latter as "a braying fool, with more money than brains." Mr. Vanderbilt has lately been involved in a series of troubles with the British exchequer on the subject of occupancy taxes. These occupancy taxes are levied upon those who rent country seats and similar trifles, and Mr. Vanderbilt has been fighting them right and left. This has earned him much odium. Altogether his position in England has become far from pleasant. He has been dropped from several invitation lists and caricatured as the sparrow, the fights of the bird being presumed to be symbolical of the present war in the Vanderbilt household. On the other hand, Mr. Vanderbilt continues to enjoy high favor in New York. If he is a sparrow, he is a fighting one, as Mr. Labouchere remarked, and the fighting sparrow is a British bird. But the duchess is very angry.

SPARROWS.

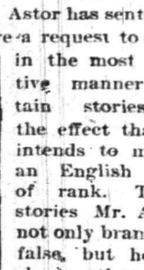
Astor's Contradiction.

William Waldorf Astor has sent over to his kinsmen here a request to deny in the most positive manner certain stories to the effect that he intends to marry an English lady of rank. These stories Mr. Astor not only brands as false, but he declares them indecent and churlish, worse than the snappings of curs who bay the moon, and so forth. In fact, Mr. Astor uses very strong language indeed. But the end is not yet. It appears that the American branch of the family will not give publicity to Mr. Astor's repudiations because it hates him and wants him to become as unpopular as possible over here. The real reason for Mr. Astor's foreign exile now appears to be his desire to educate his children abroad. He loves his country and proposes to prove it. Indeed, this country, big as it is, does not seem large enough to hold both branches of the Astor family. W. W. Astor is very much hurt at the misrepresentation to which he is subjected and he may retaliate.

BAYING AT THE MOON.

Business and Jealousy.

Many New York merchants are wild because John Wanamaker receives very flattering social attentions every time he comes to the metropolis. As a rule Gotham's millionaire retailers are not prominent in society, but Mr. Wanamaker has been well received on Fifth avenue. The jealousy that ensues prompts numerous silly and untrue stories about the Philadelphian. Among them is one to the effect that he wanted all beer drinkers burned in an unmentionable region, and another is that he is not on good terms with his eldest son. Both of these yarns are very absurd, and most of the stories told in New York about him are intended to injure Mr. Wanamaker with society here. It has been stated in certain New York publications that Wanamaker intends to make his residence in the metropolis. This is another silly story. Wanamaker never had any such intention, and he would be a fool if he had, for his promising prospects in Pennsylvania politics would be utterly ruined by such a step. He may be a senator yet.



J. W.'S WISH.

Russian Serpents.

The Venezuelan commission's work seems to be done largely in New York. At least a huge mass of documentary evidence is being accumulated here, and the clerical activity involved in the inquiry seems to center about the metropolis. Mr. Coudert, the Tammany lawyer, has become a very important character, socially and politically. His views are understood to be the very reverse of the Schomburgk line, but he resolutely refuses to discuss the matter in any way. Andrew D. White, the other New York member of the commission, is known to possess much and very definite information regarding Russia's feeling for the United States in the event of war. When at the court of St. Petersburg as our minister, he sounded the government and got very satisfactory results. Mr. White also knows all about the sea serpent torpedo of the Russian navy, a secret invention which floats and sinks and looks like a huge snake on the surface of the water. We are likely to see many of these monsters on our side in the event of war, and Mr. White is one of the few Americans who has ever been aboard of one.

RUSSIA' SERPENT.

Gould's Political Ambitions.

New Jersey may become responsible for a totally new aspect of the Gould family. It has already been intimated in certain quarters that George Gould had become politically ambitious, but now there is practically no doubt that he wants to enter the United States senate. To this end, he has established a residence in New Jersey and even helped form a political club, although he modestly disclaims any interested motive. How this will end is an insolvable problem. Mr. Gould has received many jocular intimations from political magnates on the folly of his course. He has been warned that the skull and crossbones is the political emblem of politics in New Jersey, and that the legislature thereof feeds on skulls. Mr. Frelinghuysen employed this figure of speech on a memorable occasion, and there seems no doubt of its applicability still. However, Mr. Gould is not to be daunted; he goes in for politics very enthusiastically and he is so clever that he may come out ahead.

NEW JERSEY POLITICS.

DAVID WECHSLER.

ELECTRICAL DEFENSES.

Frank W. Hawley Writes of What We Could Do.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

I have in mind a plan of river and harbor defense which seems to me entirely feasible. Place beneath the water two wires, on the cableway plan, extending from a pit or fortification on shore to an anchorage well out. Along these cables torpedoes could be electrically propelled with great rapidity and absolute certainty of course. Any number of these lines could be laid, centering on the most strategic points. A constant succession of explosions could thus be provided for, which would make it utterly impossible for anything to float above them or cross the line defended. Above such a network of wires a cruiser would toss as helpless as a fly enmeshed in a spider's web. The harbor would be transformed into a boiling caldron and the precision of the battle ship's fire be prevented. With a thousand dangers upspringing from beneath, and the supporting cannonade of land batteries, it seems to me that any naval attack would be necessarily repulsed.

The signal corps could employ flashlights for the interchange of communication. The withdrawal of troops at night from the front of an opposing force could be detected by searchlights. Surprises would be rendered difficult. Battlefields could be illuminated, and by expediting the work of relief parties save thousands of lives. The telegraph and telephone would come into extensive use. Cavalry raiders would have to outride electric engines. Portable ranges would become part of the equipment of armies. Rations could be cooked on them, and they would be of inestimable service in field hospitals. Often camp fires are forbidden and the men must endure the cold and discomfort of an uncheered bivouac. Electricity could supply heat without fire.

Heretofore forts and intrenchments have been constructed with the pick and spade. But the use of electricity on a grand scale in our great public works and corporate enterprises shows to what advantage it could be put in the erection of fortifications. Live wires, heavily charged and stretched ouside of defensive positions, would be of greater service than moat or abatis.

War is daily growing more terrible. Perhaps electric energies may make it so destructive as to render all appeals to arms impolitic. The pure white light of this supernal force may be the dawn of that era of universal peace of which the centuries have dreamed.

FRANK W. HAWLEY.

To Make Him Happy.

Dick—Rose, are you really embroidering that lovely foot-pillow for me?

Rose—Yes, dear; but if you put your feet on it I won't speak to you for a week.—Chicago Record.

GERMAN-AMERICANS INDIGNANT.

The Heine Monument Committee Favors Accepting Baltimore's Offer.

New York, Feb. 3.—The Heine monument central committee has unanimously adopted the following resolutions: Whereas, the park commissioners have made the acceptance of our offer, to present to the city of New York Prof. Herter's beautiful Lorely fountain, subject to the approval of a prejudiced body of artists, and we have withdrawn our offer because the action of the park commissioners is an insult to the artistic merits of the Heine monument and to the German-American population of the city; therefore, be it resolved, that we disapprove of any and all efforts to secure a place for the Loreley fountain in the city of New York in a roundabout way as incompatible with the honor of the people who offered this gift; and, further, resolved, that we earnestly recommend to the meeting of the general committee, called for Feb. 6, to grant the request made by the city of Baltimore and to give the Loreley fountain to that city, where it is highly appreciated and will find a place worthy of the poet whose memory it honors and of the artist who created it.

NEAL MORSE & CO. ALL RIGHT.

Report of the Failure of the Corporation Denied.

Boston, Feb. 3.—Relative to the New York dispatch giving an alleged statement of the financial condition of the wholesale woolen firm of Neal, Morse & Co., Mr. Morse said to-day: "The company did not fail and was not embarrassed. Simply a change from a co-partnership to a corporation was suggested, and, as it was favorably considered by all interested, it was done. The New York persons mentioned have accepted, instead of being inclined to accept. The most embarrassing error in the story, however, is the statement that the liabilities are $560,000, which would give the impression that there was a deficiency of $84,000. The figures should be $360,000 instead of $560,000. We have a surplus of $117,000 instead of a deficit. The corporation is in good shape."

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

Don't Doubt

OUR

"Word!"

WE ARE

Closing Out

our immense stock of

WALL PAPER, PAINTS, SHADES, RUGS, MOULDINGS, ETC.

Let us do your

Spring Decorating.

Edward Love,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

AT THE

Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium,

Plainfield, N. J.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

Classes Mondays and Thursday, February 1st to May 1st, at such hours as suit the convenience of members.

TERMS.

Women for three months $15, for one month $8.
Girls for three month $12, for one month $6.
Private instruction $2 per lesson.
Chart and prescription $1.50. Instruction in fencing $15 per term of twelve lessons in classes of three. Swimming $12.50 per term of ten lessons. Payments in advance.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh

& SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4¾c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5¾c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5¾c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

Grand Final Clearing Sale

—OF—

Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks

previous to stocktaking, February 1, We propose to close out every winter garment. Notice the extraordinary reductions.

LADIES' JACKETS—LATEST STYLES.

Ladies boucle jackets, shield front, large pearl buttons, mandolin sleeves reg. $10 jacket for $6.49.
Ladies' brown jackets, shield front, velvet collar and cuffs, large pearl buttons, reg. price $18, for $13.
Ladies' diagonal jackets, 28 inches long, reefer front, large pearl buttons, were $15, now $12.
Misses' fancy mixed jackets, velvet collar, mandolin sleeves, reefer front, were $8, now $5.
Misses' navy blue jackets, reefer front, ripple back, mandolin sleeves seams piped with velvet, large storm collar, reg. price $12, at $7.98.
Misses' jackets, blue and white mixed, double faced goods, velvet collar, 4 large pearl buttons, were $12, now $ .49.
Children's Gretchens, fancy mixtures, sailor collar, newest styles, were $10, now $6 98.

777 and 779 Broad Street,

Newark, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

One night only

Tuesday, February 4.

The phenomenal success, that picturesque comedy surprise,

A Cracker Jack

A comedy drama true to life.

A play written for the people.
Crowded with exciting incidents.
Overflowing with merriment.
Charmingly enlivened with the best specialty novelties obtainable.
Presented with a cast of reorganized metropolitan artists.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Everything new and up-to-date.

HOYT'S A TRIP TO CHINATOWN

Produced in exactly the same manner as at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, with the

ORIGINAL CAST,

including Harry Conor and all the original scenery, furniture and properties

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1 Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, L't'd.

SEE PORTLAND RANGE—IT'S FINEST MAKE IN THE LAND.

Know About Our Bargain Room?

You'd better, provided saved money is an object to you. This room of ours is fairly bubbling over with odd pieces and single patterns of a kind in carpets and furniture—all new goods, taken right from stock—now marked in plain figures at one-half former prices. Here's a part of the room's contents:

BEDROOM SUITS, varied woods and designs—in some cases only one pattern of a kind—splendid values.
PARLOR SUITS—rich and effective coverings—choice construction; not a suit here that you'd be ashamed to own.
DININGROOM FURNITURE, every kind—chairs, extension tables, sideboards, etc.
RANGES AND STOVES—fine bakers and heaters—good and new.
MISFIT CARPETS—all displayed on the walls; rare chance in every weave.

OUR NEW STORAGE BUILDING at 88, 90, 92 Bank st—rooms are large, cleanly and locked—vans call for goods—terms rock bottom.

Amos H. Van Horn, L't'd., 73 Market st.

Furniture, Carpets, Etc. Near Plane st., Newark, N. J.

Low Prices, Easy Terms. Goods delivered free to any part of State. Telephone 580.

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering.

Men's seamless half hose.....10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy.....2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black.....2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose.....10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes.....15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee.....18c
Large white cotton towels, only.....10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for.....$1.00

Spring Embroideries

WHY PAY MORE When You Can Get

Extra Philadelphia creamery butter, (in 1 lb prints).....22c
Full cream cheese, per lb.....10c
Soup beans, per quart.....7c
Dried green peas, per quart.....5c

Big reduction in teas and coffees; best qualities of tea reduced from 60c to 38c, 3 lbs for $1.00. Best Java and Mocha 31c per lb. Best Java combination coffee, our price 18c per lb, sold elsewhere for 25c and 28c.

FULPER'S, 207 West Front Street

Don't forget the number. Goods delivered in Dunellen.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

AGAINST THE DRILLS.

FRIENDS SOCIETY PROTEST AGAINST MILITARY DISCIPLINE IN SCHOOLS.

To the Board of Education They Express Regret at the Military Spirit Against the Teachings of the Divine Master.

The regular February meeting of the Board of Education was held at the High School building last night. The members of the board present were Messrs. Lounsbury, Lovell, Abbott and Jenkins, and subsequently President Probasco. Mr. Lovell was elected temporary chairman and presided until the arrival of Dr. Probasco. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Secretary Lounsbury read a number of approved bills which were ordered paid.

The report of B. Holmes, county superintendent, showed that he had deposited $16,101.75 to the credit of the board. Collector Johnson reported that he had collected $2,182.79 in school taxes which, with $38.77 interest, he had deposited to the order of the board. Mr. Lounsbury then presented each member of the board with a report of their financial condition for January. It was as follows:

Balance January 1st		$18,123.44
RECEIPTS:
From State of New Jersey	$16,101.75
From City Collector	2,221.56
		18,323.31
		$36,446.75
PAYMENTS:
Teachers, Janitors, Clerk	$ 3,809.89
School Books, Supplies	346.98
Repairs, etc	496.29
Sundries	1,312 47
Note due January 8th	6,000.00
		11,965.63
Balance February 1st		$24,481.12
City National Bank	$11,141 64
First National Bank	13,339.48

In the above "sundries" is included the payment to city for share of assessor's and Collector's fees.

Mr. Lounsbury, as chairman of the building committee, reported that there was no important changes or repairs to be made at present. In relation to a primary school in the First Ward on Berckman street, he reported that a deed for the property as suggested was now being recorded at Elizabeth and would soon be placed before the Board. The committee had invited competitive sketches from a number of architects and expect the same to be ready for examination by the Board on or about March 1st. The committee suggested a special meeting to examine them.

The communication to the Board of Health was then presented by Secretary Lounsbury, who drew it up. He thanked the Board of Health for referring Mr. Krom's letter to the Board of Education, and said that they wished to aid as much as possible in maintaining good health in the schools. All of the suggestions of Mr. Krom, with one exception, were already in use. Regarding the providing for individual drinking cups, he said the Board was unanimously of the opinion that the plan suggested would prove not only unnecessary and annoying, but probably more unsanitary than the present arrangement. In concluding, he said that the Board desires to give their views more fully before any positive action is taken.

In connection with the same matter, Mr. Lounsbury read a letter he had received from William N. Barringer, Superintendent of Education in Newark, stating that there was no truth in the statement made by Mr. Krom in The Daily Press that an outbreak of diphtheria in the Newark schools could have been prevented by the use of individual drinking cups. "We have had no outbreak or spread of diphtheria in any of our public schools for many years," said the letter.

The following bonds and interest were reported due:

	Interest.	Principal.
Bryant, six months.	$600	$1 000
Franklin, six months.	$325	$1,000
	$925	$2,000

They were ordered paid.

The teachers reported the necessity of an over-flow class in the Franklin school and suggested Miss Clara J. Churchon, of Oswego, as teacher. Superintendent Maxson thought her the one for the place.

A communication was received from the Friends' Society. They expressed deep regret that military drill was being introduced regularly into the school and that guns were being procured. They earnesly protested against it as they thought the military spirit was against the teachings of the Divine Master. It was moved and carried that the communication be received, spread upon the minutes and an acknowledgment of its receipt be sent to the Friends' Society.

The Board then went into executive session.

Watching the Militia.

Captain George F. Edwards and several of the High School cadets were present last evening at the dress parade and review of the Twenty-second Regiment of the New York National Guard held at the Twenty-second Regiment Armory.

TROPHY COMES BACK.

Park Club Win the State Whist Championship Again.

Last December the Orange Whist Club came to Plainfield and captured the State whist trophy. Clubs from Montclair and Elizabeth tried in vain to take it. Last evening the Park Club team, Messrs. McCutchen, Rogers, Townsend and Howell met the Orange players, Messrs. Otis, Herring, Hirchfield and Lethbridge, at Orange. In the first round the Park Club came out six points to the good. In the next round the Parks only scored one more point than their opponents. The last round was a battle to the death and the clubs tied in their score. The Park Club won the match by seven points, and again the trophy adorns their club house. But it may not be for long, for five challenges are already in. The first match here will be played with the Newark Whist Club Tuesday evening.

ST. PAUL AFLOAT.

The Big Steamer Hauled Off the Beach This Morning.

At 10 o'clock this morning, when the tide was only about half high, the American liner St. Paul, which had been stuck fast in the sand off Long Branch for ten days, was pulled off the shoal and slid into the deep water without injury. By 11 o'clock she was on her way to her pier in New York.

Police Changes.

Captain George W. Grant has changed his men about somewhat, as is the custom occasionally. Policemen Frederickson and Vanderweg will look after the business portion of the city. Policeman Flanagan will do duty in the Boulevard. Policemen Hartpence, Totten and Saunders will patrol the West End and West Seventh street. Policeman, Flynn and Mattox have been placed in the East End.

The latter will remain this side of the railroad. Policeman Myers will continue to do duty at Netherwood part of the night and the other part in Plainfield. All of the above will be on night duty, while in addition to Policemen Kiely and McCue, Policeman Cooney will do day duty. The latter will be in the boulevard.

For Students.

Books in the Free Public Libray on the Turko-Russian war of 1877. University Extension Lecture:

Champney, Vassar Girls in Russia and Turkey.
*Dwight, Turkish Life in War Time.
*Eorbes, Reminiscences of Turko-Russian War, (19th century, v. 30, p. 414.)
Field, Greek Islands and Turkey After the War.
Knox, Boy Travelers in Russia.
Poole, Story of Turkey.
*Rambaud, History of Russia, v. 3.

Hospital Sunday.

The offerings made by the various churches on Hospital Sunday (thus far received by the treasurer of Muhlen-Hospital) were as follows:

All Souls church	$ 10.71
Grace church	73.56
Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church	115.74
Seventh-day Baptist church	19.20
Church of the Redeemer	20.68
Total	$239.89

Reckless Lads.

Several lads were ordered to appear before City Judge DeMeza this morning on the charge of being disorderly and shooting fire arms on Plainfield avenue. Only two appeared; Riheard Scott was given his choice between a $1 fine or five days and paid. Sentence was suspended on Michael Muldowney.

Take "Clyde Line" to Florida.

Superb steamers; low rates; quick time. Only two-and-a-half days from New York through to Jacksonville, Fla., without change, including six hours' stop in Charleston. No transfers, cinders, dust or heat. Write "Clyde Line," New York, for descriptive matter, mailed free.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Randolph, of Watchung avenue, resigned her position in Edsall's Commercial Palace last Saturday.

Miss Mabel Schenck, of Somerville, is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Vosseller, of East Second street.

Miss Julia J. Ketcham, of East Fifth street, returned home from the city yesterday, where she has been spending a week with her cousin, Mrs. Herbert P. Campbell.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

CITY SOLONS AGITATED.

Liveliest Meeting of the Common Council in a Long Time.

MR. FROST ON THE DEFENSIVE.

He Opposes the Reappointment of Street Commissioner Meeker and Defeated in This He Endeavors to Have the Salary of the Office Reduced—Lively Exchange of Remarks Between the Councilmen—Appointment of the Overseer of the Poor Has to Be Laid Over Because the Mayor's Selection is Not a Citizen of the United States—Council Will Assist Elias H. Bird in His Fight for the Possession of the Collector's Office, and Also Make Him Delinquent Tax Collector—Many Other Important Matters Acted On.

There was something wrong with the wheels that transacted the affairs of the city at last night's Council meeting, but just where the trouble was no one was able to perceive. There was that lack of unity that has characterized previous meetings, and the main object of the members seemed to be who was going to be best man. That point was not definitely settled, but the fact remains that the end is not yet. As was to be expected, the lobby was well filled with people who eagerly watched the proceedings and nothing escaped their eye. All the members were present except Mr. Fisk. After the minutes of the previous meeting were adopted, Mr. Dumont moved that the rules of order, as presented at the last meeting, be adopted as the by-laws of the Council. The motion prevailed.

A communication was then read from the Street Railway Company, which stated that they had accepted the city's terms in regard to building the trolley extensions. It was received and filed, as was also the bond of City Treasurer Alex. Titsworth.

Jacob Kliner applied for a license to run stages to Scotch Plains and, on the recommendation of Mr. Moore, of the license committee, the same was granted.

E. B. Clark and other residents of West Front street and vicinity, petitioned Council for sidewalks on West End avenue. The matter was referred to the street committee.

Sarah Dickenson, of West Front street, asked that a fair apportionment be made on her property for taxes. This matter was referred to the Assessor, he in turn to report to the Council.

The following persons then presented applications for liquor licenses: John Rafferty, James Day, Jacob Blimm, Charles Smith, J. L. Wellborn, Henry Haurand, Frank Linke, Wallace V. Miller, Alexander Findlay, Fred Caspar, John Beerbower and J. Sullivan. They were referred to the license committee and, according to law, will be advertised.

E. H. Bird communicated with Council, stating his case in regard to his being elected Collector of the city.

He said that at the proper time he went to the collector's office and asked for the books, etc., and that Mr. Johnson refused to surrender the office. Since then he had consulted Attorney-General Stockton and had been advised that he was entitled to the office, which opinion was substantially the same as given by Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh. He also stated that he holds himself in readiness to receive all taxes. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee, and later Mr. Dumont offered a resolution that whereas Mr. Bird having been elected collector, filed his bonds, and that Mr. Johnson refused to give up the office, the Council deem it necessary to aid Mr. Bird, and that the Council authorize the Finance Committee to assist in all legal expense in the settlement of the case. The resolution was adopted, all voting for it. Mr. Dumont stated that it was understood by the council that they were to help Mr. Bird secure possession of the office and he thought they should.

The names of the following persons as special policemen were then read as appointed by Mayor Gilbert: S. R. Hope, Thomas Clarkson, C. Harris, G. R. Rockafellow, Jacob Kriney, William Dagnall, Charles Laine, Cadwalader Jones, Morris Higgins, D. F. Stewart, Dennis Carney, Robert McConnack, G. M. Lunger, Peter Peterson, Christopher Hansen, E. H. Bird, Edward Martin, William Hillman, Henry Pugh, Nathan Pollard, Remsey Yetman, Charles Post, Edwin Dobbs, Henry Fraleigh, Joseph Swick, Edward Maynard, Richard E. Davis, H. Wierenga, W. S. Brown, W. A. Pinto and Jeremiah Cash. They were all confirmed by the council, as were also the appointments of Henry Brick and Frederick Wenzle as poundkeepers, and L. W. Serrell, H. B Newhall and G. W. Endicott, as members of the Board of Health. The following appointments by the Mayor were also confirmed: Corporation Counsel, Craig A. Marsh; Street Commissioner, R. A. Meeker; Chief of the Fire Department, T. O. Doane; First Assistant, James A. Martin; Second Assistant, John W. Murray, City Physician, Dr. Simpson. G. A. Marx was confirmed as Overseer of the Poor, but later it was stated by Mr. Ginna that he understood Mr. Marx had not yet secured his naturalization papers, and in accordance with that fact his appointment was laid over till the next meeting.

At this point the wheels became clogged and surprises came thick and fast.

Mr. Frost arose and said that in view of the fact that a large assessment was soon to be made on the tax payers in connection with the introduction of sewers, he was opposed to the continuance of the office of Street Commissioner. The demands at present was for a man who could fill that position and at the same time be an expert in sewer matters, so as to be able to look after both. Such a man in his opinion was A. J. Gavett. He opposed the office on the above grounds.

Mr. Barrows was impressed with Mr. Frost's remarks and stated that Plainfield had grown considerably on account of its good streets, but the sewer work had retarded in a great measure the improvement. He thought anyone could use a level but the work of Mr. Meeker was a steady one and he being a very active man thought he was a valuable one for the position. He thought it was a poor time in the absence of Mr. Fisk to take advantage of that member's right hand. Mr. Frost replied, "We don't want superintendenst, but we do need good foremen and inspectors."

Mr. Dumont became interested and said, "we cannot move in this matter very well at present. In the future there will probably be a need for a board of public works. I agree with Mr. Frost that the two offices should be consolidated. I was chairman of the street committee four years and during that time knew the condition of the streets, and so does Mr. Fisk at present. There is yet a good deal to be done and Mr. Fisk should be allowed to carry out his plans. I think its a very inopportune time to act in the matter. In another year we may be ready for the change." Mr. Frost by this time was thoroughly aroused and said he had no idea of interfering, but he thought the city could get better work for less money. "I am addressing some of the best business men in the country," said Mr. Frost. "I have talked this matter over with Mr. Fisk in his own home. I think my judgment is as good as Mr. Fisk's or Mr. Meeker's. I am in favor of putting that $15,000 for streets in another fund. Mr. Meeker's salary would supply two or three men. It's a matter of common sense. While I am in the council I am going to do just the same as if I was transacting my own private business. I am not reflecting on Mr. Meeker, but on the office, and it is a question of how Plainfield can get the best for the least. It costs too much to macadamize streets and you cannot do much with $15,000. There are people who have done as much for the city as Mr. Fisk. He is not the only one in love with the city nor the only one that spends money out of his own pocket."

Mr. Barrows replied by saying that "we all have our own ideas. A man like Mr. Meeker knows the streets. Mr. Frost thinks Mr. Gavett is the proper man; we should have some right to judge Mr. Meeker's abilities also." At this time the question was called for and all voted for the confirmation of Mr. Meeker, except Mr. Frost and Westphal.

Inspector T. O. Doane reported that seven permits to erect buildings had been granted. The report was referred to the fire and building committee.

Mr. Dumont offered a resolution that the Board of Health be requested to file all ordinances passed by them with the city clerk. It was so ordered. Mr. Ginna moved that the Corporation Counsel's salary be the same as last year, $1,000. The motion prevailed. Mr. Dumont offered a motion that the present salaries for the city officers be adopted. Mr. Frost objected to Mr. Meeker's salary, and he then asked what the duties of the city treasurer were. "What does he do for the money he receives?" was the question he propounded. Mr. Dumont replied by saying that in the first place the treasurer gives a bond for $25,000, and that the present work would not take but five days a month. Mr. Dumont then went on and explained the duties of the treasurer.

The salaries of the first assistant and chief of the fire department were objected to by Councilmen Stebbins and Westphal. The matter of salaries

CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.

WHAT IS YOUR DEBT?

Rev. Dr. Richards Talks Earnestly at the Evangelical Meeting.

On account of the unpropitious weather many were detained from attending the revival meeting in the Park Avenue Baptist church last night. Yet, although few were present, the meeting was one of the best so far held and the presence of the Spirit of God was manifest.

The usual song service was led by Horace J. Martin, after which Dr. Yerkes offered the opening prayer. Charles Lewis was present and sang, "Pass Me Not O Gentle Saviour."

Rev. Dr. Richards read the sixteenth chapter of Luke, taking for his text the words, "How much owest thou unto my Lord?"

He said in part: It is a strange fact that our Lord should have used this account of an unjust man to bring out the teachings of a very great truth, yet it is so. It was those who hated our Lord who looked upon Him when He was hanging in misery upon the cross and said, "He saved others, Himself He cannot save." It was those who hated His followers who said of them that they were men who had turned the world upside down. If we desire to find out the character of a man we may do so very effectually by getting the opinion which his enemies have of him.

"How much owest thou unto my Lord?" If we complain of some disagreeable service which we should for our Lord, we surely do not fully realize our debt to Him.

One does not reckon debts by what the law can screw out of them, but by what their benefactors have done for them and what they, therefore, deserve. Thus when we think of what we owe to our Lord and Saviour it is not possible to reckon up our debt to Him.

Jacob began to pay his debt to his Lord by promising that if he should be prospered he would give back one-tenth of what he received from his Lord, yet he said he was not worthy of the least of his Lord's benefits and mercies.

We are all God's debtors; every day we are under greater obligation to Him than we were on the previous day, because nothing can separate us from God's love. How are we regarding our debt to God? Do we fully realize our debt to Him and feel our entire inability to pay it? Or do we not? This is the difference between the Pharisee and the Christian. Mr. Lewis then rendered a solo, "There is a Green Hill Far Away."

The after meeting was led by Dr. Lewis. Many earnest expressions of God's grace and power were given by members of the congregation, and much good was felt by all present. Mr. Richardson then stated that the other churches and congregations had gained a large blessing from the meetings held during the past three weeks and therefore he and his congregation had invited the people to join with them in their church in order that they might also receive a blessing from God.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck will preach tomorrow evening.

VANDERVEER DEAD.

His Three Assailants Will Be Tried For Murder in Somerset County.

John Vandever, the colored man who has been living at Muhlenberg Hospital with a broken neck for three or four days, died last evening at about 9:30 o'clock. He was unconscious up to the last. An inquest will be held this afternoon by County Physician O'Reilly at the hospital. Prosecutor Dungan, of Somerset county, was in town today investigating the case. Vanderveer's three assailants, Horace Hall, George Brokaw and George Hall, will be held for trial on the charge of murder.

Printing By Artificial Light.

A demonstration of electric paper will be held at the Plainfield Camera Club rooms this evening by the makers of the paper. The benefit claimed for the paper is that it can be printed by artificial light. Anyone interested in the work is invited to be present.

Broke His Fingers.

Augustus Hoagland had the misfortune to break the first and second fingers of his left hand at Potter's Press Works, yesterday, by a window falling on them. He will be laid up for some time.

—Trinity Commandery, No. 17, Knights Templar, met last evening and conferred the Order of the Temple.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

WATSONS IN TROUBLE.

A SCRAP IN WHICH THE WHOLE FAMILY BECAME MIXED-UP.

The Trouble Started Between Mike and His Wife and Ended Up With Her Father Thumping His Son-in-Law's Face

Blood flowed on West Fourth street last night and the family quarrel, of which it was the climax, was aired in the city court this morning. Yesterday afternoon about 5:30 Michael Watson made a complaint against his wife, charging her with being drunk and disorderly. Watson keeps a small grocery store and has been convicted several times of selling liquor illegally. He wanted Chief Grant to serve the warrant at once, but that official did not want to keep a woman with a baby in jail over night and said he would arrest her in the morning. Watson persisted and declared that he would look after the child, so at about 9 o'clock Chief Grant and Sergeant Kiely took a carriage for the scene of action. When they reached Grant avenue they found Watson leaning against a tree with a terrible cut in the side of his head that bled profusely. Just then James McFadden, employed by Street Commissioner Meeker as a street cleaner, came running up shouting "Police!" He acknowledged striking Watson and so Sergeant Kiely arrested them both and took them to the lockup, while the Chief went after their original victim and she was conveyed to the lockup also.

Mrs. Watson is the daughter of Mr. McFadden. The story told in the court room this morning regarding the striking was as follows:

After Watson left Grant, he went home ahead of the officers ostensibly to get the child. Last night he said he went to warn his wife. She was not home and he went to her father's. Here he came in like "a roaring lion" according to McFadden, and as both Watson and his wife had been drinking, a lively scene ensued. McFadden ordered him out and followed up the order by picking up the first thing that came handy, neither of them know exactly what it was, and banged it across hisson-in-law's head. Finally Watson went out and met the officers.

At the rookery there was another scene, as Mrs. Watson refused to be locked up and abused Sergeant Kiely as he has never been abused before. She was at last put in a cell and made the night hideous with her screams and dancing until the officers took her shoes off and forced her to keep still.

Mrs. Watson pleaded not guilty to all the charges, but refused to be sworn. The evidence proved her guilty and the Judge imposed a fine of $15 or thirty days in jail. Her husband paid the fine. Watson appeared with a sorry looking head and blood stained clothing and pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly. He was given his choice between a $3 fine or ten days in jail. He paid.

McFadden also pleaded guilty on the charge of disorderly conduct, but the defense of his daughter seemed excusable, and the Judge suspended sentence.

A Ribbon Transaction.

On Saturday morning Edward White received word from a prominent importer and manufacturer that they had accepted an offer that he had made for their entire stock of short lengths of fine Dresden and printed-warp ribbons that are going to be so popular this season. There will be over one thousand dollars worth of ribbons on sale and, as Mr. White says he bought them at one-quarter their real value and will sell them the same way, the ladies can expect great bargains.

The New Laureate.

When Tennyson was laureate he warmed the hearts of men with rhapsodies of verse that only his great art could pen, but now, the man of sentiment who yearns to feel the glow of pleasure, turns despondently from Austin's doggerel flow, and, wooing brighter hope, he goes to Geo. O. Stevens' mart, and gets some gems of anthracite with which to warm his heart.

"Omnia" Bread

Is prepared by the Hygienic Food Co., of Orange, from the Complete Flour of the whole of the wheat. No lard or molasses are used in its preparation.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

AMERICANS ALARMED

Spaniards in Havana Bitter Against Foreign Residents There.

THEY BLAME THE UNITED STATES

Serious Trouble May Follow the Adoption of the Report of the Foreign Affairs Committee—Rumor of Revolt in Havana.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Havana, Feb. 1, via Tampa, Fla., Feb. 4.—American residents here are becoming alarmed as to their safety in case the report of the committee on foreign affairs becomes a law. The news of the action of the committee caused many bitter utterances of rabid Spanish officeholders, to the effect that the United States is to blame for all the trouble that has come upon Spain. The feeling has been intensified since the recall of Campos, and American citizens who are merchants, business men, professional men and who are permanent residents here, are very much worked up over the outlook. They would feel much more secure if one of Uncle Sam's warships was anchored in the harbor. Already reports of severe measures against suspects are coming in. The intense Spanish hatred for Cubans which led to horrible atrocities in the last war, is beginning to manifest itself.

Gomez's Forces Roaming at Will.

Gen. Gomez has crossed the strategic line of Trocho between Havana and Batabano twice in a week. He had no serious difficulty either time, although the wall of men is the strongest one ever thrown across the island by Spain. Troops have been drawn from all parts of the island to make it invulnerable and several thousand volunteers have been added to the force of regulars along the line. Over 1,500 cavalry have recently been formed by mounting infantrymen and several batteries of artillery are stationed on the line. With all these preparations and the building of blockhouses of wood and stone, the throwing of earthworks and the transforming of railroad stations, churches and dwellings into forts, the daring rough riders of Gomez's command push through the lines leaving at each dash a few dead and wounded Spaniards to mark their passage. Every time the line is crossed the authorities at the palace, who sift all news published here or cabled direct, eliminate all reference to the crossing and state in official reports that Gomez was driven away.

Misleading Reports Sent Out.

The hospitals are full of wounded soldiers, thousands have died on the field, despite the light losses given in the Spanish reports. Twice each day the government issues official reports to the local papers and to the foreign correspondents. The press censor hands them out and all news published here or cabled abroad must conform to these reports. Similar reports are cabled to the Spanish ministers at Washington, London and Paris. Martinez Campos said that these reports were ludicrous; every press censor who has held the post has said that they are absurd; no intelligent American has any faith in them, but, forsooth, the correspondents are compelled to send these misleading reports or give up the use of the cables.

The Island Alive with Rebels.

Gen. Marin is now at Quivican, eighteen miles south of Havana. He missed his great opportunity of penning both Gomez and Maceo in Pinar del Rio province by starting one day late. Now he has Gomez on one side of the line and Maceo on the other, and will try to prevent their meeting. While practically all the Spanish forces which can be spared from guarding the cities are concentrated about the strategic line in an effort to maintain its impregnability the various bands of insurgents roam at will in all the provinces of Cuba. In Santiago there are frequent encounters, and all grinding of cane has been stopped. The same is true of Santa Clara and Puerto Principe. In Mantanzas the whole interior of the province, as in fact almost the island of Cuba, is alive with rebels. Tacret has united a dozen small bands and has nearly 2,000 men under him. They have had daily encounters with Spanish troops and continue gaining in strength.

Maceo's Triumphal Campaign.

In Pinar del Rio Maceo is returning to the Havana border after a triumphal campaign. The few Spanish troops in the province have succeeded in holding the capital city and Coloma, its port, but every other town has been entered and occupied by Maceo in Havana province. J. FRANK CLARK.

Has Havana Revolted?

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 4.—The British warship Mohawk was dispatched hastily last evening from this port to Havana. It is thought by many persons here that the cause of her sudden departure was that there has been a revolt among the Spanish volunteers in the Cuban capital, and that the Mohawk has been sent to protect the lives and property of British subjects.

Rebel Defeat Reported.

New York, Feb. 4.—The following private cable dispatch sent from Havana has just been received in this city: "A severe encounter has just occurred between the troops under the command of Gen. Marin and the forces of Maximo Gomez, the scene of the battle being the sugar plantation San Antonio, near San Felipe. Col. Calinto Ruiz, in command of seven squadrons, charged impetuously upon the advance of the insurgents, driving them in confusion before him, and, continuing his march, the troops came up with the bulk of the enemy's forces, which were encamped on the above named plantation. The attack of the Spanish forces was so furious that the insurgents broke precipitately and the route became a sauve qui peut. The insurgents left twenty dead on the field, eleven of whom were killed by the bayonet. Besides these, they had many wounded and lost many prisoners. The troops succeeded in capturing large quantities of arms, ammunition and camp equipments."

Campos Declines To Talk.

Madrid, Feb. 4.—Gen. Martinez Campos, since his arrival Sunday night from Cuba, has denied himself to all newspaper men and all efforts to get an expression from him regarding the war in Cuba have so far failed.

LOSS OF THE HAWKINS.

She Was Not Licensed To Carry Passengers—An Investigation To Be Made.

New York, Feb. 4.—In connection with the loss of the alleged Cuban insurrectionary steamship J. W. Hawkins the following letter has been received at the local steamboat inspection office from the supervising inspector general at Washington, addressed to George Starbuck, supervising inspector second district, New York: "Referring to the loss of the steamship J. W. Hawkins, alleged to have been lost off Montauk, L. I., a few days ago, having on board upward of one hundred persons, several of whom were reported as drowned, you will please direct the attention of the local inspectors at New York to the fact that said steamer was certificated about April 20, 1895, as a fishing steamer and that under such certificate it was a violation of law to carry passengers. I suggest that the case be investigated under section 4,450 to ascertain whether said master has not been guilty of misconduct, such as would make him liable to either of the penalties provided in said section." The local inspector's office has taken prompt cognizance of this communication and will send an answer showing that careful investigation will be made, probably to-day.

FOR COAST DEFENCE.

The Lodge Amendment to the Bond Bill To Be Pushed.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The Lodge amendment to the bond bill, which met with defeat on Saturday, is to be pushed as a separate measure while the "war spirit" still continues to animate congress. Several senators, who are opposed to bond issues on general principles, are said to have signified their willingness to vote for a bond issue to be spent on coast defense alone. They will take the ground, with their constituents, that it will be better economy to spend this money in a lump and put the necessary coast defense through in two years, than to continue the present practice of appropriations in small amounts which would, at the present rate, consume twenty years in getting ready the guns and probably seventy years in preparing the emplacements.

TO INSTRUCT DEAF CHILDREN.

Provisions of the Bill Ordered Favorably Reported in the House.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—The bill ordered favorably reported by the committee on education of the national house of representatives, to aid in establishing schools in the states and territories to teach speech and vocal language to deaf children before they are of school age, and appropriating $100,000 for educating not less than 100 teachers, who are to be sent to state and territorial schools when established, stipulates that the fund is to be paid to Mary L. Garrett, Gov. Hastings and ex-Gov. Pattison of Pennsylvania and three other trustees. Miss Garrett is the promoter of the proposition and has her school in this city.

For Free Coinage of Silver.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 4.—United States Senator Marion Butler, who is state chairman of the populist party in North Carolina, sent out an address to the members of the populist party and all others in this state opposed to a single gold standard to unite and vote so that the eleven electoral votes of North Carolina in the forthcoming elections shall be given to candidates favoring the free coinage of silver.

Dunraven Confers with Wales.

London, Feb. 4.—The Chronicle today says that Lord Dunraven has gone to Sandringham to confer with the Prince of Wales, as commodore of the Royal Yacht squadron, before deciding what his final step will be in the matter of the finding against him by the committee of inquiry of the New York Yacht club.

Atlantans Leave for Home.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Mayor King and the members of the Atlanta delegation who accompanied the old liberty bell to this city, after a day of sightseeing yesterday as the guests of a committee of the Philadelphia council and an evening spent at the theatre, left for New York at midnight.

Sudden Death of a Minister.

New York, Feb. 4.—Rev. John W. Trimble, a Protestant Episcopal minister, died suddenly in the Twenty-third street station of the Sixth Avenue Elevated railroad last night. He was on his way to church. His last charge before coming to this city was at Tuckahoe, N. Y.

Bidders for the Bonds.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Joseph C. Hendrix, president of the National Union bank of New York, has arrived with the bids for the government bonds made by a group of New York institutions, aggregating a large sum.

An Old Railroad Man To Retire.

New York, Feb. 4.—It is stated that W. J. Spicer is to retire as general manger of the Chicago & Grand Trunk railway. He has been in the railway business forty years.

DE ANDRADE A FRAUD

The Governor General Deceived His Government.

PERMITTED PLUNDER AND MURDER

Reported Personal Friends Deserving of Distinction for Valor Who Never Encountered the Rebels—He Has Been Recalled.

London, Feb. 4.—A dispatch to the Central News from Lisbon says that R. de Andrade, governor-general of Goa, the Portuguese colony in India, has been recalled by the government. Goa has been the scene of a revolt against the Portuguese authorities and a number of the troops there joined the rebels. It has been discovered that the telegrams sent to Lisbon by de Andrade telling of bloody combats with, and victories over, the rebels were apocryphal. In his dispatch he mentioned officers who were worthy of distinction for the valor displayed by them in face of the enemy. These officers, it transpires, are personal friends of the governor-general, and it has been further proved that neither they nor the troops have ever met the rebels. De Andrade increased his own salary from six to ten contos of reis, and permitted his adherents to plunder and murder people in the colony. It is likely that he will be severely punished.

DON'T WANT HIM TO GO.

Prominent New Yorkers Join in the Protest Against Ballington Booth's Recall.

New York, Feb. 4.—The meeting last night to protest against the removal of Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth from the leadership of the Salvation Army in this country filled the main floor of Carnegie music hall comfortably full of the friends of the deposed leaders. Chauncey M. Depew presided and ministers of almost every denomination were present. Mayor Strong sat by the right of the chairman and made an address, as did also Bishop Andrews, Rev. Dr. Strong, William E. Dodge and Rev. Dr. Bradford. Mr. Depew began his address by reading a telegram from Bramwell Booth, "chief of staff," to the effect that General Booth was now in India, but that the recalling of his son was intended as no discourtesy. With this little prelude the speaker went on to say that that was all very well, but New Yorkers had a way of doing things and saying things without much regard to what London thought about it. This was not done, he said, in any bragging spirit, but in the interest of letting the kindred across the sea know that the infant hero had many views of its own. Resolutions were then introduced and adopted urging, if consistent with the best interests of the whole world, "That Commander and Mrs. Booth be allowed to remain in the positions in which they have been so abundantly blessed by God, in which they have won the honor, gratitude and love of the American people, and have led on with inspiring zeal all the members of the army in their work of rescue."

RECENT OUTRAGES AT CESAREA.

Six Hundred and Fifty Persons Killed, Houses Burned and Girls Abducted.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 4.—A letter has just been received by an Armenian residing in this city from a clergyman in Cesarea, Turkey. He advises the Wilmington Armenian not to mention the Armenian troubles in his letters, as "it will do us no good and might harm us greatly." The writer further says: "The following seems to be an accurate account of the recent trouble in this city: Six hundred and fifty killed; 400 wounded, many fatally; sixty houses burned and 400 looted. About 100 girls were carried away, but all but ten or fifteen were allowed to return. The loss by the looting of the shops is estimated at $550,000."

Mrs. R. E. Prince
Bushville, N. Y.

Chronic Indigestion

Thought Incurable, but Perfectly Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I feel thankful for benefit received from Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was in poor health, having had chronic indigestion five years. I thought there was no cure for me. I read a testimonial of one who had had been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and his case was similar to mine. I was willing to take anything that offered hope, so I commenced with a few drops of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My digestion was helped by the first three doses. I have now taken over four bottles and and also saved my life. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla my weight has increased from 113 to 130 pounds, which goes to show that I have an excellent appetite and am in the best of health." MRS. R. E. PRINCE, Bushville, New York.

It Has Cured Me

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Only True Blood Purifier

Prominently in the public eye today.

Hood's Pills the after-dinner pill and family cathartic. 25c.

Diphtheria

 Less Fatal.

If the patient's strength can be maintained, and the great vital centres of the body "kept up" to the performance of their natural functions, they will thus dispel the disease germs that impregnate the entire body, and if sufficient vitality is experienced, the fatality of this dreaded disease is lessened a hundred-fold.

Bovinine

that greatest raw food, is a wonderful creator of new flesh and nerve tissue, is indispensible in the treatment of this malady, as it gives strength to the patient with the least effort on the part of the digestive organs, and in addition, being itself a germicide, it antidotes the existing microbes of the disease. The ease with which it can be taken when the lesions of the throat preclude the use of other foods, makes it an additional necessity for the sufferer's recovery.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given that the account of the subscriber, administrator of Augustus D. Holmes, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the first day of April next.
Dated January 27, 1896.
1 28 10-caw JOHN G. FAXON.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscriber, executor of John Harris, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the county of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of February, next. WILLIAM W. HARRIS.
Dated December 16, 1895. 12 24 9-caw

In Buying a Piano or an Organ

do not fail to examine the latest Mason & Hamlin models. Recent improvements render them unexcelled. Old pianos or organs taken in exchange. Instruments sold for cash or easy payments.

Catalogues and full information free.

Pianos of reliable makers from $200 upwards.

Mason & Hamlin Co.
136 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

CATARRH ELY'S Cream Balm

COLD IN HEAD

Is quickly absorbed, cleanses the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell

It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS, 56 Warren st., New York

A. Lusardi,
120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 353, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Your Valuables
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

California IN THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF
OVERALLS.
Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.
D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters
will be found at
Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS
Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,
88 FIFTH AVE.,
near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL F. W. HAND,
132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED
Buckwheat Flour.
Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by
FRENCH BROTHERS,
City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,
301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.
Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.

Leech, Stiles & Co.,
EYE SPECIALISTS,
1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.
Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at
107 East Front Street,
Dunham's real estate office,
EVERY THURSDAY
from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.
Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let.
MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
108 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
110 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Special Sled Prices.

32c	Redeced From	43cts.
36c	"	48cts.
56c	"	75cts.
71c	"	95cts
73c	"	97cts.
94c	"	$1.25.

R. C. Rand, 140 W. Front st

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

Edwin B. Maynard,
Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES,
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.
Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.
Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

DOLLS. DOLLS. DOLLS.
Dressed and Undressed. All the latest styles of Wooden and Iron Toys.
HARPER'S,
411 Park Avenue.

Furs, Capes and Jackets
to be sold until Feb. 1st, at 50c on the dollar. We offer this inducement previous to storing goods away.
H. KOHN.
318 West Front st.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER,
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

Ten Sweet Caporal Little Cigars for 5 cts.
SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

GEO. O. STEVENS OAK 747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

An Open Door
in this wintry weather is dangerous. A slamming door is a nuisance. The ECLIPSE CHECK AND SPRING closes doors and keeps them closed—without noise, too. Simple, durable, easily applied and adjusted. Sample at our store.
A. M. GRIFFEN,
119 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

HE WILL NOT RESIGN

Vote of Censure Not Likely To Disturb Ambassador Bayard.

GENERAL OPINION OF HIS FRIENDS

Democrats Who Consider His Utterances Illy Chosen, But Not of Sufficient Gravity To Call Forth Action by the House.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Among Ambassador Bayard's friends in this city the report from London that the ambassador had intimated his intention of resigning should the resolutions of censure be adopted by the house is ridiculed. Said one prominent democrat and a man in close touch with the administration, "the story is simply absurd. Mr. Bayard knows full well that the whole matter is a party attack." While many democrats believe that Mr. Bayard's utterances were illy chosen, and, in fact, it is understood that the president is of the same opinion, yet the whole matter is considered too trivial for any action on the part of the house. There are a few democrats, however, who, knowing Mr. Bayard's extreme sensitiveness to criticism, believe that it would be just like him to resign. Although the report of the committee will not be taken up till next week, its nature has been accurately foreshadowed in these dispatches. The resolutions call Mr. Bayard by name and assert that his course has been censurable. They, moreover, lay down some general propositions on the duty of ambassadors concerning their relation to the domestic and political affairs of the country they represent. It is asserted that the resolutions, despite the rumored resignation, will pass by nearly a full party vote, and had they been drawn a little more mildly would have received some democratic support.

Sympathy for Bayard Abroad.

London, Feb. 4.—In its comments on the subject, the Morning Post to-day displays sympathy with Mr. Bayard. It contends that according to the view of the republican majority the business of an ambassador in Europe is to declare that the American people are the highest product of civilization, and to dare anybody else to dispute this opinion at their peril. It adds that the affair is apparently another illustration of the humors of a presidential election. The Standard says that there is a painful want of dignity in the manner in which Mr. Bayard's official critics display their resentment. The resolution, the dispatches to the embassy and the curtness with which Mr. Bayard is taken to task, exhibit the harsher side of public life in America in an unpleasing light. The paper expresses sympathy with the ambassador and says it hopes that if he retires America will share the regret that this country will feel.

YALE-HENLEY CREW.

The Boating Managers Criticized for Not Consulting the Students.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 4.—An undergraduate in a letter to the Yale News protests against the action of a few boating managers in assuming to send a crew to Henley without the consent of the university, criticizes their secret deliberations and declares that the proposed "crew will not be a Yale crew, for Yale as a whole does not send it." The News, referring to this letter, says that the boating managers have not definitely decided the matter and have merely written to England for information. It suggests that when the information is received the matter of sending a crew be left to a university meeting.

THE PIANO TRADE FAILURES.

Large Losses During the Past Year Given as the Cause.

New York, Feb. 4.—The liabilities of the Weber Piano company, which was the first of the piano trade which failed yesterday, are almost $275,000, with nominal assets. The Stuyvesant Piano company owes about $40,000 and has assets of about $25,000. No statement is made as to the money affairs of the piano manufacturing firm of William E. Wheelock & Co., which went down in the crash with the others, with whom it had close business relations. Large losses during the past year by the first named firm is given as the reason for the failures.

TO ENTER NEW YORK POLITICS.

Report that Stephen A. Douglas, jr., Is Coming East.

Washington, Feb. 4.—It has been announced here that Stephen A. Douglas, jr., son of the "Little Giant," is going to remove from Chicago to New York and become a democrat in politics. This statement of fact is accompanied with a report that he will run for congress from a New York district.

Schooner Allison a Total Loss.

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 4.—The American schooner William R. Allison, which grounded on Frying Pan shoals yesterday, is a total loss. The crew left in their boat and were picked up by a tug.

To Repeal an Anti-Advertising Law.

Trenton, Feb. 4.—In the house last night Mr. Minch introduced a bill authorizing the publication of the laws in the newspapers as before the passage of the Voorhees law last winter.

18,256 More Troops for Cuba.

Madrid, Feb. 4.—The ninth expedition sent out from Spain to Cuba will sail from Cadiz, Barcelona and Corunna on Feb. 12. The expedition comprises 18,256 troops.

Pigeon Shooting Contest.

Monte Carlo, Feb. 4.—Ovari won the Prix de l'Ouverture in the pigeon shooting contest here yesterday. Verdavaine was second, Roberts third and Paul Gervaise fourth.

THE WALSENBERG RIOTS.

Text of the Message by the President Urging Aid.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The message sent to congress yesterday afternoon by the president requesting an appropriation for some of the Italian victims of the Walsenberg riots in Colorado was as follows: "In my last annual message allusion was made to the lawless killing of certain Italian laborers in the state of Colorado and it was added that 'the dependent families of some of the unfortunate victims, invite, by their deplorable condition, gracious provision for their needs.' It now appears that in addition to three of these laborers who were riotously killed, two others who escaped death by flight incurred pitiable disabilities through exposure and privation. Without discussing the question of the liability of the United States for these results either by reason of treaty obligations or under the general rules of international law, I venture to urge upon congress the propriety of making from the public treasury prompt and reasonable pecuniary provision for those injured and for the families of those who were killed. To aid in the consideration of the subject I append hereto the report of the secretary of state, accompanied by certain correspondence which fully represents the features of several cases."

AN HISTORIC CHURCH.

Yesterday's Fire at Dorchester Destroyed the First Parish's Fifth Edifice.

Boston, Feb. 4.—The church destroyed by fire in Dorchester yesterday was the fifth built by the "First Parish in Dorchester," the organization of which was effected in Plymouth, England, March 20, 1630, the evening before the embarkation of the first settlers of Dorchester in the Mary and John. The first meeting house, built in 1631, stood near the present corner of Cottage and Pleasant streets, Dorchester. It was a log house with palisades to protect it from the Indians, and it was for some time used also as a place for military stores. It stood for fourteen years. The second meeting house was built on the same spot in 1645, and in 1670 it was moved to Meeting House hill; and here the successive meeting houses of the parish have ever stood, giving the hill its name. The third meeting house was built in 1677, the fourth in 1743 and the fifth, the one burned yesterday, in 1816.

CHEROKEE AWARD MONEY.

The Court of Claims Approves the Plans for Its Distribution.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The United States court of claims has approved the mutual agreement entered into by counsel for distributing the Cherokee award money. The secretary of the interior is empowered to appoint three commissioners to make an enumeration of the freedmen in the Cherokee nation. Upon that being ascertained each freedman is to receive not to exceed $256.34 of $903,365, and any excess is to go to the Cherokee nation.

MONEY IN CIRCULATION.

Divided Equally, Every Person Should Have $22.47.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The treasury circulation statement, just issued, estimates the amount of gold in the United States, outside the treasury, at $499,110,535. The amount of all kinds of money in circulation is placed at $1,589,720,607, an increase since Jan. 1, 1896, of $10,513,883. The per capita circulation is $22.47.

O'Sullivan Goes Free.

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 4.—Cornelius O'Sullivan who yesterday pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter for the death of Harry Dolan, and was released, the prosecution declining to ask for sentence, will probably never again be arraigned on the same charge, circumstances in the affair justifying O'Sullivan's action.

Want State Officers' Salaries Reduced.

Trenton, Feb. 4.—A petition was submitted by Mr. Walling in the house last night asking for the passage of a law "reducing official salaries of state officers receiving over $2,000 a year by a sum of twenty-five dollars on every $100 in excess of $2,000."

Fitzgerald's Trial May End To-day.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The Fitzgerald trial will probably go to the jury this afternoon. The defense will call neither Fitzgerald nor the Cronins.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot trade dull but prices are higher. February, 75⅞c.; March, 76⅛c.; May, 74⅜c.

Corn—Spot quiet but held firmly. February, 37¼c.; May, 36⅜c.

Oats—Spot held steady, but quiet. February, 25⅛c.; March, 25⅛c.; May, 25¼c.

Pork—Spot firm; moderate demand. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $10.75@$11.00.

Lard—Contracts unchanged and dull. May, $6.20.

Butter—Trading small and late figures barely sustained. Fancy marks at 20c. Creamery, state and Pennsylvania, seconds to best, 14@17½c.; creamery, western, seconds to firsts, 15@18½c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 18c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, seconds to firsts, 12@16c.

Cheese—Fancy September is held firmly with demand good. State, full cream, large size, September colored, choice, 9a10¼c.; September white fancy, 9@10¼c.; large common to choice, 7¼@10c.

Eggs—The market remains dull at a further sharp break in prices. Best western declined to 14½c.

Potatoes—Choice grades liberal supply; slow demand, and at slightly better prices. State Burbank, per 180 pounds, 65c.@80c., and state rose and Hebron, per 180 pounds, 85@$1.00c.

GEN. HARRISON IS OUT

Cannot Permit His Name To Be Presented at St. Louis.

SINCERE AND FINAL EXPRESSION

An Open Letter to Hon. John K. Gowdy Given Out by the ex-President at Indianapolis Late Last Night.

Indianapolis, Feb. 4.—Capt. John K. Gowdy, chairman of the republican state central committee, called last night by invitation at the residence of Gen. Harrison, when the ex-president handed him the following letter addressed to the Hon. John K. Gowdy: "In view of the resolutions passed by the state general committee at its recent meeting and of the fact that delegates to the national republican convention are soon to be chosen in this state, I have concluded that some statement from me as to my wishes and purposes should now be made to my Indiana friends. Hitherto, I have declined to speak to the public upon this matter, but scores of friends to whom I have talked and many scores more to whom I have written will recognize in this expression the substance of what I have said to them. To every one who has proposed to promote my nomination I have said 'No;' there never has been an hour since I left the White House that I have felt a wish to return to it.' My Indiana friends have been most devoted and faithful, and I am their grateful debtor. The republican party has twice in national convention given me endorsement, and that is enough. I think the voters of our party are now entitled to have a new name. For the sentiment, great or small, that has been manifested for my nomination I am grateful, and of that wider respect and kindness—breaking party lines—which have been shown me in many ways, I am profoundly appreciative. I cannot consent that my name be presented or used in the St. Louis convention, and must kindly ask my friends to accept this as a sincere and final expression upon the subject.

"BENJAMIN HARRISON."

FORGINGS FOR WARSHIPS.

Only Two Bids Received, Both from Pennsylvania Firms.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Bids were opened at the navy department yesterday afternoon for furnishing forgings for the 13-inch and 8-inch guns of the new battleships Kearsarge and Kentucky. The forgings will amount to about a million and a half pounds on both classes of guns. In the 13-inch class the Bethlehem iron works offered to furnish forgings at 27.4 cents a pound, to be completed in 365 days, and the Midvale steel works at 27.6 cents a pound, completed in 480 days. In the 8-inch class the Midvale company was the lower bidder, at 28c. a pound, completion in 270 days. The bid of the Bethlehem firm in this class was 28 1-2 cents a pound, completion in 330 days. Both bidders are Pennsylvania firms.

SHOULD WORK IN HARMONY.

Balfour Says England and the United States Could Accomplish Great Things.

London, Feb. 4.—The Rt. Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, delivered a speech at Bristol last night. He announced that the government would introduce a bill in the house of commons to increase the aid given to sectarian schools. He made an incidental allusion to Great Britain's foreign relations and said he felt that England and the United States should work together, each in its own sphere, to promote and extend the Anglo-Saxon ideas of liberty. If, he declared, Great Britain was in alliance with the United States she could fulfil the duties Providence had entrusted to her and need not fear a foreign foe or internal divisions.

SAYS SHE IS INNOCENT NOW.

Minnie Swanger Issues a Statement Repudiating Her Confession.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 4.—Counsel for Minnie Swanger, the 13-year-old girl who is in the county jail on the charge of killing her uncle, William McGregor, with poison, have issued a statement signed by the child in which she disavows the confession said to have been made by her that she put the poison in the coffee which the McGregor family drank. In her statement the girl claims that she signed the "confession" without knowing what it was and under the belief that the paper had something to do with getting her released.

Death of Col. W. P. Thompson.

New York, Feb. 4.—Col. W. P. Thompson, who died at his home in this city yesterday, was president of the National Lead company and owner of the Brookdale farm and several of the highest class race horses in this country. He had been ill with pneumonia for several days.

Battenberg's Body at Plymouth.

London, Feb. 4.—The British warship Blenheim, with the body of Prince Henry of Battenberg on board, arrived at Plymouth yesterday. It is announced that the German emperor will send Prince Albert of Prussia with a detachment of the garde du corps to attend Prince Henry's funeral.

Lithgow Library Dedicated.

Augusta, Me., Feb. 4.—The Lithgow library, built by endowment by the estate of F. W. Lithgow and by subscriptions, was dedicated yesterday afternoon in the presence of the contributors.

Joseph Mackey Dead.

New York, Feb. 4.—Joseph Mackey, the founder of "Mackey's A. B. C. Guide," is dead from pneumonia at his home in Fordham.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

106 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 4, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Light Rain or Snow Tonight. Wednesday Clearng and Colder.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 41 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 4—Supper of Warren Engine Company.

February 4—Lecture by Dr. Biggs in Crescent Avenue church.

Even with the fees cut off there will be 6,000 reaşon$ why lots of Republican politicians will want to be Clerk in Chancery or Clerk of the Supreme Court.—Newark News.

The Republicans have decided to hold the convention for the election of delegates to the National Republican Convention on April 15th, if Taylor Opera House in Trenton could be secured for that date.

The Daily Press is surprised that Mayor Gilbert should have become involved in the complication that arose at the meeting of the Council last night over the appointment of an Overseer of the Poor. It seems odd that such a careful and astute official as the Mayor has been in the past in the matter of acting for the city, that he should have overlooked the claims of such men as I. D. TenEyck, John Neagle, J. E. Mosher and others, who have long been residents of and contributed much to the support and progress of the city, and appointed a man, capable though he may be, who has only been a resident of the city for a short time and who is not even a citizen of the country. While the Mayor's intentions were doubtless of the best yet The Press cannot but feel that the Boys Club is not a proper thing for the city to tacitly take under its wing.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, relieve constipation and assist digestion. 25c.

—Have you seen the handsome display of valentines at Harpers' 411 Park avenue.

—The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting at 511 Central avenue tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

—Under grant from the U. S. Government the world-famed healing waters are used in "Pura Blood."

—Miss Florence G. Hawkins, of this city, addressed the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church at Westfield last Sunday evening.

—A very skillful operation was performed by the Drs. Hedges on the ten-months-old son of John Christensen at Netherwood, a few weeks ago, and he is much improved.

—The Young Friends' Association will meet at the meetinghouse tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the meeting are cordially invited to be present.

—Justice Mosher rendered judgment for the full amount and costs in the case of Watson J. Tunison against Henry & Johns, yesterday. S. S. Swackhamer represented the plaintiff.

—D. N. Force was awarded the contract yesterday for a new house on Coddington avenue for Corra Rypo. Ground will be broken as soon as the weather permits. Charles L. Force is the architect.

—Anyone having plain bunting or cheese cloth that they would like to loan the managers of the industrial fair to be given at Hope chapel, will please communicate with Henry C. Squires or Mrs. S. R. Struthers.

—Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, who is organizing classes for women and girls in gymnastic exercises, swimming and fencing at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, will meet those who wish to join, tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 3 at the Y. M. C. A. building.

Scotch Plains.

Robert Walpole is out again after his recent illness.

The revival meetings will be continued this week on Tuesday and Friday nights. A contingent from Plainfield will assist in the singing. On Wednesday afternoon Rev. Mr. Braker will meet those who have been converted during the meetings. At the meeting last evening five rose and asked for prayers.

South Plainfield.

Thomas Brantingham is entertaining a niece from Stelton, N. J.

A Christian Endeavor Society was organized at the South Plainfield Baptist church last evening. Quite a number were present at the meeting and the society promises to be a flourishing one.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

CITY SOLONS AGITATED.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

was brought up later and discussed at length. Mr. Dumont brought up the matter of a delinquent tax collector, and said that E. H. Bird offered to take the position and do the work. Mr. Dumont then offered a resolution that he, as special policeman, be appointed delinquent tax collector, and that he file a bond of $1,000, and that he receive 5 per cent for his work. It was so ordered as was also another resolution by Mr. Dumont that $2,000 be borrowed for sewer work.

An effort was made to reduce Chief Doane's salary from $700 to $400, but after a long debate it was decided not to make the cut.

The Board of Health reported nine deaths from contagious diseases between October 1st, 1894, and October 1st, 1895. There were also 132 marriages and 313 births, of which 174 were males and 139 females. The sum of $899.84 of the $1,000 appropriation had been expended, and the board asked for $1,000 for this year. The above reports were received and filed, as were also those of the city treasurer, collector and city physician.

The overseer of the poor reported that $510.97 had been expended in that department during the year for rents board, care and sundries.

Mr. Barrows, chairman of police committee, presented a general report of that department, and gave the following description of the policemen, except Captain Grant: Average age 37½ years; height, 5:10½ feet; weight, 192 pounds; length of service, four to six years. He stated that the rookery was a disgrace to the city and would not be tolerated in a frontier town. The general condition as to intelligence of force and morals was reported excellent. He recommended that three extra regulars be appointed and that a suitable building be secured for a station house. He then offered a resolution that the Mayor appoint sixteen regular policemen, to include a captain at a salary of $1,000; a sergeant at $800; two roundsmen at $750, the last three to be mounted on bicycles purchased by them.

The following regular police were appointed by Mayor Gilbert and confirmed: George W. Grant, Thomas McCue, P. Flanagan, P. Kiely, J. Cooney, Chris. Frederickson, W. J. Mattox, J. S. Saunders, John Flynn, Matthew Vanderweg, Nicholas Myers, J. R. Hartpence and J. E. Totten.

Mr. Dumont said he hoped the council would not forget the financial situation when preparing to increase expenses by appointing more police. There was no way to increase the revenue unless back taxes were collected which now amount to $70,000. He said that he didn't know where all the money was coming from. Mr. Barrows said the police should be appointed now. Plainfield is behind the times on this point and the Council should not wait till some crime was committed. Mr. Frost said he agreed with Mr. Dumont, and thought that the outlying districts should be brought into the market and thus secure more money. The city is now in charge of one party and they should be careful as to what is done.

Mr. Barrows replied that this was no tin soldier business, but a pratical, actual necessary. He offered a motion that three policemen be appointed. Mr. Dumont at this point was willing to allow two extra men and offered a resolution amending the original motion making the number two instead of three. Mr. Westphal urged that three be appointed. The amendment was lost and the original motion prevailed.

Mr. Barrows then presented the condition of the station house, which he said was inadequate for the needs of the city. He offered a resolution that the police board secure a site of ground, and that rough plans be obtained for a suitable building that would combine all city offices, the same to be submitted to the council. The resolution prevailed, all voting for it.

In a communication A. J. Gavett asked the council to secure extension of the water mains in order that the sewers could be flushed. The matter was referred to the sewer committee.

Mr. Stebbins offered a resolution that T. O. Doane be appointed building inspector. It was so ordered.

On motion of Mr. Dumont the ordinance relating to the cider joints was adopted. Mr. Dumont then made a motion that all salaries of city officers be the same as last year. Mr. Frost objected to the salary of street commissioner and thought it was too much. On the question all voted it be the same except Councilmen Frost and Westphal.

The salaries of the city treasurer, and chief of the fire department, will remain at $700. Action on the salary of First Assistant Engineer J. Martin was laid over till next meeting. Mr. Stebbins asked that it be raised to $600, as Mr. Martin expected to devote his time to the chemical engine. On the question Councilmen Dumont Ginna, Moore, Serrell, Westphal and Frost voted no, while Councilmen Barrows, Tolles, Stebbins and See voted in the affirmative. On the question of the chief of the fire department's salary, all voted in the affirmative except Westphal.

The City Clerk reported that he had secured bids for 300 copies of Mayor's message and 50 rules of order. On the former the bid of the Daily Press was $1.25 per page; News, 70 cents. On the latter the Daily Press bid was $15, and the News $20. It was referred to the finance committee and later ordered laid on the table in accordance with a motion of Mr. Barrows. The auditing committee reported all bills correct and they were ordered paid. The Plainfield Real Estate Company and V. W. Nash asked the Council to accept certain streets in the west end near Monroe avenue, which had been laid out and the grade obtained. Both petitions were accompanied with maps and were referred to the street committee.

Ex-City Judge W. A. Coddington's report for the three years past was as follows:

Permit me to submit this, my general report, summarizing the official business transacted in the City Court during the term of three official years from January 2, 1893 to January 6, 1896, during which I had the honor of presiding:

During that term as City Judge I heard and determined one thousand five hundred and five cases. In no case in which the City was a party was any judgment rendered by me reversed or set aside by any higher court. The Corporation Counsel appeared for the City on the trial of fifteen cases during my term. The City Court cases brought before me were disposed of as follows:

Sentenced to County Jail	263
Fines imposed	636
Sentences suspended	410
Released or discharged	121
Held under bonds to keep the peace	34
Held for Grand Jury	3
Sent to Asylum	1
Released on defendants recognizance	39
Total	1,505

as will appear from the records.

The fines collected during my term of office amounted to	$3,470 26
Of this was paid for incidental expenses and to complainants for one-half penalty etc	$473 50
And the balance paid to the City Treasurer	$2,996 76
Total	$3,470 26

It gives me pleasure to testify to the fact that the police force of our city is one of which we may well be proud. For the past three years I have necessarily been brought in almost daily contact with the force, and I have found both the officers and subordinates alert and watchful in the City's interests, anxious to conscientiously perform their full duty, intelligent and discriminating in their judgment, and always courteous and polite in their deportment.

In retiring from the office which I have held for the past three years, permit me to say that I have endeavored to discharge its duties honestly and impartially, as required by the oath which I subscribed when I entered upon it, and I feel that whatever criticism may properly attach to my actions, at least I never forgot that mercy is the highest attribute of justice.

Dated January 7, 1896.

The Council then adjourned to Monday evening, Feb. 24th.

His Requirements.

Papa—So George is going to leave that place. What is the trouble this time?

Mamma—He complains that the hours are too long.

Papa—H'm. I guess George would like to work from twelve till one, with an hour off for luncheon.—Life.

Impunity.

The burglar turned with a sneer of malignant triumph.

"If you shoot me," he hissed, "you'll wake the baby."

There was nothing to do but permit him to load all the silver into a sack and carry it away, leaving the front door open behind him.—Detroit Tribune.

The Modern Child.

Elderly Friend of the Family (unmarried)—How do you feel, this morning, my little girl?

Mamie (aged seven, aside)—He is going ahead pretty fast. He calls me his little girl already.—Texas Siftings.

Pretty Respectable.

Mrs. De Fashion—Who is this Mrs. Newcomer who has moved into the house next door to you? Is she respectable?

Mrs. De Style—Oh, perfectly. She married for money.—N. Y. Weekly.

Splendid Scheme.

Editor—I'm going to offer one thousand dollars in gold to anyone who can guess how this story is coming out.

Spacer—Pretty expensive, isn't it?

Editor—Not very; the last chapter won't be written till after the answers are all in.—Puck.

That Was Different.

She (tenderly)—Sometimes I wonder why you love me.

He (assentingly)—So do I.

She (indignantly)—Sir!

He (explanatorily)—I mean, why you love me.—Life.

James Stowell Anthony left this afternoon for Augusta, Ga., where he will spend several weeks.

Walter S. Gibson, of Passaic, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. J. S. King, of West Second street.

—Rev. A. P. Nelson, of Orange, and Rev. C. J. Larson, of Montclair, will preach to the Swedish people in Grace church Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Vegetarians say we should eat no meat. Dr. J. A. Deane says we should eat of all kinds of nourishing food, and if the stomach and bowels are lazy and rebel we should make them digest it. Dr. Deane is the greatest authority on diseases of the digestive organs.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills aid digestion and assimilation of food, and cure all forms of Dyspepsia. White wrapper if constipated, yellow if bowels are loose.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston, N. Y.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THIS MEANS YOU.

Your Past and Your Present Contrasted.

How Terribly You Have Changed Since Then.

An Exact Picture of Your Present Condition.

How keenly the vision of the past comes home to thousands, and with how sharp a pang do we regret our vanished health and strength! As in a dream, we remember our sturdy youth, overflowing with boisterous vitality. We recall our strong and lusty past, when our nerves seemed of steel, our muscles of iron and our power of endurance knew no fatigue.

How different is the picture when we suddenly find ourselves with weak and shattered nerves, tired brains and exhausted bodies, depressed and dispirited, broken down alike in nervous and physical health!

We are prodigal of our powers, vigor and energies in youth and early life. We use them up in business, work, pleasure or dissipation, and suddenly find ourselves old before our time, prostrated in health, exhausted in brain and nerve power, and left without physical energies, nerve strength or ambition. Then, like the prodigal, we would return to our former condition of strength and health.

Luckily for us, there is that great and wonderful restorative, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, which will give back to the weakened and exhausted system the strength it has lost; the marvelous remedy which imparts strength and vigor to brain and nerves, vitalizes and invigorates all the physical powers and restores us again to that grand degree of lusty strength, of bounding pulse and strong physical and nerve power, which, in ignorance or folly, we have exhausted.

Here is the proof. Mr. John C. Milroy, who is a foreman of the Meriden, Conn., Brittannia Co., has for years been noted for his enormous strength. This great strength he lost, and now he has recovered it again by using Dr. Greene's Nervura.

"Over a year ago," he says, "I suffered terribly from nervousness, headache, lack of appetite, and that tired feeling all the time. I tried several remedies before I started in on Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I found that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy was just what I wanted.

"When I first started to use this remedy I had fallen to 165 pounds. Now, I weigh a little over 198 pounds. I have always been considered about the strongest man in town, and in order to keep up my reputation in that respect I shall keep on using Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

This greatest and grandest of medicines, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, is the discovery and prescription of the most successful specialist in nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—A cake walk will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Morse, Thursday evening of this week.

—New singing books are soon to be purchased for the use of the First Baptist church Sunday-school.

—Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, will meet in regular session tomorrow evening.

—An important meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Hope chapel will be held tomorrow afternoon in the chapel.

—The Dramatic Association of the Plainfield Catholic Club, is planning to give another play at Music Hall, March 17th.

—The excellent taste displayed in furnishing the office of Randolph Runyon, No. 43 Somerset street, is the comment of all who pass.

—The Order of True Reformers will hold their first anniversary exercises Thursday evening, Feb. 13th, in their hall on West Front street.

—Mrs. Horton, of North avenue, has a small jug which is 180 years old. It will be on exhibition at the industrial fair to be held at Hope chapel.

—The third reception of the American Social Club, under the auspices of Lucetta Council, No 28, D. of L., will be held in Central Hall, Friday evening.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.

The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at

Karet's Fur Parlor,

49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

SPRING SEASON AT PECK'S.

Grand Display

Wash Fabrics and Embroideries.

Exhibition Now Open.

THE DALZIEL ART SCHOOL,

309 East Front St.,

Is An Established Success.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique—Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at THE WOMEN'S SCHOOL OF DESIGN, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

EDSALL'S

Commercial Palace - - Babcock Building.

News Items.

—About Edsall's Commercial Palace.

"Stock taking" is over:—splendid news.

—Business will go on now with a big boom.

—Many desirable articles in "odds and ends" can be purchased very cheap.

—Our china and housefurnishing departments have been changed and so improved that you would hardly recognize it as the same place.

—Everything has been over handled and classified, so that each article is shown in its proper place, and with its kind.

—Many who have visited the department under the management of the new superintendent Mr. J. Linn Edsall, remark that it's a pleasure now to walk through and see the fine new wares so artistically arranged.

—New beginners in housekeeping and older ones as well, will find this department just the place to get their needs supplied at a great saving of money. Come in and see.

—Another splendid improvement has also been made that you will be pleased to see, viz:

—The grocery department has been transferred from the east to the west side in our big basement.

—And enlarged to twice its former size in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing trade in this department.

—The trade in this department has increased away beyond our expectations since we put in a complete line:—you know now we keep everything in the grocery line.

—And the people have found out that we sell just as good goods and at as low prices as in the New York department stores.

—So the orders are coming in right and left, and we are now running two delivery wagons for groceries alone, and —We honestly believe we will be compelled to put on two more wagons inside of six months at the rate trade is increasing now.

—This is not mere newspaper advertising, the wagons are on the road every day.

—And if you take notice they are well filled with goods too. Honest dealing, selling goods for just what they are, giving the very best possible quality for the least money, is what does the business. That's our motto.

—The Commercial Palace enters upon the present year's business thoroughly equipped in every respect, and better prepared than ever before for a most successful future.

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO., —Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	17	9
Park	885	18	10
Roselle	893	18	10
Union C. C. Club	861	9	17
Cranford	837	6	22

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Cranford C. C.	4	4	1557
Elizabeth A. C.	4	4	1547
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	1	1597
Orange Valley	5	2	1534
Elizabeth	4	2	1670
Plainfield	3	4	1464
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	6	1516

While bowling on the Park Club alleys Saturday afternoon, William Thiers rolled four games in succession averaging 208½. The scores were 212, 203, 206 and 213.

The Park Club bowlers go to Westfield tonight to roll two of the most important games in the Standard League. The team requests as many rooters as possible to accompany them.

The individual high score record at the Park Club was held last month by William Thiers with 245. He had a narrow escape from losing it on Friday evening, the last day in the month, when W. M. McCutchen rolled 244.

It is an old trick of Plainfield bowlers, and other bowlers too, to win the first game by a big majority and then go all to pieces in the next game. Such was the case on the Y. M. C. A. alleys last night when the local Y. M. C. A. team met their lively rivals from the association of Westfield. The first game went to the home team by 108 pins. All the Plainfield boys rolled a good even game, the difference between the high and low men being only six pins. The Plainfield team led all the way and won without trouble. In the next game there was an awful change. The visitors did not roll as well by seven pins as before but the home team rode down the toboggan in fine style and made 117 less than their former score. The entire team, with the exception of Snediker, seemed to have forgotten how to bowl, and a broad-brimmed felt hat hoodooed Snediker so that he only rolled 145. Westfield started out as if she intended leaving her opponents far behind, and so she did for a time. Then the luck began to change and Captain Whitehead's face was a study as he repeatedly missed his spare. Plainfield got in the lead but Whitehead remembered at last how to make his spare and "Lord" Rice made a strike while the home team struck the toboggan again. The finish was close, however, and had not Condit scored 19 on the wind up Plainfield would have won, but he did and so the Westfield Y. M. C. A. took the second game by two pins. The individual scores were as follows:

PLAINFIELD Y. M. C. A.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Laing	147	108
Snediker	150	145
M. Sutphen	147	128
Lederer	153	124
C. Sutphen	150	125
	747	630

WESTFIELD Y. M. C. A.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Whitehead	122	134
Manning	116	118
Wright	165	142
Rice	104	126
Condit	132	112
	639	632

The champion team of the Union County Roadsters came to Plainfield last night to toy with the second team of the Crescent Wheelmen. They came very near being turned down in the first game, however, and had the rest of the Crescents finished as Baker did, with 26, there would have been sorrow in the Rahway club house. As it was, the Roadsters won by only 11 pins. The second game was a cinch for the visitors and they won by 73 pins. The individual scores were:

CRESCENT WHEELMEN.

	First game.	Second game.
Anderson	157	140
Bamberger	168	148
Homan	121	127
Clarkson	130	116
Baker	196	172
	772	703

UNION COUNTY ROADSTERS.

	First game.	Second game.
Howard	188	145
Martin	149	167
Chamberlain	127	195
Voehl	165	149
Black	154	121
	783	776

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be curred by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

PARTICULAR MENTION.

P. Riley, of Brooklyn, was in town on business yesterday.

Policeman Jerry Rockfellow, one of Somerville's finest, was in town today.

Miss Jennie Quick, of East Fifth street, is the guest of Newark relatives.

David Snediker, of Grove street, is home after a business through the south.

Fred J. Pope, of North avenue, is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home.

Harry Coddington, of Somerset street, is confined to his home with illness.

Mrs. R. V. Saums, of East Second street, has recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Laura VanNess, of Jackson avenue, visited friends in Westfield Sunday.

Miss Fanny Hayes, of West Eighth street, has returned from a visit to Bayonne.

Chas. E. Vail, of J. Hervey Doane's jewelry store, is confined to the house by illness.

Miss Lena Weber will leave her position in Edsall's Commercial Palace on Saturday.

Irvin Mills, of Grandview avenue, one of the Daily Press's bright little carriers, is very ill.

Mrs. David Snediker, of Grove street, is able to be around the house after a short illness.

Miss Belle Carkhuff, of Mt. Pleasant, spent Sunday at the home of Garrett Eick, of East Third street.

Wm. Minton, of New York, spent Sunday at the home of Miss Louise Snediker, of Grove street.

Miss Suzelle Howatt, of Germantown, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Jennie Simpson, of Craig place.

Mrs. C. B. Stephens, wife of Lettercarrier Stephens, of the West End, is confined to the house by illness.

David Snediker has returned home from an extended business trip through Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Miss Ada Wenzel, of Edsall's Commercial Palace, is detained at her home on Clinton avenue with illness.

Mrs. A. J. Moore, of Westervelt avenue, is very much improved from her recent illness and is able to be out.

Mrs. Hodge, of Finderne, daughter of A. D. Thompson, of Belvidere avenue, is the happy mother of a little girl.

Charles Voorhees, the popular assessor of Bridgewater township, was a welcome visitor in this city yesterday.

Phillip Kirch, of Somerset street, is studying law with his cousin, J. P. D. Kirch, in his office, corner of Park and North avenues.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bergen, of 530 West Second street, was brightened by the arrival of a fine baby on Saturday night last.

L. W. Johnson, inspector of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, has left town and is now located in New York State.

Miss Bertha Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, returned to her home yesterday after a visit with her cousin, Miss Edith DuBois, of Park avenue.

Miss Maggie Summers, Miss Laura Radin and Edward Smith will attend a reception Thursday evening to be given by the Elmore Social Club, of Rahway.

Michael Nevins, of Clinton avenue, conductor on car No. 1 of the street railway, is receiving the congratulations of his friends as being the father of twin babies.

Dr. Mary D. Hussey, who is staying at Mrs. Dunham's at 510 Madison avenue, returned on Saturday from the Woman Suffrage Convention in Washington, and reports that it was the finest convention the National Association has ever held.

A letter received by Mrs. Mair from her daughter, Miss Rachael Mair, who sailed for Africa several weeks ago as a missionary, states that she is in the best of health and nearing her destination, Cape Palmas. If nothing has happened to prevent she has arrived there by this time. She is very much pleased with the climate and her prospects of success are most favorable.

—The people believe what they read about Hood's Sarsaparilla. They know that it is an honest medicine, and that it cures disease. That is why you should get only Hood's.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THEATRICAL.

"A Cracker Jack," a highly exciting and sensational play of melodramatic order will be the attraction at the Stillman, tonight. "A Cracker Jack" will be presented by an excellent company, comprised of the best members of the original cast with the addition of several fine new people. Some very realistic stage pictures and scenery are shown, among them the primitive school house used as a court room for an exciting lynch law scene. A fine programme of refined specialties are introduced as incidental to the plot. As a performance there is none better, brighter, breezier or more buoyant than "A Cracker Jack," and you must see it.

An event that Plainfield play-goers are sure to regard as of more than signal importance in amusement annals, will be the coming to Music Hall next Saturday night of Chas. Hoyt's most famous farce comedy, "A Trip to Chinatown." While the play is not new in this city, it has a history that makes its coming of more than usual interest. For six hundred and fifty-six consecutive performances it held the boards at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, playing to the capacity of the house. This has never been approached before, the longest run previous to that time being "Adonis," for 603 times ending April 17th, 1886. When the play was removed from Hoyt's Theatre it was still crowding the house, and had it not been for its road engagements previously made, would probably be running there now. When the curtain ascends Saturday evening on "A Trip to Chinatown," the admirers of the play will see a production a counterpart in every way of the farce comedy as given in New York.

Dunellen.

Mrs. Fred Nelson is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Purrell, of New York.

Mrs. John Case, of Greenbrook, is entertaining her daughter, Miss Hattie Case, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Emery will entertain a number of their friends at their home tomorrow evening.

Rev. Mr. Ryman, of Elizabeth, will lead the prayer meeting tomorrow evening in the M. E. church.

The scholars of the Whittier School are busy collecting money for a new flag for that schoolhouse which is greatly needed.

The Junior League will tender a reception to the Epworth League of the M. E. church, at the parsonage, on Thursday evening.

The social that was to be given on Thursday evening, by the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the evangelistic meetings that are now being held at New Market.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church celebrated the anniversary of the forming of the first Christian Endeavor society on Sunday evening with appropriate exercises. The meeting was led by R. F. Bogartus, president of the society, and Rev. Mr. Martine, pastor of the church, made the address. The Juniors also took part in the exercises —Read Doane & Edsall's rubber ad. and then go and purchase a pair.

—The Board of Directors of the Plainfield Public Library will meet this evening.

—The goods damaged by water at the Commercial Palace recently will be offered for sale next Thursday. The advertisement will appear in The Press tomorrow.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

New Market.

James Calvin, of New York, spent Sunday with friends in town.

The Methodist church last Sunday raised $3.08 for missionary services.

Mrs. Hannah Nelson is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Bonnell, of Union.

Miss Maitland, who has been visiting in Newark, has returned to her home.

Next Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church there will be baptismal services.

Union services will be held in the Baptist church all this week at half-past two.

A covenant meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30, and all wishing to unite with the church should be present.

Owing to the revival services being held in the Baptist church, the sociable that was to have taken place on Thursday evening under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society, has been postponed until further notice.

MRS. HALL'S ENTERTAINMENTS

FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

at 3 o'clock.

February 7—MRS. LAURA E. RICHARDS. Readings from Captain January, Jim of Hellas, etc.

February 21—REV. W. HUDSON SHAW, M. A., of Oxford University, England, lecture on VENICE.

March 6—MISS FLORENCE HOWE HALL, lecture on General Francis Marion and the Hugenots of South Carolina.

Tickets, Course, $2. Single $1.

May be obtained at Mr. Estil's Bookstore and at the drug stores. 2 4 3

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

BLACK pocketbook lost Jan. 20th. A liberal reward if returned with contents to this office.

SITUATION wanted as nurse girl. Address 326 East 3d st.

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

WANTED.—Competent nurse to take full charge of bottle baby. Apply 410 Central ave. 2 4 2

WANTED—By an English Protestant woman, situation to do general housework in a good family. Priscilla Negus, 31 Duer st., North Plainfield.

MAN wants situation as coachman or on farm; good reference. Call 513 West 6th st. 2 3 3

FOR SALE—A cutter in first-class condition, with shafts. Can be seen at 47 Washington ave. 2 4 5

GIRL wanted (white) under 30 years old for general housework; family of two. Address S., care Press. 2 4 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework; references wanted. 822 Park avenue. 1 3 2

$50 WEBER square piano for sale. Inquire at 123 West 7th street. 2 3 6

WANTED—Situation as gardener by experienced man; best of city references. Address G. M., P. O. Box 383, city. 2 3 6

WANTED.—A girl for general housework; a good laundress and plain cook; reference required. 340 Franklin place; none but reliable girls need apply. 1 31 tf

FOR RENT—1016 Putnam ave., corner Carlton ave., pleasant commodious house; all improvements and in good order; large lot; immediate possession; rent to begin April first. H. L. Moodey, 603 Watchung ave. 1 30 6

TO LET—Brick barn, 216 West 2d st; stalls for 2 horses and wagon shed. Inquire Wm. C. Ayers, 203 West 2d st. 1 27 tf

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

FINE flat; best location; 7 light rooms; bath, city water. Apply 612 Park avenue. 1 21 tf-eod

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch. 1 2 tf

Nothing

Like being well posted and knowing just where to place your money where it will bring the best results. To look around our store at the goods and prices you would almost think they grew and it cost nothing to grow them, the prices are so small.

SUCH AS THESE.

MUSLINS.

7c for Fruit, Dwight Anchor and Lonsdale Muslins, 7c; 8x4 bleached sheeting 14c; 9x4 do 16c; 10x4 do 19c; 8x4 brown sheeting 13c; 9x4 do 14c; 10x4 do 16c.

DRESS GOODS.

14c for 36 inch fancies, 18c for all-wool mixtures, 54 inch all-wool mixtures 27c; 54 inch all-wool checks 37c; 45 inch all-wool serges 31c; 54 inch imperial black serge 50c.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

The making costs you nothing, it's only the price of material that you pay for. 23c for fine corset covers; 43c for fine embroidered night robes, 55c for fine embroidered skirts. It will take no search light to find

Bargains at Every Turn.

25c for men's white wool shirts, 25c for men's colored wool shirts, 50c for men's all-wool scarlet shirts, 69c for do, double breasted shirts, 10c for men's seamless socks, 3 pair for 25c, 15c for children's fine Lisle thread hose, 47c for men's unlaundered shirts, usual price 75c, 75c for ladies' chamois gloves all colors and one of the best made for service, 75c for a corset that is equal to any $1 corset made, $2.48 for roll of 20 yards of fine matting, 39c for Jap rugs size 18x36, 25 winter coats for ladies to go for 98c each, 13c for the best Turkish towel made, worth 25c.

Housefurnishing Department.

JUST FOR FUN—Pleasure goes with business here. Prices make it pleasant to sell goods. Therefore the following prices tell the story, and a glance through our enlarged department will convince you. Enough said.

23c each 100 japanned bread boxes, No. 1 size, made out of good quality tin, for this sale only. They won't last long at the price—23c each. 23c each

59c each Copper bottom wash boilers No. 7 size, good quality tin and 14 oz. rolled copper bottom. For this sale at 59c. 59c each

5c each 500 papier mache table mats will stand the heat, neatly decorated, choice of all sizes, small, medium or large, worth 15c. To close at 5c each. 5c each

15c pair Stove mitten and dauber, the best, does away with a brush, just the thing for bicycle use, can be used for all kinds of polishing and cleaning. The pair for 15c. 15c pair

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Are the Most Popular in the World.

Evidenced by the fact that there were more of them sold in '95 than any other make. Be sure to see sample before purchasing your '96 wheel.

Made by Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

F. L. C. MARTIN, AGENT. 1 27 eod

Snow, Sleet, Feet.

CorkSole Shoes, Double Sole Shoes, Rubbers.

Store Closes 8 o'clock, Except Saturday.

A. WILLETT & SON,

Feet Fitters.

AN UNCONSCIOUS HERO.

BY MRS. M. L. RAYNE.

"No," Eleanor Landsberg said, as she crushed the cluster of fresh American Beauty roses she held in her clasped hands with painful intensity, as if they were somehow to blame, "I cannot marry you, Morris—you are not my hero."

"Heroes do not exist out of novels," answered Morris Holmes, with that perfect inflection that good breeding gives to its possessor; "I cannot fight for my ladylove as the mediæval knights did, nor fly to the wars in these degenerate days."

"Then be a soldier of peace; there are daily wars to be waged that need disciplined soldiers. Be anything but a dawdler on the silken skirts of society. You believe that because you have inherited a fortune that other men earned for you by the sweat of their brows, you are to lie idle in the lap of luxury. Shame, Morris Holmes! When I marry I will choose my husband from among the ranks of the people; my hero must do great deeds, not dream them all day long."

"My dear socialist," said Morris, with the familiarity of long acquaintance, "if you will listen to reason a moment you will see that with money you can remedy a great many evils; without it you are practically helpless."

"How many evils have you remedied, Morris? Answer me that."

"Few as yet, I admit. But, Eleanor, is it my fault that my father left me a fortune? Listen, dearest. I will call you so this once. Why not help me become i.e almoner? At least I am not a profligate."

"Pardon me," returned the young woman, tearing the heart from a rose—a performance which made the sensitive Morris wince—"I think you are a profligate with time and influence, and all the other good things which you waste by lavishing them on yourself. How will you account for wasted opportunities and talents folded in a napkin when the day of reckoning comes?"

"What would you have me do to prove myself a hero?" asked Morris Holmes, with a gently patronizing air, as if he had been speaking to a child, and which infuriated Eleanor.

"Do?" she repeated, with withering scorn; "do anything to show the world that you are a man, and at least capable of managing your own affairs! Life is full of instruction, but you have never learned one of its lessons. You have not even been a profitable dreamer."

She was intense and angry, and at last he was aroused. He rose without his usual dawdling elegance of manner and said:

"You have taught me one lesson, Eleanor, that I shall not forget. I hope when you find your hero he will love you as truly as I have done—as I will continue to do, if you do not forbid me. And now, good-by. We part friends, do we not?"

Before she answered him Eleanor rose and in so doing dropped the flowers she had been holding. Morris sprang to pick them up, when instantly she placed her small, imperative foot upon them, crushing them to the floor. He looked at her, shocked and wounded.

"You see how hopeless it is that you should ever understand me," she said, bitterly. "You have more consideration for these hothouse weeds than for the souls of those around you. You hurt and wound me by your indifference to vital questions, but you are sorry for the roses! Good-by, Morris!"

"No berths left in the sleeper, sir."

"But, I tell you, I must have a berth—I can't sit up all night," and Morris Holmes shivered at the thought of such a hardship.

"A great many good people do, sir," said the conductor. "There's old Judge Skinner and his wife, they are both going to sit up to-night."

"But my man telegraphed for a section."

"They were all taken then, sir."

It was strange that at the first moment Morris Holmes started out to become a hero and learn the seamy side of life he should be reduced to actual suffering like this. If he had been dressed in his usual fashionable and elegant traveling attire the conductor would have suspected that he had unlimited wealth and would have bought out some less important traveler or sold him a berth already negotiated for, as the all-powerful car magnate has the privilege of doing.

But Morris Holmes had donned the plain dress of the ordinary business man, and wore a hideous gray ulster that concealed his elegant personality, and was on his way to the mining district, where a mine was located of which he was part owner; not a gold mine, but one that brought in gold—a bituminous coal mine, known as the Little Summit.

Morris had taken little or no notice of this branch of his wealth, the management and details being left to his agent, but when he left Eleanor Landsberg on the occasion of her second and final refusal of his offer of marriage, he suddenly determined to take a trip to the mining country and try his hand at heroism, in the way of improving the condition of the men who worked in the underground chambers, a work to him the embodiment of hardship and privation. He was going incognito, with the feeling of one who was about to perform a long neglected duty.

A more desolate place than that in which the Little Summit mine was located would be hard to describe. The mine that poured wealth into the coffers of its owner was conducted by ill-paid, sodden men, scrubby boys, and half-blind mules. The foreman was brutalized by a long course of low wages, heavy expenses and sordid surrounding. It was a word and a blow with him, or an oath more demoralizing than blows. When a stranger appeared he was received with sullen and suspicious silence, being more than half suspected of wanting the bread out of some other mouth. Morris was shocked almost out of recognition of himself by this unexpected state of things, for he felt himself passively to blame. He could not lay the odium on the shoulders of his agent, for he had never asked him a single question concerning the mine or the moral or physical welfare of the men. He had taken the revenue from it as part of his patrimony, indifferent as to methods. He had been helping to grind women and children into the dust that he might loll in luxury. His conscience stung him with reproaches which were inadequate to make him suffer as he deserved.

"Your hand, friend," he had said to the foreman, and noted the ugly scowl and determined air of refusal with which the man drew back.

"'T ain't as white as yours, and how do I know that you are my friend?" was the reply.

"I am here to see what you need, and will help you if you will let me," answered Morris, gently.

"A spy or an overseer, like enough. The sooner you get out of these quarters the better for your health. If one of the bloomin' mine owners sent you here, go back an' tell him 't ain't safe to come spyin' roun'. Tell him, too, that we'll give him a warmer welcome—hounds that they all are!"

The miners, dirty, black and complaining, had gathered around the foreman, and, although they hated him, they were bound to him by a common grudge.

"Tell them to come and get filled with warm lead—we'll heat it fur the 'casion," said a burly miner known as "Old Geordie."

"They dassn't come nigh their own property," said another; "they're white livered cowards and not worth the powder to blow 'em to thunder."

"Go back to your master and tell him what his lovin' workmen says," said the foreman, contemptuously, "an' get a photygraff of some of the hungry children and dyin' mothers for the family album. My missus will give you hers."

"Men," said the stranger, unbuttoning his heavy ulster and throwing it open, "have you ever heard of Morris Holmes?"

A groan and a series of yells saluted him.

"Aye, and his father afore him. It's that he might lie soft and eat fine food that we gets lost in the choke an' damp. If he sent you, go back and tell him to come out here himself. We hev a long account to settle, and the figgers is waitin'."

It was "Old Geordie" who spoke.

"I am Morris Holmes."

Now, if there is any quality that the rough and lawless of creation recognize and admire, it is courage, and after the first start of surprise, which in that sodden crowd was genuine and dramatic, the men felt an instant respect for this weakling of wealth, who was not afraid of them, and something like a cheer broke from their hoarse throats.

"I am here to right your wrongs," continued Morris, in a voice that sounded like a commander on the battlefield, "but I demand protection at your hands. I demand your confidence and that of your wives and children. I have the right to ask this. For the present that is all I have to say."

A few cheered him, others remained sullen and discontented, good news being received with caution and suspicion.

Eleanor Landsberg had no word from Morris for six months. Then she received a paper marked in red ink, which had a paragraph that interested her. It gave a plain statement of the great improvement that had taken place in the Little Summit mine, and went on to describe the comfortable homes of the miners, the new machinery which had been put into the mines to take the place of child labor, the comfortable stables above the ground that had been built for the mules, the improved social conditions of the men's families, and ended with a glowing tribute to the "noble energy of the young and athletic mine owner, Morris Holmes."

Athletic? Eleanor repeated the word with much satisfaction. It was of moral athletes she was thinking, and it pleased her mightily that this word could thus be applied to Morris.

In a few moments she received a second newspaper, published like the first, in a town adjoining the mines, and giving the news of that section of the country. It also contained a marked paragraph, but the marking was irregular black lines of jagged pencil, and on the border was drawn a rude hand, pointing to the notice and the badly written but legible "Old Geordie."

Eleanor read in a few intense words the news that had been sent to her. There had been an accident in the mine. The roof of the entire chamber had fallen and buried 20 miners beneath it. The men were rescued with great difficulty, and some of them were badly injured. When all were supposed to have been saved, there was a wailing cry, and the wife of "Old Geordie" struggled from the hands of friends and tried to throw herself into the mine. Morris Holmes, pale and out of breath, called for men to go down with him and rescue "Old Geordie." No one responded. The men owed their lives to their families, and they knew the danger of a falling roof. So Morris, with one look at the blue sky above, swung into the cage and was lowered alone amid an awe-stricken silence into the bosom of death. There was not much to tell. When the signal was given there were willing hands to help deliver the two men from the wreckage, but only one came up alive. The other had succumbed to the fatal damp. A long panegyric followed, but it meant little to Eleanor. Her eyes rested on four oft-quoted hackneyed lines that closed the story—they would never leave her:

"For whether on the scaffold high,
Or in the battle's van,
The fittest place for man to die,
Is where he dies for man."

She had found her hero, never again to lose him. He had returned on his shield.—Detroit Free Press.

Removal Sale!

Will remove to the much larger store, 129 East Front st., now occupied by Mr. Gavett, on or about March 25, 1896. I will therefore offer the following lines at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing,

also Neckwear, to reduce stock previous to removal.

Men's Overcoats $4 05, $7.20, $9.00, $10.80, $12.60 and Upward.

Men's Suits $4.05 $5.40, $6.30, $7.20, $9, $10.80 and Up

Boys' and Children's Clothing in proportionately low prices 50c Neckwear in four-in-hand and tecks at 25C. A beautiful assortment. All the above goods are new this season. Watch this ad.

HARRY M. JAQUETT,

123 East Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

One Price CASH One Price

and money refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

GOOD CLOTHING

Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our clothing. It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits

have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits

for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles). Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.——made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L. GAVETT & CO.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE

Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.

Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.

Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes; equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.

Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL,

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patrick	McIntyre C E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Ladie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.

Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.

Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.

You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at

J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., 000. North ave

Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 03, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 42, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5.14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m., 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m, 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,

EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

Cesspools Built.

DONT BE WOOZY CHEW FAULTLESS PEPSIN CHIPS

THE GUM THAT'S ROUND

10 CHIPS 5¢

Send 5 cents for a sample package to Faultless Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. 1113 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

THE ONLY

Agency for

Huyler's

IN PLAINFIELD

—IS AT—

LEGGETT'S PHARMACY,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Huyler's Prices.

Open day and night.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

No. 2243.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

DIVIDEND NO. 38.

The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent (4 per cent) on the capital stock of this bank out of the earnings of the past 6 months, payable on and after Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1896.

WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29, 1896. 1 29 3-2 1 3 4

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

Neuman Bros

Annual reduction of 10 per cent on all

GROCERIES

and leading brands of

New Canned Goods.

Broadmeadow's extra quality tomatoes only $1.15 per dozen; extra quality Jersey packed tomatoes only 95c per dozen; best reserve sugar corn only $1.25 per dozen or 11c can; extra quality early June peas $1.25 per doz., or 11c per can; Huyler's extra premium chocolate only 16c per cake, 30c a pound; Royal baking powder 43c a pound; Cleveland's baking powder 42c per lb; 5 lbs extra raisins for 25c.

Watchung Ave. and 5th st

shake it off

The general belief among doctors is that consumption itself is very rarely inherited. But the belief is becoming stronger that the tendency to consumption is very generally transmitted from parent to child. If there has been consumption in the family, each member should take special care to prepare the system against it. Live out doors; keep the body well nourished; and treat the first indication of failing health.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a fat-producing food and nerve-tonic. Its use is followed by improved nutrition, richer blood, stronger nerves and a more healthy action of all the organs. It strengthens the power of the body to resist disease. If you have inherited a tendency to weak lungs, shake it off.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been indorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites.

Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby. All druggists.

JUST AS GOOD IS NOT SCOTT'S EMULSION.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington: June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

Expert Opinion

The Canadian Government recently sent an appraiser to the principal bicycle factories in this country, to determine the exact value of various makes for import into Canada. After an exhaustive investigation, his report to his Government rated

Columbia Bicycles

7½ per cent. higher than any other make and they pay duty accordingly. This but confirms the popular verdict. Columbias are

STANDARD OF THE WORLD.

Unequalled, Unapproached.

Beautiful Art Catalogue of Columbia and Hartford Bicycles is free if you call upon any Columbia agent; by mail from us for two 2-cent stamps.

POPE MANUFACTURING CO.

Factories and General Offices, Hartford, Conn.

Branch Stores and Agencies in almost every city and town. If Columbias are not properly represented in your vicinity let us know.

DICK'S DOUBLOONS.

BY S. G. W. BENJAMIN.

DICK FLETCHER was as likely a young man of his years as lived on the coast of Maine. All who knew him said he was smart as lightning, and bound to be master of a ship before long, although not yet 21, for he was quite as good at a trade as in seamanship. This was important in days when sea captains had to manage the sale or purchase of a cargo no less than the navigation of a ship. Dick was mate of the brig Guiding Star, bound to the Spanish main. He had laid in a private stock of knick knacks and notions, intending to make a good profit bartering with the natives. He hoped to clear enough, perhaps, to enable him, with what he had already laid by, to purchase a share in a vessel and become her captain. Then Susan Bartlett was to become his wife.

The day when the lovers must say farewell came at last. How long they would be separated or when he would return was far more uncertain then than it would be in our day. The occasion was, therefore, not without anxiety and sadness. Moved by a sudden impulse or presentiment, Susan snatched from the mantel a valued box, which her aunt had bequeathed her, and gave it to Dick with the request that, whatever happened, he would cherish it as a remembrance of her love.

Dick was deeply touched in his uncouth way by this quaint little gift, for he was well aware how greatly Susan prized it; and yet he knew not what to do with it. However, he at last decided to use it for a "ditty-box," in which to keep the needles, thread and scissors every sailor needs at sea. As such Susan's box served a good purpose, although resembling a family Bible, which, indeed, it was intended to represent. The box had been made by one of Susan's ancestors, who had been lost at sea, and it had long been kept as an heirloom in Susan's family.

The voyage out proved lucky, so far as Dick was concerned. He traded off his wares to very good account, and salted down a snug sum, which, for convenience, he put into doubloons, noble gold coins, worth from eight to ten dollars apiece. Inspired by a happy thought, Dick packed the coins in the box Susan gave him. They just filled it, and few would be likely to search for money in an innocent-looking case resembling a book.

All went well after the brig turned her head toward home, until one afternoon in the neighborhood of Cuba, when a suspicious looking sail hove in sight. Pirates were not as thick as they had been in those waters, having been thinned out by cruisers. Still the danger was not quite over; a few piratical craft yet lurked among the islands, and all on the brig, therefore, anxiously scanned the stranger. It did not take long to make her out to be a genuine pirate bent on mischief. She soon showed her intentions by giving chase to the Guiding Star, which in turn spread every stitch of canvas, skysails, studding sails, ringsails, and, in fact, everything that would draw. The handsome trader presented a beautiful sight gliding over the blue waters under the pressure of white wings, and yet a terrible spectacle when one considered what a fate she was trying to escape; for all her efforts were useless, as the schooner soon drew within cannon shot, and the balls from her bow chasers came whistling over the water.

The brig could indeed make a feeble resistence, only sufficient to infuriate but not beat off the incarnate fiends who soon laid their rakish schooner alongside and swarmed on board the trader armed to the teeth, an overwhelming, tumultuous throng of howling devils. In the short but desperate fight that ensued the heroic defenders, foremost among them Dick Fletcher, succeeded in killing a number of their assailants. But they were soon overpowered, and not one of them, as was supposed, to repeat the tale of that bloody day.

SHE GAVE IT TO DICK.

But Dick, more fortunate than his shipmates, escaped death almost miraculously. He received a terrible blow on the head from the butt of a musket. His thick cap must have broken the force of the stroke, which, although it felled and stunned him, did not crush his skull. In the onward rush of the foe he was left for dead near the companion way, and under the corpse of a man he had shot down at the instant he himself fell to the deck. In the meantime, having disposed of the crew of the brig, the pirates proceeded to pillage the prize.

When Dick came to himself he had the presence of mind to remain perfectly still, although suffering intense pain from his wound. The blood which had run down his face increased his ghastly appearance and served to deepen the impression that he was actually dead.

He could hear the pirates rummaging all over the ship. So far as he could judge, they had nearly finished their search for treasure and were preparing to scuttle the prize, preferring that means of destruction to burning her, as less likely to attract the attention of cruisers. All on a sudden they were thrown into a wild panic, and furious oaths and confused orders rang over both vessels. Dick understood Spanish enough to gather from the clamor that an English frigate, attracted by the roar of the guns, was now coming down fast toward the scene of action. There was not a moment to be lost, and the shrill orders of the captain and officers of the pirate were heard commanding their men to hasten aboard the schooner and to make sail.

This unexpected turn of affairs led Dick to hope almost against hope that his treasure might have been undiscovered by the ruffians. Its safety meant much to him; perhaps his entire future depended upon it. To his horror, at that moment he heard one of several men who were still in the cabin exclaim: "Hello! what's that lying on the shelf in the bunk? We haven't examined that yet."

"Tumble out of there, or I'll blow your heads off!" yelled the second lieutenant of the corsair just then, putting his head down the companion way.

HE RECEIVED A BLOW ON HIS HEAD.

Without another word the men sprang on deck and skipped aboard the schooner, which immediately sheered off and strained every effort to escape the frigate.

Struggling to his feet, Dick staggered below, and was enraptured to find his precious store of gold just as he had left it in his bunk. It had not been touched. He soon ascertained, also, that he was the only living person left on board. The bodies of his shipmates and, of the dead pirates strewed the deck, as well as goods dragged from the hatches. The hull and rigging were also torn by the broadsides of the enemy.

But his attention was soon called to the rapid firing, which showed that the frigate was closing with the schooner. The combat was fierce but short. The pirates were greatly overmatched, and, finding further resistance useless, lowered their black flag. The frigate sent an officer and boat's crew to take possession. Scarcely had they reached the schooner when her captain touched a match to the magazine. The vessel blew up with an appalling explosion that hurled scores of souls into eternity.

After picking up the few survivors the cruiser squared away for the brig, and sent off a boat to render such assisstance as might be required. Finding her leaking and otherwise badly damaged, the British captain ordered her to be set on fire.

Dick was taken to the frigate with his sea chest, in which he had already carefully stowed his Bible box and its treasure. Two days after these stirring events an American vessel was sighted bearing northward. Dick was transferred to her and in due time sailed into Boston harbor. There he took passage on a schooner bound to Maine.

The consternation of the people when he reached home and told his story may well be imagined, for the captain and most of the crew of the Guiding Star hailed from that neighborhood. Susan was one of the few who met Dick with rejoicing.

"Well, I suppose you lost everything?" she said to her lover, after the first greeting was over.

"I guess I lost some dunnage; but I managed to save the box you gave me," he answered, with a twinkle in his eye. "I'll bring it around and show you how well I kept it."

Susan was so gratified by such a touching evidence of Dick's affection that she had to give him another kiss.

The next time he called to see his Susan Dick took the box with him; but when she reached out her hand to take it she was surprised to find how heavy it had grown.

"For the land sake, Dick, what in the world have you got in it?" she exclaimed.

"Just let me show you. Put it square on your knee; there, that's right; now let me open it," he said.

When she saw the pile of yellow, shining doubloons, glittering like the sunlight in the tropics, Susan almost fell back in a faint. She had never seen so much gold before in all her life. To her it seemed a large fortune.

"Yes, Susie, darling, that's all ours. Them's the profits I made on my ventur'. Them pirates didn't see it, or leastways, they didn't suspicion what was in that ere Bible, lying so innercent like in my bunk. It all belongs to you, sweetheart; for if it hadn't been for that ere box you gave me our hopes would have gone by the board. All you've got to do now is to name the day and we'll get married. Next t'y'ge I'm going master of the new schooner that's to be launched to-morrow. We are going to name her the 'Gentle Susan,' and you shall be [illegible]."—N. Y. Independent.

Munyon!

EMINENT CITIZENS GIVE POSITIVE PROOF.

That Munyon's Improved Homoeopathic Remedies Cure Rheumatism, Catarrh and and the Most Obstinate Diseases.

DOCTOR YOURSELF.

Step Into the Nearest Drug Store, Ask for a Guide to Health, Buy a 25c Remedy and Cure Yourself.

H. S. Boughton, of 175 First street, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For over two years I had kidney trouble. In that time I have paid doctors and for various proprietary medicines, more than $50. I was not cured, and not even benefited. Some weeks ago I began using Munyon's Kidney Cure. I have taken only three small 25 cent bottles, but I have derived more benefit from three little doses than from all the medicine that cost me so much money. I have not felt as well in two years as I do now."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure never fails to relieve it in 1 to 3 hours, and cures in a few days. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Catarrh Remedies positively cure. Price, 25c. each.

Munyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures pains in the back, loins or groins, and all forms of kidney disease. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Female Remedies are a boon to all women. Price 25c.

Asthma Cure, with Asthma Herbs, $1.

Munyon's Nerve Cure stops nervousness and builds up the system. Price 25c.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in 3 minutes. Price 25c.

Munyon's Pile Ointment positively cures all forms of piles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates all impurities of the blood. Price 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost powers to weak men. Price, $1.00.

A separate cure for each disease. At all druggists, 25c a bottle.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5⅞c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2½ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5⅞c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one-quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

W.L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

QUAY AS A FARMER.

The Pennsylvania Warwick Takes Pride in His Country Home.

Senator Quay visited his Lancaster county farm on his return home to Beaver from the meeting of the state republican committee at Philadelphia. He has not seen the place since last fall, when he spent a day there in company with Senator Cameron. Since then it has been improved under the direction of Deputy Auditor General Friday by the addition of a magnificent new barn, fences and outbuildings. The purpose of Col. Quay's proposed visit is to arrange for the remodeling of the house and other improvements.

SENATOR M. S. QUAY, PA.

This is one of the finest farms in Lancaster county. It consists of 135 acres and lies along the line of the Lancaster & Columbia Electric railway, midway between Columbia and Mountville. It is bounded on the south by the Pennsylvania railroad, which has built a small station near by, known as Glen Manor. The land was taken up in 1741 by Christian Garber. It remained in that family continuously until last October, when it was bought for Senator Quay by Mr. Friday. Shortly before the sale the large stone barn was destroyed by fire. The new barn is the finest and most convenient in Pennsylvania. It has a frontage of 90 feet and a depth of 93 feet. The basement is used as a stable, and is so arranged that one can stand anywhere on the lower floor and see all the horses and cattle feeding. Each stall is automatically supplied with water from the large spring. The second floor is of sufficient depth to admit of three four-horse wagons being driven on the floor at the same time. Two immense corn cribs and an agricultural implement shed are built in the barn.

M. ALFRED PICARD.

Commissioner General of the Paris Exposition of 1900.

Alfred Picard, impersonating work and science, has assumed supreme direction of arrangements for the Paris universal exposition of 1900. Commissioner general is his title. He has already perfected the organization of his staff for preliminary work, and construction of the buildings, which will line the Seine, will soon begin. Mr. Picard is one of the greatest of modern Frenchmen. An Alsatian by birth, in the early 60's he had passed through the polytechnic school and was graduated from the school of engineers. In the Franco-Prussian war he was called from Metz, where he had settled, to command a battalion of engineers. His various services in the war and later labors for the government were rewarded with the decoration of the Legion of Honor, of which order he is a grand officer. As engineer at Nancy, M. Picard accomplished much important work throughout the east of France. He built reservoirs, canals and railroads. Called to Paris to the central department of public works, he was successively director of roads, of navigation and of mines. In 1881 he became a state councilor. Since 1885 he occupies the high post of president of the section of public works, agriculture, commerce and industry in the state council. M. Picard is something of an author, too. His official history of the Paris exposition of 1889 is an encyclopedia, in ten volumes, of arts and industry. A treatise on railways, in four volumes, and a history of the French railroads, in six volumes, and a treatise on waterways, are also among his productions.

M. ALFRED PICARD.

Electricity for Night Fishing.

An electrical genius has come to the aid of night fishermen. Men who catch eels and other fresh water fish for the market sometimes set as many as a dozen lines. These must be taken up from time to time for examination. The new device is an arrangement by which, when the fish or eel is hooked, the first pull closes an electric circuit—a fine wire running alongside the line—and a tiny bell at the shore end sounds the alarm. A small storage battery is part of the equipment, as a matter of course.

Length of the Amazon.

The Amazon is 3,994 miles in length, rising within 70 miles of the Pacific ocean and flowing clear across the continent.

Bill Is Always Big.

Tupenny—There are certainly some strange inconsistencies in life.

Mrs. Tupenny—What are you driving at?

Tupenny—I was thinking about how out of proportion is your new spring bonnet to the size of the bill for it.—Town Topics.

Understood His Business.

Irate Customer—See here! All my friends are laughing at this bargain suit I bought of you. They say it's a mile too big.

Dealer (gently)—Mine frient, I know de cloding beesness better dan your frients do. Shust you vait till it rains.—N. Y. Weekly.

Changed Her Mind.

Lady Visitor—Well, Maisie, I have come after that new baby. You know you told me last week that you didn't want it and that I could take it home.

Maisie—Well, you can't have it. I want it myself now, but I'll get you a piece of paper and you can cut a pattern.—Mercury.

Don't Be Wantin'.

Don't be a wantin', wantin', wantin' suthin' all the time;
Wishin' 'at yew hed a dollar when yew heven't but a dime;
Wantin' mizzery an' sorrer, when the worl' is full uv mirth;
Some people gits a graveyard jest becuz they want the earth.

—Boston Courier.

Blessings on the Clock.

It was the clock that saved him.

It was 3:30 a. m. when he got in. His wife waked up when he fell over the rocking chair.

"Isn't it very late?"

"No, my dear, only 1 o'clock."

And just then the parlor clock struck the half hour.—N. Y. Journal.

The Road to Fortune.

Oh, he was a poverty-stricken duke,
Who'd squandered his patrimony:
But he managed to live in very good style
By visiting Yankee land for awhile.
And getting some matrimony.
—Harper's Bazar.

A GOOD PLACE TO LEARN.

"Can you swim, little boy?"
"Yes, sir."
"Where did you learn?"
"In the water, sir."—Texas Siftings.

FOOD STRENGTH.

It Comes From the Right Food Properly Digested.

Food strength is natural strength. It is new strength. That is, it is not stimulation.

The real strength of your body is your constitutional strength, your reserve strength. It is the result of eating proper food and digesting it.

Eating food does no good at all; rather harm—unless it is digested. So that everything narrows itself down to one proposition: How is your digestion?

One person in three of us have indigestion in some form or another. It is not really a disease, but a condition; a condition which may become serious.

We all wish to be strong, and we might all become so if we digested our food. The loss of your strength is a serious matter. It may be the beginning of a dangerous disease. It may mean that you cannot go on with your work.

Shaker Digestive Cordial is an aid to digestion. It is a strength maker. It makes your food nourish you. It makes you strong. It relieves at once all the symptoms of acute dyspepsia, tones up the system and creates flesh, energy and strength. Taken regularly it will permanently cure indigestion and make the weak, thin, irritable, nervous dyspeptic, strong, fat, hearty and well again.

A 10 cent bottle will show you what it will do.

Sold by druggists at 10, 25, 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

Finest Assortment

of Lace, Celluloid and Card

Valentines

in the city.

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

United States Government Under Grant

Have Permitted the World-Famed Healing Waters of Hot Springs, Ark., to Be Used in the Preparation of

"PURA BLOOD."

Leading physicians who are specialists in the treatment of blood diseases agree that "Pura Blood" is the best medicine to be used in all such troubles, in proof of which indorsements of this remedy have been received from many of the most prominent physicians. Book containing same, together with a full description of Hot Springs, Arkansas, its famous waters, its miraculous cures, and the grant from the United States Government, permitting the celebrated curative waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas, to be used in the preparation of "Pura Blood," will be sent free to any address. "Pura Blood" is for sale by druggists, price $1 per bottle. Billups & Co., of 26 Cortlandt st., New York, are sole agents.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh, and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

—The McAll Auxiliary will meet tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the Public Library.

—There has been no total eclipse of the moon lately, but an eclipse of all Peck's former efforts in the display of wash goods and embroideries.

—The new private car belonging to the directors of the Jersey Central Railroad passed through here yesterday en route to Jersey City from Pullman. The car is a model one in every respect.

Don't Doubt

OUR

"Word!"

WE ARE

Closing Out

our immense stock of

WALL PAPER, PAINTS, SHADES, RUGS, MOULDINGS, ETC.

Let us do your

Spring Decorating.

Edward Love,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

Chamber Music Concert,

AT

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.
Established 1869.

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering

Men's seamless half hose	10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy	2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black	2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose	10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes	15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee	18c
Large white cotton towels, only	10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for	$1.00

Spring Embroideries

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

Grand Final Clearing Sale

—OF—

Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks

previous to stocktaking, February 1, We propose to close out every winter garment. Notice the extraordinary reductions.

LADIES' JACKETS—LATEST STYLES.

Ladies boucle jackets, shield front, large pearl buttons, mandolin sleeves reg. $10 jacket, for $6.49.
Ladies' brown jackets, shield front, velvet collar and cuffs, large pearl buttons, reg. price $18, for $13.
Ladies' diagonal jackets, 28 inches long, reefer front, large pearl buttons, were $15, now $12.
Misses' fancy mixed jackets, velvet collar, mandolin sleeves, reefer front, were $8, now $5.
Misses' navy blue jackets, reefer front, ripple back, mandolin sleeves seams piped with velvet, large storm collar, reg. price $12, at $7.98.
Misses' jackets, blue and white mixed, double faced goods, velvet collar, 4 large pearl buttons, were $12, now $7.49.
Children's Gretchens, fancy mixtures, sailor collar, newest styles, were $10, now $6 98.

777 and 779 Broad Street,

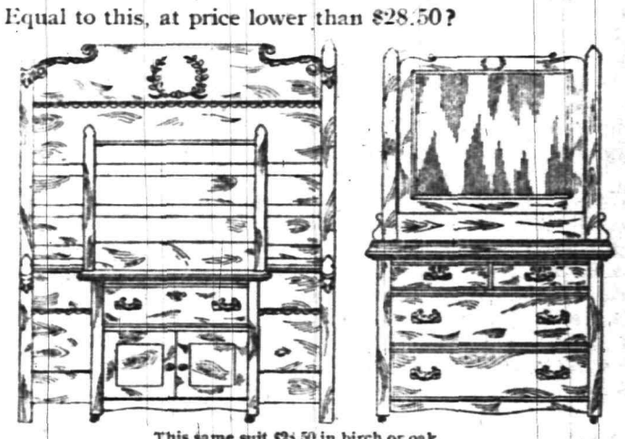
Newark, N. J.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

Ever Buy a Bedroom Suit

CASH OR CREDIT—LONG TIME GIVEN

Equal to this, at price lower than $28.50?



This same suit $28.50 in birch or oak.

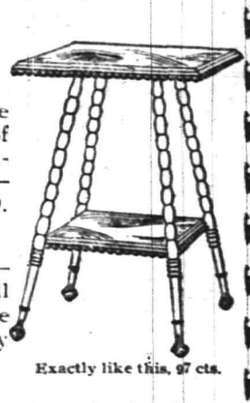
It's a suit we've always sold for $45.00—honor bright! Made in birch or quartered oak, French bevelled plate, 24x38, superbly finished.

6 Chairs For $5.95

It's needless to say they're chairs that'll beautify any dining room—fine construction, cane seats, a true blue value.

Here's a Table

marked at 97 cts.—it's not a make that's always ready to "get out of joint"—sturdy build, finely finished oak or cherry, nice make—exactly like cut, easily worth $1.50.



Exactly like this, 97 cts.

See Us for Carpets

We've a big line, all patterns—here's a "price illustration:" all wool ingrains, 65 cts, a yard, made and laid with lining. Over twenty patterns on hand.

Goods selected now held until wanted—no cash needed. Deliveries made free of charge.

Ever heard of the Portland Range? Of course you have. It's nearly world famed by this time.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Etc.
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

One night only

Tuesday, February 4.

The phenomenal success, that picturesque comedy surprise,

A Cracker Jack

A comedy drama true to life.

A play written for the people.
Crowded with exciting incidents.
Overflowing with merriment.
Charmingly enlivened with the best specialty novelties obtainable.
Presented with a cast of reorganized metropolitan artists.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Everything new and up-to-date.

HOYT'S A TRIP TO CHINATOWN

Produced in exactly the same manner as at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, with the

ORIGINAL CAST,

including Harry Conor and all the original scenery, furniture and properties

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1 Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

AWFUL HORRORS OF WAR

DR. RIGGS TALKS ON THE RUSSO-TURKISH CONTEST IN 1877-'78.

The Cruelty Practised Then Has Been Repeated in the Armenian Outrages—Dr. Riggs Will Give Twelves Lectures.

The unpropitious weather last night made slight difference to the people who wished to attend a lecture in the Crescent Avenue church given by Dr. James F. Riggs on the Eastern Question. The subject of the lecture was the Russo Turkish War of 1877 '78. Before Dr. Riggs commenced the lecture a unanimous vote was given by those present that twelve lectures should be given.

Dr. Riggs commenced his lecture by giving an account of the condition of the empire after the treaty of Paris, 1856-1876. During this time disorder and distress was increasing rapidly. On May 6, 1876, all the people of Salonica were excited over the stealing of a girl, and when the French and German consuls came out into the streets they were trampled under foot by the crowd. On May 11th of the same year the riot of the Softas in Constantinople occurred.

On May 30, 1876, Abdul Aziz was dethroned, and succeeded by his nephew, Murad V, who proved himself to be a very weak-minded man. The atrocities in Bulgaria continued and aroused indignation in Europe.

The dethroned Sultan was held in custody, but on June 4th he broke forth and ran to the window in the front of the castle which overlooks the river in which the Turkish iron-clads were anchored. Abdul Aziz, shaking his fists wildly at the iron-clads, declaimed in loud voice: "It is my money that paid for those boats. It is my money that was used to pay your salvages; and now will you leave me in the time of my trouble?"

That night there was great tumult in the castle, the women servants running about breaking the large plate glass windows with brooms, stools and clubs, yelling madly all the time, and upon investigation the ex-Sultan was found dead.

It was reported, much to the satisfaction of the government, that he had committed suicide, but this seems queer as he died from cutting the veins in his right arm with a pair of scissors, and it is not likely that a right-handed man would have used his left hand to perform this operation.

On July 1st Servia declared war and August 31st Murad V was deposed and his brother was proclaimed Sultan as Abdul Hamid II. The following year on the 24th of April, war was declared by Alexander II. The first blow of this war was struck by the Russians within one month of the time of the declaration of war. On May 10th, 1877, a Russian commander sailed up the Danube, and directing his tornado boat directly at the side of the great iron-clad Lutfi-Jelil, placed a torpedo under her, touched the wire, and blew to pieces this magnificent boat, which sank, carrying with her hundreds of men.

During the period between June 22d and 27th the Russians endeavored to cross the Danube, and on a dark and stormy night were able to do so, but not without difficulty, losing nearly half their men, but those who crossed were able to drive the Turks back from the cliffs and thus open a way for the rest of the Russian army to cross the river. This expedition was led by Skobeleff, one of the most daring generals of his time.

The second battle was that of Plevna, July 30th, 1877. The town of Plevna was fortified with a great horseshoe of redoubts running round it. In this battle the Turks were triumphant, and the Russians suffered great loss. Horrid barbarities of the "Bashi-Bozouks," i. e. "Rotten-Heads," the Turkish irregular troops, occurred.

The third battle of Plevna, September 7th to 14th, 1877, was another victory for the Turks. After five days bombardment an assault was made. This day is known as the Emperor's fete-day. There was great slaughter. The Russians lost 18,600 men, 7,600 killed and 11,000 wounded. This caused great mortification of the Russians and great surprise to all Europe. The Russian general then decided to invest Plevna. The two most important battles fought were those of Gorni-Dubnik and of the Green Hill. In these the Russians were victorious and led 10,000 Turkish soldiers, whom they had taken prisoners, out into the snow, surrounded them and kept them standing there until one after another, the whole 10,000 dropped to the snow covered ground and died of starvation while there was plenty of food in the Russion provision wagons within reach.

The crimes which we have been reading about in the papers for the past months are simply a repetition of these times.

REMINDERS OF EARLY MINSTRELS.

Old Show Programmes Hanging in the Hotel Grenada Cafe.

Those whose memory takes them back to the '50's will doubtless recall the various companies of "Serenaders," or minstrels, as they would be called at the present day, that were so popular at that time. They not only toured through the United States, but visited many foreign countries. Among the many curiosities that Wallace V. Miller has hanging on the walls of the cafe of the Hotel Grenada, of which he is proprietor, are two old show bills, framed.

They were printed in Australia and advertise Rainer's Serenaders. The first states that "Rainer's Original Ethiopian Serenaders" will give their fourth grand concert in the Saloon of the Royal Hotel, Sydney, on September 30th, 1852. Although almost fifty years old, the bill greatly resembles a combination hand-bill and programme of today. The heading is a catchy one and includes a cut, and then follows a description and an announcement telling of the wonderful performance and how the company, which was composed of six men, had performed before the President of the United States and the members of his Cabinet and had, by royal command, performed before Her Majesty, Queen Victoria. Then came a detailed programme which included vocal solos, instrumental solos, mostly banjo, choruses and the like. Many of the songs, well-known at the present time, were on the programme, among which were "Nancy Till," marked original, the "Old Folks at Home," "Oh! Boys, Carry Me 'Long." "Ben Bolt," with banjo accompaniment, "Dan Tucker" in English, Negro, Dutch and Irish by the company.

The other show-bill was dated January 29th, 1853, and advertised a benefit for F. Moran, one of the company, to be held in Mechanic's Hall Melbourne. The bill was arranged about the same as the other except that the programme was something of a different character. The troupe was advertised to make its first appearance with white faces and then, at the close, a colored drill and dance was to be given for the first time. "Ben Bolt" appeared to be still a favorite and was down on the programme. Among the other well-known selections were: "The Low Back Car," "Old Folks at Home," "Camptown Races," and "Lucy Long."

ENGINE'S ROD SNAPPED.

Passengers Thought the Locomotive Had Been Blown Up.

The connecting rod on engine No. 47, of the Central Railroad, was broken yesterday on the right side of the locomotive while on the way from Roselle to Elizabeth and Newark. The ends of the broken rod made havoc with the cab and the steam pipes on that side of the boiler. The cab was torn to pieces, the steam pipes broken off and the engine enveloped in hot vapor. The engineer, John Coffey, jumped astride the boiler when the rod gave way and thus escaped death or serious injury. He and the fireman had a narrow escape. Passengers thought the boiler had exploded.

The mishap was at Cherry street and the train ran to the Union street bridge, several hundred feet distant, before the engineer could stop it. A big crowd gathered and felt relieved to find the engineer's only injury was a sprained ankle. The disabled locomotive was taken to the Elizabethport shops. The passengers took a later train for Newark. Several were badly scared.

A Novel Social.

The women of the Congregational church are preparing a novel kind of sociable. They have asked for the earliest pictures of the members of the congregation. These will be exhibited at the social and the visitors asked to guess the names of the originals.

Evening Social.

An evening social will be held at the home of Miss Edith Manning, on Clinton avenue, Thursday evening of this week. The committee consists of Miss Grace Palmer, Miss Sadie Randolph, Clifford Manning and Samuel Beekman.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

DON'T AGREE WITH DALY.

JERSEY SENATORS APPEAR NOT TO LIKE THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

Senator Daly's Motion to Bring Up for Consideration His Resolution Endorsing the President's Stand Defeated, 15 to 2.

The New Jersey Legislature adjourned for the week yesterday afternoon, not having business to keep it going. President Thompson and Speaker DeRousse again exhorted the committee to get together and consider the report bills referred to them.

Senator Daly made another attempt to have his resolutions endorsing President Cleveland's stand on the Monroe doctrine considered, but he was ruled out on a point of order. Mr. Daly declared that he had a right to be heard, and started his speech. Senator Skirm declared it was all buncombe, and other Senators objected. Finally Senator Daly's motion to take up his resolutions were defeated by a vote of 15 to 2.

Senator Daly introduced a resolution calling for the appointment of a committee to investigate reported statements of railroad officials that their companies were furnishing free transportation to State officers in the line of gifts and subsidies, and not as a matter of right.

"Such a condition, if actually existing," the resolution recited, "would tend to make subservient to said railroads the aforesaid State officers, and would be a menace to good government." The resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Daly said later that each Senator and member gets about a dozen passes, good for the session, over the various railroads of the State. The law requires that these shall be given. Yet officials of some of the smaller roads are asserting that they are giving as favors, and are claiming favors on the strength of them. He wanted the Attorney-General to give an official statement to the proposed investigating committee.

The House yesterday afternoon passed the Bullock bill requiring bread to be sold by weight and providing penalties for violation or for adulterating bread. Also the bill appropriating $2 232 to defray the expenses of Gov. Grigg's inauguration.

A bill was introduced in the House by Reed forbidding governing boards of municipalties granting franchises to street or electric railway companies to occupy streets or roads unless the companies pay at least $4,000 for each mile of single track, or $8,000 for each mile of double track, and a bill by Austin making eight hours a legal day's labor on any public work or improvement.

Notice was given that on next Monday afternoon and evening the committee on railroads and canals would give public hearings on the bills fixing the maximum fare on street railways at five cents with three cent fares between 5 and 7 in the morning and between 5 and 6:30 in the evening; requiring all electric cars to have enclosed or vestibuled platforms; providing for the elevation of railroad tracks in first-class cities; requiring surface railways to erect and maintain waiting rooms and transfer stations; limiting street railways to five-cent fares over all their lines, and requiring street railway companies to heat and ventilate their cars.

Praise for Mr. Scott.

The Sunday Call's edition was printed on its new press last Sunday, and with success. Defects discovered late in part of the new plant made delay, but the press itself demonstrated that it is a marvelous piece of machinery. It does its work better than the best of servants, with wonderful accuracy and vast capacity, and is as compact and as neat a piece of mechanism as the ingenuity of invention and the skill of trained labor ever prepared for an important task. Nothing that is absolutely new in every part works so smoothly and regularly as that which has been tested, so that the best results from this press will not be available at once; but of the general excellence of Walter Scott's mechanical genius, as exemplified in this latest production, there is no possible question.—Newark Call.

Broke His Collar Bone.

While R. L. Conklin, of Jackson avenue, was ascending the cellar steps in his home a few days ago, he fell to the bottom of the stairs. He was examined by Dr. Long, who was immediately sent for, and it was learned that his collar bone was broken. Proper treatment was given, and Mr. Conklin is now improving as well as can be expected.

—Patrick Marron, formerly cobbler in Sherwin's shoe store, has opened a shoe repairing establishment of his own in the old Elkwood building.

OLD FIRE LADDIE DEAD.

CAPTAIN JOHN HENRY WHITNEY PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY.

He Was One of the Organizers of Alert Hose Company and Instrumental in Getting the Famous Silver Carriage.

Capt John Henry Whitney died yesterday at his home, 116 East Forty-sixth street, New York, of heart disease. Old residents of Plainfield will remember him as being one of the prominent men in the early fire department and as one of the organizers of Alert Hose Company.

He was born in New York in 1832, and lived there until the war broke out, when he enlisted as a private in the Fifth Regiment, New York State Volunteers, which was known as Duryea's Zouaves. At the close of the war he returned with a Captain's commission. He took up his residence in New York, where he was a member of the the New York Volunteer Fire Department. He entered the iron business with his brothers, C.W. and A. R. Whitney. While engaged in that business he moved to Plainfield in about 1869. Here he took an interest in the fire department, and with E. M. Brown, now Commodore of the New York Yacht Club, organized the Alert Hose Company. He was also prominent in caring for the silver hose carriage.

When he came here he purchased the house at the corner of Terrill road and East Front street from E. L. Brown and lived there as long as he remained in Plainfield. He was nicknamed "Baldy Sours" while in the New York fire department, and the name stuck to him here. Eighteen years ago his business called him to San Francisco where he made a short sojourn. He returned to New York where he was subsequently appointed to a responsible position in the Bureau of Assessments, which he held at the time of his death. He leaves a widow and two daughters. Caspar W. Whitney, the sporting writer of Harper's Weekly, is his stepson.

LIBRARY DIRECTORS MEET.

Binding of Periodicals in the Babcock Scientific Library Authorized.

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Public Library was held at the library last evening, President Tyler in the chair. There were present Directors M. W. Tyler, J. Evarts Tracy, William H. Larrabee, Rowland Cox, John B. Dumont and William M. Stillman.

After several bills were ordered paid the library committee reported that pursuant to the authority given them at the meeting of December 3d, they had authorized the binding of the periodicals taken by the Babcock Scientific Library, and had also authorized the placing of the same in the circulating department when ready for use.

The special committee to procure legislation reported that the bill they had presented at the last meeting had received the endorsement of the Corporation Counsel and had been given to Assemblyman William R. Codington to have passed by the Legislature.

The librarian's report for January was read, approved and ordered filed.

An Odd Will.

The will of Patrick Mullen, the gunmaker of Flatbush, L. I., was admitted to probate last week, one of the executors named in the will being Horace Raymond Munger, of Plainfield. The value of the estate is variously estimated at from $40,000 to $90,000. After a number of bequests, the will directs that the proceeds of the estate be given to the Lord Mayor of Dublin to be used for keeping alive and perpetuating in Ireland the Irish language, both oral and written.

Firemen Enjoy a Supper.

The members of Warren Engine Company, No. 1, met at the Crescent Hotel last evening and enjoyed a very fine supper. It was given under the auspices of the good and welfare committee consisting of Julius Stahl, Wm. Wilson and Horace Adams. After the inner man was satisfied, songs and speeches were given by several of those present. Altogether the event was one of great pleasure to all.

Visiting Officials.

Jerusalem Council, No. 1074, American Legion of Honor, met last evening and transacted routine business. The council was favored with a visit from Grand Commander Sleeper, of Palmyra; Grand Treasurer Mullin, of Jersey City, and Deputy Grand Commander Hooley, of Elizabeth. Excellent remarks were made and altogether the meeting was one of interest to all.

Reminder of Bygone Days.

Some of Plainfield's fast horses were on Park avenue yesterday afternoon, and it reminded one of old times to see the trotting, which used to be a great winter feature years ago.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

A Progressive Missionary Contest Afforded a Pleasant Afternoon.

A novel form of entertainment proved both pleasant and profitable to the members of the Presbyterian Mission Band yesterday afternoon. The meeting was held in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church. The brief opening exercises were conducted by the president, Miss Emily Tracy, who though wintering in New York, was present.

Postal cards announcing a progressive missionary contest aroused much curiosity among the members and drew a large number out in spite of the storm.

Five tables were used, four being seated at each, and the questions comprised hidden missionaries' names and mission stations, geographical locations and questions regarding the band's work. As the two persons winning stars, for the largest number correctly answered, progressed, the remaining two changed places.

Miss Halloway won six stars and received first prize. The Misses Harriet Gardner, May Cahoone and Hattie Goddard, ranked second, and the consolation prize was won by a new member, whose missionary education as yet is not advanced. There was a delicate suggestion in the prizes, the first being a prettily decorated jug for the contributions of the new year, and the consolation was a handbook of missionary knowledge.

The committee arranging the contest were Misses Julia J. Ketcham, Flora R. Petrie and Agnes Blair. The amount from the jugs was about $25, which will be increased before the financial year closes. The band is now preparing to give a tea and entertainment with novel features, on February 20th, in the parlors of the church.

THE FIRST POTTER PRESS.

The Man Who Made It and What He Has to Say of His Old Employer.

"That is a sight that ought to be good for the eyes of the man who made the first Potter press."

The remark came from the lips of Horace C. Bradford, a Milwaukee mechanical engineer, who was one of the interested spectators recently when the three Potter presses in the Journal press rooms were started.

"I built the first Potter press myself, and set it up in the Potter shops in Westerly, R. I., away back in 1858 or 1859," he said. "I cannot tell the exact year, but it was before the war. I was at work for Charlie Potter when he first went into business, and the first press we made was under my direction. From that start, however, came the great Potter presses of the present day, such as you have here, three in a row.

"Charlie Potter worked hard for success, and he deserved it. At one time we had about a dozen costly presses almost finished when we found that they would not work as well as we expected, so they were thrown aside and Pottor went into the pattern shop himself to try to remedy the deficiences

He was a hard worker and a good designer and finally overcome the troubles so that his presses went into use and gave satisfaction. But from that time to this he has kept studying up improved features for his machines until he has brought them where they are."

AUXILIARY TO BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Episcopal Women Organize to Help Along a Good Cause.

In accordance with an invitation extended by the women of Grace P. E. church to the women of the other four Episcopal churches in Plainfield, about seventy-five women met in the chapel of the former church yesterday afternoon for the purpose of forming a Plainfield branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. A preliminary organization was formed, and another meeting will be held on March 10th.

The members entered into a thorough discussion of the subject and all seemed to be exceedingly interested in the organization. Mrs Ryder was chosen presiding officer, and Mrs. F. W. Perry secretary.

It was decided that each parish appoint two men to make up an executive committee. They will meet previous to the other meeting. A helpful paper was read yesterday by Miss Mary Tweedy on the "Value of Being Thoroughly Conversant in Missionary Work."

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

ALL CHANGE SAVE GOD.

REV. CORNELIUS SCHENCK SPEAKS OF THE PERMANENCY OF GOD.

He is the Same Today as of Old and Will Forgive All Sins and Help You to Live Aright—Other Points.

There was a goodly number of people present at the revival service held in the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening, and the meeting was one of exceptional interest to everyone.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck gave a most excellent talk on the text, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, yea, and forever," as found in Hebrews 13:8. A portion of his remarks were as follows:

The great law of change is written on everything, even the hills are subject to change, by severe storms and winds. This law is sadly evident at times. A few years ago the family circle was complete, and nothing seemed to enter that would mar the joy and happiness therein. How is it now? One by one they drop out and there is a change. One thing is very much desired and that is something permanent. We find that in God through His Son, Jesus Christ, for he is the same yesterday, today and forever. Amid the shifting sands of time we need a solid rock to stand upon. There is a peculiar sort of sameness in God. It is not the kind to easily tire of, not like the seed or oak of which we have control. He possesses loving, living, warm sympathetic personality, and the heart of man can be satisfied with nothing less than Jesus Christ. He is perfect, and we will find in Him just what we desire. He is always the same in nature, being both human and divine. Though absent in flesh He is ever present in the spirit. The word of God endureth forever. He is the same in power and love. The unchangeable love of Christ is something to be desired. May we lift our eye of faith and secure His blessing. He is the same today as of old, and He will forgive our sins and help us to live aright. May we say tonight, "All for Christ, all that I have for Christ." Charles Lewis sang very effectively, "I Need Thee Every Hour."

Dr. Lewis then took charge of the service and one of the most helpful testimony meetings was held. Many expressed a desire to become Christians which fact encouraged the workers very much.

MRS. HALL'S ENTERTAINMENTS.

A Course Designed For People Who Appreciate Talent.

This course, arranged by Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, promises to be of special interest, both from a social and an intellectual point of view.

Mrs. Laura E. Richards, who will open the series on Friday afternoon next at 945 Central avenue, is well-known here as elsewhere by her writings. As a reader she is very much liked. Her voice is of excellent quality, her use of it exceedingly good and her rendering of her own charming stories unsurpassable in charm and interest. No one who has heard her read "Jim, of Kellas," "Bethseda Pool," or parts of "Captain January," will fail to exclaim: "Give me that strain again."

Prof. W. Hudson Shaw, M. A. Fellow of Balliol College, Oxford, England, who will give a historical lecture on "Venice" at Seminary Hall, February 21st, is now lecturing in Philadelphia, in the University Extension, for the third season. This association says of him: "He has been for several years the most distinguished and successful of the Oxford University Extension staff. Mr. Shaw unites with the scholarship, which has won him the position as Fellow of Balliol, exceptional skill and magnetism as a lecturer."

The last lecture, "General Francis Marion and the Huguenots of South Carolina," will be given by Mrs. Hall on March 6th, at the home of Mrs. Edward C. Perkins, Central avenue.

In Justice Newcorn's Court.

Justice Newcorn has issued a summons in the contract case of Horton & Bradley against Chase, which is returnable February 10th. He has also issued executions in the following contract cases: Smith against Cole; Plainfield Beef Co. against Weber; Hoerster against Marcais; Morrison against Grace.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

FREE SILVER TALK

Proceedings in Congress To-day Devoid of General Interest.

THE BOND BILL UNDER DISCUSSION

Effort of Mr. Quay To Have the Substitute Reported as a Separate Measure. The House Will Also Discuss the Bond Subject To-day.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Proceedings in the senate to-day promise to be devoid of interest. The venerable chairman of the finance committee, Mr. Morrill, rep., Vt., will some time to-day ask that the substitute to the house bond bill providing for the opening of the mints, of the United States to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, be given immediate consideration. By way of comment on the report, which he voted against in committee, he yesterday quoted the formula of the winding up of proclamations by the governor of Massachusetts, "God save the commonwealth." A resolution was offered by Mr. Quay, rep., Pa., to recommit the report to the finance committee with instructions to report back the original bill and the substitute as separate proprositions; but that resolution went over till to-day, owing to an objection on the part of Mr. Hill, dem., N. Y., to its immediate consideration. The proposition to amend the rules of the senate by distributing the appropriation bills among the several committees having charge of the branch of service to which they apply occupied several hours of the senate's time. By a vote of 25 to 44 the senate refused to take up the urgent deficiency bill, and by a vote of 49 to 24 it decided to take up Mr. Dubois', rep., Ida., resolution to amend the rules

House of Representatives.

Immediately after the vote on the District of Columbia appropriation bill to-day, Mr. Dingley will ask the house to take up the ways and means committee's report recommending that the house do not concur in the senate substitute therefor, the bill passed last December authorizing the issue of bonds to protect the gold reserve and to provide against temporary deficiencies in the revenue. Mr. Crisp yesterday, when the matter came up, stated that the report was not a unanimous one—that the minority of the committee urged the house to accept the senate's free silver coinage substitute. By unanimous consent a number of measures were considered and passed yesterday afternoon, among them a house bill authorizing the appointment of commissioners to treat with the Shoshone, Arapahoe and Bannock Indians in Wyoming and Idaho for the surrender of any rights claimed by them under treaties with the United States to hunt upon unoccupied public lands. This bill grew out of the outbreak at Jackson's Hole last summer.

UNCLE SAM'S SEAL ISLANDS.

$6,351,961 Received in Rental from 1870 to 1890—One Claim in Litigation.

Washington, Feb. 5.—According to a communication sent to the house of representatives by Secretary Carlisle, in reply to a resolution, the last three years' dues for the lease of the Seal islands, amounting to about $850,579, are now in suit in the southern district of New York. From 1870 to 1890 the government received $6,351,961 from the Seal islands. The cost of policing the sea from 1890 to 1895 was $1,410,721; supporting the natives during this period cost $55,219 and this with the salaries and expenses of agents for the same time runs the total up to $1,693,104.

Erie Railroad Board.

New York, Feb. 5.—The following permanent board for the Erie Railroad company has been elected: C. H. Coster, J. J. Goodwin, Abram S. Hewitt, John G. McCullough, D. O. Mills, Alexander E. Orr, George W. Quintard, Samuel Spencer, Francis L. Stetson, Eben B. Thomas, J. Lowber Welsh and Samuel E. Williamson.

Roberts Not To Retire.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—The various rumors which have been given publicity in the newspaper press to the effect that George B. Roberts was about to retire from the presidency of the Pennsylvania railroad are emphatically and authoritatively denied at the office of the company.

Gov. Lowndes' Brother To Wed.

Clarkesburg, W. Va., Feb. 5.—Gov. Lowndes of Maryland is here to-day to attend the marriage of his brother, R. T. Lowndes, to Miss Mary Goff, a niece of United States circuit court judge Nathan Goff. Members of the governor's family came with him in a private car.

No War Tax in Spain.

Madrid, Feb. 5.—The cabinet has rejected the proposal to levy a war tax to meet the expenses of the campaign in Cuba and has also decided not to increase the customs duties in Cuba. It has resolved to amend the tariff with a view to augmenting the revenue.

To Improve the Breed of Horses.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Mr. Bartlett of New York has offered in the house a bill to provide for the incorporation of associations for the improvement of the breed of horses and their regulation; also to establish racing commissioners.

Call for More Italian Troops.

London, Feb. 5.—A dispatch from Rome to the Central News says that 30,000 more troops have been summoned to serve with the colors.

Cruiser Columbia Sails for New York.

Fort Monroe, Va., Feb. 5.—The United States cruiser Columbia started at 6 p. m. last night for Tompkinsville, N. Y.

AGAINST WAR SPIRIT.

Society of Friends Plead for Arbitration in All Disputes Between Nations.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—The Philanthropic Union of Religious Society of Friends, representing the seven yearly meetings of Friends in the United States and Canada, has adopted a minute in which the union expresses a desire to enter its protest against the war spirit which seems so greatly to prevail at the present time, and also to express its regret that anything should have occurred to disturb the friendly relations heretofore existing between Great Britain and the United States. The minute continues as follows: "In our opinion there has not yet arisen, and we believe that there never will arise, any cause of difference between these two nations, or between any nations, that cannot be infinitely better settled by the justice and reason of arbitration than by the passion and unreason of war. We have rejoiced at every advance made toward the peaceful adjustment of international differences, and we trust that the day may soon come when all the causes of differences between nations will be thus settled. We believe that religion and humanity demand that all causes of international difference should be settled by arbitration instead of war."

GRANT MURDER MYSTERY.

Boston Police Confident They Can Fasten the Crime on Mrs. Quinlan.

Boston, Feb. 5.—In the case of the mysterious murder in Charlestown of Mrs. Grant, the police and medical examiner are said to be in possession of new evidence which will involve very closely Mrs. Quinlan, the sister of Mrs. Grant. Their evidence now points to a quarrel between the sisters after both had been drinking. All things point to this: Mrs. Grant's assailant in a maniacal fit of anger, struck the woman at first with the clinched fist, and then, getting possession of some object near at hand, continued the attack until the deed was done. The testimony of Mrs. Quinlan that she was out of the house when the deed was done, it is said, will be met by scientific or contradictory testimony now in the hands of the physicians and the police, that would tend to prove it impossible for her to have been away from the house at the time. The theory that burglars committed the crime is regarded as ridiculous when it is known to be a fact that none of the silverware, which was lying in plain view on the table in the room, was disturbed. There now seems to be no doubt in the minds of the authorities that they are on the right track.

MRS. LOCKWOOD'S ESTATE.

Efforts of Charles F. Osborne To Break Her Will on the Ground of Fraud.

Newburgh, N. Y., Feb. 5.—The estate of the late Mary W. Lockwood, who died about a year ago aged 100 years, and for which Charles F. Osborne has begun suit for a share as a relative of the deceased, amounts to $20,000. The hearing on the motion to set aside the will is to be heard on March 31 next and if successful several charities will be losers. Osborne alleges that he is a collateral relative of the deceased, one of the heirs at law and is the next of kin. He avers that the will which was probated was not the last will and testament of Mrs. Lockwood and that she was not sound in mind and body at the time of making it. He claims that the devises, providing the will is genuine, were obtained by fraud and deception, circumvention and undue influence.

BEHRING SEA DISPUTE.

Swiss President Authorized by the Federal Council to Nominate an Arbitrator.

Berne, Feb. 5.—The Swiss federal council has decided that the president of the confederation may nominate an arbitrator in the Behring sea dispute between Great Britain and America, in accordance with the agreement between the governments of those countries.

Confirmed by the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The senate has confirmed the nominations of James A. Hall, to be postmaster at Irvington, N. Y., and William H. Anderson, surveyor of customs, Portland, Me.

Treasury Gold Reserve.

Washington, Feb. 5.—At the opening of business to-day the treasury gold reserve stood at $47,155,148.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot trade slow and prices doubtful. February, 73¾c.; March, 74⅝c.; May, 72¾c.

Corn—Spot quiet but held firmly. February, 37¼c.; May, 36½c.

Oats—Spot held steady, but quiet. February, 25⅛c.; March, 25¼c.; May, 25½c.

Pork—Spot firm; moderate demand. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $10.75@$11.00.

WHO WILL IT AID?

Republicans Still Discussing Harrison's Letter of Declination.

OPINION SEEMS TO FAVOR M'KINLEY

Members of the House, However, Do Not, as a Rule, Feel That His Withdrawal Materially Effects the Prospect of Other Candidates.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Republican politicians are still discussing the effect the declination of Gen. Harrison will have on the other candidates for the presidential nomination. Leading republicans in the house who were spoken with to-day did not, as a rule, feel that Gen. Harrison's withdrawal from the presidential race would materially effect the prospects of the other candidates. The Ohio representatives, of course, believe that McKinley will secure the support of the Indiana delegation. This opinion is shared by representatives from other states, one of whom is Mr. Scranton of Pennsylvania. Other gentlemen believe that the Indiana delegation will divide its strength among the various candidates. The Indian republicans, if the members of congress from that state fairly reflect the sentiments of their constituents, while believing Gen. Harrison sincere, indulge in the hope that an exigency may arise which may require the convention to nominate him. The following are the views expressed by some of the prominent republicans of the house upon the letter:

Their Views Differ.

Mr. Broderick, Kan.: Kansas is favorable to McKinley, Reed and Allison. I think the contest is between Reed and McKinley. I fear that our delegation may be for McKinley. Mr. Lacey, Ia.: Harrison's withdrawal will strengthen Allision, because it leaves Allison as the principal western man. McKinley is the middle west man. Mr. Grow, Pa.: I think the contest will be decided to some extent on geographical lines, with the result at this time uncertain. Mr. Scranton, Pa.: If Harrison should favor Allison as his political legatee, influences might be brought to bear upon Indiana to give its support to the Iowa senator. Mr. Taft, O.: It is unquestionably favorable to McKinley. The people of the west had a great admiration for Harrison and he would have received a considerable support in that locality. Mr. Sperry, Conn.: Mr. Harrison has not been seriously regarded as a candidate and his letter, therefore, will not change the situation. Mr. Daniels, N. Y.: It is not likely to have any effect upon the New York delegation, because their preference is for Morton. Should Gov. Morton drop out of the race no one can tell where the New York delegation might go. Mr. Barrett, Mass.: The only delegates likely to have been elected for him are the thirty from Indiana, and these will now divide between Reed, Allison and McKinley.

Opinions of Senators.

Mr. Proctor, rep., Vt.: I imagine those votes that would have gone to Harrison will be divided among the other candidates. Gov. McKinley will probably get some of the Indiana delegation, although among the older politicians of that state there is a warm feeling for Mr. Harrison. I have known since last June that Mr. Harrison would not be a candidate and while I was not authorized to speak for him I told the people in our state that I believed he would not permit his name to go before the convention. Mr. Sherman, rep., O.: I hardly care to express an opinion on the situation, but it would look as if the decision reached by Mr. Harrison ought to result favorably for Gov. McKinley. I believe it will. Mr. Chandler, rep., N. H.: I have never believed that Mr. Harrison would be a candidate; as to what effect it may have I have no opinion to express.

AMERICANS WITH JAMESON.

Took Part with the British in the Raid Into the Transvaal.

London, Feb. 5.—The Central News says that a number of Americans are among those who took part in Dr. Jameson's raid into the Transvaal and who were captured by the Boers. They are now enroute to England in company with the British members of the expedition, who were handed over to the British authorities for trial. If they are able to prove that they are citizens of the United States they will be immediately released.

New Mill Company Formed.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 5.—Yesterday afternoon at Jericho, in the Pawtuxet valley, the Warwick Mills company was organized by the election of directors. The new company will build a large cotton mill in the early spring at Centreville and will have a capital of $400,000.

The Finest Cake

In the World is made with

Horsford's Baking Powder.

Use one-third less quantity than other powders require and the Cake will be remarkably light, of fine texture, and will retain its fresh condition longer than when any other powder is used.

NO SECRET

IN THIS WOMAN'S CASE.

Mrs. Campbell Wishes Her Letter Published so that the Truth May Be Known.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Of the thousands of letters received from women all over the world by Mrs. Pinkham, not one is given to the public unless by the wish of the writer. Thus absolute confidence is established between Mrs. Pinkham and her army of patients; and she freely solicits a letter from any woman rich or poor, who is in ill health or ailing.

In the case of Mary E. Campbell, of Albion, Noble Co., Ind., her suffering was so severe, her relief so suddenly realized, and her gratitude so great, that she wishes the circumstances published, in the hope that others may be benefited thereby. She says: —

"My physician told me I had dropsy and falling of the womb. My stomach and bowels were so bloated I could not get a full breath. My face and hands were bloated badly. I had that dreadful bearing-down pain, backache, palpitation of the heart, and nervousness.

"One of my physicians told me I had something growing in my stomach; and the medicine that I took gave me relief only for a short time. I thought I must die. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it worked like a charm. After taking the first bottle I could walk across the street, now I am well. I advise all my friends to take it."
—MARY E CAMPBELL, Albion, Noble Co.

NOTICE

Estate of Sarah C. Hanford, deceased.

Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the county of Union, made on the application of the undersigned administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of Dec., 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

ANNA AUGUSTA GODWIN,
12 18—o a w Administratrix.

NOTICE

Estate of John A. Briant, deceased.

Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of November, 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

NATHAN V. COMPTON,
11 27 10-oaw Executor.

W.L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington June 27. Coaching trip abroad with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 28, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

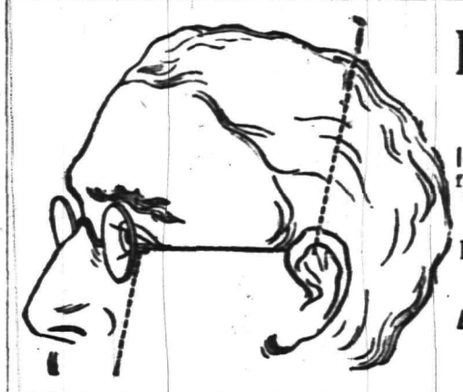
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

1107 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.

BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
220 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Special Sled Prices.

32c	Redeced From	43cts.
36c	"	48cts.
56c	"	75cts.
71c	"	95cts
73c	"	97cts.
94c	"	$1.25.

R. C. Rand, 140 W. Front st

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

Edwin B. Maynard,
Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES,
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's
Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

Pure. Safe.
Prompt. Sure.
Pleasing. Speedy.
Allcock's Porous Plaster
is all this and more, too. The best external remedy known for every form of ache or pain resulting from colds, coughs, sprains, strains, rheumatism or neuralgia.
Never be Satisfied with any but ALLCOCK'S. Be not deceived by misrepresentations.
Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills
relieve indigestion, bowel, liver and kidney trouble Absolutely pure.

GEO. O. STEVENS
COAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

Don't Doubt
OUR "Word!"
WE ARE
Closing Out
our immense stock of
WALL PAPER, PAINTS, SHADES. RUGS, MOULDINGS. ETC.
Let us do your
Spring Decorating.

Edward Love,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

MAY BE NAMED TO-DAY

Mr. Uhl's Nomination as Ambassador Soon Expected.

WELL FITTED FOR THE POSITION

A Lawyer by Profession and a Man of Wealth, Culture and Education—Native of New York State, But Now a Resident of Michigan.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Edwin F. Uhl, first assistant secretary of state, whose nomination to the post of ambassador to Germany to succeed the late Mr. Runyon will, it is asserted, be sent to the senate this week, and probably today, is a resident of Grand Rapids, Mich., but was born in New York. He is a lawyer by profession and a man of wealth, education and culture. He is of German descent and has long been a leading lawyer and prominent member of the democracy of Michigan. He was appointed assistant secretary upon the recommendation of Don M. Dickinson. Mr. Uhl is 55 years old. He was educated in the Ypsilanti schools and the state university. In 1866 he began the practice of law and removed to Grand Rapids, where he became a leader at the bar. He was twice mayor of Grand Rapids. Mr. Uhl was nominated by the democratic state convention in Michigan in 1894 as the party candidate for United States senator. When the legislature was elected, however, it was found that there was only one democrat in the entire membership. This was Donavin of Bay, who became famous accordingly. Acting upon Mr. Uhl's suggestion, Donavin cast his vote for Senator McMillan, the republican nominee, who was thus re-elected by a unanimous vote. Mr. Uhl's best known public acts were in connection with the Allianca incident. After a Spanish war vessel had fired upon the Allianca, an American steamship, near Cuba, Mr. Uhl, in the absence of Secretary Gresham, conducted much of the correspondence with the Spanish authorities which brought the affair to a conclusion satisfactory to the Allianca's owners and the United States generally. Mr. Uhl is a man of fine physique, good address and polite but reserved manner. He will undoubtedly make a creditable representative of America at the Berlin court. He has a wife, a grown daughter and two other children who are at school. Mr. Uhl traveled in Europe last summer and visited Berlin among other cities. The salary of first assistant secretary of state is $4,500, and that of ambassador to Germany is $17,500.

STANLEY IS WITH US.

Says We Are Right in Our Position in the Venezuelan Matter.

New York, Feb. 5.—Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, now a member of the British parliament, has written a letter to Major J. B. Pond of this city touching the Venezuelan question. In the course of it, he says: "Now, on this Venezuelan subject, I am entirely on the side of America, but I must admit that I am not surprised that the English papers backed up Lord Salisbury and differ from me. Taught by the virulent remarks of your journals, I had, of course, devoted much time to understand it, whereas English editors were exceedingly ill informed about the matter. Then there are two or three injudicious remarks in Olney's dispatch which put British backs up, but after reflection it is wonderful how many have come round to my opinion that whatever the transgressions of Olney may be there is a great deal of justice in the American demand. I feel quite sure now that so much is admitted it will not be long before the opinion becomes general that we were in the wrong in refusing arbitration, while the more I think of Olney's dispatch the more impressed I am that Olney could scarcely have written otherwise than he did."

NOT A FITTING TIME.

American Dispatch Boat Not Yet Admitted into the Bosphorus.

Constantinople, Feb. 5.—The question of admitting an American dispatch boat into the Bosphorus is still pending. The porte does not contest the right of the United States to have a vessel here, but regards the present moment as not fitting for its admission. It is rumored that since Minister Terrell's vigorous action in behalf of the American missionaries the court circulars have mention him as the sole guest at court dinners.

An Editor Gets a State Job.

Albany, Feb. 5.—Supt. Kilburn of the state banking department has appointed F. J. Seaver of Malone to be his private secretary at a salary of $2,000 per annum. Mr. Seaver has been for a number of years the editor of the Malone Palladium. He will assume his post to-morrow.

Believes She Is a Filibuster.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Secretary Carlisle has directed the collector of customs at Norfolk, Va., to consult the district attorney there as to detaining the steamer Isaac N. Veazey, in port there. Minister De Lome suspects the Veazey of filibustering.

Sullivan Will Leave Springfield To-day.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 5.—John L. Sullivan is greatly improved and he will leave with his wife and Harry Gluckauff for St. Louis this afternoon. Sullivan says he will box with Ryan in the Texas tournament and will see the big fight.

Fire Marshal Asked To Resign

Danielson, Conn., Feb. 5.—The court of burgesses has requested chief engineer Charles N. Capron of the fire department to resign because of inefficiency shown by giving contradictory orders at fires.

LOOKING FOR INJURIES.

Experts To-day Examining the Hull of the Steamship St. Paul.

New York, Feb. 5.—Experts are today examining the hull of the American line steamer St. Paul, which is now at her pier here, having been towed to the berth immediately after her release during the northeast storm yesterday from her dangerous position on the beach at Long Branch, where she had been for ten days, in order to discover if she has sustained any injuries which will necessitate her being taken to Newport News or Philadelphia for repairs. If it is found that she is uninjured she will make her next trip, as scheduled, on February 19. There appears to be a controversy, which may have to be settled in court, as to the division of salvage money between the Chapman and the Merritt wrecking companies, which co-operated in the work of releasing the big American liner. It is impossible at present to say what the cost of floating the St. Paul will be. It is said that the stories that the wrecking companies were to receive $100 000 are untrue. It is stated that the claim for salvage will be founded upon the amount paid for hauling the steamship Almerique off the same beach, which was $110,000. As the St. Paul is a much larger vessel the expense will undoubtedly be correspondingly greater.

HAPPY ENDING EXPECTED.

Wales Counsels Dunraven Regarding His Course in the Yacht Difficulty.

London, Feb. 5.—The Chronicle today says that the Prince of Wales, who is commodore of the Royal Yacht squadron, has earnestly counselled Lord Dunraven to keep well in mind the fact of the desirability of promoting friendship between the representatives of sports and people. The prince considers that the terms of the finding of the committee of inquiry of the New York Yacht club offer great encouragement in this direction. There is reason to believe that action leading to a very happy ending of the trouble will shortly be taken.

CAMPOS IN DISFAVOR.

More Hoots Than Cheers Greet Him on His Arrival in Madrid.

Madrid, Feb. 5.—It is plain to be seen on all sides that popular feeling here is strongly against Gen. Campos for his failure to suppress the Cuban insurrection. This was fully shown on the arrival of the old warrior at the Valladolid railway station where he was received by the crowd assembled with more hoots than cheers. Some of the more pertinaceous hooters were arrested. One man escaped from his captors and attempted to run away. The gefdarmes fired twice at him and killed him.

AN EDITOR INDICTED.

Accused of Libeling an Assemblyman During a Political Campaign.

Saratoga, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Farrington L. Meade, editor of the Mechanicville Mercury, has been indicted by the Saratoga county grand jury for libeling assemblyman Charles H. McNaughton of this district. In the last campaign the Mercury accused Mr. McNaughton of being a deserter from the army in the civil war and that he was arrested and brought back to the front by a Mechanicville officer. Editor Mead gave bail and was released.

Unable To Locate the Blame.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Feb. 5.—The coroner's jury which investigated the boiler explosion at the Hollidaysburg Iron & Rail company's rolling mill, by which six men were killed and fifteen injured, returned a verdict last evening that they were unable to determine the cause of the explosion. It was shown that the boilers had been recently repaired and were in good condition.

Poor Place for a Brewery.

Boston, Feb. 5.—A meeting of creditors of the Mountain Spring Brewing company was held here yesterday afternoon, when, after a long discussion, a committee of three was appointed to investigate the plant at Walpole, N. H. Under ordinary conditions the latter would be very valuable, but in a prohibition state it is different.

The Report Untrue.

Pittsburg, Feb. 5.—Mr. Westing house, when asked concerning the report from New York that the Manhattan Elevated railroad had entered into a contract with the General Electric company for the equipment of that line or any portion of it with electrical apparatus, said that the report was untrue.

Against Free Railroad Passes.

Trenton, Feb. 5.—A resolution was introduced in the senate yesterday afternoon looking to the abolishing of the free railroad pass system now said to be enjoyed by state officials. A committee of three senators will confer with the attorney general in reference to the actual situation.

Death of Rev. Dr. Chambers.

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 5.—The Rev. Dr. Talbot W. Chambers, one of the senior ministers of the collegiate branch of the Reformed Dutch church, who died suddenly of pneumonia at his residence in New York last eveneng, was born in this city in 1819. He was well-known as a writer on religious topics.

Oldest Convict Ever Pardoned.

Dension, Tex., Feb. 5.—Joe William has arrived here from the penitentiar after serving a term of fourteen years for the crime of murder. His sentence was for ninety-nine years. He is 9 years of age and he is the oldest convi ever pardoned in the United States.

Abbott-Pierce Fight a Draw.

Boston, Feb. 5.—The Abbott-Pierce fight last night was declared a draw at the end of the fifteenth round.

A GRATEFUL CROWD

Rescuers of the Hawkins' Filibuster Passengers Rewarded.

THEY ALL HAD PLENTY OF MONEY

New Facts About the Rescue Told By Mate Lind—Promised Something Nice by Garcia if the Cuban Insurgents Were Successful.

Boston, Feb. 5.—Capt. William M. Howes, of the schooner Leander V. Beebe, who rescued seventy men from the sinking steamer J. W. Hawkins off Montauk Point, has received from New York a valuable pair of marine glasses, also a package, said to contain money, as a token of gratitude from the men he rescued. First officer Eric Lind of the Beebe gives some interesting facts in connection with the rescue which did not appear in Capt. Howes' report last Saturday. Mate Lind wears in a conspicuous place on his coat a white enamel button bearing the Cuban coat of arms, which he says was presented to him by Commander Garcia, together with a dagger of unique design. He says that during the work of rescuing the men from three boats, one of the boats capsized owing to the awkward manner in which it was handled, and that he fished most of the men out of the water himself. He was obliged to jump overboard to save one man, whom he grabbed by the hair as he was going down for the last time, and brought him to the surface. He never saw such a grateful crowd of men.

Garcia Among Those Rescued.

He is positive that among the party rescued was Gen. Garcia and his son, as they both told him their names and the other members of the party addressed the elder as "general." Mate Lind, with a boat's crew, on learning the valuable cargo of arms and ammunition which the Hawkins had on board, decided to make an attempt to get her into some port, and was about to leave the schooner to go to her when she lurched suddenly and began to settle by the stern and soon after sank. An attempt was made to tow two of the long boats in which the men came alongside the schooner, but they were obliged to cut them adrift owing to the rough sea. Lind claims that the men were abundantly provided with money and one of them, wishing to take the position of the sunken steamer and not being supplied with paper, jotted down the latitude and longitude in which she sunk on a hundred dollar bank note. He also claims that two of the men had valises strapped to them which they constantly carried around as though their contents were of a valuable nature. Gen. Garcia assured him that he would hear from him later and if the Cuban insurgents' cause was successful he would remember him handsomely.

PROBABLY BURNED AT SEA.

Oil Steamer Wildflower, with All on Board, Believed To Be Lost.

New York, Feb. 5.—The fate of the British tank steamer Wildflower, which left Philadelphia for Rouen, France, on December 11 last, is now probably known. It has been learned here that the steamship Loch Etive from New York, December 24, for Cork, reported on her arrival there on January 8 that about 250 miles west-southwest from the coast of Ireland, on January 6, the crew saw a sudden glare in the sky. As far as the eye could see to the westward the sky was a vivid red for a moment and then it died out slowly until in a half hour the sea's rim was lost again in darkness. A few seconds after the first glare up a dull roar, like the discharge of a heavy gun, made the Loch Etive vibrate and rock. When Captain Anderson found that the Wildflower had not yet made port he came to the conclusion that it was that vessel that had caused the supposed phenomena near the Irish coast. The crew of the Loch Etive were also convinced that the flare up was the explosion of the 1,300,000 gallons of oil in the Wildflower's tanks. There were twenty-nine men on the missing vessel when she went out of the Delaware capes bound for Rouen, many of whom were Americans who shipped in Philadelphia.

McAuliffe To Re-enter the Ring.

New York, Feb. 5.—Jack McAuliffe, for years the premier lightweight champion of America, and who still claims the lightweight championship, has decided to again enter the arena. His opponent will be "Kid" Lavigne of Michigan, who he will meet for a six round bout at Madison Square garden, March 5.

Debs Imprisonment Investigation.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The senate committee on the judiciary has reported a substitute for Mr. Call's resolution looking to an investigation by a special committee into the imprisonment of Eugene V. Debs. The substitute provides for an investigation into the law upon the whole subject of "contempt of court."

Must Complete the Bridge Before 1907.

Albany, Feb. 5.—The senate committee on commerce and navigation has agreed to report favorably Senator Coggeshall's bill giving the New York & New Jersey Bridge company until 1907 to complete its bridge.

Inter-Collegiate Athletics.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—The annual meeting of the Inter-Collegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America will be held at the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York city, on Saturday, February 29, at 2:30 p. m.

Cattle and Horses Lost at Sea.

Glasgow, Feb. 5.—The British steamer Sarmatian, at this port from Boston, lost twenty-five head of cattle and ten horses on the passage.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m

108 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 5, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Threatening, with Rain Tonight and Thursday. Stationary Temperature.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 45 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 5—Young Society of Friends' meet.
February 5—Meeting of Brotherhood of St. Andrew at the Church of the Redeemer.
February 7—Reception of American Social Club in Central Hall.
February 7—Borough Council meet.
February 8—Trip to Chinatown at Music Hall.

Local Democrats smile now.

The Legislature is indulging in too many vacations. Three weeks is a long time to be doing nothing in.

Several favorite sons will be saved lots of disappointment if they follow the example of ex-President Harrison.

Edwin F. Uhl, of Michigan, now Assistant Secretary of State, has been tendered the post of Ambassador to Germany to succeed the late Theodore Runyon.

We do not think the officials of the city are overpaid. Any attempt to reduce the pay of any one of them would be a serious mistake. From most of them we are getting excellent service and fully commensurate with the salaries paid them—News.

Editor Runyon delights to tell with great frequency that the salaries of public officials are not a cent too much. But he never says a word about the sweat-shop wages and rules he enforces in his own establishment, which were notorious even before his Tenderloin language became the talk of the town. It is a hypocritical sight to see him advocating just compensation to one class, to whose support his share is infinitesimal, and to another class, over whom he rules with a rod of blustering swell-headedness, practice the meanest sort of penuriousness.

The directors of the Plainfield trolley railroad have accepted the terms of the ordinance granting them the franchise to extend their tracks from Plainfield to Dunellen and other points, and work will begin as soon as the weather permits. It is just possible that the Brunswick Traction Company will run its tracks from Bound Brook to Dunellen to connect with the Plainfield road. This would enable people at Bound Brook and neighborhood to choose between New Brunswick and Plainfield as a shopping centre, with the odds all in favor of our city. There's a grand future ahead for this city if the obstructionists could only be kept silent for a short time.—New Brunswick Home News.

There is just about as much sense in comparing Plainfield and New Brunswick as competing trade centres as there is in comparing the rose and thistle as floral products. Plainfield merchants need have no fear that if the project reported by the Home News is consummated, that New Brunswick will be seriously considered as a desirable shopping centre by people who would choose between the two cities, both being equally easy of access. As a town, New Brunswick is dirty, wicked and unprogressive: and its merchants are far from enterprising. Plainfield can look at New Brunswick's appeal for trade and laugh at its futile efforts to get it.

A. P. A. MEMBERS CHALLENGED.

Lawyer Lindabury Said to Have Peremptorily Excluded Them from a Jury.

The members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, the American Protective Association, the United American Mechanics, and other societies object to the way in which some of their members were treated in the Union County Court, at Elizabeth, on Monday, by Lawyer R. V. Lindabury. Mr. Lindabury is defending Nicolo Orchelta, who is accused of murder. When the jury was being formed he asked each man if he belonged to the Jr. O. U. A. M., or the A. P. A., and challenged those who answered in the affirmative. A member of the A. P. A. stated that Mr. Lindabury's tactics were an attack on the rights of American citizens. Nothing in the principles of the A. P. A. prevented a member from treating a foreigner at the bar of justice with entire fairness. Winfield Scott Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., has adopted this resolution:

Whereas: It has come to the attention of this council that Richard V. Lindabury, counsel for an Italian who is now on trial charged with homicide, asked each juror if he were a member of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and challenged all those who answered in the affirmative: and

Whereas: The objects of this order are solely beneficial and patrotic: therefore be it

Resolved, That we regard this action on the part of Mr. Lindabury as an attempt to deprive us of our rights as American citizens because we are American born, and as an unwarranted attack upon our order entirely uncalled for in the interests of justice.

Captain Jack Coming Back.

Plainfielders will be glad to learn that Capt. Jack Crawford, the Poet-Scout, will appear in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church, Saturday evening, February 29th, at 8 o'clock. He will give "The Camp-Fire and the Trail." The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Marconnier chapel, and it is to be hoped that the event will be well patronized.

—Some of the best talent in the city will be present at the entertainment to be given by Miantonomoh Tribe, No. 118, I. O. R. M., next Tuesday evening.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Emily Tracy, of New York, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Hayes, of West Eighth street is visiting relatives in Bayonne

Miss Lewis, of Grove street, is entertaining friends from out of town.

Harold Wills, of LaGrande avenue, is confined to the house with illness.

R. L. Armstrong, of East Third street, is detained at home by illness.

Miss May Bunting, of South Plainfield, spent Monday with friends in town.

Miss Mabel Schenck, of Somerville, is visiting relatives on East Second street.

George Force, of East Front street, is able to be out again after a two weeks illness.

Miss Welling, of Warwick, N. Y., is the guest of Miss Alice Barlow, of Prospect place.

A baby girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lister, of Orchard place.

Miss Florence White, of West Front street, will entertain a few friends at her home on Friday evening.

Miss Edith Harold, of West Front street, entertained a few intimate friends at her home last evening

Martin I. Cooley and family, of Rockview avenue, have gone to New York to spend the rest of the winter

Mrs. Uhler, of East Front street, will leave town Friday for her home in Pennsylvania, where she will remain for awhile.

Miss Irene VanSickle, who is visiting Mrs. Charles Randolph, of West Front street, spent yesterday with Bound Brook friends.

Mrs. VanVliet, of New York, accompanied by her daughter, Miss VanVliet, are guests at the home of D. M. VanVliet, of Grove street.

Miss Amelia Kister resigned her position in Edsall's Commercial Palace last week and has taken a position in White's new china department.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Randolph, of West Front street, entertained a few friends at their home Monday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Irene VanSickle, of High Bridge.

Henry McCormick, conductor on the Somerset street branch of the street railway, and wife have taken board with Harry Mitchell, of Lee place, where they will remain until spring, when they will begin housekeeping.

The Youth's Companion,

The Youth's Companion begins the New Year with several noteworthy changes, which include the use of larger-faced type, the addition of departments devoted to Current Events and Scientific Items and the enlargement and extended scope of the Editorial department. The character of The Companion is, and will be, unchanged. Three generations of young people have approved it. Three generations of American parents have learned to trust it. Its ability to entertain its readers of all ages will be maintained and promoted by the same enterprise and thoughtful care that have governed its columns during the many years in which it has sought the confidence and the favor of the public.

Business, and Then Pleasure.

Court Pride, of New Jersey, No. 49, F. of A., held an interesting meeting last evening, at which time important business was transacted. Five applications for membership were received. In the good of the order, songs, music, recitations, remarks, and a smoker helped to pass the time very pleasantly. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, February 18th, and as important business will come up before the members, everyone is urged to be present.

Viewed the Remains and Adjourned.

The following jurors, W. W. Coriell, G. Wood, H. E. Cramer, J. E. Mosher, I. D. TenEyck and Charles Howard, in charge of Constable Rockafellow, viewed the remains of John Vanderveer at the autopsy this morning at the hospital and adjourned to Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the trial will be held in the city court room.

Died Without Expert Medical Aid.

A baby belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Colburn, who live on the Mt. Pleasant road in Middlesex county, died yesterday and owing the fact that no physician had been in attendance, the Coroner was sent for this morning and gave a burial permit.

O My Head!

HOOD'S PILLS Cure Sick Headache

Is the weak, languid cry of the sufferer from sick headache. Hood's Pills cure this condition promptly, and so agreeably that it is like the pleasant change from darkness to daylight. The feeling of utter exhaustion and inability to work is driven off and the digestive organs are toned, strengthened and regulated. Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, safe, reliable. 25c. at all druggists.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

"Pure and Sure."

Cleveland's BAKING POWDER

Every ingredient used in making Cleveland's baking powder is plainly printed on the label, information not given by makers of other powders.

Recipe book free. Send stamp and address. Cleveland Baking Powder Co., N. Y.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—Card, lace and celuloid valentines at Harper's.

—The one hundredth sewer connection has been made to the main sewer pipes.

—The Park Club Juniors will give a dance on St. Valentine's day, February 14th.

—Two per cent a month is about the amount you save by buying sleds now at Rand's.

—Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.

—Collier, the Park avenue jeweler, has just received another supply of oak finished clocks.

—A movement is on foot among some of the young people of town to organize a musical club.

—The contract case of O'Brien against Beerbower was adjourned in Justice Newcorn's court today for one week.

—Don't forget the third reception of the American Social Club at Central Hall, Friday evening to which all are invited.

—The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met yesterday afternoon and devoted the time to sewing.

—Miss Stillman, of Newark, will speak at the Primary Teachers' Union meeting next Monday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. building —Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., held a regular communication last night and worked the Fellowcraft degree on one candidate.

—The meeting of the members of the old East Sixth street social club, to form a whist club, was postponed from last night for two weeks.

—H. M. Jaquett, the gents' furnisher, of East Front street, has made a big cut in every department, and if you are looking for good bargains call early.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church will hold its regular meeting for sewing Friday afternoon in the church parlors.

—The record of remarkable cures effected enables us to truthfully say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye today.

—All want to save money and you can do it in one way by putting in the Welsbach light. A powerful light at one-half the expense. Begin now and cut down your gas bills.

—The women of the Seventh-day Baptist church are holding a sewing meeting in the parlors of the church this afternoon. The garments will be used for missionary purposes.

—In the case of Jessup against Kriney, which came up yesterday afternoon before Justice Mosher, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff for $11.04. The latter was suing for wages.

—An accident happened to an out-of-town team Monday afternoon at the corner of Park avenue and Fifth street. The horse slipped on the ice and fell, breaking a shaft and the harness.

—The Thomas F. Melee Association of Berkley Heights will give a ball in Berkley Heights hall this evening. A straw ride party will leave Front and Somerset streets to attend the ball and enjoy the ride. Prof. O'Reilly will furnish the music.

—A delegation from Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., of this city, were present last evening at the meeting of Hugh de Payens Commandery, No. 1, of Jersey City, on the occasion of the visit of the grand officers. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

—The two eyes frequently require different glasses. When a difference is found to exist we give each the glass best suited to its needs and guarantee them. Examinations made without charge. Leeech, Stiles & Co., at 107 East Front street, every Thursday.

A Successful Demonstration.

The demonstration of the electric paper at the Plainfield Camera Club last evening was very successful and the members present were much pleased with the results. The paper prints a picture in black and white, resembling bromide paper, by gas or electric light. The exposure lasting from ten seconds to three minutes.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THEATRICAL.

Next Saturday night at Music Hall will be one of merriment, when Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown" will be presented. The skit, designated by Mr. Hoyt as a musical trifle, is considered to be the most breezy of his many works. This piece enjoyed a wonderful run in New York, having played there for over 700 consecutive nights at Hoyt's Theatre. Charles Hoyt has never set himself up as an instructor, a reformer or an oracle of the stage. His satires have conveyed, however, a deal of practical lessons, and he has created a school of acting that has for a decade been the most popular of all stage amusements. He takes for the foundation of his various skits a foible or fad of society, and satirizes the same in an original manner. Since last season Mr. Hoyt has added much fun to the plot and much improved the skit in every way. The demand for seats is large. The engagement is for one night only.

This is the last week of "Chimmie Fadden" at the Garden Theatre, New York, and all Plainfield theatre-goers who have not seen this play, so characteristic of New York's East-side life, ought not fail to go this week. Mr. Townsend's sketches are too well-known to make favorable comment necessary, and it need only be said that the "Chimmie" of the stage is more delightful than the one in the book. The situations which "Chames" manages to produce with such frequency are immeasurably funny, and a night at the Garden this week will be well spent.

"Spotter" Cunningham in Jail.

Another of the Watson party spent last night in jail. It was William Cunningham, who had been famous as a "spotter" for Watson, and is now employed at his grocery. A policeman found him on West Third street in an intoxicated condition last night, trying to kick in the door of a neighboring house. He was arrested and City Judge DeMeza committed him to Elizabeth jail for fifteen days as he could not pay a fine of $5.

Judgments Rendered.

Justice Mosher gave judgment in full to the plaintiff yesterday in the case of Jessup against Kriney, on contract. S. S. Swackhamer represented the plaintiff. Chas VanWinkle, attorney for Kriney, was not present.

Judgment was rendered for the full amount of the claim in the case of Tunison against Bodenheimer, on contract, at Justice Crosley's court this morning. S. S. Swackhamer represented the plaintiff.

Died at Morris Plains.

Mary T. MacDonald, wife of John MacDonald, of West Fourth street, died yesterday at Morris Plains asylum. She was thirty-five years of age. Her funeral will be held at St. Mary's church tomorrow morning.

Dunellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharvely, of North avenue are visiting friends at Bloomsbury.

Mrs. W. Terry, of Washington avenue, has been visiting relatives at Brooklyn.

Mrs. W. Hetfield, of North avenue, spent Monday with Mrs. Bachelor, of New York.

Rev. and Mrs. Peterson, of New Market, are entertaining Mrs. Peterson, of Chicago.

The Progressive Euchre Club of New Market will have a clam chowder supper some time this week.

Prof. Wendell, of Bound Brook, will furnish the music for an evening sociable which will be held Feb. 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Reilly, of New Germantown, who have been visiting friends in town, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Carpenter, of Prospect avenue, have been entertaining their son, Benjamin Carpenter, of Royalton, Conn.

Rev Dr. Ryman, of Elizabeth, will be present at the prayer meeting this evening at the Methodist church, after which the fourth quarterly conference will be held.

Always FIRST

Gail Borden Eagle Brand

CONDENSED MILK

For 35 years the leading brand. It is the Best and the most economical.

A PERFECT FOOD FOR INFANTS

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

SPRING SEASON AT PECK'S.

Grand Display

Wash Fabrics and Embroideries.

Exhibition Now Open.

THE DALZIEL ART SCHOOL,

309 East Front St.,

Is An Established Success.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique—Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at THE WOMEN'S SCHOOL OF DESIGN, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

EDSALL'S

Commercial Palace - - Babcock Building.

News Items.

—About Edsall's Commercial Palace.

"Stock taking" is over:—splendid news.

—Business will go on now with a big boom.

—Many desirable articles in "odds and ends" can be purchased very cheap.

—Our china and housefurnishing departments have been changed and so improved that you would hardly recognize it as the same place.

—Everything has been over handled and classified, so that each article is shown in its proper place, and with its kind.

—Many who have visited the department under the management of the new superintendent Mr. J. Linn Edsall, remark that it's a pleasure now to walk through and see the fine new wares so artistically arranged.

—New beginners in housekeeping and older ones as well, will find this department just the place to get their needs supplied at a great saving of money. Come in and see.

—Another splendid improvement has also been made that you will be pleased to see, viz:

—The grocery department has been transferred from the east to the west side in our big basement.

—And enlarged to twice its former size in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing trade in this department.

—The trade in this department has increased away beyond our expectations since we put in a complete line:—you know now we keep everything in the grocery line.

—And the people have found out that we sell just as good goods and at as low prices as in the New York department stores.

—So the orders are coming in right and left, and we are now running two delivery wagons for groceries alone, and —We honestly believe we will be compelled to put on two more wagons inside of six months at the rate trade is increasing now.

—This is not mere newspaper advertising, the wagons are on the road every day.

—And if you take notice they are well filled with goods too. Honest dealing, selling goods for just what they are, giving the very best possible quality for the least money, is what does the business. That's our motto.

—The Commercial Palace enters upon the present year's business thoroughly equipped in every respect, and better prepared than ever before for a most successful future.

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO., —Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	19	9
Park	885	18	10
Roselle	893	18	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	17
Cranford	837	6	22

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Cranford C. C.	4	4	1557
Elizabeth A. C.	4	4	1547
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Orange Valley	6	2	1534
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

"The Plainfield Press will be in mourning tomorrow," said one of the Westfield rooters as the last of the Park Club bowlers left the Westfield Athletic Club house last evening after rolling two games in the Standard League. And he told the truth, but even a black border an inch wide would not express the sorrow that is felt among the Plainfield bowlers and their friends today. The Westfield team won both games easily, and with those games went the bright visions of the Parks winning the trophy. It is not possible for the Park Club to get first place and only a slim chance of defeating Roselle in the race for second. The Westfield team put up an excellent game. They bowled like fiends and all except Love had the greatest kind of luck. The visitors put up a fair game, but luck seemed against them and splits came often. But luck is not everything and the defeat was fair and square. Captain Worth was not with the visitors and Lyman bowled in his place. Smith, of the Parks, rolled poorly both games, but that may be accounted for because he split his thumb open early in the game. The alleys were in good condition and well lighted. The home team took the lead in the first frame of the first game and stayed there until the last frame of the last game. The first game was not a very exciting one except at the start, for it was soon apparent that Westfield was rolling a winning game. She gradually increased the lead from the start until it reached 98 pins in the last frame. Thiers was high man among the visitors, making only one break. Matthews struck unusually hard luck, getting a a split in the first three frames. He scored 100 on his last five frames, however. In the next game the Parks made a determined stand and even thought about winning in the fourth frame. It was a foolish thought, for the pins began to fall like rain on the Westfield's alleys, and by the time the game came to an end the home team led the way by 12 pins. Thiers was high man for the visitors in this game also, but Lyman gave him a close race for it Baker, of the Westfield club, again scored over 200, making five strikes and five spares. Alpers, of the same team, made several strikes in the last frames. The jubilant Westfields then gave three loud cheers for their victims, who returned the compliment, and the sad procession started on its homeward journey. The only thing left for them to do is to see that Roselle falls below them. A glance at the following score will show the splendid bowling of the home team and the low scores of most of the visitors:

PARK CLUB.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Lyman	152	162
VanBuren	138	136
Smith	180	112
Matthews	154	147
Thiers	181	170
	755	727

WESTFIELD.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Baker	211	205
Voehl	169	131
Alpers	155	199
Love	150	158
Smith	168	163
	853	856

BY FRAMES:

First Game.

Park Club.....68 143 215 289 371 446 515 598 676 755
Westfield.....75 153 252 358 453 535 610 696 782 853

Second Game.

Park Club.....72 150 215 291 346 423 497 583 660 727
Westfield.....85 188 253 317 392 486 563 663 770 856

Umpires—Percy Sandford, of Plainfield; Joseph Carter, of Westfield.

The game between the Roselle Casinos and the Union County Country Club, scheduled for last night, was not rolled.

The Plainfield Catholic Club will roll its last game in the Diocesan Union tomorrow night at Newark against the Institutes. A practice game will be rolled tonight.

The Westfield Y. M. C. A. has a bowling team with quite a reputation. The Crescent Wheelmen Juniors have challenged them and go to Westfield next Monday night to roll a game.

The bowling match between the Benedicts and Bachelors of the Crescent Wheelmen will take place on the Crescent Wheelmen's alleys tomorrow night. Ladies are specially invited.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

John Teeple, of Park avenue, has quite a record as a trapper. He has already caught fourteen opossums this year.

Harry Mitchell, night watchman at the street railway stables, had quite a repuation as a runner at his home in England several years ago. He has now arranged a match with Wilbur Barrell and Brit Martin, two employes of the trolley car company, for Washington's Birthday at Maltby's track for $10 a side. Mitchell will run three miles while each of his competitors will only run half that distance. While in England Mitchell says that he was never defeated.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Unity Lodge, No. 101, K. of P. meet tonight.

—The Independent Fife and Drum Corps met last evening for practice.

—The last reception and dance of the Crescent Coterie will be given in the Olympia, Gebruary 11th.

—Four members were initiated into Old Glory Council, No. 62, D. of L., at their meeting last evening.

—Putnam & DeGraw have just received a new and elegant line of neckwear that deserves examination.

—The regular monthly meeting of the consistory of the German Reformed church will be held this evening.

—The committee of the Plainfield Camera Club in charge of the coming exhibition will meet tonight to make further arrangements.

—The building committee of the German Reformed church will meet tonight to make arrangements for heating the parsonage.

—After the meeting of Franklin Council No 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., tomorrow evening the Oriental Degree will be worked on eight candidates.

—A sociable and dance will be held in the Olympia Washington's Birthday Eve., under the auspices of A. R. Johnson, I. Pearson and G. W. Scribner. Music by Frazee.

A Borough Bill.

Assemblyman Reed also introduced a bill in the Assembly regulating the term of office of the officials in boroughs.

Scotch Plains.

The township committee of Fanwood township met last evening and transacted only routine business.

Plainfield sports got up a cock fight on Monday evening. Nine battles were fought, and considerable money changed hands.

A. I. Smalley, N. B. Smalley and S. B. Wheeler will leave town next week for the south, where they intend to make a large purchase of land.

"Do you know, my dear," said young Mr. Hilltop to his sweetheart, "I don't think much of your mother."

"Sir!" she exclaimed, in frigid tones, drawing herself up to her full height. "What do you mean?"

"You see, I think so much of you, that I really have no time to devote to thoughts of others, not even of such a thoroughly estimable lady as your mother." — Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The Fact Established.

"If, as you say, the defendant is so conscientious a man," said the lawyer, "you ought to be able to give some example of it."

"Well," said the witness, "I have known him for twenty years, and in all that time I have never known him to take whisky for a cold except when he really had a cold."—Cincinnati Tribune.

A Brutal Act.

Mr. Gotham—So my old friend, Col. Bloodbring, is in disgrace?

Col. Kaintuck—Sent to Coventry. No respectable person will speak to him.

"My, my! What did he do?"

"Struck a gentleman with his fist instead of shooting him with a pistol, sah."—N. Y. Weekly.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Heat Dumas on Remuneration.

Alexandre Dumas was much addicted to boasting of the high fees which he received for his articles. "That is pretty fair, no doubt," once said a stranger to him at a party. "How much was the highest fee you ever got?"

"Ten francs a line," replied Dumas.

"Bah! that is nothing," replied the other gentleman. "I get about half a million francs a line!"

"Really?" rejoined Dumas, with an incredulous smile at the apparently outrageous piece of brag. "Pray, what are you?"

"A railway contractor."—Outlook.

A Narrow Escape.

An English newspaper has an item about a little Scotch boy who while playing about the docks one morning fell into the water, and was with great difficulty rescued by a by-stander.

"You ought to be very glad I was near by," said the rescuer.

"I am," replied the boy. "An' I'm sae glad ye got me out. What a lickin' I wad have got fra my mither if I'd been drooned!"—Harper's Young People

Out of Sight.

He sneered at vegetarians
In days gone by, 'twas wrong.
He now perceives their arguments
Are logical and strong.
In confidence I'll tell you why
He altered his belief—
He couldn't stretch his salary
Up to the price of beef.
—Kansas City Journal

AN UNSAFE RECEPTACLE.

"Ach in Himmel! I 'ave lost der Limburger!"—Pick-Me-Up.

Hereditary

Bellefield—Young Halfback gets his athletic tastes very legitimately. He comes from a very athletic family.

Bloomfield—Is that so?

Bellefield—Yes; his father once held up a train. He had an aunt who did some shop-lifting, and an uncle who was quite noted for jumping board bills.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Better Still.

The postmaster's boy and the professor's boy was playing together. A question of precedence arose, and the professor's boy exclaimed: "You ought to let me go first! My father's an A. M."

"Huh!" replied his companion. "That's nothing. My father's a P. M."—Harper's Young People.

Breaking the News Gently.

Mrs. Swiftly—Jerry, dear, I wish you would get a lawyer and commence prosecution.

Mr. Swiftly—Great Cæsar! Prosecute whom?

Mrs. Swiftly—The individual, whoever he may be, who hypnotized me this afternoon into buying a thirty-five dollar hat.—Chicago Record.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

DIED.

MCDONALD—At Morris Plains, Monday Feb. 3, 1896, Mary T., wife of John McDonald, in the 35th year of her age.
Funeral services at St. Mary's R. C. Church, Thursday, Feb. 6.

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Mrs D T 2	Lane Samuel
Freeman A L	Mackentire Jos
Huff Bros	Mulligan Ellen
Halliday Frank	McKinley John
Huck Paulina	McLaughlin Mr C
Kingsbury John	Pope Alex Mrs 3
Kitchen Matie W	Robinson Jas A
King T P	Robertson R Mrs
Lackenasen Rachael	VanDerveer Francis
Zimmerman Josie Miss

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

—The ladies' chorus of the Choral Society will give a concert in Vincent chapel, Tuesday evening, February 25th, for the benefit of the carpet fund.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

MRS HALL'S ENTERTAINMENTS

FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

at 3 o'clock.

February 7—MRS. LAURA E. RICHARDS. Readings from Captain January, Jim of Hellas, etc.

February 21—REV. W. HUDSON SHAW, M. A., of Oxford University, England, lecture on VENICE.

March 6—MISS FLORENCE HOWE HALL, lecture on General Francis Marion and the Hugenots of South Carolina.

Tickets Course, $2. Single $1.

May be obtained at Mr. Estill's Bookstore and at the drug stores. 2 4 3

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

WANTED.—Competent nurse to take full charge of bottle baby. Apply 410 Central ave. 2 4 2

MAN wants situation as coachman or on farm; good reference. Call 513 West 6th st. 2 3 3

FOR SALE—A cutter in first-class condition, with shafts. Can be seen at 47 Washington ave. 2 4 5

AN excellent opportunity is open to secure the agency for Union Co., for a very high grade bicycle; large inducements. Agency, care Press.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework in family of 3. Address M. S. H., care Press.

LOST—This morning, small satchel on 2d street, between Central and Park aves. Return to this office.

WANTED—To rent, small house with stable; low rent. Address C., care Press.

WANTED—Two white girls, one as cook, other as chambermaid and waitress. Apply 120 West 7th st., corner Central ave. 2 5 2

WANTED.—Competent girl for housework in small family; reference required. Apply 27 Craig place, between 12 and 4 Thursday.

GIRL wanted (white) under 30 years old, for general housework; family of two. Address S., care Press. 2 4 3

$50 WEBER square piano for sale. Inquire at 123 West 7th street. 2 3 6

WANTED—Situation as gardener by experienced man; best of city references. Address G. M., P. O. Box 383, city. 2 3 6

WANTED.—A girl for general housework; a good laundress and plain cook; reference required. 340 Franklin place; none but reliable girls need apply. 1 31 tf

FOR RENT—1016 Putnam ave., corner Carlton ave., pleasant commodious house; all improvements and in good order; large lot; immediate possession; rent to begin April first. H. L. Moodey, 603 Watchung ave. 1 30 6

TO LET—Brick barn, 216 West 2d st; stalls for 2 horses and wagon shed. Inquire Wm. C. Ayers, 203 West 2d st. 1 27 tf

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Nothing

Like being well posted and knowing just where to place your money where it will bring the best results. To look around our store at the goods and prices you would almost think they grew and it cost nothing to grow them, the prices are so small.

SUCH AS THESE.

MUSLINS.

7c for Fruit, Dwight Anchor and Lonsdale Muslins, 7c; 8x4 bleached sheeting 14c; 9x4 do 16c; 10x4 do 19c; 8x4 brown sheeting 13c; 9x4 do 14c; 10x4 do 16c.

DRESS GOODS.

14c for 36 inch fancies, 18c for all-wool mixtures, 54 inch all-wool mixtures 27c; 54 inch all-wool checks 37c; 45 inch all-wool serges 31c; 54 inch imperial black serge 50c.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

The making costs you nothing it's only the price of material that you pay for. 23c for fine corset covers; 43c for fine embroidered night robes, 55c for fine embroidered skirts. It will take no search light to find

Bargains at Every Turn.

25c for men's white wool shirts, 25c for men's colored wool shirts, 50c for men's all-wool scarlet shirts, 69c for do, double breasted shirts, 10c for men's seamless socks, 3 pair for 25c, 15c for children's fine Lisle thread hose, 47c for men's unlaundered shirts, usual price 75c, 75c for ladies' chamois gloves all colors and one of the best made for service, 75c for a corset that is equal to any $1 corset made, $2.43 for roll of 20 yards of fine matting, 39c for Jap rugs size 18x36, 25 winter coats for ladies to go for 98c each, 13c for the best Turkish towel made, worth 25c.

Housefurnishing Department.

JUST FOR FUN—Pleasure goes with business here. Prices make it pleasant to sell goods. Therefore the following prices tell the story, and a glance through our enlarged department will convince you. Enough said.

23c each 100 japanned bread boxes, No. 1 size, made out of good quality tin, for this sale only. They won't last long at the price—23c each. 23c each

59c each Copper bottom wash boilers No. 7 size, good quality tin and 14 oz. rolled copper bottom. For this sale at 59c. 59c each

5c each 500 papier mache table mats will stand the heat, neatly decorated, choice of all sizes, small, medium or large, worth 15c. To close at 5c each. 5c each

15c pair Stove mitten and dauber, the best, does away with a brush, just the thing for bicycle use, can be used for all kinds of polishing and cleaning. The pair for 15c. 15c pair

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE Hatter, 120 West Front st

Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS,

Acorn Brand Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

CRAZY BOB WOMACK.

How He Discovered the Riches of Cripple Creek.

He Is Now a Poor Man, Although He Has Made Many Millionaires—His Experience Proves Fortune to Be a Fickle Jade.

Special Denver (Col.) Letter.

The sudden elevation of a few men from poverty to immense wealth in the new "gold belt" reads like the wildest fiction. Nothing in romance exceeds these marvelous stories, and perhaps the most vivid imagination would fail to tell a story so interesting as Dame Nature has recently illustrated in the gold fields now attracting the attention of the world. She has selected poor men for her subjects, and, in her whims, has made some rival the fabled count of Monte Cristo, and lifted others to the verge of fortune to let them drop.

BOB WOMACK IN POVERTY GULCH.

A few years ago a wandering mining prospector stumbled into what is now the "Cripple Creek district." He was not educated, but had practical sense, and saw that the now rich "belt" was composed of a volcanic overflow and evidently marked the crater of an extent volcano. From the nature of the rock he reasoned that it must "carry gold." There are thousands of miners constantly tramping over the mountains who have no more knowledge of practical mining than is used by the man who selects three numbers in playing policy. So, when "half crazy Bob" asked men to assist him he was looked upon as a harmless impostor. He had located several mines, but for the lack of money could not develop them. He went to an adjoining "camp" and did work at carpentry for his board; never missing an opportunity of soliciting aid. Finally he built a log hut in "Poverty Gulch" near by, where he could watch his claims and continue delving, single handed. He ran up an account of $20 for bacon and meal, which he imself cooked and lived upon.

To satisfy the grocer's demand he sold him one of his mines. It now produces $10,000 a month, and is valued at $500,000. In his good nature, "Crazy Bob" showed visitors over the grounds: told them where good mines were, and in a few instances gave away claims which he had staked, but had not the means to develop. These gifts were rewarded with trifles—a few dollars, and a bottle of whisky—for "Crazy Bob" was an ardent drinker. Provisions and credit gone, he sold his last and best mine for $300—partly on credit, which has not yet been paid. The purchaser is now worth $200,000—all taken from "Crazy Bob's" mine. "Bob" soon spent his money, and after a short rest, in a Keeley cure, is now on the range again, prospecting; but has sworn to never drink another drop of spirits. He takes his narrow escape from fortune rather philosophically, and attributes it to "luck," or the lack of it, superinduced by too much whisky. Had he been more shrewd, he would have eventually commanded a little money, and himself and his friends would now control that rich belt from which $2,000,000 a month is taken, and whose possibilities it is idle to guess. Is there anything in fiction more comical? Could the novelist charge fate with such refinement of cruelty?

PROSPECTIVE MILLIONAIRES.

Next came a carpenter of Colorado Springs, now known as "Millionaire Stratton." He located a mine on the Fourth of July and called it the Independence; another he called the Washington. He, however, had a few hundred dollars, and developed them. He sold the Independence to a San Francisco syndicate; but the panic came, and they failed in paying the $150,000. The mine yields nearly $100,000 a month, and is valued at $5,000,000.

He is a practical man, and his head is not turned by his sudden wealth.

Another illustration of fortune's vagaries is that of William Shemell, known to the miners as "Kentucky Bill." He obtained a "grub-stake" of provisions to the value of about $25, from a Colorado Springs grocer, and walked over the mountain to Cripple Creek. He located a mine and gave a one-third interest to the grocer who had staked him. Needing some ready money, he sold another third interest to a negro, who was pursuing the not very lucrative position of buying unconsidered trifles in the shape of second-hand clothes. In turn, the darky sold his share for $50, and thought that he had made a great speculation. But the lucky purchaser made a greater, as he has refused $200,000 for his third interest. The darky believes that he was "hoodooed," and it was never intended he should be rich.

Another fortunate man, a consumptive, came to Colorado Springs to die. He finally secured a place as brakeman on a railroad. He speculated recklessly, made a half million, and now proposes to live.

A man who was driving a scraper, cleaning the streets at 15 cents an hour, threw up his job in disgust, and got a friend to go his security for a grub stake. Then he hit the road for Cripple Creek. When he got there he did not know what to do. He did not know "pay rock" from "$1,000 ore." But he staked off a claim. A practical miner, John Homan, came along, and, liking the looks of the "prospect," proposed a partnership. It was agreed to, and he began digging. They lived on bacon and hard tack for weeks, concealing the ore and hauling it to the city by night, for fear that their claim would be "jumped" by lawless adventurers ever on the lookout for claims that are not strongly defended. Finally they accumulated enough of "stuff" to hire men to defend the mine with force, and to fight adverse claimants in the courts, of which there were about 200. But before prosperity dawned the ex-scraper driver wanted a new suit of clothing—tailor made. He gave the tailor 100 shares of stock in the mine—as a great many shares had been struck off. The tailor sold his shares for $5,000—which gave him a good profit on his $20 suit. The mine is producing about $10,000 a month, and is valued at $500,000. The man who drove the street scraper at 15 cents an hour is now building himself a residence intended to be one of the finest at Colorado Springs.

But this bright and novel picture has two sides. No one will ever know, save themselves, of the hardships that thousands of mining prospectors have undergone in the never-ceasing search for the Golden Fleece. It began in 1859 with the "Pike's Peak, or Bust" crowd, who crossed the plains in ox wagons, burrowed at the base of the great peak, and necessarily traversed the adjacent Cripple Creek district—walking over millions while searching for wealth.

"PIKE'S PEAK OR BUST—1859."

Capt. Zebulon Pike discovered gold at the base of the peak about 1837-8, but he was more interested in explorations. Had his discoveries been prospected, the west would have been settled much earlier, and perhaps the history of the country somewhat changed. But the "Pike's Peak or Bust" crowd succeeded only in busting. Yet, practical mining men had often traversed this district, and passed on to what they thought were richer fields. For 30 years active prospecting has been going on, and the richest mines known to the world have just been discovered—and, fortunately, by very poor men, not one of whom perhaps ever dreamed of possessing as much as $10,000. In the latter 70's the keeper of a small grocery store at Leadville staked Adam Reche, a prospector, with a burro mule and $50. Reche and Tabor became millionaires. The district has averaged a production of $10,000,000 a year since. A character known to the Nevada miners as "Virginia" discovered silver at the place which bears his name—Virginia City. "Bob" Comstock traced the lode, which extended three miles. They were characters similar to poor "half crazy Bob" Womack, and both lived and died in poverty. From one group of mines, the Bonanzas, about $200,000,000 were taken. Truly, Dame Fortune is fickle.

J. M. SCANLAND.

Playing Cards in a Cage of Lions.

Three young men at Bourg, in France, announced their desire to prove their courage by playing a game of cards in the cage in a menagerie which contained three lions. They had begun their game when one of the lions came up and cuffed a player, knocking him to the floor of the cage, and then took several bites out of him. The lion tamers interfered just in time to save the rest of the card players from annihilation, and the man who was bitten declared that he had all the amusement that he required for the day. The lions roared satirically at the frightened men as they left the cage.

The Largest Skate Ever Caught.

A skate measuring five feet ten inches in length and four feet two inches from fin to fin, and weighing 90 pounds was taken by hook and line in San Francisco bay the other day. It was the largest fish of the kind ever caught thereabouts, and it took half an hour of pulling and hauling by half a dozen men to land it.

Short and Pointed.

"What a peculiar nose Miss Sharpe has!"

"Yes; quite epigrammatic."—Judge.

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering

Men's seamless half hose.....10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy.....2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black.....2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose.....10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes.....15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee.....18c
Large white cotton towels, only.....10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for.....$1 00

Spring Embroideries

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.
Established 1869.

Creamery Butter
20c Per Pound at
J. F. MACDONALD'S
Uptown Grocery.

Will Remove
IN MARCH TO
JACKSON BUILDING
And Are Now Selling
At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

GOOD CLOTHING
Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our cloth-It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits

have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits

for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,
850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS
Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.—made "The Rochester" Lamp.
EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.
Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.
For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.
FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,
177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE
Jersey Poultry
AT LOWEST PRICES.
Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks
Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction
in price of all kinds of
MEAT
Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.
131 West Front st.
Telephone 29b. Established 1878

ADDIS & SON,
Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.
Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,
125 Park Ave.
E. P. THORN
solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality
Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c
TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE Bee Hive
Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.
Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.
Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.
Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Stables attached. J. E. Beerbower, Prop

Eagle Meat Market,
35 Somerset Street.
Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.
C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patriot	McIntyre G E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Eadie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?
Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at
W. R. BROKAW'S
Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.
Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.
MRS. L. ADAMS,
114 EAST FRONT STREET,
Opp. First National Bank.
Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,
DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF
FRESH FISH.
Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.
230 Park ave., ooo. North ave
Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 14, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 20, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 36, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35, 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 06, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 42, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 32 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 24*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 24*, 8 28*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 24*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

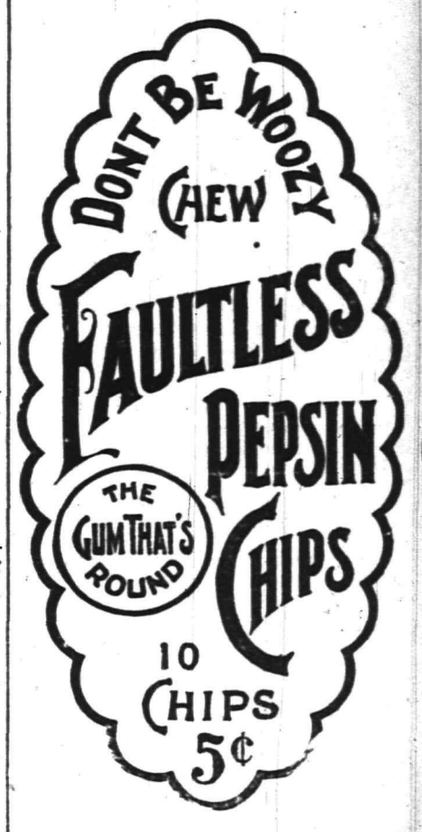
For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,
EXCAVATORS.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.
Cesspools Built.



Send 5 cents for a sample package to Faultless Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

328 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. 1113 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

THE ONLY

Agency for

Huyler's

IN PLAINFIELD

—IS AT—

LEGGETT'S PHARMACY,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Huyler's Prices.

Open day and night.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

No. 2243.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

DIVIDEND NO. 38.

The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent (4 per cent) on the capital stock of this bank, out of the earnings of the past 6 months, payable on and after Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1896.

WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29, 1896. 1 29 3-2 1 3 4

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

Finest Assortment

of Lace, Celluloid and Card

Valentines

in the city.

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Neuman Bros

FANCY GROCERIES

Watchung Ave. and 5th st

MANY THINGS.

We Are Prone to Concentrate on One Idea.

Products of Nature That Are Manifold Blessings to Man.

Whenever you see a glass of bright, clear, sparkling water, you at once think what delightful drinking water that is. You never think of it as being especially useful for boiling potatoes or for bathing the face. You only think of its power to quench the thirst. And yet this is only one of its many desirable properties.

When you see a bright, hot fire in winter, you think at once how easily you could keep warm by remaining near it. The thought does not occur to you that a fire has a hundred other uses.

Whenever cod-liver oil is mentioned, many people think at once of consumption, as if this was the only disease to which this valuable remedy was adapted. Perhaps this is not strange when we consider the fact that cod-liver oil stands out as the most prominent remedy in this terrible affection. In fact, as water quenches the thirst, and as fire gives warmth, so does cod-liver oil bring health and prosperity to those just beginning to fade from serious lung trouble.

Of late years, however, it has been known that consumption is caused by a germ. It is also known that cod-liver oil does not kill this germ. And there is also the fact that this same oil will cure consumption in its early stages. If it does not kill the germ of the disease, how does it affect a cure?

This is easily explained. Cod-liver oil has a wonderful power to build up and invigorate the whole body. When the body is in this prosperous condition, it can take care of the germs of consumption; that is, it destroys the germs, and thus removes the cause of the disease. For this reason cod-liver oil is called a powerful tonic and reconstructive; while it is also known to be a most valuable food.

From this we can see the value of such a remedy in a number of ailments. There are many persons who begin the work of each day in a thoroughly exhausted condition. They have tried quantities of tonics and iron preparations of all kinds, but without relief. There is no appetite; bowels are constipated; circulation is poor; the lips are pale; the ears are colorless; and the whole body is in a debilitated and most uncomfortable state. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites changes all this. Soon the blood becomes richer; the heart beats stronger; color returns to the face; digestion is improved; and good health is once more at hand.

Scott's Emulsion contains more pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil than any other emulsion in the world, that will stand the test of time as being a perfect inseparable emulsion. Ask your doctor.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5½c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5½c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

Ice skating is peculiarly Dutch. This if nothing else, would be sufficient to make it an acceptable form of amusement for Knickerbocker society in New York. Moreover, skating is a favorite winter sport with English house parties. That is another excuse for its being taken up by that part of New York society that is—or has been—English and has house parties of its own at its great country villas along the Hudson, out on Long Island, and up in the Berkshire hills.

Last year the success of an artificial ice rink in London determined the St. Nicholas club, which was the skating club of society, to undertake the same thing here.

It isn't enough to say that skating is fashionable. It has the sanction of all the social czarinas, including the Astors, the Vanderbilts, both Mrs. Cornelius and the mother of the duchess, and Mrs. Ogden Mills, who was expected to revolutionize New York society and cut it down to "180."

The rink, which has 16,000 square feet of ice surface, is probably the finest in the world. There is a club house for the use of members only, and the membership will be quite as exclusive as that of the old St. Nicholas club itself, which was limited to 200 family tickets, and these really meant family and friends. Twenty-five dollars was the price of a family ticket. The club members have exclusive use of the ice on certain days, and certain hours of other days, and the general public may put on its skates at other times. In fact, this is going to be a great winter for skates. There are to be numerous small skating classes organized in society that do not belong to the St. Nicholas club. These will be conducted on the plan of theater clubs and the dancing classes, and will give a certain style to the public days.

The chief objection which most women have to skating is that it produces red noses and purple cheeks, but in the rink none of these evils will appear; there will be only the flushed cheeks and bright eyes that made girls more attractive.

Society with a capital S has never taken to night skating, except when a special party has used the St. Nicholas for a lark. The favorite time to see the famous women of society will still be the morning hours or late in the afternoon, although spectators will not be allowed on club days. Two women who have been reckoned among the best skaters in New York society since their girlhood are the two sisters, Mrs. Ogden Mills and Mrs. Maturin Livingstone. They are to be seen almost any day, skating hand in hand, and doing any number of fancy steps. Mrs. John Jacob Astor, who is an adept in all sports, is just as graceful on steel runners as she is when dancing at an assembly or playing tennis for a prize. The Dutch roll backward is not beyond her skill, and sometimes, with her tall husband, she waltzes the length of the rink. Mrs. Astor always wears black, or gray and black, skating gowns, which are made just a little shorter than the regular street gown.

Most of the best women skaters have made little change in their skating attire, however. It is very likely, however, that this year the younger girls, like Miss Virginia Fair, who have tasted the sweets of freedom in dress in their bicycle outfits with moderately short skirts worn over knickerbockers, may introduce something built after the bicycle suit style into the skating rink. Skating is about the only active sport left in which society women indulge, for which they do not have a [illegible] dress, and they argue that it [illegible] a sensible step to adopt one. [illegible]cing and tennis all have [illegible] dresses, and while many women [illegible] themselves in ordinary fashion for tennis, the best players, like Mrs. Astor, have adopted knickerbockers for it. The girls argue that of course they will only skate on exclusive club days, and that the short skirts reaching to boot tops will be no more out of place than they were at the exclusive bicycle club of last winter.

Gov. Morton's daughters are all perfectly at home on skates. They have a small pond at Rhinecliff, where they have always skated, and when in town always appeared at the old St. Nicholas club. They do many fancy steps together. Almost all the Lenox set are at home on the ice, and during the season the surface of Lake Maheenac, where the girls sail their own catboats in summer, is covered with flying figures of society girls, such as Miss Sloane, Miss Ethel Stokes, Miss Cary and Miss Benedict, who thus get that fresh complexion which will be admired later at the opera and big dances. In town these young women rendezvous at about half-past eleven, mornings, at the skating club.

The duchess of Marlborough used to go on the ice last winter, although timid from lack of practice. Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt is a good skater, and Miss Virginia Fair, the California heiress and bicycle champion of the Newport season, is one of the most graceful figures on the ice. So is her sister, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs.

Mrs. Oliver Iselin came from Providence, where everybody skates, and every country house has its handy sheet of ice almost on the front lawn, owing to the many inlets and numerous inland waters. At Premium Point the Iselins have plenty of ice about a stone's throw from the house, and parties go calling up the inlets and bay on their skates. Mrs. Iselin will keep a pair of skates at the club which she can use when in town.

Velvet dresses are in the majority for skating, black, green and brown being the shades most seen. Muffs are somewhat in debate. At the out-door rink most of the women carried immense muffs, not only to keep their fingers warm, but because it makes a skater look more graceful. The new rink, however, is heated, and if the women still persist in carrying their muffs it will be because muffs are universally the fashion and carried everywhere this season, even by bridesmaids at weddings.

The only private rink in the city is owned by John D. Rockefeller, and is located in the open space next to his residence in West 54th street. Here, hidden from the gaze of passers-by, the Rockefeller heiresses and their girl friends display their proficiency; and they are extravagantly fond of skating, especially when Mr. Rockefeller himself joins them.

There is a fine pond for skating on Staten Island, on Sir Roderick Cameron's estate, about 40 minutes from the city; and the Cameron girls take with them very jolly afternoon skating parties when the ice is in good shape.

At Tuxedo skating is an every-day amusement, and Mrs. Suffern Tailer, who was Miss Lorillard, is one of the prettiest skaters. Up in Westchester county, at the country club, everybody skates, and Mrs. James Waterbury and handsome Mrs. Borden Harriman—who is one of the best cross-country riders among the women—are splendid figures on ice. Mrs. Victor Sorchon, who was the rich Miss Hunnewell, of Boston, is another clever skater. There is hardly one of the society beauties or younger matrons who do not skate now, and all of them will be seen during the season at the new rink.

There is a wide promenade around the ice surface, and boxes, where the matrons, like Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. McKe Twombly, Mrs. Lloyd Brice, Mrs Sloane, Mrs. Belmont, Mrs. Elisha Dyer, Mrs. James Kernochan, Mrs. Stokes Mrs. William F. Burden, Mrs. I. Townsend Burden, Mrs. George B. De Forest and Mrs. George Gould may be seen watching the skaters.

GOV. MORTON'S DAUGHTERS ON THE ICE AT RHINECLIFF.

TISSUE RENOVATION.

Nikola Tesla Thinks It Can Be Accomplished by His Latest Invention.

Has the science of electricity discovered a cure for all human ills? Nikola Tesla, the wonderful electrician, announces that he has devised a machine by which every fiber of the human frame can be made vibrate so as to cause a complete renovation of all the tissues, thus restoring to the diseased body a healthy and perfect condition. If Wizard Tesla says truly there will be no end to the drug stores that will be compelled to abandon trade. It may be of interest to those who expect to be cured by his new process to know something of the genius who is to be their savior. Tesla was born somewhat more than 30 years ago in Servia. He is a Slav of the Slavs, with all the characteristics of that race. His father was an eloquent clergyman of the Greek church, but Nikola probably derived his inventive genius from his mother, who constructed looms and churns for household use while her husband preached the Word. As a boy in the Polytechnic school at Gratz he first saw a direct current gramme machine and was told that a commuter was a vital and necessary feature in all apparatus. He at once was interested in electricity, but continued to pursue his mechanical and mathematical studies until he was ripe for graduation. Incidentally he mastered half a dozen languages and finally secured a position as assistant in the government telegraph engineering department at Budapest. Soon he left that employment and went to Paris to make his way across the Atlantic. He secured work in one of Edison's shops and at once entered on an entirely new stage of development. So quick, bright and original was he that Edison soon became personally interested in him. News of Tesla's wonderful discoveries was spread abroad and he leaped into the foremost rank as an electrician. Indeed, there are those who contend that he is greater than Edison's self, although his discoveries have been in an altogether different line. His last is an indication of his trend, and if the human body is to share in the blessings that have been showered on man by modern electrical research the one man to point the way is Nikola Tesla. Whatever comes from him will command the attention of scientists.

NIKOLA TESLA.

MOVED ON LIGHTERS.

Remarkable Feat of Engineering Performed in California.

A remarkable feat of engineering has just been successfully accomplished by a Pacific coast firm.

An attorney named Ernest Sevier is the owner of a two-story house at Arcata, 12 miles from Eureka. Owing to a decline in the value of property at Arcata Sevier determined to have the house moved to Eureka, where he intended having it set up on some land he owned.

A firm of contractors undertook to remove the house intact and set it up, uninjured, for the sum of $1,200. In case it was unfit for occupancy upon its arrival they were to receive the house as their compensation.

THE HOUSE AFLOAT.

The trip was made principally by water. To remove the house to the edge of the bay was the first difficulty to be overcome, as it necessitated taking the building over a large dyke and a marsh. This was accomplished satisfactorily and the house was transferred to two railroad lighters that had been lashed together in readiness for the trip.

The journey was completed with the aid of a tug without accident, and an immense crowd assembled at Eureka to welcome the strange craft.

Amid the cheers of the spectators and the tooting of steam whistles the lighters were made fast and the house transferred to land once more. It was a comparatively easy matter to convey it to its new site and the strange engineering feat was accomplished without any more damage being done to the house than a slight cracking of the plaster.

Horseflesh as Food.

A writer in the Frankfurter Zeitung says that horseflesh is the most nourishing of meats and its taste is hardly distinguishable from beef.

They Roost on the Wires.

Copper wires are used for Mexican telegraph lines so that they will hold the weight of the birds and monkeys which crowd them at night.

PERSONALS FROM ABROAD.

The present czar of Russia is one of the few reigning monarchs who has not insured his life.

Prof. Archibald Geikie, the distinguished British geologist, is coming to the United States soon on a lecturing tour.

Alfred Rothschild keeps seven chefs, one of whom has nothing to do beyond making curries. Rothschild rarely dines away from home, frankly declaring that he prefers his own table to any other.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the British colonial secretary, has just received a complimentary name from three Bechuana chiefs, who have been visiting England. He is called Moatlhodi, which means: "He puts things right."

Prince Ferdinand and Charles of Bourbon, the two eldest sons of the count of Caserta, who is now the head of the Naples Bourbons, have applied for permission to serve in the Spanish army that is trying to subject Cuba.

The name Olga, which has been given to the infant daughter of the czar and czarina, is an ancient Russian name. It is also a favorite in the Russian imperial family. It is likely that nearly all the female children born in Russia during the next few months will be named Olga.

Lord Dunraven in speaking drops into the faint and by no means unpleasant twang of the educated Yankee, and this, added to a certain briskness in manner and an easy way of accosting people, gives him the leading characteristics of our transatlantic cousins, says a London exchange.

SAYINGS OF THE EAST.

Man's nature to good is like the tendency of water to flow downwards. There are none but have this tendency to good just as all water flows downwards.—Mencius, Kaou Tsze (pt. i. ch. ii).

There is nothing more visible than what is secret, and nothing more manifest than what is minute; therefore, the superior man is watchful over himself when he is alone.—Doctrine of the Mean (ch. i).

The master said: "When I walk along with two others they serve me as my teacher. I will select their good qualities and follow them, their bad qualities and avoid them."—Confucian An., Shuh Urh (ch. xxi).

A bad year cannot prove the cause of death to him whose store of grain is large. An age of corruption cannot confound him whose equipment of virtue is complete.—Mencius, Tsin Sin (ch. x).

Where there is musk there will, of course, be perfume; it will not be necessary to stand in the wind. Talent and worth will manifest themselves without resorting to trickery.—Confucian Proverb of Foo Chow.

In archery we have something like the way of superior man. When the archer misses the center of the target he turns round and seeks for the cause of his failure in himself.—Doctrine of the Mean (ch. xiv).

MORE VALUABLE THAN GOLD.

The first steel pen was made in 1830.

Beryllium, which resembles lead, is worth $80 per ounce.

Zirconium comes in flat, thin, grayish blue crystals and is worth $40 per ounce.

Rubidium is of a greenish gray appearance and comes as a powder. Its value is $88 per ounce.

Ruthenium is a black powder in appearance, and exceedingly difficult to melt. It is worth $44 per ounce.

Thurium closely resembles palladium, but while the latter is worth only eight dollars per ounce, its twin, thurium, is sold at $160 per ounce.

Didymium, when collected, is a light gray or dove color. When melted it is one of the whitish gray metals. It is worth $72 per ounce.

Cerium is a brownish green mass in appearance, but in reality it is a white metal belonging to the aluminum family. Its value is $40 per ounce.

Calcium is, of course, well known. It comes in a white powder, and is more readily melted than any of the others. It belongs to the aluminum family, and is worth $80 per ounce.

LITERARY GLEANINGS.

Mrs. Humphry Ward lives, when in the country, at Aldbury, a sleepy English village of 800 people, under the Chiltern Hills. Mrs. Ward's residence is called "Stack's House."

The Paris press has lost one of its brightest humorists by the death of M. Jules Moinaux, who for many years made the seamy side of life in the capital a source of fun for Charivari readers.

Ruskin once wrote to Dante Gabriel Rossetti: "If you wanted to oblige me you would keep your room in order and go to bed at night. All your fine speeches go for nothing with me till you do that."

A firm of publishers has offered Sarah Bernhardt $200,000 for her autobiography. This beats by $75,000 the check which Messers. Longmans paid Macaulay "for one edition of a book," as Macaulay himself expressed it, the book being his history.

BENEATH THE EARTH'S CRUST.

Nevada's gold yield for the past year is estimated at $1,220,700, and the silver yield at 997,500 ounces.

After drilling down 5,000 feet in search of water in New Haven, and not finding any, the job was given up.

Coal of excellent quality, and in apparently enormous quantities, has just been discovered in Arizona, in the Dos Cabezas district, only six miles from the railroad.

The official figures of the gold product of Alaska in 1894 are placed at $1,282,623.13, and silver $5,716.55. The figures for the preceding year were $1,038,824 and $10,983.92, respectively.

About His Size.

"There," said one old crony to another, to whom he was showing the lions of the town, "that's the statue o' Bailie Wilson."

"Is it no a guid bit larger than life size, though?" queried his fried.

"Oo, ay, it's a' that, but it's no a bit bigger than the bailie thocht he was himsel'."—Pearson's Weekly.

To Make the Fourteenth.

Maud—Willie, I wish you hadn't proposed to me to-night.

Willie—Why, pray?

Maud—Because you made the thirteenth, and now I am actually compelled to encourage old Von Gotrocks to propose, so as to break the spell of bad luck.—N. Y. World.

It Was Too Risky.

Reggy—What do you suppose a fellow's chances are for getting a good wife?

Tom—I should say they were about equal to the chances of his being a good husband.

Reggy—By Jove! Then I guess I won't marry.—Illustrated Monthly.

Hard on George.

George—My dear Miss Laura, the highest wish I have in life is to marry—

Laura (interrupting him)—You had better speak to my mother.

George—Oh, thanks. I never before thought I had any chance.

Laura—I know she would like to marry again.—Fliegende Blaetter.

She Had Her Doubts.

Miss Highkicker—Are these diamonds false?

"No, indeed, they are as true as my love for you," replied Johnny Masher.

"Is that so? Then I guess I had better have them examined by an expert."—Texas Siftings.

A Paradox.

I never could quite understand it.
For it seems without reason or rhyme.
That the woman forever demanding her rights
Is the one who gets left every time.
—Life.

EXTRACT FROM A NOVEL.

He moved with a quick, even stride.—Brooklyn Life.

Hard to Avoid.

"Like all men, you have a pet name for your wife, I suppose?"

"Oh, yes."

"What do you call her?"

"I call her my income tax usually."—Truth.

Reasonable Complaint.

"Waiter," said the guest, "I wish you'd ask the proprietors to turn on a little more light. It's so dark in here I can't tell whether I'm eating planked shad or a paper of pins."—Chicago Tribune.

Reassuring.

Life-Insurance Agent—What did your father and mother die of?

Uncle Humsted—I don't rightly know; but 'twarn't nothin' serious.—Puck.

"Nothin' to Say."

B'Jones—Teddy Thoughtless boasts that he always says what he thinks.

Miss Vanderwhack—Yes? He has been sitting there for an hour without speaking a word.—Town Topics.

A Brute.

Judge—Your age, miss?

Miss Elder—Thirty-two.

Judge (to secretary)—Put down born in 1832.—Fliegende Blaetter.

Literary Usury.

Rebecca—Oh, Ikey, dat poy Leopold reads his books vit such great interest!

Ikey—Mine gracious, Rebecca—great interest! We can't afford it.—Truth.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

Chamber Music Concert,

—AT—

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

Corporation Notice.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John J. Sullivan has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 518 West Third street in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

William H. Harding.	Peter W. McDonough.
Edward Connors,	James Deady,
John Kane,	Cornick Caufield,
Michael Spellane.	William Classen,
Thomas Lyons,	Martin Kane,
Fintin Hibbits,	Arthur Scott.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that James Day has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 545 West Third street in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

David Barry.	William J. Monsell.
Patrick Power.	Peter Galbraith.
John B. DeHart.	Michael Newman.
Patrick Traynor.	John J. Kelly.
Carl Filber.	John McCarthy.
Thomas Burke.	Patrick Kneeland.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Alexander D. Findlay has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 123 East Second street in the First ward, which application is signed by

E. P. Curtis,	John Richter.
Adolph Kahrmann,	John McCann.
Thomas O. Gorman.	Albert Brown.
Fred Hoffmeister.	John Wolf.
John Johnson.	A. Love, Jr.,
Charles Bock.	Henry Haurand.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John Rafferty has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 213 Park avenue, in the First ward, which application is signed by

John F. McIntyre.	Dennis Carney.
George McCusker.	Albert H. Enander.
James Ryan.	Thomas Curren.
Fred Caspar.	Thomas Callahan.
Edward Hannan.	Patrick O'Keeffe.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Henry Haurand has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 115 East Front street, in the First ward, which application is signed by

Carl Kaerth.	Felix Marx.
John M. Schorb.	Martin N. Whelan
Alex. D. Findlay.	James A. Saunders.
Harry Werner.	Elizabeth Schorb.
John Y. Staats.	James Brown.
Michael Ettinger.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Joseph L. Welborn has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 214 and 216 Park avenue, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

Jacob Blimm.	Cornelius Guinee.
Werner Heideloff.	Cornelius Regan.
Moses Carney.	Geo. M. Phillips.
James Muldowney.	Kalman Rathberg.
George H. Moore.	Mike Walsh.
Alexander McGuigan.	Philip Schauble.
	Sec. and Treas. of the Rising Sun Brewing Co.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John J. Goff has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a Hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at corner West 3rd and Liberty streets, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

John Donnelly,	Daniel McCarthy.
Thomas Johnson.	Frank Cullen.
John Flynn,	Joseph Johnson.
Frederick Westphal.	Charles McCann.
John S. Haskard.	John M. Carney.
Thomas King.	Mary E. Goff.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Charles Smith has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at corner Front and Somerset streets, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

Joseph A. Blatz.	Frank Droll.
Vincent L. Frazee.	Theodore Kurtzhals.
John Winzererried.	Samuel Dreier.
Andrew Schlick.	William Newcorn.
Bennett Britton.	Jacob Grieb.
Frank Linke.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Fred Caspar has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 142 and 144 East Front street, in the First ward, which application is signed by

Joseph F. W. Bamebrger.	John Rafferty.
Charles Vermeule.	George W. Moore.
Michael Wunderlich.	William Leitheusser.
George L. Henry.	Samuel L. Miller.
Rosa Caspar.	John Hopkins Reid.
Michael Harrington.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Jacob Blimm has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 37-39 Somerset street in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

Isaac Lederer.	Daniel Hogan.
Jacob Blimm, Jr.,	Christian Karl.
Peter Blimm.	Patrick Ward.
Michael McCarthy	Daniel S. Pound.
William Kitchen.	Mathias Hefti.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. February 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Frank Linke has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a wholesale license to sell spirituous, vinous and malt brewed liquors in quantities from one quart to five gallons at 227 West Front street, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

W. W. Corlell.	Peter V. Weaver.
P. J. Kreitling.	James E. Martine.
Chas. Smith.	James Weaton.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Wallace V. Miller has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 111 to 119 North avenue, in the First ward, which application is signed by

Calvin Neighbour.	Lorenzo Paoli.
Chas. McGinley.	James Canfield.
C. K. Jansson.	James Harding.
James H. Higgins.	Joseph Angerbauer.
J. W. Burdick.	William H. Miller.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John E. Beerbower has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at Cor. Park avenue and Second street in the First ward, which application is signed by

Dan S. Roberts.	J. H. Staats.
T. A. Rogers.	Alex. Sergeant.
Joel Walley.	James Staats.
Peter Gordon.	J. J. Unangst.
James Fitzpatrick.	Walter L. Hetfield.
	Peter Gordon.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

Grand Final Clearing Sale

—OF—

Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks

previous to stocktaking, February 1, We propose to close out every winter garment. Notice the extraordinary reductions.

LADIES' JACKETS—LATEST STYLES.

Ladies boucle jackets, shield front, large pearl buttons, mandolin sleeves reg. $10 jacket, for $6.49.
Ladies' brown jackets, shield front, velvet collar and cuffs, large pearl buttons, reg. price $18, for $13.
Ladies' diagonal jackets 28 inches long, reefer front, large pearl buttons, were $15, now $12.
Misses' fancy mixed jackets, velvet collar, mandolin sleeves, reefer front, were $8, now $5.
Misses' navy blue jackets, reefer front, ripple back, mandolin sleeves seams piped with velvet, large storm collar, reg. price $12, at $7.98.
Misses' jackets, blue and white mixed, double faced goods, velvet collar, 4 large pearl buttons, were $12, now $7.49.
Children's Gretchens, fancy mixtures, sailor collar, newest styles, were $10, now $6.98.

777 and 779 Broad Street,

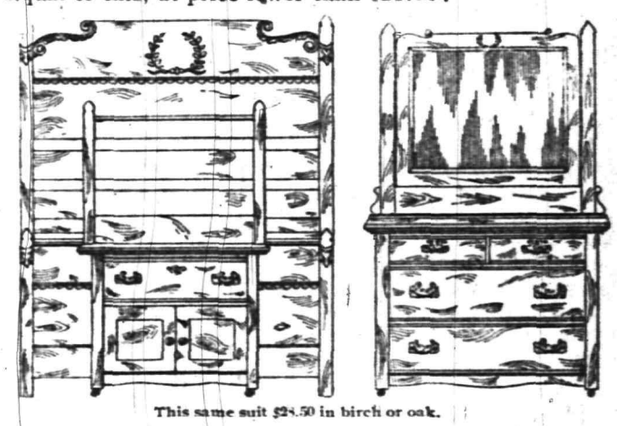
Newark, N. J.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

Ever Buy a Bedroom Suit

CASH OR CREDIT—LONG TIME GIVEN

Equal to this, at price lower than $28.50?



This same suit $28.50 in birch or oak.

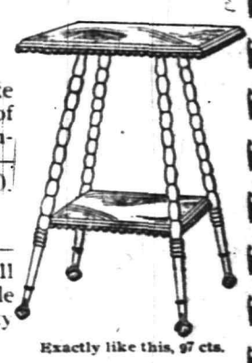
It's a suit we've always sold for $45.00—honor bright! Made in birch or quartered oak, French bevelled plate, 24x38, superbly finished.

6 Chairs For $5.95

It's needless to say they're chairs that'll beautify any dining room—fine construction, cane seats, a true blue value.

Here's a Table

marked at 97 cts.—it's not a make that's always ready to "get out of joint"—sturdy build, finely finished oak or cherry, nice make—exactly like cut, easily worth $1.50.



Exactly like this, 97 cts.

See Us for Carpets

We've a big line, all patterns—here's a "price illustration:" all wool ingrains, 65 cts. a yard, made and laid with lining. Over twenty patterns on hand.

Goods selected now held until wanted—no cash needed. Deliveries made free of charge.

Ever heard of the Portland Range? Of course you have. It's nearly world famed by this time.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Etc.
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Everything new and up-to-date.

HOYT'S A TRIP TO CHINATOWN

Produced in exactly the same manner as at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, with the

ORIGINAL CAST,

including Harry Conor and all the original scenery, furniture and properties

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1

One week commencing

Monday, February 10

Six nights and five matinees
The Barnum of them all.

WAITE'S Comedy Company

Premium Band and Orchestra.

35 PEOPLE 35

in a repertorie of new comedies, dramas and society plays. Change of play every performance.

Prices 10, 20 and 30c.

POPULAR DIME MATINEES,

daily, starting Tuesday.

Monday night—The Black Flag.

Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

THE MARX APPOINTMENT.

MAYOR GILBERT EXPLAINS WHY HE SELECTED MR. MARX.

Reforms are Contemplated in the Conduct of the Office and Mr. Marx is Considered to Have the Experience.

There is a determination on the part of the city officials that the poor of the city shall be cared for more methodically and economically in the future, and to accomplish this, a sweeping change is contemplated in the conduct of the office of the Overseer of the Poor. Mayor Gilbert stated this fact to a Press reporter last night, who had called on him to obtain an expression of opinion as to his reasons for sending the appointment of George H. Marx as Overseer of the Poor to the Common Council Monday night. For sometime the Alms committee of the Council, together with the outside organizations which are devoted to the distribution of charity, have been considering the feasibility of establishing a poor house on the sewage disposal farm, where the expense of instituting it would be comparatively small, inasmuch as the necessary buildings ard already there. When such a scheme is consummated it will be necessary to have a superintendent there, and it was with this in view, in securing the right man of experience to perform snch duties, that the appointment was suggested to and accepted by the Mayor.

The suggestion to the Mayor came in the shape of the following petition:

Hon. Alexander Gilbert,

Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned members of the Board of Managers of the Plainfield Relief Association, understand that on the first of February the term of office of the Overseer of the Poor expires. In appointing a person to fill this position, we respectfully commend to your careful consideration George A. Marx, who is at present superintendent of the Boys Club. He has resided in this city with his family for nearly two years. Before coming to Plainfield he was associated with the work of the Burnham Industrial Farm, N. Y., where he gained much knowledge of advanced charitable work. Those who have been connected with him at the Boys Club commend him most heartily for faithful and conscientious work, and express entire confidence in his hearty co-operation with the principles of the C. O. A. A. and the Relief Association. We feel that with a man of his character and intelligence the poor fund will be wisely administered, and much will be done to solve the perplexing problem of outdoor relief.

Emily C. F. Randolph, president; Mary S. Myers, vice-president; Mrs. H. P. Reynolds, treasurer; Mrs. C. E. Brooks, secretary; Mrs. D. J. Yerkes, Marie L. Simpson, Mrs. Theo. Bond, Mrs. Charles E. Ryder, Mrs. Mason W. Tyler, Mrs. J. Evarts Tracy, Mrs. H. B. Newhall, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, Mrs. Samuel Huntington, Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, Mrs. Charles W. McCutchen, Mrs. Emil Woltmann, Mrs. Wm. A. Woodruff, H. P. Reynolds, of Advisory Committee; Mrs. Charles P. Leggett, Mrs. Walter M. McGee, Mary E. Tweedy, Mirjam W. Opdyke, Mrs. Charles J. Fisk.

Dec. 11th, 1895.

The Mayor took the petition under consideration, but up to Saturday night was undetermined as to what action he would take. There were several candidates for the appointment. He decided that if A. Vanderbeek, the present incumbent, was able to accept a reappointment, he would continue him in office, as he had performed the duties in a satisfactory manner for the city. But Saturday night he learned that Mr. Vanderbeek was not physically able to accept a reappointment, and it was then that he was compelled to make another selection.

Considering the applicants for the appointment he naturally recognized the reasons advanced by Mr. Marx's supporters as being strong, since a reform was proposed in the conduct of the office.

The appointment of Mr. Marx subsequently followed. The Mayor said last night that the claim that Mr. Marx is not a citizen is not so.

He did not express any opinion as to what action he would take on the case in the future.

Office Improvements.

A number of changes are to be made in the present office of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company on Park avenue. New and elaborate signs will be painted on windows and doors. The rear of the room will be partitioned off as a private office while a new and improved desk and counter, of the style built especially for the company, will replace the present furniture. The entire office will be thoroughly renovated and Superintendent W. E. Martin has been empowered to make other changes as his judgment dictates.

Worse Than Smoking Cigarettes.

A young lady, boarding on East Fifth street, had a rather unpleasant experience several mornings ago. When she awoke she was horrified to find that the room, the bed, herself and everything had turned black. A little investigation showed that it was lampblack. The oil stove that the landlady had started in the room early in the morning had smoked furiously all the time, and anyone that has met a smoking oil stove will understand the situation.

To Answer the Charges.

The saloon-keepers who have recently been indicted by the Grand Jury for selling on Sunday will probably be arraigned today in the Union County Court. Their trials will probably be set down for the week after next.

PELTERING RAIN DROPS.

INCIDENTS OF THE HEAVIEST RAIN STORM EXPERIENCED IN YEARS.

Green and Cedar Brooks Are Raging Torrents, While Streets and Cellars Are Flooded in All Parts of City and Borough.

The rain is apparently in possession of Plainfield and all the city waits for what it will do next. It began late last night and has continued in a never ceasing downpour. The wind appeared on the scene and made umbrellas almost useless. Had it been snow, the blizzard of a year ago would have been repeated. The white blanket that covered the earth last night has almost disappeared and the melted snow added to the torrents that kept continually falling.

Both the city and the borough are almost flooded. The gutters are overflowing with miniature torrents of raging water that make the streets almost impassable. Park avenue is a muddy pond with little islands here and there where the centre of the street used to be. All of the streets are nearly as bad, while some in the West End are out of sight.

Somerset street makes a fair canal, especially in the vicinity of Greenbrook road, and the trolley cars had to flow through miniature oceans. The condition of other borough streets was not much better.

But Green brook was happy and so were the hackmen, too. Green brook is higher than it has been since the flood, that is, the flood several years that washed out several bridges. At Tier's dam, the flood gates were opened wide early this morning but it did not make any difference. The water poured over the top in a large stream.

J. H. Tier & Son erected a heavy barricade of posts and boards at the dam to prevent the ice going out in a body, but it proved futile, as the water this noon began to pour over the dam with such force that ice was carried out of the pond and went floating down the stream in small sized ice bergs.

In the barn in the rear of French's carriage factory, a quantity of hay was stored and fifteen bales of it went down the brook before it could be carried to a place of safety.

The flat land near the Washington Avenue bridge is completely flooded and if the water continues to rise at its present rate, considerable damage is sure to result.

The water was nearly up to the floor of the cars on the Central Railroad, between Bloomsbury and Valley station, this morning. The railroad wire of the Central Railroad was thrown out of order between New York and Plainfield this morning by the storm.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

Central Lodge Preparing to Take Several Important Steps.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., will meet Thursday evening, Feb. 13th, at which time four applications for membership will be received. Past Master Workman Charles Randolph will present a set of resolutions advocating the establishment of an endowment fund in connection with the beneficiary fund, also the establishment of a home for old and disabled members. He will attempt to have the representative to the grand lodge, which meets in March, instructed to secure the adoption of these measures.

The committee on paraphernalia and stereopticon views will report and recommend the purchase of outfit No. 7, at a cost of $400. The above will be used in the new work.

The good and welfare committee, under the direction of Past Master Workman S. C. Baker, have an excellent programme arranged for the meeting, consisting of vocal music by G. W. Clark and L. J. Spicer and the lodge quartette, N. C. Mague, G. W. Gray, T. C. Smith and C. T. Rogers. Past Master Workman Westphal will entertain the members with some Irish humor.

He Took a Drop.

While W. G. Debele was following his usual milk route this morning he was surprised to see his horse sink into the road on Washington street, near East Fifth. He got out to investigate, when the earth gave way under him and he found himself up to his waist in mud and water. The earth in the sewer trench had been completely saturated with water and had sunk. Mr. Debele pulled himself out and then rescued his horse. He left a long stick in the middle of the street as a warning to others.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

NO RACING OF ANY SORT.

THAT IS WHAT SENATOR VOORHEES WILL ATTEMPT TO ENACT.

But He Will be Met by Strong Opposition at Trenton by Those in Favor of Honest Racing—Dr. Kempshall Writes a Letter.

Race-track legislation will have a rocky road in the Senate if the race-track men attempt to carry out their purpose of attempting to get a bill through the Legislature, says the World.

Senator Voorhees says that all the constitutional amendments passed on by last year's Legislature will be acted upon favorably, and that the judiciary amendments proposed by Senator Johnson and a horde of lawyers will have to be cast aside.

Amendments to the Constitution can only be made every five years. They must be passed on by two successive Legislatures and then submitted to the people. The constitutional amendments now pending, he said, must be passed by this Legislature before they can go to the people. The race-track men have been working for delay on the amendment making irrepealable the laws on race-track gambling.

Senator Johnson last week introduced an amendment on the formation of the Court of Errors and Appeals. If this amendment were to be accepted this year and incorporated into the other constitutional amendments the entire batch would be delayed in progress just one year, and they would practically have to begin their career over again with this Legislature. This would oust the race-track men. They have been hoping that the sentiment against them would die out, and that at least next year they would be in a position to get "honest" racing.

It is pretty certain now, however, that the anti-race-track constitutional amendment will pass the Senate with all the other amendments. The amendment on the Court of Errors and Appeals by Senator Johnson will receive respectful attention from the judiciary committee, and the lawyers, with their schemes for making the court an ideal one, will be heard, but the amendment will not be allowed to block the progress of the others.

In compliance with his promise to Rev. Dr. Kempshall, of Elizabeth, Senator Voorhees introduced the following as an amendment to the Constitution. It is the same section which was agreed to by the last session of the Legislature:

No lottery shall be authorized by this State and no ticket in any lottery shall be bought or sold within this State; nor shall pool selling, bookmaking or gambling of any kind be authorized or allowed within this State; nor shall any gambling device, practice or game of chance now prohibited by law be legalized, or the remedy, penalty or punishment now provided therefor be in any way diminished.

As soon as the resolution was read President Thompson referred it to the judiciary committee.

The referring of the resolution to a committee was considered peculiar, and the refusal of the Senate to act upon it promptly pleased the lobbyists immensely. There is a possibility that when Senator Voorhees, as leader, comes to attempt the passage of the resolution, he will find its path not strewn with roses.

Rev. Dr. Everard Kempshall, President of the New Jersey State Anti-Race Track League, addressed the following letter to Senator Voorhees yesterday:

ELIZABETH, N. J., Feb. 5, 1896.

Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Judiciary.

Dear Sir:—Expressions of mingled surprise and impatience are coming to me from various parts of the State at the delay in the Legislature in passing, for the second time, the proposed anti-race track amendment to the Constitution. My object in addressing to you this open letter is to make respectful request that if the Judiciary Committee does not see its way clear to report at the next regular meeting of the Senate for adoption the resolution pertaining to this matter now in their hands, you will in behalf of the Executive Committee of the State Citizens' League lay before the honorable Senators their petition that the Senate will grant at such time and in such way as it may be pleased to indicate, a hearing of citizens of New Jersey who are in favor of the prompt adoption of said amendment by the present Legislature. Very respectfully yours, EVERARD KEMPSHALL, President State Citizens' League.

Dished By the Car Track.

The car track was the cause of a dished wheel on James Manning surrey, and a muddy bath by J. T. Vail, the popular real estate agent, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Manning, Mr. Vail and a young woman were riding down West Front street in the surrey, Mr. Manning attempted to turn out of the car track in front of Powlison & Jones furniture store when the wheel gave way, sending Mr. Vail out into the mud. The broken wheel was soon replaced.

Borough Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of real estate from the borough have been recorded in the County Clerk's office at Somerville:

Nellie P. Lyman and husband to Ada M. Grant, $1; Ada M. Grant and husband to Nellie P. Lyman, $1; Katherine Embury et als to Helen McDowell, $300; Katherine Embury et als to Sarah S. Parker, $600; John Herrman et ux to Newton B. Smalley, $2,900; Newton B. Smalley et ux to John Herrman, $1,550; Geo. A. Dilts, late sheriff, to Catherine Embury, $2,000; Aaron D. Thompson et ux to Harold W. Tomlinson, $1; George F. White et al to Edmond E. Pope et al, $2,500; Fidelity Title and Deposit Co. to Aaron D. Thompson, $1.

A RICH WASHERWOMAN

MRS. ELIZA STEPHENSON LEFT $5,000 AS SAVINGS OF A LIFETIME.

She Had Worked Out by the Day for a Number of Years, and Deceived People as to the Amount of Wealth She Had.

A familiar figure about the city for the past twenty years has been Mrs. Eliza Stephenson, an apparently poverty stricken old woman who eked out a precarious existence by doing washing and housework for various families in the city and borough. For a number of years she has resided in three small rooms in Stiger's alley, where, when she was not away at work, she worked, ate and sleept. Though she managed to keep busy most of the time, people who knew her life thought that she barely secured a living. Her constant toil and lack of the necessities of life told on her physical system and a week ago she was attacked with malaria.

She disliked to spend any money for a physician, and for some time she took a few simple remedies that are resorted to the household. She continued to feel worse, however, and finally sent for Dr. Clawson. He treated her, but as she lives alone and had no attention other than what the neighbors sympathetically gave, she failed to improve. Tuesday, application was made to the Muhlenberg hospital and she was admitted to that institution. Her system was so weak, however, that she died yesterday.

Mrs. Stephenson has no relatives here, and so Dr. Clawson visited her rooms to see what arrangements he could make for her burial. There he found a little hand-bag hanging on a hook, and on looking into it, he was startled to see a note for a considerable amount of money made payable to her.

Dr. Clawson then hunted up Chief Grant and the two returned and made a search of the house.

Laying in a promiscuous manner on the bureau they found another note for a large sum, and after a bit of investigation discovered six notes ranging in sums from $100 to $600 made out in her favor and with ample security. A bank book was also found in the hand-bag crediting her with deposits in a local bank. The total amount of notes and deposits approximate $5,000.

Chief Grant put the valuable in the hands of Judge DeMeza, who will take charge of her affairs

Mrs. Stephenson has one daughter, Isabella, twenty-six years of age, who is a domestic in Newark, but who has not lived in Plainfield for several years. Her address is not known, and Chief Grant was unable to get any trace of her from the Newark police this morning.

The remains of Mrs. Stephenson are at the undertaking rooms of A. M. Runyon & Son.

THEY FEAR FOR THEIR TITLES.

Purchasers of Property in White House Learn of a Mortgage.

There is great excitement in White house over notices received by villagers from Sheriff Poulson, of Hunterdon county, commanding their presence before Chancellor McGill on foreclosure proceedings at the suit of the First National Bank of Jersey City. Representative Pidcock has owned large tracts of land in that section, and the persons summoned had purchased their property of him.

They claim that they have warranty deeds given by him, but the records show that a prior blanket mortgage for $50,000, covering their property, was given to the bank by Pidcock as collateral. The bank now proposes to foreclose.

Measles Raging.

The Linden Board of Health will endeavor to have all of the churches closed next Sunday and prevent all public gatherings in the township in order to prevent the spread of measles, now epidemic in the township.

What is Grainlet?

"Grainlet" is pure wheat and nothing else. It is prepared from the choicest wheat obtainable, by our patent process, and is an invaluable food for all classes. Hygienic Food Co., Orange.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

ALMANACS OF THE PAST.

A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF THEM IN THE HOTEL GRENADA.

They Range in Age From One Hundred and Sixteen to Sixty-two Years—Some Were Published Near Plainfield.

While the last sixty years have wrought wonderful changes in almost everything, the regular almanac presents almost the same appearance. That is, not the large newspaper almanacs of today, but the Farmer's Almanac and others of a like nature. Among the curiosities in the cafe of the Hotel Grenada, of which a few were described in yesterday's Daily Press, is a large frame containing ten old almanacs, which range in age from one hundred and sixteen years to sixty-two years. They were formerly the property of an aunt of Mrs. Wallace V. Miller and were given to Mrs. Miller some time ago. At the top are four almanacs called the New Jersey Almanac and dated respectively, 1825, 1826, 1829 and 1831. The cover of the oldest has the following inscription: "The New Jersey Almanac for the year of our Lord, 1825, Being the first after Bissetile and (until July 4th) the Forty-ninth of American Independence. Containing the usual astronomical calculations and a great variety of other useful and entertaining matter. By David Young, philom." Then follows the coat of arms of New Jersey, below which it is stated the almanac was printed and sold by J. & E. Sanderson, Elizabethtown, N. J. The edition for 1829 is similar except there is a cut of a beehive on it and it was printed by Benj Olds at Newark. It also contains weather predictions for the year. On the one for 1831 the cut is also different; this time being of an eclipse of the sum. Thos. O. Sayre, of Elizabethtown, published it in that year.

There are two copies of the New Brunswick (N. J.) Almanacks, calculated by Joseph Cramer, with an old-style picture of men bundling grain on the first page. It was printed and published by Griggs & Dickinson, of Philadelphia, for Joseph C. Griggs, New Brunswick, (N. J.) Whether the publisher of that almanac was related to the present Governor it is hard to say. These two almanacs are dated 1827 and 1830.

New Brunswick was the headquarters of an older annual publication whose old-fashioned type and simple cover present a marked contrast to those of the present day. This was the New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania Almanac for 1802, "being the sixth year after leap year." A. Blauvelt, of New Brunswick, was the publisher, and it was said to contain "everything useful and necessary in an almanac." Humor was catered to by the almanac publishers, and R. H. Elion, of New York, is named as the publisher of the "Comic All-my-nack" for 1834. The first page is decorated with a cut of a man carrying an elephant on his back, and "embellished with forty comic engravings." There must have been a large demand for them as it is marked second edition.

Benjamin Franklin's "Poor Richard's Almanac" seems to have made a demand for a great variety of contents in the earliest almanacs.

The United States Almanac for 1782, "being the second after leap year and the sixth year of American Independence, shows great energy by its compiler, Andrew Ellicott, Esq. It contained, among many other things, "The motions of the sun and moon; the true places of the planets; chronology of the most remarkable battles, sieges, retreats, etc., in the present war; days for holding courts in New Jersey, also a variety of interesting and entertaining matter, both in prose and verse." Its home was not far from here. It was printed and sold by Shepard Kollock, of Chatham, at his office, where shopkeepers and others may be supplied whole sale and retail.

The oldest of all these almanacs is opened and two inside pages are shown. Its name or publisher is not stated, but it is marked 1780. On one page is the following rhyme:

War begets poverty, poverty peace,
Peace makes riches flow, fate ne'er doth cease,
Riches produce pride, pride is war's ground,
War begets poverty, so the world goes round.

Then follows a list of the eclipses for that year, two of the moon, and one of the sun, and the time of the beginning, middle and end of each. There is also a list of the members of the Supreme Executive Council of the Common Wealth, of Pennylvania, which is headed by his excellency, Joseph Reed, esq., the president. On the other page is a table of values of dollars in pounds, shillings and pence, and a tide table giving the time of high tide at Philadelphia, Boston and New York.

—Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A.M. will hold its regular meeting on next Tuesday evening.

NO THOUGHT OF FUTURE.

REV. C. L. GOODRICH TALKS OF THOSE WHO LIVE FOR THE DAY ONLY.

If We Are Indulgent in Our Youth, it Will Come Back to Us in Later Years, to Our Sorrow—Other Points of the Talk.

These conducting the revival services were much encouraged last evening by the increased attendance at the Park Avenue Baptist church, and the noted interest shown. The meeting opened with several short prayers, which were followed with a solo, "More Love To Thee, Oh, Christ," by Charles Lewis. Then Rev. C. L. Goodrich took his text from the Gospel of John 21:18: "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, when thou wast ycung, thou girdedest thyself, and walkedest wither thou wouldst; but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not." The above words were spoken to Peter and were full of truth and comfort. The disciple was so ardent in his love for Christ that he was willing to give up his life, and he might well express his allegiance to Christ. Imagine our Saviour standing here tonight and offering to lift the veil, and show us our life. No, it's enough to know it when it comes. We need no prophet to tell us our text is true. In the fresh vigor of youth and manhood, going through life with comparative ease, we need no prophet to tell us that some day we shall lose our power and strength, and the time comes when others must care for us.

Suppose Christ should stand here and lift the veil, showing us when our end was to be, would you dare look? I am not sure that I would like to see it. It is in your power tonight to prevent a sad ending to your life, it may not be tomorrow night. We must remember Peter's state of mind. He had said that he would follow Christ and lay down his life for Him. But he denied Him three times. His failure impressed him, and Christ told him he would attain steadfastness. This encouraged Peter. Christ tells us that we can do better, and He can so help us that we can. Some persons have come here night after night, and have wished that they had courage to rise when the invitation is given, but they go away failing in their duty and privilege.

If we are indulgent in our youth, it will come back to us in later years and to our sorrow. We often prefer our way, and years afterwards repent of it, but it's sometimes too late.

Let Christ manage you, that is the step to take to be a Christian. Give up your way, and go His way. You must do somethings that you don't like to do, and you wouldn't be half a man if you didn't. There is no use in my telling you that the Christian life is one of ease, comfort and indulgence, for there are many trials and temptations in it, but Christ will help us through if we accept Him, and let His spirit rule us. After the choir sang "Come Home," Rev. J. W. Richardson conducted the aftermeeting. At his request many told how they were converted and testified to the keeping power of Christ. There were also many requests for prayers, and altogether the service was one of great spiritual blessing.

The meeting tomorrow evening in the Park Avenue Baptist church will be wholly conducted by the Young People's Societies of Endeavor and Epworth League. No sermon will be preached, but testimony and prayer will prevail instead. A most helpful service is looked forward to, as a grand rally of young people is expected.

Borough Matters.

The fire, water and lamps committee of the borough held a meeting last evening, and the result of their conference will be reported at the meeting of the Council tomorrow evening. The bids for the bell and tower are now all in. The borough Watchung avenue commissioners have made excellent progress, and it is expected that they will make a report tomorrow evening at the Council meeting.

—William Demler, owner of the Washingtonville store, has decided to open it himself since the failure of its old proprietor. George Mobus will act as his clerk. He is now restocking the store.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

FAST ON THE BEACH

The Lamington Struck the Sand Under Full Headway.

WRECKERS GO TO HER ASSISTANCE

Only One More Round of Food Aboard When the Steamer Struck—Fortunate for the Crew and Passengers That No Storm Prevailed.

Patchogue, L. I., Feb. 6.—Great South Beach, where the British fruit steamship Lamington went ashore, is a very dangerous part of the coast, and it is very fortunate that no storm was raging at the time, as it is probable that in that case the lives of some, if not all, of the crew, would have been lost. As it was, the life savers had great difficulty in rescuing the crew, but the work was finally accomplished with the aid of the breeches buoy. The cargo, which consists of 1,900 cases of currants, 928 cases of oranges and 200 cases of onions, will have to be taken ashore in small boats. She has been anchored by cables to prevent her going any further on the beach. Two miles from where she lies is the wreck of the Gluckauff, and somewhat nearer on the other side is the wreck of the schooner Place, on which several sailors were frozen to death almost exactly one year ago.

An Indignant Passenger.

James Brady, a passenger, who was one of the first to come ashore, was very indignant at the manner in which the vessel was handled. He said: "When the lead was last cast there were thirty fathoms of water reported. Then the order was given to put on full steam and go ahead. The fog then came on, and shortly afterwards the ship struck with full force against the sand hills of the beach, when the steamship blew her whistles and shot off guns, signalling to the shore for help." Brady said he was glad to get off, as they had not had sufficient to eat on board, and that at present there was only one more round of food for the entire number. He said they had had a fairly good passage and were coming in on schedule time. The Merritt wrecking tugs arrived at the scene last night and an effort will be made to haul the steamer into deep water at the first favorable tide.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

Annual Report of President Eliot an Important Document This Year.

Boston, Feb. 6.—President Eliot's annual report to the overseers of Harvard university was given out last evening. Its most important features are his consideration of the changes in the schools, regarding the arrangement of studies, and his suggestions of the principal problems relating to the divinity department of the university. He gives a history of the regulation of athletic sports at Harvard since 1882, and shows that the amateur standard has been steadily raised and the excesses of athletics lessened during that time. In treating the subject of athletics at Harvard, President Eliot points out the functions of the famous athletic committee, and comes to the conclusion that the establishment of that body was one of the wisest moves ever made in the university, to establish proper relations between the faculty and students. The sports which have inter-collegiate interests, he says, tend naturally to excesses, which are grave evils and, in his judgment, all colleges require steady and watchful control of collegiate sports such as has been exercised by the athletic committee at Harvard since 1882.

AGAINST COLOR DISCRIMINATION.

A Bill in Massachusetts Senate Providing for Equal Rights for Negroes.

Boston, Feb. 6.—The refusal of certain hotel keepers of Boston to entertain Bishop Arnett, the colored Ohio ecclesiastic, is responsible for a bill which Senator Roe introduced in the senate yesterday afternoon as follows: "Any licensed inn holder who makes any distinction, discrimination or restriction on account of color or race, on conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the said offense shall have been committed, shall forfeit his inn holder's license."

Against the Removal of Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 6.—The joint resolution introduced by Senator Scott of Washington county protesting against any action of congress toward moving the naval academy from Annapolis, and citing the fact that certain property was ceded to the general government by the state of Maryland, and if the academy is removed it would be a breach of good faith, was passed unanimously, the rules being suspended to give it precedence.

For More Torpedo Boats.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Among the bills introduced in the house yesterday was one by Mr. Low, rep., N. Y., authorizing the secretary of the navy to construct fifty first class torpedo boats, to cost not more than $175,000 each, and six torpedo gunboats and torpedo boat destroyers to cost not more than $500,000 each. For this purpose the bill appropriates $11,750,000.

Interceding for Prince Ferdinand.

London, Feb. 6.—A dispatch from Constantinople says that M. Stoiloff, the Bulgarian prime minister, will have a conference with the sultan today, during which he will request the sultan to recognize Prince Ferdinand as the ruler of Bulgaria.

Receiver for Recamier Company.

New York, Feb. 6.—Charles M. Sprague has been appointed receiver of the Recamier Manufacturing company on the application of Mrs. Harriet Hubbard Ayer and F. J. Sprague. It was stated that the company is insolvent.

years from that time, and will therefore mature Feb. 1, 1925.

Calculation by the Treasury Actuary.

According to the calculations of the actuary of the treasury, a bidder in order to realize 2½ per cent. interest on his investment should have offered $130.8749 for each $100 in bonds bid for. To realize higher rates of interest bids should have been made as follows: 2¾ per cent. $124.9234, 3 per cent. $119.3229, 3 1-16 per cent. $117.9749, 3⅛ per cent. $116.6471, 3 3-16 per cent. $115.3391, 3¼ per cent. $114.0506, 3 5-16 per cent. $112.7814, 3⅜ per cent. $111.5310, 3 7-16 per cent. $110.2992, 3½ per cent. $109.0856, 3 9-16 per cent. $107.8900, 3⅝ per cent. $106.7121, 3 11-16 per cent. $105.5516, 3¾ per cent. $104.4082, 3 13-16 per cent. $103.2816, 3⅞ per cent. $102.1716, 3 15-16 per cent. $101.0778, 4 per cent. $100.

Sales in Wall Street.

New York, Feb. 6.—Sales of the new bonds were made on the New York stock exchange yesterday afternoon, delivery in twenty days, at 116½. This gives a profit at once of 5½ per cent. to any one having bonds allotted to them at 111.

Will Re establish Confidence.

London, Feb. 6.—The Daily News in an article commenting upon the subscriptions for the new American loan, to-day says: "The manner in which the loan has been subscribed will repair the damage done to the credit of the United States and will reestabiish public confidence."

BLOOD ON HER CLOTHING.

Developments in the Grant Murder Case Dark for Mrs. Quinlan.

Boston, Feb. 6.—Dr. Wood of Harvard university has reported to the police department in substance that he has found blood upon the dress worn by Mrs. Quinlan on the night of the murder of Mrs. Sophia Grant in Charlestown. He has given the police to understand that the blood was not in blotches on the garment, as it would have been if it had been acquired from simply leaning over the body to make an examination after an assault by some other party, but that both sides of the dress were spattered all over with the crimson life fluid as would probably result if the blows were struck in the presence of the one clothed in it. Dr. Wood's preliminary statement concerning his investigations, the whole report not having been furnished to the police department as yet, has made a profound sensation.

POLICE LOOKING FOR BARTON.

He Placed the Poison in the Coffee That Killed Miss Tate.

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—The police are bending every effort to effect the capture of the man who placed the poison in the coffee that killed Miss Annie Tate, housekeeper for Josiah H. Richelderfer, and caused the illness of the latter, which may yet prove fatal. The man gave his name as George Barton, and said his father and stepmother lived in Boston and that he had an uncle in Freehold, N. J. He was employed by Mr. Richelderfer only last Saturday to serve as body servant to the latter, and Tuesday at dinner he placed arsenic in the coffee which Mr. Richelderfer and Miss Tate drank. After they became seriously sick Barton attended them and gave them some remedies. Then he ransacked the house and disappeared. Miss Tate was a native of Altoona, Pa., and her only known relative is a sister named Mrs. Jennie Harriss, who lives in Hollidaysburg, Pa.

GUILTY OF ARSON.

Father Fitzgerald To Be Sentenced at Rochester on Saturday.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 6.—The trial of Rev. John M. Fitzgerald on the charge of causing the parochial school house in Charlotte to be set on fire and burned early on the morning of July 17 last, was concluded in the county court here last night, and the jury, after being out about four hours, returned a verdict of guilty of arson in the second degree. The judge denied the motion for a new trial and set Saturday next as the date on which he will pass sentence. The full penalty of the crime for which Father Fitzgerald stands convicted is fifteen years in state prison.

Board of Elections for Boston.

Boston, Feb. 6.—There was introduced in the legislature yesterday afternoon a very important bill for the establishment of a board of elections for the city of Boston. The bill provides for a bi-partisan board of four citizens to be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, to serve five years. The salary of the chairman shall be $5,000, of the other members, $4,500 each.

Date for Opening Indian Lands.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The secretary of the interior has decided upon May 1 next as the date of the opening for settlement of the agricultural lands of the Red Lake Indians in Minnesota, which embrace about 800,000 acres and will be sold at $1.25 per acre.

For a Harbor of Refuge.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The house committee on rivers and harbors last evening heard Representative Moody of Massachusetts in support of the project to convert Sandy Bay, Mass., into a harbor of refuge. He asked for an appropriation of $150,000.

Denied Use of the Mails.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The postoffice department has denied the privileges of the mails to C. O. Tice & Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and Washington, D. C., for violating the postal laws and regulations.

Nicaragua Canal Message Expected.

Washington, Feb. 6.—It is reported to-day that President Cleveland will, at an early date, send to the house a special message bearing upon the subject of the Nicaragua canal.

FAVOR THE REBELS

Congress in Hearty Accord with the Cause of the Cubans.

RECOGNITION MAY SOON BE GRANTED

The Senate Will To-day Probably Consider the Substitute for the Concurrent Resolution Offered Last Week Looking to Extending Belligerent Rights.

Washington, Feb. 6.—There is considerable speculation and some little excitement in official circles here as to what action congress may take regarding the rebellion in Cuba, and the opinion is general that sentiment strongly favors the recognition of the insurgents as belligerents. The story that the rebels do not want recognition at present, because such action on the part of our government would make them liable to foreign nations for any injury caused to the person or property of foreigners, which could not be avoided during war, is not sustained by agents of the Cubans in this city, who are exerting themselves to have belligerent rights extended. The substitute offered yesterday in the senate for the concurrent resolution offered last week requesting the president of the United States to use his influence with the government of Spain to recognize the Cuban revolutionists as belligerents practically sets aside the latter measure. The substitute recognizes a condition of public war in Cuba, and declares that the United States shall maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers and shall accord to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports of the United States. The resolution is on the vice-president's table and may be taken up for action to-day. It will probably call forth considerable discussion, but it is pretty generally believed that the Cubans will be recognized as belligerents before many days have passed.

The Alleged Rout of Maceo's Forces.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Spanish minister has received a copy of the official report of the battle with Maceo on the 1st inst. From this it appears that Gen. Luque found Maceo's forces in Paso Real on the afternoon of that date. They made a stubborn resistance, retreating to the extreme part of the town. The Spanish infantry and cavalry advanced through every street until the enemy was dislodged from the town and took positions in a palm grove at three kilometers from Palma. "The Spaniards then," Gen. Luque says, "advanced in line. The left, commanded by Col. Hernandez, was composed of two companies of the Gaboya regiment and one of Galicia; the centre commanded by myself was formed by the San Quintan regiment with the one company of Sovia and two of Alfonso XIII. The forces of artillery commanded by Lieut. Lison covered the advance. The first charge was repulsed by our infantry formed in line. The second charge was met at the point of the bayonet with some injury to the enemy, but without any of our men being hurt by their machetes. Our artillery discharged grape shot at the enemy at close range." The result was, the report says, a complete rout of the insurgents, of whom sixty-two dead were counted with more than a hundred horses. Gen. Luque was shot through the legs, but was not compelled to abandon the engagement. Major Mijarez of the civil guard was seriously and Major Perez of the infantry fatally wounded.

Government Victory.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Havana, Feb. 6.—An official report received here says an encounter has taken place at Manjuri, a town near Matanzas, between a detachment of Spanish troops under Col. Vicuna and bands of rebels commanded by insurgent chiefs Cayito, Alvarez, Roque, Amieva and others. The engagement lasted forty minutes. The insurgents lost thirty-two killed. The Spanish loss was two wounded.

Nervous Prostration

Could Not Sleep — Had No Appetite

Cured in Body and Mind by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I suffered very much for a long time with nervous prostration. I had about given up all hopes of ever getting better when Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me and I believe it my duty to let other sufferers know the benefit I derived from it. I Could Not Sleep at night, was without appetite, and what little I did eat I was unable to keep on my stomach. After taking the first bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which seemed to do me some good, I tried a second and continued to feel better. I got up feeling

Mr. J. Edw. Riffle
Allegheny, Pa.

Bright and Refreshed

in the morning. I continued with the medicine and am cured, body and mind, can sleep well and feel better in every way. I gladly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to others." J. EDWARD RIFFLE, 154 Madison Ave., Allegheny, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Be Sure to Get Hood's Cures

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, billousness, headache. 25c.

Coughs,

 Consumption.

The greatest cause of terror of the present day, formerly considered hopeless, is now conceded by the best physicians as curable under proper conditions. Its cause — a depleted condition of the system; a mal-assimilation of food; a wasting away of the tissues; an impoverishment of the blood. The result — a diseased condition of all the organs of the body; a formation of eating ulcers; and the result death from collapse or hemorrhage. But the cure is that greatest concentration into the least possible bulk of the vital elements of lean, raw beef. It is absorbed and nourishes with the least possible effort on the part of the stomach. It creates new tissue, enriches the blood, makes flesh, and by strengthening the great vital centres of the body enables them to perform their functions in a natural manner, and dispel disease. Thousands owe their life to its use.

Bovinine

W.L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

In Buying a Piano or an Organ

do not fail to examine the latest Mason & Hamlin models. Recent improvements render them unexcelled. Old pianos or organs taken in exchange. Instruments sold for cash or easy payments.

Catalogues and full information free.

Pianos of reliable makers from $200 upwards.

Mason & Hamlin Co.

136 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

CATARRH ELY'S Cream Balm

COLD IN HEAD

Is quickly absorbed, cleanes the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell

It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS, 56 Warren st., New York

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Mrs D T 2	Lane Samuel
Freeman A L	Mackentire Jos
Huff Bros	Mulligan Ellen
Halliday Frank	McKinley John
Huck Paulina	McLaughlin Mr C
Kingsbury John	Pope Alex Mrs 3
Kitchen Mattie W	Robinson Jas A
King T P	Robertson R Mrs
Lackenasen Rachael	VanDerveer Francis

Zimme man Josie Miss

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday eveningsof each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND.

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

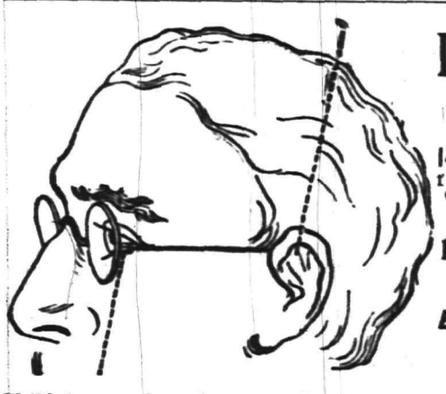
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.,

formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

107 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.

BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
120 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Specia Sled Prices.

32c	Redeced From	43cts.
36c	"	48cts.
56c	"	75cts.
71c	"	95cts
73c	"	97cts.
94c	"	$1.25.

R. C. Rand, 140 W. Front st

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

Edwin B. Maynard,
Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given. charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y
Write for Catalogue.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Do not be deceived by infringements of name, package or cigarette.
THE ONLY GENUINE
Sweet Caporal Cigarettes
Bear the fac simile signature of
Kinney Bros
on the package and on each cigarette.
TAKE NONE WITHOUT.

GEO. O. STEVENS
COAL
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

Don't Doubt
OUR Word!
WE ARE
Closing Out
our immense stock of
WALL PAPER, PAINTS, SHADES. RUGS, MOULDINGS. ETC.
Let us do your
Spring Decorating.
Edward Love,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

THE NEW BOND ISSUE

Treasury Officials Astounded at the Success of the Call.

HUNDREDS OF SMALL BIDDERS

Secretary Carlisle Calls on the President This Morning and Congratulations Are Exchanged—Morgan Syndicate Expects the Bulk.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Treasury officials are in joyful spirits to-day over the remarkable success of the popular bond issue. Secretary Carlisle called at the White House this morning and held a private conference with the president lasting for about half an hour, and it is understood his only errand was to congratulate President Cleveland and to himself receive congratulations on the outcome of the loan offer. The secretary, when seen later by a newspaper correspondent, said he was greatly pleased at the brilliantly conspicuous success of the loan, and declared that it showed what the people of this country would do when appealed to. He thought, too, that the effect abroad would be very marked in our favor.

Corrected Figures of the Bona-fide Bids.

Corrected figures place the number of bona-fide bids at 4,640, aggregating $558,269,850. There were several bogus bids, one of $10,000,000 from a doctor in Michigan and $16,000,000 from some one in Texas. There were 154 bids, aggregating $3,360,450, at 110; 34 bids, aggregating $988,300, at 110.2992; 58 bids, aggregating $1,269,750, at 110.50. The Hanover National bank bid for $1,000,000 at 109.95; the same at 110.299, the same at 110.52, the same at 110.875. J. P. Morgan, Harvey Fisk & Son and the Deutscher bank of Berlin, as a syndicate, bid for $100,000,000 of bonds at 110.6878. The allotment of the bonds cannot be made before to-morrow or Saturday. Among the bids received were many for small sums coming from people in all parts of the country. This indicates that the people have regained confidence and are again willing to trust their savings to be circulated and used in business.

Overwhelmed with Work.

The treasury department was simply overwhelmed by the enormous number of bids received. With fifteen expert clerks at work scheduling the bills, at 6 o'clock last night, they having worked incessantly since 8 o'clock in the morning, 1,200 bids remained unscheduled. The work of copying these was begun this morning. It will take many hours of hard work to straighten out the tangle as to the bids received and the exact prices offered. In spite of the care exercised by the committee which opened the bids, many unavoidable errors were made in announcing the bids. As proof of this, it may be mentioned that a number of offers from prominent eastern financial institutions, all apparently acting in concert, were read out as being at 110.75. This had progressed for some time when the correction was suggested by one of the parties in interest that all those bids were at 110.075. In future readings they were so announced. The official analysis of the figures will determine the result, and this will be necessarily a week of great labor.

Morgan Expects 60 Per Cent. of Them.

The great feature of the bond bidding was the offer of J. P. Morgan's syndicate, which as now composed includes only his own banking house, the Deutsche bank of Berlin, Germany, and Harvey Fisk & Sons of New York. They proposed to take the entire issue at 110.6877. Only one other bid of anything like equal amount was received. Pierpont Morgan, after figuring on the bids received said this morning that he would be awarded on his bid about 50 per cent. of the $100,000,000. He reached this conclusion simply from hearing the various bids read, as he did not think that more than 40,000,000 bids above that figure had been made. Scarcely more than one-third of the actual bids received are included in the imperfect lists now published.

Number of Small Bids Remarkable.

The number of small bids was quite remarkable. The fifty dollar offers ran up into the hundreds and at fairly good prices, and over 1,000 small banks and private individuals whose offers at the highest rates of acceptability ranged from $500 up to $8,000 or $9,000 are not included in the list published. The offers by the classes of small bidders below the 110 and a fraction limit, which seems shut off the issue, were still more numerous. An encouraging feature in these offers was that so many of those of large amount ranging, in many cases, up to one or more millions of dollars, came from fiduciary institutions, which thereby indicated that they had a better outlet for their money than that afforded by the United States bonds at the price at which they will undoubtedly be awarded.

Conditions of the Issue.

The bonds for which the bids are made are redeemable in coin, and will be issued in denominations of $50 or multiples of that sum, as may be desired by the bidders. Only United States gold coin or gold certificates will be received in payment of the bonds. Under the terms of the secretary's circular calling for bids, the first payment of 20 per cent. and accrued interest must be made upon receipt of notice of the acceptance of the bid. The remainder of the amounts bid may be paid in instalments of 10 per cent. each and accrued interest at the end of each fifteen days thereafter. Accepted bidders, however, are allowed to pay the whole amount of their bids at the time of the first instalment or at any time previous to the maturity of the last instalment, provided all previous instalments have been paid. The bonds will be dated Feb. 1, 1895, to run thirty

MAJORITY VOTED DOWN.

Two Reasons for the Defeat of District of Columbia Appropriation Bill.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The defeat yesterday of the District of Columbia appropriation bill, by a body containing 150 majority upon the side of the majority of the committee from which the bill was reported, by a vote of 143 to 135 was an unprecedented event in the house, and the reason for this defeat was two fold: The democratic minority voted solidly against it aided by those republicans who opposed the insertion of any appropriations for secular and private charitable institutions in the district. This result was secured amidst the most exciting scenes that have been witnessed on the floor in this congress, and apparently out of all proportion to the importance and magnitude of the matters involved, but underneath the surface the feeling was prevalent that the influence of the vote would be far-reaching in the approaching political contest. After a time the republicans came together upon a motion by Mr. Grosvenor, rep., O., to reconsider the vote, and that was done. Then the bill was recommitted to the committee on appropriations with instructions to revise the schedule of appropriations for charities. Before that motion was adopted Mr. Crisp, dem., Ga., sarcastically congratulated the republican majority upon its capacity and competency to do the public business, asserting that whatever might have been the shortcomings and failures of the democrats, upon which the speaker when on the floor had often reminded them, they had never got into such a state of imbecility that they could not frame and pass an ordinary appropriation bill.

TUCKER MURDER MYSTERY.

Coroner's Jury Recommends That Myers and Byrnes Be Held.

Yonkers, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Coroner Miles and a jury in the case of Mrs. Tucker, who was murdered in her home some days ago, have returned a verdict that Annie B. Tucker came to her death by strangulation caused by person or persons unknown and that sufficient evidence was adduced to warrant the holding of John F. Myers and Michael Byrnes to await the action of the grand jury. James Lillis, who has been held as a suspect, was released on $5,000 bail.

FIVE KILLED; THIRTY WOUNDED.

Soldiers Fire into a Mob of Tax Rioters at Sala.

Rome, Feb. 6.—News has reached here of a tax riot which occurred at Sala, Piedmont, yesterday, which assumed such serious proportions that the authorities were obliged to call upon the troops to restore order. The rioters refused to disperse when the troops reached the scene of the disturbance and the soldiers were ordered to fire upon the mob, which they did, killing five and wounding thirty.

Pennsylvania Democrats.

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—It is authoritatively stated here that chairman R. E. Wright of the democratic state central committee will be a candidate for re-election as chairman, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The annual meeting of the democratic state central committee will not be held until April 22.

Pigeon Shooting at Monte Carlo.

Monte Carlo, Feb. 6.—In the pigeon shooting here yesterday four rounds of the contest for the grand prix, in which there were 102 competitors, were finished. Dolan, the American competitor, missed three birds, Roberts missed two and Heygate and Barker one each.

New Bishop for Scranton, Pa., Diocese.

London, Feb. 6.—The Standard today publishes a dispatch from Rome announcing the appointment of Rev. Michael J. Hoban of Ashley, Luzerne county, Pa., as bishop of the diocese of Scranton.

Unsuccessful Hunt for Filibusters.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The cruiser Montgomery has left Charleston for Hampton Roads, after her unsuccessful hunt for the filibustering schooner Hawkins.

Deputy Inspectors of Gas Meters.

Albany, Feb. 6.—Joseph Stockmar of Buffalo and Joseph Pauly of Albany have been appointed deputy state inspectors of gas meters at $1,500 per annum.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot prices higher, checking trade. February, 74½c.; March, 75½c.; May, 73¼c.

Corn—Spot quiet but held firmly. February, 37c.; May, 36½c.

Oats—Spot firm with fair demand. February, 24½c.; March, 25¼c.; May, 25½c.

Pork—Spot firm; moderate demand. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $11.00@$11.25.

Lard—Contracts are slow but steady. May, $6.10.

Butter—Trading small and late figures barely sustained. Fancy marks at 19c. Creamery, state and Pennsylvania, seconds to best, 14@17c.; creamery, western, seconds to firsts, 14@17½c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, seconds to firsts, 12@15c.

Cheese—Fancy September is held firmly with demand good. State, full cream, large size, September colored, choice, 9a10¼c.; September white fancy, 9@10¼c.; large common to choice, 7¼@10c.

Eggs—There was rather more inquiry and the market closed with a better demand. Best western at 15c., and best southern at 14a14½c.

Potatoes—The demand for choice grades continues slow and the market weak. State Burbank, per 180 pounds, 65c.@80c., and state rose and Hebron, per 180 pounds, 85@$1.00c.

LOYAL TO ENGLAND

Canada Will Stand by the Home Government in Any Trouble.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT OTTAWA

To Cultivate Kindly Feeling Towards the United States, the Proper Object of the Dominion, But the British Throne's Interests First.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 6.—In the house of commons yesterday afternoon Mr. McNeil, government, moved a resolution, "That in view of the threatening aspect of foreign affairs this house desires to assure her majesty's government and the people of the United Kingdom of its unalterable loyalty and devotion to the British throne and the constitution, and that should the occasion unhappily arise, in no other part of the empire than the Dominion would more substantial sacrifices attest the determination of her majesty's subjects to maintain unimpaired the integrity and inviolate the honor of her majesty's government; and that house reiterates the oft-expressed desire of the people of Canada to maintain the most friendly relations with their kinsmen of the United States." Mr. McNeil said his object was to show the world that the British people were united and prepared to stand together in the common defense of honor and integrity of the empire. He incidentally referred to annexation, and said there was no room for such a sentiment in Canada. Mr. Davies, opposition, expressed thorough accord with the resolution. He believed that the recent Venezuelan and German troubles would result in England devising a scheme for more closely uniting the empire.

Favored a Peace Tribunal.

Sir Richard Cartwright, opposition, commended the resolution. He said Canada occupied one of the two positions, either as a hostage to the United States for the good behavior of England or as a bond of union between the two countries. The proper object of Canada was to cultivate kindly feeling towards the United States. He believed in Mr. Depew's scheme of a common tribunal for the settlement of difficulties between English-speaking nations. Mr. Foster, government leader, endorsed the resolution and said it would help to inform the United States as well as Great Britain how the people of Canada feel on the subject. Mr. Laurier, opposition leader, dilated upon the greatness of England and said he felt sure that all British subjects throughout the world, whatever their nationality, would if called upon give their aid for the defense of the empire. The resolution was carried unanimously amidst great applause.

"A Model Message."

London, Feb. 6.—The Daily News today, commenting upon the resolution unanimously adopted in the Canadian house of commons yesterday, expressing unalterable loyalty and devotion to the British throne, says that the judgment and sound political instinct shown by the resolution will be hardly less welcome to the recipients than the loyalty and affection which it manifests throughout. It is, the News adds, a model message.

DUNRAVEN SILENT.

Made No Reference to the Yacht Matter in a Speech at Glasgow.

Glasgow, Feb. 6.—A speech was made here by Lord Dunraven last evening in which his lordship dealt wholly with political subjects, making not the slightest reference to the findings of the New York Yacht club committee in regard to his charges against the Defender or to the course which he intended to pursue in relation thereto. The rumor that Dunraven intends to make a further statement in support of his charges of fraud in the late international yacht races and then resign from membership in the New York Yacht club, thus ignoring the almost unanimous voice of the British press to apologize for his hasty conduct, cannot be traced to any authentic source.

CONVICTED OF ARSON.

Townsend Guilty of Starting a Fire Which Cost a Life.

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 6.—At the superior criminal court yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of Benjamin F. Townsend, charged with burning the barn of George P. Calhoun at Rutland, Nov. 25, reported a verdict of guilty. Calhoun lost his life while attempting to rescue his cattle.

Death of Lady Jane Wilde.

London, Feb. 6.—Lady Jane Francesca Wilde, widow of Sir William Robert Wills Wilde, M. D., surgeon-oculist to her majesty in Ireland, and mother of Oscar Wilde, is dead. She was a woman of considerable literary taste and published a number of poems and translations. She also assisted her husband in a memoir of Beranger.

Sanctioned Her Husband's Murder.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 6.—It was clearly shown at the trial of the Hungarian Jemmitz, convicted yesterday of murder in the first degree for killing Yiesley in the Blackman mine, that the deed was sanctioned by the wife of the murdered man.

Respited by Gov. Hastings.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 6.—Gov. Hastings has respited Robert Mosby, the Washington county murderer, who was sentenced to be hanged on Feb. 20, until April 22, in order that his case may be presented to the board of pardons.

Fort Stanwix Bank Failure.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Comptroller Eckels has sent Bank Examiner Lynch to assist Bank Examiner Van Vranken in investigating the failed Fort Stanwix, N. Y., national bank.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

166 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 6, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Continued Rain Tonight; Friday Clearing and Generally Fair; Warmer Tonight; Friday Colder.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 42 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 7—Reception of American Social Club in Central Hall.
February 7—Borough Council meet.
February 8—Trip to Chinatown at Music Hall.

Uncle Sam's credit is pretty good after all.

For appearance sake the Legislature should at least make a pretense at work.

The minority of the Legislature is not such a nonenity as the Republicans imagined before the first of January.

Senator Voorhees is liable to get his party tangled up in a perplexed mess with anti-race legislation if he is not careful.

It is an admirable thing for Plainfield to be complete in municipal improvements and acquisitions, but the Common Council needs to proceed carefully. The tax rate should not go any higher.

It makes but little difference to the people who was instrumental in getting the advantageous terms for the government in the issuing of bonds. This time there is no opportunity for cries of fraud or oppression.

Among those who were bitterly opposing John Kean only recently there is now a disposition to favor his election as a delegate-at-large to St. Louis. This is especially true of the friends of Senator Foster M. Voorhees, says the New York Tribune this morning.

A total of 186 bills have been introduced into the Legislature during the four weeks they have been in session and just one of them has been passed and become a law. In the Senate four bills have been passed. A number of important bills lay dormant in the committees of the Senate, because, it is claimed, they were introduced by Democrats. This is a record that the reform Legislature ought to be ashamed of.

The Daily Press has nothing to lose or fear in the display of the lack of harmony in the Common Council Monday evening, as insinuated by the News Tuesday. The Press approves or criticises such acts and proceedings as it believes the interests of the city or justice requires, and does so with no further expectation of reward than the confidence and respect of the people. The editor of the News aspires to be a political dictator, and no doubt a candidate for political honors if the leaders of his party will ever consent to take him seriously, and is therefore unable to fairly discuss any question of public interest without being prejudiced by his own individual considerations.

Library Statistics.

The librarian's report for January is as follows:

Vols. on accession-book Dec. 31st, 1895	13,553
" added by purchase	30
" " gift	20
Vols now in library	13,603
Number of card-holders	3,870
Cash received from subs. of non-resid's	$2.00
" " " sale of catalogues	1.00

HOME CIRCULATION.

Fiction	1,443
Juvenile	395
Biography	184
Travel	230
Philosophy	5
Religion	20
Sociology	50
Philology	7
Natural Science	64
Useful Arts	15
Fine Arts	53
Literature	208
History	226
General works	16
Total	2,916
Total for Dec., 1894	2,882
Increase	34

Visitors to building—3,595.
Gifts during the month—
Jan. 2. From Census office (through Congressman Fowler), Eleven volumes of 11th census reports.
Jan. 16. From Smithsonian Inst., Annual report and proceedings of Natl. Museum. 2 v. (Mr. Fowler.)
Jan. 17. From Passaic Public Library, catalogue.
Jan. 17. State of N. J., Report for 1894.
Jan. 25. From U. S. Geol. Survey, 9th and 10th reports, 3 v. (Mr. Fowler.)
Jan. 25. From U. S. Dept. of Agric., report to 54th Congress.

EMMA L. ADAMS, Librarian.

They Suspect the Witness.

In the trial of Nicholas Orchetta, at Elizabeth, on a charge of murder, an Italian witness, known as No. 35 among his associates, took the stand and swore he saw the prisoner stab the man to the heart. The witness was subjected to a cross-examination. He denied that he shot a man in Italy or drew a stiletto on a man in James street, New York. The defense will try to prove this witness was the assassin.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. J. Edgar Corlies is issuing cards for Thursdays until March.

Harry Coddington, of Somerset street, is out again after a short illness.

Mrs. Carpenter, of Dunellen, spent yesterday in Plainfield with relatives.

Mrs. S. P. T. Wilbur, of East Third street, is confined to her home by illness.

W. F. Bartlett, of West Front street, is able to be about again after a week's illness.

Robert Armstrong, of West Fourth street, is confined to the house with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Coombs, of West Third street, are the parents of a little girl.

Miss Bessie Cushing, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Plainfield friends for a few days.

Miss Talmadge, of Belvidere avenue, is rapidly convalescing from her long illness.

Mrs. Rue, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Day, of Rockview avenue.

Frederick Zerega, of Watchung avenue, has just returned from a six-weeks trip in the west.

Miss Jennie Simpson and her cousin, Miss Suzella Howitt, spent yesterday with friends in Newark.

L. E. Cole, of Duer street, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Cadmus, of Brooklyn.

The Misses Altemus, of Clinton, N. J., who have been visiting Miss Lewis, of Grove street, returned home today.

Charles E. Vail, of Orchard place, is still kept at home by illness, and there is very little change in his condition.

Rev. Dr. Moore, father of Mrs. Cruikshank, of Belvidere avenue, left yesterday for a trip through the west.

Miss Stowell is seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of her niece, Mrs. James L. Anthony, of Putnam avenue.

W. E. Nuss, of the Spencer Optical Manufacturing Company, of New York, was the guest of Asa Collier yesterday.

Miss May Bunting, of Stelton, who has been visiting her uncle, Thomas Brantingham, of South Plainfield, has returned home.

Mrs. Alexander Gilbert, of West Eighth street, will give a progressive euchre party, Thursday afternoon, February 13th.

Mrs. Isaac Taynor, of East Third street, had a severe stroke of paralysis Tuesday evening, and she is in a very critical condition.

The condition of Mrs. John Manchester, of Lafayette place, is not much improved. Her illness is not considered serious, however.

Miss May Coyne, of Jersey City, who has many friends in this city, will be married Wednesday, February 12th, to John Lindsey, also of Jersey City.

Miss French, daughter of John H. French, of West Seventh street, has gone to Morristown to be present at the marriage of one of her schoolmates.

Clifford McGee, of Orchard place, Washington Park, who is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company, has taken up his residence at Bayonne in order to be nearer his work.

Miss Grace Yerkes, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Yerkes, of West Seventh street, has gone with friends to Greenville, South Carolina, for a short stay with her sister, Mrs. William Flanders.

H. Alfred Streuli and Mr. and Mrs. Evarts Tracy have issued cards for a reception, Tuesday, February 11th, from 8 until 11 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. H. Streuli.

Wm. Newcorn, J. R. Newman and D. C. Allen, of Miantonomoh Tribe, No. 118, I. O. R. M., attended the district meeting held at Pamrapo last evening, and received the Past Sachem's degree.

A FEAST FOR ENDEAVORERS.

Big Arrangements Being Made for the State Convention in October.

The press bulletin of the New Jersey Christian Endeavor State committee, issued this week, has the following about the State convention to be held in this city next October:

The committee having the arrangement of the programme for the next State convention have held a number of meetings. The important places have been filled, as far as possible. The Plainfield committee of arrangements instructed the programme committee to secure the best speakers possible. Accordingly, the Endeavorers of the State are to have a feast of good things next fall at their convention at Plainfield, such as they have never had before. The chairman of the committee, Rev. Cornelius Brett, D. D., authorizes the publication at this time of two of the speakers of the convention. Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage has consented to speak on Wednesday evening, and Rev. B. Fay Mills will give an address on the following morning. The latter is to commence meetings in Plainfield the Sunday previous to the convention and continue throughout the week, afternoon and evening, in the churches and in the rink. Thus there will be each afternoon and evening the convention proper, and Mr. Mills' meeting as well.

To Repeat the Cantata.

The ladies chorus of the Choral Society will repeat the cantata, "The Lady of Chilotte" at Vincent chapel on February 25th.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels, act easily, yet promptly and efficiently.

—Rev. James Boddy, of Elizabeth, will preach at Bethel chapel Sunday evening at 8.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 7, Knights of Pythias, will meet tomorrow evening.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., will hold their regular meeting Friday evening.

—Noah Dove Encampment, No. 28, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening in regular session.

—A new grocery store is being erected at Oak Tree. The framework is already set up.

—Do you have headaches, and wish to be relieved? Give "Pura Blood" a trial, and be cured.

—Two possums were on exhibition in front of the Delmonico Oyster and Chop House yesterday.

—Goodwill Lodge, No. 101, Knights of Pythias, of Scotch Plains, will hold a regular meeting tonight.

—Somerset Council, J. O. U. A. M., will transact important business at their meeting Friday evening.

—Edward White is preparing a grand housefurnishing sale at prices never before heard of in Plainfield.

—It is reported that the Sterling Wheel Co. expect to establish an agency in this city at an early date.

—The wet goods will be offered for sale at the Commercial Palace next Friday morning. See ad in today's Press.

—An excellent programme has been prepared by those in charge of the social to be held at Grace M. E. church tomorrow evening.

—A regular meeting of Crescent Commandery, No. 13, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, will be held next Wednesday evening.

—A number of Plainfield society people will attend the dance given by the Fanwood Four-in-hand Club next Wednesday evening.

—William Gray, of 311 East Fourth street, has received word that his Nun pigeon has gained first prize at Madison Square Garden in New York.

—The Woman's Relief Corps will hold an important meeting tomorrow evening, when arrangements for the New England supper will be completed.

—At the meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., next Tuesday evening one recruit wil be mustered and other important business will be transacted.

There was no meeting of the Official Board of the First M. E. church last evening as the stormy weather prevented a quorum from being present.

—Wonderful are the cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla and yet it is only because Hood's Sarsaparilla the one true blood purifier, makes pure, rich, healthy blood.

—The Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Detroit, have recently established themselves in New Jersey. Their office in this city is in the Babcock building.

—There will be no prayer meeting at the Seventh Day Baptist church tomorrow, Friday evening, because of the special Christian Endeavor service at the union meeting.

—At the meeting of Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, held last evening, two propositions were received and one candidate initiated. The members decided to hold a masquerade ball at an early date.

—County Physician O'Reilly, assisted by Drs. Mravlag and Keith, of Elizabeth, performed the autopsy yesterday afternoon in the case of John Vanderveer, the colored man who died at the hospital from the effects of a recent assault.

—The Ariel is the name of the Central Railroad's new directors' car, just delivered by the Pullman Compny. It is up to date in all its appointments and one of the handsomest of its kind ever built or used by any company in this country.

—About fifteen laborers employed in Louis Nixon's shipyard, Elibabethport, went out on strike Tuesday for higher wages. The men were getting $1 08 for nine hours' work, or 12 cents an hour. They demanded 15 cents an hour and when they were refused this they quit work.

Worried,

tired — overworked — sleeplessness — gloomy — nervous. Nervous prostration? No — Dyspepsia Indigestion. Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills cure this sort of nervous prostration, and is almost the only medicine that will.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills.

A sample will be mailed free for the asking. For sale at druggists', 25c. White wrapper if constipated, yellow if bowels are loose.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston, N. Y.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

A STRANGE THING.

This is Apparently an Absurd Conundrum.

But is It, After All, So Very Absurd Upon Consideration.

There May Be Two Sides Even to a Fool Question.

At a recent meeting of medical experts, the apparently absurd question was propounded:

Which has the better chance of life, a sick or a well person?

At first it looked ridiculous, but after earnest discussion it was unanimously decided that an ordinary sick man had a better chance to live than the well man.

Why?

Few people are dangerously sick; the majority of sick are those who are slightly out of health, run down, out of order, exhausted in nerve and physical power from overwork, dissipation or other cause. For every dangerously sick person there are ninety-nine whose cases can be easily and readily cured.

In that lies the reason.

The ninety-nine who are slightly sick, who have some weakness or are out of order, know of their weakness and debility and have the sense to take care of themselves and seek an immediate cure.

Of one hundred well persons, the majority are careless, depending too much upon their good health, until by exposure, overwork or dissipation, some weakness or disease is developed which may carry them off quickly.

So it is that the ninety-nine careful sick people have a better chance of living than the one hundred careless well persons.

The first thing a sick person decides is to get well. Naturally, also, such a person desires the best and quickest means of cure and common sense dictates the use of such a valuable and reputable medicine as Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Every sufferer knows from the experience of thousand upon thousands of others, whose testimonials of cure are continually appearing in every paper, that this well known and proven restorative is the surest and most positive cure—that the very name of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is a synonym for power, vigor and strength, and that its use will certainly make the sick well and give to the weak, nervous and debilitated all their old time health, energy, spirits and ambition.

Mrs. A. P. Prescott, of Swiftwater, N. H., says:

"My husband has been very sick and was confined to his bed for five months, and all that time I took care of him night and day, and gave him all his medicine. During his long sickness, I became almost worn out and fell into a state of nervousness. I got so that I could not sleep, and when I lay down my limbs would twitch and I had an awful pain in the back of my head so that I was obliged to get up in the night and put mustard poulticed on the spot to relieve it.

"I think if I had not found relief I should have been insane. But I did get relief in Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I saw it advertised and heard of it through my friends, and I got three bottles and was completely relieved, so that I slept well and ate well.

'I certainly think I never should have kept up if it had not been for Dr. Greene's Nervura, and I can truly say that it is a wonderfully good medicine and recommend it to all. I attribute my present good health and my being able to go through what I have, to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

Understand that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is a physician's prescription, the discovery of that most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

SPRING SEASON AT PECK'S.

Grand Display

Wash Fabrics and Embroideries.

Exhibition Now Open.

THE DALZIEL

ART SCHOOL,

309 East Front St.,

Is An Established Success.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique—Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at THE WOMEN'S SCHOOL OF DESIGN, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

THE WET GOODS

The loss on the goods damaged by water caused by the bursting of the automatic sprinkler in the show window of Edsall's Commercial Palace has been adjusted and the goods will be offered for sale on Friday Morning, February 7th.

There is not a very large lot of them and they were but slightly wet with clean water, and damaged but very little. They are marked, however, at a very low price in order to turn them into quick cash.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

There are a dozen or fifteen handsome plush capes, elegantly trimmed with fur and silk lined; the original price was $25 to $35. They will go for about $9 to $11.

Some silk waists that sold for $9.75. The will go from $4.50 to $5.

Some extra fine separate Skirts that sold for $8.39 and up. They will go for about $5, and some as low as $1.98.

There is quite a lot of Ladies Muslin Underwear, Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset Covers and Drawers. Of course the mere wetting of these with clean water has not damaged them for use at all, but they will go at less than half price.

There are about seventy-five to one hundred fine Corsets sold from 75cts., to $1.50. They will go at 35cts. each.

Now, of course you understand that the quantity of these wet goods are limited. They cannot be duplicated and in order to prevent any one from being disappointed who may not be fortunate to secure some of the wet goods bargains, we have spent considerable time in the market picking up big bargains of various kinds to put in this sale, so as to make the occasion worthy of a large attendance. So come along with the crowd. There will be some very telling bargains on both floors of our immense store.

China Department.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

One lot fine China Cuspidores, finely decorated, floral designs. Sold at 29cts. readily. This sale only 21cts.

One lot fine China bedroom Lamps, handsomely decorated in colors and gold. Were good sellers at 97c. This sale only 69c.

One lot Library Lamps, various styles and prices. To reduce the stock, your choice for $1.09. They sold for much higher prices.

We also offer at this sale some rare bargains in a lot of Banquet Lamps. Space is too short to give details. Come in and see them. They talk for themselves.

A very telling bargain in a lot of beautiful glass fruit dishes. In appearance resembling cut glass, very handsome designs. The price is for this sale only 13cts.

Something very pretty in crystal glass Rose Bowls, looks like cut glass. They go at only 10cts.

Carpet Department.

One lot Samples of fine Velvet and Moquette Carpets, 1½ yards long, finished ends. Choice for 99cts.

One lot of all-wool Art Squares, 2½ by 3 yards. For this sale only $4.79.

One lot of best Tapestry Brussels Carpets, 6 different patterns. This sale only 53cts.

Grocery Department.

Potted Ham, can	10c	Extra Can Pears	11c
" Tongue	10c	Fine Silver Prunes	12c
Ox Tongue, 1½ pound can	45c	Condensed Milk	7c. up
Clam Chowder, box	10c	String Beans, can	6c
Smoked Halibut, "	10c	Soap	2½c
Mustard Sardines	8c	Dried Beans	3c
Boston Baked Beans	10c	Lard	6 & 10c
14 Can Fine Tomatoes	98c	Butter, good	20c
14 Can Sugar Corn	98c	Glass of Mustard	10c
Fine Early June and Mar. Peas 8c. up		Pint Jar Mustard	20c

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	19	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	18	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	17
Cranford	837	6	22

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
Cranford C. C.	4	5	1557
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

The Plainfield Y. M. C. A. five-men team will again meet the Westfield Y. M. C. A. week after next. The date has not yet been definitely decided upon. The games will be rolled at Westfield.

A game has been arranged between ten-men teams from the Plainfield and the New Brunswick Y. M. C. A's, for Tuesday, February 11th, on the Y. M. C. A. alleys in this city. The Plainfield team will consist of E. Laing, Geo. Snediker, M. Sutphen, C. Sutphen, A. Lederer, R. Carroll, W. Long, Geo. Smith, C. P. Sutphen and T. U. Smith.

In the Diocesan League, Tuesday night, the Y. M. C. L. A., of Elizabeth, downed the Orange Valley bowlers, and stepped up to second place while the Orange Valleys went down to third. The game was rolled at Elizabeth, and the scores were:

Y. M. C. L. A.		ORANGE VALLEYS
Collins	130	Cullen	166
McCabe, T.	156	Brennan, John	123
Cook	178	Kennedy	98
Kelly	160	O'Connell	123
Campbell	146	Brennan, Joseph	173
McCabe, W.	163	Kolb	166
Brennan	127	Finneran	159
Clogher	144	Walsh	118
Sauer, C.	179	Slattery	135
Nolte	229	Hassett	125
	1612		1386

The Crescent Wheelmen now have to divide the honors of first place in the Central Journal League with the Elizabeth Athletic Club, who, until lately have been bringing up the rear of the procession. But then Elizabeth is noted for doing unexpected things. She did another of her remarkable feats Tuesday evening when she defeated the Cranford Country Club by 226 pins. The record for the A. A. C. alleys was knocked all in a heap for the home team made the remarkable score of 1789 In the last five frames they only made eight breaks. But the individual score will show the great bowling:

E. A. C.		C. C. C.
Karr	205	Page	150
Ahearn	159	Voorhis	129
Vanderveer	169	Heleker	141
Faulks	174	Royce	142
Cook, H.	175	Gudebrod	140
Kline	173	Rogers	194
Wells	181	Wood	157
Chamberlain	175	Lawrence	160
Ogden	163	Porcella	174
Howard	215	Sharp	175
	1789		1563

BY FRAMES:

E. A. C....168 340 509 678 846 999 1173 1399 0605 1789
C. C. C....165 342 512 664 835 963 1089 0257 142- 1563

CYCLING COMMENT.

Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, is the latest convert to the wheel. He purchased a No. 22 Cleveland Swell Special of the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company, yesterday.

Those who attended the New York Cycle Show will perhaps remember an exhibit in the right hand gallery that attracted considerable attention. It was a wheel which was worked by levers, but not like former styles. It is so adjusted that, it is claimed, a very high gear can be used without any more exertion than a smaller one. Charles Randolph and George Gould have taken the Plainfield agency for this wheel and expect to introduce it here.

WITH ROD AND GUN.

A meeting of the Sportsmen's Game and Fish Protective and Propogative Society, will be held tomorrow evening at the office of Percy C. Ohl in the Babcock building.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be curred by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.
West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

PUNTS AND KICKS.

A meeting of the Football Association of the Y. M. C. A. will be held next Monday evening to discuss the question of an indoor athletic meet. All interested in the movement are invited to be present.

A number of replies have already been received by the committee from the High School in answer to the invitation to join the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association. The meeting of the invited delegates will be held Saturday.

BASKET BALL.

A basket ball game has been scheduled between the local Y. M. C. A. team and the Orange Y. M. C. A. team for the latter part of this month. It will probably be played here.

HARRY J. SARGEANT DEAD.

A Well-Known Theatrical Manager Ends His Career in Poverty.

Word was received in New York city yesterday that Henry J. Sargeant, formerly a prominent theatrical manager, had died in Leeds, England, in one of the city institutions for the poor.

H. J. Sargent was well-known in this country. He lived on Arlington avenue, opposite the city park, in this city for two years and was well-known by many people here. He first came into prominence in theatrical circles as the manager of Mme. Modjeska on her first tour of this country.

He was always conspicuous in his attire, and acquired the soubriquet of "Scarfpin Harry" from the fact that he had a collection of 150 scarfpins.

Mr. Sargent was a veteran of the late war.

FISKS IN A BIG DEAL.

The Plainfielders Are One of the Members of Morgan's Syndicate.

The Sun says this morning with reference to the issuing of Government bonds:

The great feature of the bond bidding was the offer of J. P. Morgan's syndicate, which, as now composed, includes only his own banking house, the Deutsche Bank of Berlin, Germany, the National City Bank and Harvey Fisk & Sons of New York. They proposed to take the entire issue at 110.8877. Only one other bid approaching it in amount was received. Pierpont Morgan, after figuring on the bids received, said tonight that he estimated that about 60 per cent of the $100,000,000 would be awarded him. He reached this conclusion simply from hearing the various bids read, as he did not think that more than $40,000,000 bids above that figure had been made.

Dunellen.

P. Cole and family have moved to Bound Brook.

Mrs. Dickason, who has been visiting friends in Brooklyn, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, of Nyack, N. Y., are visiting relatives on Front street.

Mrs. S. Richardson has taken charge of a Sunday-school class in the Methodist church.

Elder Huffman will still continue the revival services in town, as there is much good being done.

Mrs. J. Case, of Greenbrook, has been entertaining her daughter; Mrs. John Hall, of Bound Brook.

Howard Giles will move his hardware store this week to the store formerly occupied by F. H. Gise.

Mr. Mitchell, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lisbon Pierson, of New Market, has returned home to New York.

The Epworth League will be entertained by the members of the Junior League this evening at the parsonage.

Mrs. Harry Hull, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Slape, of North avenue, has returned home to Sing Sing, N. Y.

Revival meetings are being held every afternoon this week at 2:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church, by Elder Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Perrine, of New Market, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends over the arrival of two little girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Emery entertained at their residence, Wednesday evening, a number of their friends. Games and many other enjoyments were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served about midnight.

—A large limb of a tree standing near Swain's art store on East Front street was broken off by the heavy wind this morning. It struck a supporting wire running between two electric light poles, almost breaking it. Several awning and signs about town suffered considerably from the wind. The business men could be found in their stores, but very little in the way of business was done.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

THEATRICAL.

Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown," under the management of Messrs. Hoyt & McKee, will be at Music Hall, Saturday evening, February 8th, and it will be a notable engagement, not only because the town commences to grin whenever a Hoyt production is announced, but with the present coming of this author's most successful play, it is to be interpreted by the original New York company that presented it for 653 consecutive nights at Hoyt's Theatre, New York. Previous to the unprecedented run of "A Trip to Chinatown" the "Black Crook" had been given 476 times, "Hazel Kirke" 486 times, and "Humpty Dumpty" for 483 performances; "Adonis" held the record with a run of 603 nights at the Bijou Theatre, until this great farce comedy eclipsed all previous holdings, and placed for itself a mark which will probably not again be approached unless by another of Mr. Hoyt's own productions.

As the Barnum show is the peer of all on the tented-field; as Mr. Daly leads in the presentation of high-class comedy, and Charles Frohman with society drama, so James R. Waite stands at the head of producers of popular theatricals at popular prices. A graduate of the educational stock days, Mr. Waite has continued his study of the public's wants and has achieved a substantial success that cannot be argued against. He gives the public what they want—bright, clean comedy, clever specialties and fine music at a cost that is trifling. He has two companies this season and the demand for them among managers is so great that even two additional companies could not fill the time offered. The Waite Company, with their superb band and orchestra and first-class company, come to Music Hall on Monday evening for an engagement of one week. There will be daily matinees commencing Tuesday at which the admission is a mere trifle. In the evening the rates are 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Chamber Music Concert,

—AT—

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

MRS. HALL'S ENTERTAINMENTS

FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

at 3 o'clock.

February 7—MRS. LAURA E. RICHARDS. Readings from Captain January, Jim of Hellas, etc.
February 21—REV. W. HUDSON SHAW, M. A., of Oxford University, England, lecture on VENICE.
March 6—MRS. FLORENCE HOWE HALL, lecture on General Francis Marion and the Hugenots of South Carolina.

Tickets, Course, $2. Single $1.

May be obtained at Mr. Estil's Bookstore and at the drug stores. 2 4 3

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Saenger and Turnverein will be held this evening.

—Paugh-Caugh-Naugh-Singue tribe I. O. R. M., met last evening and worked the adopted and warriors degrees.

—A most excellent meeting of Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., was held last evening. After the transaction of routine business the members had a pleasant time in the good of the order. The attendance was very good.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh, and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

Valentines

—IN—

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,
140 West Front street.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

WANTED—A young girl to assist with general housework. Apply 107 LaGrande avenue.

WANTED—By a young woman, a position as chambermaid and waitress, or nurse. Call between 1 and 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon at 307 Franklin place.

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

FOR SALE—A cutter in first-class condition, with shafts. Can be seen at 47 Washington ave. 2 4 5

WANTED—To rent, small house with stable; low rent. Address C., care Press.

WANTED—Two white girls, one as cook, other as chambermaid and waitress. Apply 120 West 7th st., corner Central ave. 2 5 2

GIRL wanted (white) under 30 years old, for general housework; family of two. Address S., care Press. 2 4 3

$50 WEBER square piano for sale. Inquire at 123 West 7th street. 2 3 6

WANTED—Situation as gardener by experienced man: best of city references. Address G. M., P. O. Box 383, city. 2 3 6

FOR RENT—1016 Putnam ave., corner Carlton ave., pleasant commodious house; all improvements and in good order; large lot; immediate possession; rent to begin April first. H. L. Moodey, 603 Watchung ave. 1 30 6

TO LET—Brick barn, 216 West 2d st; stalls for 2 horses and wagon shed. Inquire Wm. C. Ayers, 203 West 2d st. 1 27 tf

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Nothing

Like being well posted and knowing just where to place your money where it will bring the best results. To look around our store at the goods and prices you would almost think they grew and it cost nothing to grow them, the prices are so small.

SUCH AS THESE.

MUSLINS.

7c for Fruit, Dwight Anchor and Lonsdale Muslins, 7c; 8x4 bleached sheeting 14c; 9x4 do 16c; 10x4 do 19c; 8x4 brown sheeting 13c; 9x4 do 14c; 10x4 do 16c.

DRESS GOODS.

14c for 36 inch fancies, 18c for all-wool mixtures, 54 inch all-wool mixtures 27c; 54 inch all-wool checks 37c; 45 inch all-wool serges 31c; 54 inch imperial black serge 50c.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

The making costs you nothing it's only the price of material that you pay for. 23c for fine corset covers; 43c for fine embroidered night robes, 55c for fine embroidered skirts. It will take no search light to find

Bargains at Every Turn.

25c for men's white wool shirts, 25c for men's colored wool shirts, 50c for men's all-wool scarlet shirts, 69c for do, double breasted shirts, 10c for men's seamless socks, 3 pair for 25c, 15c for children's fine Lisle thread hose, 47c for men's unlaundered shirts, usual price 75c, 75c for ladies' chamois gloves all colors and one of the best made for service, 75c for a corset that is equal to any $1 corset made, $2.48 for roll of 20 yards of fine matting, 39c for Jap rugs size 18x36, 25 winter coats for ladies to go for 98c each, 13c for the best Turkish towel made, worth 25c.

Housefurnishing Department.

JUST FOR FUN—Pleasure goes with business here. Prices make it pleasant to sell goods. Therefore the following prices tell the story, and a glance through our enlarged department will convince you. Enough said.

23c each 100 japanned bread boxes, No. 1 size, made out of good quality tin, for this sale only. They won't last long at the price—23c each. 23c each

59c each Copper bottom wash boilers No. 7 size, good quality tin and 14 oz. rolled copper bottom. For this sale at 59c. 59c each

5c each 500 papier mache table mats will stand the heat, neatly decorated, choice of all sizes, small, medium or large, worth 15c. To close at 5c each. 5c each

15c pair Stove mitten and dauber, the best, does away with a brush, just the thing for bicycle use, can be used for all kinds of polishing and cleaning. The pair for 15c. 15c pair

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

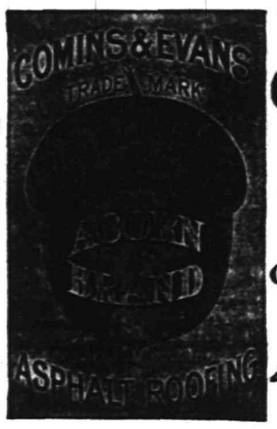
Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st



Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS.

Acorn Brand Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE. BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

THE TOOTH OF TIME.

In a Country Like Ours It Works Great Changes.

Some Things It Destroys, Others It Shapes and Grinds Into Beautiful Forms—The Village of Hamburg and the Nation's Capital.

Special Washington Letter.

There is a popular quotation that "time makes all things even," but, as a matter of fact, in some directions at least, it may be said that time makes many things uneven. The streams, forests, plains, mountains and coasts of the new world have been changed by time and altered by man until they bear no semblance of their original condition in many places. Progress and improvement have turned things topsy turvy. One of the handsomest eminences in the world, overlooking a river of splendid proportions and remarkable meanderings through a country of boundless fertility and beauty, was formerly the home of the proud and peerless Analostan Indians, and from its heights the front ranks of the invading Susquehannas were driven in defeat when they undertook the conquest of the south. The hill remains where it was reared by omnipotence, but it is no longer the thing of grandeur and beauty which nature created. For many years the naval observatory was located there, and therefore it retains and will ever retain the name of Observatory hill, although the original owners called it Analostan castle in a guttural tongue which is now extinct.

ALL THAT IS LEFT OF HAMBURG.

Long before the most poetic dreamer of state craft or prognosticator of the future of the new world conceived the idea of an independent republic, and many years before George Washington had selected the site of the capital city of the new nation which grew from the point of his puissant sword, a little village of Indian traders was located on the river front below Analostan castle. It was called Hamburg, and was at the headwaters of the "Powtowmack river." It was at this point that Gen. Braddock landed his troops, and upon this hill that he organized his forces for that disastrous march towards Fort DuQuesne, where Pittsburgh, Pa., is now located. Braddock and the majority of his men fell before the allied French and Indians; and Col. George Washington saved the little remnant of the misguided and unfortunate expedition. The so-called "western frontier" has gradually moved towards the setting sun since that day, until at last there is no western frontier; and the war department has recognized that fact by recently abolishing many of the forts and barracks in the western section of our country.

One of the earliest settlers upon the ground which is now the national capital was Fleet, an English fur trader, who grew very rich out of his traffic with the Analostans and other Indian tribes. He kept a journal, or diary, and it contains the first description of the virgin state of the wonderful and beautiful city of Washington. Fleet wrote: "Monday, June 25, 1731. This place, without all question, is the most pleasant and healthful place in all the country, and most convenient for habitation. The 27th of June I manned my shaflop. We had not rowed above three miles, but we might hear the falls to roar about six miles distant. The Indians occupying this territory in the delta of the two rivers were called Nacostines or Anocostians. The river aboundeth with all manner of fish. The Indians in one night commonly will catch 30 sturgeon in a place where the river is not above 12 fathoms broad. And as for deer, buffaloes, bears, turkeys, the woods do swarm with them."

One mile from Analostan castle was a little stream which also abounded with fish. It was called Goose creek by the people who came here during the century following the advent of Fleet. And when the capital city was located here it was given the name of Tiber, in memory of the river of ancient Rome. Thomas Moore, in sarcasm wrote of it: "What was Goose creek once, is Tiber now." Gottlieb Grammer, an early settler, wrote that "the valley of Goose creek has for innumerable years been periodically visited by the Indians, who called it their fishing ground, and they assembled there in great numbers in the spring months to procure fish. A point, now called Greenleaf's Point, was the principal camp and the residence of their chiefs, where councils were held among the various tribes thus gathered there."

There is to-day nothing left of the ancient hamlet of Hamburg but two brick chimneys, standing near the river front, like sentinels of the past, helplessly watching the growth of a city and the destruction of the land marks which were once dear to the rich trader who dwelt in his palatial mansion, and exchanged cheap beads, gaudy ribbons and deadly whisky for the products of the chase which the simple people of the land brought to him. In those days the furs which were sent to Europe from America brought almost fabulous sums; and the wealthy ladies of the courts of the world wore beaver, coon, opossum and muskrat furs. They came high, but they had to have them, just as the modern daughters of Eve must have the fur of the seal, even though the extermination of that Arctic beauty must surely follow the extinction of the buffalo of the plains. The big brick chimneys are crumbling. The river front is not a fashionable section, and the wharves of commerce are nearly a mile lower down the river, near the arsenal. The land is, however, held at exorbitant figures.

Out in the middle of the Potomac river, during the past century, alluvial accretions formed an island, which was submerged at low tide. Grasses, weed and tiny trees grew upon it, and sportsmen found rich harvests of pleasure and profit in quest of the reed birds, ducks and geese which make the place their fall and winter dwelling place. Ten years ago the engineers of the war department, making use of liberal congressional appropriations, began what was called the "reclamation of the Potomac flats." With scows and dredges they scooped the alluvial deposits and concentered them. They surrounded them with stone walls, and filled them with earth taken from various points in the city where building operations were going on. Today the old Potomac flats are almost forgotten and in their place is an artificial island about a mile in length, and nearly half a mile wide. It is covered with trees of many varieties, and skilled landscape gardeners are transforming it into a park and pleasure drive which bids fair to become justly celebrated for picturesqueness and beauty.

When the great civil engineer, Maj. L'Enfant, prepared the plan upon which the capital city was built, and out of which it has already grown far beyond the expectation or imagination of the designer, the village of Hamburg still existed. The people there complained bitterly that 20th street should run right through their hamlet, regardless of their property rights. They expected a London or a Paris to immediately grow upon them, and were indignant with the engineer who prepared the plans. They protested against their approval. But they have long since been gathered unto their fathers, and the village of Hamburg is almost a faded reminiscence. Their rights were never disturbed, and they lived to the ends of their days upon the lands which they had acquired by priority of settlement. Their heirs moved into the more popular portions of the new city, and their property is now, by purchase and sale, in the hands of men and women whose grandfathers were then unborn. They could not dip into the future and see all the wonders which should grow around their pristine habitation. They never saw the Potomac flats, nor heard the hills resound with the whistles of palatial steamers plying the placid stream on which their shallops floated. I have often imagined how the man whom Pocahontas saved would rub his eyes and pinch himself to realize that he was the same John Smith, if he could row his heavy boat up the Potomac from Norfolk to-day and gaze upon the transformation scene.

ON GOOSE CREEK.

But Analostan castle is no longer known by that name, and Observatory hill is no longer the place where scientists study the heavens and wield the ponderous telescope. The entire plant of the naval observatory has been transferred to the heights back of old Georgetown, that former suburb of Washington, which is now a very important part of the city proper; that wonderful elevation which the original lord of the domain called the "Rock of Dumbarton;" for that splendid and vast elevated acreage was originally granted to a Scotchman named Ninian Beall, who came here from the vicinity of the medieval Dumbarton castle, which is celebrated in the interesting fiction of the "Scottish Chiefs," by Jane Porter. Everything has changed and is constantly changing, so that the student of current local history is involuntarily reminded of the saying of the Apostle Paul: "Old things have passed away. Behold! All things have become new."

Twenty years ago the eminence beyond the street called the Boundary was farming land, and a little village called Mount Pleasant was just being formed. Fifteen years ago that eminence called Kalorama heights was purchased by a syndicate and laid out in town lots. Ten years ago the horse cars on 14th street were started up the hill. Five years ago a cable line was begun. And now there are 10,000 people in Mount Pleasant, while 15,000 more have settled along the heights from Seventh to 25th street. The old Boundary is called Florida avenue, and circuits the northern part of the city with a beautiful boulevard. he visitor of 20 years ago would search in vain for the farmhouses and stumps along the country road. All have passed away. Time works wonders in this progressive age. The city is extended out into the country, and the Boundary will soon be near the long-neglected grave of L'Enfant, the designer of the city which has grown so great within a generation.

SMITH D. FRY.

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering.

Men's seamless half hose.....10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy.....2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black.....2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose.....10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes.....15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee.....18c
Large white cotton towels, only.....10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for.....$1.00

Spring Embroideries

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.
Established 1869.

Creamery Butter
20c Per Pound at
J. F. MACDONALD'S
Uptown Grocery.

Will Remove
IN MARCH TO
JACKSON BUILDING
And Are Now Selling
At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

GOOD CLOTHING
Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our clothing. It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits

have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits

for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,
850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS
Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.——made "The Rochester" Lamp.
EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.
Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.
☞ For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.
FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,
177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE
Jersey Poultry
AT LOWEST PRICES.
Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks
Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.
Great Reduction
in price of all kinds of
MEAT
Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.
A. G. Vogeler.
131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.
Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,
125 Park Ave.
E. P. THORN
solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality
Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c
TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE
Bee Hive
Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.
Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.
Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.
Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL,
Plainfield, N. J.
Corner Park avenue and Second street.
J. E. Beerbower, Prop.
Stables attached

Eagle Meat Market,
35 Somerset Street.
Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.
C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patrick	McIntyre C E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Ladie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?
Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at
W. R. BROKAW'S
Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.
Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.
MRS. L. ADAMS,
114 EAST FRONT STREET,
Opp. First National Bank.
Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,
DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF
FRESH FISH.
Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.
230 Park ave., ooo. North ave
Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 30

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 48, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 39*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m. 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,
EXCAVATORS.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced managgt.
——Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made
Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.
PLUMBING TESTED.
A. M. GRIFFEN,
119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR Women and Girls
IN
Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.
Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.
will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son.
Superior quality of
LEHIGH COAL.
No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.
Yard and office, 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. 1113m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Wooliston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

THE ONLY

Agency for

Huyler's

IN PLAINFIELD

—IS AT—

LEGGETT'S PHARMACY,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Huyler's Prices.

Open day and night.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

No. 2243.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

DIVIDEND NO. 38.

The Board of Directors have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent (4 per cent) on the capital stock of this bank, out of the earnings of the past 6 months, payable on and after Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1896.

WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29, 1896. 1 29 3-2 1 3 4

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

Finest Assortment

of Lace, Celluloid and Card

Valentines

in the city.

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Neuman Bros

FANCY GROCERIES

Watchung Ave. and 5th st

out in the rain

A good drenching in a cold rain is often the beginning of consumption. Yet no one claims that the germs of this disease exist in the rainwater. Then how was this brought about? The exposure was followed by a cold; the vitality was lowered; the cough continued for some weeks; the throat and lungs became congested; and thus all the conditions were favorable for the consumption germs.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, does not directly attack these germs and kill them. But it does tone up the whole system and restores the body to health before serious harm is done. The germs of consumption thrive best when the system is weakened and the throat and lungs congested. Do not delay until it is too late, but treat your cough early. Cod-liver oil and the hypophosphites, in the form of Scott's Emulsion, are the very best remedies.

"JUST AS GOOD" IS NOT SCOTT'S EMULSION.

50c. and $1.00 at all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4¾c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5¾c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2½ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5¾c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

ELLEN OSBORN'S LETTER.

A Discourse Upon Evening Gowns and Leap Year Weddings.

French and English Ideals—Simplicity and Fussiness Contrasted—War and Ostrich Plumes—Brocades and Embroideries.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

When the days begin to lengthen and the cold begins to strengthen, ever-variable woman appears most frequently with brave bared shoulders in the full glory of evening attire.

If the English mode makers are at their best in walking, shooting and coaching rigs—some dispute it, but if—then there can be no question of the primacy of Paris when it comes to the survey of polished floors and gleaming shoulders, glittering electroliers and dancing eyes. In a word, the evening is for the French.

In the evening the French and the English seem to have changed characters. The French evening gown is apt to be comparatively simple; the English one is apt to fritter its strength away in multiplied and frivolous details. This is not true of all the tribe; a gown from London and a gown from Paris shown in Mr. Kaufman's spirited drawing are of almost equal simplicity and smartness. Both have plain skirts and low bodice openings, nearly square. The London skirt of straw colored silk is surmounted by a close bolice—too close, for the Londoners ince much worse than their more artistic sisters across the channel—of reddish bronze tint, decked with huge pattern buttons, and a very wide ecru lace collar.

The French model has cuffs of embroidery in a big daisy pattern conventionalized, a big bow at the bosom and a strip of the embroidery running straight over each shoulder, by way of variety.

The London gown, however, has one Parisian touch. This is the little V-shaped opening at the front of the otherwise square yoke—a combination of the square and V forms which usually implies a full V opening at the back. This pretty arrangement is seen to better advantage in a symphony in greenish blue worn by a bronze-haired young matron at a recent small and early.

A SYMPHONY IN GREENISH BLUE.

The skirt was marked with huge bows of dark bottle green velvet, and a similar bow upon each shoulder graced the termination of another ribbon, passed quite about the shoulder and apparently peeping through slashes in the lighter silk. A wide band of embroidery whose prevailing tint was yellow defined the corsage opening and tan gloves and topaz ornaments were worn.

The use of embroidery is very common this winter. A fancy for employing it in profusion upon the lapels of smart jackets has developed and the brighter the colors and the more audacious the contrast, the better. It is even employed, it is true, in tints less gaudy, in the yokes of wedding gowns. And embroidery no longer means needlework, but raised designs, by any means produced, which will hit the eye and "stun" the beholder.

Wars and rumors of wars may come and go, but the fripperies of fashions endure. Any prolonged trouble in South Africa would at once cause a decided rise in the value of ostrich plumes, now in the height of favor. And it might seem to some a thing harder to bear than the strain upon our sympathies of tales of distant sufferings and bloodshed. Certainly the powers of darkness and light should think twice before cutting off the supply of plumes that lend such added charm to the sparkling black eyes and waving raven hair. Broad-brimmed hats with the plumes massed well at the back are more commonly seen than other shapes, though there is still a respectable minority of perching birds, their wings spread as if for instant flight.

The use of feathers on evening gowns is not, I am reminded, an innovation in logic, since down is an old favorite in the fashioning of brave robes, and down is but a mass of feathers in miniature. The miniature phase, however, is past when one sees small ostrich tips close laid to form a trimming course upon a velvet gown, and the eyes of peacock's feathers close laid with the iris effect that art cannot imitate but can only adapt.

Ball dresses are now made dancing length, which sounds like a bull, but isn't. For many have been the gala costumes too long for comfort on the floor. Street dresses make fair claim to the praise of the sensible, and this is a blessing; for there is nothing mair mischancefu', as the Scottish school says, than an accident-inviting long dress.

I have seen an afternoon dress of Dresden silk of a dark bottle green ground made most bright and effective by combining with it pink satin, pink mousseline de soie and striped green and pink velvet. This sounds like a vision of snakes, but is really fine. The skirt was made very full without trimming other than the delicate pink flower woven in the goods. The bodice was of dark-green velvet with a round waist and a front of the pink satin covered with the mousseline de soie, held in place by bands of cut jet; jet also furnished the point of the bodice in front, and rippled in cascades of beads over the front breadth of the skirt. The sleeves were of the green velvet, with big epaulets of the striped green and pink weighted with jet. Instead of a collar, two fan plaitings of the striped velvet menaced the ears on either side, and from the pink-lined sleeves a full ruche of shade lace dropped over the hands.

The Leap Year weddings are upon us, as the gossipers are ever ready to suggest at the tinkle of bridal bells. There is a fancy this season for slashing even the bodices and sleeves of brides' gowns to show peeps of chiffon. The slashes are picked out with pearls around the edges and really are pretty enough to make us thank mediaeval times for bequeathing them to us, along with the bodice yoke and the fashion of embroideries and hair fillets and other things good and old. The season's tolerance of the unusual is shown in the occasional use of brocaded stuffs with flowers often some shades away from white. And these brocades are appropriately made up in the styles of the Louises. Or the time of the most unfortunate of all the Louises may suggest a saintly white fichu of chiffon such as Marie Antoinette wore; or the more prosaic fancy of another century-end may dispose us to receive with favor a white coat that, with its short, wide basque skirts and wide revers suggests a very literal sailor woman rather than the trembling venturer upon figurative matrimonial seas.

A GOWN FROM LONDON AND A GOWN FROM PARIS.

The material of the belt usually repeats that of the sleeve and its width varies from one inch to several. Where no belt is used the bodice front comes to a blunt point a little below the waist line.

Theater bodices are fashioned in brocade with jabots of lace and with satin bands as the finish of the elbow sleeves.

ELLEN OSBORN.

THE WAR IN AFRICA.

Remarkable Preparations Made to Conquer Little Ashanti.

The Route from the Coast to the Interior Already Lined with Rest Huts and Hospitals—Building Bridges and Telegraphs.

While other war alarms are sounding England has ended her campaign against little Ashanti. This map will help to make the situation clear; and it is worth describing, for it is doubtful if a small campaign in Africa was ever more admirably planned.

The black line, says the New York Sun, shows the route the British column followed from Cape Coast Castle to Kumassi, the residence of King Prembeh. The peculiar feature of the campaign was that this line of march was prepared, as far as possible, before the British troops were landed from their ships. England wanted it to be a dash to Kumassi; and such a thing could not be achieved without a lot of preparatory work

The route was nearly all the way through forest made almost impassable by the dense undergrowth. Thousands of natives have been employed in cutting a wide road from the coast to the Prah river. Early in December thousands of natives embarked from the various ports along the Gold Coast for Cape Coast Castle, and were set at work carrying the supplies into the interior. A large supply depot was established at Mansu and another at Prahsu. Other natives under European command have been stringing a telegraph line along the route, and it is now completed to Prahsu. The engineer corps completed a bridge over the Prah river at Prahsu, and at last accounts were bridging a small river a little further north. Rest huts at five different camp stations have been built between the coast and Prahsu, so that the troops did not need to pitch tents at the end of the day's march. In fact, everything was done to save the soldiers work and enable them to march with celerity.

The troops comprise 786 white soldiers, 400 men from the West India regiment, and 600 hussars, in all 1,786 men, under the command of Sir Francis Scott. Prahsu was the base of operations. A hospital containing 60 beds has been built here, and a smaller hospital has been erected at Mansu. As the column advanced beyond the Prah, stations were advanced with carriers and hammocks for the speedy transportation of the sick to the hospitals or the coast. These stations were also defensive posts, by means of which it is intended to maintain a perfect line of communication with the coast.

Stores of every kind have to be carried on the heads of natives, and at least 12,000 men and women, each carrying about 50 pounds, are engaged beyond the Prah river in this service. It is known that the water of the region contains much deleterious matter, and all that is used for drinking purposes percolate into large canvas tanks through Pasteur filters. Bakers were sent across the Prah to bake fresh bread at the defensive posts. The artillery consists of a small mountain battery, a battery of six seven-pounder field guns, a Maxim and a number of rocket tubes.

If Prembeh and his advisers had known much they would have made it hot for the enemy while all these preparations were going forward. But they were sitting supinely at Kumassi, evidently preferring to take their dose all in a lump at the capital itself. The king probably doesn't yet realize the very uncomfortable box he is in. Enemies were coming against him, not only from the south, but also from the north. The king of Koranza, which is shown on the map, has agreed to help the English and to march on the Ashanti capital if arms and ammunition are sent to him. So a force of hussars with a large quantity of gunpowder and lead for arming the tribesmen have been dispatched to him under the command of an English captain. The Koranza natives are excellent fighters, and their country being open and free from forest is well adapted for the proposed operations.

Reason Restored by Surgery.

Horace Tetlow, of Philadelphia, has been restored by a surgical operation to reason. He uttered the other day his first intelligent words since the first day of the Conemaugh flood, Friday, May 31, 1889, when his skull was crushed by a piece of falling timber. Since that time he has been an imbecile. Recently a thorough examination was made of the wound in his skull. Trephining was decided upon. The operation was performed the other day, a bone button, the size of a half dollar, being removed. The patient, upon opening his eyes, said: "It comes from the dam." His mind is a blank as to the occurrences of the last five years, but he recalls the event of his life preceding the accident that rendered him speechless.

ON THE SAVANNE RIVER.

Interesting Relics of the First "Riel Rebellion."

Where Sir Garnet Wolseley Did Not Win Laurels – A Country Where the Mercury Freezes Very Often in Winter.

Special Savanne (Ont.) Letter.

It is doubtful if any place on the American continent is better calculated to impress the spectator with the terrible grandeur of winter than is this "half-way house" on the Canadian Pacific railway, midway between Rat Portage and Port Arthur. Its location is on the height of land where the waters divide and flow to their final destination in widely divergent sections of the continent and the terrible northern gales sweep down in unobstructed and terrific force. The brakeman on a North Dakota freight train may think that he knows something about weather, but a day on this table-land in midwinter would disabuse him of this idea.

A METIS MANSION.

There is much about the place that is keenly interesting, both in its historic and contemporary life. Not a furlong from the railway station, on the banks of the Savanne river, the skeleton remains of four huge bateaux are lifting their gaunt oaken ribs to the blasts—ironical reminders of the days when Sir Garnet Wolseley, the present commander in chief of Great Britain's armies, was "winning his spurs" on the northwestern frontier. He was assigned the task of putting down the first Riel rebellion, or rather war of defense, of 1869-70, and the settlers here point to the slowly rotting boats as an evidence that he did not find it quite so much of a pastime as he anticipated.

He started at Ottawa, passed through the American canal at Sault Ste. Marie and then put up the Matawan river in these bateaux, passing into Mille Lac lake (Lake of the Thousand Lakes).

Here the soldierly trials of the future chief of Britain's hosts began, for the men, according to the traditions which here survive, were compelled to tramp the old "Dawson road," skirting the Savanne river, and tow the heavy boats, loaded with provisions and "impedi-ments of war."

On reaching this point they were forced to abandon the bateaux for the still greater hardships of canoes and portage.

After leaving this place the course of their campaign was into the Lake of the Wood, down Winnipeg river into the lake of that name, and up the Red river to its confluence with the Assiniboine river, where stood old Fort Garry, the seat of the Metis government. Sir Garnet's rotting boats, each of which was large enough to have held a hundred men, are all that is left to tell the tale of the somewhat inglorious expedition; but the sight of them has inspired many a vengeful look in the eyes of the wandering Metis. Old Manitoges, now gone to the happy hunting grounds, was the last survivor of the half-breeds who remembered the expedition. The Des Champs, who boast a direct strain of blood from the St. Simons of France, are the present leaders of the Metis in this section. True to their Indian nature, they lead a roving life and range the entire country from Long lake to Rainy lake.

The student of human nature will be amply repaid for the pains of a visit to this remote place by making the acquaintance of old Allan Grant, the keeper of the railway station and the head man of the colony of 12 or 13 people. Not in the streets of Inverness or on the heather-grown highlands of Scotia is there a purer type of the old fashioned Scotchman than Allan Grant—and he has a perfect companion in his matronly wife, who once rejoiced in the name of MacNab. This quaint old couple and their buxom daughter appear to have strayed from out the lines of "The Cotter's Saturday Night."

THE OLD SCOTCH TRADER AND HIS WIFE.

The wild howlings of the northern winds are but music to the fortunate stranger who is safely housed under the hospitable roof of the old Scotchman's big, rambling log house, with its cavernous fireplaces, heaped with blazing logs and its walls hung with antlers and other trophies of the chase. Fancy could not picture a more ideal spot in which the lover of winter might spend his favorite season and enjoy the full force of its wild sublimity.

The house, although built entirely of logs, is a palace in comparison with most of the dwellings of this section. It is a story and a half in height, has a broad expanse of roof which slants up from the ends as well as the sides of the structure, and contains more room than one could possibly credit it with at first sight.

The big dining-room, in which the overland passengers are feasted on venison, bear meat, wild fowl, caribou, ptarmigan and other products of the country, is the most pretentious part of the house and is almost medieval in its picturesqueness.

When lighted by the flaming pine logs in the fireplace and by tallow dips ranged along the dining tables in their quaint brass candlesticks, it is a place to inspire the poet and the romancer with fresh visions of the days when romance was the commonplace reality.

To realize that the dog catcher is an unknown personage in Savanne, one has only to take a glimpse at the space behind the station's kitchen, where the entire canine population of the northwest, so it would seem, congregates each morning to fight over the food which the hurried travelers leave behind them.

In this howling, yelping and ravenous pack are dogs of every degree, color and shape. From a hasty census of the motley aggregation I estimated that every human inhabitant of Savanne must have at least five dogs—with a liberal surplus remaining for distribution among the roving Indian populace on the outskirts. The latter would certainly be able to pass through a five year famine and not know what it is to be without meat in the pot, if the dogs which assemble in the rear of the Grant kitchen should not make a sudden and discreet immigration.

There is but one inhabitant of the village who lords it over the dogs. He is a half-grown bear cub who guards the door of the Hudson Bay company's warehouse. There is scarcely a cur within the limits of Savanne which has not felt the sting of a blow from Jack's paw, and not a few of them have been permanently put to sleep through this benign agency.

Of course no man who has escaped from the walls of a city and goes out upon an inviting expanse of snow such as surrounds this place could think of foregoing a dog sledge excursion. But from sad experience let me offer all who may find themselves confronted with this temptation the advice so frequently proffered to those about to marry: "Don't do it."

My experience was this. I determined to visit Lake Ka-pi-si-ka-pi-kaga-mak and its famous painted rocks. This lake is about 200 miles northeast of Savanne, and I was told that a good dog team would haul me there in two days, and that it would be a most delightful journey. A-mick (The Beaver) who was said to own the best log team in Savanne, encouraged this pleasant fiction and agreed to make the trip for five dollars. He was engaged and we set out early one morning. A lightweight buckskin-colored dog named Windigoob was in the lead, followed by four sober-faced dogs, each of which was nearly twice his weight. The path breaker started off with an eager yelp, which quite won my heart, and I marked him for a favorite. Had I known that Windigoob is choice Indian slang for a worthless, shirking cur, I might have suspected the crafty deceiver, but I was blissfully ignorant of the meaning of the word.

THE DOG TEAM.

The first five miles over the hard snow was exhilarating sport, and I anticipated the entire journey. Then the sledge began to slacken its speed, and I noticed that the traces between Windigoob and the next dog were limp. A-mick also recognized this fact, and the lash of his whip shot out with a stinging crack in the direction of Windigoob's back. The tawny cur heard the descending rawhide; and suddenly rolled himself up into a ball, the other dogs piled upon him, and, as a well-calculated result, the backs of the other dogs caught the lash.

It required a half hour to unravel the tangle into which Windigoob had contrived to knot the traces.

Again we started on and all went well for some ten miles, when a rabbit suddenly started up from a bush beside the trail. An exultant yelp escaped from the leader and was taken up by his followers.

The whole pack turned off at right angles and I was rolled out into the snow. When I had picked myself up the dogs were 40 rods away and the sledge was touching the snow only at rare intervals.

Another hour elasped before we overtook the penitent pack, and again extricated them from the tangled traces.

Fortunately we were near a typical northwest maison—one that had been built and deserted by a couple of adventurous young Englishmen years before. Here we camped for the night and turned our faces homeward the next morning. To make the experience still more aggravating, the dogs, who well knew that they were going in the direction of the home kennel in the rear of the station kitchen, made the distance without a mishap and in one-fourth the time required for the outward journey.

H. J. J.

A LABOR-SAVING SCHEME.

"Why do you tell me such awful stories? They make my hair stand on end!"

"That's why, sir!—makes it easier to cut."—Pall Mall Budget.

Swift Retribution.

The sultan pledged his wine.

"By Allah! 'Tis a foretaste of celestial nectar!"

The vizier held his glass up to the light.

"It is indeed"—

He smacked his lips—

"Most sublime porte!"

An instant later he was led away for the bowstring and the sack.—N. Y. World.

Seasonable Precaution.

"By the way, Uncle Cyrus," said the hostess, pouring the tea, "when you were in Italy did you ever see the natives making macaroni?"

"Often," replied Uncle Cyrus.

"James," whispered the lady, "I think you'd better not help Uncle Cyrus to any macaroni."—Chicago Tribune.

After Dinner Speech.

Master of the House (on his fiftieth birthday, to his guests)—Ladies and gentlemen, this day fifty years ago, when I first saw the light of this world—um, um—I did not for a moment anticipate—er—anticipate that I should see so numerous and—um—so distinguished a company gathered around me.—Deutsche Warte.

The Worst of It.

"Matrimony is a game of cards, with the chances all one way," she observed, after deep thought.

"Yes?"

"Yes. A woman has a heart, and a man takes it with a diamond, and after that her hand is his, and, besides, he can beat her with a club."—Detroit Tribune.

Acquired Dumbness.

Jaggs—Is Blobbs dumb in his own house?

Laggs—Practically so.

Jaggs—What's the matter?

Laggs—He promised his wife he would always listen when she talked.—Detroit Free Press.

Limited.

Patient (about to have his leg removed, cheerfully)—Well, doctor, I'm afraid that I won't be able to go to any more dances.

Dr. Knifer—No. After this you'll have to confine yourself to hops.—N. Y. World.

The Voice of Triumph.

Mrs. Kidby—Oh, John dear, don't you hear? How delightfully the baby crows?

Kidby—Crows? Humph! I'd crow myself if I were boss of the house!—Harper's Bazar.

Thoughtlessly Frank.

"I suppose you will be out again tonight," remarked Sportington's wife, severely.

"I will," he replied with feeling, "unless I manage to hold better hands than I got last night."—Washington Star.

Logical Tommy.

Mother—If you are not good, Tommy, papa won't kiss you any more.

Tommy—Yes, papa will kiss me if I'm not good. You said the cook was no good and papa kissed her when you were away yesterday.—Texas Siftings.

Did His Full Duty.

Jinks—I despise a man who is mean with his wife. Do you give yours an allowance, or what she can wheedle out of you?

Filkins—Both.—Tidbits.

Fraternal Strife.

Mother (looking into room)—What's Frankie crying for?

Willy—He's crying for my cake

Mother—The little pig! What did he do with the one I gave him?

Willy—Oh, I ate his up first!—Puck.

A Grant From the United States Government.

"PURA BLOOD."

MALARIA.

Under grant from the United States Government, the famous curative waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas, are used in the preparation of "Pura Blood." It cures malaria, those tired feelings, headache and backaches. "Pura Blood" cures because it eliminates from the blood all the poisonous malarial elements which disorder the function of every organ of the body. "Pura Blood" is the best blood purifier, as thousands will testify who have visited Hot Springs, Arkansas, the world's famous sanitarium, and been cured. "Pura Blood" is nature's own cure and absolute specific, and has received the highest indorsements of physicians. "Pura Blood" is for sale by all druggists, price $1. Billups & Co., of 26 Cortlandt st., are sole agents, and will send descriptive book free to any address.

MUNYON'S

COLD AND COUGH CURES.

Promptly Effectual in Curing Grip, Colds and Coughs and a Sure Preventive of Pneumonia and All Lung Diseases.

Munyon's Cold Cure will positively break up the grip or a cold in a few hours if taken as soon as the cold appears. When the cold reaches the lungs and there is cough and oppressed breathing Munyon's Cough Cure used in alteration with the Cold Cure every half hour, will effect an immediate cure. When there is pain in the chest Munyon's Plasters will give great relief and act as a protection. These remedies are a sure preventive of pneumonia and lung troubles.

Munyon's Remedies contain positive cures for all diseases. At all druggists, mostly 25 cents.

Munyon's Remedies are absolutely harmless and effect positive and permanent cures. A separate specific for each disease. At all druggists, mostly at 25c a bottle.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

Happiness Was Impossible.

Visitor—Your dollie seems to be very happy.

A Girl of To-day—Well, auntie, I'm sure she isn't, because she has only one dress and that isn't stylish.—Brooklyn Life.

The Poor Workingman.

"Aw—why do you make your own cigarettes?"

"My—aw—doctor ordered me some light exercise."—Pall Mall Budget.

No Chance for It.

Tagleigh—I wonder why lightning never strikes twice in the same place?

Wagleigh—Well, you can't generally find the place.—Puck.

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

Grand Final Clearing Sale

—OF—

Ladies', Misses and Children's Cloaks

previous to stocktaking, February 1, We propose to close out every winter garment. Notice the extraordinary reductions.

LADIES' JACKETS—LATEST STYLES.

Ladies boucle jackets, shield front, large pearl buttons, mandolin sleeves reg. $10 jacket, for $6.49.
Ladies' brown jackets, shield front, velvet collar and cuffs, large pearl buttons, reg. price $18, for $13.
Ladies' diagonal jackets, 28 inches long, reefer front, large pearl buttons, were $18, now $12.
Misses' fancy mixed jackets, velvet collar, mandolin sleeves, reefer front, were $8, now $5.
Misses' navy blue jackets, reefer front, ripple back, mandolin sleeves seams piped with velvet, large storm collar, reg. price $12, at $7.98.
Misses' jackets, blue and white mixed, double faced goods, velvet collar, 4 large pearl buttons, were $12, now $7.49.
Children's Gretchens, fancy mixtures, sailor collar, newest styles, were $10, now $6.98.

777 and 779 Broad Street,

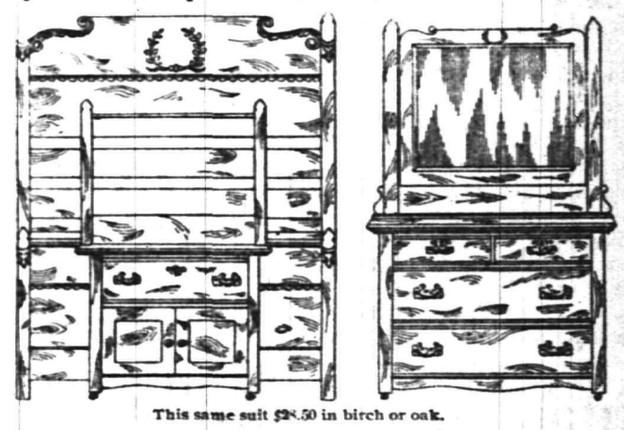
Newark, N. J.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

CASH OR CREDIT—LONG TIME GIVEN

Ever Buy a Bedroom Suit

Equal to this, at price lower than $28.50?



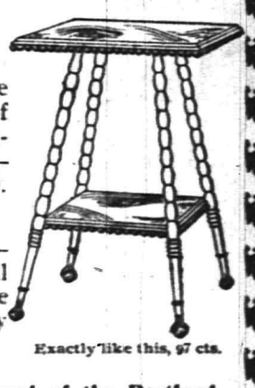
This same suit $28.50 in birch or oak.

It's a suit we've always sold for $45.00—honor bright! Made in birch or quartered oak, French bevelled plate, 24x38, superbly finished.

6 Chairs For $5.95

It's needless to say they're chairs that'll beautify any dining room—fine construction, cane seats, a true blue value.

Here's a Table



marked at 97 cts.—it's not a make that's always ready to "get out of joint"—sturdy build, finely finished oak or cherry, nice make—exactly like cut, easily worth $1.50.

Exactly like this, 97 cts.

See Us for Carpets

We've a big line, all patterns—here's a "price illustration:" all wool ingrains, 65 cts. a yard, made and laid with lining. Over twenty patterns on hand.

Goods selected now held until wanted—no cash needed. Deliveries made free of charge.

Ever heard of the Portland Range? Of course you have. It's nearly world famed by this time.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Etc.
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Everything new and up-to-date.

HOYT'S A TRIP TO CHINATOWN

Produced in exactly the same manner as at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, with the

ORIGINAL CAST,

including Harry Conor and all the original scenery, furniture and properties

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1 Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

One week commencing

Monday, February 10

Six nights and five matinees.
The Barnum of them all.

WAITE'S Comedy Company

Premium Band and Orchestra.

35 PEOPLE 35

in a repertorie of new comedies, dramas and society plays. Change of play every performance.

Prices 10, 20 and 30c

POPULAR DIME MATINEES,
daily, starting Tuesday.

Monday night—The Black Flag.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

EXTRA! EXTRA!

BOUND BROOK IN RUINS.

The Opposing Elements, Fire and Water, Almost Annihilate the Town.

A NIGHT OF TERROR SPENT BY RESIDENTS

The Damage Will Run Way Up Into the Thousands—One Man Lost His Life in the Seething Current in the Attempt to Rescue People From Their Perilous Position—The Business Portion of the Town Wrecked By the Flames—Details of the Awful State of Affairs.

Never before has this section of New Jersey experienced such a catastrophe as was enacted by two diverse elements—fire and water—at Bound Brook, last night. Providentially, the loss of life was only two, and for this the people should give up thanks to Heaven. The details of the affair follow:

Fire and water combined last night to destroy the borough of Bound Brook, and succeeded fairly well in the business portion of the town. The great amount of water that fell nearly all day caused the trouble and resulted in thousands of dollars of damage. Bound Brook is situated on the north bank of the Raritan river, while Bound, Green and Middle brooks all pass in or near the town before joining the Raritan. These streams were swollen early in the morning, but gradually grew in proportions until they overflowed their banks. The Middle brook and several other streams west of the village were the first to pour their torrents into the surrounding country. The bridge over Middle brook on the Jersey Central, about half a mile west of the town, was unable to carry the enormous amount of water that came rushing down and it followed along the bank of the railroad to find a way to the river.

At about 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon the water reached the town, and it quickly rose until Main street, the principal business thoroughfare, was submerged to the depth of seven feet, while in the lower districts the water was over ten feet deep. The open flats, east and west of the borough, resembled an inland sea, and the houses, except those on the high ground, were completely flooded and the inmates driven to the second stories.

It was the same case in the flooded district of the town, for the water came into the first stories and the residents were driven upstairs to await the going down of the water. The water followed the railroad bank toward Dunellen for about one-quarter of a mile, and then escaped under the bridges. The openings were of insufficient size to allow all the water to pass through and that region was submerged for almost a mile. The violent wind added to the violent current that tore through the town.

As soon as the first signs of a flood were seen, the Bound Brook fire department took all the apparatus out of the engine house and stored them in the truck house, which is situated on the high ground just behind the business section of the city. Between 7 and 8 o'clock flames were discovered in L. D. Cook & Co.'s lumber yard. The cause of the fire is not exactly known but it is thought that the lime in the lumber yard became slacked and ignited the lumber.

The flames spread rapidly until the entire mass of lumber was on fire. The lumber yard was a large one, about 300 feet square, and had been stocked only recently. As much of the fire department as could reach the high ground went to work to prevent the spread of the flames. The next building to catch fire was the large Presbyterian church. It was built of wood and burned like tinder.

The firemen worked with might and main and soon had four streams of water on the fire, two from East street and two from Second street. But it was impossible to do anything but save the adjacent property. The house and store of James T. Ferrie caught, but was extinguished before the fire had gained much headway. Bound Brook Hall backs right up to the lumber yard, as does the post-office and several smaller buildings. These repeatedly started but little damage was done. Alger's house on East street was also severely burned. The church was burned to the water's edge and at about two o'clock was a mass of smouldering ruins. The lumber yard, however, burned fiercely all night and attracted the attention of people for miles around by the bright light in the sky.

The Raritan river itself rose fifteen feet in ten hours and overflowed its banks all the way to New Brunswick where the water was three feet deep in the business portion of the city, near the river. At New Brunswick, the loss is estimated at $150,000. At Bound Brook, the Raritan presented a very different appearance, changing from a slow and sedate stream, to a raging torrent that rushed along carrying everything before it.

The water was about two feet below the bridge that connects Bound Brook and South Bound Brook. The large factory of the Standard Paint Company, which is located a short distance below the bridge on the south bank, was inundated and the fires in the furnaces extinguished. Considerable damage was done to the property of the company, while the pump works, which is situated just below the other factory suffered also from the high water.

Below the bridge on the north side, there is a small saloon and hotel about one hundred yards from the river. When the torrents poured through the valley, the occupants, a man and woman, were placed in a precarious position. An attempt at rescue was made and a man named Miller attempted to reach the place in a boat. The boat was swamped, however, and Miller disappeared. It is supposed that he was drowned. The works of the American Engine Company are on the same bank a little farther down but on higher ground. Had the water reached them the damage would have been extensive as the buildings contained some very valuable machinery.

The water soon overflowed the railroad near the Middle brook bridge and by ten o'clock nearly a mile of the railroad was under water. Bridges were washed out and the track undermined. The water extended toward Dunellen for about one hundred feet beyond the Bound Brook station. The station, telegraph office, and Union News Company's stand were all partially flooded. No trains passed through Bound Brook after six o'clock last night. The five o'clock train from Jersey City went through all right, but after that one train was laid up at Bound Brook and the rest at Dunellen, from which place all the trains started this morning. The Lehigh Valley railroad and the Port Reading railroad were both blockaded by the water and several trains were stalled on each line. Plainfield first heard of the fire at about ten o'clock. An alarm of fire was turned in from box 46 by some one who saw the bright light in the direction of Bound Brook. The department was just returning when Superintendent Olhausen of the Jersey Central railroad, and a Bound Brook fireman, arrived here on a locomotive. The Plainfield department was asked to send some long ladders and hooks to Bound Brook. There was no need of a steamer or hose, as the fire was too far from the track to be reached.

Two coal cars were coupled on behind the engine and the apparatus placed in them. Then a detail of firemen, under the command of First Assistant Chief J. A. Martin, and a few others, climbed in and the special train started at about 10:30 o'clock. It began to hail and the shivering crowd was glad to huddle together for warmth. At last the party reached the scene of action and a horrible sight met their eyes.

The railroad embankment was apparently a long point projecting out into an immense lake. The water was on every side and the houses, with the water half-way up the first story, loomed up like grim spectres.

The burning lumber yard and church lit up the scene until it was almost as bright as day. The cold wind and hail made it impossible to stand still very long and the party of Plainfielders, which numbered about one hundred, tramped up and down the track or took refuge in the stalled trains and the Lehigh Valley railroad station, which was not flooded. It was impossible to reach the high ground on the other side of the flood as the current was swift and timbers, outhouses and other debris made navigation impossible.

Richard Stevens, of this city, sent a folding canvas boat up in the train, but the chances of reaching the other side were too slim, and it was not used. John Petrie and several other Plainfielders discovered a rowboat near the depot and brought it down. The nearest building to the track was a livery stable and on the roof of that was a man. A line was thrown to him. Two of the longest ladders were fastened together, and with a telegraph pole as a central brace, they were stretched over. The boat was pushed alongside of the ladder and William Robinson, of this city, at the risk of his life, managed to reach the roof. He learned that two women and five children were in a house in close proximity to the fire and that this man wanted to get them to a place of safety. He was given a short ladder and Robinson returned to the embankment. It appeared to be an all night affair and the Plainfielders prepared to spend it as best they could by either sleeping or wandering around on the small space not yet flooded.

To a Daily Press reporter a Bound Brook man told the story of the very rapid rise of the water and how he and a friend were caught on the embankment on their way home. He estimated the loss by both fire and water as several hundred thousand dollars.

At about 2 o'clock the "special" returned to Plainfield with its load of ladders and men.

Somerville and South Branch also also felt the high water. Bridges and abutments were washed away while portions of the track were undermined. An unknown man was drowned in the stream near North Branch. The trains were stalled at Somerville, while all telegraphic connections with Bound Brook were cut off. The telephone office at Bound Brook remained open until the operator was driven out by the increasing water, and the telegraph wires in all directions were broken.

Raritan suffered considerably from the storm. The high water washed out the water power plant and invaded the finishing room at the Raritan Woolen Mills, owned by Louis Mack. A large amount of valuable cloth was destroyed. The famous old Finderne bridge gave way during the evening and carried the Port Reading bridge with it. The embankment of the Port Reading railroad, which runs parallel to the Raritan river, was swept away level with the river. The Delaware and Raritan canal was partially washed out, but the full extent of damage to it has not yet been ascertained. One end of the big bridge of the P. & R. railroad over the Raritan river was forced over by the raging waters and all traffic stopped.

Somerville, Dunellen and Plainfield were all invaded by an anxious crowd of travelers and commuters, who spent the night in trying to get to their destination, but without success.

THE LATEST NEWS.

A Daily Press Reporter Writes From Bound Brook This Morning.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, Feb. 7, 12 m.—In the parlors of the Berkeley Hotel, opposite the Central Railroad depot, where The Daily Press reporter is writing up his account, the paper on the wall shows a high water mark of over three feet. Taking into consideration the fact that there is a raised platform of nearly two feet and then from the sidewalk to the street two more, it will easily be seen that over seven feet of water passed through the main street. Over $100,000 damage is done the different storekeepers along the main street. The heaviest losers will be Wm. H. Powlison, grocers; Alpaugh & Rutt, grocers; Bonny Bros., grocers; A. S. Coriell, grocer and dry goods; Isaac Giles, baker and confectioner. Wm. Schure, baker; Hotel Berkeley and several others.

L. D. Cook & Co's loss is over $45,000, with about an insurance of $20,000.

The Presbyterian church, which was burned to the ground, had for its pastor Rev. T. E. Davis. Everything was lost. The church was insured for $10,000, while an additional $2,000 covered the organ. Plans were already out for a new church edifice for this congregation in another part of the town. The estimated loss on the church is not taken into consideration. The organ was a first class one.

Fred Miller, of South Bound Brook, while attempting to reach Mulvey's Port Reading Hotel last night was drowned. His body was taken down the Raritan river and lost. A report also says that John Connolly lost his life, but it is not verified.

The body of Fred Miller who was drowned near Mulvey's Port Reading hotel, is tied along the river near where he lost his life, awaiting the arrival of a Middlesex county coroner.

Crowds of people from all along the line of the Central railroad, even as far as the White House station were here to criticise the unfortunate flow of fire and water that has again devastated Bound Brook. The water in its course through Main street of the borough did considerable damage to the recently completed sewer. In the centre of the street where the sewer runs the water excavated the earth for nearly three feet.

The bank of the Delaware and Raritan canal, directly opposite the Bound Brook station, is bursted, and the water is madly pouring into the Raritan river.

The large crowd that occupied the piazza of the Berkeley Hotel were treated to many an amusing sight by the anxious ones who insisted upon crossing by boat or plank, which had an easy trick of throwing about every fourth person into about four feet of water. The laughter that greeted every unfortunate was so loud that it made everyone in good humor.

Ed. Gilmore, the section boss of the C. R. R., with all available men is replacing the tracks in an expeditious manner.

The first photographers to "pull the cloth" was Hastings & Miller, of 113 Nassau street, New York.

Three boats have been working a "pole-ferry" across the Main street all morning.

At the time of going to press the water is rapidly receding and at two o'clock it is possible to cross the street.

THE FIRE OF 1881.

Bound Brook Was Once Before Devastated by Flames.

On Tuesday, April 20, 1881, Bound Brook was visited by a disastrous fire. A spark from a passing locomotive on the Jersey Central railroad set fire to a frame house of James Ramsey, just west of the depot. A brisk southwest wind carried the flames down Main to John street. The post office and a large number of business stores and residences were destroyed. Help from the Plainfield fire department was sent, but before the flames were extinguished twenty families were made homeless and two acres of ground were burned over. The Constitutionalist on the following Thursday reported the following incident in saving the Presbyterian church, which was burned last night:

"Messrs. J. Gavett and P. B. Vail, of the Plainfield Bicycle Club, who were coming from New Brunswick on their machines, saw the smoke and arrived on the scene just in time to save the old Presbyterian church which has been standing since 1725. The athletes found that the roof had caught from falling sparks and that the crowd around were standing stupidly gazing with sorrow on the prospects of the building's annihilation. They succeeded in gaining the interior of the building through a hole in the roof and soon put out the starting fire."

The fire involved a loss of $80,000.

MAN KILLED AT RARITAN.

Walking along the Track to Find a Place of Safety.

Raritan, N. J., Feb. 7th.—Dennis Murphy, of Raritan, was killed on the Central railroad west of the Raritan station last evening. He was unmarried and about 45 years of age. A trackwalker found the remains alongside the track.

The Raritan canal burst through the banks just above Farmer Long's about one mile west of the town and the water rushed wildly through the yards of the Raritan woollen mills doing considerable damage. A report is in circulation that John Fleming and Walter Long while out shooting musk-rats yesterday afternoon in the vicinity where the banks burst, were compelled to climb a tree where both the young men remained for the night.

Somerville, N. J., February 7, 1896.—The bridge at Finderne was washed away by the freshet of yesterday. The bridge on the South Branch of the Jersey Central, and sixty feet of the embankment at Neshanic, was also taken down the stream. Yesterday afternoon as Robert Shaw, the delivery clerk for N. B. Richardson, was out delivering orders, and in attempting to cross Peter's brook, usually a quite insignificent stream, the horse and wagon was carried away and lost, while the driver narrowly escaped with his life. Had not assistance been at hand he would not have lived to tell his experience.

Robert J. Shaw and Daniel Kencarth, of Somerville, attempted to drive over the High street bridge in Somerville. The water had risen above the level of the bridge and swept horse, wagon and occupants overboard. Shaw & Kencarth were rescued, but the horse, which belonged to Grocer U. B. Richardson, of Somerville, was drowned and the wagon wrecked.

Owing to the high water, which threatened the furnaces, the American Engine Company's Works shut down today. The high wind of last night threatened the main building and it had to be tied down.

ROARING TORRENTS.

Green and Cedar Brooks Swelled to the Tops of Their Banks.

Green brook was the centre of attraction yesterday afternoon. The usual placid little stream seemed to have woke up, and roared and tumbled about in a manner quite unusual for it. There was a great amount of water that poured down the stream, and at Tier's dam it was especially apparent. The dam had been strengthened at the ends, and seemed to withstand the pressure of the large volume of water that poured over it, which was about two feet depth. The brook's regular channel was overflowed in many places while on the Park Club tennis courts was deposited most of the ice that escaped from the pond.

Little Cedar brook was not far behind and flooded the fields and also its banks from the railroad to the city limits. The Park avenue bridge was entirely submerged and was covered with brushwood and other debris when the water subsided. This morning this little stream had nearly gone back to its normal condition.

The heavy rains of yesterday caused the walls in the cellar of Barnes Bros.' new building corner of Front street and Clinton avenue to cave in. The cellar was almost flooded. Norman Barnes had expected to move in yesterday, but was obliged to postpone it. The damage will amount to considerable.

The windmill at Smalley Brothers' stone cracker was wrecked by the storm yesterday. The owners estimate the damage at $50.

NO NIGHT FOR MUSIC.

Few Members Attend the Meeting of Thursday Evening Music Club.

Only a few members of the Thursday Evening Music Club met last evening at the home of Miss Lavinia French, of 208 West Front street. An excellent programme of instrumental music chiefly was prepared, and it was a great disappointment that all the participants did not appear.

Those present, however, enjoyed the kind hospitality of Mrs. French, and a social evening was spent.

The president, Miss Julia J. Ketcham, read a foreign letter which was received after the club's last meeting.

The club will meet at the home of the Misses Ketcham, next Thursday evening, when the Chopin programme postponed from last evening will be rendered.

Proposed Site For City Building.

There is some talk of the city purchasing the property at the corner of East Front street and Watchung avenue, where MacDonald's house and grocery now stands, and erecting a city building. In case it should be used for that purpose it would be convenient to Fire Headquarters, as well as every other place of importance about the city. It is understood that Mr. MacDonald will sell his property.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

A BRILLIANT EVENT.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING OF MISS EDITH HAROLD TO W. O. CHAPMAN.

The Church Beautifull Decorated—Elaborate and Stylish Gowns Worn by the Bridal Party—Reception Afterwards.

Plainfield's wealth, beauty and culture has seldom presented a more brilliant assemblage than was witnessed last evening at the First Baptist church, when Miss Edith Harold, niece of Lemuel Wright Serrell, of West Front street, was united in marriage to William Oscar Chapman, of 428 East Sixth street.

It was one of the most fashionable events of the season, and fully 700 persons were present. Around the pulpit platform and organ there was a complete garden of flowers, consisting of stately palms, lilies and roses while the organ pipes were entwined with beautiful southern smilax, sent on for the occasion.

Seated at the organ was William Earl MacClaymont who, while the guests were arriving, executed perfectly the following classical selections from well-known composers:

Messe de Marriage	Dubois
Intermezzo in F	Czibulki
Minuet in A minor	Calkin
The Golden Wedding	Gabriel-Marie
Marsh Triumphal	MacClymont
Selections from Carmen	Bizet
Chanson Ballade	Bachman

Upon the completion of the above the bridal party had arrived, and the first notes of the Lohengrin wedding march was the signal for their appearance.

On the left of the church in front came the flower girls, Anna Marguerite Serrell and Josephine Irene Serrell, cousins of the bride. They were gowned in white organdie over white silk, and carried roses. Then followed the bridemaids, Miss Margaret Walker Harold, of Philadelphia, sister of the bride, and Miss Florence Ethel Serrell, cousin of the bride. They were charming in gowns of white organdie over Nile green silk, trimmed with embroidered chiffon bands and Nile green satin ribbon. They carried large bouquets of pink roses.

Following the bridemaids came the ushers, Arthur Serrell, Edgar I. Serrell, cousins of the bride, George C. Worth and James Maynard Kissam, of Queens, L. I.

On the right of the church in front entered the groom and best man, David H. Lennox. Those entering on the left proceeded slowly and gracefully down the left aisle. When about half-way down, a very pretty portion of the ceremony was witnessed. The party separated and formed on either side of the aisle. They then reversed and returned to the altar, followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, who gave her away in marriage. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 by Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor of the the church. The beautiful and impressive service of the Episcopal church was used, and the responses were very clear.

The bride was richly gowned in white satin, en train, trimmed with duchess lace and pearl ornaments. The conventional veil was worn and she carried a handsome bouquet of white roses.

As the familiar notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march were rendered the bride and groom left the church by the right aisle, preceded by the flower girls. Then followed the best man, bridemaids and ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle on West Front street.

The spacious rooms were beautiful with a choice arrangement of flowers, principally smilax, roses and orchids, while the honored guests present gave additional brilliancy to the happy event.

During congratulations, Austin's orchestra, of Brooklyn, gave a rendition of music that was decidedly pleasing. A delightful supper was served by Maresi during the evening.

The costly, handsome and useful presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Chapman won the admiration of everyone. The collection included silverware, cut-glass, gold, and many other articles of great value.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left last evening for a bridal tour. The places they will visit are a secret and was not divulged to their most intimate friends. Guests were present from this city, Philadelphia, New York and Somerville.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass., had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

WORK OF THE STORM

Late Reports Tell of Great Damage Along the Coast.

LIVES LOST, PROPERTY DESTROYED

A Howling Hurricane from Virginia to Maine—Wires Still Down at Many Points and Delayed Dispatches May Add to the Casualties.

New York, Feb. 7.—Reports received to-day show that the fierce storm which swept over this city and along the Atlantic coast yesterday caused greater damage to property and shipping than was generally supposed. Besides, several lives were lost and there were many narrow escapes from death both at sea and on land. Wires south of Washington and along the coast are still down in some quarters and later reports may add to the list of casualties. In this city numerous plate glass windows were broken and a number of people injured by falling signs and boards from scaffoldings. A part of the rear wall of the five-story building at No. 111 Wooster street, that was recently wrecked by fire, was blown down and a number of tenants in the buildings upon which it fell had narrow escapes from being killed. The tenants had to abandon their homes. Shipping in the harbor and bay suffered the greatest. Two large barks, one at Clifton and the other at Tompkinsville, and a brig at Stapleton were blown ashore and may be lost. The ship Walker, which was driven on the rocks at Liberty island is badly damaged. The two men rescued unconscious from the clamming sloop Favorite, which was wrecked in the lower bay, will recover. The body of the third man has not been recovered. In Brooklyn a building at Third avenue and Fifty-ninth street was blown down and two men killed and one seriously injured. The position of the steamer Lamington, ashore off Patchogue, is anything but pleasant this morning, and it is now believed that the chances of saving her are very slight. The waves are still pounding against her sides and sweeping the decks.

Worst Freshet in Years.

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 7.—The rain of yesterday and last night has caused one of the worst freshets in years in this section. Hundreds of cellars are flooded and the water on the low-lying sections is ten feet deep. The ice in Rondout creek in the vicinity of Rosendale has broken loose and unless it gorges it will undoubtedly cause destruction at Eddyville, which is opposite this city. The people of Mutton Hollow are moving out of their homes by reason of the high water.

Damage Near Tarrytown.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Feb. 7.—The storm has done considerable damage in this section. The New York Central tracks at Hasting were blocked for three hours last evening by a washout. In the country hereabouts several small buildings were blown down, cellars flooded and foundations washed away.

Flood at Middletown, N. Y.

Middletown, N. Y., Feb. 7.—The dam at Turners broke last evening and the tracks of the Middletown & Goshen Traction company were inundated. The power house of the company was flooded to the depth of about six feet and all the fires put out.

A Hurricane at Boston.

Boston, Feb. 7.—The terrific gale which reached here yesterday afternoon, continued all night, steadily increasing until it blew a howling gale and shortly after midnight had reached the velocity of a hurricane. Nothing left port yesterday or last night but the Metropolitan line steamer H. F. Dimock, for New York, which was scheduled to sail Wednesday night but held over owing to the threatening aspect of the weather and started down the bay before the first intimation of the approaching storm was received. It is probable, however, that she is safely anchored in the lower roads or has sought refuge in Provincetown harbor. Wires are down and little news from points along the coast is expected for several hours yet. Up to a late hour no casualties had been reported.

Schooner Wrecked.

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 7.—In the furious gale yesterday afternoon the two masted schooner Clara Post of New York was wrecked off this harbor. She now lies half a mile off Seaside park, her masts and bowsprits gone, stern broken in and her hull half full of water. Capt. James McDonald and her crew of four men escaped to land in the schooner's yawl.

Destruction Around Waterbury.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 7.—Reports to-day of damage done by yesterday's storm indicate the greatest losses by surface water since the freshets of 1873. Last night the city was divided by lakes, entirely covering the green and filling Exchange place to a depth of from one to three feet. The water poured into the center from the hill sides and caused thousands of dollars' damage. It will take $10,000 to repair the damage to the streets of the city and town. The new iron bridge on the Watertown road was swept away and another bridge across the stream in Union City lost its underpinning. The loss to merchants of the city will be $10,000 on stocks in cellars flooded. Turner's iron bridge, 200 feet long, over Naugatuck river at Simonsville, was swept away with a tremendous crash. A party went last night to rescue John W. Crawson's family, living in a house on Brown's meadows, which are flooded several feet deep. Late last night the section around the Naugatuck baseball field became submerged. Men carried women on their shoulders from the houses in the flooded district.

FLOODS AT BELVIDERE.

Bridges and Culverts Washed Away and Railroad Traffic Stopped.

Belvidere, N. J., Feb. 7.—Never in the memory of man has there fallen so much rain in five hours as fell in this vicinity during the storm yesterday. The streams have all overflown their banks, washing away road and railway bridges, compelling a complete cessation of travel. At Manunkachunk, three miles from here, at which is the junction of the Pennsylvania and Lackawanna railroads, three culverts and a half mile of track were washed away and the large platform at the junction was completely undermined and fell in. The Lehigh & Hudson River railway, which runs between Belvidere and Greycourt, has been completely washed out and all passenger and freight traffic abandoned. The loss to the railroads and the county in washouts and the destruction of bridges will run into the thousands.

Flood and Fire.

Somerville, N. J., Feb. 7.—Yesterday's storm has raised the Raritan river twenty-five feet. Bridges have been swept away, railroads washed out and a large amount of property destroyed. One man was found dead near the track of the Central Railroad of New Jersey near North Beach. Two men who attempted to cross a very high bridge at this place with a horse and wagon, were swept into the stream. They clung to the branches of a tree until rescued by on-lookers. The horse was drowned. A fierce fire ranged at Boundbrook last night while the streets were under six feet of water. The fire started in a lumber yard in the centre of the town. The fire departments of this place and Plainfield rendered assistance.

Rescued from Their Homes by Boats.

Morristown, N. J., Feb. 7.—Owing to the heavy fall of rain the Whippany river has overflowed its banks and this morning that part of this city between Spring street and the Lackawanna railroad embankment and including Centre, Cole, River and the lower part of Water streets are flooded. The water rose so rapidly that in many instances families were rescued from the second-story windows of their houses by means of boats. Last evening the dam of Pocahonats lake broke and tremendous cakes of ice came rushing down, destroying houses, barns and outbuildings. A number of small bridges have been washed away. The damage will undoubtedly be heavy.

May Be a Total Loss.

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 6.—The schooner which came ashore during the driving storm yesterday will probably be a total loss. The Brigantine life-saving crew brought the crew ashore, but the captain remained aboard, refusing to leave the ship.

Rescued by Life Savers.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Advices have been received here that the American schooner Allie B. Cathrall, which went ashore off False Cape, Va., yesterday, is breaking up. The crew of six men were saved by the life-saving service in the breeches buoy.

FUNERAL OF HARRY HOWARD.

The Old New York Volunteer Fireman To Be Buried Sunday.

New York, Feb. 7.—The old New York volunteer fireman, Harry Howard, who died yesterday of pneumonia, will be buried Sunday by the Veteran Firemen's association. Harry Howard was born in this city in 1822. A fireman from his eighteenth year until he was mustered out on account of disability in 1860, he became well known throughout not only this city but the whole country. He had always taken an active interest in politics and had served in the assembly, had been an alderman and had held the offices of receiver of taxes and inspector in the department of public works. He was the last of the old chiefs.

Damaged at Sea by Storm.

Dublin, Feb. 7.—The British steamer Marstonmoor, just arrived here from Baltimore, encountered a hurricane during the voyage. The seas swept over her, flooding the cabin and doing damage to her bridge, steering gear and deck.

Telegraph Officers Elected.

New York, Feb. 7.—The directors of the Chicago & Northwestern Telegraph company have elected T. P. Scully president and A. R. Brewer secretary.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot demand light and values unsettled. February, 74⅛c.; March, 75⅝c.; May, 73⅝c.

Corn—Spot quiet but held firmly. February, 37c.; May, 36¾c.

Oats—Spot firm with fair demand. February, 25¼c.; March, 25½c.; May, 25¾c.

Pork—Spot steady, but inactive. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $11.00@$11.25.

Lard—Contracts are dull and easy. May, $6.07.

Butter—There is a fair trade in fancy creamery and the tone of the market is firmer, but not higher. Creamery, western extras, 18c. State and Pennsylvania, seconds to best, 14@17c.; creamery, western, seconds to firsts, 14@17½c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, seconds to firsts, 12@15c.

Cheese—Fancy September is held firmly with demand good. State, full cream, large size, September colored, choice, 9a10¼c.; September white fancy, 9@10¼c.; large common to choice, 7¼@10c.

Eggs—There was rather more inquiry and the market closed with a better demand. Best western at 15c., and best southern at 14a14½c.

Potatoes—The demand for choice grades continues slow and the market weak. State Burbank, per 180 pounds, 65c.@80c., and state rose and Hebron, per 180 pounds, 85@$1.00c.

TO DIE ON TUESDAY

"Bat" Shea's Last Chance of Escaping Death Chair Gone.

A NEW TRIAL DENIED THE MURDERER

Gov. Morton Will Not Further Interfere and the Slayer of Robert Ross Must Meet His Doom Next Week.

Albany, Feb. 7.—One of the most celebrated criminal cases in recent years was finally decided last evening, and Bartholomew Shea of Troy, who was convicted of the murder of Robert Ross on election day in the spring of 1894, must die next Tuesday. The electric chair at Dannemora prison which has been ready for his occupancy since the day first set for him to die in July last is still in readiness for him, although he escaped death then, and again on Christmas week and on Feb. 4, through the governor's respites and appeals to the courts. Shea's final appeal was heard before a justice of his own choosing. Justice Mayham of Schoharie, over a week ago, in which he asked for a new trial. This application was based on the confession of John McGeough, one of Shea's accomplices in the deadly affray in which Robert Ross lost his life. McGeough himself is serving a twenty years' sentence for shooting William Ross, Robert Ross' brother. This occurred during the same election fight. Justice Mayham, in denying Shea's application, wrote a lengthy opinion, which was not made public. He stated that it would not be until after the attorneys in the case had secured copies of it. Gov. Morton will not take any further action in the matter. He stated at the beginning that he would give Shea every possible advantage that the law allowed. He has kept his word. Nothing remains now to be done to conclude this celebrated case except the electrocution of Shea on Tuesday next. Arrangements have been made for Shea's funeral and an undertaker from Troy will take charge of the remains.

BOSTON'S LEPROSY CASE.

The Affected Woman Now Believed To be on Galloupes Island.

Boston, Feb. 7.—A woman suffering all the pains and hideous tortures of leprosy was discovered in south Boston a few days ago and was removed yesterday, it is believed, to Galloupes island, in the harbor. That it is a case of leprosy is not denied by Dr. Durgin and other members of the board of health, but further than that no information can be gleaned anywhere. The fact that she has lived in South Boston five years is also given out. The woman is 35 years of age, of English birth, and her husband is a hard working man. They have five bright children. The doctors are satisfied that neither the husband nor any of the family has the disease. The family have been remarkably quiet, not accustomed to mingle with their neighbors.

R. A. BARNET'S NEW PLAY

"Jack and the Beanstalk" Pronounced Better Than Its Predecessors.

Boston, Feb. 7.—A new burlesque by R. A. Barnet, author of "1492" and "Excelsior Junior," was produced for the first time anywhere at the Tremont theatre last night by the Boston cadets, who always present Barnet's pieces before they are staged professionally. The new piece is entitled "Jack and the Beanstalk," and is a fairy Mother Goose burlesque. The music is by A. B. Slane of Baltimore. It was magnificently staged and costumed, and is considered by the cadets better than any of its predecessors. All the characters that belong in childrens' story books are introduced in scenes and ballets. The piece is to be presented afterwards in New York by a professional cast.

Weaver Upholds Tillman's Course.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 7.—Gen. J. B. Weaver has sent the following letter to Senator Tillman: "I have just read with care your recent speech delivered in the senate. God bless you for your courageous and masterful effort. Keep your whip in your hand. It is the same one twice used in the temple scene at Jerusalem and you struck the same set of scallawags."

Boston Hotel Keepers Denounced.

Boston, Feb. 7.—The common council last night passed resolutions condemning recent discrimination made by two Boston hotel proprietors against Bishop Arnett of Ohio, on account of the latter's color, and urging upon the district attorney the "necessity of bringing the violators of our laws to a sure and speedy punishment."

Rome Bank Securities Sold.

Rome, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Receiver Stevens of the Central National bank of Rome yesterday afternoon sold at auction securities to the amount of $3,745. In all but one instance the bids were above the par value. All the securities were bought by Rome business men, and give evidence of confidence for the future.

Take HOOD'S PILLS for Your Liver

WHY?

QUESTIONS WOMEN ASK

Here Answered with Good Sound Reason.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Why do people say that Lydia E. Pinkham's treatment, especially her Vegetable Compound, effects cures beyond the physician's skill?

Because of the fact that a woman best understands a woman's ills. What man ever suffered a single pang like unto woman? Man works from theory only.

Why do tens of thousands of women write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., telling their most secret thoughts?

Because they know that their letters go straight to the hands of a woman, are opened, read, and answered by a woman, who as a woman has made woman's ills a life study, and because she never fails them, and cures cases which the doctor cannot.

The lady who asks that the following letter be published, gives concisely the uniform expression of gratitude contained in thousands of other letters in Mrs. Pinkham's possession.

"For eight years I suffered with neuralgia of the womb, backache, severe pains all through my body, and kidney trouble. None of the doctors did me any good. I took twelve bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and cannot thank you enough for the relief I found.

"I am now well cured of all those pains. I should advise every woman to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound who has any female trouble. I had a friend who was to go under an operation. I advised her first to try the Compound. She did, and is now so much better and stronger she has given up all thoughts of the operation." — MRS. M. WILDE, 2137 Park St., Tioga, Pa.

W. L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave, offers his services to straighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Mrs D T 2	Lane Samuel
Freeman A L	Mackentire Jos
Huff Bros	Mulligan Ellen
Halliday Frank	McKinley John
Hack Paulina	McLaughlin Mr C
Kingsbury John	Pope Alex Mrs 3
Kitchen Matie W	Robinson Jas A
King T P	Robertson R Mrs
Lackenasen Rachael	VanDerveer Francis
Zimmerman Josie Miss

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

California IN THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. t.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

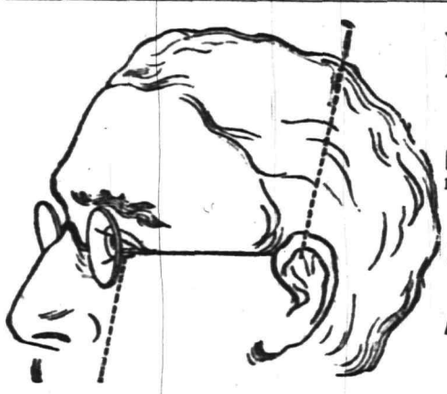
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

1o7 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate

For sale or to let.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.

BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
120 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Neuman Bros
FANCY GROCERIES
Watchung Ave. and 5th st

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM.
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

Hands Off.
Why try to press back a side ache with your hand, as so many do, when an Allcock's Porous Plaster
will not only relieve the pain but prevent its return. The best remedy known for weak back, strains, sprains, lameness and all local pains.
Bear in Mind—Not one of the host of counterfeits and imitations is as good as the genuine.
Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills.
A safe and sure remedy for diseases arising from impurity of the blood.

GEO. O. STEVENS
COAL
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

Don't Doubt
OUR Word!
WE ARE
Closing Out
our immense stock of
WALL PAPER, PAINTS, SHADES, RUGS, MOULDINGS, ETC.
Let us do your
Spring Decorating.

Edward Love,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

PROBABLY 15 DEAD

A Gang of Workman Swept Away with a Bridge.

PASSENGER TRAIN'S NARROW ESCAPE

A Railroad Structure Near Bristol Begins To Sink While a Train Is Crossing It—Goes Down with Men Sent To Make Repairs.

Hartford, Feb. 7.—Last evening a passenger train on the New England road had a narrow escape from wreck on the bridge between Bristol and Forestville, twenty miles west of here. The bridge began to sink but the train was pulled across. A wrecking party was then sent out and began to build a new bridge. About 9 o'clock, when the men were at work, the whole thing went away. Between fifteen and twenty workmen went down into the Pequatuck river and were drowned. Wrecking trains left here at 10:30 for the scene of the disaster.

Workmen the Victims.

All the lost were members of the construction gangs from Hartford and East Hartford and were residents of those points. The men were taking up iron rails on the old bridge when the accident happened and passing them to the new structure. A gang was working on each end and by some misunderstanding, it is supposed, all of them were called to the centre of the structure. Their weight, with the extraordinary rush of the current, is supposed to have directly caused the fall of the bridge.

Went Down with a Crash.

The structure went down with a crash, carrying with it its human freight, which was carried off in the boiling current. The cries of the men, the creaking of timber and the falling of iron work made a combined noise which was heard half a mile away. The half of the gang which had been resting on more solid foundation were horror-stricken and set to work to rescue the unfortunate men. Two men were fortunate enough to reach shore by their own exertions; others were saved by workmen, but about fifteen were drowned. Some of the rescued were badly injured by falling timbers.

BAYARD CHEERED.

At a Dinner in London He Speaks of the Ties Between England and America.

London, Feb. 7.—Ambassador Bayard attended a charity dinner given here last night. He made a speech in which he expressed his pleasure at being admitted to the personal sympathy of the English people. He said that when he recognized the community of sentiment existing between his country and theirs he felt that crossing the Atlantic was merely a change of faces, not a change of hearts. (Cheers). Their language and feeling did not need to be translated. They meant one and the same thing. What ought to be easier than to maintain such a transparent truth? Yet some persons might possibly contend that the aspirations of honest men here and there are different. He did not believe it. (Cheers). If there was a difference it was artificial. No form of words or exchange of sentiments was necessary. Only let human heart speak to human heart and it would be found that all differences could be arranged.

MORE WORK FOR DR. TALMAGE.

He Will Hereafter Relieve Dr. Sunderland in the Pulpit Sunday Mornings.

Washington, Feb. 7.—When Dr. Talmage came to Washington as co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church it was with the understanding that he was to preach only Sunday evenings. The morning service was to be conducted by Rev. Dr. Sunderland and the Rev. Mr. Allen, the other pastors of the church. Mr. Allen has resigned his pastorate, and at the urgent request of Dr. Sunderland and the trustees of the church it is now announced that Dr. Talmage has reconsidered his determination, and in future will preach Sunday mornings and evenings. Dr. Sunderland is advanced in years and finds the burden of conducting the morning service too heavy for him.

VENEZUELA MATTER.

Reported Settlement by England of a Part of the Dispute.

London, Feb. 7.—The Chronicle today says that it learns from good authority that a partial settlement between Great Britian and Venezuela has been effected or is on the verge of being effected. It adds that it believes that the settlement refers to the Yuruan affair, which consisted of the arrest of British officials by Venezuelans, for which Great Britain demanded the payment of an indemnity. The latter has held that this affair is entirely separate from the boundary dispute.

Incendiarism Suspected.

Watertown, N. Y., Feb. 7.—It is now believed here that the fires in two of Watertown's busiest business blocks yesterday morning, which damaged the Flower building to the extent of $6,000 and the Opera house $500, were the work of incendiaries. An investigation is being made.

Death of a Police Commissioner.

Hornellsville, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Morris Smith, president of the board of police commissioners, died last evening of pneumonia after a brief illness. He was a prominent democrat and a large capitalist.

May Do Business in New York State.

Albany, Feb. 7.—State surperintendent of insurance James F. Pierce has admitted the Schuylkill Fire Insurance company of Philadelphia to transact business of fire insurance in this state.

CUBAN BELLIGERENCY.

House Foreign Affairs Committee Discusses the Matter.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The question of recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents was freely discussed at the meeting last evening of the house committee on foreign affairs. Mr. Pearson of North Carolina precipitated the debate by suggesting that the house should formulate a resolution recognizing the belligerency of the Cubans without waiting further for the data from the state department which the committee called for several weeks ago. At that time the general subject of Cuban affairs was referred to a sub-committee, of which Mr. Adams of Pennsylvania is chairman. When Mr. Pearson had finished, the question was asked of Mr. Adams what ought to be the attitude of this government with reference to Cuban recognition. Mr. Adams, obviously, was not over friendly to the proposition. He thought the United States ought to proceed slowly in the matter. He went on to say that he had inquired among the larger business houses of Philadelphia as to the conditions in Cuba and that the replies had not been satisfactory. He proceeded from this point to define the legal status of the United States with reference to Spain, with whom we have treaties of amity and commerce and with whom also friendly relations exist. Other members of the committee questioned Mr. Adams upon other phases of the situation and the suggestion was advanced by Mr. McCreary of Kentucky that recognitions of this character were purely an executive function.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

Two Light Engagements Reported Through Government Sources.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Havana, Feb. 7.—Col. Tejerizo officially reports that he has had an encounter with rebels in Jibacoa pass, Manzanillo, in the western part of the province of Santiago de Cuba. Three rebels were killed and one was captured. Major Comas Vergara and four others of the Spanish forces were wounded. Gen. Godoy reports from Santa Clara that a number of rebels led by Pancho Perez, Matagas and Aragon attacked forty civil guards who were engaged in repairing the telegraph line near Alvarez. Two Spaniards were killed and five seriously wounded. Gen. Godoy pursued the rebels and overtook them near Juca. A fight took place, during which four of the insurgents were killed and a number wounded. The rebels retreated, carrying their wounded with them. The Spanish loss was one wounded. Gen. Godoy states that Matagas was mortally wounded, he having been shot twice in the breast.

HOUSE TARIFF BILL.

Senator Morgan Will Offer an Odd Substitute on Monday Next.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The amendment to the Quay resolution to recommit the house tariff bill with the free coinage substitute to the finance committee with instructions to report them as separate measures, which Mr. Morgan, dem., Ala., has given notice of introducing on Monday promises to further entangle the senate measure. Mr. Morgan's amendment is somewhat of an odd proposition, and even if it were passed would not likely amount to anything. The point of it is that countries which will by law make United States silver full legal tender money in payment of customs and of goods imported to this country shall have a deduction of ten per cent. allowed in United States customs duty on such goods if imported in United States vessels or in vessels belonging to that country.

National Banks and Savings Banks.

Albany, Feb. 7.—There is a growing feeling among financiers that state savings banks should be divorced from national banks of discount. The wrecking of the Port Stanwix National bank at Rome, in which the Rome Savings bank had its quarters, has strengthened this belief. A bill looking to this change may be introduced in the legislature.

Ordained a Minister.

Williamstown, Mass., Feb. 7.—Impressive ordinational services were held in the college chapel last evening, when John Hopkins Dennison was made a Congregational minister. Mr. Dennison graduated as valedictorian in 1890, spent two years at Andover theological college, and last year was assistant to Dr. Parkhurst of New York.

White House Reception.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland gave a reception last night at the White House in honor of the army, the navy and the marine corps, which was the most popular of the season, after that of the diplomatic corps. The decorations exceeded anything attempted before in the way of floral display.

Hundreds Starving at Fortune.

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 7.—The mail steamer Virginia Lake, just arrived here, reports that the destitution at Fortune, a fishing settlement on the French shore of Newfoundland, is increasing greatly. Hundreds of people are on the verge of starvation.

Fourth Class Postmasters Named.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The following fourth class postmasters have just been appointed: Maine—L. L. Witham, East Madison. New Jersey—George Schumacher, Lindenwold. Pennsylvania—J. F. Blandy, Horatio. Vermont—J. W. Shaw, Tinmouth.

Repudiate the Paper.

New York, Feb. 7.—At a meeting of the New York branch of the National Association of Postoffice Clerks a resolution was adopted repudiating all connection with the paper called the Fast Mail.

ALLOTMENT OF BONDS

Successful Bidders May Be Announced Late This Afternoon.

THE STORY OF IRREGULARITIES

Treasury Officials Pay No Attention to the Charges Except To Explain That Some Bids Were Opened Early To Expedite the Work.

Washington, Feb. 7.—By working day and night with expert accountants, Assistant Secretary Curtis hopes to be able to announce late this afternoon or to-morrow the names of those who were the successful bidders at the bond opening on Wednesday. The treasury has already on hand ready for delivery $40,000,000 registered bonds and $22,000,000 coupon bonds. Bonds of the latter character, principally of $1,000 denominations are being printed and delivered at the treasury at the rate of $2,000,000 a day. Many of the successful bidders indicated in their bid how they desired the bonds awarded them "broken up." Those who did not will be invited to do so when notified of the acceptance of their bids. Chief Johnson of the bureau of engraving and printing has practically all the bonds printed, with only the denomination to be put on some, and from present indications, with 120 days left in which all the bonds can be paid for, no delay is expected in their delivery.

Story of Fraud Given No Consideration.

The report that undue advantage was given to the bidders because some of the bids were opened prior to 12 o'clock, is not considered by the department officers, for the bulk of the large bids were not put in until within an hour of opening time. To facilitate the announcement of the bids, the small proposals, which had been coming in during the past thirty days, were opened Wednesday morning and tabulated. Many of them were for such small amounts and at such low figures that they cut no figure at all in the transaction.

Surprised Boston Bankers.

Boston, Feb. 7.—To say that the bond sale surprised financial circles in Boston hardly expresses the situation. It is recognized that the people of the whole country, especially of the east, have shown up their tin boxes and that the result must be a renewal of confidence everywhere. A favorable feature is that the loan was so well distributed; as it is, no great difficulty should be experienced in transferring the money. Until the awards have been made, money rates will not probably change to any extent. The larger the amount secured by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., the larger will probably be the influx of foreign gold. The Boston banks were unquestionably unprepared for such high bids. They believed the drag-net, that is, the large syndicate bids, would be below 110 and even lower than 109, and they did not want to be credited with too poor judgment as to their own bids. Every effort was made in New York to convey this impression in order to keep New England out.

Congratulations for Senator Elkins.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Senator Elkins of West Virginia, who introduced the resolution in the senate and made the fight, at first almost single-handed, that resulted in the passage of the resolution declaring against any future bond sales without due notice to the public, is the recipient of numerous telegrams and letters of congratulation. Mr. Elkins' colleagues award him the credit for much of the success that attended the bids for the loan of Wednesday.

A Generous Offer.

New York, Feb. 7.—Henry Evans, vice-president of the Continental Insurance company, has sent the following letter to Secretary Carlisle: "If our bid for $250,000, at par, of the United States 4 per cent. bonds, due 1925, made through John G. Stewart, is not accepted, we shall have to dispose of $50,000 in gold and will be glad to turn it into the United States treasury in exchange for other bankable funds at par." In a postscript Mr. Evans says: "If others would do the same it would help the treasury. We have no use for the gold and the government has."

Chicago Stock Market Affected.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Stocks on the local exchange still continue to advance, the success of the new government loan being the strengthening factor.

THE ANTI-PRIZE FIGHT LAW.

Its Passage May Prevent Dan Stuart's Proposed Fistic Carnival.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The bill passed by the senate yesterday prohibiting prize fighting in the territories was the bill passed by the house. It is now in the hands of the president and there appears to be but little doubt that he will sign it at once. If the bill becomes a law it may prevent the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight and the other events of the proposed fistic carnival in New Mexico, but Dan Stuart sends word that he will bring the event off at all hazards.

Life Imprisonment for Stephen Ryan.

New York, Feb. 7.—Stephen Ryan, on trial for the murder of James Walsh, a sailor on the United States receiving ship Vermont, has been convicted of murder in the second degree, which means imprisonment for life.

To Coach the U. of P. 'Varsity Crew.

Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—The rowing committee of the University of Pennsylvania Athletic association has elected Ellis Ward as coach of the 'varsity crew.

Henry David Leslie Dead.

London, Feb. 7.—Henry David Leslie, a well-known musical composer, is dead at Oswestry, Shropshire.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

105 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 7, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Fair Tonight and Saturday; Colder Tonight.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 42 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 7—Reception of American Social Club in Central Hall.
February 7—Borough Council meet.
February 8—Trip to Chinatown at Music Hall.

New Jersey is becoming virtuous and proposes to have a more stringent marriage law. This will hurt the divorce business, but perhaps that is precisely what the reformers are aiming at.—Rochester Union.

Which is better for the Republican party to lose, New Jersey's electoral vote next fall, or to pass the anti-race-track gambling amendment now? That's the dilemma, and as surely as there is a moral sentiment in New Jersey it will be one or the other.—Elizabeth Journal.

It is expected of Governor Griggs that he will make good appointments to office. That is easier said than done. He may have the best intentions in the world, yet not quite succeed by reason of circumstances which are more powerful, or he may not have that special insight into character which in the selection of officials is the most important qualification, but which is extremely rare, although nearly all men think they possess it. But the good purpose is the main thing, and when mistakes are made in spite of the excellent intention, they are overlooked. The Governor is supposed to consider party service to some extent, and his friendships will naturally guide him more or less; but it ought to be easy to learn whether a candidate is able to perform the duties well, whether his personal character is untainted and whether he has a reasonable share of public confidence. These things being determined, politics and personal relations may then be considered.—Newark Call.

Fleming's Anti-Cigarette bill is one of the interesting measures now before the Legislature. On the face of it, it would look like a strike, because it prohibits the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in the State of New Jersey, and it would be impossible to give statistics of how many are sold in this State; but Fleming claims to be sincere in his advocacy of the bill, having, as he says, a horrible example of excessive cigarette smoking right in his own family, and the bill is the result of solicitations by his near relatives. He is further encouraged by the reception of letters from a number of parents throughout the State, urging him to fight hard for its passage. Several local divisions of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have passed resolutions commending him for his stand. The bill, however, has been referred to the committee on education, and they are looking around to see just how and why cigarette smoking comes under the scope of their deliberations. Some seem to think that it belongs to agriculture.—Newark Advertiser.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Neuman Brothers are making special reductions in all table oils.

—Curtis' strawberry and assorted james are a feature of the bargains at Neuman Brothers this week.

—The line of success is located about half-way between hesitating and plunging. Do not hesitate in deciding to buy your embroideries at Peck's, and you will not be plunged into extravagance.

—The coaches at the Harold-Chapman wedding last evening were in charge of Frank Hedden, who handled them in his usual satisfactory manner. At the reception, Edwin B. Maynard added much to the comfort of the guests by his attention in the coat room.

—There was a very good attendance at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M., last evening, and three candidates were initiated. After the regular meeting the Oriental Court decided to initiate on the second Thursday in each month. Only one was given that degree last evening, but at the next meeting it is expected that there will be six or seven candidates.

—The handsome decorations at the First Baptist church last evening at the Harold-Chapman wedding, were furnished and arranged by Mrs. L. J. Denton, of Prospect Hill. She also had charge of the decorations at the home of L. W. Serrell, where the reception was held. There were many admirers of the artistic beauty of the decorations.

THE CHURCH OF GOD.

ALL DENOMINATIONS HAVE THE ONE GREAT AIM IN VIEW.

Rev. Jocelyn Johnstone Addresses the Revival Meetings and Thereby Shows the Church Unity in This City and Borough.

The interest of some of the people of the city in the revival meetings is so great that even the wild and stormy weather of last night could not keep them home. The audience was larger by far than one could expect for the night. The meeting commenced with the usual song service which was led by Charles Lewis.

Prayer was offered by Dr. William R. Richards, after which Dr. Johnson, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, read the last chapter of Revelations, beginning with the sixth verse, taking for his text the seventeenth verse of the same chapter.

Dr. Johnson spoke in part as follows:

"A few years ago I was a student in a theological semenary in Europe and while there heard an Armenian minister lecture; during the lecture he spoke of the characteristics of his own country, laying great stress upon the long dry season which is so common in the east, at which time all the streams, wells and springs are dry.

"St. John, when he wrote the text was familiar with this fact, since he was a native of that region and therefore wrote the text, fully appreciating the whole meaning of every word. The Spirit and the bride say, come, and let him that heareth say, come, and let him that is athirst, come, and whosoever will let him come and take the water of life freely.

"There is new force and a new lesson in each word of this verse, and I wish to bring them before you under three subjects. First, let me speak of the Spirit, that is the office of God as the Holy Spirit. We have a direct invitation from God as the Spirit to partake of everlasting life through his grace. Second, the bride is the second thought to which I ask your attention. The bride as spoken of by St. John, represents the Church of God. Thank God that I can stand in this Baptist pulpit, although being an Episcopalian, and preach to you the truths of God.

There is but one church and that the church of God, although founded upon different forms of government, yet they have only one basis and that basis is the Holy Spirit. In outward organization it is impossible to unite the churches, yet they are one church with Jesus Christ as its head.

Let us all pray that all bitterness may be removed from between us. As I look into the faces of all assembled before me I can see those who are united in Christ and have taken of the water of life, and now can say I have found the living water. Come to the fountain open for the forgiveness of sins.

The third subject is, "Let him that heareth say come." Here lies our personal responsibility God demands personal service. Do you think that I am the only one, being a minister, upon whom this responsibility rests? No, it rests equally upon us all, upon everyone here assembled. Every one of us is a priest of God. Do you think that I am the only priest in my congregation? No, every one in it is a priest of God. Why? Because the word of God has said so. "Ye are a royal priesthood."

The Christian Endeavor society is doing just the right thing, in that they are engaged in personal service for Christ and the church. Ask yourselves this question tonight: "Whom have I in this world of drought to come and take of the water of life?" And finally, "Whosoever will, let him come." This is the great message to us all, "whosoever will."

The Spirit and the bride say come, and let him that heareth say come, and let him that is athirst come, and whosoever will let him come and take the water of life freely.

Charles Lewis sang very sweetly the hymn "The Half Has Never Been Told."

The after meeting was led by Rev. Mr. Richardson, at the close of which he announced that the meeting tonight would be under the control of the young people.

Asbury Park's New Daily.

The Asbury Park Daily Star is the name of a new newspaper in Founder James A. Bradley's domain. It made its first appearance in the newspaper firmament last Monday and bids fair to be a permanent and valuable institution. Its proprietors are Love & Naher, R. D. Love being editor. J. H. Howland is the news editor. It presents a handsome typographical appearance and is edited in a bright and up to-date manner.

Almost Smashed His Finger.

Patrick Keenan, a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley railroad, had his finger caught between the bumpers of two freight cars and nearly smashed at South Plainfield, Wednesday. Mr. Keenan lives at South Plainfield.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

"Pure and Sure."

Cleveland's BAKING POWDER

"I prefer Cleveland's baking powder because it is pure and wholesome. It takes less for the same baking, it never fails, and bread and cake keep their freshness and flavor."

MISS CORNELIA CAMPBELL BEDFORD, Supt. New York Cooking School.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

George Wills, of LaGrande avenue, is recovering from an attack of the measles.

Mrs. Williams, of Union avenue, entertained a few friends yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. T. O. Bullock, of Orange, is a guest at the home of Albert Hedden, of Park avenue.

Mrs. Curtis M. Thorpe, of Norwood avenue, has recovered from an attack of throat trouble.

Mrs. Edwards, of Craig place, has gone to New York, where she will remain for the winter.

Mrs. Haines, of Mountain avenue, has recovered from her recent illness and is once more able to be out.

On the return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Chapman will reside with Mrs. Truell on Central avenue.

Mrs. Isaac Tayner, of East Third street, who was taken with a paralytic stroke last Monday, remains in the same condition.

A. A. Mills, of Summit avenue, has accepted a position with W. J. Conroy in his carriage-painting department on Somerset street.

Miss Blanche Briant, of Lake Hopatcong, will spend Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Randolph, of West Front street.

NOVEL SUIT TO BE STARTED.

A Vermont Church Will Sue for Money Left by a Plainfield Man.

An effort is now being made to secure for the Congregational church, of Hartford, Vt., a legacy of $1,000 left it by Edward W. Marsh, who died in this city, in 1878.

A Brooklyn man who owned some property in this city, wanted to sell it, and found a purchaser. The purchaser's lawyer, in looking up the title of the property, ran across the will of Mr. Marsh, who had formerly owned the land. The legacy to the Vermont church had apparently never been satisfactorily settled and the lawyer wrote to the church authorities, who investigated the matter.

The will provided that in event of the executors failing to remove the bodies of Mr. Marsh and his brothers to the town burying place in Hartford the Congregational church of that town should receive $1,000. A brother, Leonard Marsh, and Carman Parse, were named as executors. Leonard, who was also a residuary legatee, never qualified as executor, and Parse administered the estate.

So far as is known, the provisions of the will either as regards the disposal of the bodies or the paying of the money, have never been carried out, and a suit will be started to reopen the estate, though nearly thirty years have passed.

Missionary Silver Reception.

At the womans missionary meeting held in the First Baptist church this week, plans were made for the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Womans Foreign Missionary society of the eastern and middle states. To celebrate this anniversary, receptions will be held by circles throughout the states on the afternoon of February 28th, when, with appropriate exercises, the silver boxes distributed in the autumn for a special offering, will be opened. The committee in charge of the reception to be held in the First Baptist church, consists of the following women: Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Yerkes, Mrs. S. T. Wilson, Mrs. O. B. Leonard, Miss A. Bolce, Miss M. French, Mrs. A. Thorn, Miss Ida Yerkes, Mrs. William Chapman and Mrs. Shreve.

Milk Was Late.

Such of the milk supply of New York as comes from that part of New Jersey through which the Central road and its connections run was short this morning. Most of the Central's milk-carrying trade comes from its Rockaway Valley branch, and as this connects with the main line by the Branch at Somerville, which is flooded, last night's milk could not come through.

Exhibition of Illustrations.

George Wharton Edwards of this city has on exhibition at the Keppel Gallery, East Sixteenth street, New York, some admirably drawn illustrations of Spenser's "Epithalamion," and a number of water colors of sea coast scenery, all done in the felicitous and effective way that marks his work.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—The regular weekly prayer meeting of Warren chapel will be held this evening.

—The Plainfield Lady Cyclers are planning a theatre party for next week Saturday.

—It will pay you to examine Pargiters prices on tamoshanters, ribbons and men's underwear.

James W. Rockafellow, brother of Constable George R. Rockafellow, died at Trenton February 5th.

—The T. A. B. society will hold a ball at their hall on Tuesday, Feb. 11th. O'Reilly will furnish the music.

—A very helpful devotional service was held at the W. C. T. U. rooms yesterday despite the inclement weather.

—Fred Howard, son of George H. and Mabel M. Rockafellow, died February 6th, aged three month and eleven days.

—The reception of the American Social Club will be held in Central Hall, this evening. The grand march will commence at 9 o'clock.

—The programme for the Sons of Veterans entertainment to be given Thursday evening, Feb. 12th, is about completed. It gives promise of being a very pleasant event.

THEATRICAL.

The coming of "A Trip to Chinatown" to Music Hall brings with it a knowledge that Mr. Charles Hoyt's farce comedy has excelled, so far as the annals of theatrical history are concerned, all precedents. For six hundred and fifty six consecutive performances it held sway at Hoyt's Theatre, New York. Previous to that the longest runs ever known to a New York Theatre has been "Hazel Kirke" 486 times; "Humpty Dumpty" 483 times, and "Adonis" 603 times. So far as the realms of farce comedy are concerned, the marvelous success of "A Trip to Chinatown" has never been approached. In the production at Music Hall not only will the complete New York cast be seen, but there will be an entire carload of scenery from Hoyt's Theatre, and it may be remarked incidentally that it is something new for a farce comedy production to require an entire carload of scenery.

Operated upon strict business principles presenting attractive plays, introducing clever specialties, capable players and unusual orchestral features, and allowing the public to see all these commendable things at a very low rate of admission are elements of the immense success that has everywhere attended the Waite Comedy Co., Band and Orchestra. In the west, through New England and in the Middle States it has been the same story everywhere; crowded theatres and pleased audiences. There are thirty-five people in the Waite Comedy Company this season—a metropolitan acting company—an orchestra of ten men and a number of specialty artists who present some new, bright musical and dancing sketches at each performance. The Waite Comedy Company open at Music Hall on Monday evening and a succession of crowded houses is sure to follow.

Bargains in White's Housefurnishing Department.

Having placed on sale over 1,000 pieces of granite iron and crystal steel enameled ware, consisting of rice boilers, sauce pans, cooking pots and coffee pots. The prices are about the same as those quoted on ordinary tinware. 250 pieces of 4 quart crystal steel cooking pots, with bail, at 17 cents, worth 50 cents.

Talk of a New Road.

The Union County Board of Freeholders yesterday afternoon, in Elizabeth, appointed a committee to confer with a committee from the Middlesex County Board in regard to the advisability of building a road from Elizabethport to Carteret.

Gail Borden Eagle BRAND Condensed Milk HAS NO EQUAL

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

You Will Not Wonder

After Seeing Peck's Great Display of Wash Goods and Embroideries.

THE DALZIEL ART SCHOOL,

309 East Front St.,

Is An Established Success.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique—Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at THE WOMEN'S SCHOOL OF DESIGN, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

THE WET GOODS

The loss on the goods damaged by water caused by the bursting of the automatic sprinkler in the show window of Edsall's Commercial Palace has been adjusted and the goods will be offered for sale on Friday Morning, February 7th.

There is not a very large lot of them and they were but slightly wet with clean water, and damaged but very little. They are marked, however, at a very low price in order to turn them into quick cash.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

There are a dozen or fifteen handsome plush capes, elegantly trimmed with fur and silk lined; the original price was $25 to $35. They will go for about $9 to $11.

Some silk waists that sold for $9.75. The will go from $4.50 to $5.

Some extra fine separate Skirts that sold for $8.39 and up. They will go for about $5, and some as low as $1.98.

There is quite a lot of Ladies Muslin Underwear, Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset Covers and Drawers. Of course the mere wetting of these with clean water has not damaged them for use at all, but they will go at less than half price.

There are about seventy-five to one hundred fine Corsets sold from 75cts., to $1.50. They will go at 35cts. each.

Now, of course you understand that the quantity of these wet goods are limited. They cannot be duplicated and in order to prevent any one from being disappointed who may not be fortunate to secure some of the wet goods bargains, we have spent considerable time in the market picking up big bargains of various kinds to put in this sale, so as to make the occasion worthy of a large attendance. So come along with the crowd. There will be some very telling bargains on both floors of our immense store.

China Department.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

One lot fine China Cuspidores, finely decorated, floral designs. Sold at 29cts. readily. This sale only 21cts.

One lot fine China bedroom Lamps, handsomely decorated in colors and gold. Were good sellers at 97c. This sale only 69c.

One lot Library Lamps, various styles and prices. To reduce the stock, your choice for $1.09. They sold for much higher prices.

We also offer at this sale some rare bargains in a lot of Banquet Lamps. Space is too short to give details. Come in and see them. They talk for themselves.

A very telling bargain in a lot of beautiful glass fruit dishes. In appearance resembling cut glass, very handsome designs. The price is for this sale only 13cts.

Something very pretty in crystal glass Rose Bowls, looks like cut glass. They go at only 10cts.

Carpet Department.

One lot Samples of fine Velvet and Moquette Carpets, 1¼ yards long, finished ends. Choice for 99cts.

One lot of all-wool Art Squares, 2¼ by 3 yards. For this sale only $4.79.

One lot of best Tapestry Brussels Carpets, 6 different patterns. This sale only 53cts.

Grocery Department.

Potted Ham, can	10c	Extra Can Pears	11c
" Tongue	10c	Fine Silver Prunes	12c
Ox Tongue, 1½ pound can	45c	Condensed Milk	7c. up
Clam Chowder, box	10c	String Beans, can	6c
Smoked Halibut, "	10c	Soap	2½c
Mustard Sardines	8c	Dried Beans	8c
Boston Baked Beans	10c	Lard	6 & 10c
14 Can Fine Tomatoes	98c	Butter, good	20c
14 Can Sugar Corn	98c	Glass of Mustard	10c
Fine Early June and Mar. Peas 8c. up		Pint Jar Mustard	20c

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	19	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	18	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	17
Cranford	837	6	22

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
Cranford C. C.	4	5	1557
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

The game between the Plainfield Catholic Club and the Institutes, of Newark, is the Diocesan Union, which was to have been rolled last evening, was indefinitely postponed.

The married and single men of the Crescent Wheelmen met last evening on the club alleys. It was a cinch for the Benedicts and they led from the first frame to the last. A two-ball game was bowled and some of the scores were remarkable as the following score will show:

BENEDICKS.		BACHELORS.
Wilbur	132	VanEmburgh	130
Buckle	184	Coward	102
VanSickle	101	Baker	155
Lister	130	Jones	100
Hand	121	Saunders	109
Giles	113	Titsworth	101
Woolston	134	Pearson	110
Stephenson	181	Clarkson	130
Kiely	115	Petrie	169
Wiseman	100	Maltby	124
	1311		1230

BY FRAMES.

Benedicks. 144 290 403 536 693 821 913 1049 1187 1311
Bachelors. 110 220 340 453 571 675 796 948 1122 1230

WITH ROD AND GUN.

Jack Welch shot a wild goose near New Brooklyn pond last Tuesday.

While practicing at the Climax Gun Club's grounds Wednesday, Charles Smith broke sixteen clay pigeons out of sixteen.

The Flood at Elizabeth.

The Elizabeth River is higher than at any time since the memorable freshet of 1882, and the water last night was up to the top of the arches of the bridges that span the stream, and grave fears were entertained for their safety at the next high tide, as the water had only receded a little. Tde water was also flowing over the top of the reservoir and the pumping house was completely flooded.

The tide invaded the engine rooms of several factories at Elizabethport, putting out the fires, and the work had to be stopped in consequence. The Long Branch and Newark branches of the Jersey Central were submerged, causing delay in travel. The waves also washed clean over the Newark Bay bridge. A panic was caused in the Park Hotel, near the Singer Sewing Machine Works, by the rocking of the building caused by the heavy wind, and the guests fled into the streets. The total rainfall up to 8 o'clock last night was nearly 4 inches.

A Horrible Experience.

Policeman Vanderweg met a man at a late hour last evening wandering about town looking for the Revere house. He had several heavy packages with him and this weight together with the wind was the cause of him losing his bearings. The officer put him on the right road and thought he was all right. But the wanderer lost his way a second time, and the officer found him in the rear of the Jackson building attempting to strike a match. Upon inquiry it was learned that he had lost his hat, in the cellar, and was trying to find it. Being unable to, he was again directed right, and this time the man reached his destination.

A Slight Runaway.

A horse and wagon belonging to Leypold Kuntz, of the borough, was standing on Manning avenue early this morning when for some cause the horse became frightened and ran away. The rig went through Somerset street at a rapid gait. When near Summit avenue a Daily Press representative, who was in that vicinity, ran out and captured the horse. There was no damage to the rig, and the owner came along in a few minutes and took charge.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Yvette Guilbert, the French celebrity, is responsible for the latest fashion of wearing long black gloves with evening dress. It is all the go in New York.

Mrs. Reed, wife of the speaker of the house, does not go out in society this winter because of the death of her mother, which occurred last summer. Mr. Reed's daughter, who is a sweet-looking blonde, was "out" last winter and is among the gay set this year.

Prince Henry of Battenberg, who goes with the Ashantee expedition, has taken the precaution to insure his life for $500,000, so that if he is struck down by an African assegai, meeting the same fate which befell the prince imperial of France, his family will not be left in destitution.

Lord Salisbury is a vastly rich man. He received $1,000,000 for his property in the Strand, he derives an immense income in the shape of untaxed ground rents in London and in the country, and while in office as prime minister he receives the pay attached to the office, and while out of office the pension of an ex-cabinet minister.

P. T. Barnum, the late showman, owned some property in Venezuela, which during one of the revolutions there several years ago was confiscated and destroyed. Through the United States government Mr. Barnum made a claim for compensation and was awarded $1,400. The Venezuelan government was not able to pay a lump sum, but agreed to pay it in ten annual installments, with interest added. So the executors of the Barnum estate receive from the republic of Venezuela now each year a check for something like $150.

NEWSPAPER WAIFS.

Not Literal.—"Teacher—"If a boy smites you on the right cheek, what should you do?" Dick Hicks—"Give it to him with me left."—Puck.

Edith—"I'm in a quandary!" Isabel—"How is that?" Edith—"Tom promises to stop drinking if I marry him, and Jack threatens to begin if I don't."—Tit-Bits.

Miss Pert—"Is Miss Strait Lace circumspect?" Miss Caustic—"Circumspect! Why, she won't accompany a young man on the piano without a chaperon."—Salem Gazette.

In Chicago.—Visitor—"Where is it that man lives? Must be outside the city limits, isn't it?" Resident—"Outside the what?" Visitor—"The city limits." Resident—"We haven't any."—Puck.

A French confectioner, proud of his English and wishing to let patrons know that their wants should be attended to at once, without any delay, put out the sign: "Short Weights Here."—Harper's Drawer.

Parson—"I married Smithers to his first wife and he gave me $50. When I married him to his second he gave me five dollars." Wiggles—"He knew more about matrimony the second time, I guess."—Harper's Bazar.

"Have a paper?" bawled a newsboy to an old gentleman from the country on Austin avenue. "No hurry, sonny. Perhaps after you have read it I'll glance over it," and as he passed down the street he muttered: "Nice folks, these Austin people; so polite to a stranger."—Texas Siftings.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

A great deal more honey would be consumed in the cities if the unadulterated article could be procured and its purity vouched for.

If you don't think the best stock pays look around through your neighborhood and see if the best farmers don't keep the best stock.

It is estimated that grain fed to suckling lambs designed for the butcher at an early day pays at the rate of two dollars a bushel for corn anywhere in the eastern and middle states.

English sheep owners litter the pens in which sheep are housed with burnt clay as a preventative of foot rot. The clay acts as an absorbent and makes a good fertilizer.

Don't try to hatch chicken with hens in midwinter unless you are willing to devote time in caring for the broods. Hens cannot raise chicks in winter unless kept in a warm place.

When sulphur is given to animals in winter it is liable to cause them to take cold, as it opens the pores of the skin. It is said to also cause rheumatism if given during damp weather.

One reason why cattle will go out in the barnyard during inclement weather and endure cold and dampness in preference to remaining inside is that the stalls are too dark and cheerless.

FOREIGN NOTES.

Mascagni has taken up the duties of director of the Liceo musicale, founded by Rossini in his birthplace, Pesaro, and will give up composition for a time.

Mme. Jeanne Hugo, the granddaughter of Victor Hugo, who was recently divorced from her husband, Alphonse Daudet's son, is about to marry a young doctor of Paris.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

His Preference.

A Milyun Haire—My daughter Blanche returns from Europe to-day, sir. Make arrangements for a stunning reception to her. I give you carte blanche.

His Secretary—I would be perfectly satisfied, sir, if you would only give me Blanche.—Truth.

Accounted For.

Bingly—Stacy seems to be mightily fond of his wife of late.

Snags—Well, no wonder. Since the financial depression she has become her own maid, and for the life of him he can't keep from kissing her.—N. Y. World.

Honestly Acquired.

The Tourist—You seem to be proud of your family title.

The New York Millionaire Abroad (proudly)—Of course, I am. I paid for it in good hard dollars.—Chicago Record.

Educational Item.

First Boy—How do you like your new teacher?

Second Boy—He is not a lightning teacher. He strikes several times in the same place.—Texas Siftings.

Clean Sweep.

"Who took the rubbers at the whist party?"

"Don't know. Wasn't interested. What I want to know is who took the umbrellas."—Cincinnati Tribune.

Entirely Different Things.

Heeler—Is it because you're out of work that you're looking so blue?

The ex-Inspector (just dismissed)—No; it's because I'm out of a job.—Chicago Record.

He Indulged.

Mrs. Brown—Have you an indulgent husband?

Mrs. Green—Oh, yes, indeed—he comes home intoxicated nearly every night.—Truth.

Vindictive.

Mrs. Husband—Mother says she will be here to-morrow. What room shall we give her?

Mr. Husband—The one with the folding-bed in it.—Judge.

Suspicious.

Sussell Rage—Come out with me for luncheon to-day.

Ontnim—No, thank you; I haven't the price.—N. Y. World.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Chamber Music Concert,

—AT—

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

MRS. HALL'S ENTERTAINMENTS

FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

at 3 o'clock.

February 7—MRS. LAURA E. RICHARDS. Readings from Captain January, Jim of Hellas, etc.
February 21—REV. W. HUDSON SHAW, M. A., of Oxford University, England, lecture on VENICE.
March 6—MRS. FLORENCE HOWE HALL, lecture on General Francis Marion and the Hugenots of South Carolina.

Tickets, Course, $2. Single $1.

May be obtained at Mr. Estil's Bookstore and at the drug stores. 243

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

No Escape.

Mrs. Getthere (enthusiastic worker at church fair)—Now, Mr. Slimpurse, you really must take a chance in this beautiful pipe; you really must. Just think, the pipe is worth twenty dollars, and the chances are only one dollar each.

Mr. Slimpurse (edging off)—Very sorry, madam, but I don't smoke.

Mrs. Getthere—Oh, but you can learn, you know.

Mr. Slimpurse—Tobacco does not agree with me. I would have no earthly use for a pipe.

Mrs. Getthere (struck with a bright idea)—Well, there isn't the slightest probability of your drawing it, you know.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Well Known Man.

"I would like these poems published in book form," said a seedy-looking man to a New York publisher.

"I will look them over, but I can tell you now I only publish the books of literary men whose names are well known."

"Then you will publish my poems, for my name is known wherever the English tongue is spoken."

"Ah, indeed; what is your name?"

"John Smith."—Texas Siftings.

In Doubt.

The lady from Chicago
Let fall a pearly tear.
"I wonder what man's wife I'll be."
She softly sighed, "next year?"
—Judge.

NOTICE.

Special Reductions

—AT—

Neuman Bros.

on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.

NEUMAN BROS.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

MAN wants situation as coachman or on farm; good reference. Call 513 West 6th st.

MAN wants work at anything. 524 West 4th st.

LOST—White fox terrier dog; brown spot over right eye, long tail; collar on, registered No. 116. Please return stable 1107 Watchung ave. 272

LOST—Dog with white face, feet dark brown; name Sport. Finder please return to T. Horner, 817 Richmond street and receive reward.

HOUSE wanted, $25 per month; all improvements, 5 bedrooms; good location. Address with all particulars E., care Press. 273

$1,500 AND $1,000 to loan at 5 per cent. Address P. O. Lock Box 772.

FOR SALE or to let for term of years, the very desirable residence 662 West 7th st., with large grounds, garden and barn; for terms apply on the premises. John E. Stewart. 276

GIRLS Wanted—Seamsters, Chambermaids, Cooks and General Houseworkers. Room 209 Babcock Building.

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 232w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 24 tf-2aw

FOR SALE—A cutter in first-class condition, with shafts. Can be seen at 47 Washington ave. 245

$50 WEBER square piano for sale. Inquire at 123 West 7th street. 236

WANTED—Situation as gardener by experienced man; best of city references. Address G. M., P. O. Box 383, city. 236

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

Plainfield's GREATEST STORE.

There are many ways of running a business, but only one way that leads to success. Our way of procuring the best salespeople we can, paying fair salaries and having nothing but workers from the head of the house down to the boy. Hence our great success. It's why 75c and sometimes 50c does the work here that it takes a dollar to do in other stores. Wise buying and being on the inside of the market enables us to clip off profits that other merchants pay.

Now for February.

RIBBONS.

Prices broken in two on many lots of new ribbons. Just think of handsome Dresden and printed warp ribbons 29c the yard. We will clear out the odds and ends of our ribbon sale at 14c the yard. Many good things among them.

DRESS SILKS.

Today we are showing over fifty styles of new dress silks. The new Persian and Dresden designs that are going to be all the rage the coming season. Handsome black silks and satins and we are naming very little prices on them—39 to 98c the yard.

EMBROIDERIES.

Two immense lots of pretty new embroideries bought at half their real value. Will go on sale tomorrow. Lot No. 1, 5c the yard; lot No. 2, 10c the yard, and not a piece in the entire lot worth less than double what we ask.

TOWELS.

Tomorrow we place on sale 100 dozen fine huck towels, hemstitched borders, same as you usually pay 25c for. Our price will be 13 cents.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL HOUSEFURNISHING SALE.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. $2.50 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 4 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE Hatter, 120 West Front st

Waverley BICYCLES.

Highest of High Grades.

Are the Most Popular in the World.

Evidenced by the fact that there were more of them sold in '95 than any other make. Be sure to see sample before purchasing your '96 wheel.

Made by Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

F. L. C. MARTIN, AGENT. 1 27 eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

ON STEALING BICYCLES.

BY LUKE SHARP.

A CERTAIN news agency has telegraphed abroad the report that I am in Switzerland, not for the benefit of my health, but for the purpose of stealing bicycles, and added that I was an expert thief, that, for a time at least, I had succeeded in baffling the most praiseworthy attempts of the police of two towns to capture me.

While this statement is naturally flattering to me, it is nevertheless a libel, and, in fact, if I cared to use strong language, I might go so far as to take the last syllable away from the word "libel."

The whole trouble arose through Switzerland not having a proper language of its own, that hilly country preferring to express what few thoughts it has in a mixture of French, German and Italian, depending on what particular canton you happen to be in. They say that the Swiss are natural linguists. Unfortunately, they are. Any combination of sounds you may make, means something to any Swiss to whom you happen to be talking, for he knows so many langages that you are sure to hit one of them, and so you convey ideas to him that you had no thought of expressing.

October weather is lovely in Switzerland. Most of the visitors have then gone, prices come down one-half, and the air is sweet and cool, with usually a cloudless sky.

Under these circumstances I thought it would be a nice thing, as the roads were good and the scenery picturesque, to take a bicycle tour right around Lake Thun, beginning at the town which gives the lake its name, and going around to the north side of the lake to Interlaken, and returning by the south shore.

The hotel keeper told me that if I went up the street, turned to the right, went under an arcade until I came to a tunnel, penetrated that and emerged on another street, turned to the left and kept on, I would come to the shop of a man who would let me have a bicycle on hire by the day or the hour. I followed the directions as closely as possible, and thought I recognized the shop because a bicycle was leaning against the wall. The owner was leaning against the doorway, looking at the bicycle outside. The following conversation in many languages took piace between us:

"Haben sie un bicyclette a louer?" I opened out on him with the above impartial mixture of German and French. It seems he understood me to ask if that was his bicycle, whereupon he replied in four languages:

"Yaw, yaw, oui, yes, se."

Then, throwing in a bit of Italian, I led off with:

"Quanta costa la machine a la hoor, oder per tag?"

Now I submit that to any educated person, or even to a university man, this sentence said as plainly as print: "How much do you want for this machine by the hour or the day?" I tried afterwards to get the magistrate to see this, but he, not knowing Italian, shied at the very beginning of the phrase. The owner of the bicycle on oath declares that he thought I asked how much the bicycle had cost him. He says he answered that he paid 500 francs for that brute of a machine, made in France, while I understood him to agree to let me have it for five francs a day, which was cheap. I was in a hurry to be off, and was afraid he might repent his offer, so I said it was all right and I would take it, whereupon, without further parley, I wheeled the bicycle into the middle of the road, sprang on its back, and was off, leaving the astonished man standing by the door, too thunderstruck, it seems, to make any outcery until I had passed beyond his sight at the first turning in the road.

"YAW, YAW, OUI, YES, SEE."

I pedaled serenely on, little realizing what a commotion I had left behind me, and the one funny thing about this most regretable episode is that I spent an exceedingly quiet, peaceful and enjoyable day, not knowing I was pursued, making no attempt to elude anybody, and yet eluding them in what appeared afterwards to be by subtle and crafty dodges. The magistrate could not be persuaded that my sitting on the veranda of a restaurant in the main street of Interlaken, with the bicycle in plain view of everybody, was not the brazen act of a hardened criminal, who knew the police would be searching for him in the back streets.

When the man standing against the doorway had recovered partly from his amazement at my sudden flight on his machine he rushed to the police station and told the authorities there a plausible foreigner had engaged him in polite Ollendorfian conversation, and, while his mind was distracted in trying to follow his remarks, had seized the opportunity and also the machine and was at that moment making his way by the north road towards Interlaken.

Now, capture under these circumstances seemed to be deliciously easy. There were no branching off roads. The mountains were on one side and the lake on the other, on neither of which was bicycling practicable. Therefore all the two policemen had to do, when they mounted their machines, was to ride faster than I did and so overtake me. As I had no idea that a race was on, I plugged along in a leisurely manner and would undoubtedly have been taken near Interlaken if it had not been for the fact that some years ago a company built a funicular railway from the margin of the lake, a mile or so up to St. Beatenburg. I had lived in St. Beatenburg once, and I remembered that the road from there to Interlaken was a good one, so I thought that perhaps it would not be a bad plan to go up on the railway and coast down to Interlaken. I knew a man who had done it once. I can well believe now that no one ever tries it the second time. The car goes up to St. Beatenburg three or four times a day only, but when a couple of miles away from the landing I saw a steamer coming in and I knew if I reached the landing about the time she did I would get a car.

The policemen, it seems, caught sight of me as I was making my spurt, and they at once put on extra steam, but there is a deep bay just before one reaches the funicular and they lost sight of me as I turned the point. I just managed to catch the car and got on board somewhat short of wind. As we went up I noticed an innocent and unfortunate Englishman standing on the road at the foot of the hill with his bicycle beside him, and he was watching us go up, taking a rest at the same time before mounting the steep hill that rose between him and his destination. I had little idea at the time that I was making trouble for that unknown stranger, and I hope he will accept my apologies if this recital should chance to meet his eye.

THEY ARRESTED HIM ON THE CHARGE OF STEALING HIS OWN BICYCLE.

The policeman overtook him near the top of the hill, and, with the craft that distinguishes all continental officials, they said nothing, but followed him until he reached Interlaken, where, in spite of his protestations, they arrested him on the charge of stealing his own bike. The man was justly indignant, and showed them his customs receipt from the French government, and it was no use; they knew they had the right man, and they telephoned to Thun for the owner of the machine to come to Interlaken on the next steamer and identify his property. This took a few hours, and when they let the poor man go, he was exceedingly hungry and angry, swearing he was going to bring an action against the Swiss authorities, as if that would do any good.

Meanwhile, I had reached the top of the railway funicular and I bicycled the mile or more along the street, high up above the lake, on one side of which is scattered the village of St. Beatenburg, with its wonderful view of the snow mountains—the Jungfrau, the Eiger, the Monch and a host of others.

I found the ride down the zig-zag road not such fun as I had expected. I saw the brake was not going to last if I kept on, so I had to walk most of the way down. Coming to a more level ground, I cycled gently into Interlaken, making for the place where they sell Munich beer, and there, over a mug and a sandwich, on the main street, I made a frugal lunch with the bicycle standing against a pillar of the veranda.

After a smoke, I proceeded out of Interlaken, and took the south road that borders the lake. This road is not so good for cycling as the other, being much more hilly, while the roadbed is more stony. I therefore walked a good deal, taking it very leisurely, and in course of time I was overtaken by a policeman who also was walking with his machine. He asked me if I had met a man on a bicycle coming from Thun, and I told him quite truly that I had not. He seemed discouraged, and told me all about the bicycle theft and the arrest of the wrong man. He feared the thief had hidden in the forest until he and his comrade went past, and then perhaps took the steamer across the lake; or the villain might merely have pretended to take the north road, while in reality he went by the south. Thus the policeman hoped to meet him yet. I promised to keep a lookout, and the officer went on.

When I reached Thun, and came to the place where I got the bicycle, I found the man was in Interlaken, and his wife, who knew all about the robbery, was amazed to see the thief return the machine and place five francs and his thanks on the counter.

I regret to say that the apparent honesty of this action did not commend itself to the authorities. They looked on it as the ruse of a crafty scoundrel who realized that, so vigilant were the police, it was impossible for him to escape, and so endeavored to throw dust in the eyes of the wise men of the place.

Thus the bicycle at five francs a day was not so cheap as I had at first supposed.—Detroit Free Press.

Removal Sale!

Will remove to the much larger store, 129 East Front st., now occupied by Mr. Gavett, on or about March 25, 1896. I will therefore offer the following lines at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing,

also Neckwear, to reduce stock previous to removal.

Men's Overcoats $4 05, $7.20, $9.00, $10.80, $12.60 and Upward.

Men's Suits $4.05 $5.40, $6.30, $7.20, $9, $10.80 and Up

Boys' and Children's Clothing in proportionately low prices. 50c Neckwear in four-in-hand and tecks at 25C. A beautiful assortment. All the above goods are new this season. Watch this ad.

HARRY M. JAQUETT,

123 East Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

One Price CASH One Price

and money refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

GOOD CLOTHING

Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our cloth- It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits

have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits

for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844. ——made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (96 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE

Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.
Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.
Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.
Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL,

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

J. E. Beerbower, Prop

Stables attached

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patrick	McIntyre C E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Ladie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.
Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET.

Opp. First National Bank.
Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.

You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at

J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., ooo. North ave

Musicfurnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 20, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 02, 10 05, 11 35 a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 38, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35, 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 36, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 35, 10 35, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 22, 2 43, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh. Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 25 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m., 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,

EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

——Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son.

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

B. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

225 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. 1:13 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

—IN—

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

CATARRH ELY'S Cream Balm

COLD IN HEAD

Is quickly absorbed, cleanes the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell.

It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c. at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS, 56 Warren st., New York.

A RIGHT START.

The Child is Lucky Who Gets the Proper Kind of One.

Not Wealth or Position Alone Means "Starting Right"—Health Counts for Something.

When a child is born to very wealthy parents, we are inclined to say, "what a start in life it has." If it is a girl, the father may give a bridal present of a million dollars. If a boy, the father may take him in partnership, and give him many millions.

But what does all this amount to if the family history shows that there is a marked tendency to the development of serious disease? What comfort, if one expects that every slight cold may terminate in consumption; or every nervous pain indicate approaching nervous prostration, or even insanity? Wealth cannot make happiness when pain is present, and the shadow of approaching disease always hovering near.

Happy is the child who inherits a sound constitution. He laughs at a little cold, and does not mind a darting pain or two. But, alas, many of us inherit a tendency to weak lungs, an inability to endure exposure, or some weakness of the nervous system. Yet, with a perfectly sound ancestry, we may still suffer from all these and other complaints.

It is a great gift to have a strong nervous system. Neuralgia, sciatica, nervous dyspepsia, inability to concentrate the mind, sleeplessness, and nervousness are symptoms of weak nerves. Opiates and other narcotics, do not strengthen nerves; they weaken, debilitate. To be sure they may quiet a temporary pain, but the real cause, which is one of weakness, remains.

Weak nerves call for food and nerve tonics. The hypophosphites are generally acknowledged to be the best nerve tonics. They tone up the whole nervous system, and every part of the body responds. Cod-liver oil supplies a valuable food to all the tissues; while the medicinal agents which naturally exist in this oil exert their good effects also. Scott's Emulsion is a combination of the best cod-liver oil and the purest hypophosphites. It is called an emulsion, because the oil is emulsified or digested. Hence it is more acceptable to invalids, and all those who do not have very strong digestive powers. One dose of Scott's Emulsion may not quiet pain, but one bottle will often so strengthen the nervous system that no pain will be present to quiet.

Nearly twenty-five years ago the proprietors of Scott's Emulsion discovered a process of emulsifying Cod-liver Oil, so as to remove from it almost entirely its obnoxious fishy taste and smell, and at the same time increasing its food and remedial properties. They found also that by combining the Hypophosphites with it that they added still further to its power.

Since that time thousands of imitations have come into the field, but the original has never been equalled.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5½c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2½ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5½c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

INGENUITY OF CRIMINALS.

A Detective Cites Some Instances of Boldness and Cunning.

Whipped for "Shaking the Doll"—How London Babies Are Trained in Crime—Mystery of a Diamond Necklace—A Mid-Day Burglary.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

I RAN across my old friend Banks, the detective, a few days ago, and over a large cold bottle and a small hot bird, we chatted of our experiences. Banks had seen a good deal since I last met him. Apropos of the Burden robbery and other recent crimes that have baffled the police, our conversation turned on criminal ingenuity. My friend cited several instances which interested me greatly.

"No doubt," said he, "you remember that bold and ingenious robbery which occurred some three or four years ago in Brattle square, Boston." "I do not recall it," I replied. "Well, it appears that Mr. Maynard, a jeweler, being at the time without a clerk, was in the habit of locking up his store for about 20 minutes in the middle of the day, while he proceeded to a restaurant a few steps around the corner. One noontime, just after he had departed, there stopped in front of his store a couple of men dressed in the garb of window cleaners. One carried a bucket of whitewash and the other a pair of steps. With the utmost coolness the former proceeded to daub the window while the other mounted the step ladder and crawled in through the transom—the busy passers-by and the people opposite having not the slightest suspicion of anything wrong. The fellow inside went to work at once behind his companion's veil of whitewash, and within five minutes they had decamped with plunder amounting in value to several thousand dollars. Imagine the emotion of the jeweler when he returned from his lunch to find his store door open, his trays emptied, and his stock rifled."

"A cool and cunning piece of work," I exclaimed. "One of the sort which succeeds by its very boldness." "Here is an instance of another sort," continued Banks. "It came under my notice while I was engaged upon a case in London. A jeweler there had on exhibition in his window a diamond necklace valued at £1,000. It was a magnificent sight, and undoubtedly had caused many a burglar's fingers to itch for a touch of it.

"One day a handsome, fashionably dressed young man entered the shop and desired to examine the necklace. It was taken from the window by the proprietor himself and handed across the low flat counter. The jeweler understood his business, and although his customer might be a lord for aught he knew, he kept a sharp eye upon the precious jewels. Presently, with the diamonds still in his hand, the young man asked to see a beautiful bracelet close at hand, and the jeweler half turned to get it. It took him but a second; yet when he again faced his customer the necklace was nowhere to be seen.

Quick as a flash the jeweler grabbed the young man by the collar and called to his clerks for assistance. Protesting his innocence and apparently indignant at such a suspicion, the man turned out all his pockets and invited a thorough search. This was instantly made, and all the nooks and corners of the shop were carefully examined, but the necklace had most mysteriously disappeared. There was nothing for it, of course, but to call the police and have the young man taken into custody.

"So between two bobbies and closely followed by a third who carefully watched lest the prisoner should drop his prize or pass it over to an accomplice, the young man was led forth and the jeweler trudged behind. It was not long before the usual mob of gamins and loungers were tagging after, and the poor jeweler was jostled by the throng and guyed and questioned until he was well-nigh crazy.

"At the lockup the young man was again examined, but to no purpose. Had it been a single stone it might have been conjectured that he had swallowed it, but with a necklace this was a physical impossibility. The shop was again thoroughly gone through, but the mystery remained as deep as ever. Was the thing bewitched? What on earth had become of it?"

"I can't imagine," I put in. "What was the solution?"

"Absurdly simple; yet I think I should be safe in giving you 20 guesses on it, Yankee though you are," replied Banks, with a laugh. "A week or so later the young man and his gang were arrested for another crime, and the whole story came out. It appears that when the jeweler turned to reach the bracelet, the pretended customer simply dropped the necklace into the jeweler's own coat pocket. On the way to the lockup an accomplice among the gamins easily picked his pocket of the prize he did not know he was carrying, and when the young man got free they divided the swag. Pretty neat trick, wasn't it?"

THEY ROB UNDER THE GUISE OF WINDOW WASHERS.

"Is the London thief more expert than the thief of New York?" I inquired.

"By reason of heredity and training he is apt to be so," replied Banks. "Take the pickpockets of London, for example; they put their children through a regular course of study in their profession. One day, while strolling through the Whitechapel district, I came across a ragged little girl weeping piteously. Her poor thin shoulders, which were almost bare, showed large welts where she had been cruelly abused. On my asking the cause of her trouble, she told me her mother had beaten her because she shook the doll.

"The doll!" I said. "Oh, I suppose you mean the baby?"

"No, sir, not the baby, but the doll. I didn't shake it very much. But she beats me at the slightest tinkle."

"Being new to London ways this was to me rather mysterious language; so I made further inquiries. I found that the light-fingered gentry make their little ones practice pocket picking upon a dummy or 'doll,' as they call it, which is suspended from a hook in the wall. Attached to this doll is a bell adjusted so as to tinkle at the slightest clumsiness on the part of the operator. As a tinkle means a licking to the little student, it is scarcely a wonder that they soon become remarkably expert."

THE JEWELER WAS GUYED UNTIL HE WAS NEARLY CRAZY.

A Difference.

A man does not grow old as fast as some of his friends is at a certain disadvantage in their presence. It is related of Emile Augier, a French author whose statue was recently dedicated in Paris, that on a public occasion an old, bent, broken man seized his hand and exclaimed:

"Why, how are you, old fellow?"

Augier, who showed very little of the effects of advancing years, seemed somewhat taken aback.

"Why, don't you know me, old boy? We were classmates!"

Augier greeted him affectionately and then went on, remarking to other friends who were present:

"Well, I knew that man was just my age, but I didn't dream I was his!"—Youth's Companion.

An Important Point.

Mrs. Blifkins (reading)—The points of fine seal fur are, first, the texture—

Mr. Blifkins—Humph! Seems to me the first point is the price.—N. Y. Weekly.

Hooking Him.

Bashful Young Pastor (ponderously)—You know, man proposes; but—

Miss Thirtysmith (eagerly)—This is so—so sudden!—but, yes, dear!—Puck.

BREVITIES OF FUN.

Duzby—"What's in that bottle—poison?" Dooby—"I guess there must be; there isn't any label on it."—Roxbury Gazette.

Charley—"There is nothing I admire more than a good deed." Tom—"Nor I—if it is made out in my name."—Detroit Free Press.

There is a lady who is so particular about her daughter's morals that she allows her to play only upon an upright piano.—Household Words.

Proving Her Need.—He—"I thought Mrs. Brown seemed quite cold towards her husband." She—"Yes; she wants him to get her a sealskin cape."—Puck.

"Poor fellow!" she said sympathetically. "What's the matter?" he asked. "The poor man was disappointed in love," she replied. "Of course," he returned. "It never does come up to expectations."—Chicago Evening Post.

Bacon—"I believe the introduction of cable-cars and horseless carriages will make the world better." Egbert—"I can't understand why." "It will reduce the tendency to lie. Horse trading will be unknown."—Yonkers Statesman.

A gentleman made the following return to the income tax commissioners: "For the last three years my income has been somewhat under £150. In future it will be more precarious, as the man is dead of whom I borrowed the money."—Tit-Bits.

Not 100 miles from St. Paul's there is suspended over a pile of dusty volumes in a second-hand bookseller's shop a chart showing the human skeleton, and underneath the following: "This is all that remains of the tradesman whose customers only looked."—Household Words.

Creditor (roughly)—"Say, when are you going to pay me that bill?" Debtor (genially)—"My friend, you put me in mind of a little child." Creditor—"I do, do I? Why?" Debtor—"Because a little child can ask questions that the wisest men cannot answer."—Tit-Bits.

SCIENCE AND INVENTION.

To prevent a further spread of scarlet fever all the school children in Saco, Me., had to submit to a bath of carbolized water the other evening.

A Dorsetshire zoologist seeing an adder swallow its young tied a string around its neck and then killed it. On reaching home he cut the string, when 13 little adders wriggled out unhurt.

A safety purse, for ladies' use, has been invented. It has two straps, one to be connected with a ring on the finger, and the other to be attached to the waist. It cannot be dropped or wrenched away.

A waterproof fabric to prevent the rotting of the cover of umbrellas by the rusting of the framework, the fabric being placed between the cover and the topnotch joints, has been invented.

By the side of the Scientific American now appears the Scientific African, a monthly journal of South African science, arts and crafts. It marks in a surprising way the extent to which the white man has established his civilization in the dark continent.

GASTRONOMIC ITEMS.

A groom of 84 years led a bride of 62 to the altar in West Paris, Me., the other day.

A Brooklyn man cured himself of insomnia by drinking a pint of warm milk or soup just before retiring.

Common brick dust is used in adulterating sausage, sometimes to the extent of one part in five.

Milk should be sipped slowly, if it is to be properly digested; for if it is swallowed quickly it enters into the stomach and then forms in one solid, curdled mass, difficult of digestion.

Acidity is due to the presence of an excess of gastric juice in the stomach, and is one of the many forms of indigestion. It is not by any means a serious complaint, and can be readily cured by a little judicious management.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

Fifteen per cent. of the population of Venezuela are pure-blooded Indians.

Two American missionaries guard the king of Corea at night.

A St. Bernard was sold for $2,350 at the Birmingham, England, dog show. This is said to be the highest price ever paid for a St. Bernard at auction.

Something unusual occurred not long ago in Copenhagen. A retired military officer, aged 82, celebrated his second silver wedding. His second wife is 52 years of age.

In Haguesund, Norway, which has a population of 6,200, no liquor has been sold for 29 years, nor has any been given away. The inhabitants simply do not use it.

RIVERS OF THE NEW WORLD.

The St. Lawrence river is only 775 miles long, but if the lake system be also taken into account its total length will exceed 2,000 miles.

The San Francisco, a river of Brazil, is 1,400 miles in length, and was so called because it was discovered on the feast day of St. Francis.

The Mackenzie, the principal river of the Dominion, is 2,500 miles in length and drains an area equal to one-half of the United States.

The Ohio river is 975 miles long. From the source of its longest tributary to the junction of the Mississippi the total length is nearly 1,500 miles.

INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Chewing gum costs the people of this country $20,000,000 a year.

Four-fifths of the cotton crop of the world is produced in the United States.

For the fiscal year ending November 30 the output of the 113 salt plants in Michigan was 3,675,751 barrels.

Preparations are making for extensive prospecting for oil in ten counties of eastern Kentucky next spring. The indications of the existence of valuable oil fields in that region are said to be very promising.

PLEASANT SOCIAL TIME.

Miss Edith Manning Hospitably Entertains Her Friends.

The social held at the home of Miss Edith Manning on Clinton avenue last evening was a complete success despite the storm. Excellent music was furnished by O'Reilly.

During the evening refreshments were served by the committee, Miss Grace Palmer, Miss Sadie Randolph, Clifford Manning and Samuel Beekman.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. D. King, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Randolph, Mr. and H. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. J. Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. C. Monsell, Mrs. Bogert; Misses King, Beekman, Ackerman, Monsell, Kelly, Grace Palmer, Sarah Randolph, Edith Manning, Sadie Randolph, Lulu Randolph, Bertha La Rue, Anna Littell, Fanny Hayes, Helen Burroughs, Carrie Frazee; Messrs. Clifford Manning, Walter Manning, S. Beekman, J. Smalley. W. Cadmus, E. Burroughs, W. Ackerman, W. Littell, H. Vail, R. Randolph, B. King, C. Hayes, C. Blackford, F. Batson, J. L. Stryker, J. A. Simpson.

Incidents of the Flood.

Several members of the North Plainfield fire department saw the reflection of the fire at Bound Brook and thinking it was within the borders of the borough, rang the bell. The apparatus was taken out as far as Greenbrook road, when they learned that the fire was a great way off. They then returned to the engine house.

All of the through westbound trains had to spend last night between Plainfield and Bound Brook. This morning, after the water had subsided enough to uncover the tracks, a large gang of men was set at work and the tracks were repaired sufficiently to allow the westbound train leaving here at 8:16 and the eastbound train due here at 9:15 to pass over them. The Philadelphia trains had to go by the way of Easton and Bethlehem on account of the damage to the bridge over the Raritan.

Great Interest at Mt. Olive.

The meetings at the Mt. Olive Baptist church continue with wonderful success. There has been about twenty-nine conversions since last Sunday, and it is expected that the week will close with about thirty-five more. This church seems wonderfully revived, and the meetings this week are conducted by the pastor, P.S. Gibson, and next week by Rev. J. A. Harris, of Orange, assisted by the pastor and other ministers, of this city. Rev. Mr. Gibson announced last evening that he had no room for spectators, and the people attending these meetings are welcome if they come for the good of the cause, and none but those of the Protestant religion are admitted outside of his own color and race.

Officers Installed.

The recently elected officers of Senate Lodge, No. 3542, Knights of Honor, were installed last evening by District Deputy Grand Dictator Hancock, of Newark, and staff. The officers installed were as follows: Past dictator, John Fellows; dictator, Thaddeus C. Smith; vice-dictator, John M. Galock; assistant dictator, John VanMiddlesworth; reporter, R A. Frey; financial reporter, John H. Doane; treasurer, E. G. Smith; chaplain. E. R. Leland; guide, H. R. Phillips; sentinel, E. B. Ryder; trustees, John Fellows. John VanMiddlesworth, George H. Neale.

Dr. Lewis' Last Sermon.

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock Dr. Lewis, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, will preach the last sermon before his leave of absence, which dates from February 10th. His sermon will include a brief review of the bearing of the Armenian and Japanese questions upon Christianity; the religious tendencies in the United States; and some reasons why there is a demand for his leave of absence at this time. Although not in his pulpit, Dr. Lewis does not expect to be away from Plainfield much at present.

Colored People in Trouble.

Two colored young people, who have been great friends for some time, had a spat several days ago and it came to an open rupture last night when Spencer Carr, the young man in the case, was arrested on complaint of Miss Lucy Williams, the young woman in the case. Carr says that she has been giving him money for some time, but she claims that he stole $48 from her. Justice Nash issued the warrant and the case comes up before him this afternoon.

A Plainfield Girl Married.

The marriage of Miss Walsh, of this city, and Robert Hamilton, of Bound Brook, took place at the home of the bride's parents at Providence, R. I., Wednesday afternoon. A reception is being held at that place this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ammerman, of Stone street, were among the guests Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will reside in this city.

Miss Emma Gamberton, of Pearl street, returned this morning from New Brunswick, where she has been visiting for a few days.

Fortieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs John H. Tier, Sr., of Bank place, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their marriage last evening by giving a euchre party. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tier, Sr., Mrs. J. M. Tier, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tier, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Startup, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steiner, Mr and Mrs. J. H. Tier, Jr., and the Misses Ida Core, May McLoughlin, Gertrude Tier, Ida Tier, and Messrs. Judge De Meza, Fred Sandford, B. LaVere and D. S. Dunavan. Refreshments were served during the evening.

An Evening in Masks.

A very delightful masquerade was given to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hovelle at their charming home at Fanwood last evening. Despite the storm that raged without, the house was crowded and the evening passed only too quickly. The disguises were all very good. Among the characters especially well represented were several plantation characters, Night, Uncle Sam, the fat Dutchman, and Aunt Jemina. At midnight the party unmasked and enjoyed a bountiful repast, after which the dancing continued until almost 4 o'clock this morning.

Ought to Have Tied Them.

Geo. Conover's four horses, attached to his large van, were left untied on one of the main streets in Newark yesterday, while James Carrigan, the man in charge, went to his dinner. The horses became frightened and runaway. The heavy van collided with two small wagons and wrecked them. The damage to the former was slight. Carrigan is now held in custody by the Newark police.

An Aged Man Dead.

John Quincy Adams Brokaw, of South Sterling, died at his home last evening from a severe attack of pneumonia, at the aged of seventy five years. He was a veteran of the late war and well known in this city. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Mt. Bethel church. He leaves a wife and two daughters.

Does Not Know of Her Mother's Death.

Chief-of-Police Grant has as yet been unable to locate Miss Isabella Stephenson, the daughter of Mrs. Eliza Stephenson, who died in the hospital Wednesday and was found to possess $5,000 as the savings of a lifetime. The Chief went to Newark this afternoon to see if he could find her.

Officials Sworn In.

All the fire and police department and the other city officials that were appointed at the Council meeting Monday night, were sworn in by Mayor Gilbert.

Miss Core, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Mrs. Will Tier, of Bank place.

Mr. and Strong, of Montclair, have taken up their residence at 26 Norwood avenue.

Miss Alexander, of East Fifth street, expected to start for a ten days visit to Sayre, Pa., but was obliged to return home on account of the damage to the railroad by the storm.

C. P. Curtis, of New Haven, Conn., was the guest last evening of his friend, H. Mulford Estil, of Grove street. Mr. Curtis was formerly connected with A. M. Griffen in the hardware business.

Miss E. Edna Webster, of Albany, niece of Miss Margaret Kurtz, of West Front street, and James T. Daly, of New York, were married at Albany Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Kurtz was present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Daly will make a tour through Europe. The bride has a large acquaintance in this city.

—Two new members were received at the meeting of the Gesang and Turn Verein Society last evening. The committee on masquerade ball reported progress.

A Moral Question.

Johnny—Mamma, it ain't wicked when you do things you can't help, is it?

His Mother—I suppose not, Johnny. Why?

Johnny—'Cause I can't help thinkin' all the time how I'd like to go to the circus!—Chicago Tribune.

Out of the Market.

Guest—Who is this Miss Highmind that all the ladies are so enthusiastic over? I never before knew of a woman whom every other woman spoke well of.

Host—She is a very fine old lady, now in her ninety-ninth year.—N. Y. Weekly.

Poor Old Solomon.

"They talk about the wise men of old, but, in my opinion, men are a great deal wiser to-day than they were then."

"What makes you think that?"

"Well, a man has only one wife at a time nowadays."—Town Topics.

Too Dense for Him.

Stage Villain—Aha! The plot thickens.

Disgusted Auditor—Then I'm off! Can't make head or tail of it now, and I'll never see through it if it gets any thicker.—Puck.

Pleading at the Bar.

Streeter—Old Crimsonbeak used to be a good pleader at the bar.

Meeter—He is yet. I heard him talk a barkeeper out of a drink this morning.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Model Friend.

What true friendship consists in depends on the temperament of the man who has a friend. It is related that at the funeral of M. X., who died extremely poor, the usually cold-blooded Squire Tightfist was much affected.

"You thought a great deal of him, I suppose," some one asked him.

"Thought a great deal of him? I should think I did. There was a true friend! He never asked me to lend him a cent, though I knew well enough he was starving to death."

But Didn't Catch Him.

"That old speckled hen of mine is the best egg producer I ever saw, but lately we've been unable to get any from her nest—it was always empty."

"What was the cause?"

"Well, a few days ago I saw a dog leaving the nest with an egg in his mouth."

"Ah, that was the trouble—she'd been laying for a sucker, as it were."—Atlanta Constitution.

He Didn't Count.

Lady of the House—Bridget, didn't you tell me when you came here that you would have no male friends coming around the house, and now I find a man in the kitchen almost every evening.

Bridget—Shure, mum, thot ain't no male friend of moine at all—he's my husband.—Brooklyn Life.

Infallible.

Stout Gentleman—Spare diet, long walks, etc., I could have managed all that without coming to this expensive place.

Doctor—Yes, but you forget the annoyance occasioned by the high prices, which of itself will go a long way toward reducing your weight.—Peekskill Journal.

Profession and Practice.

"Do any of you women believe in advanced women?" shouted the car conductor, putting his head in at the car door.

"Yes, we do," replied a woman holding on to a strap.

"Well, then, move forward."—Yonkers Statesman.

FOOD STRENGTH.

It Comes From the Right Food Properly Digested.

Food strength is natural strength. It is new strength. That is, it is not stimulation.

The real strength of your body is your constitutional strength, your reserve strength. It is the result of eating proper food and digesting it.

Eating food does no good at all; rather harm—unless it is digested. So that everything narrows itself down to one proposition: How is your digestion?

One person in three of us have indigestion in some form or another. It is not really a disease, but a condition; a condition which may become serious.

We all wish to be strong, and we might all become so if we digested our food. The loss of your strength is a serious matter. It may be the beginning of a dangerous disease. It may mean that you cannot go on with your work.

Shaker Digestive Cordial is an aid to digestion. It is a strength maker. It makes your food nourish you. It makes you strong. It relieves at once all the symptoms of acute dyspepsia, tones up the system and creates flesh, energy and strength. Taken regularly it will permanently cure indigestion and make the weak, thin, irritable, nervous dyspeptic, strong, fat, hearty and well again.

A 10 cent bottle will show you what it will do.

Sold by druggists at 10, 25, 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering.

Men's seamless half hose	10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy	2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black	2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose	10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes	15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee	18c
Large white cotton towels, only	10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for	$1.00

Spring Embroideries

We are making SPECIAL REDUCTIONS in PRICES on TOM O'SHANTERS,

RIBBONS AND MEN'S UNDERWEAR.

PARGITER, Park Ave.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.
Established 1869.

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

New Embroideries, Laces, Flouncings, etc.

Our assortment of these goods for the coming season is handsomer, more varied and complete than any we have yet shown, and embraces regular Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edges, Insertions and match sets in all grades and styles and a line of Exquisite Novelties which for new and original effects, exclusive and unique designs, are unsurpassed if not unequalled by any in the market.

Pretty Edgings and Embroideries Very Cheap.

A thousand lines could not tell the story any better. Great heaps of snowy Embroideries that first saw light in far off Switzerland are here.

In connection with our regular line we have purchased, direct from the manufacturers in St. Gaul, Switzerland, three large lots of Embroideries, which we will place on sale at one-third less than regglar prices.

Lot 1, 4c Yd. Lot 2, 8c Yd. Lot 3, 12c Yd

The wise ones ask no questions, but take them away in huge quantities.

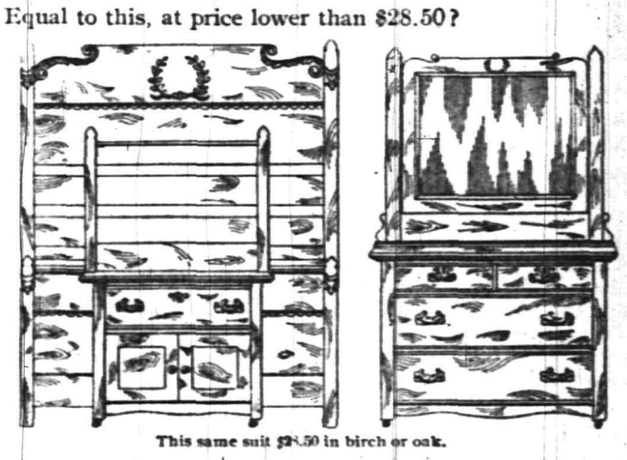
777 and 779 Broad Street,
Newark, N. J.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

CASH OR CREDIT—LONG TIME GIVEN

Ever Buy a Bedroom Suit

Equal to this, at price lower than $28.50?



This same suit $28.50 in birch or oak.

It's a suit we've always sold for $45.00—honor bright! Made in birch or quartered oak, French bevelled plate, 24x38, superbly finished.

6 Chairs For $5.95

It's needless to say they're chairs that'll beautify any dining room—fine construction, cane seats, a true blue value.

Here's a Table

Exactly like this, 97 cts.

marked at 97 cts.—it's not a make that's always ready to "get out of joint"—sturdy build, finely finished oak or cherry, nice make—exactly like cut, easily worth $1.50.

See Us for Carpets

We've a big line, all patterns—here's a "price illustration:" all wool ingrains, 65 cts. a yard, made and laid with lining. Over twenty patterns on hand.

Goods selected now held until wanted—no cash needed. Deliveries made free of charge.

Ever heard of the Portland Range? Of course you have. It's nearly world famed by this time.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Etc.
TELEPHONE 880.

73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Everything new and up-to-date.

HOYT'S A TRIP TO CHINATOWN

Produced in exactly the same manner as at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, with the

ORIGINAL CAST,

including Harry Conor and all the original scenery, furniture and properties

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1

One week commencing

Monday, February 10

Six nights and five matinees.
The Barnum of them all.

WAITE'S Comedy Company

Premium Band and Orchestra.

35 PEOPLE 35

in a repertorie of new comedies, dramas and society plays. Change of play every performance.

Prices 10, 20 and 30c.

POPULAR DIME MATINEES, daily, starting Tuesday.

Monday night—The Black Flag.

Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

TO CLOSE A STREET.

WATCHUNG AVENUE EXTENSION WILL MAKE WARREN STREET USELESS.

The Watchung Avenue Extension Commissioners Recommend Such an Action to the Borough Council—Other Business

The meeting of the Borough Council last evening was a very harmonious one. All the members except Mr. Lounsbury were present, and after the minutes of the last regular and adjourned meetings were approved, Clerk Arnold presented his financial report as follows:

Borough	$ 747 48
Fire department	1,034 87
Lights	108 56
Roads	1,115 87
Poor	398 22
	$3,505 00
Received from fines and licenses	127 00

Borough Tax Collector Spencer's reports, showing taxes collected, were as follows:

1893—Borough	$	55 38
Lights		181 96
Roads		126 58
Fire department		87 02
	$	450 94
Board of Health		23 74
Previously reported		12,387 37
		12,411 11
		450 94
	$	12,862 05
1894—Borough	$	36 50
Lights		175 24
Roads		124 13
Fire department		102 23
	$	438 10
Previously reported		11,175 97
	$	11,614 07
Received from Township on account:
1893	$	677 32
1894		927 46
	$	1,604 78

Receipt of taxes since last report:
County tax		$1,172 64
State School tax		753 84
Borough tax		558 40
Light tax		642 95
Road tax		558 40
Fire Department tax		381 08
Board of Health tax		83 76
Poor tax		195 44
Special School tax		1,377 80
Poll tax		49 00
Dog tax		30 00
		5,802 52
Previously reported	$28,597 38	$34,399 90
Less Special School tax	8,102 18
Less Board of Health tax	495 59
Less County tax paid	8,796 32
Less State School tax paid	5,768 06
	$23,162 15
	34,399 90
	23,162 15
Total	$11,237 75
License money received:
Hipp		$225 00
Zeller & White		225 00
Spiegel		225 00
Boyce		225 00
		$900 00
Less County Collector's fees		45 00
		$855,500

The above reports were received and filed.

In a communication W. J. Buttfield stated that he had conformed to the grade in laying a sidewalk on the northwest side of West End avenue, and had found that the grade was wrong. The matter was referred to the street committee.

On account of poor health, E. P. Stevens resigned as a member of the Board of Health. Later it was accepted and the Mayor appointed N. B. Smalley to fill the unexpired term which terminates January 15th, 1899.

G. F. White, Thomas Rutledge, J. H. McVey, A. Lutkins, H. H. Lowrie, L. Bird, Mary Shreeve, residents and owners of one-fourth of lineal feet on Warren street, petitioned Council to close Warren street in the proposed opening of Watchung avenue. The matter was referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Peck reported that all bids on the fire tower and bell were in and it was expected that a report would be made, but owing to the fact that the Committee had been unable to hold a meeting to consider the matter, it would have to be laid over till next meeting. He stated that the Electric Light Company had discontinued the service in blowing the fire gong and that a man had been engaged to remain at the engine house day and night to look after the bell, till other arrangements could be made. The report was received and filed.

Mr. Smith reported that $12.50 worth of work had been done during the month, chiefly within the past few days. In regard to the petition to change the name of Emily street to Lincoln place, the Committee recommended that the change be made. He reported that snow plows had done excellent work. The only damage to Harrison street during the recent storm was in the gutters.

Commissioner J. H. Cooley made a brief report in relation to the Watchung avenue opening, and stated that the commissioners had met, organized and were at work. They had met with excellent success thus far. He said that the sentiment seemed to be in favor of closing Warren street as the land would be of little value to the property owners. On the other hand it would be a great saving to them. He reported further that as soon as the petition was acted upon the commissioners could go ahead, and report at an early date. Mayor Hegeman gave his word that it would be attended to.

After the bills were presented, audited and ordered paid, Mr. Schutt offered a resolution that in view of closing Warren street, the clerk be instructed to give such notice and that objections to the same be made not later than February 27th. It was so ordered.

A resolution by Mr. Smith provided for the drawing of a warrant for $1,561.16 to meet the eight months note of $1,500, the same to be charged to the road account. Mr. Valiant offered an ordinance which provides for the changing of the name of Emily street to Lincoln place. It was adopted on second reading and laid over till next meeting for final passage.

Mr. Valiant offered a resolution requesting the Finance committee to meet before February 21st, for the purpose of examining the books and accounts of the Collector, Clerk and Overseer of the Poor. It was adopted, as was also another resolution by the same Councilman that Tuesday, March 3d, be set as the time for the Board of Registry to meet and revise the registry list.

A resolution which provides that the collector submit a report on March 6th, of all taxable borough real estate in years previous to 1895, was offered by Mr. Valiant and adopted.

Mr. Howell made a motion that when the Council adjourned it be to meet Friday evening, February 21st. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Peck then offered a resolution, which was adopted, that a warrant be drawn for $1,012.60 to meet the three months' note of $1,000, and that it be charged to the fire department account.

Mr. Valiant at this point called up the ordinance relating to shows, entertainments, and also the amendment to the ordinance in regard to bicycles. On his motion an amendment was made to the former so as to read "excepting residents of the borough giving entertainments for benevolent purposes." This was done so that the churches in the borough and other like institutions would not be obliged to secure a license every time they gave an entertainment. Both ordinances were adopted on the whole, and after the usual time limit, which is February 29th, they will go into effect.

The ordinance relating to Sunday closing was laid on the table, after which the Council adjourned.

THE THING FOR BUSINESS MEN.

A Collecting Agency That Comes With Good Recommendations.

A long-felt want has been supplied at last to the merchants of Plainfield and vicinity, who now have an opportunity of subscribing to a thoroughly responsible mercantile agency. The Press refers to the New Jersey Mercantile Agency, incorporated under the laws of New Jersey with a capital stock of $25,000. The home office of this agency is rooms 724 and 725 Prudential Building, Newark, N. J. They also have branch offices in different parts of the State, and have recently established a branch in this city at 101 East Front street. They have secured Craig A. Marsh, Esq., as counsel to attend to the legal branch of the agency's business in Union county. Under their arrangement all claims entrusted to the agency for collection are paid direct to the subscriber or at the office of Mr. Marsh. The methods employed by this agency in handling poor and worthless claims are very effective, and it is predicted for them the success which they are justly entitled to.

REVIVALS TO END TEMPORARILY.

The Meetings Will Close Now But Will Be Resumed Later.

Union revival services will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 as follows: Crescent Avenue Presbyterian, Rev. C. L. Goodrich, preacher; First Presbyterian, Rev. W. R. Richards, preacher; Methodist Episcopal, Rev. J. W. Richardson, preacher.

Owing to matters in several of the churches which need attending to, and in order to afford an opportunity of rest to those who have so faithfully supported the union services, we deem it wise to postpone further meetings until the last of this month or the first of March. They will then, probably, be resumed in one of the churches on or near Front street.

C. R. Barnes,
For the Committee.

Fences Blown Down.

The fence at the corner of Somerset street and Jackson avenue, opposite the school, was blown down by the wind Thursday night. A portion of the fence belonging to John Darling, of Prospect avenue, was also blown down.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

FROM BOUND BROOK.

GREAT CROWDS VISITED THE SCENE OF THE DISASTER, YESRERDAY.

The Town Looked Dilapidated Enough—Streets All Tore to Pieces—Storekeepers Getting Ready for Business Again.

After the flood and fire came the crowds to Bound Brook yesterday afternoon. Every train that rolled into the station after 10 o'clock in the morning was loaded down with people who had been drawn there by the exaggerated accounts in the morning papers as to the ravages wrought by the two opposite elements. Many persons imagined that they would see long rows of bodies laying out awaiting identification or disposition after losing their lives in the turbulent waters the night before, and again some thought that they would see nothing but the charred and burning remains of what once constituted the town. There was no evidence of the first conclusion, and of the second Cook's lumber yard and the old First Presbyterian church was the only territory that presented the results of the fire fiend.

But there was enough to see. The town truely presented a forlorn and dilapidated appearance. Drift wood had been deposited promiscuously about the streets and great holes and ruts in which the murky water still continued to flow made the pedestrian pick his way to keep from indulging in an unpremeditated bath. Windows in stores and houses had been shattered by the pressure of the water when it was at its highest. Storekeepers were diligently at work sweeping out the deposit of mud and water on their floors, mixed up in which was quantities of stock that were ruined. The cellars under all buildings in the flooded territory are still full of water even to the sidewalks No true estimate of the loss to merchants can be made until the cellars are pumped out, which will take several days.

George Winans, of North Plainfield, accompanied by three ladies, was driving down Hamilton street into Main street yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock when the horse was nearly lost in a deep hole that had been washed out by the flood. Michael Concahnon, of New Brunswick, assisted in rescuing the animal.

Frank Mulvey, proprietor of the Port Reading Hotel, lost two horses by the flood and had a narrow escape himself. The hotel is located alongside the bank of the Raritan river in a hollow and the water was up in the second story of the hotel when he and his friends left the building.

C. E. Dunham, a former resident of this city, who is the leading hardware merchant of ill-fated Bound Brook, is a great loser by the water. His store is located opposite the park at the depot, and the water played sad havoc with his stock.

A noticeable feature in the early afternoon was noted by the presence of a great number of citizens of Middlesex county, New Brunswick, both the Amboys, and from a large number of the many hamlets.

The kodak and the manipulator was all over.

C. P. Sebring, of Greenbrook, found an ancient flint-lock gun in the ruins of the Presbyterian church fire. Many people were made to believe that the gun was at one time owned by George Washington.

The strong southwest wind that raged all day made it a little unpleasant for the spectators and the ladies that had come from long distances to see the ruins were made a trifle uncomfortable.

George Frech, of Annandale, Hunterdon county, found a warped penny in a washed out part of the Main street that bore the date of 1805.

An Unlucky Fall.

The home of C. F. Williams, of 412 West Second street, came very near being enveloped in flames last evening at about 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Williams started to go up stairs with an oil lamp in his hand, and when almost at the top he tripped. The lamp fell and was broken, igniting the carpet and woodwork, but the fire was soon smothered with a rug.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

THE CORONER'S JURY.

COUNTY OFFICIALS INVESTIGATE THE DEATH OF THE NEGRO GIANT.

One Witness Swears that Ben Hall, One of the Men Charged With the Assault, Told Him that He Done Up Vanderveer.

The inquest in the case of the State to learn the cause of the death of John Vanderveer, colored, which occurred at Muhlenberg Hospital late Monday afternoon, was opened in the city court room yesterday afternoon at 2:15 by Coroner Keefe, of Elizabeth. Prosecutor N. Y. Dungan, of Somerville, and Assistant Prosecutor Dunn, of Elizabeth, were present for the plaintiff, while Steele & Meehan, of Somerville, represented the defense. Official Court Stenographer Herbert W. Knight, of Elizabeth, was present and recorded the proceedings. The following men compose the jury: J. E. Mosher, Garrett Wood, Charles Howard, I. D. TenEyck, W. W. Coriell and H. E. Cramer.

The first witness called was Dr. Davis, of Bound Brook. He was the attending physician in the early part of John Vanderveer's illness, and he described the man's condition when he was first called. He said that he found a cut over the left eye in the forehead which was about a half-inch deep. He took several stitches in the cut and after that at different times Vanderveer complained of severe pains in his head. The doctor did not think there was a fracture of any bones. Vanderveer had told him that Benjamin Hall, Horace Hall and George Brokaw had attacked him on Christmas morning.

John Huff was the next witness, but he knew very little about the affair, excepting what he had heard.

Dr. E. W. Hedges was then placed on the stand and stated very briefly his knowledge of the case.

He said that about 10 o'clock in the morning, on Jan. 30th, when Vanderveer was brought to the hospital, he saw the man and found him in an unconscious state, with a high fever. He noticed that the scar on the forehead was healed. In all, he attended him a day and a half, and during that time the man was violent.

Vanderveer's father had told him that he, Vanderveer, said that some persons had sandbagged him. But his condition improved and he seemed to regain strength, when suddenly he went into a stupor. Two days afterward he brought him to the hospital.

The next witness was Dr. Probasco. He stated that he attended Vanderveer from Saturday to Sunday morning last, Dr. Hedges having called his attention to the case. He found the man in an unconscious state, and whenever he saw him his condition was the same. He made no diagnosis of the case; and said that twenty-four hours previous to his death no medicine was administered.

Charles Riker, of Bound Brook, said that on Christmas morning he heard men's voices near his home on Main street. It was very early and at that time he was not able to tell who the people were. Twenty minutes later he went down the street 100 yards and saw Ben Hall, Horace Hall and Grorge Brokaw, carrying John Vanderveer from the street to the gutter, where they laid him. He then walked away after seeing that Vanderveer's head was cut. A little later he went back and saw Wm. H. Ayers going toward the man with a lantern. He then walked up and helped to place Vanderveer in a milk wagon belonging to Joseph Robinson. Vanderveer was taken to Mrs. Williams's at Bound Brook, where he was cared for.

Peter C. Vanderveer, the father of the dead man, stated that about New Year's day his son told him that Ben Hall, Horace Hall and Geo. Rogers had struck him. Justice of the Peace Ayers Coddington told in a few words what he knew about the case, but Vanderveer had told him that he didn't know who struck him.

Andrew J. Sherman, colored, a waiter at the County House, Somerville, said that on Christmas Eve he attended a dance at Port Reading Hotel, at which there was a free fight. After the men had been released on bail he met Ben Hall, when the latter remarked that he had done John up. Horace Hall said it was a settlement of an old grudge between John and Ben.

George P. Norton, of Somerville, said that on Wednesday, Jan. 27th, he called Ben Hall in his house, and in talking about the affair Ben said he done up John, and that Horace Hall and George Brokaw had nothing to do with it.

Mrs. Ritchey, of South Bound Brook, told how she found Vanderveer lying in the gutter when she, with some friends, returned from the ball at the Port Reading Hotel.

John Swartz, of Bound Brook, in a few words, substantiated what the other witnesses had stated. The inquest was then adjourned to next Thursday afternoon at 2:15.

A LITERARY FEAST.

The First Event in Mrs. Hall's Series is a Great Success.

The first of a series of three entertainments was given yesterday afternoon, when at the residence of Chas. E. Case, of Central avenue, Mrs. Laura E. Richards read selections from her own writings. The fact that Mrs. Richards is well known as the charming writer of story and verse be spoke favorable interest in her, but additional interest was felt in her coming, because she is the daughter of Julia Ward Howe, whom all honor, and the sister of Florence Howe Hall, of whom Plainfielders are proud. The spacious house of Mr. Case, admirably adapted for such a function, was well filled with an appreciative and enthusiasiic audience. Mrs. Richard's personel is very pleasing, her voice good and her elecution natural and effective. After a pleasant and sisterly introduction by Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Richards read an extract from Captain January, in which the hearty old sea captain tells to his darling little granddaughter the story of her own rescue when a babe lashed to a spar on the bosom of her dead mother, she came from the wrecked vessel to be the light and joy of the old captain's life. The sad narrative, reverently told and the childish pleasure over the tragic story of her own life made a strangely artistic mingling of sentiments.

The next selection was a poem descriptive of the fall of the Ottoman Empire. The first division of the poem is called 'The Sick Man" and represents Turkey in a dying condition surrounded by the different Nations, greedy to take her ill-gotten possessions. The second division is named from a sentence, which interpreted means "Carthage Is Fallen," and describes the downfall that is inevitable. Another poem followed entitled "Great-Grandfather." The request of the boy for his great-grandfather's old gun to shoot sparrows, draws from the boy's father the story of Bunker Hill and the execution done by the old gun in shooting redcoats. The gun is refused the boy for his sparrow shooting.

The entertainment concluded with a dialect story called "Jim Kellas," in which the nautical language of seafarers, the homely phrase of the down-easter and the patois of the Spaniard are all charmingly given. The story itself is unique, the prisoner in jail having stolen a hen from Miss Palmyra Henshaw and being required by the selectmen and the "upper house" to pay the penalty in work. He begins his labors by ministering to Miss Henshaw and proves himself so valuable an assistant, that the story ends with his marriage to the spinster.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

D. S. Pound's Barn and Contents Burned to the Ground.

The sound of the fire alarm whistle and a bright light in the sky in the direction of Bound Brook left the impression with most of those in this city that saw it last evening, that Bound Brook had another conflagration. But that poor borough escaped this time. About 7 o'clock last evening, Harry T. Pound was sitting by the window in his father's house, 1330 West Front street, when he chanced to look in the direction of the barn and saw the interior all ablaze. He told the household and sent in an alarm from Box 49, at the corner of Clinton avenue and South Second street.

Daniel S. Pound lives just beyond Clinton avenue and there are no hydrants in the neighborhood.

The fire department responded promptly, but the barn, which was well filled with hay, burned very rapidly in the heavy wind that was blowing. The steamer was sent for, but it was impossible to do anything but save the adjacent buildings.

The barn and all its contents, which included three horses, was destroyed. The barn was insured for $300, and its contents for $790. It is estimated that the insurance will cover the loss.

For Griddle Cakes.

The "Omnia" Flour prepared by the Hygienic Food Co., of Orange, is far superior to buckwheat, and it also makes, tight, tender and nutritious bread and delicious breakfast gems. At your grocers or their wagons will deliver it direct.

—Last evening the members and friends of Queen Esther Band of Grace M. E. church, held a delightful sociable at the home of their sister-member, Miss Tina Voehl.

—The body of John Vanderveer, the colored man who died in Muhlenberg hospital from the effects of a beating at a colored ball in Bound Brook, was sent to his relatives at Bound Brook this morning by morgue keeper Casey.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

MRS. SARAH A. FRANKLIN HAD BEEN MISSED SINCE TUESDAY.

She Lived Alone at the Corner of Park Avenue and Seventh Street, and is Supposed to Have Had a Hemorrhage.

Death came silently to Mrs. Sarah A. Franklin at her home, but when it came no one knows. Mrs. Franklin, who is a woman about 75 years of age, has been living all alone in the large house at the corner of Park avenue and East Seventh street, opposite Dr. Endicott's residence. She was last seen Tuesday, when she appeared in her usual good health. Her sister, Miss Anna Louise Spencer, who resides at 827 Madison avenue, became worried about her non-appearance. Wm. T. Kirk, who lives across Park avenue, also noticed that the house remained closed. He spoke to Policeman McCue, who in company with Miss Spencer, went to the house about ten o'clock this morning.

He broke in the cellar window and entered and fired off his revolver in the cellar to see if any one was in the building. He then broke down the cellar door and the door leading into Mrs. Franklyn's room on the ground floor. There they found the body of Mrs. Franklyn lying on the lounge, wrapped in a quilt.

"She lay there just as peaceful as she could be with one hand resting on her breast," said Miss Spencer in describing her appearance to a Daily Press reporter.

Policeman McCue said that there were traces of blood on her lips and he thinks a hemorrhage caused her death.

The house is part of the Spencer property and Mrs. Franklin has lived there four years. She has made her home in Plainfield for over twenty years. She was born in Providence, R. I. She has four brothers and one sister living, beside Miss Anna L. Spencer. None of them reside in town, however.

The body has not been touched but awaits the arrival of the coroner. It will be taken to Miss Spencer's home this afternoon. Death must have taken place sometime ago as the body is cold and stiff.

DELIGHTFUL STUDIO TEA.

Mrs. Colles T. Pond Exhibits the Hand Painted China of Herself and Pupils.

Delicate china, painted in an artistic manner, was tastefully arranged about the parlors of the charming home of Mrs. Colles T. Pond on Willow avenue yesterday afternoon and and her studio tea was largely attended by those who came to look at and admire the beautiful work of their hostess and her pupils. The tea lasted from two until six o'clock and was a charming affair throughout. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. Pond. Mrs. Wheaton S. Lowrie, Mrs. Samuel Clark, Miss Mary Brown, Miss Florence Pond and Miss Grace Langdon. In the back parlor the china was arranged in tasteful array on small stands and tables.

There were plates of all patterns, and included one of the latest things in china painting, the brown and raised gold work and the raised gold on blue. Besides the plates on the first table, there was a writing set including blotter holders, ink well, tray and all, everything of the finest china decorated with small bunches of roses and a blue border.

A lovely chocolate set in apple green and gold, ornamented the next table. This set was part of the exhibit of the New York Keramic Club at the Atlanta Exposition which took a gold medal. Mrs. Pond is a member and the corresponding secretary of the club and secured honorable mention in a recent club contest.

Miss Mary Brown's work was mostly in pale yellow with pink and yellow roses. A picture frame, several Trilby hearts, a hair receiver and a mirror were among her best works. Great aptitude was shown in Mrs. Samuel Clark's work, which was mostly in green and blue. Her fernery and china clock were very beautiful. A pale green oatmeal bowl was exhibited as a portion of Miss Grace Langdon's work.

The dining table presented a very attractive appearance with its pink decorations. The chandelier was also festooned in pink and and a broad pink ribbon dropped from it to two opposite corners of the table where they were fastened with large bows.

Mrs. Fred Green and Miss Jennie Jeffers presided at the table while five young ladies assisted in passing the dainty cups of chocolate and tea. They were as follows: Miss Ethel Green, Miss Martha Covert, Miss Arline Crane, Miss Lulu French and Miss Delephine Bowers.

The Daughter Found.

Miss Isabella Stephenson, daughter of the Miss Stephenson that died at the hospital Wednesday, came to Plainfield yesterday afternoon and will take charge of the remains of her mother. She was found through an advertisement placed in the Newark papers by the police of that city at Chief Grant's request.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and Nort h avenues.

TALBERT IMPULSIVE

The House May Shelve the Resolution of Censure.

REPUBLICANS FAVOR DROPPING IT

The South Carolina Member Probably Spoke Hastily, But He Caused a Great Uproar — Called To Account By Mr. Barrett of Massachusetts.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The resolution introduced in the house yesterday afternoon by Mr. Barrett, rep., Mass., and referred, demanding the censure of Mr. Talbert, dem., S. C., for what he, Mr. Barrett, termed seditious and treasonable utterances by the South Carolina member, will probably not again see the light of day, as there seems to be a disposition on the part of the majority of the republican members to drop the matter that caused such an uproar in the house yesterday. Mr. Talbert is very impulsive, and when he arose yesterday afternoon to speak on a question of personal privilege it was plainly apparent that he was nervous and excited, and the uproar which was occasioned by his remarks continued for over an hour.

No Retraction or Apology.

"It has been brought to my notice that I have been misrepresented by the press of the country, unintentionally, I have no doubt, for I cannot believe that the press of the country desires to misrepresent members upon this floor. And in rising I do not rise to apologize for or to retract anything that I said on that occasion, but to re-echo and reiterate every word and sentiment that I uttered on that occasion. On last Wednesday evening, when the present bill was under discussion, the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. Pearson) saw proper, while making his speech, to go out of his way to unkindly criticise the state of South Carolina, which I have the honor in part to represent upon this floor, the great and grand and glorious state of which I am proud, and a state that is as true and as loyal to the flag to-day as any state in the United States.

Probably Spoke Impulsively.

"In his remarks he criticized the prominent part that South Carolina took in the act of secession in 1861. In the course of his remarks, as I understood him, he took occasion to say that North Carolina and South Carolina, too, had been whipped. As to that I have nothing to say. I only, in a jocular way, remarked to the gentleman that he was mistaken, that South Carolina had never been whipped, that she wore herself out trying to whip the other fellow. But when he said in substance, that he was ashamed of such action on the part of his state, I rose, possibly in an unparliamentary manner, and in the heat of the moment, impulsively said that South Carolina was not ashamed of the part she took in it, that she was proud of it, and that I for one endorsed secession then; I thought we were right; I think so yet, and that under like circumstances, surrounded by the same conditions, that I would do the same thing again. Now Mr. Speaker, I repeat it ——

Mr. Barrett Interrupts.

Up to this point Mr. Talbert had been attracting apparently little attention, but here he was interrupted by Mr. Barrett, rep., Mass., who called him to order and demanded that his words be taken down. Almost instantly there was much confusion on the floor and a disorder which almost prevented Mr. Talbert from being heard to say: "I am willing, Mr. Speaker, for my words to be taken down, and I propose to stand by every word that I utter upon this floor." While the words were being transcribed, many republicans endeavored to dissuade Mr. Barrett from prosecuting his point of order, but unsuccessfully. Mr. Crisp moved that the gentleman from South Carolina be permitted to explain, and the motion, after much confusion, prevailed.

Talbert's Explanation Applauded.

Mr. Talbert then explained what he called the misinterpretation, rather than the misrepresentation, of his remarks, by saying that the circumstances and conditions that existed when South Carolina seceded could not and never would exist any more, and he was glad of it. (Applause). He added: "And, while South Carolina seceded, as she thought it to be her duty, with the light before her then, it is quite different to-day, and I did not say that I wished to violate the thirteenth amendment to the constitution by advocating secession, because those circumstances and conditions cannot and never will again exist."

Asked To Retract and Apologize.

Mr. Barrett then said: "I ask the gentleman from South Carolina, Mr. Talbert, whether he will rise in his place and distinctly, succinctly and definitely withdraw any remark made by him on this floor which carries with it, directly or indirectly, any implied threat on his part of secession under any circumstances whatever. Unless the gentleman will withdraw his remark and make an apology to the house, this resolution is going to be voted upon." (Cries of "no," "let it be voted on," and "vote, vote").

Referred to Committee.

Mr. Talbert: "I have stated my position and have not another word to say." (Cries of Vote.) Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, unless the gentlemen from South Carolina asks me to yield to him in order that he may make such a direct retraction as is due this house—which I now pause for him to do—I shall move the previous question on this resolution." (Cries of "move it"). Another turbulent scene ensued, and during the excitement Mr. Dalzell renewed his motion to refer the matter to the committee on the judiciary, and it was agreed to by a vote of 154 ayes; 41 noes.

RIOT NARROWLY AVERTED.

An Enormous Crowd Has Its Own Way for a Time in Madrid.

Madrid, Feb. 8.—This city was the scene yesterday of a demonstration that would have required but very little to have turned into a serious riot. As told in these dispatches on Tuesday last a number of men hooted Gen. Campos at the railway station on his return from Cuba. A number of the hooters were arrested and one of them broke away from the gendarmes who had him in custody and sought to make his escape. The gendarmes fired twice and killed him. The shooting caused great excitement, and the government was bitterly condemned by the republicans. Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the victim took place and it was attended by an enormous crowd. Fully 12,000 men, most of whom were republicans, went to the cemetery, shouting for the entire distance "Down with the police!" "Down with Campos!" and "Long live the republic!" The government anticipated trouble and there was a strong display of gendarmes, who, however, appeared to be afraid to interfere with the procession in any way lest they provoke a riot. Consequently the crowd shouted itself hoarse until the cemetery was reached, when the great assemblage stood with bared heads until the funeral rites had been completed. The greater portion of the crowd then dispersed, but 2,000 of its number again formed in line and marched unmolested back to the royal palace, in front of which they gathered and shouted "Death to the king!" "Death to the queen regent!" and "Long live the republic!" The police finally mustered up their courage and told the leaders the crowd must disperse. The crowd, after insisting upon carrying out their plan, finally listened to their leaders and dispersed.

GOVERNMENT WAR PREPARATIONS.

Americans in Cuba Now Favor Recognition of the Rebels as Belligerents.

Havana, Feb. 5, via Tampa, Fla., Feb. 8.—The government is rapidly forming squadrons of cavaly by mounting infantrymen. Thousands of horses have been taken by the authorities in the different provinces. Many American citizens in the interior, who had horses taken, have protested to the American consulate. Others fear trouble and say nothing. Millions of dollars worth of cane belonging to American citizens has been burned and railroad and other property destroyed. American planters who oppose the recognition of belligerency on the ground that the only hope of security of property and crops was vested in the Spanish authority, finding their hopes vain, crops burned and estates ruined, now favor recognition as the speediest settlement of the difficulty. The failure of Spain to protect American owners has changed sentiment. Gomez told an American planter who protested against the burning of cane, "had your congress recognized us months ago, you would now be grinding cane under the stars and stripes." The American residents of Havana hope a warship will be at hand in case congress passes a bill recognizing the belligerents.

Flood Loss at Waterbury.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 8.—The city's board of public works has completed the examination of the city streets, few of which are not damaged by the storm of Thursday. It will take nearly $2,000 to put them in the shape they were in before. It will take $19,000 to rebuild the two bridges and repair town roads, and a special town meeting will have to be called to make appropriations. The loss to the merchants by flooded cellars will foot up $20,000.

Elective Officers of the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The republican senatorial caucus last evening settled the question of the reorganization of the elective officers of the senate by the nomination of a full ticket. A. J. Shaw of the state of Washington was nominated to be secretary of the senate; Major H. L. Grant of North Carolina to be sergeant-at-arms; Alonzo Stewart of Iowa, to be acting assistant doorkeeper, and Rev. Mr. Milburn, the blind chaplain, to succeed himself.

Funeral of Spencer W. Coe.

Winsted, Conn., Feb. 8.—The funeral services over the remains of Spencer W. Coe were held yesterday afternoon at Meadowbrook farm. Owing to Dr. Parkhurst's absence in the west the services were conducted by Rev. J. Spencer Voorhees. The body was taken this morning to New York for interment in Woodlawn cemetery.

Death of Hon. C A. Fowler.

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Hon. C. A. Fowler, who died suddenly, yesterday, aged 63 years, was at one time one of the ablest lawyers in this section. In 1864 he was surrogate of Ulster county, and in 1869 represented the Fourteenth district in the

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT

General Revival of Business May Now Be Looked For.

SUCCESS OF BOND CALL RESPONSIBLE

Millions of Gold Unlocked in This Country and Millions Will Flow In—Manufacturing and All Trade Will Be Greatly Benefitted.

New York, Feb. 8.—Dun's weekly review of the state of trade will, to-day, say: The wonderful success of the popular loan alters the face of events. January operations become ancient history, as the nation mounts above all doubts and fears to a solid certainty that the people can and will uphold the government. The Morgan syndicate, bidding over $6,000,000 more than it would have paid at the rate of a year ago, gets only one-third of the issue, and a considerable part at higher figures, possibly almost half, goes to the multitude of individual investors represented by banks throughout the country. Had the Morgan syndicate made no bid, the Stewart syndicate would have taken the balance at a price nearly as good. With $568,000,000 bid by 4,600 national banks or persons, the tremendous strength of the national credit is demonstrated as it has not been before for many years. The influence of this event upon all manufacturing and all trade cannot be lightly estimated. It puts the treasury on a safe basis for a time, whether congress does anything useful or not. It notifies foreign nations that the United States has power as well as purpose. It unlocks millions of gold which have been gathered in preparation, brings directly several millions of gold from Europe and stimulates the anxiety of foreign investors to obtain American securities.

Signs of Improvement.

With such a revolution in business suddenly effected, the customary records of the past week and month are of less value than usual. But there have been signs of improvement in the iron manufacture, although the average of prices is nearly 1 per cent. lower this week, for orders have been booked for nearly 300,000 tons of rails this year against total deliveries in 1895 of 1,000,000 tons, and orders for wire nails are stimulated by a decision to advance the price again March 1. There is also a more active demand for plates and sheets. Southern competition lowers coke iron at Chicago and prevents advance at the east, while sales of last year's speculators in the Pittsburg region still depress Bessemer.

Retail Trade Retarded.

The boot and shoe manufacture does not gain as yet, jobbers still waiting, and retail distribution having been unusually retarded, so that the production is only about two-thirds of the usual quantity. Leather is about 1 per cent. lower for the week, and sales of 500,000 sides hemlock soles have been effected, mainly below quotations. Hides are depressed by tight money, though in light demand, and about 4 per cent. lower for the week. With reported reduction in Clay worsted and mixtures, the orders for woolen goods are said unusually delayed. It is also stated that cancellations in carpets have been unusually numerous since January 1. The cotton mills continue generally active, though talk of decreasing production still continues, print cloths do not rise about 2¼ cents, and some goods tend lower.

Commercial Loans Easier.

Railroad earnings in January have been 10.6 per cent. larger than last year, but 8.3 per cent. less than in 1893, and the tonnage east-bound from Chicago was in January nearly 1 per cent. larger than 1893. Commercial loans have been easier, and there is expected a material improvement with the release of money provided for the bond transaction. The interior movement has naturally been largely this way, but it is felt that all the effects of the bond operation on the money market may not yet have been anticipated.

WILL SUPPLY NO MONEY.

Danielson Catholics Refuse To Obey the Bishop's Orders.

Danielson, Conn., Feb. 8.—A delegation of six French Catholics called on the local priest Thursday evening and informed him that he might just as well go away from here and give up the parish, as neither the French nor the Irish would contribute any money whatever towards the support of the church, notwithstanding the command of the bishop to do so. Rev. Father Soquette, the local priest, has gone to Hartford, presumably to interview the bishop.

Morton Endorsed for President.

Elmira, N. Y., Feb. 8.—At the Chemung county republican convention yesterday resolutions favoring Morton for president were enthusiastically adopted.

Impoverished * Blood

whether due to the inheritance of some scrofulous disorder, or caused by a depleted condition of the system, is the cause of much agony. A terrible complexion, foul eruptions, and loathesome ulcers are but outward symptoms — the sufferer should remember that all of the great organs of the body are likewise diseased, and the day cannot be long distant when death must surely ensue.

Bovinine

when taken for this trouble, is a means of salvation. It creates new flesh tissue and pure red blood corpuscles, and by giving strength to the great vital centres of the body, it enables them to perform their functions naturally, and thus dispel the existing poisons by the natural channels. It is not a medicine, but a powerful food preparation and invigorant, and is endorsed by over 25,000 physicians.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

ELY'S Cream Balm

Is quickly absorbed, cleanes the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell.

It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c. at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS, 56 Warren st., New York.

W.L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., - Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

In Buying a Piano or an Organ

do not fail to examine the latest Mason & Hamlin models. Recent improvements render them unexcelled. Old pianos or organs taken in exchange. Instruments sold for cash or easy payments.

Catalogues and full information free.

Pianos of reliable makers from $200 upwards.

Mason & Hamlin Co.

136 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Mrs D T 2	Lane Samuel
Freeman A L	Mackentire Jos
Huff Bros	Mulligan Ellen
Halliday Frank	McKinley John
Huck Paulina	McLaughlin Mr C
Kingsbury John	Pope Alex Mrs 3
Kitchen Matie W	Robinson Jas A
King T P	Robertson R Mrs
Lackenasen Rachael	VanDerveer Francis
Zimmerman Josie Miss

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

Recommended by Physicians.

Horsford's

Baking Powder is itself a Nutritious Food. No other powder has this quality.

California IN THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made, and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

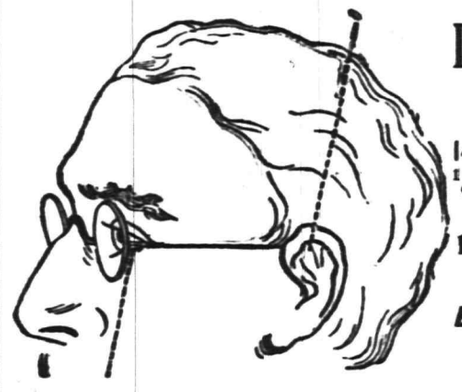
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

107 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.

BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
120 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
In best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street.
6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM.
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

Ten Sweet Caporal Little Cigars
for 5 cts.
SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

If You Don't
READ THIS AD
You Don't
GET THE BENEFIT.
Van Emburgh
& SON'S
Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin
No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard.
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.
Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

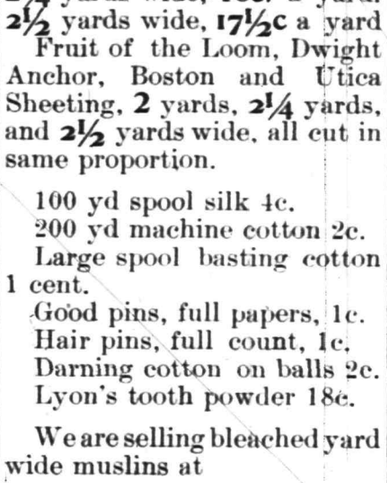
Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin
2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard
Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at
4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.
Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,
Corner Store, Babcock Building.

No Place Like Home



on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

SYNDICATE GETS 1-3

Morgan Crowd Capture $33,211,350 of the Bonds at 110.6877.

780 BIDS WERE ABOVE THEIR PRICE

Bonds Aggregating $66,788,650 Will Therefore Go to People Outside the New York Combine—All Bids Below 110.6877 To Be Rejected.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Assistant Secretary Curtis announced this morning that he was able to state that, from a complete analysis of the bids for bonds, they showed that bids aggregating $66,788,650 above 110.6877 had been received, and the 780 persons making those bids would be awarded the bonds. The Morgan syndicate bid of 110.6877 for $100,000,000 bonds, or any part thereof, would be accepted for the balance of the $100,000,000, or for $33,211,350. All bids below the figure 110.6877 are, therefore, rejected.

DEATH OF WM H. ENGLISH.

Brief Sketch of the Career of the Late Indiana Democrat.

Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—William H. English, who died here yesterday, was born in Lexington, Scott county, Ind., on August 22, 1822. He was educated in the common schools and at Hanover college, studied law, and was admitted to practice in the United States supreme court before he was twenty-three years old. From 1843 to 1844 he was a chief clerk in the Indiana house of representatives and a member and speaker in 1851. During President Polk's administration he was a clerk in United States treasury department, and he held a clerkship in the United States senate about 1850. Two years later he was elected to congress as a democrat and continued to serve until 1861, when he resigned and embarked in the business of banking In 1880 Mr. English was unanimously nominated for vice-president on the democratic ticket with Gen. Hancock. A very bitter fight was made on his whole record by the republican press. It was recalled that he voted in congress against the expulsion of Preston S. Brooks from congress, for the assault on Charles Sumner, and the story was brought up again of his having been accused in 1845 of a fraudulent pension transaction.

NO HOPE FOR "BAT" SHEA.

An Appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court Would Avail Him Nothing.

Albany, Feb. 8.—Although it is stated that "Bat" Shea's counsel intend to appeal to the United States supreme court from the decision of Justice Mayham, such a move cannot possibly benefit the condemned man, and nothing now can save him from the death chair next Tuesday, except the governor's interference, which will not be sought, as it is known that no further delay will be granted by him. Regarding an appeal to the United States supreme court, there is a precedent, in the case of Dr. Robert W. Buchanan. In May, 1895, the court of appeals rendered a unanimous opinion, holding that no appeal could be taken from the decision of an inferior court to the supreme court of the United States. A reprieve by the governor to a certain day, granted in a capital case, authorizes the execution of sentence on the day on which the reprieve terminates, and it is not necessary that the prisoner should be brought before the court to have the time of execution fixed. The right to execute the sentence on that day inherits in the power to fix the day to which the reprieve shall extend. An appeal direct to the United States court is not authorized. Such an appeal, therefore, does not operate as a stay, and where the writ was applied for in a case of one imprisoned under judgment of a state court finding him guilty of murder and sentencing him to death it furnishes no reason for delaying the execution of the sentence.

MAY BORROW THREE MILLIONS.

Receivers To Start Up the Walter A. Wood Works and Fill Orders on Hand.

Troy, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Justice Fureman of Troy has granted the receivers of the Walter A. Wood Mowing & Reaping Machine company of Hoosick Falls an order permitting the borrowing of $3,000,000 on receiver's certificates to allow the working up of raw material and the finishing of machines already in process of manufacture to fill foreign orders. The company will resume operations shortly. There is over $3,000,000 worth of raw material on hand and the company has orders that aggregate over $6,000,000.

Fire in French Ministry of War.

Paris, Feb. 8.—The fire last evening in the building occupied by the ministry of war was confined to the rooms in which were kept the archives. These rooms were gutted, but most of the documents in them were saved. Many of those destroyed, however, were very valuable.

Fourth-Class Postmasters Named.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The following fourth-class postmasters have been appointed: New Jersey—C. R. Potter, Bayville; J. E. Roller, Folgom. New York—Orlando Hand, Bridgehampton; Winfield Eddy, Merrillsville.—Pennsylvania—G. E. Sprenkle, Roy.

Shirt Factory Burned.

Pittsfield, Mass., Feb. 8.—The plant of the Brimmer-Sprague Co., shirt manufacturers, was burned entirely last evening. About 125 people were employed by the company.

Anti-Prize Fighting Bill a Law.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The president has signed the bill prohibiting prize fighting in the territories and District of Columbia.

NICARAGUA CANAL

Cost of Its Construction Estimated at $133,472,893.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF ENGINEERS

One of the Most Serious Problems To Be Overcome Is the Heavy Rainfalls—Physical Labor and Machinery Another Matter Discussed.

Washington, Feb. 8.—In the judgment of the board of engineers which thoroughly investigated the subject last summer, it will cost $133,472,893 to construct the Nicaraguan canal. These figures are $64,000,000 in excess of estimates of the company which now holds a charter from Nicaragua to build the waterway. The board which made the investigation consisted of lieutenant colonel William Ludlow of the United States army, Mordecai Endicott, a civil engineer in the United States navy, and Alfred Wolf, also a civil engineer. The board's report, which is included in 200 pages of typewritten manuscript, was sent yesterday by President Cleveland to the house.

Physical Labor and Machinery.

The natives are not likely to prove useful in the severe and steady work of canal construction. Jamaican negroes who have been employed on the Panama railroad are docile, and from a tropical standpoint industrious and fairly effective. They will undoubtedly form the labor supply for the canal. Wages are only about one-half as much as in the United States, but the efficiency of the laborers is proportionately much less. Machinery will be used largely, but will be of little value after the completion of the canal, and little, if any, will be worth removal. Its entire cost would, therefore, be charged to the canal construction, making the plant charge higher than usual. There are now no shops or facilities of any kind on or near the canal line and they will have to be supplied as adjuncts of the work. Skilled labor will have to be imported. Fuel will cost more than double. Freight on materials and supplies will increase their cost, particularly if sent to interior points.

One Serious Problem.

The most serious problems affecting the design and construction of the canal system at the present time, the report finds, are these involved in the heavy rainfall and consequent discharges from the lake and streams whose variations of surface and volume must be taken into account. The report shows that the climate of Nicaragua is misunderstood. It is the continued moderate temperature in conjunction with the high humidity that so seriously reduces the value of physical labor in the tropics. There has never been any yellow fever at Greytown except when imported. The heavy rainfall will increase largely the cost of excavating the deep mud at several embankment sites, in excavations, building embankments, etc.

Two Years To Get Ready.

The report closes with the following general conclusion: "The official estimate by the company of $66,466,880 is insufficient for the work. In several important cases the quantities must be greatly increased, and in numerous cases the unit prices do not make proper allowance for the difference in cost of work between the United States and Nicaragua. For obtaining the necessary data for the formation of a canal project, eighteen months' time, covering two dry seasons and an expenditure of $350,000, will be required."

THEY'RE LANDLUBBERS NOW.

Officers and Crew of the Texas Transported Across the Continent by Rail.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 8.—A special train on the Southern Pacific railroad passed through here last night having on board, in command of Lieutenant I. M. Roper, officers and crew of the battleship Texas, which has been put out of commission and is now in the dry dock at the Norfolk, Va., navy yard, for repairs. The train contained eight coaches. The party consisted of six officers and 165 men enroute to Mare Island navy yard, San Fransisco. This is the first movement of the kind attempted, as the government usually transports its sailors by way of the Isthmus of Panama.

Bordentown in Darkness.

Bordentown, N. J., Feb. 8.—Bordentown was in total darkness last night, the storm having demolished the electric light power house and flooded the gas works. Repairs may not be made before next week. Factories and mills using gas and electricity as power are seriously hampered.

Will Not Resume for Two Weeks.

Bridgeton, N. J., Feb. 8.—The window glass works of this place, which were to have resumed operations this morning after a month's idleness, will not start up for two weeks. About 700 men and boys are affected.

Columbia Arrives at St. Lucia.

New York, Feb. 8.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Columbia with a party of excursionists from New York to the West Indies and Spanish main has arrived at St. Lucia.

Treasury Gold Reserve

Washington, Feb. 8.—The gold reserve at the opening of business to-day stood at $44,483,186. The withdrawals yesterday at New York amounted to $730,000.

Wolcott's Speech Printed in London.

London, Feb. 8.—The Times this morning prints verbatim from the Congressional Record the speech of Senator Wolcott, rep., Col., on the Monroe doctrine.

Munyon!

Strong Endorsements From Well Known People.

READ THEIR TESTIMONIALS.

Hundreds of Prominent Citizens Cured By Munyon's Improved Homoeopathic Remedies.

Positively Successful Cures for Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Kidney and All Blood and Nerve Diseases—At All Druggists, 25c a Bottle.

H. J. Hayes, of Troy, N. Y., writes: "I have used in my family your Cough Cold, Rheumatism, Catarrh and Headache Cures, and surely I never found anything so good. In fact, I never before found any medicine that could be depended upon to cure as Munyon's can. I had heard of your medicines, and induced my druggist to get some for me. He did so, and now he has a large trade for them. I have recommended them to my friends, and they all tell me that they have great success. There is nothing so efficacious as Munyon's Remedies. I cannot endorse them too highly."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure never fails to relieve it in 1 to 3 hours, and cures in a few days. Price, 25c.
Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price. 25c.
Munyon's Catarrh Remedies positively cure. Price, 25c. each.
Munyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures pains in the back, loins or groins, and all forms of kidney disease. Price, 25c.
Munyon's Female Remedies are a boon to all women. Price 25c.
Asthma Cure, with Asthma Herbs, $1.
Munyon's Nerve Cure stops nervousness and builds up the system. Price 25c.
Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in 3 minutes. Price 25c.
Munyon's Pile Ointment positively cures all forms of piles. Price 25c.
Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates all impurities of the blood. Price 25c.
Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost powers to weak men. Price, $1.00.
A separate cure for each disease. At all druggists, 25c a bottle.
Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh, and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

NOTICE.
Special Reductions
—AT—
Neuman Bros.
on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.
NEUMAN BROS.

GEO. O. STEVENS
OAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

106 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 8, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Increasing Cloudiness With Rain Tonight and Sunday; Warmer.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 48 Degrees.

There is no question now but what Bound Brook is properly named.

Emily street was a modest name and had satisfied boroughites for thirty years. What was the idea of changing it at this date?

In the report of the Bound Brook disaster yesterday The Daily Press scored another big triumph in local journalism. The Press had the most complete and authentic account printed, and was on the streets for sale almost an hour before any other paper. A large number of papers were sent to Bound Brook early in the afternoon and they were rapidly bought up by the crowds that were there viewing the wreck of fire and water. The general excellence of the report was commented on by those who were at the scene of the disaster when it was being enacted. A large number of papers were also sold at Somerville One thousand extra copies of The Press were sold yesterday, a record unequalled by any paper ever printed in this city.

SAMPLES OF RELIGION.

An Interesting Story Told by E. E. Anthony Last Night.

The mass meeting of the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies held in the Park Avenue Baptist church last night was one long to be remembered by those who attended it. A fifteen minute song service, led by Fred. H. Andrews, opened the meeting brightly and cheerfully. The first prayer was made by E. E. Anthony after which Charles Lewis sang as a solo the hymn "That Will Be Heaven For Me."

The meeting was led by Mr. Anthony, who called the attention of the congregation to a verse in the Psalms which reads, "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so." The substance of Mr. Anthony's address was as follows. "A few years ago I was in Pittsburg and was wandering around the street feeling miserable and as I neared the railroad station I heard voices sing the familiar hymn, "Christ Receiveth Sinful Men." I turned and asked one who was standing near what it was and in reply he said, 'I guess it is the mission meeting down on the banks of the river.' I decided to go and see for myself, and there on the banks of the river I found five young men, three young ladies and one elderly lady. This little company stood on the banks of the river and sang until they had drawn a crowd of nearly one hundred and fifty people; then they walked back to the mission hall followed by all who had assembled and there held a revival meeting. After several persons had testified to the wideness of God's mercy and of His love, a middle-aged man stood up and sneared at the testimony, but one of the young men spoke right up and said, 'Sir, you are a traveling salesman, are you not? and you have goods for sale samples of which you carry to show? 'Yes' was the reply. Then the young man continued. 'We are not selling anything here tonight, we are giving it away for the asking, and we also have samples of that which we offer to you. We are giving by the grace of God, salvation and the testimony which you have heard and at which you sneared, is the sample.'

"And so we come here tonight we do not come saying that we are better than others, but we come to show you what the religion of Jesus Christ has done for us, what it is doing for us all time. We invite you to join with us and take Christ to be your Saviour."

Mr. Anthony then announced that Miss Florence Hawkins had something to say upon the same subject. Miss Hawkins' address was to the young workers, imploring them to be faithful.

A long experience meeting was held after the close of Miss Hawkins' words, at which nearly every one took some part. During this part of the meeting Mr. Lewis sang a solo entitled "Some Day."

FOR FREE CUBA.

Now Freedom from her mountain peaks
For Cuban independence speaks;
"Ring bells?" she cries, "for Cuba's cause,
Ring tokens of the world's applause;
Ring newer courage to her sons!
Ring grander prestige for her guns!
Ring telephone call fifty-eight
And get good coal and honest weight."

—The road connecting Avon Park and South Plainfield was washed away from Park avenue to beyond Holl's ice house.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, met last evening and received one application. Mr. Rouser, of Somerville, representative of The Jersey Knight, was present.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

William Howatt is ill at his home, 214 West Second street.

Fred Pope, of Somerville, visited friends in town last night.

Miss Brown, of Keyport, is the guest of Miss Hyer, of East Fourth street.

Miss Georgie Fountain of Jackson avenue, is visiting friends at Newton, N. Y.

J. E. Mattison, of Somerset street, is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Eliza Parse, of Grove street, started for Knoxville, Tenn., yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Walton, of Philadelphia, spent yesterday with H. M. Jaquett, of Westervelt avenue.

Mrs. J. R. Rue, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Day, of Rockview avenue.

Miss Sadie Walling, of Warwick, N. Y., is the guest of the Misses Barlow, of Prospect place.

Charles Armstrong, of Camden, is visiting his brother, T. S. Armstrong, of Reynolds' pharmacy.

G. A. Chapman and family, of the Seminary, moved yesterday to their new home on Stelle avenue.

Mrs. William Taylor, formerly of this city, but now resident in German town, is visiting friends in town.

Chauncey Schafer Burt, of Princeton College, is enjoying a few days vacation at his home in this city.

Robert Barnes' new house on Grove street, is about completed and will be ready for occupancy in a short time.

Fred Case who has been spending a few days at his home on Central avenue, has returned to Harvard College

Mrs. S. C. Mills, of Governors Island, N. Y., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brooks, of Rockview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moran, of Grove street, are happy over the arrival of a little daughter, who is now four days old.

Miss Marion Dumont, who has been spending several weeks in Buffalo and Rochester, has returned to her home in East Seventh street.

Mrs. Salling, from Somerville, will lead the gospel temperance meeting in Reform Hall tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. All invited.

Miss T. A. Alexander, of East Fifth street, left today for western New York State, where she will spend several days with friends.

Miss Elsie T. Smith, of Westervelt avenue, who was so ill of apendicitis last summer, is now very sick with La Grippe and bronchitis.

William McLoughlin, of Somerset street, who has been confined to his home with rheumatism, was able to attend to his duties yesterday.

Frank Patience and family formerly of East Front street, has removed to the corner of Howard and Grove streets, where he has erected a house.

Arthur and Nellie, the two youngest children of William Montfort, of Somerset street, are seriously ill with pneumonia. Dr. J. H. Carmen is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, of Bedminster, have returned home after a pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. Cobb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hurlbut, of Lincoln place.

Miss Minnie Mills, of Orange county, who has been visiting at the home of her uncle, E. W. Mills, of East Fifth street, returned to her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, who were married Wednesday at Providence, R. I., spent part of their honeymoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amerman, of Stone street.

F. W. Harold, a representative of the Philadelphia Ledger, who attended the marriage of his sister, Miss Edith Harold, to Wm. O. Chapman, Thursday evening, returned to his home this morning.

Charles M. Ulrich is still confined to his home on East Fifth street by injuries sustained last Tuesday. He was driving a wagon when the harness broke and he was thrown over the dashboard.

Heart Disease!

Quick pulse, palpitation of the heart, short breath, swimming head — terribly frightened? No danger — simply symptoms of Dyspepsia. Not one person in five thousand has real heart disease.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills.

Try Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills and see how quickly this kind of heart disease disappears. White wrapper if constipated, yellow if bowels are loose. At all druggists', 25c. A sample is cheerfully mailed.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston, N. Y.

THAT GRAND, SWEET SONG.

If you would make of life one grand sweet song
And all its joys and benefits prolong.
Let no neglect bring trouble to your sight
And all earth's scenes of wond'rous beauty blight.
But unto Collier's go and learn the way
To save your eyesight to your latest day.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

AN EVENING OF PLEASURE.

The American Social Club Gave Their Friends an Enjoyable Time.

The third reception of the American Social Club, under the auspices of Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., was held last evening in Central Hall, corner of Park and North avenues, and was attended by a large number of young people from this city and vicinity, who spent a very pleasant evening in dancing till the early hours this morning.

The grand march was led by the floor manager, W. W. Stratton and Miss Bertha Naylor, and was assisted by the assistant, G. S. Martin and Mrs. Hattie Robinson.

Those who had charge of the affair were: W. W. Stratton, chairman, Mrs. A. A. Wykoff, secretary, Mrs Hattie Robinson, treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Stratton, Miss Emma Angleman, Miss Bertha Rockfellow, Miss Daisy Sprague, J. Bowman and G. S. Martin.

New Market.

Miss Nellie Coriell is entertaining Miss White, of Red Bank, for a few days.

Miss Maitland, who has been visiting friend at Newark, has returned home.

Mrs. M. Huff, who has been visiting friends at Elizabeth, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Robinson, of Jersey City, is spending a few days with relatives in town.

The borough commissioners will postpone their meeting until further notice on account of the revival meetings.

Miss Anna Doyle, accompanied by Miss Nellie Smith, of Union Hill, are spending a few days with relatives on Elm street.

A new gun club has been organized in this place. They had their first shoot today. The list for new names is still open.

Nothing Like It.

Time brings many changes, but the climate of California, "The Italy of America," and the attractions of the many famous health and pleasure resorts, are the same yesterday, today and forever.

Tourists never will tire of speaking in praise of the soft and balmy air, the profusion of flowers, the magnificent display of fruits, the luxury of seabathing and the beautiful walks and drives.

Then, too, it must be conceded that with such excellent equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars, all heated by steam and lighted with Pintsch Light, the Union Pacific, "The Overland Route," is the tourists favorite. Ask your agents for tickets via this route.

E. L. Lomax, General Pass. and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

High School Notes.

Herbert L. Richardson, of the class of '96, has left school and will take a business situation in New York

Miss Mary Collier, who has been detained at home for two weeks by the effects of an injury caused by falling on the ice, while skating, has returned to her duties in her class.

The schedule of recitations has been changed in order to bring in the study of French. This change will take effect Monday and at that time French will be taken up as a regular study for those who wish to study it.

Next Thursday the High School Cadets will drill in the Columbia Riding Academy from 3:30 until 4:30 in the afternoon.

Crippled By a Fall.

"When my little daughter was four years old she had a fall which resulted in hip disease. She became very nervous and the pain in her limb was so severe that she would wake and scream at night and I thought she would have fits. The doctor ordered a brace to be put on and I began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She wore the brace fifteen months, and kept giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla during this time, and no one would know that she was ever a cripple except that she limps a little in walking. She is now the picture of health and growing rapidly." Mrs. C. L. VanDyke, Box 3, Rocky Hill, N. J.

—Harper has a fine assortment of valentines.

—The big bargains advertised in The Press at Edsall's Commercial Palace yesterday made a brisk trade. There are plenty more for tonight's trade.

—A flock of sea gulls flew over Campbell's Hotel on Park avenue, Thursday, in the midst of the storm. They were supposed to have been driven inland by the high wind.

—Members of the team of Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., are requested to meet at W. W. Stratton's, 257 East Third street, tonight, for rehearsal, after which refreshments will be served.

—L. L. Manning has just completed a beautiful cross monument of Vermont granite, and placed it in the plot of E. W. Faber at Hillside cemetery. The lot has a handsome enclosure. The whole thing is a credit to Mr. Manning.

THEATRICAL.

A glass of fruity, sparkling champagne can scarcely be more invigorating than an evening spent in witnessing an interpretation of Chas. Hoyt's greatest farce comedy success, "A Trip to Chinatown," which will be seen at Music Hall tonight. This engagement will be notable for more than one reason. "The musical trifle" as the author modestly proclaims his play, has had a run of six hundred and fifty-six performances in the city of New York at Hoyt's Theatre. This excels the longest run known to any previous New York production, regardless of how pretentious it may have been. "Adonis" has next approached it in a run of 603 performances, and 'Humpty Dumpty" 483. Mr. Hoyt has determined to give Plainfield playgoers the farce identical with its production in New York, even to the smallest detail. The cast includes Harry Conor, who created the part of "Welland Strong," Anna Boyd, Sadie Kirby, James R. Smith, Harry Gilfoil, Madge Deana, Richard Karl, Effie Chapuy and Jose Shalders. Another unusual event incidental to this production, unusual because it has never been paralleled in the history of farce comedies, will be the bringing to this city of a complete carload of scenery built by Voegtlin for this production. Farce comedies have not hitherto, even in Mr. Hoyt's brilliant career, caused the transportation of scenic effects so elaborate. The great success of this play in this city last year is still fresh in the minds of Plainfield theatre-goers.

There is no secret to the success achieved by the Waite Comedy Comedy Company Premium Band and Orchestra Mr. Waite, through his long and successful career as an amusement caterer, knows what the public wants and he gives them more amusement for their modest expenditure than any manager in this country. Starting his present companies in 1880, he has gradually built up and strengthened them until, today, they are among the most popular and profitable that tour the country. Bright, clean plays, good specialty innovations and unusual musical attractions are features of his programmes, and the coming of Waite is an event in every city. Every night and every afternoon of next week at popular prices.

Dunellen.

Mrs. W. Taylor has been entertaining friends from Greenville.

The borough commissioners have purchased a chemical engine.

Mrs. Eden Vail, of Greenbrook, is visiting friends at North Branch.

Mrs. Wheeler, of North avenue, who has been visiting at Newark, has returned home.

Wm. Stites will move his family to their new house on Mountain avenue the first of March.

Howard Giles will move his hardware store to the store formerly occupied by F. H. Gise, on North avenue, very soon.

Mr. Homan, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Benton, of Front street, has returned home to Buffalo.

The Juniors gave a very enjoyable reception to the members of the Epworth League Thursday evening at the Methodist parsonage. The evening was passed in a very pleasant manner. Games were enjoyed by both old and young.

Mrs. S. P. Simmons
Springfield, Ohio.

Walked with Crutches

Rheumatism—Eczema—Swelled Neck—Hood's Cured.

"For two years I have been sick, having been confined to the house for a year. I have had eczema for nine years, having skilled physicians, but received no benefit. Last winter I caught cold and became which put me on crutches. Last July I commenced to use Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished one bottle I laid the crutches aside. After taking two bottles the eczema had left me and I was almost entirely free from the effects of a swelled neck. I know that it was Hood's Sarsaparilla that cured me and I think it cannot be recommended too highly. Although 57 years old, I feel young again." MRS. S. P. SIMMONS, East Springfield, Ohio.

Afflicted With Rheumatism,

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Only

True Blood Purifier

Prominently in the public eye today.

Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25c.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

You Will Not Wonder

After Seeing Peck's Great Display of Wash Goods and Embroideries.

THE DALZIEL

GRAMMAR, MANUAL AND ART SCHOOL, 309 East Front Street.

IS AN ESTABLISHED SUCCESS.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique, Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at the Women's School of Design, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

THE WET GOODS

The loss on the goods damaged by water caused by the bursting of the automatic sprinkler in the show window of Edsall's Commercial Palace has been adjusted and the goods will be offered for sale on Friday Morning, February 7th.

There is not a very large lot of them and they were but slightly wet with clean water, and damaged but very little. They are marked, however, at a very low price in order to turn them into quick cash.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

There are a dozen or fifteen handsome plush capes, elegantly trimmed with fur and silk lined; the original price was $25 to $35. They will go for about $9 to $11.

Some silk waists that sold for $9.75. The will go from $4.50 to $5.

Some extra fine separate Skirts that sold for $8.39 and up. They will go for about $5, and some as low as $1.98.

There is quite a lot of Ladies Muslin Underwear, Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset Covers and Drawers. Of course the mere wetting of these with clean water has not damaged them for use at all, but they will go at less than half price.

There are about seventy-five to one hundred fine Corsets sold from 75cts., to $1.50. They will go at 35cts. each.

Now, of course you understand that the quantity of these wet goods are limited. They cannot be duplicated and in order to prevent any one from being disappointed who may not be fortunate to secure some of the wet goods bargains, we have spent considerable time in the market picking up big bargains of various kinds to put in this sale, so as to make the occasion worthy of a large attendance. So come along with the crowd. There will be some very telling bargains on both floors of our immense store.

China Department.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

One lot fine China Cuspidores, finely decorated, floral designs. Sold at 29cts. readily. This sale only 21cts.

One lot fine China bedroom Lamps, handsomely decorated in colors and gold. Were good sellers at 97c. This sale only 69c.

One lot Library Lamps, various styles and prices. To reduce the stock, your choice for $1.09. They sold for much higher prices.

We also offer at this sale some rare bargains in a lot of Banquet Lamps. Space is too short to give details. Come in and see them. They talk for themselves.

A very telling bargain in a lot of beautiful glass fruit dishes. In appearance resembling cut glass, very handsome designs. The price is for this sale only 13cts.

Something very pretty in crystal glass Rose Bowls, looks like cut glass. They go at only 10cts.

Carpet Department.

One lot Samples of fine Velvet and Moquette Carpets, 1¼ yards long, finished ends. Choice for 99cts.

One lot of all-wool Art Squares, 2¼ by 3 yards. For this sale only $4.79.

One lot of best Tapestry Brussels Carpets, 6 different patterns. This sale only 53cts.

Grocery Department.

Potted Ham, can	10c	Extra Can Pears	11c
" Tongue	10c	Fine Silver Prunes	12c
Ox Tongue, 1½ pound can	45c	Condensed Milk	7c. up
Clam Chowder, box	10c	String Beans, can	6c
Smoked Halibut, "	10c	Soap	2½c
Mustard Sardines	8c	Dried Beans	8c
Boston Baked Beans	10c	Lard	6 & 10c
14 Can Fine Tomatoes	98c	Butter, good	20c
14 Can Sugar Corn	98c	Glass of Mustard	10c
Fine Early June and Mar. Peas 8c. up		Pint Jar Mustard	20c

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

PUTNAM & DE GRAW.

It is worth your time, and it will be money in your pocket if you will

Come and See the Many Bargains We Are Offering.

Men's seamless half hose	10c, 3 pair for 25c
" " " extra heavy	2 pair for 25c
" " " fast black	2 pair for 25c
Ladies' seamless fast black hose	10c
Children's seamless fast black wool hose, all sizes	15c
" " " " extra heavy, double knee	18c
Large white cotton towels, only	10c
26 inch fast black, Paragon frame umbrellas, $1.25 style for	$1.00

Spring Embroideries

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	19	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	18	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	17
Cranford	837	6	22

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
Cranford C. C.	4	5	1557
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

George Worth now holds the Park Club high score record for February. He rolled 226.

The Crescent Wheelmen go to Cranford Suesday evening to roll a game in the Central Journal Bowling League. The Cranford alleys are famous for their hoodoo, but the Crescents want the game if they expect to continue in first place, and will make a strong effort to win the game.

The Westfield Club visited Plainfield last night and rolled two games with the Union County Country Club and won both games. The Country Club kept them bowling for all they were worth to win, they taking the first game by only 16 pins and the second by 50 pins. Brown, of the Counties, was very unfortunate in the first game, and had he rolled in any kind of form would have won the first game. Capt. Burnet, of the Counties, was high man in the first, but in the second was unfortunate enough to have four splits, and if not for these would have won the second game. But he will have a team next year that will tell a different story, unless all signs fail. He has had very little support from the club at large, but that don't cause him to lose heart by long odds. The scores of both games are as follows:

UNION COUNTY.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Brown	128	151
Jackson	146	142
Burnet	165	148
Wharton	146	151
Beebe	158	166
	743	758

WESTFIELD.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Baker	127	198
Voehl	149	135
Alpers	132	162
Love	187	184
Smith	164	129
	759	808

The Park Club is hustling after second place in the Standard League and last evening added to her chances by winnning two games from the Cranford Athletic Club on the former's alleys. The first game was an easy victory for the home team, who won by 74 pins. The record for the highest single individual score in the League was broken in this game by P. B. Matthews, of the Park Club, who rolled 231. The second game was an exciting one. The visitors begin to roll with very few breaks, and at the end of the fifth frame led by 52 pins. Then the Parks got down to business, and as the finish was neared, the lead was decreased. It was neck and neck in the last frame, and when all but Thiers had bowled, Cranford was 18 pins ahead. This was the second time that "Doc" Thiers has been called upon to win the game against the Cranford team, and he was again equal to the occasion. He needed 19 to put his team 1 pin ahead, but he managed to secure 20, thus winning the game for Plainfield by two pins. The individual scores were as follows:

PARK CLUB.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Lyman	152	159
VanBuren	122	169
Matthews	231	154
Worth	150	182
Thiers	162	162
	817	826

CRANFORD ATHLETIC CLUB.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Cox, S	129	141
Shaw	165	184
Cox, F	153	169
Ussing	151	165
Cox, H	145	165
	743	824

—The electric lights in Washington Park went out last evening and that part of the borough was shrouded in darkness until morning.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be curred by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Buy your valentines at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

—A meeting of the Royal Arcanum will be held Monday evening.

—Baptism will be administered at Warren chapel tomorrow morning.

—Neuman Brothers are making special reductions in all table oils.

—Hood's pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. Sold by all druggists.

—Do you have headaches, and wish to be relieved? Give "Pura Blood" a trial, and be cured.

—Curtis' strawberry and assorted james are a feature of the bargains at Neuman Brothers this week.

—The entire roof of the barn on West Second street owned by John Darling, was blown off by Thursday's gale.

—The contract case of Marsh against Stout will be tried Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock before Justice Mattison.

—John Schultz was arraigned before City Judge DeMeza yesterday on the charge of drunkenness. Sentence was suspended.

—Clifford Smith, of Westervelt avenue, lost his row boat in Thursday's freshet. The boat was tied in Green brook and the high water carried it away.

—A large supply of spring chickens and the very best cuts of beef are the specials today at W. L. and J. M. Smalley's meat market on Somerset street.

—Over five hundred excursion tickets were sold to Bound Brook yesterday from Plainfield alone, and today the sale will be as large if not larger.

—On account of the service in the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening, the social which was to have been held in the Grace M. E. church was postponed.

—The wind of Thursday snapped the post in the fence in front of the home of Mrs. Joseph Cutter, of West Front street, and was blown clear across New street.

—Catarrh is a constitutional disease and cannot be cured by local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a constitutional remedy; it cures catarrh because it purifies the blood.

—Street Commissioner Emmons, of the borough, had his men engaged yesterday afternoon in repairing the roadbed on Greenbrook road, which was considerably damaged by Thursday's storm.

—Charles Burnett has received the contract for the mason work, and Hummer Bros. the carpenter work for Miss M. E. McLoughlin's new houses on Somerset street, which are to be completed by April 1st.

—The friends of Miss Florence White spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Miss White, 453 West Front street. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and card playing. A large number of friends were present.

—Yesterday afternoon while Sergeant Kiely was standing on the heavy glass by Reynold's pharmacy, one of the panels on which he stood broke through It had been previously cracked, and it was not surprising that the accident happened. The Sergeant was not injured.

—Contractor Bodenheimer has just completed the excavating of the cellar for Miss M. E. McLoughlin's new house on Somerset street, and started today the digging of a cellar for a large double-house on the adjoining lot for the same party.

—The Woman's Relief Corps, No. 10, met last evening and elected one candidate. The committee on the New England reported that the arrangements were about completed for an enjoyable time. There will probably be initiation at the next meeting.

—For 1896 the Free Public Library will add to its periodical list: "Education," a monthly, the "Ladies' Home Journal," a monthly, and the "American Historical Review," a quarterly. The number of periodicals now received and accessible to the public is one hundred and nine, including the majority of the popular illustrated magazines.

—A horse belonging to W. J. Buttfield, of the borough, became frightened at a trolley car in front of Sayre's harness shop on East Front street this morning and ran away. The men in charge captured the animal near the brook in Stiger's alley. The horse was detached from the wagon while a piece of the harness was being mended. There was no damage.

MEDICAL MEN KICK.

CONTRACTS WITH BENEFICIAL ORGANIZATIONS FORBID.

Union County Society's New Ruling—It Means More Expense to Associations Employing Physicians—Hard Feelings.

The Union County Medical Society, which includes a large number of physicians from all over the county, in regular session have passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is unlawful for a member of this society to enter into any kind of contract whatsoever, either with a family or a beneficiary society, to attend such family or society as its physician, even if such family or society should agree to pay the regular fees specified in the fee table; and be it also

Resolved, That any member who is at present the physician of a family or beneficiary society under contract with the same, be and is hereby directed to give notice to such family or society that his contract with them must terminate on February 1, if possible, or not later than April 1 next. These resolutions do not apply to municipalities or railroad corporations.

This announcement has created much excitement in all the secret and benevolent societies of Elizabeth especially the Independent Order of Foresters, which now has eight courts and nearly 1,300 members. It means a much greater expense to the various courts, as by the old agreements so much per capita per year was paid to each doctor or an average of a dollar a visit. With the new rule the regular fee of two dollars a visit will be charged.

A number of the members of the medical society who have a list of societies to look after are incensed at the society's action, and they will resign before they will break their contracts.

In several instances doctors have sent in their resignations to their benevolent orders, causing not a little inconvenience and no little ill-feeling over their breach of conduct.

The druggists of Elizabeth have also decided to raise the price of subscriptions to benevolent orders from a contract price of twenty cents per prescription to the regular price, with ten per cent discount.

—There will be a most interesting service tomorrow afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer, at 4:30 o'clock, when Rev. Mr. Gibbons, of New York, a converted Esquimo, will conduct the services. All are most cordially invited to attend.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Chamber Music

Concert,

—AT—

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

MRS. HALL'S ENTERTAINMENTS

FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

at 3 o'clock.

February 7—MRS. LAURA E. RICHARDS. Readings from Captain January, Jim of Hellas, etc.
February 21—REV. W. HUDSON SHAW, M. A., of Oxford University, England, lecture on VENICE.
March 6—MRS. FLORENCE HOWE HALL, lecture on General Francis Marion and the Hugenots of South Carolina.

Tickets, Course, $2. Single $1.

May be obtained at Mr. Estil's Bookstore and at the drug stores. 2 4 3

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

—The work of the German class of the Y. M. C. A., which will be on exhibition at the State convention to be held in Jersey City this month, was completed last evening.

DIED.

ROCKAFELLOW—Fred Howard, infant son of Geo. H. and Mabel M. Rockafellow, aged 3 months and 11 days.
Funeral services will be held at his parent's residence, 124 Central avenue, Sunday, at 2 p. m.

STEVENSON—In this city Wednesday, Feb. 5, 1896, Eliza Stevenson, aged 65 years.
Funeral services from the undertaking parlors of A. M. Runyon & Son, Monday, Feb. 10, at 10 a. m.

Borough Notice!

Public notice is hereby given that application in writing signed by persons owning at least one-quarter of the lineal feet of land fronting on Warren street between Manning avenue and Chatham street in the borough of North Plainfield, has been presented to the Mayor and Council of the borough of North Plainfield asking for the vacation of said Warren street from the Southeasterly side line of Manning avenue to the Northeasterly side line of Chatham street: And that it is the intention of said Mayor and Council to cause said portion of said street to be vacated:

Such persons, if any there be, as object thereto are required to present their objections in writing to the subscriber, on or before February twenty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety six, at six o'clock, p. m., of said day.

Dated February 7, 1896.

JAMES K. ARNOLD, Borough Clerk.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

VERY handsome flat; all modern improvements. Apply Manning's city marble works.

STORE to let from April 1, 1896, now occupied by Earnest & Barrett as a plumber's store. Flat to let from April 1st; 5 rooms, city water, 3d floor, No. 329 Watchung ave; $12.50 month. Inquire Charles H. Hand, 317 Watchung avenue.

LOST—White fox terrier dog; brown spot over right eye, long tail; collar on, registered No. 116. Return stable 1107 Watchung ave. Reward. 2 7 2

WANTED.—Five cooks and six girls for housework. Room 209, Babcock Building.

ROOM 201, Babcock Building, wants a girl for general housework.

WANTED.—At once, experienced white cook. Apply 949 Central avenue. 2 8 tf

GOOD opportunity offered for any one to study law and also to have interest in business on small investment. Answer Rex, care Press.

6 ROOM house to let, DeKalbe ave; rent $12 per month. Charles H. Hand.

TO LET—A corner store, 22x65 feet; suitable for dry goods or grocery; corner flat of 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; a 12-room house on West 7th st; large lot with stable, chicken house, etc., house recently fitted up with all improvements. City Mills. 2 8 14 15

WANTED—Young girl (Swede) as competent chambermaid and laundress. Call 473 Belvidere avenue, Netherwood.

HOUSE wanted, $25 per month; all improvements, 5 bedrooms; good location. Address with all particulars E., care Press. 2 7 3

FOR SALE or to let for term of years, the very desirable residence 662 West 7th st., with large grounds, garden and barn; for terms apply on the premises. John E. Stewart. 2 7 6

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

$50 WEBER square piano for sale. Inquire at 123 West 7th street. 2 3 6

WANTED—Situation as gardener by experienced man; best of city references. Address G. M., P. O. Box 383, city. 2 3 6

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

Plainfield's GREATEST STORE.

There are many ways of running a business, but only one way that leads to success. Our way of procuring the best salespeople we can, paying fair salaries and having nothing but workers from the head of the house down to the boy. Hence our great success. It's why 75c and sometimes 50c does the work here that it takes a dollar to do in other stores. Wise buying and being on the inside of the market enables us to clip off profits that other merchants pay.

Now for February.

RIBBONS.

Prices broken in two on many lots of new ribbons. Just think of handsome Dresden and printed warp ribbons 29c the yard. We will clear out the odds and ends of our ribbon sale at 14c the yard. Many good things among them.

DRESS SILKS.

Today we are showing over fifty styles of new dress silks. The new Persian and Dresden designs that are going to be all the rage the coming season. Handsome black silks and satins and we are naming very little prices on them—39 to 98c the yard.

EMBROIDERIES.

Two immense lots of pretty new embroideries bought at half their real value. Will go on sale tomorrow. Lot No. 1, 5c the yard; lot No. 2, 10c the yard, and not a piece in the entire lot worth less than double what we ask.

TOWELS.

Tomorrow we place on sale 100 dozen fine huck towels, hemstitched borders, same as you usually pay 25c for. Our price will be 13 cents.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL HOUSEFURNISHING SALE.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. $2.50 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 4 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c. White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Uutil that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Are the Most Popular in the World.

Evidenced by the fact that there were more of them sold in '95 than any other make. Be sure to see sample before purchasing your '96 wheel.

Made by Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

F. L. C. MARTIN, AGENT. 1 27 eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

JACK RABBIT DAVIS.

"IT IS a mistake to suppose the west to be all rough and always on the war-path."

The speaker was Samuel A. Baldwin, otherwise and for short, "Red River Sam," ranchman and herd-owner in the Pecos country, New Mexico.

"Of course," he continued, looking shyly at Representative Hall and one or two others whose evening at Willard's he was beguiling away with his stories, "now and then some notion that a bob-tail flush beats aces, or some similar blunder, may start the ball rolling, and for the time the air will be full of lead as that tree on the corner is of sparrows, but, the excitement over, the days will be as peaceful as a sheep for months.

"About as bloody a battle as I ever heard of in the line of a single-handed transaction was between a tenderfoot who signed the ranch pay rolls as Gus Davis, and a Mexican. This Gus Davis was a quiet, Quaker young man from Philadelphia. Physically, he was a superb creation. Of middle size and weight, he was nevertheless so perfectly and accurately fashioned that his physical strength was a marvel.

"His tastes drew him to the west, and in the early months of 1893 he abandoned the dull city of his youth and stayed not in his journeyings until he met the waters of the Pecos on their way to the Rio Grande. His ambition was cows and to be a rancher, and as a primary step he employed himself as a 'rider' to John Shure, a man of wealth and beef. He was at once set to work. His companions—some American, some Mexican—were all of the rude southwest type.

"The western man, thorough in his paces, sure in his surroundings, is as courageous an animal as any yet constructed. He thinks so, too. He goes a trifle further and makes many mistakes; he thinks that only the man of the west, western, is brave. His impression of the tenderfoot is that he sadly lacks in 'sand' and is far from 'game.' Why the cowboy clings to this theory in the face of frequent and frightful experiences of a contrary sort can only be answered by his thick-headed ignorance.

"When Gus Davis clinched on his saddle among those rough riders of the southwest he met the usual fate of ignorance in the camp of experience. Knowledge is never polite except when it is outnumbered. When it is in the majority it is insulting, rude and sometimes malicious. Davis was guyed and hazed and made to suffer boorish jokes, such as the untried are ever heir to in every place, from colleges to cow camps.

"But Davis loved peace for the sake of peace. His lessons, like the Quaker blood, inclined him to amity and forbearance. He was exactly the sort of a man for a cowboy to be mistaken in. His uncomplaining good nature, his failure to even frown resentment against the impositions practiced upon him were attributed to cowardice. A man usually gains a nickname before he gets his breakfast in the west, and Davis was soon hailed as "the Jack Rabbit" for his timidity. He stood this as he stood all the rest.

"It is hard to convince a Mexican that an American is not a dangerous man. He has been furnished so many reasons for the contrary view, and being by nature a cautious, furtive sort of being himself, and in no wise anxious to get hurt, he generally concedes it without inquiry.

"But a Mexican never loves an American; and let him but dare the deed, and he will promptly practice any insult against the hated 'Gringo.' It w ot long before the Mexican part of the John Shure outfit became convinced, like the Americans, that there was no danger in Davis. You couldn't drag a fight out of him with a pony and a rope was their belief, too. So the Mexicans added themselves to the ranks of his tormentors.

HE SEIZED THE DESCENDENT OF CORTEZ.

"But Davis had been thinking. He saw that in the country of the Rio Pecos forbearance had ceased to be a virtue long before he was born. He made up his mind to turn. One morning one of the Mexicans addressed him by his title: 'The Jack Rabbit,' Thereupon Davis did a very surprising thing.

"He suddenly seized the descendant of Cortez, and calling up the very secrets of his wonderful strength, hurled the saddle-colored personage about 15 feet in the air. He struck as if he had tumbled all the way from the clouds. A Mexican is a light weight, but with all that he is generally a person of surprising activity and force. Where he fails most as compared with Americans is in his moral make-up. He has none of the dauntless spirit of his neighbor from the north. He isn't the same natural fighter, and lacks the bumps of battle back of his ears. But, like any other being, surprise him by some sudden attack, and he'll do savage work.

"It was so in this case, and Davis' Mexican came bang at him like a wild-cat. Davis got his hands on him and threw him again, and then the Mexican called for blood. Davis assured him promptly that he could have all of his he could get, and might set about its acquirement in any way he chose. The Americans looking on were jubilant, not so much over Davis' unlooked-for nerve as at the prospect of an earnest set-to. The human animal dearly loves to combat, so the cowboys at once assumed control of affairs. They asked Davis if he would fight the Mexican.

"'Any way and any time,' said Davis, who had become prey to a fighting fury.

"The Mexican was not asked what he wanted to do. 'He opens the game,' said an alert and wicked-looking cow puncher, 'and you can gamble he has to make good.'

"A duel was at once arranged for, and the details were as wild and as fantastic as the minds which formulated them. Davis stood grim and ferocious, and made not the slightest objection to anything proposed. He had set his heart on killing the Mexican, and never doubted the outcome for a second. The cowboys took a pair of chain hobbles, which fastened with a key and lock like handcuffs, and are used as safeguards against horse thieves. These were fastened to the left wrist of the combatants. The Mexican was pale, but said nothing. He feared his fate and faced it desperately. When the duelists were so fastened that they could not separate if they would, nine-inch bowie knives were placed in their free hands, and, thus armed, they were lowered by the willing larigts of their companions into a dog-canyon some 40 feet deep, and told to turn themselves loose.

"THE MINUTE WE GOT DOWN HE STRUCK AT ME."

"The other cowboys didn't even stay to see the fight, but promised to return at nightfall, pull out the survivor and bury the other fellow. Davis himself told me his experience not two days before I started east this last time.

"'While we were being lowered into the canyon,' he said, 'you can gamble I was thinking right along. I made up my mind to let the Mexican pull on the dance, believing that I would stand a better show by so doing. I aimed, of course, to get his knife in me where it would not kill. The minute we got clear of the ropes he struck at me. I quickly twisted and got about four inches of the blade in my left shoulder. At the same time, and as my opponent attempted to recover his knife, I slashed him across the wrist of his right arm, and cut the tendons. To tell the truth, I got the hint to do this from one of the cowboys, named Broncho Charlie, who gave it as they were locking us together.

"'Well, as I slashed my man, his knife fell, and as he stooped and attempted to seize it with his left—the one by which he was chained to me—I held up his arm by the chain and pushed my knife under it clear to the heart. He tried to jerk it away, but the chain held him, and he couldn't do it. Of course, he was dead, but I was in a bad fix myself. The wound in my shoulder bled like a spring. I got weak and faint, and at last laid down by my Mexican to keep from falling down. I laid there half an hour, sure; and as I gradually bled less and less I began to get back my strength.

"'I wanted a drink, and, as I couldn't get away from the Mexican, I dragged him along to the water that was there with my right hand. After I drank I felt better. I didn't care to sit around with that Mexican all day—he was going to be mighty poor company—so I made up my mind to get out. Getting loose from him was out of the question, so I strings the Mexican to my shoulder and walks out with him. It took time and bothered me some, but I did it. I must say the American part of the outfit seemed glad that I made the trip all right. The Mexicans, however, didn't like it. They didn't say anything, but that evening the whole saddle-colored lot of 'em rode away for good.

"'I have had trouble since,' concluded Davis, 'but that's the only time I was ever chained to it. And that Mexican was the last man who ever called me the Jack Rabbit.'"—St. Louis Republic.

A Child's Petition.

A poor little damsel had trouble with her mother not long ago. The direct consequence was that she was sent into her own room for meditation, and, supposedly, repentance. A listener happened to overhear the mite's defiance, when she thought herself unobserved and alone. She threw herself on her knees before her bed, and, burying her face in the pillow, began a prayer for guidance. But the petition had this very significant commencement: "O Lord, consider how I'm treated!"—N.Y. Times.

—The detection of an adulterant in coffee is rendered easy by the use of the microscope. The particles of coffee are readily distinguished by their hardness from those of any adulterant.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

Physicians Urgently Advise the Use of Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Well Known Physicians Enthusiastic in Their Statements of the Wonderful Curative Powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura.

DR. JOB SWEET.

One of the most noted physicians and surgeons is Dr. Job Sweet, of New Bedford, Mass. He makes the public statement that he has often recommended the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to his patients who have been suffering from nervous troubles and he has learned that in a large number of these cases it has proven efficacious.

Dr. Willard H. Morse, F. B. S. Sc., of Westfield, N. J., the great expert on medicines, says of this grand discovery of Dr. Greene:—

'The true remedy for nervous diseases is Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It acts by affecting the organs of nutrition, and entering into the formation of new nerve tissue, which generates nerve force. This means the making of new nerves."

The well known Dr. Emil Neumer, superintending physician of the N. Y. Lodge and Association Hospital says:

"We are using Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy at this hospital for our patients with good success."

Dr. B. D. Bickford, of Wolcott, Vt., states:—

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for sometime, first trying it on myself, and I found it did me so much good that I now recommend it to my patients. The fact that I have used it in my own case shows that I know what I am talking about. As a tonic and invigorant it is the best of all to build up a person."

Dr. Robert W. Lance, of So. Woodbury, Vt., says:—

"I have known about Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and the good results in cases, as a tonic, after hard sickness, and the cure of nervous females. They have received great good from its use. I do not hesitate to recommend it."

Dr. C. W. Cook, of Carmel, Ind., says:—

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for my patients and have found the remedy all that was claimed for it. The results have been entirely satisfactory. I think it is worthy and I recommend its use."

Such enthusiastic endorsement by physcialans stamps this remarkable discovery as the greatest restorer of health and strength. It certainly cures more cases of disease than any other known remedy. It makes all who take it strong and well. It is the prescription and discovery of a well-known physician Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.

GOOD CLOTHING

Need Not Be Expensive Clothing.

There are hundreds of men in and around Newark who wear our clothing. It is good. It's not expensive.

Our $10 Suits

have no equal in the city or out. The best $10 worth your money ever bought.

Our $18 and $20 Suits

for dress purposes are equal to any $30 custom suits you ever bought. Choicest fabrics, fine make and trim, perfect fit and a style that can't be beaten.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON.

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE

Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.
Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.
Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.
Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached J. E. Beerbower, Prop

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, January 27, 1896.

Barry Harry	Kinney Wm D 2
Barren Judith Mrs	Manning Albert S
Beenan Patrick	McIntyre C E Mrs
Bouting Rosa	Mulligan Ellen
Brewster Ladie B	Mayfair Mrs
Carvin Anna Mrs	Robinson J P
Darvian Meggie	Runyon Lulu Miss
Ewing Tom	Robinson Susan Mrs
Freeman E	Reed Wm
Franklin Ella Miss 2	Squire S Mrs
Lowrie M H G Mrs	Spinner L. P.
Harriet Carolin Miss	Welborne J L.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.
Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.
Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

PIANOS.

You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at

J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.
230 Park ave., ooo. North ave
Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 14, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 2 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 35, 10 15. J 1 14 a m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 3 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45. 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 33, 3 42, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin, (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37* 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co., EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son.

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. 1113tm

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

—IN—

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

Residence over office. 1 18 m

This is the trade-mark which is on every genuine wrapper of

Scott's Emulsion

All others claiming to be "just as good," "just the same" and "equal to" Scott's Emulsion are imitations, without this label.

Get the genuine if you want genuine results!

50c. and $1.00 at all druggists

SCOTT & BOWNE, New York

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5½c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5½c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

GEN. GRANT'S WIDOW.

She Is One of the Youngest Old Ladies in Washington.

Mrs. Gen. Grant is leading a retired life at Washington. Her home is in the mansion of Senator Edmunds, for which she paid $50,000 some months ago. It is a comfortable brick house of perhaps 15 rooms, located in one of the most fashionable parts of the city. It was built by Senator Edmunds for his own home, and it is a very comfortable dwelling.

Mrs. Grant, says the Detroit Free Press, is now in her 70th year. She is one of the youngest old ladies in Washington. You would not take her to be more than 60. Her face is full and almost free from wrinkles. Her hair is iron gray, and she has quite a lot of it. Her eyesight has never been very good, and it has failed now so that she cannot read a great deal. She does not wear glasses, however, and to outward appearance her eyes are not weak. She walks easily and firmly, and she tells me she is in good health. She is a good talker. Her voice is low and pleasant, and she grows vivacious as she reviews some of the wonderful events of her career. She is thoroughly wrapped up in her family, her children and her grandchildren, and in her love for Gen. Grant. In speaking of him she refers to him as "the general." She has a good memory and she tells many interesting stories concerning him. No married couple ever lived closer to each other than did the general and Mrs. Grant. She was, perhaps, his only real confidant. The two were one in almost everything, and their life was a most beautiful one. For several years Mrs. Grant has been engaged in writing a book of her reminiscences. This will cover more than 50 years, and it will be full of unwritten history. It will tell hundreds of interesting things about Grant and the men connected with him that have never been published. It will describe her four years in camp with the general, and the great courts which she has visited.

MRS. U. S. GRANT.

UTAH'S FAVORITE SON.

Frank J. Cannon Elected Senator for the Long Term.

Hon. Frank J. Cannon, who has just been elected United States senator from the new state of Utah, for the long term, is the representative of the Mormon element. He is a well-known politician, and was elected delegate in congress from the territory at the last election. He is a son of George Q. Cannon, who, though second in rank in the hierarchy of the Mormon church, is regarded as the real head of that organization. The elder Cannon, who was ten years in the house as a delegate, has long been credited with a senatorial ambition. Since the old people's and liberal parties were dissolved, however, and the republican and democratic parties succeeded them, George Q. Cannon's political views have been withheld from the public.

Frank Cannon is the "prodigal" of the Cannon family. He preferred to leave home at a tender age and he wandered to San Francisco, where he worked on the Chronicle. Subsequently he returned to Ogden, now his home, and bought and conducted the Standard, which has lately been fighting him. It was the Standard which of all the Mormon papers declared for republicanism, and Frank has been a consistent republican ever since. In the Minneapolis convention he and C. C. Goodwin occupied one chair, each having a half vote.

SENATOR FRANK J. CANNON, UTAH

Likes Fish Better Than Mice.

Fireman Samuel Moore, of the Shawmont pumping station, Philadelphia, claims to own the most wonderful cat in existence. Tabby was raised around the works, and from a kitten was a great pet of the employes. Every rat or mouse that formerly made depredations on the men's dinner baskets has been caught by the agile mouser. After all the rodents had been exterminated Tabby began to forage for something more palatable than the cast-off bread crusts and closely picked bones supplied by the men. It was soon observed that fish of the carp species constituted her favorite diet. How she caught them was a matter of no small mystery until recently, when "Sam" perceived her sitting on the river bank where the hot water runs in from the station. In a jiffy she clawed at something in the water, and, much to the astonishment of the firemen, she pulled out a two-pound fish.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.

ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres.,

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

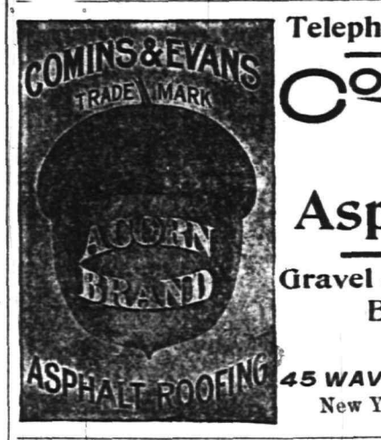
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.

Established 1869.



Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS.

Acorn Brand Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y eod

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.——made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

ATHLETES MEET.

Students Gather in This City and Form an Association.

The New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association was formally organized at the High School building this morning by representatives from the following schools: Plainfield High School, Newark Academy, Pingry's School, of Elizabeth, Stevens Preparatory School, of Hoboken, Rutgers Preparatory School, of New Brunswick, and the Montclair High School. The Paterson High School and the Peddie Institute, of Hightstown, were unable to send delegates, but stated their wish to join if the league was successfully organized.

The delegates present were: George P. Smith and Wilbur F. Cornwell, of the Plainfield High School; A. H. Mitchell and H. Schulz, of Newark Academy; C. T. Myers and A. R. Eaton, of Pingry's School; W. E. Probasco and G. G. Stanford, of Stevens School; T. S. Janeway and D. K. Hoffman, of Rutgers School; and subsequently Oliver Badgley and Warren Lyon, of Montclair High School.

The meeting was called to order by George P. Smith and the following officers then elected: President, George P. Smith, of Plainfield High School; vice-president, A. R. Eaton, of Pingry's School; secretary, A. H. Mitchell, of Newark Academy; treasurer, W. E. Probasco, of Stevens School. The executive committee will consist of one member from each school. A constitution was then drawn up and adopted.

Each school must hold an athletic meet every year. The State athletic meet is to be held on the first Saturday in June, and the annual meeting of the association on the same day. No one over twenty-one years old will be allowed to compete at the annual athletic meet. The by-laws were then drawn up and adopted. The executive committee is given complete charge of the athletic meet and will decide all protests. The association will control track athletics, base ball, foot ball and cricket.

The executive committee was elected to consist of the following members: H. Schulz, Newark Academy; C. T. Meyers, Pingry's School; G. G. Stanford, Steven's School; D. K. Hoffman, Rutger's School; Wilbur F. Cornwell, Plainfield High School; Oliver Badgley, Montclair High School.

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Mrs. G. W. F. Randolph Narrowly Escapes Instant Death This Noon.

Mrs. Randolph, the wife of ex- Freeholder George W. F. Randolph, of West Front street, had a hairbreadth escape from instant death at 12:15 today noon. She was walking down the board walk next to the main westbound track at the North Avenue station, intending to reach Park avenue by crossing the tracks and descending the embankment. Just after she had passed the freight house the Royal Blue Line five-hour train to Washington came along at a usual high rate of speed. The momentum from the train threw Mrs. Randolph to the ground instantly.

The engineer thinking he had run over and killed Mrs. Randolph stopped his train as quickly as possible and backed up to the station.

In a few minutes Mrs. Randolph recovered from the shock and regained her feet. She was then taken to Dr. Endicott's where upon examination it was learned that her right arm had sustained a severe fracture. After proper treatment had been administered Mrs. Randolph was taken to her home.

Plainfield Enterprise.

The Union Tire Company filed articles of incorporation yesterday morning with the clerk of Union County. The capital is placed at $30,000, and the incorporaters are Alexander E. Faber, Jr., and John Vetterlein, of North Plainfield, and Gilbert T. Rhoads, of Plainfield. The company will manufacture and sell vehicle tires. The plant will be in this city, with a branch in New York city.

To Answer the Charges.

The saloon-keepers who have recently been indicted by the Grand Jury for selling on Sunday will probably be arraigned today in the Union County Court. Their trials will probably be set down for the week after next.

Miss Core, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Mrs. Will Tier, of Bank place.

Mr. and Strong, of Montclair, have taken up their residence at 26 Norwood avenue.

Adjourned Sale of Property.

The subscribers will sell at public auction on Tuesday, February 11th, inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises, the homestead property of the late George H. Stewart, deceased, at Washingtonville, containing about 3½ acres. Also 10 acres of land with the wood thereon, on the second mountain near Styles saw mill.

Dated Feb. 7, 1896.

SARAH A. WEBSTER,
DANIEL H. WEBSTER,
Administrators.

2 8 2

BEAUTIFUL AND STRONG!

The Greatest American Prima Donna Made Well By Paine's Celery Compound.

There was never a remedy so highly recommended as Paine's celery compound.

There was never a remedy in such universal demand.

For it makes people well!

Every one among the thousands who have been delighted by the beautiful songs of Roma the great prima donna, recognize in her one of the world famous singers.

Born in California, she graduated with honors at eastern musical colleges, and on her return to the coast, became first the prima donna at the Tivoli Opera House in San Francisco

It was while making the tour with the famous Marine Band of Washington last season, that the beautiful Roma felt the strain of travel, hurry and work, yet in the evenings she greeted great audiences with smiles and electrified them with her voice. Could she have done this without her nerves were steadied and her strength built up by Paine's celery compound? She says:

"In Paine's celery compound I find a very much long-felt want for the worries and exhaustive cares attendant upon an active professional life. Paine's celery compound brings restful strength to body and mind, invigorating the system and prolonging life."

Paine's celery compound has made thousands of people well. It has saved thousands of women from nervous prostration. It has made the weak strong. It has cured where everything else failed. Innumerable testimonials as to its wonderful value have been voluntarily sent to Wells & Richardson Co., who prepare it in Burlington, Vermont.

Paine's celery compound is the most remarkable remedy for the blood and nerves, known to the 19th century.

It is employed by the foremost physicians in curing kidney and liver troubles and the diseases due to nervous disorders, faulty nutrition and impoverished blood, producing results that seem little short of the miraculous.

Paine's celery compound builds up the system, purifies the blood, regulates the nerves The weak and worn out soon find their frames invigorated their spirits raised and their strength renewed.

It makes people well.

It is as superior to the ordinary nervines, bitters and sarsaparillas as strength is better than weakness.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

[Notices under this head are published by The Daily Press free of charge, when supplied fresh each week by authority. Copy must be in hand by 10 a. m. Saturday to insure insertion, and should be supplied Friday when possible.]

Reform Hall, 4 p. m.—Mrs. Salling, of Somerville, will lead.

East Third Street Mission—Philip Swain will lead tomorrow night.

Boys Meeting Y. M. C. A. Hall, 4:15 p. m.—Rev. A. A. Phelps, of the Plainfield Business College, will speak.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest—Morning prayer and sermon, 11 a. m.; Sunday-school, 9:45 a. m.

All Souls' Church, Park avenue — Sermon by the pastor, Rev. Hobart Clark, at 10:45 a. m.; Sunday-school at 11:45 a. m.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) Church—Rev. William H. Miller, pastor. Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school, 2:30; evening devotions, 8.

St. Mary's (R. C.) Church—Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor. Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; evening devotions at 8. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m.

Congregational Church, Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—Morning service, 10:30; Sunday-school, 2:45 p. m.; Christian Endeavor service at 4:10 p. m.

The Bible Class conducted by Physical Director MacPhie will be held at the Y. M. C. A. at 5:15 p. m. Junior Y. M. C. A. Bible Class, 9:30 a. m.

Grace Church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector—Early Celebration of Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, 11 a. m.; Sunday-school, 3 p. m.; evening service, 4:30.

Park Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor—Morning, 10:30, preaching by the pastor, theme, "Shut, and Not Opened." Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m. No evening service.

First Church of Christ, (Disciples of Christ)—Rev B. W. Hand, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. Lord's Supper, 12 m. Sunday-school, 3 p. m. Christian Endeavor rally at 7 p. m.; preaching at 8 p. m.

St. Stephen's Church, Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector—Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; Sunday-school, 9:45 a. m.; morning prayer, litany, and sermon, 11; evening prayer, 4:30. Free stages from railroad station at 10:30 a. m.

Y. M. C. A. Building, 4:15 p. m.—Michael J. Riley, a redeemed drunkard, will speak on "The Ups and Downs of Life, or, A Personal Experience of Thirty Years Life Upon the Bowery." L. H. Bigelow and a male choir will sing.

Trinity Reformed Church—Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor. Divine worship at 10:30 a. m. The pastor's subject will be "What Does It Mean?" Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m. No service in the evening on account of the union meeting.

Monroe Avenue M. E. Chapel, Rev. William C. O'Donnell, pastor—Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning subject, "Born of the Spirit;" evening subject, "Eternity." Sabbath-school, 3 p. m. Epworth League meeting at 7:30.

Church of the Redeemer, Rev. Dr. Jocelyn Johnstone, rector—Early celebration at 7:30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, 11:15; Sunday-school, 3 p. m. Administration of the Sacramet of Holy Baptism at 3:45; evening prayer and sermon by Rev. Mr. Gibbons, at 4:30.

First M. E. Church, Rev. C. R. Barnes, D. D., pastor—Services at 10:30 a. m. Preaching by the pastor, subject, "Imitation of Christ, the Task of Humanity." Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m.; Epworth prayer meeting, 6:45 p. m. Union revival service, sermon by Rev. J. W. Richardson.

—Minerva Temple, Rathbone Sisters, will give an entertainment next Tuesday evening.

SWEET MUSIC.

All Are Artists on the Instruments Which They Handle.

The following is the programme to be rendered at the chamber music concert to be held at the Casino next Tuesday evening:

PART FIRST.

Trio for Violin, Cello and Piano.....Hans Sitt
Messrs. Conde, Gobet, Janke.

Soprano Solo,
Aria from "Les Filles de Cadix."...Delibes
Miss Nina Rathbone.

Cello Solo—Concerto (A minor).....Goltermann
Mr. Gober.

Piano Solo { a. Etude op. 25, No. 7.....Chopin
b. Spinning Song.....Raff
Mr. Janke.

Violin Solo { a. Cavatina.....Bohm
b. The Bee.....Francois Schubert
Mr. Conde.

PART SECOND.

Trio for Violin, Cello and Piano.
"Voices of the Morning" (Peer Gynt Suite.)
Messrs. Conde, Gober, Janke. (Grieg

Soprrno Solo,
a. Folk Song, } from "Hansel and
b. Sand-Man's Lullaby, } Gretel," (Humperdink
Miss Nina Rathbone.

Cello Solo { a. Sur de Lac.....Goddard
b. Gavotte.....Popper
Mr. Gober.

Soprano Solo with Violin Obligato,
Happy Days.....Strelitzky
Miss Nina Rathbone, Mr. Conde.

A Grant From the United States Government.

"PURA BLOOD."

MALARIA.

Under grant from the United States Government, the famous curative waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas, are used in the preparation of "Pura Blood." It cures malaria, those tired feelings, headache and backaches. "Pura Blood" cures because it eliminates from the blood all the poisonous malarial elements which disorder the function of every organ of the body. "Pura Blood" is the best blood purifier, as thousands will testify who have visited Hot Springs, Arkansas, the world's famous sanitarium, and been cured. "Pura Blood" is nature's own cure and absolute specific, and has received the highest indorsements of physicians. "Pura Blood" is for sale by all druggists, price $1. Billups & Co., of 26 Cortlandt st., are sole agents, and will send descriptive book free to any address.

IF

You take advantage of the great closing out sale of Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at Edward Love's, and will let him do your spring decorating, you will be money in pocket.

Hope Chapel Industrial Fair

And Loan Exhibition,

TO BE HELD IN

Hope Chapel,

ON

February 12, 13, 14.

Doors open at 2:30 p. m.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

Stages will run during the afternoon and evening from Crescent Avenue Church by way of 5th and 7th streets alternately to chapel, commencing at 2 o'clock.

2 8 6

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

New Embroideries, Laces, Flouncings, etc.

Our assortment of these goods for the coming season is handsomer, more varied and complete than any we have yet shown, and embraces regular Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edges, Insertions and match sets in all grades and styles and a line of Exquisite Novelties which for new and original effects, exclusive and unique designs, are unsurpassed if not unequalled by any in the market.

Pretty Edgings and Embroideries Very Cheap.

A thousand lines could not tell the story any better. Great heaps of snowy Embroideries that first saw light in far off Switzerland are here.

In connection with our regular line we have purchased, direct from the manufacturers in St. Gaul, Switzerland, three large lots of Embroideries, which we will place on sale at one-third less than regglar prices.

Lot 1, 4c Yd. Lot 2, 8c Yd. Lot 3, 12c Yd

The wise ones ask no questions, but take them away in huge quantities.

777 and 779 Broad Street,

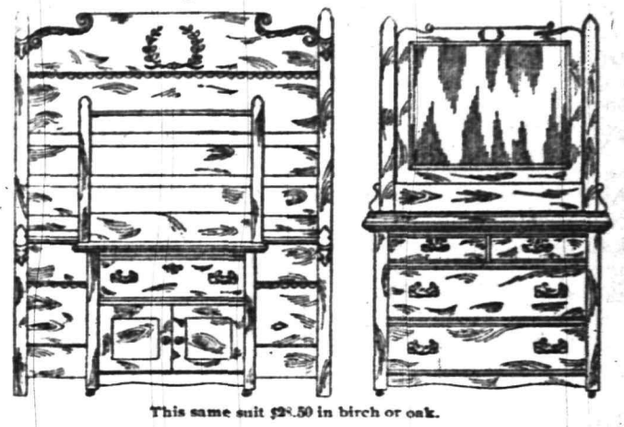
Newark, N. J.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

CASH OR CREDIT—LONG TIME GIVEN

Ever Buy a Bedroom Suit

Equal to this, at price lower than $28.50?



This same suit $28.50 in birch or oak.

It's a suit we've always sold for $45.00—honor bright! Made in birch or quartered oak, French bevelled plate, 24x38, superbly finished.

6 Chairs For $5.95

It's needless to say they're chairs that'll beautify any dining room—fine construction, cane seats, a true blue value.

Here's a Table

Exactly like this, 97 cts.

marked at 97 cts.—it's not a make that's always ready to "get out of joint"—sturdy build, finely finished oak or cherry, nice make—exactly like cut, easily worth $1.50.

See Us for Carpets

We've a big line, all patterns—here's a "price illustration:" all wool ingrains, 65 cts. a yard, made and laid with lining. Over twenty patterns on hand.

Goods selected now held until wanted—no cash needed. Deliveries made free of charge.

Ever heard of the Portland Range? Of course you have. It's nearly world famed by this time.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Etc.
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

Saturday, Feb. 8.

Everything new and up-to-date.

HOYT'S
A TRIP TO CHINATOWN

Produced in exactly the same manner as at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, with the

ORIGINAL CAST,

including Harry Conor and all the original scenery, furniture and properties

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1

One week commencing

Monday, February 10

Six nights and five matinees.
The Barnum of them all.

WAITE'S
Comedy Company

Premium Band and Orchestra.
35 PEOPLE 35
in a repertorie of new comedies, dramas and society plays. Change of play every performance.

Prices 10, 20 and 30c

POPULAR DIME MATINEES,
daily, starting Tuesday.

Monday night—The Black Flag.

Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

SPIRIT OF TENDERNESS.

A NEW YORK PAPER HUMOROUSLY VIEWS THE HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.

The Conclusions Drawn From the Friends' Protest Are Not So, Yet It Makes an Interesting Gossipy Story After All.

The New York Herald published the following from Plainfield on Friday last:

The old trouble about a choice between the sword and the ploughshare, the spear and the pruning hook has been revived here, in the very citadel of tenderness and brotherly love. The sword is in the lead at this moment, but it is only a toy sword, just big enough to prick a sensitive conscience.

The stout young soldiers of the High School Cadet Corps are thee-ing and thou ing one another in these days, and it is said that they even contemplate holding a public drill in front of the meeting house of the Society of Friends. Pious Plainfield hopes that so great a scandal may yet be averted.

The cadets are no respecter of persons, and they have just learned that the Friends object to the corps, as tending to instill a warlike feeling in the breasts of the young, and have sought to prevent the "regiment" from securing several stands of harmless rifles, which the boys think are now alone necessary to gratify completely their swelling military pride.

There would be a row over a matter of this kind in almost any town other than Plainfield. The spirit of brotherly love is all pervading here. Opposing factions abuse one another only with honey. The Friends have in their fold many of the most respected men in town. The town generally prefers a pruning hook to a spear.

It remains for the irreverent soldier cubs to talk of Quaker interference and intolerance. The Board of Education and the Friends are content with assuring each other that both are Christian bodies, equally opposed to anything like threatening and slaughter. But, leaving war out of the question, the Board does not think the boys should be deprived of the pleasure of playing soldier.

Even in Plainfield there were truants and sprightly boys who could not see anything useful in geometry and geography. To interest these scholars and give the boys generally a better carriage, a healthful companionship and a fine exercise, the Board, after, some consideration, sanctioned last fall the formation of the cadet corps. The boys were all enthusiasm. They had long burned with envy because of the blue and gold uniforms of luckier fellows in a private school here. Uniforms were accordingly bought, and the High School lads were soon carrying their chins up and their chests out and wheeling like regulars. There were no more truants and there was less illness.

But what is drill without arms? The boys longed for the firing exercises and the public marching under arms. A few weeks ago the rifles were ordered.

It was then that the Society of Friends which had watched the growing war spirit with anxiety, thought it necessary to protest—deplore is a better word, perhaps. No one of them imagined that the cadets might fall to sacking the town, but it accordance with the tenets of their faith, the Friends have always set their faces against wars and rumors of wars.

So, when the Board of Education met last Monday evening, A. M. Powell, representing the Quakers, sent a communication expressing heartfelt regret that military drill had been introduced, and that guns were being secured. The Friends protested, wrote Mr. Powell, because they believed that a fostering of the military spirit was opposed to the teaching of the Divine Master.

At last F. C. Lounsbury, who is in business in New York, and who is the secretary of the Board, said he thought every Christian must be in accord with the general idea expressed in the comunication. The other members nodded gravely.

Mr. Lounsbury's proposition was one from which it was not safe to dissent. After some silence some one moved that the secretary courteously acknowledge the receipt of the letter. Then the matter was dropped.

It will end there. The boys will have their guns and their glory, and the fostering of the war spirit will be continued. Brotherly love, however, is still undiminished, and covers the town as a mantle, even though a mischievous drill sergeant will say occasionally:

"I tell thee, brother Harry, thy erring feet are not at an angle of forty-five degrees nor are thine eyes front."

—A regular meeting of Minerva Temple, No. 4, will be held tomorrow night. There is important business to transact.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY.

George W. Nevius, Well Known and Respected, Expired Yesterday Morning.

The sudden death of George W Nevius, of 120 Plainfield avenue, which occurred yesterday morning about 8 o'clock, will be a severe shock to his many friends and acquaintances.

For the past six weeks he had been confined to his home with rheumatism, and death resulted from apoplexy.

Just before breakfast he called to his wife and said he was fainting. She hastened to his side and at once noticed that he was dying.

Word was sent to Mr. Lounsbury across the street and he telephoned for Dr. Hedges. Before the latter arrived life had left the body.

Mr. Nevius held a very responsible position with Teft, Weller & Co., wholesale importers of dry goods and notions, at 320 Broadway, New York. He was also a member of the First Presbyterian church, Royal Arcanum and Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M. He was well known and highly esteemed for his many excellent qualities. He leaves a wife. The funeral services will be held Wednesday at 12 o'clock noon from the First Presbyterian church.

Caught in The Trick.

At various times the questionable methods which the sweat shop News has resorted to to coerce business men to advertise with them have been referred to, and now another instance in this same line has just come to light. At the last meeting of Franklin Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., a bill was presented by the sweat shop News for 75 cents for advertising a lodge matter some time ago. The committee in charge of such matters knew nothing of the claim and after an investigation no one could be found who had ordered the advertising, and the only way it could be accounted for was the suggestion that some member may have given one of the News reporters the information for a news item and the proprietor had taken the liberty to put it in the form of an advertisement, with the hope that it might be overlooked and he would thus increase his revenues. But Mr. Runyon was caught in his little trick and the bill was ordered not paid.

Trolley Car Jumped the Track.

While car No. 2 of the street railway was making one of the trips toward the mountains yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, it jumped the track in front of L. M. French's carriage factory on Somerset street, and ran in the gutter before Motorman Morris Higgins could stop it. It was caused by the slippery condition of the rails. A persistent attempt was made to back the car on the rails but to no purpose. Car No. 5 of the main line was summoned, and by attaching the two the latter was able to place car No. 2 on the tracks, after going back as far as Park avenue. The cars were delayed fully a half hour by the accident. No damage resulted, however.

A Noted Lecturer Coming.

The next lecture in Mrs. Hall's course will take place on Friday afternoon, February 21st, at Seminary Hall, when Prof. W. Hudson Shaw, M. A., the Oxford University Extension lecturer, will give a historical lecture on Venice. The hour has been changed from three to half-past three, and the tickets for this lecture of the course, placed at fifty cents, for the benefit of the teachers and scholars who wish to hear Dr. Shaw.

A Supplemental Lecture.

The eighth lecture of the series on the Eastern Question will bo delivered tomorrow at the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church at 8 o'clock p. m., by Rev. James F. Riggs, D. D., the subject being "The Arab and the Caliphate." Tickets for the supplemental course of three lectures will be for sale at the door on surrender of the tickets for the present series and payment of twenty-five cents.

"Clyde Line."

Through from New York to Jacksonville, Fla., without change. Time from two to three days, including half-a-day's stop in the old, historic city of Charleston, S. C. Elegant, new, fast, steel steamships, finest on the Atlantic Coast. A trip by the "Clyde Line" is a combination of safety, comfort and pleasure. Write "Clyde Line," New York, for descriptive matter, mailed free.

An Entertaining Lecturer.

Captain Jack Crawford will deliver a lecture in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church next Saturday evening for the benefit of Marconnier chapel. Dion Boucicault, the famous dramatist, says of him: "When an entertainer can cause smiles and tears to struggle for supremacy on the faces of his auditors, his powers cannot be questioned."

—The regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting at the Congregational church will be resumed this week.

IT IS CHIEF GRANT AGAIN

THE POLICE BOARD REAPPOINTED THAT OFFICIAL FRIDAY NIGHT.

And Thereby Editor Runyon Gets a Political Slap in the Face—Three New Offices Created—Other Appointments.

The perennial attempt of Editor Runyon and his sweat-shop sheet to oust George W. Grant from the office of Chief of Police has again failed. The police board met Friday evening and reappointed Mr. Grant and thereby, as might be expected, gave Mr. Runyon a political slap in the face. A month ago many people imagined that Chief Grant was doomed to retirement, because of the infusion of new blood into the Council who, it was thought, would pay some attention to the frantic and disgraceful attacks made on this official by Editor Runyon for personal reasons. But two weeks ago it was understood among those who were in a position to know, that no other man than Chief Grant would be reappointed, and this conclusion was verified Friday night when the police board, composed of Mayor Gilbert, President of the Council See, and Councilmen Barrows and Ginna, met at the Mayor's residence and made the appointment. Mr. Fisk, one of the members of the board, was not present, but the action of the rest of the members met with his approval The appointment of Mr. Grant was without dissent.

The Board decided to create the office of Sergeant, and Officer Patrick Kiely was made the Sergeant de facto as well as in name, which he has carried for some years past. The suggestion in the report of the police committee to the Council as to the appointment of two roundsmen was also complied with, and Policemen Christopher Frederickson and William J. Mattox were selected for these places. These new appointments and the duties which will go with them will necessarily remove these three officers from their present beats, and in order to maintain the efficiency of the force in the matter of affording protection to the sections which they now patrol, it will be necessary for the Mayor to appoint three new policemen and this will probably be done at the next meeting of the Council. The selection of these men rests entirely with the Mayor. It is possible that he may decide to take three of the special men and make them regulars.

The members of the police board convened in the Mayor's office last Saturday evening and summoned all the members of the force before them, when announcement of the changes and appointments were made to them. The Mayor addressed them and complimented them on their efficiency and on their devotion to the duties for which they are sworn to perform. He also paid a compliment to Chief Grant for the manner in which he administered the affairs of the city entrusted to his judgment.

While the exact duties of the new appointees were not announced, they will be about as follows:

The Sergeant will be on duty nights and will act as the Chief's assistant when the latter official is away or off duty at home. He will visit all parts of the city and see to it that the duties of the other officers are properly performed. He will be mounted on a bicycle.

The territory in which the roundsmen will serve will be in two districts, with Park avenue as the dividing line. They will be mounted on bicycles and will visit the outlying sections of the city which is impossible for a regular policeman to get over with any degree of regularity. They will also keep a supervising eye on the regulars. The changes in the force will probably go into effect the first of next month or at the time the three new policemen begin their duties.

A New Art Studio.

An art studio, under the direction of Miss Adella C. Phelps will be opened in the Plainfield Business College next Wednesday. Miss Phelps has met with marked success as Art Director in Mt. Union College, and also in Public School Drawing. Her work is of high grade, and has been awarded first premiums both in New York and New Jersey.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

THE SOUL DOES NOT DIE.

AND DR. RICHARDS DRAWS INSPIRING CONCLUSIONS THEREFROM.

Three Union Services Held Last Night—Dr. Richards in the Presbyterian Church and Mr. Goodrich at Crescent Avenue.

The union meeting at the First M. E. church last evening was a fitting close to the evangelistic services of the past four weeks. The attendance was good despite the threatening skies and an earnest spirit seemed to pervade the entire congregation. After the usual opening exercises and an anthem by the regular choir, Rev. J. W. Richardson preached the sermon of the evening.

He took his text from the tenth verse of the nineteenth chapter of St. Luke. "For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which is lost." He said in part:

Lost! What a depth of meaning there is in that word. Did you ever hear that word when it sounded sweet? It is always coupled with despair and destruction. How infinitely sad it sounds when connected with the future of a human soul. This meaning of "lost" is not annihilation. Death dissolves the connection between the body and soul, but they are not annihilated. They still remain and will appear on the judgment day. Death cannot obliterate the material in the physical body, much less the immortal soul.

An unconverted being may not feel that he is lost. The gravitation of sin in the heart sinks the man slowly from righteousness and lands him by a natural law in the depths below. Our life is a season of alternatives. We are continually called upon to make a choice.

It is the same in our business relations. The vagabonds of the street are not the only ones that are lost, there are men and women that are high in the social scale. The lost are those who have turned from God. If a man thinks dishonest thoughts, he is dishonest. Let us learn that it is the heart and the thoughts that reign there that place us on the downward pathway. The unconverted ones are gradually moving down and the warnings to them are growing weaker. Soon they will turn the corner and cannot come back.

God looked down from Heaven to see His children wandering from His face. By no law of justice was He compelled to send after them, and just here the granduer and beauty of Christ's mission appears. He, who was King, Law Giver and Ruler, came to save that which was lost. He showed His children the sublimity of selfsacrifice. What a fearful responsibility anyone takes on himself when he rejects Him, who so willingingly suffered for him! He was willing to set aside all the splendors of Heaven to suffer to save our souls. It shows the soul to be worth more than all the universe, then what an appalling loss it is to he that loses his soul.

The service in the Crescent Avenue church last evening was well attended. Rev. Cornelius Shenck presiding. The sermon was preached by Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, who took for his text the fourth and fifth verses of the thirty-first chapter of Isaiah. Mr. Goodrich spoke in part as follows:

The verses of the text comprise two pictures.

"For thus hath the Lord spoken unto me. Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them; so shall the Lord of Hosts come down to fight for Mount Zion, and for the hill thereof."

Do you not see the picture? Isaiah says that this is the Lord's picture of Himself. Does it not seem to be a harsh picture of God? Yet it is written by inspired hands and is true. The meaning of the picture is this: That the first providences of God seem sometimes to leap upon us like a roaring lion from his hiding place, snatching away from us some one whom we love, taking away some thing which seems very good for us in our own eyes.

A second meaning may be that the Lamb means the city of Jerusalem, God's city, and the verse describing the way God will save the city from all her enemies. It is more than that it is a picture of our personal salvation. The all-powerful grace of God. We have been trying for the past four weeks to rescue the unredeemed. This is the ground that we will stand on to the end.

The second picture is found in the fifth verse: "As birds flying, so will the Lord of Hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also He will deliver it, and passing over He will preserve it." This picture is clearer, but still it is not yet clear. Mr. Goodrich brought the meaning of this verse by illustrating the love of God for us by the love of a mother for her little ones.

"Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, the Master saith My time is at hand: I keep the passover at thy house with My disciples." The above words, taken from the twenty-sixth chapter of Matthew, the eighteenth verse, was the text from which Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards preached a most forcible and helpful sermon last evening at the union service held in the First Presbyterian church. The command, "Go to such a man," was particularly emphasized. Continuing in part, he said:

There are several places in the Bible where a person is spoken of, but the name is not used and it is well that it is so. Many people are often helped by some one whose name they know not. The kindly grasp of the hand and the kind word spoken has been a blessing so often I think that when some of us get to heaven the first thing we do will be to search out the name of some benefactor. Some of the most beautiful characters in Scripture are nameless, and they have been of incalcuable service to the Church of Christ.

In the text Christ was spoken of as Master. That was sufficient, for the servant knew who it was that spoke and knew it was one having authority. We are not able to take charge of ourselves. We need some one to command us, one having authority. The servant in the text obeyed. The time in question was a perilous one and it meant considerable to obey. We would probably have told the Master that He had better go to some other place, instead of inviting Him to our home

The fact that the servant obeyed was enough to prove that He was a Christian. That's what it is to be a Christian.

We often think our whole duty ends when we come to a meeting like this, and do nothing but listen.

These meetings bring us face to face with some particular command, and we feel uneasy. Then we come to get something to do. It may be a very simple act, some slight thing, but it makes no difference how little so long as we do something and obey. We should make sure that we obey whatever word comes from Him who speaks with authority.

The after-meeting was in charge of Dr. Lewis and many short, helpful testimonies were given. There were also several who showed a desire to live for Christ.

A feature of the service was the music by the choir, under the direction of W. E. MacClymont, and the soprano solo "Just as I Am," by Miss Glenn.

A Famous Soprano.

Such Plainfielders as attend the concert of chamber music at the Casino tomorrow will have an opportunity of listening to one of the recognized soprano singers of this country, Miss Nina Rathbone. It is only as a favor that Miss Rathbone sings here and she should be greeted with a big audience. The Boston Globe says of her: "Miss Nina Rathbone, soprano, is an American girl who has received high commendations abroad for her singing of the heavy dramatic roles. She is a lady of commanding presence, fine physique, and her methods shows that she has made a careful study of Wagnerian compositions."

Joe Miller Indicted.

Twenty indicted saloonkeepers were arraigned before the Union County Court Saturday, charged with selling liquor on Sunday. The greatest crowd ever seen in the court room was there to witness the proceedings. Eighteen men and two women were called upon to plead. They were held in $500 bail each. The trials will begin on February 24th. Among those indicted was J. B. Miller, one of the proprietors of the Elm House, and formerly of this city.

Presence of Mind Saved a Fire.

A peculiar accident occurred Friday evening at the home of Dr. Richards on East Front street. About the time that C. F. Williams, of West Second street, fell upstairs with a lamp, which fact was recorded in The Daily Press, a lighted lamp on the dining room table at Dr. Richards' home exploded. Mrs. Richards was nearby, and wrapping the lamp up in the table cover, threw it out doors before any damage resulted. Two accidents of a like nature seldom happen so near together.

Sixteen Cars to Carry a Gun.

It required sixteen flat cars to move the large gun lathe from the Pond Tool Works to the Watervliet Arsenal, Troy. The shipment has been completed. The work on the disappearing gun carriages is progressing favorably.

A SCRAP AT DUNELLEN.

PLAINFIELDERS ALLEGED TO HAVE ASSAULTED LANDLORD TAYLOR.

The Kennedys and a Man Named Keller Drank Bound Brook Whiskey and Got Wrathy—Arrested—Held For Grand Jury

There was a row at Dunellen on Friday that resulted in a free fight and plenty of work for the courts. The Kennedy brothers, who drive hacks in this city, and a man named Kellar were among those that viewed the damage by water and fire at Bound Brook.

Although business was almost at a standstill, the dealers in alcoholic stimulants reaped a rich harvest and, in consequence, there were many who were gloriously drunk. The Kennedys and Keller imbibed some of the unnamable compounds that were dealt out and felt rather happy. They came home by way of Dunellen and stopped at Taylor's Hotel to get something to eat. One of the party says that they wanted to purchase some sandwiches and that Taylor refused to give them what they wanted. The Dunellen side of the account is that the party tried to run the hotel.

However, it may have been, there was a general scrap. According to the terms of the warrant afterwards issued, Mike Kennedy maliciously assaulted Mr. Taylor. The rest of the party joined in the chorus and assisted in the grand finale. Mike Kennedy was arrested and taken before Justice Huff, in Dunellen, and was held in $200 bail to appear before the Grand Jury of Middlesex county. The rest of the party come up there this afternoon charged with being disorderly.

The plaintiff will be represented by City Judge DeMeza, of this city.

Converted on the Bowery.

Mr. Michael J. Riley, of New York, addressed the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday afternoon, and all enjoyed the honest testimony of a redeemed drunkard. Mr. Riley was formerly a song and dance artist in Owney Gohegans saloon, 105 Bowery, where the famous Bowery Mission now stands. About nine months ago Riely was friendless and penniless, and wandering up and down the Bowery, stopped into the Mission and was led to God.

He determined to give the remainder of his life to rescue work among those lapsed and lost men of all classes and gradations he enlisted in the service and has already proved himself a worker "that needeth not be ashamed."

The attendance at the meeting was 156.

The Horse Floundered.

F. O. Smith, of West Front street, lost a valuable horse Saturday in a peculiar manner. He was driving through the lowlands back of his home, for the purpose of securing some hay for a man who had lost it during the recent storm. The horse walked into a deep muddy place, and became fastened. Mr. Smith thought that by the use of a heavy rail, which was nearby, he could extricate the animal. In attempting to do so the horse's hip was broken. A veterinary surgeon was called and after an examination advised that the horse be killed, as it would take a very long time for the break to mend. Accordingly the animal was killed.

No Hope for Prentice.

Ex-Marshal William N. Pangborn, of the borough of North Plainfield, received a letter from Dr. Ward, of the State Asylum, at Trenton, in reply to a letter of inquiry as to the condition of Alexander Prentice, of Washingtonville. The letter states that during the past few days Mr. Prentice has been growing worse and there is little hope of his rallying from the disease. It will be remembered that Mr. Pangborn took Mr. Prentice to the Asylum some time ago in the hope that he would be benefitted.

The Orator Fined $3.

Jim Emmons, for raising a disturbance at Music Hall Saturday night, was given his choice by City Judge DeMeza between a $3 fine or fifteen days at Elizabeth.

A Baker Assigns.

Owing to his inability to collect accounts that were outstanding, Henry A. Voehl, the North Plainfield baker, on Saturday made an assignment to Jacob Voehl.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and Nort h avenues.

BODIES WASHED ASHORE.

Life Savers Unable To Rescue a Stranded Schooner's Crew.

Newburyport, Mass., Feb. 10.—A three-masted schooner went ashore last evening on Salisbury beach. When first observed by two Seabrook fishermen seven men were seen on board. They attempted to launch the yawl boat, but it was smashed to pieces in the terrible seas. The men then took to the rigging and lashed themselves to the main and mizzen masts. The life savers at Plum island crossed the river and walked half a dozen miles in the face of the storm. In the meantime horses were secured and the apparatus hauled over the road, a distance of twelve miles. Shortly after 8 o'clock the life savers started to throw a life line to the ill-fated vessel, but owing to the darkness and the heavy wind no definite aim could be taken. About 9 o'clock one body was washed ashore and shortly afterward a second body was observed in the surf. The life savers, after working several hours, succeeded in getting a line over the vessel, but it is believed that all on board have perished. The name of the schooner is the Florida of New York.

GROWTH OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Over 300,000 More Communicants in the United States Than Last Year.

New York, Feb. 10.—The official directory of the Catholic church in the United Statesi which has just been issued, places the number of Catholics in the United States at 9,410,796. These are divided territorially into fourteen archdiocese and seventy-one diocese, which are ruled by fourteen archbishops, including one cardinal and sixty-nine bishops. The number of priests is 10,348, of whom 7,756 are seculars and 2,582 regulars, that is members of religious orders, such as Jesuits, Paulists and Dominicans. These priests are in charge of 9,501 churches. Besides these there are 5,393 other places of worship called stations and chapels. There are 332,934 more Catholic church members this year than there were last, 285 more priests, 192 more churches, five more regular seminaries, 21,278 more children attending the parochial schools and four more orphan asylums.

HERO KILLED AT A FIRE.

Another Man Fatally Injured While Going for a Doctor.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Feb. 10.—While fighting fire at the residence of Mr. Hollinshead, a wealthy resident living near here, Jessie Palmer, 24 years old, lost his life by a chimney falling on him. Mr. Hollinshead, his wife and two children had a narrow escape from burning to death. Shortly before Palmer was killed he had run a ladder up to the second story window to rescue a man and wife named Hotopp, who were supposed to be in the house, but who, it was discovered, had gone to visit a friend. A fireman named Nevil, while going for a doctor, was thrown from a horse and is believed to be fatally injured. The house, with its contents, was entirely destroyed, and there is but little insurance. Palmer had only recently been married, and it is feared that his wife will go insane with grief over his death.

BAYARD RESOLUTION OF CENSURE.

To Be Reported to the House in a Day or Two and Placed on the Calendar.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Messrs. Dingley, chairman of the committee on ways and means, and Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, had an informal conference last night upon the date at which the resolution condemning Ambassador Bayard for his Edinburgh and Boston, England, speeches shall be considered in the house. It was decided that it would be best not to call it up until the calendar was clear of appropriation bills, unless in the event that for some unforseen reason it was deemed advisable to go on with the consideration of appropriation measures. The resolution will be reported to the house and placed on the calendar within a day or two.

MAY UNLOAD HER TO-DAY.

Efforts Will Then Be Made To Move the Stranded Steamer Lamington.

Patchogue, L. I., Feb. 10.—No attempt will be made to-day to float the stranded British steamer Lamington, ashore on the outer bar off this place. The crew are still at the life-saving station and are being cared for by Capt. Rourke. An attempt will be made today to take off all the cargo of the Lamington. From an examination by the wrecking men it is said that she has not been injured very badly, and they hope to pull her off the sandbar after she has been lightened. One of the four ponies that were consigned to a New Yorker was taken from the vessel alive in the breeches buoy. When the animal reached the land there was a scramble for possession of it. Finally the life saving men secured it, and it is now in their possession.

Death of Hon. Jeremiah Halsey.

Norwich, Conn., Feb. 10.—A telegram received here yesterday announced the death at the hotel Hamilton, Washington, D. C., of the Hon. Jeremiah Halsey, one of the most noted lawyers of the state. He was 74 years old. Mr. Halsey was a member of the general assembly from this town in 1852-53-59-60, city attorney for eighteen years and a trustee of the Norwich free academy, an L. L. D., of Trinity college, etc.

President Kruger To Visit England.

London, Feb. 10.—The Standard of this city says that President Kruger of the Transvaal republic is to visit England on the invitation of the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain.

New York at New York.

New York, Feb. 10.—The United States cruiser New York arrived last night from Hampton roads and anchored off Thompkinsvill, S. I.

THEIR LOSSES HEAVY

The Zeitounlis Made a Gallant Stand Against the Turks.

MET THEM WITH DYNAMITE AND ROCKS

No Doubt That the Plan Is To Exterminate Zeitoun — Massacre and Outrage at Tamzara—Men Shot Down, Women Stolen.

London, Feb. 10.—The United Press correspondent at Constantinople sends the following information: In spite of the satisfactory reports spread abroad by the Turkish government regarding the attack on Zeitoun, it has not been a success. The Zeitounlis, fighting against superior numbers, were favored by their impregnable position and by the winter season. And the fact that the Turks were able to close in to the Hot Springs, five miles from Zeitoun on the east, over roads which are supposed to be impassable during the winter, seems to indicate that the Zeitounlis were not strong enough to defend the approaches. Zeitoun lies in a deep valley, and there are four roads that lead into it, one directly over the mountains from Marash to the south. This road is considered impassable in the winter, and has to cross the Jihau river by a bridge about six hours from Zeitoun. The second road leads from Geben on the southwest. This is the usual winter road from Marash and crosses the Jihau river only four hours out of Marash. It will be remembered that the plan of attack was to approach Zeitoun with the army in three divisions, closing in from Marash, Geben and Guksun. The road from Guksun is easily defended, and the 3,000 men concentrated at Guksun seem to have taken little part in the attack. The Geben division of 5,000 men, weakened by sickness, moved slowly forward, and the main advance was made from Marash by the most difficult road of all. It is possible that, as once reported, the bridge across the Jihau, four hours from Marash, had been destroyed, and the main body of 10,000 men could not take the winter road.

Defeat of Turkish Army Complete.

Although the Turks claim to have captured the barracks commanding Zeitoun, the fact that the battle took place at Hot Springs, five miles east of the city, makes it look as though only the heights had been taken and not the barricks, which are but a quarter of a mile from Zeitoun. The tributary of the Jihau which passes through Hot Springs from Zeitoun is a dry bed in summer, but at this season of the year is a rushing unfordable torrent and is crossed by a stone bridge. The Zeitounlis made a partial stand at the bridge, and slowly withdrew up the steep road, followed by almost the entire Turkish army. When most of the Turkish army had crossed the bridge was suddenly blown up, and the Zeitounlis from the precipitous banks of the stream rained down bullets and rocks. They had prepared small mines of dynamite down in the valley, and they may have had also dynamite bombs. The Turkish account is "fire burst out from the air or from the ground and destroyed the army." The defeat of the army was complete. Since they had not got into Zeitoun, there was no place where they could be sheltered; they were obliged to resign all they had captured and retreat to Marash.

Zeitounlis Safe Until March.

The only report from Marash which estimates the killed give the Turkish losses as 10,000, although this number does not seem possible. What was left of the army came back into Marash over the direct Zeitoun road the 30th and 31st of December. The wounded were put into some of Christian churches. The Zeitounlis are said to have enough provisions to last until July. Whatever may be the result of the mediation, no further attack can be made until after March. Whether the detachment of the Turkish army which had reached Furnuz on the west has tried to hold its position has not yet been learned. Regarding the numerical strength of the Zeitounlis, nothing can be said with a certainty. There is no doubt that there are wise heads in command at Zeitoun. That the Turks are waging war of extermination against Zeitoun there can be no doubt.

The Massacres at Tamzara.

The unfortunate condition of Tamzara near Sharki Kara Hussar, province of Sivas, has been mentioned before. The following letter, dated January 8, was written by a native of the village: On October 28 the first attack was made upon our village. The Kurds and Circassians came aud carried off all our cattle. Two days later they came again and attacked the village, breaking into and plundering houses. But few were killed, for our Mohammedan neighbors received us into their houses and protected us. We were left in the greatest poverty, but we had escaped and we felt that the worst was over. Then upon November a great crowd of Turks came upon the village and called upon the people of the village to come out. The men and women were made to stand together, and then in the presence of the women the men were killed. Out of 250 houses all but ten of the males above five years of age were killed on that awful day. Then the houses were stripped of all that was in them. The women were stripped of their clothing where it was worth carrying off. The prettiest women were carried off by the Turks, and now of Tamzara there are only about 300 women and children left.

Women and Girls the Greatest Sufferers.

You cannot imagine the terrible condition of these people. I have seen again and again young women, who were delicately brought up, dressed in two sacks, one with holes cut in the corners for the legs and the other with holes for the head and arms. They were happy to have so much in the way of clothing. They go to the city and beg bread. On the way to the city they are often taken possession of by some passing Turk. And the worst of everything is that the soldiers and Zahtiens, whenever they choose, again and again force their way into the houses in Tamzara, where there are no men to beat them off, and do what they like with the women and girls. The government has turned back these women every time that they have tried to escape to other places, and there is no hope for these wretched women, left the spoil of every passing Turk, unless some power will be interested enough in them to stop these continuous outrages. If some benevolent persons could send help so that these women at Tamzara can have given to them an oke of bread each day, it will be a blessed work, and will save many lives. Bread is better than money. For bread they can eat up and it is safe. But money may be taken from them before they can get the bread. In any case, I beg to have the outrages on these women stopped.

CHANCE FOR AMERICANS.

A Demand for Munitions of War, Machinery and Other Articles in China.

Washington, Feb. 10.—F. Bandinel, vice-consul of the United States at New Chwang, in a report sent to the state department by Minister Denby, says that after the evacuation of Manchuria by the Japanese troops and the assumption of control by the Chinese there will probably be a demand at New Chwang for munitions of war, steam launches, machinery and other articles. The munitions of war desired are cannon for fortifications, repeating rifles and ammunition for artillery and fire arms, smokeless powder being preferred. The machinery is required for crushing castor beans and pressing the crushed seed into cakes; for reeling silk into cocoons, for treating hemp and making rope and for mining coal and precious metals. Mr. Bandinel recommends the American merchants and manufacturers desiring to compete for this business, that they should give all particulars with prices stated in Shanghai or New Chwang taels of goods laid down, but not landed, in New Chwang harbor.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

The Present Week Expected To Be One of the Busiest of the Session.

Albany, Feb 10.—The present week will be one of the busiest of the session. Important resolutions which have been laid over under the rule, will come up in both houses for consideration. To-night in the assembly Mr. Butts of New York will call from the table his resolution urging congress to pass a bill providing for the purchase by the United States of the island of Cuba. A comparison of the work of the last legislature with the present one shows that the number of bills introduced this year exceeds those of last year at the same time. The leaders of the majority are as yet undetermined upon all of the important legislation which is to be enacted during the present session. It is expected that the Raines excise bill will be perfected and reported in both houses of the legislature within the next ten days.

KNOCKED HIMSELF UNCONSCIOUS.

Specher Hit Himself with a Poker and Claimed He Was Robbed.

Toledo, O., Feb. 10.—Late Friday evening Frank Specher, agent at Dunbridge, O., for the United States Express company and the Ohio Central railroad, was found unconscious in his office. When he revived he said he had been assaulted by two robbers, who had taken an express package containing $110, which he had just made up. Clinton Raab was arrested on suspicion and locked up at Bowling Green, charged with the robbery. Yesterday Specher confessed that he had not been robbed, that he was short in his accounts $200, and that he had invented the robbery story, hoping to cover up his defalcation. To lend plausibility to the story, he had hit himself on the head with the stove poker.

Suez Canal's Profitable Year.

Washington, Feb. 10.—A report to the state department from Frederic C. Penfield, United States consul general at Cairo, Egypt, says that although the number of ships passing through the Suez canal in 1895 was eighteen less than for the preceding twelve months, the year 1895 was the most fruitful in receipts the canal company ever experienced.

Rev. Charles Peabody Dead.

Long Meadow, Mass., Feb. 10.—Rev. Charles Peabody, aged 85, a retired Congregational minister who had had pastorates in several small New England towns, died here yesterday. He graduated from Williams in 1838 and from the Andover Theological school.

U. of P.'s 'Varsity Captain Resigns.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Alfred E. Bull, captain of the University of Pennsylvaina 'varsity eight, has resigned from the crew because the "Woodruff" stroke will be abandoned and a stroke taught by Coacher Ward substituted for it.

Easy

To buy, easy to take and easy in effect, are characteristics peculiar to Hood's Pills. They are small, tasteless, and purely vegetable. They act gently but thoroughly and satisfactorily. They do not irritate or inflame the intestines, but leave them in natural, healthy condition. 25 cents.

HOOD'S PILLS Cure LIVER ILLS

"HELP!"

A WOMAN'S DESPAIRING CRY.

It is Heard. A Prominent Actress Escapes Great Danger.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

How startling is a woman's cry for help!

"What can I do? Where shall I go?" She cry goes out city, town, and hamlet in this country.

It comes from women who are suffering tortures of body and mind from some form of female complaint. Many, through natural modesty, do not consult physicians, for many dread their examinations. They know not where to seek for help.

This alarming condition of things is simply wrong. The peculiar ailments of women are curable, and in most cases very speedily. Lydia E. Pinkham's genius and liberality have given to every woman a sure and consistent means of relief.

No woman should suffer when she can obtain free advice. She can state her case fully to Mrs. Pinkham, woman to woman, without reserve, and the answer will come from one of her own sex. Be one of the vast army of women who write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and preserve your health. "Only a woman can understand a woman's ills."

A prominent actress, in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:—

"... You cannot imagine the fearful condition I was in when I first wrote to you. I was simply of no use to myself or any one else. I had worked hard, and my nervous system was shattered from womb trouble and travelling constantly. I ran the gauntlet of doctors' theories, till my health and money were rapidly vanishing. ... I'm all right now, and am gaining flesh daily. I follow your advice faithfully in everything. Thank you ten thousand times for what your knowledge and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have done for me."

GEO. O. STEVENS OAL 747 WEST FRONT ST.

Branch office with

G. A. HALLOCK,

109 West Front st.

W.L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Mrs D T 2	Lane Samuel
Freeman A L	Mackentire Jos
Huff Bros	Mulligan Ellen
Halliday Frank	McKinley John
Huck Paulina	McLaughlin Mr C
Kingsbury John	Pope Alex Mrs 3
Kitchen Matie W	Robinson Jas A
King T P	Robertson R Mrs
Lackenasen Rachael	VanDerveer Francis
Zimmerman Josie Miss

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. t.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills, 24 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

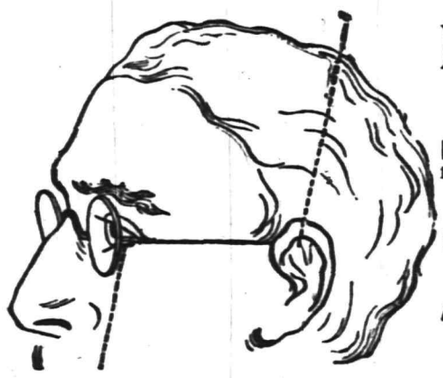
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

1o7 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

No. 169 North avenue.
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
109 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER, Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply: testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset streets.
6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:36 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
Chas. H. Herring, Contracting Agent, 403 East 2d st.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

Hands Off.
Why try to press back a side ache with your hand, as so many do, when an Allcock's Porous Plaster
will not only relieve the pain but prevent its return. The best remedy known for weak back, strains, sprains, lameness and all local pains.
Bear in Mind—Not one of the host of counterfeits and imitations is as good as the genuine.
Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills.
A safe and sure remedy for diseases arising from impurity of the blood.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Unanimous Choice
The New York Morning Journal recently offered ten leading makes of bicycles as prizes in a guessing contest, giving the winners free choice of any one of the ten machines. The result was ALL of the ten winners selected
Columbia Bicycles
The Journal accordingly bought ten Columbias, paying $100 each for them, without discount or rebate. On even terms few will choose a bicycle other than the Columbia

STANDARD OF THE WORLD
Unequalled, Unapproached.
Beautiful Art Catalogue of Columbia and Hartford Bicycles is free if you call upon any Columbia agent; by mail from us for two 2-cent stamps.
POPE MANUFACTURING CO.
Factories and General Offices, Hartford, Conn.
Branch Stores and Agencies in almost every city and town. If Columbias are not properly represented in your vicinity let us know.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscribers, executors of Elizabeth Edgar, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the fourth day of March next. Dated December 28th, 1895.
CHARLES H. EDGAR,
FREDERIC A. BOOTH.
12 30 10-o a w

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

CUBAN INSURRECTION

Several Fierce Battles in the Province of Pinar del Rio.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES

Marin Compelled To Abandon the Attempt To Force a Battle with Gomez—Strength of the Rebels as Estimated by the Government.

Havana, Feb. 8, via Key West, Fla., Feb. 10.—The fighting in Pinar del Rio province in the last few days has been the most severe since the beginning of the war. The condition to which the Spanish forces in the west are reduced has led Marin to abandon the attempt to force a battle with Gomez, delay his return to Havana and go to the relief of the beleaguered towns. Maceo's forces include the bands of Miro, Sotomayor, Delgado, Zayas and Bermudez. The official government report gives them a strength of 600 each, but they are probably much greater. The combined forces fought a pitched battle with Luque at Paso Real this week. The latter reported that the rebels formed in the line of battle and charged the Spanish lines with great valor. Luque claimed a complete victory and asked for the San Fernando cross, having remained in command though shot through the leg. After the fight Luque withdrew his forces to the capitol of the province. Wednesday the same parties of rebels besieged Candelaria, a railroad town near the Havana province border. They had apparently recovered from the battle with Luque. The volunteers and a small detachment made a heroic defense of Candalaria for twenty-six hours. Marin, who was about leaving Artemisia for Havana, ordered Canella to the relief of Candelaria and to attack Maceo. He took all the available forces and proceeded in person to support Candelaria.

Both Sides Lost Heavily.

The latter made a remarkable march, reached Candelaria and found insurgents swarming in the towns in that vicinity. The garrison held out though many fell. The troops of the Simancia and Zamoria battalions attacked the besiegers and the fight lasted two hours. The insurgents made several machete charges against the Spanish troops. The latter used artillery. The losses were heavy on both sides. The troops finally entered Candelaria Thursday night. The insurgents moved West to San Cristobal. Marin's column at Candelaria and Canella followed Maceo. Another battle is expected. It is impossible to learn the losses at Candelaria accurately. The government says twenty-six dead insurgents were found on the field of battle. Their own losses are given as five dead and forty-eight wounded. Gomez was last reported between Artemisia and the western border of Havana province. Pando arrived here Saturday night. Marin is expected to-day and Weyler to-morrow. The city is being decorated with bunting and preparations made for an enthusiastic reception of the troops by the officials and the loyal citizens.

Exodus of Cubans Continues.

The American correspondent Mann remains, pending the result of the action of the state department at Washington against his summary expulsion. Luque has gone to Cienfuegos to recover from the effects of the wound received at Paso Real. The government reports Jose Maceo wounded in the leg in Santiago province and also Bermudez killed. Neither report is confirmed. The exodus of Cubans continues, and arrests of suspects are increasing in number. Twenty intelligent townspeople of Punta Padre, Santiago province, were brought here yesterday. Cavalry arrived from Spain Thursday without horses. There is some difficulty in obtaining mounts. The government recently mounted 2,000 infantrymen. Additional volunteers are being recruited here to do garrison duty in place of those sent to the field.

HON. W. S. KENYON DEAD.

A Prominent Lawyer, ex-County Judge and Member of Congress.

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 10.—Hon. Wm. S. Kenyon died at his home in this city yesterday. He was born in Catskill in 1820. He was admitted to the bar in 1846, and in 1858 was elected to congress from the Ulster and Green district. He was judge of Ulster county from 1883 to 1890. He was a delegate to the republican national conventions in 1872 and 1876, and was for many years chairman of the republican central committee of Ulster county. He was considered one of the ablest lawyers in this part of the state.

Will Give His Salary to a Widow.

New York, Feb. 10.—Joseph E. McMahon, the state democracy candidate for assemblyman in the Seventeenth district, has declared his intention if elected to turn over $1,500, the amount of his salary, to the widow of the late assemblyman Patrick J. Kerrigan.

Schlatter on a Chain Gang.

San Bernardino, Cal., Feb. 10.—The jail officials of this town are positive that they have, as a member of the chain gang, the eccentric healer, Francis Schlatter. The mysterious prisoner was arrested at Red Lands Friday as a vagrant.

Secretary to Venezuelan Commission.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Perry Allen of this city, the private secretary of Justice Harlan, has been appointed assistant secretary to the Venezuelan commission.

Cruiser Raleigh at Fort Monroe.

Fort Monroe, Va., Feb. 10.—The cruiser Raleigh from Key West arrived last night and passed up to Newport News for coal.

HE LOSES HIS BAIL

German Court Refuses To Return Mr. Stern's 80,000 Marks.

HE GOT OFF VERY EASY AS IT WAS

The Late Ambassador Runyon's Remains Started for Home To-day—Americans Dined in Berlin by Mr. Squires—Other News.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—Louis Stern of New York, having had the sentence of fourteen days' imprisonment, which was imposed upon him by the court upon his conviction of the charge of insulting Baron von Thuengen, the deputy commissioner of the Spa at Kissengen, revoked by proclamation of amnesty promulgated recently by the prince regent of Bavaria, lodged a claim for the return of the 80,000 marks' bail which he forfeited by his failure to appear and serve his sentence. The court has decided that Mr. Stern's claim is not well founded, holding that his bail was forfeited by his neglect to surrender himself before his pardon was proclaimed. Mr. Stern's friends now suggest that he make an appeal directly to the prince regent for the return of the money. It is the general opinion here that he had better drop the matter, and that he got off very well as it was.

Mr. Runyon's Body Started for Home.

The body of Theodore Runyon, late ambassador of the United States to Germany, will be removed to-day from the vault in which it has been temporarily resting and conveyed to the railway station enroute to Bremen, whence it will be taken to New York on board the steamer Havel, which will sail to-morrow. The removal and the placing of the body on the steamer will be made without any ceremony whatever. Mr. Haskins, son-in-law of the late ambassador, will supervise the removal of the body and accompany it to Newark.

England and Germany.

Within the past week the officially inspired German press, which formerly had been pounding England as hard as violent language could go, have suddenly ceased their blasts against Great Britain, but it cannot be ascertained that there has been any change in the course of the policy of Germany, except that from some cause which is generally supposed to be representations on the part of the other parties to the triple alliance—Austria and Italy—the emperor has put a check upon German diplomatic activity in quarters where there have been jealousies upon the part of England based upon the supposition that Germany's attitude was hostile. The debate in the reichstag on Friday upon the naval estimates gave Freiherr Marshall von Bieberstein, minister of foreign affairs, and the members of the reichstag who are in touch with the government an opportunity to make declarations which were decidedly friendly to England, and the occasion was made the most of. Apart from the reassuring speech delivered by Freiherr Marshall von Bieberstein the most notable of the statements made in the chamber was the declaration of Prince von Arenberg, centrist, the president of the Colonial Society of Germany, that at no time has there been any reason for the anti-German excitement which has prevailed in England. This utterance was received with applause, in which members of all parties joined with earnestness.

Americans Dined.

H. G. Squires, second secretary of the United States embassy, gave a dinner Saturday evening to the leaders of the American colony in Berlin. Among the guests were Messrs. Gordon, Cummings, Trowbridge, Carter, Parsons, MacGee and Murray and Dr. Nutall. Next Wednesday Mr. Squires will give a farewell dinner to Colonel Swain, the military attache of the British embassy, to which all of the military attaches to the embassies and legations in Berlin and all of the members of the staff of the American embassy have been invited.

New Patriotic Order.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Gen. M. A. Dillon of this city, who was the founder of the Union Veterans' union and the Medal of Honor Legion, has founded a new patriotic semi-military organization having for its main objects the cultivation of a spirit of Americanism and the strict enforcement of the Monroe doctrine. The organization is called the Oriental Order of Zouaves.

May Move to Bridgeport.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 10.—The management of the Bigelow company of Fair Haven is considering whether, on the ground of economy, it would not be advisable for that concern to move its big boiler and engineering works from this city to Bridgeport. These works employ over 200 hands.

Three of the Crew Drowned.

Newburyport, Mass., Feb. 10.—The British schooner Alliansa, from New York for St. John, N. B., went ashore on Plum island about 7 o'clock last night and is a total wreck. Three of the crew, including the captain, were drowned.

Authorized To Loan $200,000.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Gen. McNulta, receiver of the whiskey trust, has been authorized by Judge Showalter to loan $200,000 of the money in his possession on good security.

Sought Shelter at New London.

New London, Conn., Feb. 10.—A fleet of tugs towing barges containing an enormous quantity of coal came in here last night to get out of the fog and storm.

La Gascogne Arrives at New York.

New York, Feb. 10.—The French line steamer La Gascogne, from Havre, reached her dock here this morning.

DOWN TO REAL WORK

Forecast of Business Before Congress This Week.

OVER TWO MONTHS FRITTERED AWAY

Mr. Smith of New Jersey To Address the Senate To-day on the Monroe Doctrine—Bond Silver Colgage Measure in the House.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Although the present congress has been in session for more than two months without the customary holiday recess the senate will only this week get down to the actual business of the session and begin the consideration of the appropriation bills. Mr. Hansbrough's seed resolution is the unfinished business and he expects to have a vote upon it within a few days, although the understanding is that it is to be laid aside temporarily whenever appropriation bills are ready to be considered. Mr. Quay's amended resolution to recommit the tariff bill to the senate committee on finance without instructions, which was laid over until to-day, will come up early. Mr. Quay says that while the vote will be close he believes it has an even chance of passing. The populists, however, at their recent conference decided to vote against recommitment, and if they do so, together with the entire democratic vote the resolution will not prevail. Mr. Smith of New Jersey will address the senate this afternoon on the Monroe resolutions now pending. It is believed that he will take ground between the ultra-conservatism of his colleague Mr. Sewell and the radicalism of Mr. Davis of Minnesota. The fact that Mr. Smith has conferred with the president on this subject and that his speech to a certain extent is believed to reflect the views of the chief executive will give it interest. Mr. Blanchard of Louisiana will also speak on the same subject to-morrow. The effort to change the elective officers of the senate may be made during the latter part of the week, but there is more or less conjecture about this. Meanwhile, there is abundant work before the senate in the shape of appropriation bills, those having been reported to the senate being the urgent deficiency, military academy, pensions and the consular and diplomatic bills. In none of these have many additions been made save the urgent deficiency bill to which, at the request of the treasury department a large amount for unprovided expenses of the department of justice has been inserted.

House of Representatives.

The house will further discuss the bond silver coinage bill until 12 o'clock to-morrow. Notice has been given that a large number of amendments will be offered, and it is not certain when a final vote on the senate free coinage substitute will be reached. It is hoped that it may be had on Wednesday. The silver advocates concede that the republican vote in favor of the substitute will not be as large as was given against the passage of the bond bill last December. It is variously estimated by them at from twenty-five to forty. After the financial matter has been disposed of appropriation bills will again come to the front. There are two of these—the agricultural and the military bills—now on the calendar and the Indian bill is ready for report to the house. The elections committees have two or three contests ready, which they can bring in at any time.

Queen Victoria's Will.

London, Feb. 10.—The death of Prince Henry of Battenberg, husband of Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of the queen, has caused her majesty to revise her will. It is reported that she will leave Osborne house to Princess Beatrice, and will also bequeath to her the lease of Abergeldie house. The Duke of Connaught, it is said, will get Balmoral, the queen's residence in the Highlands.

Demand a French Canadian Priest.

Danielson, Conn., Feb. 10.—About 400 French Catholics held a mass meeting in this place yesterday, and resolutions were passed not to pay one cent toward the church in any form whatever until a French Canadian priest is furnished. They signed a circular to that effect and will have it distributed among the French families this week.

Committed Suicide in Bed.

Hartford, Feb. 10.—Cardella E. Brown, manager of the wholesale and retail coal business of Linderman & Skeer, in this city, under the name of J. J. Poole & Co., committed suicide in bed yesterday at his residence by shooting himself in the right temple. He was undoubtedly suffering from temporary abberation of mind.

Two Drowned While Fording a Stream.

Middletown, N. Y., Feb. 10.—Peter Atkins, a blacksmith of this city, and a companion named Maud Kelly, were drowned in the Wallkill river, at Hopkins Bridge, four miles from this place, Saturday night, while attempting to ford the stream in a wagon. Both bodies were recovered.

Two Bodies Recovered.

Hartford, Feb. 11.—The bodies of two men drowned in the disaster at the Pequabuck bridge Thursday night which were found yesterday afternoon are those of James Mack of New Britain and an Italian supposed to be Chas. Costello of Hartford.

Railroad Consolidation Contemplated.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—A movement is on foot for the merging of all the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad system in south and west New Jersey, and the various directors of the Pennsylvania railroad system are at work on a plan for the consolidation.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

105 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 10, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Generally Fair Tonight and Tuesday. Warmer Tonight.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 43 Degrees.

Will they be recorded in New Jersey history as the Lazy Legislature? Senators! Assemblymen! answer No! by settling down to work.

Having deprived the people of the means of knowing what the laws are, by doing away with their publication in newspapers, the lawyer-legislature have very consistently decided that five more Supreme Court judges are needed to deal out justice.

The reaction against that most un-American organization, the A. P. A., is beginning to be felt in the sections of the country where it was strongest. Its disintegration must come. It has no place or sympathy in the hearts of those who realize the principles taught in the landing of the passengers of the Mayflower.

When a Chicago court convicts a Chicago editor of printing bad things in his paper and sentences him to two years in prison, it is time to think that there is still hope of reform in the inland metropolis before the G. O. P's meet there when smutty smoke and a high thermometer will turn them into Etheopians, before they can reach a bath tub.

Petitions are being presented for signature in this city, asking that the Legislature make a State law forbidding the duplication of names upon applications for liquor licenses and that every application be signed by twelve freeholders who have not signed for any other license. Another petition accompanies it asking that the use of screens or obstructions of any kind, fixed or movable, which prevents a view of the saloon from the street be forbidden, as in the interest of peace and good order, alleging that where such screens are used the liability to disturbances o. the peace, and the chances of law breaking on days when saloons are closed, are greater. —News.

The enactment into law of the recommendations in these petitions would affect the whole State, but so far as the first suggestion is concerned it is already a part of the special city charter under which liquor licenses are granted in Plainfield and one which is observed in all the application filed with the Council each year. Regarding the second suggestion it may be said that the city law prescribes that all screens or obstructions to a free and open view of the bar shall be removed during the hours when selling is prohibited, and this is also observed. It is not compulsory, however, to have an open view during business hours, and The Press questions the right and justice of the Legislature to pass such a law. This amendment added to the present excise law of this city would be highly inconsistent, inasmuch as the law recognizes the fact that no license is granted by the honorable members of the Common Council unless they are satisfied that the dealer is of a character that he will not violate the confidence they have reposed in him to conduct his business peaceably and within the limits of the law.

Editor Runyon realized as soon as he saw a copy of The Daily Press last Friday that he had been badly beaten in the report of the Bound Brook disaster. Forthwith his double barreled intellect began to heave and surge, and he ground forth an eulogistic editorial to the effect that the News was the only paper in Plainfield that could be depended upon to give all the news and in its best form. The fact that The Daily Press sold 1,000 extra copies on Friday—double or treble the number sold by the News—is evidence enough as to how the people sized up the merits of the two papers. In the last few days The Press has published exclusive information of the following events: The fortune left Mrs. Edward Lauffer; commencement of divorce proceedings by Mrs. Anna Boate; Elias H. Bird receiving taxes; acceptance of the terms of street railway extension ordinance by the street railway officials; secret marriage of Miss Sadie Smith to Harry T. Baglin; death of John Henry Whitney; petition presented to Mayor Gilbert for the Marx appointment; proceedings in the Somerset Board of Freeholders over the Johnson jury bills; formation of the New Jersey Inter-scholastic Athletic Association. These were matters that were current news, and yet Editor Runyon has the unmitigated gall to say that people have to depend on his paper for the news. During this time The Press was not beaten on one single piece of important news.

Oak Tree.

Miss Louise Wilbur, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with her grandmother.

David Kellogg, of New York, was the guest of Gen. Schwenck, over Sunday.

Lebbeus Ayres is in Plainfield today visiting friends.

T. H. Keller and family returned yesterday from their trip to Texas.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Lizzie Kingston of East Second street, is very ill.

Rev. M. Ahlberg, of Grove street, left this morning for Chicago.

W. B. Wadsworth, of West Eighth street, spent Sunday in Boston.

M. Estil, of Grove street, spent Sunday with friends in the Quaker city.

Miss Conover, of Asbury Park, is visiting Mrs. John D. Runyon, of Park avenue.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus VanDeventer on Saturday.

Miss Anne Winslow Crane, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday with friends on Franklin place.

Mrs. George M. Rittenhouse, and daughter Frances are visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Lilla Livezey, of Park avenue, is entertaining her cousin, Miss Finsman, of Trenton.

Miss Lulu Gunning, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Miss Mary A. Luckey, of East Fifth street.

Sidney Gilligan, of New York, spent Saturday night and and Sunday with Plainfield friends.

Miss Elsie Smith, of Westervelt avenue, is lying dangerously ill at her home with pneumonia.

Miss Weeks, of Elizabeth, has been spending some days at the home of Colles Pond, of Willow avenue.

R. Percy Fish, of Chicago, has been visiting at the home of his uncle, Frederick K. Fish, of First place.

Chas. M. Ulrich, of East Fifth street, is able to be out again after being confined to the house for a week.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Muir, of the West End, was brightened Saturday by the arrival of a young son.

E. E. Anthony, of Westervelt avenue, will reside on West Front street, corner Washington avenue after April first.

Miss Florence Pond, daughter of Charles E. Pond, of Washington avenue, spent Sunday with friends in Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sturm, and their daughter Bertha, of Sunnyside, N. J., have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hummer, of Linden avenue.

W. W. Coriell, I. L. McVoy, J. W. Bogert and Henry Drake of Post 73, G. A. R., attended the funeral services of the late Comrade Brokaw held from the Mount Bethel church yesterday.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F. will meet this evening.

—Captain Jack Crawford will entertain at the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church Saturday, February 29th.

—The handsome front of the Jackson building has been completed, and the inside work is being pushed rapidly.

—There will be a social gathering of friends at the home of Victor Lorton, of West Fifth street, Friday evening, February 21st.

—A social will probably be held at the home of Miss Angleman, of East Fourth street, Thursday evening, February 20th.

—The statement that Policeman McCue shot off his revolver in the cellar of the Spencer residence Saturday morning was errorious.

—Rev. E. Kionka, of the German Lutheran church, preached his first sermon in English yesterday. He will continue to do so every other week.

—A Danish Lutheran service will be held this evening at the German Lutheran church, beginning at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Neilson, of Philadelphia, will preach.

—The case of Lawler vs. Keeley & Son, on contract, comes up before Justice Newcorn and a six men jury this afternoon. The suit is for services rendered to horses injured by falls into the sewer trench.

—The cable on car No. 5, of the street railway, was broken last evening about 5 o'clock. Car No. 2, of the Somerset street line was substituted. The car is doing regular service today, having been repaired.

—The Sons of Veterans will celebrate Union Defender's Day, Wednesday, February 12th, by giving an entertainment in the evening at their rooms on East Front street. It will be an invitation affair.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills

are endorsed by physicians and druggists. They cause the kidneys to filter all uric acid and other poisons or impurities from the blood.

Cure Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Anaemia, Pimples, Bad Blood, Bright's Disease, Malaria, Backache, Kidney Pains, Dropsy, Pain in the Abdomen, Frequent Urination, Inflammation of Kidneys, etc.

Cured a Severe Pain in My Back.

I was troubled with a severe pain in my back which gave me much inconvenience in doing my housework. I read of Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills, and am taking them. They have cured me as far as I know, as the pains are all gone. Mrs. Annie Brown, 264 Organ Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Fifty cents a box. A Valuable Book Mailed free. Hobbs Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

PURE SURE

Cleveland's Baking Powder

ONLY ROUNDED SPOONFULS REQUIRED

NOT HEAPING SPOONFULS

THE BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

PRAISE FOR THE SEWERS.

Opinions of Plainfielders Who Favorably View the New Improvement.

The last issue of the Morristown Chronicle contained the following interviews with business men in this city concerning the sewerage system just put in operation:

E. C. Mulford, a prominent real estate dealer and owner of realty in Plainfield, said that he had been engaged in the business since 1876, and that the objection to a sewerage system in Plainfield, which was made for a number of years, no doubt lost them a number of prospective residents from New York, and since it was decided to introduce a sewerage system there has been a decidedly better feeling.

J. T. Vail, real estate—I think sewers are a big thing. Plainfield today would be much larger if we had had a sewerage system years ago. The people from the city who are looking for a place of residence in the country are used to sewers, and in a number of instances I had customers who had decided to locate here, but the question of sewers came up and Plainfield lost a number of valuable residents simply because people would not locate in a town where there were no sewers.

W. D. Thickstun, real estate—A number of people, who had heard of Plainfield as one of the garden spots of New Jersey, came to me to purchase real estate, and frequently the fact that there was no sewerage system here, although we had every other inducement possible, deterred them from settling here.

A. D. Thompson, real estate—The want of sewers has kept Plainfield back ten years and we would today have at least five thousand more inhabitants if we had had this system years ago. We have excellent water, schools, churches and everything that is needed in a first-class suburban town, but the one drawback we have always had to fight has been the absence of a good sewerage system introduced. Plainfield is an up-to-date town and growing right along. In fact at the present time there are one hundred houses under constru tion in this place, and a good many of the owners would not have located here had it not been for our first-class sewerage system.

T. O. Doane, Chief Engineer and Inspector of Buildings—Previous to my official appointment I was actively engaged in the building business in this town for thirty years; and during that time I found that there were a large number of people from New York who desired to locate with their families in the country, and having heard Plainfield spoken of, came here, but when they found that we were without a sewerage system, in very many instances which I could name, they located elsewhere.

Dr. J. H. Carman, President of the Board of Health of North Plainfield—I am not in favor of the sewer system of Plainfield: think it should run to tide water; but any good system is better than a cesspool.

Dr. Mattison—If the cesspool is on some one else's property and far enough away, it's all right, but not good on one's own property. All physicians and sanitary experts believe in a sewer system.

Among the others quoted were Frank W. Runyon, Dr. Probasco, Perby C. Ohl, Assemblyman W. R. Codington, Dr. Murray and A. L. Force.

THEATRICAL.

This evening the Waite Comedy Co, Band and Orchestra commences its annual engagement in this city at Music Hall. That they will play to crowded houses is a foregone conclusion. The public of today are fully enlightened and must have full value for their money in amusements as well as in trade. No company gives a better return for the money invested than does this clever organization. Mr. Waite has felt the public pulse and diagnosed the case correctly. His players present bright, lively comedy and standard drama in a most meritorious manner, and the accompaniments in the way of splendid music and handsome costuming with a pleasing interpolation of refined specialties, way above the average. It costs him $400 a week for his superb orchestra and band alone, but he feels that it is an important factor and that it must be the best that can be procured, regardless of expense.

The popular dime matinees will start tomorrow afternoon with The Diamond Mystery as the bill; in the evening Oliver Byrons comedy, The Inside Track, will be given. This organization is Manager Waite's No. 1 company with which Mr. Waite travels personally. The Black Flag will be presented this evening.

A special souvenir matinee will be given of "The Heart of Maryland," at the Herald Square Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, Lincoln's Birthday. Tonight the Alfred Benjamin Mutual Benefit Society will attend the play in a body, and on Tuesday night Company D of the 7th Regiment will attend. The officers of the United States warship New Hampshire will go to the play later in the week. This has proved to be the most exciting military drama brought out upon the New York stage for a long time. Every minute brings a new sensation, and the whole play occasions a continued thrill of enjoyment that David Belasco's productions are famous for.

Father Miller Off on a Vacation.

Father Miller, of St Joseph's church, in the borough, will leave Wednesday for a six weeks' welll earned vacation. He will take a trip through California and Mexico. Father Mallony, of Brooklyn, will look after the parish in his absence.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Flrst M. E. church will give a concert on Tuesday evening, February 25th.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Dunellen.

Gladys Holman, of High street, has the mumps.

Engine No. 30 has gone to the shops for repairs.

Tony Socup, of West Dunellen, has the diphtheria.

J. Logan has almost recovered from his recent illness.

George Taylor, who has been visiting at Morristown, has returned.

Miss Ethel Fenner has returned from her visit with Pluckamin friends.

Master Irving Martine, who has been at Bound Brook, has returned home.

Mrs. David Runyon, who has been visiting at Newark, has returned home.

Mrs. W. H. Taylor has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Smith, of Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reusch, of North avenue, have been entertaining friends from Cranford.

Mrs. Cogan, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Jones, has returned home to Elizabeth.

Mrs. Sharvely and children, who have been visiting at Bloomsbury, have returned home.

J. Dent and family, of Bound Brook, spent Thursday night with C. Carpenter, of East Front street.

Miss Edith Boice, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Esty, at Bergen Point, has returned home.

Uncle John Tingley gave one of his famous clam chowder suppers at his new place of business on Friday afternoon and evening.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be held Tuesday afternoon in the ladies' parlor.

The water was so high in the building in which the electric light plant is situated that the engines could not get up steam on Thursday night, so of course there were no lights.

Dunellen is going to have a combination fire apparatus, consisting of hook and ladder truck and eight fire extinguishers, also double-lever pumps that will pump one gallon each stroke and will throw a stream about seventy-five feet.

Scotch Plains.

The Young People's Association, of the Baptist church, will hold its quarterly business meeting on Thursday evening.

The revival meetings have at last come to a close and those in charge are greatly pleased with the work accomplished. A large number of young people were brought into the the church and the spiritual life of the community quickened. Rev. Dr. Parks preached yesterday morning but, owing to the illness of Rev. Mr. Breaker, there was no evening service.

New Market.

Miss Nellie Coriell is entertaining her friend, Miss White, of Red Bank.

Mrs. John Maltby has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Suydam, of Kingston, N. Y.

The revival meetings now being held at the Baptist church will be continued this week by Elder Huffman.

Judson Kitchen, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kitchen, has returned home to Brooklyn.

South Plainfield.

Mrs. Thomas Brantingham has been visiting relatives in Tarrytown.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

Notice is hereby given that Henry A. Voehl, of the Borough of North Plainfield, County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, carrying on the business of baker, at No. 84 Somerset street, in the Borough of North Plainfield aforesaid, hath this day made an assignment to the subscriber of his estate for the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation to the subscriber, at his house No. 65 Somerset street, North Plainfield, New Jersey.

Dated Feb. 7, A. D. 1896.

JACOB VOEHL, Assignee.

2 10 3-caw

DIED.

RISBERG—In this city at 311 Plainfield ave., Feb. 9, 1896, Mary Anna Risberg, aged 36 yrs, 2 mos and 28 days.
Notice of funeral tomorrow.

FRANKLIN—Suddenly, in this city, of heart failure, Feb. 6, 1896, Sarah A., widow of the late Wm. H. Franklin and daughters of Christopher and Anna L. Spencer.
Funeral services from the residence of her sister, 827 Madison avenue, Wednesday, Feb. 12, at 3:30 p. m.

NEVIUS—Suddenly in this city Sunday, Feb. 9, 1896, George W. Nevius, in hi 39th year.
Funeral services in the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday, Feb. 12th at 12 o'clock, noon. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited without further notice.

STOWELL—On February 9th, of pneumonia, at the residence of her nephew, James L. Anthony, Charlotte Bena Stowell, in the 73rd year of hear age.
Funeral services at 1203 Putnam avenue, Wednesday, 12th instant, at 11:30 a. m. Interment at convenience of family.

You Will Not Wonder

After Seeing Peck's Great Display of Wash Goods and Embroideries.

THE DALZIEL GRAMMAR, MANUAL AND ART SCHOOL, 309 East Front Street.

IS AN ESTABLISHED SUCCESS.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique, Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at the Women's School of Design, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

THE WET GOODS

The loss on the goods damaged by water caused by the bursting of the automatic sprinkler in the show window of Edsall's Commercial Palace has been adjusted and the goods will be offered for sale on Friday Morning, February 7th.

There is not a very large lot of them and they were but slightly wet with clean water, and damaged but very little. They are marked, however, at a very low price in order to turn them into quick cash.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

There are a dozen or fifteen handsome plush capes, elegantly trimmed with fur and silk lined; the original price was $25 to $35. They will go for about $9 to $11.

Some silk waists that sold for $9.75. The will go from $4.50 to $5.

Some extra fine separate Skirts that sold for $8.39 and up. They will go for about $5, and some as low as $1.98.

There is quite a lot of Ladies Muslin Underwear, Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset Covers and Drawers. Of course the mere wetting of these with clean water has not damaged them for use at all, but they will go at less than half price.

There are about seventy-five to one hundred fine Corsets sold from 75cts., to $1.50. They will go at 35cts. each.

Now, of course you understand that the quantity of these wet goods are limited. They cannot be duplicated and in order to prevent any one from being disappointed who may not be fortunate to secure some of the wet goods bargains, we have spent considerable time in the market picking up big bargains of various kinds to put in this sale, so as to make the occasion worthy of a large attendance. So come along with the crowd. There will be some very telling bargains on both floors of our immense store.

China Department.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

One lot fine China Cuspidores, finely decorated, floral designs. Sold at 29cts. readily. This sale only 21cts.

One lot fine China bedroom Lamps, handsomely decorated in colors and gold. Were good sellers at 97c. This sale only 69c.

One lot Library Lamps, various styles and prices. To reduce the stock, your choice for $1.09. They sold for much higher prices.

We also offer at this sale some rare bargains in a lot of Banquet Lamps. Space is too short to give details. Come in and see them. They talk for themselves.

A very telling bargain in a lot of beautiful glass fruit dishes. In appearance resembling cut glass, very handsome designs. The price is for this sale only 13cts.

Something very pretty in crystal glass Rose Bowls, looks like cut glass. They go at only 10cts.

Carpet Department.

One lot Samples of fine Velvet and Moquette Carpets, 1¼ yards long, finished ends. Choice for 99cts.

One lot of all-wool Art Squares, 2¼ by 3 yards. For this sale only $4.79.

One lot of best Tapestry Brussels Carpets, 6 different patterns. This sale only 53cts.

Grocery Department.

Potted Ham, can	10c	Extra Can Pears	11c
" Tongue	10c	Fine Silver Prunes	12c
Ox Tongue, 1½ pound can	45c	Condensed Milk	7c. up
Clam Chowder, box	10c	String Beans, can	6c
Smoked Halibut, "	10c	Soap	2½c
Mustard Sardines	8c	Dried Beans	8c
Boston Baked Beans	10c	Lard	6 & 10c
14 Can Fine Tomatoes	98c	Butter, good	20c
14 Can Sugar Corn	98c	Glass of Mustard	10c
Fine Early June and Mar. Peas	8c. up	Pint Jar Mustard	20c

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Putnam & DeGraw

THIS WEEK WE WILL SELL

SHIRT WAISTS—Ladies laundered shirt waists only 50c.
UMBRELLAS—Fast black, Paragon frame, only 75c.
HOSIERY—Children's 1x1 rib, extra quality, all sizes, 15c; ladies fast black seamless, extra quality, at 10, 15 and 25c; men's mixed half hose, extra quality 10c, 3 for 25c; men's mixed half hose, seamless, extra heavy, 15c, 2 for 25 cents.
WAISTS—Children's corded underwaists 25c; children's outing flannel waists 50c style for 40c.
NECKWEAR—A new and special line at 25 and 50c.
EMBROIDERIES—Our's are the talk of the city.
COTTON CREPONS—Evening shades at 12 and 15c a yard.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	21	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	20	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	19
Cranford	837	6	24

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
Cranford C. C.	4	5	1557
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

A ten-men team from the New Brunswick Y. M. C. A. will come to Plainfield tomorrow night to roll a game with a similar team from the Y. M. C. A. of this city.

WITH ROD AND GUN.

Charles Smith and Scott Terry left this morning for Long Island, where they will shoot in the Dexter Pot handicap.

A shoot between the Climax Gun Club, of this city, and the Dunellen Gun Club will be held on the latter's grounds on Washington's Birthday.

The Board of Fish and Game Commissioners desire to present to the Legislature for enactment a number of changes to existing laws governing the taking of game and fish. The commission is anxious that the new laws shall give general satisfaction, so far as that may be possible. In order to give all persons an opportunity to present their views the commission will hold a public meeting at the State House in Trenton at 11 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Frank Dencklau and Fred Hunt rode their wheels to Bound Brook Saturday, but were obliged to take the train a portion of the way in returning.

Among the New Jersey delegates to the National Assembly of the League of American Wheelmen at Baltimore this week is Frederick Kerr, president of the Kerr & Martin Cycle Company. Mr. Kerr is a well-known wheelman, and New Jersey is sure to be ably represented by him.

PUNTS AND KICKS.

A meeting of the Football Association of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this evening to discuss the advisability of holding an indoor athletic meet in the Columbia Cycle Academy. All interested in the movement are requested to be present.

BASKET BALL.

The Thirteenth Regiment, of Brooklyn, has accepted an invitation to play a match game of basket ball with the Y. M. C. A. team on Saturday evening next at 8 p. m. A great game may be expected.

Italians in the City Court.

Two Italians appeared before City Judge DeMeza this morning. One gave his name as Anthony Paravin, the other said what sounded like "jus samee" to the uninitiated, but the Judge called it Joe Simmons. They were arrested by Policeman Myers for singing on South avenue and being drunk. They pleaded not guilty but the evidence was overwhelming and the Judge gave them their choice between a fine of five dollars or fifteen days in jail. They paid.

A Paper by Miss Haviland.

A regular meeting of the study class connected with the Alliance of Unitarian Women will be held in the lecture room of All Souls church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. A paper on Helen Hunt Jackson will be read by Miss Nettie Haviland, and there will be an opportunity for general discussion. All women interested are invited to attend.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Major Anderson Post, No. 109, G. A. R., met last Saturday night.

—Neuman Brothers are making special reductions in all table oils.

—The Independent Fife and Drum Corps meet Tuesday evening for practice.

—The new carpet for Vincent chapel has been selected and is now being made.

—Edward Love has taken the contract to paper Henry Cook's house in Westfield.

—The last dance of the Crescent Coterie will be held tomorrow evening in the Olympia.

—The attendance at the Y. M. C. A. evangelistic meeting, led by F. C. Harder, was twenty-two.

—The attendance at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium men's Bible class, led by D. A. MacPhie, was eight.

—Curtis' strawberry and assorted james are a feature of the bargains at Neuman Brothers this week.

—Mrs. Collies T. Pond's studio was continued Saturday afternoon and a large number were present.

—Important business will be transacted at the meeting of Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., this evening.

—The Ladies Aid society, of the Congregational church, will meet tomorrow afternoon at the church parlors.

—You are invited to attend the Young People's prayer meeting in Trinity Reformed church tonight at eight o'clock.

—Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will meet tomorrow evening and muster in a recruit. A full attendance is desired.

—Putnam & DeGraw's ad arrived too late for change Saturday. Look at it today, there may be something "in it" for you.

—The household goods of John T. Case will be sold by Auctioneer William N. Pangboru, at 11 Vine street, North Plainfield, Tuesday.

—During last week's flood, the banks to Ohl's pond were washed away. They have been repaired and the pond is ready to skate on as soon as the ice appears.

—A number of Plainfield young men are planning a theatre party to New York next Saturday. They will go to see "Marguerite" at Hammerstein's Opera House.

—Miss Adella C. Phelps invites the public to the opening of her art studio on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, February 12th and 13th, 417 Babcock building. 2

—It is earnestly requested that every member of the Royal Arcanum be present at the meeting this evening, as action will be taken in regard to the death of the late Mr. Nevius.

—The New York Tribune this morning published a synopsis of the sermon preached by Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, in the Crescent Avenue church yesterday morning.

—Thus far there have been forty conversions at the Mt. Olive Baptist church as a result of the revival services. It is likely that next Sunday there will be baptism at the church.

—Judgment was rendered this morning for the plaintiff in the contract case of Linke against Barber, by Justice Newcorn. The case of Horton & Bradley against Chase was adjourned for two weeks.

—Barney Mack has been taken from Newark to the Union County jail. He is charged with stealing a horse from Ira Lambert, of Westfield. He is thought to be the one who committed depredations in Cranford and Westfield.

—The recent flood proved very distructive to the small game in the vicinity of Somerville, Bound Brook and Dunellen. Large numbers of rabbits and other small rodents were drowned, while others were driven far from their homes.

—The entertainment to be given by Miantonomoh Tribe, No. 118, I O R M., tomorrow evening will be a most excellent one. No supper will be served during the evening, on account of the shortness of time in arranging the affair. Prof. Guttman will furnish for dancing.

—Councilman W. C. Smith, of the borough, certainly deserves credit for the introduction of the snow plows which have done such excellent service when needed this winter. They are a big improvement and facilitate matters greatly in keeping the streets in good condition.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St

TRANSFERS AND CONTRACTS.

Plainfield Matters Recorded in the County Clerk's Office for Six Days.

The following transfers of property have been recorded in the Union County Clerk's office, from Jan. 29th to Feb. 5th, inclusive, published in the New Jersey Contractor and Gazette:

Central New Jersey Land Improvement Co. to John H. Thompson, New York, lot, Berckman street, Plainfield, $400; John H. Thompson, et ux., New York, to Emma R. Naylor, Plainfield, lot, Berckman street, Plainfield, $700; Joanna K. Maxon, Plainfield, to Eliza E. Kenyon, tract 296 feet on Seventh street, $25,000; James T. Scott, et al., Plainfield, to Bradford H. Knapp, et al., tract Broad street, city and Newark road, $1; Michael O'Keefe, Plainfield, to Henry V. Powelson, lot Fifth street, 208.31 feet, Fifth street, $1,950; Floret Wormser, et ux., Plainfield, to Mary Stiles, Plainfield, lot Fifth street, 59 4 feet, $6,000; Mary Stiles to Floret Wormser, Plainfield, lot Sandford avenue, 874.77 feet, $6,000; Lydia Miller, executrix, Westfield, to Aaron D. Thompson, Plainfield, tract near property of William Hand, Plainfield, $1; Fidelity Title and Deposit Co. to Aaron D. Thompson, Plainfield, two lots, Raven road, Plainfield, $1; O. L. Jenkins, et ux, Plainfield, to Wm. J. Yates, two lots, Second street, $3,000.

Also the following contracts:

Walter S. Arthur, Plainfield, with David Arthur, carpenter, mason, etc., house, Prescott place and West Fifth street, $3,210; Abraham L. Cadmus, Plainfield, with Wm. H. Brokaw, Plainfield, dwelling house, 706 West Front street, carpenter, mason, etc., $2,000.

Nothing Like It.

Time brings many changes, but the climate of California, "The Italy of America," and the attractions of the many famous health and pleasure resorts, are the same yesterday, today and forever.

Tourists never will tire of speaking in praise of the soft and balmy air, the profusion of flowers, the magnificent display of fruits, the luxury of seabathing and the beautiful walks and drives.

Then, too, it must be conceded that with such excellent equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars, all heated by steam and lighted with Pintsch Light, the Union Pacific, "The Overland Route," is the tourists favorite. Ask your agents for tickets via this route.

E. L. Lomax, General Pass. and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

—A missionary meeting of the Plainfield Branch of the Christian Alliance will be held tomorrow evening in the W. C. T. U. rooms.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Adjourned Sale of Property.

The subscribers will sell at public auction on Tuesday, February 11th, inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises, the homestead property of the late George H. Stewart, deceased, at Washingtonville, containing about 3½ acres. Also 10 acres of land with the wood thereon, on the second mountain near Styles saw mill.

Dated Feb. 7, 1896.

SARAH A. WEBSTER,
DANIEL H. WEBSTER,
Administrators.

2 8 2

Chamber Music Concert,

—AT—

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Auction Sale

—OF—

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c

Wm. N. Pangborn, licensed auctioneer, will sell on Tuesday, February 11th.

at 1 p. m., at No. 11 Vine st., North Plainfield, parlor suit, 3 bedroom suits, 12 foot extension table, marble top table and stand, diningroom chairs, 3 rocking chairs, parlor, hall and bedroom carpets, beds and bedding, mattresses, quilts blankets, curtains and shades, whatnot, kitchen table and chairs, invalid chair, 3 clocks, range, self-feeder, 2 parlor stoves, spring cot, wire safe, wash tubs, flower stand, canned fruits, Mason jars, books, lamps, silver, glass and crockery ware, cutlery.

Terms cash. JOHN T. CASE.

NOTICE.

The members of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M., are urgently requested to attend the regular meeting of the Lodge on Tuesday evening, February 11th.

The funeral of our late brother George W. Nevius will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday next at noon. The members of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, and the fraternity in general are cordially invited to join Anchor Lodge at Masonic Hall on Wednesday morning at 10 sharp.

Borough Notice!

Public notice is hereby given that application in writing signed by persons owning at least one-quarter of the lineal feet of land fronting on Warren street between Manning avenue and Chatham street in the borough of North Plainfield, has been presented to the Mayor and Council of the borough of North Plainfield asking for the vacation of said Warren street from the Southeasterly side line of Manning avenue to the Northeasterly side line of Chatham street: And that it is the intention of said Mayor and Council to cause said portion of said street to be vacated:

Such persons, if any there be, as object thereto are required to present their objections in writing to the subscriber, on or before February twenty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety six, at six o'clock, p. m., of said day.

Dated February 7, 1896.

JAMES K. ARNOLD,
Borough Clerk.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

WANTED—Girl in small family for general housework. Apply at 123 East Front street.

LOST—On Central avenue, Saturday evening, gentleman that wanted to reach 11:23 train.

WANTED—A first class laundress, white; with Plainfield references; to go home nights. Apply 107 Crescent avenue. 2 10-tf

FRESH cows for sale. Henry Burnett, Washingtonville. 2 10 3

JAPANESE Moth Proof Pouch Co. want both lady and gentlemen canvassers of good address to canvass city and suburban towns; a small, neat package that will sell to any lady; a large commission and territory given. Address J. A. Lowe, 210 Fulton st., New York City.

WANTED.—Furnished or partly furnished large front room with or without board; near Front street; state price. Address L., care Press.

WANTED—Four men carpenters. Wyman & Haberle, Jackson Building. 2 10 2

WANTED.—At once, experienced white cook. Apply 949 Central avenue. 2 8 tf

HOUSE wanted, $25 per month; all improvements, 5 bedrooms; good location. Address with all particulars E., care Press. 2 7 3

FOR SALE or to let for term of years, the very desirable residence 662 West 7th st., with large grounds, garden and barn; for terms apply on the premises. John E. Stewart. 2 7 6

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, atty, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

8 ROOMS and bath to let, corner Watchung avenue and 5th st. Inquire of John Ross, 339 East 6th st. 1 11 m

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

Plainfield's GREATEST STORE.

There are many ways of running a business, but only one way that leads to success. Our way of procuring the best salespeople we can, paying fair salaries and having nothing but workers from the head of the house down to the boy. Hence our great success. It's why 75c and sometimes 50c does the work here that it takes a dollar to do in other stores. Wise buying and being on the inside of the market enables us to clip off profits that other merchants pay.

Now for February.

RIBBONS.

Prices broken in two on many lots of new ribbons. Just think of handsome Dresden and printed warp ribbons 29c the yard. We will clear out the odds and ends of our ribbon sale at 14c the yard. Many good things among them.

DRESS SILKS.

Today we are showing over fifty styles of new dress silks. The new Persian and Dresden designs that are going to be all the rage the coming season. Handsome black silks and satins and we are naming very little prices on them—39 to 98c the yard.

EMBROIDERIES.

Two immense lots of pretty new embroideries bought at half their real value. Will go on sale tomorrow. Lot No. 1, 5c the yard; lot No. 2, 10c the yard, and not a piece in the entire lot worth less than double what we ask.

TOWELS.

Tomorrow we place on sale 100 dozen fine huck towels, hemstitched borders, same as you usually pay 25c for. Our price will be 13 cents.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL HOUSEFURNISHING SALE.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. 250 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 2 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c. White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Highest of High Grades.

Are the Most Popular in the World.

Evidenced by the fact that there were more of them sold in '95 than any other make. Be sure to see sample before purchasing your '96 wheel.

Made by Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

F. L. C. MARTIN, AGENT. 1 27 eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

M'CORMICK AND THE SPORTS.

He Interviews Some Lady Riders Regarding Bicycle Clothes.

Tough Crowds at the Ring Side—Some Good Stories About Riotous Toughs at Prize Fights and How They Were Managed.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

I had talks with some of the riders in the recent bicycle contest among women in Madison Square garden regarding the best dress for ladies to wear when "biking." Very few of them favored bloomers. Said one of the most experienced of the riders: "Of course the ideal garment for biking is bifurcated and the tighter the fit, provided it is comfortable, the better, but such a garment cannot be worn by a woman in public with propriety or modesty. It can be, though, if she wears a coat with skirts which reach just below her knees when she is dismounted. Such trousers, for trousers they are and nothing else, should button just below the knees, and the legs should be encased in feather leggings, in all but summer weather when canvas leggings should be used. In such garb, a woman has all the freedom of movement required for her lower limbs in bicycling, and she doesn't feel that she is attracting attention as a freak, as she does when she is arrayed in bloomers." This lady, who was one of the really handsome ones among the lot, further said that she found bifurcated garments of the kind so desirable for women's wear in cold, snowy and racing weather that she wore them then, with but a silk petticoat between them and her gown. She added: "My husband will tell you that I am much healthier now than I was when I wore the orthodox number of skirts, and besides," she added, with a laugh, "my laundry bills are much lighter."

A lot of well-known sporting men were seated in the cafe of the Gilsey house the other day discussing the unfortunate glove fight in an uptown stable which resulted in the death of young Henry Rodriquez. There is still a good deal of mystery connected with this affair, which cost not only the life of Rodriquez, but also that of his young sweetheart, who died of emotion upon hearing of his sad end. The conversation drifted to the difference between the manner of conducting glove contests, or fights, nowadays, by recognized athletic clubs and the old style bare-knuckle fights during the so-called "palmy days of the ring.' Barney Aaron was in the group, and during a pause, I turned to him and said: "Barney, you've had lots of tough experience in your time. Tell us of some of the rough times you had going to some of the old fights." Thus abjured, Barney took his cigar from between his lips and while its smoke exhaled in rings, meditated a moment. Then letting his thoughts run back for many years, he slowly began: "My son (Barney always calls me his "son" when we talk of the good old days), I think about as tough a time as I ever had going to a fight was the night we left Pittsburgh to see Billy Edwards and Sam Collyer fight their last battle. You were along. Suppose you tell about it."

THEY FAVOR TROUSERS AND A COAT.

The tables had been turned on me by Barney, who was the hero of that never-to-be-forgotten night, and in response to the wishes of the company I told the story, first making Mr. Aaron promise that he would give me as good a one in return. The rendezvous for the Edwards-Collyer fight was Pittsburgh, and the day before it occurred there was gathered in that smoky city "a swell mob" that could not be duplicated anywhere else in America. Prominent in it were some of the most famous criminals in America, though, of course, they were not "wanted" just then for their deeds. The "tip" for the starting point was the levee on the Monongahela river side of "Hardscrabble," which comprises the "point" or extreme western portion of Pittsburgh, where the Allegheny and the Monongahela unite and form the Ohio river. "Midnight" was the time designated for starting, and on arriving there I found that the levee was being repaired, and that its cobble-stone or bowlder pavement had been ripped up and piled in small hillocks. The craft engaged for the voyagers was a sand flat about 120 feet long, 20 feet wide and four deep, and it was without deck excepting about five feet at each end. It was moored one end touching the shore and the other out stream. A narrow gang plank extended from the flat to the shore, and the ticket-takers were John alias "Red" Leary and Tom Allen, the St. Louis pugilist. The gang plank was so narrow that only one person could walk on it at a time. Those who had tickets gained access to the flat without trouble. There were a good many people who tried to "beat" their way on board, but very few of them succeeded. It was a case of ticket, the price, or overboard. At least 20 would-be spectators were knocked off that plank into the water, which was only knee-deep at the entrance end of the flat, and many were the curses and the threats of vengeance of those compelled to take involuntary foot-baths and their sympathizers. By half-past twelve o'clock the flat was so heavily living-freighted that her gunnels at the outer end were almost down to the water's edge. Many of those on the barge were so frightened that they would have given twice the price of a ticket to be permitted to go ashore, but they could not get the chance. Just then along came the tug which was to tow us to the fighting ground. She threw a line which was fastened to a cleat, and then she backed away, pulling us from the shore. As she did so the shore end of the flat, which had been resting on the shore, sank down two or three feet, lurching everyone shoreward a bit. We were packed so closely together that we could not fall, or we would. Then the mob of disappointed "stay behinds" on shore made a rush for the bowlder piles and began a terrible fusillade at us. For a full minute it fairly rained cobble stones. Nearly every man on the barge had a pistol, and as quickly as they could be pulled out, a rapid fire was begun shoreward. At that time natural gas was not used in Pittsburgh mills or furnaces. Times were good, and the flickering flames from the tops of a hundred furnace chimneys along the shore on the opposite side of the river made, fitfully and ruddily, half illumined the scene. Many persons on the flat had been hit by the bowlders, and several of them were badly hurt, one so severely that he died the next day. Their groans drew attention from the retreating mob on shore.

We were no sooner out of one danger, however, before we were confronted with another even more terrible. It was midsummer and the upper seams in the sides of the flat had dried apart and were leaky. Water was pouring in through the seams, and unless the boat was lightened she would sink. Several times the tug, a stern-wheel steamer called the L. C. McCormick, attempted to come alongside of us, but each time so many tried to board her at once that the barge was in imminent danger of being swamped. Among those who did get on the tug, however, were Barney Aaron and Leary. The crowd on the barge regarded their getting on the boat as desertion, and hooted them vehemently. Then it was that Aaron showed how easy it is for a man of pluck and determination to conquer a mob. He got the captain of the tug to shove a gang plank over its bow and to approach near enough to the barge to let him jump back on it. The moment that he bounded on it he exclaimed: "Now, you damned cowards, what's the matter with you? Barney Aaron's with you? Just stow your gab, keep your heads and when the tug comes along again, jest let enough people come on board of her to lighten this barge up a bit. She's as safe as a Cunarder and I'm going to stay on her all night. She's a good deal cooler than that hot old steamer, take my word for it."

Barney's words soothed the crowd. In a few moments the tug came alongside, and when a hundred or so of people got on the tug, the barge was so lightened that her leaky seams were above the water line and she was as he said, a good deal cooler than the steamer. Some of Pittsburgh's first families were represented in that crowd, but the great mass of it were toughs of the toughest kind. The Scripture tells us that "the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel." I can tell you that the lightest play of such a mob is very trying to people of ordinary sensibilities.

J. B. (MACON) MCCORMICK.

A Brave Man.

In the window of a Boston chemist appears the sign: "Spirits of all kinds sold here." A joker passing by thought it would be very funny to go in and ask him to sell him some "malignant spirits." The chemist, without a moment's hesitation, turned to an assistant and gave the order in an imperative tone:

"Thomas, run up to the second floor and tell my wife's mother to come down at once. Here is somebody who wants to buy her."—Texas Siftings.

Her Error.

"Tell me all," the pastor urged kindly.

"I put a button in the contribution box," she faltered.

He smiled.

"And did your conscience trouble you?" he asked.

The woman raised her eyes earnestly.

"No," she answered. "I put in the wrong button and broke a set, and I would like to exchange it, if you please."—Detroit Free Press.

A Hint to the Penniless.

Experienced Tramp—Hello! we're in luck. I hear a husband and wife quarreling in this house. I'll wait until he comes out.

Fresh Tramp—Wot good'll that do?

Experienced Tramp—I'll tell him I'm a wanderer over the face of the earth because I can't live with my wife, and he'll give me a dollar.—Texas Siftings.

A Rocky Road.

Editor Hightone Magazine—I have examined your manuscript, sir, and find it a thrilling narrative, which arrests attention at the start and holds it spellbound to the end.

Struggling Author (despairingly)—Then, of course, it won't do.—N. Y. Weekly.

More Than He Could Stand.

Judge—How did the man libel you?

Applicant for Warrant—He called me a beggarly politician, yer honor.

Judge—The word beggarly is hardly libellous.

Applicant for Warrant—It ain't that, yer honor; it's the word politician that I want satisfaction for.—N. Y. World.

"I have heard some rather scandalous stories about old Deacon Goodman. It is said that he has been paying a certain woman hush-money for several months."

"Great Scott! Who is she?"

"The girl that nurses his baby."—Judge.

Did Not Know Much.

Maud—Sibyl is the sort of girl that tells all she knows.

Marie—Yes. And yet she isn't very talkative.—N. Y. World.

True to His Trade.

The Mother—Yes, our baby weighed twelve pounds when it was born.

The Retired Butcher (deeply interested)—Without the bones?—Life.

Spiteful.

"What makes you think she has such good taste in artistic matters?" said one girl.

"She has given up trying to draw," said the other.—Washington Star.

The Genuine Article.

Father—Boy or girl?

Nurse—Girl.

Father—Hurral, for the new woman!—Detroit Free Press.

It's Different Now.

"I'll lead the dance," he said to her
Her cheeks grew red, her eyes grew dim;
They're married now, and all is changed.
And quite a dance she's led him.
—Detroit Free Press.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry

AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.

Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent faeing, 48c.

Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.

Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Stables attached

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

NOTICE.

Special Reductions

—AT—

Neuman Bros.

on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.

NEUMAN BROS.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.

Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET.

Opp. First National Bank.

Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

S. D. FRAZEE.

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., ooo. North ave

Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 06, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 06, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 36, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 25, 10 35, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 42, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
R. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,

EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son.

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.

Established 1869.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.—made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound

at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. [1113m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

—IN—

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

Residence over office. 1 18 m

SHOULD THEY FIGHT?

Not England and the United States.

But Children of All Ages and Conditions. Timely Reinforcements in the Battle for Existence.

Perhaps you have an answer for us to this question all ready. And perhaps we may disagree with you. Listen to our side of the story. Is it not a terrible warfare which sweeps from the face of the earth one-third of all children under five years of age? Yet this is the history of the great struggle in which we are all engaged—the battle of life. Some children yield at the first approach of disease, while others make a grand struggle for existence. In this sense, then, we are all agreed that children should be good fighters. They can best fight disease when they are hearty and strong. We do not mean simply when they are fat. Fat is not muscle. They need strong bones, sound nerves and firm muscles. The natural food for all infants is milk. The fat of this food, the cream, exists in the milk as minute globules, resembling in this respect the minute globules of fat found in Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites. There is also mineral matter in milk, and it is in Scott's Emulsion as well. This preparation looks like milk, and children soon become fond of it. So many infants and young children do not appear to derive much benefit from their food. They remain extremely thin, weak, do not increase in weight or height. They seem to have some disease which is actually wasting the body away. Their system calls for food, and yet the food does not nourish them. But food they must have. They also need some remedy which will alter or change the action of the organs of the body to healthy activity. There are remedies which naturally exist in cod-liver oil that are capable of making this change. For this reason they are called "alteratives." The hypophosphites are also of service, as they strengthen the nervous system, which is the great seat of power. The poorly nourished body calls for a fatty food, such as the fat of cod-liver oil. These are the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has proved so valuable to children. It restores healthy action. It feeds. It nourishes. It supplies needed material to the growing body. We cannot state too strongly the importance of these few early years to future health and happiness. Children do not seem to bear raw cod-liver oil well. It is so difficult to digest. But the oil in Scott's Emulsion has already been digested, and is, therefore, in a condition to render prompt aid.

Scott's Emulsion contains more pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil than any other emulsion in the world, that will stand the test of time as being a perfect inseparable emulsion. Ask your doctor.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5¾c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5¾c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one-quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

OUR CAPTAIN.

Words by W. MURDOCH LIND. Music by M. A. SCHOENFIELD.

March time.

1. The Cap-tain of the com-pa-ny in which I used to serve Was good, and true, and fear-less, sol-id
2. sol-diers he com-mand-ed loved the ground on which he trod, Their war-cry was "De-fend your own, and
3. He asked a friend to raise his head, for life was ebb-ing fast; Then feeb-ly strove to cheer his men, un-

3d verse slower.

i-ron was his nerve; He nev-er struck his col-ors, un-der fire he ne'er would flinch, But leave the rest to God!" Each morn-ing we would gath-er in the chap-el-hall to pray, And til he breathed his last. With cour-age it in-spired us as we put the foe to rout, To faced the foe, re-fus-ing to re-treat a sin-gle inch. The when the prayer was end-ed, then our Cap-tain dear would say: Chorus.

hear our dy-ing Cap-tain through the din of bat-tle shout: Chorus.

Copyright, 1894, by The New York Musical Record Co.

CHORUS.

Do your du-ty brave-ly, with your might, might, might! Go a-head when you are sure you're right, right, right! Strive to lead the van, con-quer if you can, Try, try, nev-er say die!

don't give up the fight! I [Omit.....] nev-er shall for-get the day our dear young Captain died; The tears we shed were many, for he was our joy and pride. As brave-ly as he al-ways d, so did he pass a-way, And shed his blood for free-dom on that mel-an-chol-y day.

For 3d verse, D.C. al Fine.

GOOD TIME ARRANGED FOR.

Programme For the Entertainment to be Given by Holy Cross Brotherhood.

The following programme will be rendered at the entertainment to be given in the Parish House of the Holy Cross church tomorrow evening by the Brotherhood:

Part First, violin, cello and piano, Messrs. Parabouck, Menzel and Harold; piano solo, concert waltz, "On Blooming Meadows," H. M. Western; original farce, one act, "Here She Goes and There She Goes," Hon. B.R. Jones, W. A. Westphal, Angelina Jones, Mrs. W. A. Westphal, Charles Youngblood, C. L. Murphy, Jasper Wm. Klein, Rudolph Von Arundstein, J. H. Carney; contralto solo, "Out on the Deep," Miss Wood; piano solo, selected, Arthur Barney Horton; quartette, "O, Hush Thee My Baby," Mrs. Westphal, Miss Page, B. S. Hall, C. C. Western; piano solo, selected, Mr. Parabouck; German comicalities, J. H. Carney. Part second—Instrumental trio, Sarabanda Bourie, Messrs. Parabounk, Menzel and Harold; contralto solo, "Persian Serenade," Miss Wood; duet, "I Don,t Want to Play in Your Yard," Miss Ada Westphal and Miss Mamie Richards; piano solo, "Ermine," H. M. Western; song, "The Miller and Sheep," George Hosking; a farce in one act, entitled "Shoemaker Stick to Your Last," with the following characters: Jacob, the shoemaker, J. H. Carney; Katie, his wife, C. L. Murphy; Pete, the hired man, William Klein; Pickles, the grocery man, and Waffles, the baker man, W. A. Westphal; Bones, the butcher boy, Arthur Murphy; Swipes, the news boy, Albert Ford.

Sister and Brother at Odds.

The case of Sarah Mair against Winslow Carson, both of this city, is being tried at Elizabeth today. The two parties are sister and brother and the suit is for a sum of money that the brother refuses to pay. City Judge DeMeza represents the defendant.

A Dangerous Amusement.

Some young lads amused themselves yesterday on West Second street, by stoning passenger trains on the Jersey Central railroad. They were arrested and ordered to appear before the City Judge this afternoon.

A Strong Partnership.

A partnership was formed today between U. B. Crane, of this city, and Charles Clark, of Westfield. A department store will be conducted by the firm on East Front street, which was formerly owned by Mr. Crane.

The death of Mrs. Charlotte Rena Stowell in the seventy-third year of her age occurred yesterday at the home of her nephew, James L. Anthony, 1203 Putnam avenue, from pneumonia. Funeral services will be held from the house, Wednesday morning at 11:30. Interment at the convenience of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Chapman returned yesterday from New York, where they have been stopping since Thursday night. Owing to the serious illness of Mr. Esty, one of Mr. Chapman's employers, he was unable to leave business. He was obliged to go to Buffalo this morning on very important business.

—Mrs. Mary Anna Risberg died at her home on Plainfield avenue yesterday at the age of thirty-six years. Besides a husband, she leaves three children.

An Accommodation Train.

In a certain state in the south there is a railroad which is leased for one cent a year and which has only one train, which makes up in accommodation what it lacks in regularity. It stops anywhere and everywhere. At a certain crossing it always stopped to take a dozen eggs which a widow sent to town every day. One morning the widow came out and said:

"I'm mighty sorry, Mr. Conductor, but I've got only eleven this morning."

"Never mind, madam," he replied cheerfully; "we'll wait."—Judge

After the Battle.

First Trooper—By Jove! you should have seen that fellow Higgins in the cavalry charge to-day! Regular daredevil, that man is. Never saw anyone in my life charge in such an utterly reckless style as he did.

Second Trooper—That's easy enough to account for.

First Trooper—How's that?

Second Trooper—He used to be a plumber before he joined the cavalry—Harper's Bazar.

GAIL BORDEN
EAGLE Brand
..CONDENSED MILK..
Has No Equal
SOLD EVERYWHERE

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

TIGER IN THE DAIRY.

The King of the Jungle Disdains Stall-Fed Beef.

Surprise of a Thirsty Bull When the Big Cat "Woughed" in His Frightened Face—Locked Up After a Two Days' Outing.

There was considerable excitement at Mysore, India, recently. One of the maharajah's tigers got loose and was not recaptured for over 48 hours. Allowing tigers and other wild animals to escape out of confinement seems a common events in Mysore. During the time of the late maharajah one got out of his cage in the menagerie, and also during his father's reign a tiger loafed all over the fort a whole day, going in and out of people's houses, but, strange to say, on none of these occasions has anyone been injured.

The tiger in the present instance is one which is kept by his highness' dairy to keep away the "evil eye" from the cattle. He was netted for Lord Lansdowne to shoot when his excellency visited Mysore a few years ago, and is a splendid brute. The dairy is a very large yard, with open sheds all round, in which the cattle are tied, the tiger's cage being close to one end and a fountain near the other. The tiger got out about seven p. m. and calmly strolled around, the place being full of cattle and people at the time; but, fortunately, he had no desire whatever to taste stall-fed beef, or Hindoo either, although he passed within a few feet of the cows and the men, and after examining them all quietly, lay down by the fountain.

By nine o'clock a couple of elephants brought down the nets and a cordon was run around the place, preventing the tiger escaping or getting at the cattle, when two rather amusing incidents occurred. A cow managed to get into the yard, and after skipping about for some time rushed into a part of the net closest to the tiger, and for some time struggled most frantically to get loose. Everyone fully expected the cow would have been killed. Finally, however, a number of men went out and held the wretched animal down and removed the net. Hardly was this over when a splendid bull got over a part of the net which had fallen down.

THE TIGER CALMLY STROLLED AROUND.

and after careening about the yard just as the cow had done, rushed right up to the fountain and dipped his nose in the water. Evidently he had no idea the tiger was there or he would never have gone up in the stlye he did. However, after drinking, he looked up, when the tiger, who could not have been more than a few feet away, "woughed" in his face, and the way that bull went away after that did one's heart good to see. These were two grand opportunities for witnessing "how the tiger seizes his prey," particularly as there were several sportsmen about, but unfortunately it was not to be.

After worrying the poor brute for two days and two nights, during which time he got into the net once, he quietly walked into his cage and was shut up. The cool and indifferent way in which Bassapali Urs' fossilized hunters, with their fearfully and wonderfully made bundooks, walk up and down past the tiger was most amusing. What they would have done in the event of the tiger making for one of them it is hard to tell. The claws have grown into the pads of the tiger, and the wretched animal seems to be suffering great pain. Had it not been for this there would doubtless have been a vry different tale to tell.

Mosquito Kills a Rattlesnake.

"I have read accounts of fights between turtles, between snakes and between turtles and snakes," said a hunter, "but the hardest fight I ever saw was in New Jersey. I heard a rattling and buzzing just ahead of me, and knew something unusual was happening. Soon I came across the scene of the trouble. A large rattlesnake and a full-grown mosquito, such as they raise on the Jersey coast, were engaged in deadly conflict. The snake kept up a constant rattle and would strike at the mammoth insect, which, realizing the danger, would with an angry buzz get out of the way and strike for the reptile's eyes. I watched the fight for over an hour, when the mosquito got a firm hold in an eye of the snake and in a few minutes the rattler stretched out straight and the mosquito made a bee line for me, evidently not having had fighting enough. I shot the insect and had both it and the rattler stuffed."

They Sponged Their Whisky.

Two tramps in a neighboring town hit upon a novel plan to get some whisky. They went into a saloon with a gallon jug and had it filled with liquor and offered a dollar in payment. Of course, the bartender refused to accept the money and emptied the liquor back into the barrel and the tramps took the jug and departed. Later they were seen to break the earthen vessel over a stone and squeeze out over a pint of liquor from the sponges which had been placed inside.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—Froude passed seven years in collecting materials for and in writing his "History of England." He was very careful in the selection of data, and spent whole days in the effort to verify a single fact or citation.

—Costaki Pasha Anthopoulo has been appointed Turkish ambassador to the court of St. James. Costaki Pasha is a Greek Christian who has had much administrative experience in various parts of Turkey and has occupied several important posts.

—Of the 14 new stars discovered during the last 300 years, Mrs. Fleming, of the Harvard observatory, has discovered four—viz.: One in the constellation of Perseus in 1887; one in Norma in 1893, and one each in Carina and Centaurus during the present year.

—The eldest boy of the German emperor is a little bit of an enfant terrible. One day the little crown prince was being laboriously catechised by the chaplain, who continually impressed him that all men are sinners. "Well," exclaimed the boy, impatiently, being wearied of these admonitions, "father may be a sinner, but I know mother isn't."

—Elizabeth Ney, daughter of Marshal Ney, famous in Europe for her delicate work in sculpture, is found to be the same woman who for 20 years has worked quietly in Texas, where she has been known as "The Strange Lady." Miss Ney—now Mrs. Montgomery—is said to be a very beautiful woman, untiringly devoted to her art, and to have accomplished wonders in the way of raising the somewhat hazy aesthetic standard of Texas. In the Texas building at the world's fair was a finely wrought marble statue of Gen. Sam Houston, the work of Mrs. Montgomery.

—A large wholesale bookseller declares that, despite the multiplication of editions of Scott's novels during these last few years, the sale grows automatically with the growth of population. There is no parallel to the sale of Scott, except the Bible. The very best Christmas book of the year has no chance beside Scott. Rev. John Watson ("Ian Maclaren") expressed in a recent lecture the fear that Scott was being raised to the elevation of a classic. That, he said, was the same thing as taking a man out of the house of commons, where he was an active figure, and placing him in the stately seclusion of the house of lords.

HUMOROUS.

—Experienced.—Chunk—"Doesn't a 'new woman' make you feel fairly mad?" Quiverful—"Yes; but she's not so bad as a new baby!"—Fun.

—"Why," demanded the court, "did you kill your wife?" The defendant's head sank upon his breast. "We were both opposed to divorce," he faltered.—Detroit Tribune.

—The Mean Thing.—He—"Don't you wish every year was leap year?" She—"Sir!" "Then your birthday would be one day later in getting around, you know."—Indianapolis Journal.

—Mrs. Newed—"Is your husband a domestic man?" Mrs. Henpeck—"He's the only domestic we keep. I have taught him to cook and wash dishes very nicely."—Philadelphia Record.

—Winks—"I understand you have lost your heart since you have seen the beautiful Miss Bjones." Binks—"No sir. On the contrary, I have found it." Somerville Journal.

—Old Quiverful—"And so you want to take our daughter from us; you want to take her from us suddenly without a word of warning?" Young Goslow—"Not at all, sir. If there is anything about her you want to warn me against, I'm willing to listen."—Brooklyn Life.

—His Guest—"And so your friend has been to Africa," she said to Derringer Dan. "That's what he has, ma'am." "Looking for diamonds?" "Yes, ma'am. Diamonds er clubs er spades er any old thing he happened ter feel the need of at the time."—Washington Star.

—The Illusion Dispelled.—Lady (a widow)—"Do you know, my daughter is quite smitten with you, Herr Muller?" Gent (feeling flattered)—"Really, now?" Lady—"A fact; she was only saying to-day: 'I should like that gentleman for my papa.'"—Deutscher Soldatenhort.

—"And you admit that you are a publisher of that pernicious form of reading known as the dime novel?" asked the long-faced man; "did you ever reflect, sir, how many have been ruined by your publications?" The man with the large diamond lighted a big, fat cigar. "Pho!" said he; "ten cents never ruined nobody."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

—A Strict Formalist.—Mrs. Quigg—"Of course, you have been in Europe, Mrs. Prigg?" Mrs. Prigg—"Oh, yes! I was there lawst yeah, and called on the queen, don't you know." Mrs. Quigg—"Indeed! You intend going over again, no doubt?" Mrs. Prigg—"Cawn't say. It would hawdly be pwoper form for me to do so until the queen has returned my call."—Richmond Dispatch.

Had the Last Word.

A group of children were going home to luncheon from school. They were little girls between the ages of seven and ten years, and, following the example of their older sisters, were discussing their clothes.

"I have a lovely new dress that I am going to wear to church next Sunday," said one of them.

"Pooh!" said a little one with brown eyes, "I've got a new hat, and I'm going to wear it every day."

This was too much for the little girl who was clothed the most shabbily in the whole party, and she said:

"I don't care; I've got heart disease, anyway."—Chicago Chronicle.

The Way of the World.

"Does Fewcads owe you money?"

"Yes; why do you ask?"

"I thought he owed you money; he goes about abusing you like a pickpocket."—Dallas (Tex.) Sifter.

If You Don't
READ THIS AD
You Don't
GET THE BENEFIT.
Van Emburgh
& SON'S
Fine Bleached
Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard.
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.
Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached
Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard
Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at
4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,
Corner Store, Babcock Building.

IF

You take advantage of the great closing out sale of Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at Edward Love's, and will let him do your spring decorating, you will be money in pocket.

Hope Chapel
Industrial Fair
And Loan Exhibition,
TO BE HELD IN Hope Chapel,
—ON—
February 12, 13, 14.
Doors open at 2:30 p. m.
ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

Stages will run during the afternoon and evening from Crescent Avenue Church by way of 5th and 7th streets alternately to chapel, commencing at 2 o'clock.
2 8 6

HEATH & DRAKE.
Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

New Embroideries,
Laces, Flouncings, etc.

Our assortment of these goods for the coming season is handsomer, more varied and complete than any we have yet shown, and embraces regular Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edges, Insertions and match sets in all grades and styles and a line of Exquisite Novelties which for new and original effects, exclusive and unique designs, are unsurpassed if not unequalled by any in the market.

Pretty Edgings and Embroideries Very Cheap.

A thousand lines could not tell the story any better. Great heaps of snowy Embroideries that first saw light in far off Switzerland are here.

In connection with our regular line we have purchased, direct from the manufacturers in St. Gaul, Switzerland, three large lots of Embroideries, which we will place on sale at one-third less than regglar prices.

Lot 1, 4c Yd. Lot 2, 8c Yd. Lot 3, 12c Yd

The wise ones ask no questions, but take them away in huge quantities.

777 and 779 Broad Street,
Newark, N. J.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

Ever Buy a Bedroom Suit

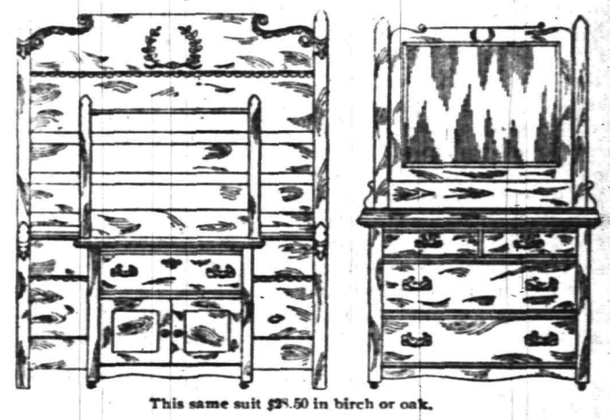
CASH OR CREDIT—LONG TIME GIVEN

Equal to this, at price lower than $28.50?



This same suit $28.50 in birch or oak.

It's a suit we've always sold for $45.00—honor bright! Made in birch or quartered oak, French bevelled plate, 24x38, superbly finished.

6 Chairs For $5.95

It's needless to say they're chairs that'll beautify any dining room—fine construction, cane seats, a true blue value.

Here's a Table

Exactly like this, 97 cts.

marked at 97 cts.—it's not a make that's always ready to "get out of joint"—sturdy build, finely finished oak or cherry, nice make—exactly like cut, easily worth $1.50.

See Us for Carpets

We've a big line, all patterns—here's a "price illustration:" all wool ingrains, 65 cts, a yard, made and laid with lining. Over twenty patterns on hand.

Goods selected now held until wanted—no cash needed. Deliveries made free of charge.

Ever heard of the Portland Range? Of course you have. It's nearly world famed by this time.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Etc.
TELEPHONE 580.
73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

One week commencing
Monday, February 10
Six nights and five matinees.
The Barnum of them all.
WAITE'S
Comedy Company
Premium Band and Orchestra.
35 PEOPLE 35
in a repertorie of new comedies, dramas and society plays. Change of play every performance.
Prices 10, 20 and 30c

POPULAR DIME MATINEES,
daily, starting Tuesday.

Monday night—The Black Flag.
Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1 Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

LIBRARY LIBERALITY.

Now That Plainfield Has a Library It Should be Properly Supported.

To the Editor of The Daily Press: —I ask space in your columns for the following paragraph of statistics relating to the free public libraries of Massachusetts:

In Massachusetts during the past year, (1895,) sixteen towns and cities have received handsome new library buildings through the munificence of wealthy citizens, while the towns in which no public libraries exist comprise, in all, only two per cent of the population of the State. Of the 353 towns and cities in the State, more than two-thirds (247) have free public libraries under municipal control, while 32 have free libraries in the management of which the town has a voice: 22 have libraries under private control, and 20 have free libraries supported entirely by private individuals. During the past year the State has given $200,000, individuals have given $168,000, and besides this, $156,000 has been received in bequests for the assistance of public libraries.

While it contains nothing new to many of your readers, it may, by showing what has been done in that State, lead others of them to appreciate more fully the gift of the late Job Male and to encourage with vote and influence a wisely, liberal use of public funds for its support and extension. When one considers these Massachusetts figures, together with the fact that the libraries of some of the smaller towns were founded in the last century, and even before the War of Indepependence, one feels that Plainfield, in view of its wealth and population, waited long enough for a public library. Certainly we cannot now afford to take a grudging attitude toward an institution which should rank in value with our schools, and should command a support no less liberal and hearty.

Howard Prescott Reynolds.

Funeral of Ambassador Runyon.

Arrangements have been completed for the funeral of Ambassador Runyon, whose body is now on its way to this country. The funeral will be held in St. Paul's church, Newark, on February 21st. As Mrs. Runyon and her two younger daughters will not return from Europe until May, the body will be placed in a receiving vault in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, at Newark, until their arrival. The arrangements for the funeral are in charge of Amzi Dodd, who is General Runyon's executor, and Franklin Murphy, a member of St. Paul's church and also a close personal friend of the late Ambassador, who was requested so to act by Mrs. Runyon in a cable message.

Tonight's Concert.

Miss Nina Rathbone, the well-known soprano, will appear at the concert of chamber music in the Casino tonight. Miss Rathbone has sung successfully with Theodore Thomas' orchestra, also on an extended tour with Anton Seidl's orchestra. Her reportoire consists of all the leading soprano roles of the standard operas. Besides this she is thoroughly equipped in all the oratorios, as well as a large number of classical songs and English ballads. Miss Rathbone has studied in France and Germany, and sings in English, French, German and Italian. The other participants are all artistic performers and will give a splendid concert.

Horse Lost His Life.

While driving along the borough end of Grant avenue, Saturday afternoon, the horse attached to the painter's wagon of Ferdinand Smith, of West Front street, met with an accident that caused its death. The horse stepped in a soft place in the road and sunk in. In struggling to get out, the animal sank deeper and deeper and at last fell over on its side snapping the bones in one leg so that the bone protruded through the flesh. The suffering equine had to be shot to end its sufferings.

If You Can't Eat, Hear the Music.

The ladies having in charge the supper in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church, on Thursday evening, have thought best to charge an admission fee of ten cents to their friends who are unable to take supper and yet desire to hear the musical programme and eat a plate of cream. Therefore if you cannot take supper with them, you can call and hear the musical programme by paying ten cents admission.

Action on a Brother's Death.

The regular meeting of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, was held last evening. The death of Geo. W. Nevius was acted upon, and a committee composed of D. W. Littell, P. A. Emmons and A. Swalm, was appointed to take charge of the funeral. It was resolved that the members of the Council attend the funeral in a body.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

GRIGGS' NOMINATIONS.

HE SENDS THE FIRST BATCH TO THE LEGISLATURE LAST NIGHT.

Talk of Impeaching a Prosecutor—Petitions Before the Senate—Resolution Against the Township School Law.

Gov. Griggs sent to the Senate last night the following five nominations: For Prosecutor of Passaic county, Eugene Embley; for District Court Judge of Paterson, ex-Assemblyman William J. Lewis; for District Court Judges of Jersey City, Roderick B. Seymour and Joseph D. Bedle; for member of the Board of Managers of the State Hospitals for the Insane, ex-Assemblyman John C. Eisele, of Newark.

In nominating the two District Court Judges for Jersey City, Gov. Griggs named one Republican and one Democrat. The Democrat is Joseph D. Bedle, whose father, when Governor, nominated the first District Court Judges in the State, and for Jersey City nominated one Democrat, Judge Randolph, and one Republican, Judge Blair. The Democratic Senate at the time refused to confirm Judge Blair, and Gov. Bedle appointed him ad interim. Gov. Griggs, as a member of the Legislature, was one of the most active in securing the passage of the bill establishing District Court Judges, and now, in nominating a Democrat, he is following the examples of Govs. Bedle and McClellan.

Governor Griggs sent into the Senate a second batch of nominations. They were: Thomas McCarter, Jr., and Fred F. Guild, for District Court Judges of Newark. McCarter is a Republican and Guild a Democrat.

Senator Daly presented to the Senate last night a petition which he asked to have referred to the judiciary committee without its being read. The petition was signed by John Kehoe, of Lyndhurst, Bergen county, and made serious charges against Prosecutor Peter W. Stagg, of the same county. Kehoe desires the impeachment of Stagg, but why he did not present the petition to the House, where impeachment proceedings originate, instead of addressing it to the Senate, is not apparent.

The petition makes general charges of failure to prosecute persons charged with high crimes and with acting in a cruel and inhuman manner against persons charged with light crimes.

The Bergen members speak of Kehoe as a man who has had trouble with Prosecutor Stagg, and who is probably actuated by some personal feeling in the premises.

The Senate last night did nothing but receive petitions and bills, with the exception that Senator Rogers' anti-religious garb bill came up in the regular order and was laid over at the request of the introducer, who said he would later on ask to have the bill set down for a special day.

Senator Hoffman presented a resolution of the State Board of Education against the report of the township school law. Senator Ketcham introduced a bill to enable Newark to erect a $300,000 public library. Senator Voorhees introduced a bill to have one Republican and one Democrat appointed by the Circuit Judge in each county to constitute a commission to prepare a list of persons eligible for jury duty.

The Assembly's Committee on Railroads and Canals gave a hearing yesterday on Mr. Flemming's bill to compel all railroads in Newark and Jersey City to elevate or depress their tracks at grade crossings. George McEwan, of Jersey City, a law partner of his brother, Congressman McEwan, spoke in favor of the measure. He said that in the past year there had been twenty-eight fatal accidents on the Erie Railroad grade crossings, and the demand for raised tracks was imperative.

James Allen, counsel of the Erie road, said he did not want to reply in detail until he had heard all the speakers in favor of the bill. He claimed that many of Mr. McEwan's statements had been misleading, particularly as to the number of accidents which later he would disprove by official reports.

The committee adjourned until next Monday night.

In the House last night Assemblyman Allen introduced a bill prohibiting the formation of trusts in the State, and asked that the bill be referred to the committee of the whole.

Assemblyman Hogan introduced a resolution directed against the combination of anthracite coal carriers to control the output and price of coal. The resolution, which was made a special order for today, directs the Attorney-General to inquire into the alleged combination, and, if it is found to exist, to proceed against the same or recommend necessary legislation to enable him to do so.

AUCTIONEER WITH DIAMONDS.

George O. Stevens Does Good Business For a Borough Church.

The Guild of the Church of the Redeemer conducted a very successful parcel sale at Dr. Johnstone's school rooms on Prospect place last night. The rooms were well filled with the members and their friends, who bid quickly on the articles for sale. Each person present brought parcels and there were about 150 in all.

George O. Stevens made a fine auctioneer, and an adornment of diamonds, weighing from one ounce to one pound, added very much to his position. Albert Sprowl was his clerk. The prices obtained ranged from 60 cents to $1.50, but the purchaser did not know what he had until reaching home. The proceeds, which were between $75 and $100, will be placed in the building fund.

The president of the Guild, Mrs. A. E. Faber, Jr., was in charge, assisted by Miss Grace Brown, Miss Emily Thompson, Miss Edith Clapp and Miss Florence Pond. The affair was entirely successful, and a similar entertainment will be held in the near future.

ASSORTED WEATHER.

A Little of Every Kind and Yet No One is Satisfied.

Plainfield has been treated to a general assortment of weather during the last ten days. First there came a snow storm, then the rain fell in such quanities that the country was flooded. next we had a warm spring-like day, but it changed back to winter and snow and rain fell. Yesterday was a delightful day but today there is a regular tornado blowing.

Early this morning all was quiet and the day promised to be a lovely one, but the wind rose to the occasion while the visions of a spring day eloped with the mercury in the thermometer and both took a rapid fall, There was lots of fun at the North avenue station this morning to see men, usually very grave and dignified, chasing wildly down the platform after their escaping headgear. No one dared laugh very much, as they could not tell who might be the next victim. Others besides the commuters had their hats stolen and the morning was full of funny incidents, funny only to the spectators, however.

The wind played havoc among the trees and twisted off branches in all directions. Grape arbors, signs and everything that the wind could lay hands on, showed the effects of the breeze that tore along almost sixty miles an hour.

Borough Changes.

Mr. Love, of Duer street, has purchased of A. D. Cook the house on Duer street now occupied by James Tilby. Mr. Love will move into his house April 1st, when Mr. Tilby will occupy the house No. 87 Duer street, belonging to B. J. Shreve and the present residence of Rev. George Hauser, pastor of the German Lutheran church, Mr. Hauser will move into the new parsonage, corner of Duer street and Park place, before April 1st.

Paid For Their Fun.

The story of the disturbance at Taylor's Hotel in Dunellen, which was told exclusively in yesterday's Daily Press, was aired in court yesterday and two of the offenders, Will Kennedy and Frank Kellar, got it "in the neck" or rather in the pocketbook, for Justice Huff was not inclined to be lenient and fined each of the disturbers of the peace $10. There is a warrant out for another of the Kennedy brothers and he will have to take his turn.

A March Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Jennie May Smith to Edward S. Weaver, both of the borough, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on John street, Wednesday evening, March 18th.

Caught Six 'Possums.

During last week's flood J. Hazlewood Craig, of Dunellen, captured six opposums near Jefferson avenue, Dunellen. He has five of them alive at present.

Mrs. S. S. Swackhamer, of Park avenue, is visiting her mother in White House.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

SOMERSET'S LOSS, $75,000.

That is the Estimated Damage Done By the Flood Last Week.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, N. J., Feb. 11.—The Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders are now in session. The estimated loss to bridges of the county by the flood of last week is about $75,000. The work of rebuilding and repairing the bridges will begin immediately. The most costly one that was totally destroyed, that is, the one that will cost the most to replace, is south of Somerville over the Raritan river, and known as the Veghte bridge. At Neshanic there is considerable loss. Two new bridges will have to be built and a large amount of filling in must be done, as many yards of the bank was washed away. Then there is more or less loss sustained by washaways near approaches to bridges that will necessarily entail much expense. The county will be a large sufferer by the flood and $75,000 is a fair estimate of its loss.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mrs. and W. C. Stanbery, of Scotch Plains, Married Fifty Years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stanbery, of Scotch Plains, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday at the home of their son, W. R Stanbery, where they were assisted by his wife and son. It was the intention of celebrating the event with a large gathering of relatives and friends, but owing to the death of Mrs. Stanbery's brother, Ambassador Theodore Runyon, the festivities were abandoned, and nothing but a quiet family dinner marked the unusual event.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanbery were married in the house on West Front street, opposite the First Baptist church, on Feb. 10th, 1846. Mrs. Stanbery is in rather feeble health, and has been under the physician's care for some time. Mr. Stanbery, however, is in the best of health, and is almost a daily visitor to this city, where he is a member of the Asbestos Club.

A singular incident of the celebration is the fact that the fifth wedding anniversary of their son, W. R. Stanbery, also occurs on the same date that his parents fiftieth takes place.

Happily Surprised.

A surprise was tendered to Mrs. I. C. VanNatta, 351 East Third street, last evening. The committee of arrangement were Mrs. S. G. Wrentmore and Miss Josie VanNatta. The evening was spent in dancing and games. Speeches were highly appreciated from J. Mound and Mr. Dean. Supper was served at midnight, and dancing was continued until a late hour in the morning. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sindeall, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. Mound, Mr. and Mrs. Boice, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wrentmore, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. VanNatta, Mr. and Mrs. Sharkey, Mrs. M. L. Hope, Miss Nacy, Miss Thompson, Miss Josie VanNatta, Miss Lillian Hope; Mr. Davis, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. Dean, Mr. Clacy, Mr. DeBeck and Fred Meeker.

Taught the Lesson by a Sand Map.

The Primary Teachers' Union held their regular meeting in the Y. M. C. A. small hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. T. H. Skillman, of New Brunswick, taught the lesson by the use of a sand map. The programme for the council meeting to be held in the First Presbyterian church, Newark, next Monday was read. The State executive committee will hold an important meeting at 9 o'clock Monday morning. There are many interesting numbers on the programme, and everyone who is at all interested in this department of Sunday-school work are earnestly invited to attend this conference.

A Great Opportunity.

Ten cents per line will be charged by the Leader for obituary notices for all business men who do not advertise while living. Delinquent subscribers will be charged five cents. Advertisers and cash subscribers will receive as good a sendoff as we can manufacture, top of column, next to reading matter, without any charge whatever. Send in your advertisements and subscriptions, as the grip is abroad in the land. Omit doing so and you do your heirs and estate a manifest injustice. —Westfield Leader.

Death of a New Market Woman.

Mrs. Richards, of New Market, widow of the late John Richards, died at her home this morning of pleurisy. Her husband died about Christmas time, and Mrs. Richards has not been well for some time past. One son, C. E. Richards, and one daughter, Mrs. DeWitt Giles, both of Piscataway township, survive her.

The Hygienic Food Co., of Orange, deliver in Plainfield daily their delicious Brown Bread prepared from their "Omnia" Flour. Ask your grocer to deliver a loaf the next time you are down town.

ODD DECISIONS IN LAW.

W. A. LORD SUES FOR $10,000 AND IS MULCTED FOR $5,000 HIMSELF.

Lord Lost His First Suit, and Was Then Made Defendant and by a Technicality of Law Was Beaten in the Other.

The Dry Goods Economist, of New York, published last week the following report of two suits in which William A. Lord, who lives at Netherwood, and who is well known in this city, was one of the principals:

A suit of special interest to commission firms and employers was decided last week before Judge McLean, at the Special Term of the Supreme Court in the suit of William A. Lord, an ex-employe of the firm of Spielmann & Co., for damages for an alleged breach of contract. Spielmann & Co., who are one of the leading dry-goods commission houses of this city, with headquarters at 87 Grand street, employed the appellant in this case from 1882 to 1893, to manage their tie silk department.

The suit of Lord was for $10,000 damages, and for an accounting of all the properties of the department for several years prior to 1893. Lord claimed to have a partnership interest in the business, and that under his contract with the defendants, he had a proprietary interest in the stock of the department. He also affirmed that in March, 1893, he visited Europe, in accordance with his usual custom, for the purpose of conferring with the foreign manufacturers with whom the firm dealt, and procuring sample collections for the ensuing year. That on his return in May, 1893, Spielmann & Co. forbade his entrance to their store, and refused any explanation for their so doing.

In their answer, the firm of Spielmann & Co. claimed that Lord was an employe of theirs, subject to their control. That in the spring of 1893 they were made aware that he (Lord) contemplated abandoning the business of the firm, and starting out on his own account, with other parties, prior to the termination of his contract with them; which contract ran until the first of January, 1894. That with this purpose Lord endeavored to obtain from the manufacturers, whose accounts were in the hands of Spielmann & Co., promises that they would transfer these accounts to him if he left Spielmann & Co. As an inducement for their so doing, Lord, it is stated, affirmed that he would be able to make arrangements which would result to the greater advantage of these manufacturers.

Spielmann & Co. testified that Lord had approached their manufacturers with this intent in February, 1893, and in March of that year, when the appellant expressed his intention of going to Europe, they forbade his departure and told him that if he should go, contrary to their instructions, it would be considered a breach of the contract. They further testified that Lord went to Europe in defiance of this command, and while there sought to divert the trade of the foreign manufacturers from Spielmann & Co. to himself, as before set forth. In consequence of this Spielmann & Co. terminated their contract with Lord and refused him entrance to their building.

Judge McLean dismissed Lord's complaint, holding that he was merely an employe of Spielmann & Co., and that because of his misconduct they were justified in discharging him. The Court also ordered a judgment against Lord and in favor of Spielmann & Co. for $5,025.23, the amount of cash advances made to him while he was in Spielmann & Co.'s employ, over and above the amount to which he was entitled.

Plucky Little Fox Terrier.

A pet fox terrier saved a valuable game for Thomas Quinn, of Park avenue yesterday. The bird escaped from the yard and a large chicken hawk pounced upon and carried the struggling fowl to a dried up well nearby. The little dog saw the hawk and pluckily rushed to the rescue, and after receiving some bad scratches saved the bird. The bird was badly injured.

Anxious for Bound Brook Friends.

Letters are pouring into Bound Brook from all over the country inquiring after friends in that borough. The report that so many had been killed badly frightened all who had friends there, and hosts of inquiries are the result.

The 10:45 Royal Blue line stopped at Plainfield this morning to take on board Walter Vail, whose home is in Los Angeles, Col. He has been visiting his father, Mahlon Vail, on Park avenue, for several weeks.

—The electric lamp at the corner of Somerset street and Linden avenue was completely torn off of the pole this morning by the high winds.

OVERDOING CHARITY.

Few People Realize How They Encourage Mendicacy by Alms Giving.

Andrew Carnegie in his speech donating the Pittsburg Library said that out of every thousand dollars given to charity nine hundred is given in such a way as to defeat the very object for which it is given. Promiscuous and liberal alms-giving promotes mendicacy. The well-meant efforts of the early Christians in the care of the poor almost resulted in national bankruptcy. In Italy, Spain, England and other countries, where institutions for the care of the poor were under the care of the church, the prosperity of the nation was corroded. Blind and pernicious alms-giving diffused habits of improvidence among the poorer classes; industrial energy was paralyzed, and as the historian has said: "The poverty retired was insignificant compared with the poverty produced."

During modern times, and especially in our own country, charity has become a civil and economic question. It is treated as a business.

The Organized Aid Association, working in harmony with the Relief Associations and with the aid committees of the various churches, aims to see that the largest amount of want is relieved with the smallest possible expenditure of money; that relief is not duplicated; that the cases of poverty and want are removed as fast as possible, and that the professional beggar is driven to work or is cast out of the community.

Dorgan Got Hilarious.

A man went into Goff's saloon last evening in a state bordering on intoxication. To his bewildered brain it seemed that he was lord of the place, and so he proceeded to enjoy himself. Policeman Flanagan interrupted his joy and assisted him to the lockup, where he spent the night. This morning he told City Judge DeMeza that his name was John Dorgan. As he was unable to pay the $5 fine imposed he went down to Elizabeth for a period of thirty days.

North Plainfield Public School Notes.

Physiology has been completed in the tenth grade and the final examinations in it have been taken. Those whose high standard during the year were the Misses Lydia E. Loizeaux, Adele H. Kirby, Edith H. Cooley, Emma L. Stevens, Bertha M. Stevens.

Exercises appropriate to Lincoln's Birthday were held this morning.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—All the grocery stores will close tomorrow afternoon.

—Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will hold a meeting this evening.

—Ground has been broken for a new house for James E. Pope on Duer street.

—The Crescent Coterie will hold another of its dances at the Olympia this evening.

—The T. A. B. Society will hold a dance at their hall this evening. Prof. O'Reilly will furnish the music.

—A festival and dance will be given tomorrow evening by the Roman Catholic church of Metuchen to the workers in the fair recently held there. Prof. O'Reilly, of this city, will furnish the music.

—The entertainment to be given by the Holy Cross Brotherhood takes place Thursday evening instead of this evening. The Daily Press was misinformed as to the time as reported last evening.

—The three lads named Dunavan, Baker and Huff, who were charged with throwing stones at passenger trains Saturday afternoon, came up before City Judge DeMeza last evening. Baker was convicted of throwing stones and was fined $3. Sentence was suspended on the other two.

Jed Smalley, of Craig place, visited friends in Rahway last night.

Lettercarrier E. E. Hann was off duty yesterday on account of illness.

Mrs. Taynor, of East Third street, is improved from a recent stroke of paralysis.

Miss Clara Buckle, of Westervelt avenue, entertained a few of her friends at her home Saturday evening.

Miss Keys, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting at the home of B. R. Force, of East Front street, left for her home last evening.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

PAYING FOR BONDS

Nearly $9,000,000 Deposited at New York Sub-Treasury.

GOLD RECEIVED FOR EXAMINATION

Explanation of the Story Regarding the Rejection of Certain Deposits—The Treasury Not an Annex for a Bullion Broker's Office.

New York, Feb. 11.—The deposits of gold in the sub-treasury up to this morning in payment for bonds amount to $8,749,524.15. In addition considerable gold has been deposited for examination. The report that the sub-treasury had rejected gold arose in this way: For some time past a bullion broker on Wall street has been turning in legal tenders for gold and selling the gold at a premium. Yesterday afternoon he presented $800,000 in legal tenders and withdrew the same amount of gold. Five hundred thousand dollars were immediately turned into the bond department. On the second transaction of $300,000 he secured the gold in bags and gave it to the clerks of the firms who had subscribed for the 4's, and who had accompanied him to the sub-treasury. It was then that Assistant Treasurer Jordan objected to having the sub-treasury used as an annex to a bullion broker's office. The dealer in question made charges of favoritism against Mr. Jordan, but the pith of his argument lies in the fact that he did not care to cart the gold from the sub-treasury and then bring it back. Probably such a course would reduce the insignificant profit he secures by selling government gold drawn out through the agency of legal tenders.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEED.

Secretary Morton Replies to Senator Vest's Charges of Favoritism.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Referring to the charge of Senator Vest that the secretary of agriculture had distributed 150,000 more packages of seed in Nebraska than that state was entitled to last year, Secretary Morton says: "Under the law one-third of the seed purchased was distributed by the secretary of agriculture. In accordance with that provision, some years ago when there was great suffering along the sea islands of the Carolina coast, the secretary of agriculture, through Clara Barton and the Red Cross, gave a great portion of the one-third of the seed which he was authorized to distribute to the people whose fields and gardens had been ruined by the tidal wave. As to that very large distribution of seed to those southern sufferers no complaint was made. Therefore, during the recent seasons of extreme drouth in the northwest the secretary of agriculture frankly confesses that he gave far more than the normal quota of seed to Nebraska, Kansas and each of the Dakotas and to Oklahoma."

SAVED BY HER CORSET.

A Chester, Pa., Woman's Unsuccessful Attempt To Commit Suicide.

Chester, Pa., Feb. 11.—The corset that she wore saved the life of Mrs. James Greaves, when she attempted to shoot herself late last night on Fourth stree. Mrs. Greaves went to her husband's place of business with a loaded revolver in her hand and upbraided him for his alleged devotion to another woman. A policeman passed them and the husband told him that she was armed. She turned and ran, and when followed by the officer pointed the pistol at him and then turned the pistol upon herself and fired. She was taken to the hospital supposed to have been fatally wounded, but an examination showed that the bullet had penetrated her clothing, struck her corset and glanced harmlessly away. She was afterwards placed under arrest.

New England Bowling Record.

Putnam, Conn., Feb. 11.—Fred S. Flye, of this place, rolled a phenomenal score on Allen's alleys yesterday afternoon, which gives him the record for New England for the "Cocked Hat Game." He scored forty-three with ten balls. He made four strikes, of which three were consecutive, and made two spares. The record of the alleys has been twenty-seven pins.

Knocked Out in One Minute.

Boston, Feb. 11.—In the presence of 1,500 people assembled at the old West Newton street armory last evening Ed Connoly of St. Johns, N. B., defeated Maurice Hagerstrom of Newark, N. J., at 132 pounds, in a twelve-round bout in a decisive manner in one minute and four seconds.

Not a Student of Harvard.

Boston, Feb. 11.—In the newspapers of Saturday, February 8, it was said that Willis S. McCornick, who that morning assaulted a mail carrier, was a student in Harvard university. It has since been learned that McCornick has never been a student in any department of the university.

Little Falls Election Bill Signed.

Albany, Feb. 11.—Gov. Morton last night signed the bill to postpone today's election in Little Falls until fall and providing that the village election shall hereafter be held in the fall invariably instead of spring.

Drowned While Returning from School.

Middletown, N. Y., Feb. 11.—While Maggie Collard and Mabel Winters, each about 13 years of age, were returning from school last evening at Winterton, they attempted to cross an overflowed pond and were drowned.

Rockhill To Succeed Uhl.

Washington, Feb. 11.—William W. Rockhill of Maryland, the present third assistant secretary of state has been selected to succeed Mr. Uhl as first assistant secretary.

LOOKING TO IMPEACHMENT.

Charges Preferred Against the Prosecutor of Bergen County, N. J.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 11.—A communication reached the legislature last night through Senator Daly of Hudson, which has for its object, no doubt, the impeachment of Peter W. Stagg, the prosecutor of the pleas of Bergen county. Senator Daly had the communication referred to the judiciary committee. The communication is from John G. Kehoe, a resident of Lyndhurst, Bergen county. He charges Prosecutor Stagg with having corruptly and criminally disregarded his duty in not having prosecuted certain persons for high crimes and misdemeanors and with having cruelly and inhumanely prosecuted certain other persons for light crimes. Kehoe charges that Stagg prevailed upon Columbus Randolph to plead guilty to an indictment for selling liquor without a license, using the threat that he had $10,000 of the state's money and would use it to convict him. On sentence day Randolph apprised the court of the threat and he alleges was allowed to retract his plea. In July last, he continues, a man named Hoffman was robbed and sandbagged by two men. The prosecutor refused to take the assailants before their victim and he died, and now, since they cannot be identified, it is impossible to convict them. Kehoe also accused Stagg of having approached him while he was a member of the grand jury to have certain men indicted. Other serious charges are preferred against Stagg in the document.

TO EXTEND RECIPROCITY.

An Effort To Get Rid of Our Surplus Agricultural Products.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The house committee on accounts has decided to recommend the passage of the resolution presented by Mr. Tawney, rep., Minn., authorizing the committee on ways and means to investigate the reciprocity question. The inquiry will be conducted by a sub-committee headed by Mr. Tawney which may employ an expert. The scope of the inquiry is outlined in the resolution, which recites that it is desirable to extend the export of surplus agricultural and manufactured products of the United States to foreign countries, and that in certain countries the importation of these products is restricted by discriminating duties; therefore, the committee on ways and means is directed to report in what countries such restrictions are in force, the causes alleged therefor, their effect upon our foreign commerce as relating to the trade resulting from the commercial agreements with foreign countries entered into after October 30, 1890 (under the Blaine reciprocity treaties).

PRESENTS FOR MRS. GRESHAM.

The Mikado Remembers Kindly Acts of Her Late Husband Towards Japan.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—Shiniciro Kuniro, the Japanese envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States, is in this city accompanied by his secretary. Their mission here is to present to Mrs. Walter Q. Gresham beautiful vases and tapestry from the palace from the emperor of Japan which that ruler has sent to Mrs. Gresham in recognition of the friendly attitude of the late secretary of state toward that country, particularly in connection with the last treaty between the two countries.

POSTAL RECEIPTS.

An Increase for January, 1896, Over the Same Month Last Year.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The receipts of thirty of the largest postoffices of the United States for the month of January, 1896, amounted to $2,942,340, a net increase over the first month of 1895 of $215,000. All the offices show an increase except San Francisco and Milwaukee, where the decrease was $725 and $5,606 respectively. New York city heads the list, followed by Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Brooklyn, the next half dozen largest cities, in receipts.

Cramps May Get the Contract.

Washington, Feb. 11.—It is stated at the treasury department that Cramp's Sons of Philadelphia, at their bid of $198,000 for building revenue cutter No. 8, will probably be awarded the contract.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot market demand dull and weak. February, 73¾c.; March, 74¾c.; May, 72⅝c.

Corn—Spot quiet but held steady. February, 36⅜c.; May, 36½c.

Oats—Spot held firm, but quiet. February, 25⅛c.; March, 25½c.; May, 25⅝c.

Pork—Spot steady with fair demand. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $11.00@$11.25.

Lard—Contracts are dull and easy. May, $5.90.

Butter—There is a fair trade in fancy creamery and the tone of the market is firmer, but not higher. Creamery, western extras, 19c. State and Pennsylvania, seconds to best, 14@17½c.; creamery, western, seconds to firsts, 14@17½c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, seconds to firsts, 12@15c.

Cheese—Fancy September is held firmly with demand good. State, full cream, large size, September colored, choice, 9a10¼c.; September white fancy, 9@10¼c.; large common to choice, 7¼@10c.

Eggs—Receipts are liberal but not excessive and holders generally firm at 14¾@15c. for best western.

Potatoes—The demand for choice grades continues slow and the market weak. State Burbank, per 180 pounds, 65@80c., and state rose and Hebron, per 180 pounds, 85@90c.

THE SULTAN YIELDS

Will Permit Miss Barton To Distribute Relief to Armenians.

MR. TERRELL'S EFFORTS SUCCESSFUL

Another Letter Received in This Country Telling of the Terrible Sufferings of Christians at the Hands of the Bloodthirsty Kurds.

Constantinople, Feb. 11.—The representative of the United Press learns that the Hon. A. W. Terrell, the American minister, has procured for Miss Clara Barton and her assistants, who are now enroute for this city, the sultan's safeguard, which will allow them to visit the six distressed provinces of Anatolia and personally distribute relief among the sufferers.

Work of the Barbarous Kurds.

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—The denial of the stories by the porte that Armenians are being given the choice of accepting Islamism or death would seem to be again refuted by undeniable evidence. H. M. Siraganian, who recently learned of the murder of his father, the Rev. M. Siraganian, a Baptist missionary, and thirteen relatives, by Kurds and Turks, yesterday received a letter from his son at Arabkis. This letter is dated Jan. 13, and is as follows: "We have wept already on the misery of our country. You also read, and think, and weep. The barbarous Kurds suddenly attacked us. Those of us who could walk escaped to the mountains, with the hope of saving our lives, as we had no means to protect ourselves in other ways. For four days we wandered in the rocky hills that surround our villages, hungry, thirsty, naked and unprotected. After four days we went back to our homes filled with awe and anxiety, but, alas, there was not even left a dry loaf of bread or a handful of flour or a piece of carpet. They had carried away everything; however, our misery did not end with this. Our enemies did not give us time enough to mourn our lost property, and, above all, our wronged honor. They came back after two days with double forces and burned down all the houses left unburned.

Forced To Accept Islamism.

"I am unable to describe all the particulars of it because after seeing that bloody scene I have lost reason and everything. Dear father, your Christian son is now a Mohammedan (nay, by name only), as they forced us to accept their religion as a means of salvation. My name is Mohammed Zeki. If you ever write to me please address me in that name, or I will never get your letter. We have no bread to eat, no home to live in, but that gives us no more pain than to see our church robbed of all its glory and made a mosque of. Instead of the ringing of the bells we hereafter will hear the voice of Imam (Turkish minister), and instead of psalms and hallelujahs the praises of Mohammed. Blessed are those who are dead. They were more fortunate than we are. We also will die, while there seems to be no mercy in this world. We will die, but alas, they will even decline a little space near our forefathers in the church yard. Mohammedan priests will say prayers upon our graves. Think, dear father, about our condition. Accept your son's salutation. Perhaps it is the last."

Attempt To Arrest Rev. Geo. Knapp.

London, Feb. 11.—The Daily News to-day publishes a dispatch from Constantinople, dated February 8, which reports that an attempt has been made by Turkish officials at Bitlis to arrest the Rev. George P. Knapp, one of the American missionaries there, on a charge of sedition and murder based on an accusation wrung by Turkish methods from an Armenian prisoner. The dispatch adds that the Hon. A. W. Terrell, the American minister, insists to the porte that if the charge is maintained that Mr. Knapp shall be brought to Constantinople to be tried before

The Only

Great and thoroughly reliable building-up medicine, nerve tonic, vitalizer and Blood Purifier

Before the people today, and which stands preeminently above all other medicines, is

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

It has won its hold upon the hearts of the people by its own absolute intrinsic merit. It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story:—

Hood's Cures

Even when all other preparations and prescriptions fail.

"As a blood purifier we cannot find the equal of Hood's Sarsaparilla. When any of our family complain of headache or tired feeling we get Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time we are in good health." RUTH R. MATHER, 250 Short St., Aurora, Illinois.

Get HOOD'S

Hood's Pills are tasteless, mild, effective. All druggists. 25c.

Premature

 Old Age

is deplorably prevalent in this nineteenth century. Thousands die annually—young in years, but as completely worn out as though the full allotment of their time had passed over their heads. The man who feels that he is "breaking down," experiences loss of strength, sleep, and appetite, should at once take that greatest of concentrated food preparations. It is not a medicine, but a builder-up of brain, nerve, and flesh tissue. By its strength-giving properties, and its action as an invigorator of each of the great life-maintaining organs of the body, it stops the decline, and gives to the prematurely broken-down sufferer a new lease of life, wherein poor health is an unnecessary adjunct if its use is continued.

Bovinine

CATARRH ELY'S Cream Balm

COLD IN HEAD

Is quickly absorbed, cleanes the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell.

It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c. at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS. 56 Warren st., New York

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Mrs D T 2	Lane Samuel
Freeman A L	Mackentire Jos
Huff Bros	Mulligan Ellen
Halliday Frank	McKinley John
Huck Paulina	McLaughlin Mr C
Kingsbury John	Pope Alex Mrs 3
Kitchen Matie W	Robinson Jas A
King T P	Robertson R Mrs
Lackenasen Rachael	VanDerveer Francis

Zimmerman Josie Miss

In Buying a Piano or an Organ

do not fail to examine the latest Mason & Hamlin models. Recent improvements render them unexcelled. Old pianos or organs taken in exchange. Instruments sold for cash or easy payments.

Catalogues and full information free. Pianos of reliable makers from $200 upwards.

Mason & Hamlin Co.

136 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

W.L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

Public Accountant.

S. R. Struthers, 917 Madison ave., offers his services to staighten intricate accounts, open or close books of account, make trial balances and balance sheets and to write up generally small sets of books. 1 7 1m

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday eveningsof each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. t.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND.

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

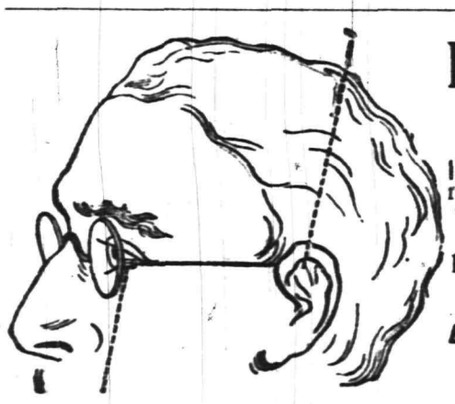
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS.

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

1o7 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

No. 169 North avenue.
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.

Best Dairy Butter 18c.

V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
120 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER, Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 188a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair prices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street.
6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
Chas. H. Herring, Contracting Agent, 403 East 2d st.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y
Write for Catalogue.

Do not be deceived by infringements of name, package or cigarette.
THE ONLY GENUINE
Sweet Caporal Cigarettes
Bear the fac simile signature of
Kinney Bros
on the package and on each cigarette.
TAKE NONE WITHOUT.

IF

You take advantage of the great closing out sale of Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at Edward Love's, and will let him do your spring decorating, you will be money in pocket.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given that the account of the subscriber, administrator of Augustus D. Holmes, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the first day of April next.
Dated January 27, 1896.
1 28 10-caw JOHN G. FAXON.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscriber, executor of John Harris, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the county of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of February, next.
WILLIAM W. HARRIS.
Dated December 16, 1895. 12 24 9-caw

GEO. O. STEVENS
COAL
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

VENEZUELAN AFFAIR

Salisbury and Balfour Prepare a Carefully Worded Statement.

SOON TO BE READ IN PARLIAMENT

Willing To Arbitrate the Question of Territory Not Occupied by British Settlements—Anxiety To Close the Trouble.

London, Feb. 11.—No importance is attached to the absence from the queen's speech, read in the house of commons yesterday, of any reference to arbitration of the Venezuelan dispute. No experienced politician expected that any reference would be made to the subject, for the reason that the speech is never the vehicle of merely incipient developments. The representative of the United Press learns that Prime Minister Salisbury and the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, have prepared a carefully guarded statement, which they will make in the house of lords and house of commons early in the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech, affirming the willingness of the government to arbitrate the question of the territory that is not occupied by British settlements. Opinion in the National Liberal club grows every day more intense in favor of closing the dispute on any terms consonant with national honor. As the declarations of the ministers are not likely to be satisfactory to the liberals, it is believed that Sir William Vernon Harcourt, their leader in the house of commons, will move an amendment to the address affirming that arbitration of the boundary question ought to be accepted by Great Britain.

BOND AND TARIFF BILL.

Senator Quay Will Withdraw His Resolution To Divorce the Measures.

Washington, Feb. 11.—An arrangement, it is said, has been made in the senate whereby Mr. Quay is to withdraw his resolution to recommit the tariff bill, and the vote will be taken on the bill and substitute as it was reported to the senate by the committee. Mr. Morrill, chairman of the finance committee, has given notice that he will call the bill up to-morrow and seek to make it the unfinished business. Republicans have little fear of the free silver substitute being favorably acted upon, but they see no hope of the ultimate passage of the house bill or any other tariff provision. According to statements made this morning by a prominent republican member of the committee, thirteen or fourteen anti-silver democrats will vote against the free coinage substitute and all the silver republicans will vote against it, with the possible exception of Teller and Mantle. But when the tariff bill is thus divorced from the silver question, it is asserted that the combined vote of the democrats and populists will be cast in favor of a motion to table the bill, and this may defeat it.

WILL OF W. H. ENGLISH.

An Estate of About $4,000,000 Divided, Principally Among Relatives.

Indianapolis, Feb. 11.—The will of the late William H. English, just filed for probate, gives $2,500 to the Indiana Historical society; $1,000 for the completion and publication of his history of Indiana; $5,000 cash and two pieces of real estate to his stenographer, Miss Ruth Hedges; $3,000 to Alice Wick, the orphan daughter of a valued friend; one-half of the residue of his estate, amounting to about $2,000,000, to his son, W. E. English; one-eighth to each of his grandchildren, Willoughby George Walling and William English Walling of Chicago, to be paid to them when they are 21 years of age, and the remaining one-quarter of the estate to his daughter, Rosalinda English Walling, mother of the two boys.

BLOCKED WITH ICE.

Many Vessels Tied Up Along the Newfoundland Coast.

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 11.—The whole eastern coast of Newfoundland is blockaded with ice from Cape Bonavista to Cape Race. St. Johns' harbor has been cut off for ten days from the outside world. There is a whole fleet of shipping outside waiting a chance to enter. The steamer Barcelona, from Liverpool, off Cape Race, reports meeting heavy Arctic ice 250 miles off. All the sealing fleet cannot get out to reach the northern harbors, whence they sail. The fishery blockade is proving most disastrous to business.

Indian Lands.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning has informed the White Earth tribe of Chippewa Indians in Minnesota that congress would have to pass a law for their relief regarding the increase of allotments of lands from 80 to 160 acres per Red Man as requested by them.

Forger Sentenced.

Boston, Feb. 11.—William H. Carlen, alias Tinnie Smith, has been sentenced to the state prison for a period not to exceed fourteen and to be not less than eight years. His crimes were forgery and breaking and entering shops in the night time.

May Save the Schooner Scudder.

New London, Conn., Feb. 11.—Wrecker Scott, who has returned from Orient Point, where schooner Henry J. Scudder, coal laden, is ashore, thinks the vessel can be saved, but most of her cargo has been washed away.

Death of Congressman Crain.

New York, Feb. 11.—W. H. Crain, representative in congress from the eleventh district of Texas, who died in Washington yesterday, graduated from St. Francis Xavier's college in this city in 1861.

CLAIMANTS FOR STATEHOOD.

House Committee To Vote on the New Mexico and Arizona Petitions.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The house committee on territories will take a vote to-morrow on the proposition to admit New Mexico and Arizona to statehood. When the matter came up last week, the opponents of statehood tried to table the proposition, but were defeated by a vote of seven to six. If the seven members of the committee who held together on the preliminary divisions vote to recommend statehood, the remaining six will present a strong minority report and take the contest into the house itself. The committee contains fifteen members, two of whom, Delegates Murphy and Catron, are not entitled to a vote. The six who have steadily voted against everything that looked towards statehood for the territories are Chairman Scranton, rep., Pa.; Knox, rep., Mass.; Low, rep., N. Y.; Hadley, rep., Ill.; Harrison, dem., Ala., and Taft, rep., O. These are all sound-money men. The members of the other faction are divided, politically—four republicans to three democrats. One of the democrats, Owens of Kentucky, is rated as on the fence. He is a sound-money man, and has hardly made up his mind on the question of admitting any more silver territories. There is a great deal of political playing in the committee, and those who are at heart most opposed to granting the enabling acts touch the question very gingerly in the meetings.

PANIC AT MADRID.

An Aerolite Explodes and People Are Injured in a Stampede.

Madrid, Feb. 11.—A panic was caused in this city by the bursting of an aerolite. A shock like earthquake accompanied the explosion, which took place in the atmosphere, some distance from the city. The people in the suburbs of Madrid were also panic-stricken by the explosion. The operatives in the factories, the children in the schools and the employes and others in the markets rushed into the streets in a wild stampede, believing that the world was about to be destroyed. Many of them threw themselves prone upon the ground and commended their souls to God, while others in a frenzy of terror rushed hither and thither crying upon the saints to save them. Many persons were injured in the aimless rushes by running into each other or by being thrown down and trampled upon. The shock of the explosion was so great in the city that it caused the collapse of one house, and threw down a partition wall in the building occupied by the American legation. The shock was strongly felt in Guadalajara, the province bounding the province of Madrid on the northeast, and in other places. Among the superstitious the visit of the aerolite is believed to have been a dire portent.

THE YALE LIBRARY.

A Donor Found Who Will Pay for the Gneist Collection.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 11.—There have been bought for the Yale library 10,000 volumes, chiefly relating to political history and law, formerly belonging to the library of Prof. Gneist of Berlin, Germany, one of the best authorities on the legal and institutional history of England. The bookseller who had the library issued a circular offering the whole collection for the price of 10,000 marks ($2,500) to the first person who presented himself as a buyer. Prof. Henry W. Farnam, whom the circular reached, immediately cabled acceptance. Prof. Farnam took this action upon his own responsibility, but a donor has since been found who will supply the money.

Nominations by Gov. Griggs.

Trenton, Feb. 11.—Gov. Griggs has made the following nominations: For district court judges in Newark—Frederick F. Guild and Thomas N. McCarter, jr. For district court judges in Jersey City—R. E. Seymour and Joseph D. Bedle. For manager of state hospitals, John Eisele of Newark. For prosecutor of the pleas in Passaic county, Eugene Emley. For district court judge in Paterson, Wm. I. Lewis.

Booth Declines To Speak at New Haven.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 11.—Gen. Ballington Booth of the Salvation Army has notified the local headquarters that he will not deliver an address here February 21 as had been expected. His refusal to speak in this city is on account of not having a suitable hall. Both big opera houses have been engaged for that evening.

Kruger Demands Conditions.

Pretoria, Transvaal, Feb. 11.—President Kruger has informed Sir Hercules Robinson that he is willing to go to England in response to the invitation extended him by the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain on condition that the subjects to be discussed by himself and Mr. Chamberlain shall be specified beforehand.

Oyster Beds Damaged by the Storm.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 11.—Examination of oyster beds in this vicinity is being made to ascertain the extent of the damage caused by the storm of last week. An expert says that he does not believe the deep sea beds were much injured, but that great damage had been done to the shallow water beds.

Victory for Utica Bowlers.

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 11.—The Central City Nine-Pin club met the Acme club of Utica in North Salina street last evening and were beaten by 252 points. The Utica club has some very clever men, as a few of their large scores testified.

Palisades Park Bill.

Albany, Feb. 11.—Gov. Morton has signified his intention of signing this week the bill for the preservation of the Palisades.

MR. EDISON'S X-RAYS

Not Yet Ready for Photographing the Brain.

THE WIZARD CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

He Is Working Out a Plan Whereby the Rays Will Have Only One Thickness of Skull To Penetrate.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 11.—Thomas Edison is attempting to secure the best vacuum in the tubes which are to be used in his new method of photography. There is some doubt in his mind as to the degree of vacuum in the tubes that will produce the best results. He will not try to photograph the brain of a man until he is sure that he has decided upon the proper vacuum. He has decided to change his original plan for photographing the brain, and will have a special plateholder, two inches by two inches in size, which will be placed in the mouth of the subject, while the battery of tubes will be placed on top of the subject's head. In this way there will be only one thickness of skull for the X rays to go through. Mr. Edison is confident of success. He has just secured some shadow photographs showing the rays passing through steel bars a half inch in thickness. He found that on substituting steel plates for the aluminum ones in the tubes no rays were developed, they being absorbed by the steel. Mr. Edison says that after making thorough experiments in photographing the human brain he will take up the question of the effect of the rays upon bacteria. He claims that the rays will retard the germination of bacilli, and believes that they will destroy them. He intends making an exhaustive series of experiments on this point.

ACQUISITION OF CUBA.

And Alliance with All American Republics Urged by a New York Assemblyman.

Albany, Feb. 11.—The following resolution was offered last night and made a special order for next Monday night: Resolved (if the senate concur), that the inevitable destiny of the United States urgently demands that the government of the United States shall at once inaugurate a foreign and domestic policy as follows: First, the immediate construction of coast defences upon the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards and also upon the Great lakes. Second, the building of a navy which will make the United States a first class power and not sixth class among the nations of the world. Third, an alliance with Mexico and the states of Central and South America, offensive and defensive. Fouth, the acquisition of Cuba by the United States, preferably by purchase. Resolved, that copies of these resolutions be forwarded to the congress and the president of the United States.

PITTSBURG COAL SCALE.

President Dearmit Declines To Meet the Arbitration Committee.

Pittsburg, Feb. 11.—President Wm. P. Dearmit of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company has sent a reply to secretary William H. Warner regarding the proposition of the joint committee of ten to co-operate with Mr. Dearmit in establishing conditions of uniformity in the Pittsburg coal district. President Dearmit will not meet the arbitration committee. He says he has never refused to aid in attempts to establish uniformity and will continue the work begun if it is placed in the hands of a commission with authority to do all that the investigation demands. He criticizes operators and miners for recent actions.

KENTUCKY DEADLOCK.

Hunter Again One Vote Short of Election to the United States Senate.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 11.—There were 102 members present in the joint assembly when the vote for United States senator was resumed this week, and Hunter once more came within one vote of an election. This happened as the result of a pair between Senator Ogilvie, democrat, and Representative Poor, populist, who were absent. The vote stood: Hunter, 51; Blackburn, 46; scattering, 5. Necessary to a choice, 52. This is expected to be the most interesting week of the session and it is claimed will see the end of the prolonged deadlock.

Another Fiasco Probable.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The projected Fitzsimmons-Maher prize fight seems almost certain to end in a fiasco. This government is determined to prevent any contest on its territory as is evidenced from the words of Attorney General Harmon, that if the pugilists fight on our soil they will be prosecuted to the ends of the earth, while Minister Romero declares that it will not occur in Mexico.

Receiver for Building Association.

York, Pa., Feb. 11.—The York Trust, Real Estate & Deposit company has been appointed receiver of the Anchor Building & Loan association of York. The liabilities of the association are placed at $109,000. It is said the assets will not reach $60,000.

American Fishing Schooner Wrecked

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 11.—American fishing schooner Resolute, of Gloucester, Mass., which struck a rock off Lorraine, near Lewisburg, Sunday night, is a total wreck. One of the crew was drowned.

For Murdering His Young Wife.

Fonda, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Seven jurors were in the box this morning when court opened in the trial of William Youngs of Fort Hunter charged with the murder of his young wife a few weeks ago in a fit of jealousy.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

105 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 11, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Fair and Colder Tonight and Wednesday.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 35 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 11—Lecture of Dr. Riggs in Crescent Avenue Church chapel at 8 p. m.
February 11—Dance at the Olympia.
February 11—Concert of Chamber Music at the Casino.
February 11—Dance in T. A. B. Hall.
February 12—Lincoln Club's dinner at the Casino.
February 12—Entertainment of the Sons of Veterans.
February 12—Hope Chapel Industrial Fair opens.
February 13—Supper in Trinity Reformed Church.
February 13—Adjourned business meeting of the W.C.T.U.

John Kean is said to be a Reed man.

Lincoln's birthday will not be generally observed tomorrow.

The Legislature started to work last night. Let them keep it up.

Since science has demonstrated that the brain can be photographed there is satisfaction in knowing that photographs cannot talk.

A colored Republican club of Orange has resolved that "the object of this organization is not to accept nor even to ask for the feeble presentment commonly known as beer and cigars." Which looks as though a presentment more material would be gratefully accepted.

There is no "favorite son" for New Jersey to waste votes upon in the national conventions, and the choice of Jerseymen of either political faith is not fixed upon any great party leader. The great majority want the delegates at the conventions to do what seems best for their country and their party, and to reach that conclusion by conference with delegates from other States, and by carefully estimating the strength of the various forces at work. A large number would like to have the Jersey delegation on the winning side in each convention, but it is still better to be on the right side. The selection of delegates should be according to the capacity and fairness and acquaintance of the candidate for the delegation, and not with too much effort for one Presidential aspirant or another, the situation being such that combined judgment at the convention would be better than preconceived opinions.—Newark Call.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Valentines of all kinds at Harper's.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of Warren Chapel will meet this evening in the chapel. All are invited.

—This is not in fun, it is the real cut that Harry M. Jaquett is offering in boys and children's overcoats and suits for this week only.

—The Young Men's Association of Monroe Avenue chapel will hold an important business meeting Friday evening. A musical entertainment will be considered.

—Avoid Pneumonia, diphtheria and typhoid fever, by keeping the blood pure, the appetite good and the bodily health vigorous by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

—The new library for the Sunday-school of the Trinity Reformed church was opened Sunday for the first. It is thoroughly satisfactory and a model one in every respect.

—The Ancient Order of Hibernians will meet Thursday night in the Sons of Temperance hall, and install the officers-elect, after which there will be a collation and smoker.

—The Advance, the paper of Grace P. E. parish, this month publishes a hymn entitled, 'Sing, O Sing, this Blessed Morn," by Emerson Cleveland Howard, of this city.

—The regular meeting of Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., will be held tomorrow evening in the S. of T. rooms. Business of importance is to come up before the meeting.

—It is requested that every member of Union 155, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, will be present at the meeting this evening as there will be business of importance transacted.

—On account of a quorum not being present, the Grocers' Association held no meeting last evening. An adjournment was made to next Monday night, when the question of changing the name of the association will be discussed.

—Robert Rushton, Jas. C. Hansen and Alfred Luthman have resigned their position with Woolston & Buckle and gone into the painting and paper-hanging business for themselves. Their address is P. O. Box 773. For further information see their card in another column.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Alex. Muir has just returned from a trip to Poughkeepsie.

I. Hirshland, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in this city today.

Robert Kimball of Stamford, Conn., spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Wm. Schorb and family, of Clinton avenue, have moved to the Hotel Central.

Mrs. S. P. Brown, of Dunellen, was the guest of relatives in this city yesterday.

Miss Margaret Cave, of Sandford avenue, has been entertaining a cousin.

Mrs. Richard Warnock, of East Front street, is visiting relatives in Westfield.

Miss Anna Stephenson, of Newark, is visiting relatives in Plainfield for a short time.

Miss Edna Leonard, of Bolton, Mass., is visiting her cousins on Madison avenue.

Miss Emma Miller, of Stamford Conn., is visiting Miss Mollie Janes, of First place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Baxter, of Putnam avenue, are entertaining relatives from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mundy, of Boston, expect to visit relatives in this city very soon.

Mrs. George B. Wean, of Clinton avenue, is kept at home with a severe attack of neuralgia.

Adam Fritz, of Somerset street, has left for the west, where he will purchase a number of horses.

Miss Margaret Case, of Sandford avenue, entertained a few friends from Brooklyn on Sunday.

Robert Moore, telegraph operator at Dover, Morris county, spent Sunday in Plainfield with friends.

Chauncey S. Burt, of West Seventh street, returned Sunday to Princeton College, after a short stay at home.

Mrs. Charles Westphal, of South Second street, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Gray, in Brooklyn.

Miss Mary Randolph, of South Plainfield, has returned home after a pleasant visit in town with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Baglin have returned to Plainfield after a few days visit at Mr. Baglin's home in Newark.

Raymond Hodge, of Plainfield avenue, is recovering from a recent illness that has confined him to the house.

A bright little nine-pound girl arrived in the family of Elmer S. Garretson, of West Front street, Sunday evening.

The Misses Bogartus, of New York, formerly of Plainfield, have been the guests of Mrs. C. T. Nightingale, of Sandford avenue.

Miss Sarah Welling, of Warwick, N. Y., who has been visiting Miss Alice Barlow, of Prospect place, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S Myers, of East Sixth street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a young son, which was born Sunday morning.

William Compton Ayers, of West Second street, who was born the same date as Abraham Lincoln, will celebrate the anniversary of it tomorrow.

Miss Irene VanSickle and Miss Blanche Bryant, of High Bridge, have returned home after a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Randolph on West Front street.

A. Vanderbeek, who has been for a month under treatment at Cooley's Sanitarium on Westervelt avenue, has been removed to the home of his daughter, Mrs. John J. Shotwell, 813 College place.

Mrs. G. W. F. Randolph, of West Front street, who met with an accident on Saturday last at the North Avenue railroad station, is improving very nicely, though her arm suffers considerably from pain.

Miss Grace TenEyck, of East Sixth street, was pleasantly surprised by a few friends Saturday evening. The playing of the latest games was a feature of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

A wedding reception will be given to Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Baglin by Mrs. Baglin's parents, Councilman and Mrs. W. C. Smith, at the home of the latter, 48 Grandview avenue, Friday evening, Feb. 21st.

Miss Laura Wyckoff, of West Seventh street, met with an accident a few days ago by falling off the back porch at her home. The boards were covered with ice and were very slippery. The fall resulted in a severe sprain of the wrist, which will be painful for some time.

Allan Constance and Louise May, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Demarest, and Anna, youngest daughter of Mrs. Kreutzfeld, were baptized at the Church of the Redeemer, Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Dr. Johnstone. The fount was beautifully decorated with carnations by the women of the church.

—Harper is headquarters for valentines.

—Help out your heat by using the Miller oil heater. A good stove and a fine make.

THEATRICAL.

"The Black Flag" was the play presented as the initial performance of the Waite Comedy Company at Music Hall last evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. E. M. Crane, as Harry Glyndor, did a creditable piece of work, while Alfred Kelcy captured the house in the comedy role of Sim Lazarus. The cast was strong throughout and the play made a decided hit The specialties of the Gleesons, Alfred Kelcy, Hale Brown and the ElMore Sisters, received merited encores. The orchestra rendered a select programme of high grade music, the sensational feature being the descriptive overture, "A Day at the Circus" Every day this week commencing promptly at 2 o'clock p. m, a dime matinee will be given. These matinees were very popular on former engagements, and no doubt will repeat their success during this week. For the matinee tomorrow the successful comedy "A Noble Outcast" will be presented. Tonight the laughable sensational comedy "The Inside Track" will be presented. This is the play made popular by Oliver Byron.

"The Lady Slavey," opened at the Casino Monday night and is in for a run. Canary & Lederer have observed their policy of princely casting. The group of leading principals they present in the play is already remarkable for extravagant strength. The beauty of the chorus physically and vocally is on a par with all past productions of the firm. Miss Ida Fuller's "fire dance" from "Salome," which is introduced in "The Lady Slavery," is a sensational spectacle that entails the unseen assistance of a corps of 15 manipulators of an intricate combination of calcium and electric lights.

The famous Bostonians began their engagement at the Broadway Theatre in New York, yesterday, presenting an elaborate revival of that most successful and brilliant light opera "Robin Hood." Extravagant fiction is unnecessary to sound the praises of this most perfect organization. For a term of years they have held undisputed sway in the light opera field, and they still remain easily the first. While the mutations of time find some slight changes in the personnel of this organization, the infusion of new material is so adriotly affected and the ensemble are so artistically and carefully sustained that the ear of the auditor is never jarred. The production of "Robin Hood" will be made on a most elaborate scale and since it has not been seen in this city for two years, when its remarkable and unprecedented run at the Garden Theatre was the wonder of the town, there is every reason to believe that its forthcoming presentation will have as great a vogue.

Nothing Like It.

Time brings many changes, but the climate of California, "The Italy of America," and the attractions of the many famous health and pleasure resorts, are the same yesterday, today and forever.

Tourists never will tire of speaking in praise of the soft and balmy air, the profusion of flowers, the magnificent display of fruits, the luxury of seabathing and the beautiful walks and drives.

Then, too, it must be conceded that with such excellent equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars, all heated by steam and lighted with Pintsch Light, the Union Pacific, "The Overland Route," is the tourists favorite. Ask your agents for tickets via this route.

E. L. Lomax, General Pass. and Tick t Agent, Omaha, Neb.

His Loss.

Tourist (in Oklahoma)—When you drew your bowie and sprang at the stranger who had called you a liar, did he lose his head?

Alkali Ike—Nope; only his ear.—Truth.

After the Raffle.

Uncle 'Rastus—I done won dat turkey at de raffle to-night.

Aunt Dinah—Yo' was lucky, eh?

"Yas, I was po'ful lucky. While de res' was shakin' dice I 'scused myse'f."—Life.

Too Much Risk.

Castleton—I want to call on Miss Redbud, and I came away and forget my cards.

Tutter—Why not use one of mine?

Castleton—No, old man; I want to see her.—Harper's Bazar.

Sick Headache.

"I regard your pills as a godsend to me. . . . I could not make a business engagement without the proviso, "unless I have sick headache." Now my health is excellent, and all from the use of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills" So writes Hon W. H Beveridge, one of Richmond, Va.'s, prominent lawyers.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills are a sure cure for sick headache and indigestion. Why not try them? At druggists', 25c., or a sample mailed free. White wrapper if constipated, yellow if bowels are loose.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston, N. Y.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

A DOUBTING THOMAS.

Who Stood on the Ragged Edge of Health.

But Was Willing to Be Convinced of the Truth.

He Has At Last Become a Firm Believer.

Some people are so constituted that they prefer to keep on in the beaten path and never to strike out for themselves. When they are sick they rely upon a few old-fashioned medicines, and apparently choose to suffer rather than try a modern remedy of established reputation.

Among the various ills of such people one is more common than biliousness, which is caused by torpor of the liver, thus preventing the proper digestion of the food, which decomposes and ferments in the stomach. This causes dizziness, headache, sleeplessness, pains in the stomach and abdomen, with an accumulation of gas; there is constipation and possibly kidney trouble; the complexion is pale and sallow and life is only prolonged misery.

In such cases what is needed is a nerve and blood builder to bring back the bloom of youth to pale and sallow people.

Mr. Auguste Froelcher, of 299 Bleecker street, New York City, was a great sufferer, but when a friend recommended to him the greatest remedy of modern times, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, he questioned its efficacy. At last this Doubting Thomas was persuaded to try this marvelous medicine, and the following letter shows how he was convinced of its great virtues and now he has become a firm believer in it. He says: "Having been sick for over two years with malaria and dyspepsia and not being able to eat, the doctore advised me to make a trip to France, which I did, returning without any better results.

"My trouble has been one that caused several physicians of renown here in America, as also other eminent members of the medical faculty in Europe to fail after persistently attempting its cure. It was pronounced a complication of malaria, dyspepsia, and kidney weakness.

"I heard of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and after using it for a time I began to eat well and my sufferings disappeared.

"That others who have suffered as I have with terrible pains in the back, limbs and head may be relieved from such dreadful tortures, and restored to usefulness, this testimonial is given to let it be made public that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has completely cured me."

Perhaps it is not strange that Mr. Froelicher doubted, for the marvellous power of Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great blood and nerve remedy, is almost beyond belief. A trial will convince the most skeptical that this is the grandest medicine of modern times Its discoverer, Dr Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, is one of the progressive medical practitioners of whom this nineteenth century is justly proud. He allows all who wish to consult him daily, either personally or by letter, free of charge.

An Insinuation.

"The price of beef is going up fearfully," said the restaurant keeper. "You have no idea of the prices now charged for choice cuts."

"Humph," said the patron grumpily, as he struggled with a refractory steak. "I don't see how that is going to affect you."—Chicago Record.

Remember the Sabbath Day.

Husband—Wife, hand me out my Sunday coat.

Wife—But, my dear, this is not Sunday, it is only Saturday.

"I know it's only Saturday, but I'm going to attend a fashionable dinner, and it will be Sunday before I get back."—Tammany Times.

She Might Risk It.

"I read in the paper that Queen Victoria never rides in a street car," said Mrs. Snaggs.

"She need not be afraid to try it," replied Mrs. Snaggs. "Almost any man would get up and give his seat to a lady of herage."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Profit in His Adversity.

Editor—It was the making of Jokers to get married.

Assistant—Is that so?

Editor—Yes. He makes a good living now by jotting down the sarcastic remarks that his wife makes to him!—

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

DIED.

RISBERG—In this city at 311 Plainfield ave., Feb. 9, 1896, Mary Anna Risberg, daughter of Charles M. Quass, aged 36 yrs. 2 mos and 28 days.

Funeral from her late residence, 311 Plainfield avenue, Wednesday morning, Feb 12 at 9 o'clock at house and 9:30 at St. Mary's Church. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend.

FRANKLIN—Suddenly, in this city, of heart failure, Feb. 6, 1896, Sarah A. widow of the late Wm. H. Franklin and daughter of Christopher and Anna L. Spencer.

Funeral services from the residence of her sister, 827 Madison avenue, Wednesday, Feb. 12, at 3:30 p. m.

NEVIUS—Suddenly in this city Sunday, Feb. 9, 1896, George W. Nevius, in hi 39th year.

Funeral services in the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday, Feb. 12th at 12 o'clock, noon. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited without further notice.

STOWELL—On February 9th, of pneumonia, at the residence of her nephew, James L. Anthony, Charlotte Rena Stowell, in the 73rd year of hear age.

Funeral services at 1203 Putnam avenue, Wednesday, 12th instant, at 11:30 a. m. Interment at convenience of family.

You Will Not Wonder

After Seeing Peck's Great Display of Wash Goods and Embroideries.

THE DALZIEL GRAMMAR, MANUAL AND ART SCHOOL, 309 East Front Street.

IS AN ESTABLISHED SUCCESS.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique, Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at the Women's School of Design, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

THE WET GOODS

The loss on the goods damaged by water caused by the bursting of the automatic sprinkler in the show window of Edsall's Commercial Palace has been adjusted and the goods will be offered for sale on Friday Morning, February 7th.

There is not a very large lot of them and they were but slightly wet with clean water, and damaged but very little. They are marked, however, at a very low price in order to turn them into quick cash.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

There are a dozen or fifteen handsome plush capes, elegantly trimmed with fur and silk lined; the original price was $25 to $35. They will go for about $9 to $11.

Some silk waists that sold for $9.75. The will go from $4.50 to $5.

Some extra fine separate Skirts that sold for $8 39 and up. They will go for about $5, and some as low as $1.98.

There is quite a lot of Ladies Muslin Underwear, Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset Covers and Drawers. Of course the mere wetting of these with clean water has not damaged them for use at all, but they will go at less than half price.

There are about seventy-five to one hundred fine Corsets sold from 75cts., to $1.50. They will go at 35cts. each.

Now, of course you understand that the quantity of these wet goods are limited. They cannot be duplicated and in order to prevent any one from being disappointed who may not be fortunate to secure some of the wet goods bargains, we have spent considerable time in the market picking up big bargains of various kinds to put in this sale, so as to make the occasion worthy of a large attendance. So come along with the crowd. There will be some very telling bargains on both floors of our immense store.

China Department.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

One lot fine China Cuspidores, finely decorated, floral designs Sold at 29cts. readily. This sale only 21cts.

One lot fine China bedroom Lamps, handsomely decorated in colors and gold. Were good sellers at 97c. This sale only 69c.

One lot Library Lamps, various styles and prices. To reduce the stock, your choice for $1.09. They sold for much higher prices.

We also offer at this sale some rare bargains in a lot of Banquet Lamps. Space is too short to give details. Come in and see them. They talk for themselves.

A very telling bargain in a lot of beautiful glass fruit dishes. In appearance resembling cut glass, very handsome designs. The price is for this sale only 13cts.

Something very pretty in crystal glass Rose Bowls, looks like cut glass. They go at only 10cts.

Carpet Department.

One lot Samples of fine Velvet and Moquette Carpets, 1¼ yards long, finished ends. Choice for 99cts.

One lot of all-wool Art Squares, 2¼ by 3 yards. For this sale only $1.79.

One lot of best Tapestry Brussels Carpets, 6 different patterns. This sale only 53cts.

Grocery Department.

Potted Ham, can	10c	Extra Can Pears	11c
" Tongue	10c	Fine Silver Prunes	12c
Ox Tongue, 1½ pound can	45c	Condensed Milk	7c. up
Clam Chowder, box	10c	String Beans, can	6c
Smoked Halibut, "	10c	Soap	2½c
Mustard Sardines	8c	Dried Beans	8c
Boston Baked Beans	10c	Lard	6 & 10c
14 Can Fine Tomatoes	98c	Butter, good	20c
14 Can Sugar Corn	98c	Glass of Mustard	10c
Fine Early June and Mar. Peas 8c. up		Pint Jar Mustard	20c

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Putnam & DeGraw

THIS WEEK WE WILL SELL

SHIRT WAISTS—Ladies laundered shirt waists only 50c.
UMBRELLAS—Fast black, Paragon frame, only 75c.
HOSIERY—Children's 1x1 rib, extra quality, all sizes, 15c; ladies fast black seamless, extra quality, at 10, 15 and 25c; men's mixed half hose, extra quality 10c, 3 for 25c; men's mixed half hose, seamless, extra heavy, 15c, 2 for 25 cents.
WAISTS—Children's corded underwaists 25c; children's outing flannel waists 50c style for 40c.
NECKWEAR—A new and special line at 25 and 50c.
EMBROIDERIES—Our's are the talk of the city.
COTTON CREPONS—Evening shades at 12 and 15c a yard.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	21	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	20	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	19
Cranford	837	6	24

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	5	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
Cranford C. C.	4	5	1557
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

Two games will be rolled next week by the Y. M. C. A. team, one with the Westfield Y. M. C. A. and the other with Hope chapel.

A game has been arranged between the Crescent Wheelmen Juniors and the local Y. M. C. A. team on the former's alleys, Thursday night.

The scores made last evening at the State championship pool tournament held in Newark were as follows: Krewson, 80; McClaren, 125; G. Bey, 88.

The next game in the Central Journal League will be rolled at Cranford tonight, when the ten men team of the Crescent Wheelmen go down there.

The high score of 236, rolled by Peter Matthews on the Park Club alleys in the last game in the Standard League, is now the individual high score for February at the Park Club.

The junior team of the Crescent Wheelmen went to Westfield last night and rolled two games with the Y. M. C. A. team of that town. The visitors lost both games. Their bowling was poor and luck was dead against them. The first game should have gone to the Crescents, but they broke badly on the last frame and the home team won. The Westfield boys felt the hoodoo also and their star bowler, Condit, could not roll 150. The names of the bowlers and their scores are omitted for the sake of their families.

The Standard League comes to an end tonight and four games will be rolled, two at Westfield and two at Cranford. There are two postponed games that are to be rolled also. Westfield and Roselle meet on the former's alleys, while the Counties go to Cranford. The Roselle team has two postponed games to roll with the Counties. The only hope of the Parks is that the Roselles lose at least two of their four games, for in that case the two clubs will be tie for second place. Westfield is almost invincible on her own alleys and Roselle is likely to lose both those games. If the Counties can only succeed in breaking even with them, then the Park Club steps into second place all alone. The Union County team seems to have a cinch on fourth place and it will be impossible for them to lose it even if she is defeated all the rest of her games.

PUNTS AND KICKS.

A meeting of the Football Association of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building. The question of an indoor field day was discussed and a committee, composed of Thomas U. Smith, chairman; Volney F. Green and Chas. B. Morse, was appointed to look further into the matter and report at the next meeting.

BASKET BALL.

The basket ball team of Company E, Thirteenth Regiment, N. Y. N. G., will meet the team from the local Y. M. C. A. on Saturday in this city.

Beneath Him.

Cook—Pshaw! I'm getting tired of this job.

Assistant—Why?

Cook—Why? The idea of asking a ten-thousand-dollar chef to make a forty-five-cent pudding!—Judge.

Not So Very Scandalous

"What do you think?" said one Chicago woman to another in an awestruck whisper. "Miss Dearborn has married one of her father's clerks."

"Only one?" replied the other interrogatively.—Indge.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

CYCLING COMMENT.

The Eldridge Bicycle Company is contemplating giving a bicycle entertainment at the Columbia Cycle Academy on Washington's Birthday. If possible, Prof. Hill, of Murray Hill Lyceum, and troop of eight riders, will be secured. They will play polo on wheels, ride hurdle races on wheels, have obstacle races on wheels, and do all kinds of fancy riding. They will altogether show what can be done on a bicycle.

The L. A. W. Bulletin of the issue of January 17th says the following about the splendid roads now to be found in this State: "New Jersey is no longer a synonym for mosquitoes, but rather for good roads. Its splendid system of highways is attracting thousands of wheelmen and others every year who are not only discovering that the 'Jersey Skeeter' is a myth, but that its good roads fame is a happy, substantial fact. The good advertising that the State is receiving on account of the enterprise it has shown in making its highways a subject of profit and delight is enviable."

At a meeting of the Plainfield Bicycle Club held last night, at the clubhouse on Sycamore street, the usual routine matters were disposed of, after which the propriety of selling the property of the club was considered. The club still has a number of staunch supporters but there is no superabundant life. This life must be supplied by new membership or the club will probably go out of existence. Its obituary would be read with unfeigned regret by old members and by the many friends who remember the "halcyon and vociferous" times at the club house and the numerous entertainments which have been given by the club in past years. The club "points with pride" to the fact that it can meet its outstanding bills and disband with honor. It has a valuable property, the nearness of which to the station would seem to make a membership to the club a desirable thing if only for the purpose of wheel storage. The social life of all cycle clubs is probably a thing of the past. Their usefulness seems to now lie in wheel storage, as stated above, and in their ability to influence the road question.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Rathbone Sisters will have installation this evening.

—Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M., will meet this evening.

—The Plainfield Catholic Club will hold an important meeting this evening.

—Jerusalem Chapter, No. 24, R. A. M., will meet on Thursday evening.

—Hoods Pills have won high praise for their prompt and efficient yet easy action —Is your life made a torment by blood diseases. It's your own fault as "Pura Blood" cures.

—A most successful rehearsal by the Choral Society was held last evening in the Y. M. C. A. building.

—George B. Wean and family, of Clinton avenue, expect to move to Spooner avenue about April 1st.

—Great closing out sale of wall paper at Edward Love's, North avenue. Let him do your spring decorating.

—Louis Ross is improving the appearance of his residence on LaGrande avenue by rebuilding and enlarging the piazza.

—The committee from the Plainfield Camera Club in charge of the coming exhibition meet every Wednesday and Saturday evening.

—Miss Adella C. Phelps invites the public to the opening of her art studio on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, February 12th and 13th, 417 Babcock building. 2

—Miss Bedford will give two more lectures in the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday. In the morning she will lecture on pastry and in the afternoon on chafing dish work.

—One chapter in our financial history is closed by the bond sale. The excitement over the threatened panic has subsided. Now we begin a new chapter by vowing hereafter to trade only at Peck's.

—A horse belonging to E. E. Marshall, the North avenue wall paper dealer, ran away yesterday from where he was standing on Fairview avenue. Joseph Krewson, the expressman, caught the animal near Plainfield avenue. There was no damage.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

THE ST. PAUL.

She floats; hurrah! again she's free:
A thing of life to roam the sea.
Like giant bound with bands of steel,
So drifting sands around her keel
Held her, a helpless thing for days.
Her mighty engines strove in vain;
Her timbers groaned like men in pain;
Yet still the sands held hard and fast.
But now she's free, she's free at last:
Again the master's hand obeys.

'Twere sad to see the wind and wave
Make plaything of a ship so brave
While yet so new and sound and fair,
The burdens of the world to bear
For many long and busy years.
Like some brave youth or maid laid by.
Who seemed too strong and sweet to die,
While earth has ills and wrongs to right.
And places dark that need the light:
But life has many wrecks and tears.

Washington Park, Feb. 7th. R.

Dunellen.

The Whittier and Lincoln Schools will celebrate Wednesday as a holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph have been entertaining friends from East Millstone.

W. Harrison spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison, of Newark.

Miss Pauline Williams, who has been visiting at Brooklyn, has returned home.

The Junior League of the Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon at the parsonage.

J. F. Snell, of Somerville, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Van-Middlesworth, of Front street.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church are preparing to hold a dime sociable the last of this month.

A leap year dance will be given by a number of young ladies to their gentleman friends on Friday evening at the Park Hotel.

A union temperance meeting was held Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church, at which Mrs. Bourne, president of the W. C. T. U., spoke to a large congregation.

New Market.

Miss Nellie Weber, of Nyack, N. Y., is spending a few days with Miss Brown.

Mrs. J. Y. Wilson is entertaining her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Wilson, of Philadelphia.

Communion services will be observed in the First Baptist church next Sunday morning.

The ordinance of baptism was performed Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Baptist church. The First Baptist church had nineteen converts and the Seventh-Day Baptist sixteen converts. The baptismal services were performed by Rev. F. Fletcher and Rev. Mr. Peterson, each baptizing their own converts. About 500 people witnessed the services, which were very impressive.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Chamber Music Concert,

AT

THE CASINO,

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 11,

at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nina Rathbone, dramatic soprano, from New York.
Mr. David Gober 'cellist.
Mr. P. Ludwig Conde violinist.
Mr. E. Arthur Janke pianist.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00.

Tickets on sale at Estil's, Taylor's music store and the drug stores.

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

It is one of those facts not generally known even to Macaulay's omniscient schoolboy that it is possible to travel by rail in Europe for a continuous distance of over 5,000 miles. Since the extension of the Madrid & Cordova Trunk railway to Gibraltar this is now feasible.

ODD PEOPLE.

A fat man in Paris named M. Canon-Berg, consumes about five times as much food as an ordinary person. His weight is 560 pounds.

A 14-year-old girl living at Smoky Valley, Ky., weighs 278 pounds and is rapidly gaining weight. She never eats meat, but is very fond of all kinds of sweet food, and particularly of sugar and candy.

The shoemaker of Brockton, Mass., who started out to make a pair of shoes for each governor in the United States, has been obliged to stop work on account of illness. Ten autograph letters have already been received from governors who have been the recipients of his unique gift.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

NOTICE.

To members of Plainfield Council, 711, R. A., who desire to attend the funeral of their late brother, George W. Nevius, will meet Wednesday, February 12, in their room, 107 Park avenue, at 11:20 sharp.

H. C. Adams, Regent.
F. J. Pope, Secretary.

MISS BEDFORD

AT

Y. M. C. A. February 13,

At 10 a. m.—PASTRY.
At 2:30 p. m.—CHAFING DISH WORK.

Tickets, including both lectures, $1, to be procured of Mrs. Eaton, 36 Norwood ave. 2 11 2

B. H. Rushton. J. C. Hansen. A. Luthman.

Rushton, Hansen & Luthman, PAINTERS & PAPER HANGERS.

P. O. Box 773, Plainfield, N. J.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 tf

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

WANTED—A first class laundress, white; with Plainfield references; to go home nights. Apply 107 Crescent avenue. 2 10-tf

VERY handsome flat; all modern improvements. Apply Manning's city marble works. 2 11 5

OPERATORS wanted on ladies' waists; good pay at once. J. B. Cloos 249 North ave., Dunellen.

TO LET—House, 13 rooms, on Watchung ave; also on Putnam avenue, 16 rooms; all improvements. Apply 108 Crescent ave. 2 11 3

FRESH cows for sale. Henry Burnett, Washingtonville. 2 10 3

WANTED—2 or 3 furnished or unfurnished rooms; private family only; good location. Address E. K., 325 West 2d st. 2 11 2

YOUNG woman wants position as chambermaid or waitress, or will do general housework. Apply 23 Harmony st.

WANTED—Seven cooks, five waitresses; also man and wife for housework and gardening. 209 Babcock Building.

WANTED—Four union carpenters. Wyman & Haberle, Jackson Building. 2 10 2

WANTED.—At once, experienced white cook. Apply 949 Central avenue. 2 8 tf

FOR SALE or to let for term of years, the very desirable residence 662 West 7th st., with large grounds, garden and barn; for terms apply on the premises. John E. Stewart. 2 7 6

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room; also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

Plainfield's GREATEST STORE.

There are many ways of running a business, but only one way that leads to success. Our way of procuring the best salespeople we can, paying fair salaries and having nothing but workers from the head of the house down to the boy. Hence our great success. It's why 75c and sometimes 50c does the work here that it takes a dollar to do in other stores. Wise buying and being on the inside of the market enables us to clip off profits that other merchants pay.

Now for February.

RIBBONS.

Prices broken in two on many lots of new ribbons. Just think of handsome Dresden and printed warp ribbons 29c the yard. We will clear out the odds and ends of our ribbon sale at 14c the yard. Many good things among them.

DRESS SILKS.

Today we are showing over fifty styles of new dress silks. The new Persian and Dresden designs that are going to be all the rage the coming season. Handsome black silks and satins and we are naming very little prices on them—39 to 98c the yard.

EMBROIDERIES.

Two immense lots of pretty new embroideries bought at half their real value. Will go on sale tomorrow. Lot No. 1, 5c the yard; lot No. 2, 10c the yard, and not a piece in the entire lot worth less than double what we ask.

TOWELS.

Tomorrow we place on sale 100 dozen fine huck towels, hemstitched borders, same as you usually pay 25c for. Our price will be 13 cents.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL HOUSEFURNISHING SALE.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. 250 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 2 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c. White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS.

Acorn Brand Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

BEATS ALL RECORDS.

Wonderful Intelligence Shown by a Veteran Texas Roach.

Last week, writes a Houston (Tex.) Post contributor, I came home one night and by accident opened the pantry. I was surprised at finding at least 100 big beetles scampering across the floor to escape into their lair. I saw that they all disappeared down a circular hole in one corner of the closet. Next night I sallied forth on a tour of extermination. I prepared a wooden plug to stop up the hole, and a flat cudgel with which to annihilate the critters. I approached the pantry with a lighted candle, opened the door suddenly, and before the roaches fully realized my presence I had their escape completely blocked. It was a sight worth seeing. Some of them were in the corner playing "Copenhagen." Some were in the center of the pantry playing "Ring around-rosy." When they saw the light they suddenly interrupted their sports and made a bee line for home. Astonishment was written on every lineament of their black bodies when they saw their escape cut off. I set the candle on the floor and belabored them right and left with my weapon. Soon I had the floor strewn with corpses. All at once my light went out. A venerable looking, patriarchal sort of cockroach, realizing that the salvation of his family and relatives lay in darkness, had climbed up the candle and thrown himself across the flame. Like Arnold Winkleried, he died in a trice, but before I could strike a match the last of the still living bugs had found some secret means of exit and had disappeared. That's what I call intelligence. I have that hero's body embalmed in my collection, and since that adventure I have the greatest respect for roaches. When I want to exterminate them now I treat them royally to ten cents' worth of poison.

THE FLOOR STREWN WITH CORPSES.

ENTIRELY TOO SMART.

How an Intelligent Horse Betrayed His Master's Weakness.

A Washington professional man has an intelligent horse. The gentleman is in the habit of going on occasional sprees, and when he does, the horse knows at once that his driver does not want to go home, and takes him to a country house about seven miles from the city.

The professional man, when about to spend an evening among the boys, sends word to his wife that he has been called out of town, and in this way has been able to keep the fact that he drinks a secret from everyone except the companions with whom he goes on sprees.

A few evenings ago the wife and a lady visitor started for a drive. The horse noticed that something was wrong with the way the lines were grasped, and started for the country place, supposing that the owner was intoxicated again. No amount of pulling or whipping could be made to change his course, and about dark he halted in front of the resort. "Here, Tom," called the proprietor, "——'s drunk again. Come help me carry him in. And, Dan, put up the horse."

HE WOULDN'T CHANGE HIS COURSE.

Now the lady is visiting her mother in Virginia, and it will take a strong pledge upon the husband's part to induce her to return.

Big Man and a Little One.

Ligonier, Ind., claims to have living there the largest and smallest men in that state. George Washington Walker is 46 years old, weighs 560 pounds, and his weight is steadily increasing. He is five feet ten inches tall, measures 76 inches round the waist, 68 inches round the chest, and his arm is a trifle more than two feet in circumference. During the hot weather he lives entirely in the cellar of his house. Jesse Allen, a neighbor of Walker, is 19 years old, his legs exactly a foot long, and stands but three feet six inches high. He weighs 75 pounds.

Stage Driver.

For several years a woman has driven the stage between Mancelona and Bellaire, Mich. She handles the reins as well as any man in that region, and has never been troubled with stage robbers.

MUNYON'S WARNING.

Strong Drugs Kill More People Than All Diseases Combined.

Doctor Yourself.

With Munyon's Homoeopathic Remedies No Poisonous Drugs, No Nauseous Doses, No Big Doctor Bills.

Joseph Manks, 6 Read street, Pittsburg, Pa., says: "I was in constant misery from dyspepsia. The slightest exertion fatigued me. I was short of breath and everything I ate distressed me. After taking Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure for three days I was completely cured.

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure never fails to relieve it in 1 to 3 hours, and cures in a few days. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Catarrh Remedies positively cure. Price, 25c. each.

Munyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures pains in the back, loins or groins, and all forms of kidney disease. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Female Remedies are a boon to all women. Price 25c.

Asthma Cure, with Asthma Herbs, $1.

Munyon's Nerve Cure stops nervousness and builds up the system. Price 25c.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in 3 minutes. Price 25c.

Munyon's Pile Ointment positively cures all forms of piles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates all impurities of the blood. Price 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost powers to weak men. Price, $1.00.

A separate cure for each disease. At all druggists, 25c a bottle.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

Same, But Different.

How strange it is that if you say
"That man's a level-headed chap,"
He likes it, though for compliments
He says he does not care a rap.
But change the words a little, and "A flat head" call your dearest friend,
How wild he gets, and yet those terms
Both mean the same thing in the end.
—N. Y. Herald.

PROTECTED FROM MASHERS.

"Don't you object to your wife going about in that rational dress?"

"Well, no; I don't. You see it keeps off the men; they don't fall in love with her."—Judy.

Treatment of Infants.

"You should have a thermometer to ascertain the temperature of the water," said a mother to the nurse.

"Whaffor?"

"To tell when the water is too hot or too cold."

"Don't need no sich dockerment. Ef de chile turns blue de water am too cold, and ef hit turns red den it am too hot."

And now the colored lady is open to an offer.—Texas Siftings.

The Entire Gamut.

Young Wife (sobbing)—I will not keep still! Before we were married you said I had a charming flow of language.

Young Husband—I know it, dear; but since then I've discovered that it not only flows, but roars, dashes, leaps, bounds and goes over cataracts, dams and mill-sluices, with an occasional waterspout.—Judge.

Pays to Sell Cheaply.

Customer—So you sell these watches at five dollars each. It must cost that to make them.

Jeweler—It does.

Customer—Then how do you make any money?

Jeweler — Repairing 'em. — N. Y. Weekly.

Stanley and Mounteney Jephson, the only white survivors of the expedition for the relief of Emin Pasha, have just erected a brass tablet in Kilmore church to the memory of their comrade, Surgeon Park.

French football is improving. The Racing club of Paris recently beat a 15 of Oxford men at the Rugby game at Levallois-Perret by one try to nothing, while the Olympique club beat the same 15 in the Bois de Boulogne by a goal to a try.

Three hundred and eighty-six distinct libel suits have been begun by as many priests against the Paris Journal on account of an article reflecting on the clergy of the Hautes Pyrenees. Each priest asks for $20 damages, and if they win, the result of each lawsuit will be printed in five newspapers of Toulouse as many of Bordeaux and in 12 newspapers in the department.

Removal Sale!

Will remove to the much larger store, 129 East Front st., now occupied by Mr. Gavett, on or about March 25, 1896. I will therefore offer the following lines at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing,

also Neckwear, to reduce stock previous to removal.

Men's Overcoats $4.05, $7.20, $9.00, $10.80, $12.60 and Upward.

Men's Suits $4.05, $5.40, $6.30, $7.20, $9, $10.80 and Up

Boys' and Children's Clothing in proportionately low prices. 50c Neckwear in four-in-hand and tecks at 25c. A beautiful assortment. All the above goods are new this season. Watch this ad.

HARRY M. JAQUETT,

123 East Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

One Price CASH One Price

and money refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.

Established 1869.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles). Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.——made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

J. T. VAll, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.

Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.

Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.

Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Stables attached

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

NOTICE.

Special Reductions

—AT—

Neuman Bros.

on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.

NEUMAN BROS.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.

Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.

Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., ooo. North ave

Musicfurnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 05, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 05, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 50

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 30, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 7 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 29 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 45, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 32 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,

EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

——Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son.

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. (1113 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Fire

Don't lay awake nights for fear your "open fire" will burn your carpets, or do other damage, when you can buy a "spark guard" for $1.25. Mantles, tiles, and "everything for the fire-place."

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

—IN—

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND.

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's

Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

do you eat iron

Some persons are always taking iron. If weak and easily exhausted; pale and without appetite; if the nervous system is weak, and sleep difficult, what do you take? Iron? But iron cannot supply food to the tissues; nor does it have any power to change the activity of unhealthy organs and bring them back to health. Cod-liver oil is what you need. The oil feeds the poorly-nourished tissues, and makes rich blood. Iodine, bromine, and other ingredients, which form part of the oil, have special power to alter unhealthy action.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is the most palatable way to take cod-liver oil. The hypophosphites supply healthy nerve action, which controls all the processes of life.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been indorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites.

Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby. All druggists.

JUST AS GOOD IS NOT SCOTT'S EMULSION.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5½c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2½ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5½c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

THE WOMAN OF FASHION.

Timely Fancies for Pretty Forms and Fair Faces.

The Untimely January Bargain Days and the Woe They Bring—Some New Things in Underwear—Something to Tempt the Frivolous-Minded.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

Now is the time that the poor man thrusts his hand into his empty pockets and asks himself and the attendant fates why things are as they are, and wherewithal he is to be supported for the next few months while he pays his Christmas bills and makes up the deficit occasioned by the season of bargain day.

It is to be deplored that January bargains cannot be postponed till summer—which is as consistent as wanting one's ice cream hot, by the way, but I'm sure there are plenty who will agree with me. If one takes the merchant's point of view, it is easy to understand that he has a lot of sorry-looking, dog-eared holiday gifts left on his hands which are as useless to him and as uninteresting to the general public as yesterday's daily paper. Naturally he wants to get rid of them, to get them out of sight of his holiday befagged salesmen who are ready to show their teeth and growl at the very mention of Christmas.

Then there are the thousands of yards of fall and winter goods, the coats, and capes, and separate skirts, that will either be moth-eaten or out of fashion before next winter, and the endless supply of underwear that gets badly soiled and shopworn with continued handling.

The underwear question is a study, and there are a great many sides to it. Just as the conservative woman has succeeded in overcoming her prejudice against what she considers an innovation, and has at last adopted the union suit, she is confronted with the fact that the long-loved chemise is the fashionable thing and union suits are "old." Then by the time she gets back to the old fashion it has become passe. The only way to do is to try both and see which you like best, then stick to it. In general, the tailor-made girl prefers the union suit because it offers no unnecessary bulk to interfere with the perfect "fit" of her dress.

The girl with ruffles and plaits and frills above her gown usually likes them underneath as well. Indeed, even the tailor-made girl finds it hard to resist the filmy laces and microscopic tucks that grace the different articles of underwear nowadays. Some of the tucks suggest long seasons in the cloister where those black-veiled nuns stitch and stitch away at frivolous garments for the unconsecrated, and then one remembers the new machines that are so finely constructed as to lay tucks no wider than a hair's breadth. Such tucks, alternating with strips of fine lace insertion, enter the composition of chemises, drawers, fine skirts and night gowns and it is difficult to say which are the most alluring.

Some find it hard to choose between the mull or cambric petticoats and those made entirely of silk. A compromise which was pretty enough for a ball gown was pink silk with a veiling of tucked white mull and lace. Both the silk and the mull skirts run up to fabulous prices, and the cheapest are hardly to be had at less than four dollars. The plain silk skirts have a flounce with several rows of wire cording to stiffen them, and these are really more useful than those made of mull, which are so fine and soft that nobody would think of starching them enough to fill out the present dress skirt.

All skirts are gored and sewed to a yoke that is two inches wide in front and narrows gradually towards the back. They fasten with a drawstring as do also the garments beneath. The last mentioned articles are usually very wide at the knee with a ribbon run through to make them as tight as is desired, leaving a long flounce below that suggests the historical pantalet. These and bloomers do not go well together. The large dress sleeve has given the chemise its opportunity. Beneath the silken (or woolen) expanse there has hitherto been a vast cavity which is now filled with the ruffles and frills and flaps of the chemise sleeve. At the waist they are cut so as to fit the figure moderately well, and the material is usually so soft that it does not take up much room.

But of all the woman's lingerie that is hung up to tempt the frivolous minded, there is none more fascinating than the night robes. Most of them are made without yokes—such as have them are cheap. There is no visible means of fastening, but the tiny pearl buttons are concealed beneath a flounce of embroidery or lace up the side of the front, for few of them fasten in front. Some have long revers sloping into a broad collar and these, of course, fasten under the chin. There is a fancy to make the front slightly low, like a square-necked dress, with an embroidery or lace heading. The sleeves are large and puffy with a ribbon at the wrist to draw up the flounce that falls over the hand.

It would be impossible to describe the many different styles of trimming. Suffice it to say that the more fine tucks, the more ruffles and lace and embroidery one puts on, the better. If you buy these fancy garments ready-made they are very expensive, and if you try to make them there is hard labor before you, but the reward is in the loveliness of the result.

Whatever may be said in favor of the above-described underwear, one is forced to admit that it is not suitable for outdoor wear in the winter time. When one begins to think of skating or sleighing or tobogganing, one's mind turns yearningly to thoughts of union all-overs and woolen stockings. It is the underwear that must be most carefully attended to when one goes skating, for outside wraps are cumbersome and prevent that freedom of motion which is indispensable.

LINGERIE FOR THE FRIVOLOUS MINDED.

Very few of the skating costumes seen on the ice have any more than a fur collar around the neck. Here is a pretty suit which came out with that January cold snap that froze toes and noses so regardless about a week ago. It is made of brown cloth with an eight-inch strip of Corsican fox around the bottom. On the right of the skirt are four metal buttons simulating a fastening. The fur collar is adorned with tails, and the astrakhan toque has an aigrette and a chou of cherry colored satin, which gives just the bright touch that is necessary in a winter costume.

But when all is said and done, and though one may have the prettiest costume in the world, if one have not grace and good health one cannot hope to look attractive on skates.

ANNIE LAURIE WOODS.

An Obliging Irish Railroad.

At Westport, on asking why the train did not start, seeing that it was a quarter of an hour after the time named for its doing so, the answer I received was: "The engine's gone cold"—doubtless during a warm conversation between the driver and some of his friends—and a lady who was in the same compartment with me and overheard the remark told me that on the previous day a station master had said to the driver of a locomotive, as he steamed in and drew up at the platform: "Where's your train?" The man had come without it. I suppose these casualties cause inconvenience sometimes, but they contribute diversion to irresponsible travel. Moreover, one sometimes reaps advantage from a free-and-easy system of locomotion. When going from Galway to Recess by the new light railway I wanted at Oughterard to look at the river, but feared I should not be able to do so in the time allowed for our halt. "Sure, we'll wait for you," said a porter, and they did. In Ireland people like waiting. What they do object to is being hurried. They dislike "tedious haste."—Blackwood's Magazine.

His Way Out.

The gibes of certain commentators, who "hold a fir farthing candle to the sun" with so much learning that they overlook plain statements of their text, is well satirized by a story of a certain actor, who brought out "Hamlet" with many erudite variations from the usual customs. For one thing he dressed Hamlet in a red cloak.

"Why do you do that?" he was asked.

"Because red was the mourning color of the royal house of Denmark."

"But how do you get over this passage in which Hamlet says: 'Tis not alone my inky cloak, good mother?'"

The Shakespearean was equal to the emergency.

"Don't you suppose they had red ink in Shakespeare's day?"—Youth's Companion.

A Natural Query.

Miss Passe (coyly)—Mr. Grymes proposed to me last night.

Miss Pert—Who will be your bridesmaid?—Puck.

NOTES ABOUT WAR.

On January 1, 1895, the armies of the world included 4,209,000 men.

The first war of profane history was about a woman—Helen of Troy.

The total cost of our navy during the civil war, 1861-65, was $312,000,000.

After the great battle of Cannae, 53,312 dead men were found on the field.

On July 1, 1895, there were 261,000 men serving in the navies of the world.

Great Britain now owns 6,212 cannons; France, 8,260, and Germany, 5,920.

Switzerland has a population of less than 3,000,000, and a standing army of 130,000.

During our great civil war 61,362 men on the union side were killed outright in battle.

In time of war France reckons on putting out 370 men to every 1,000 of her population.

At the present time all Europe is a well-armed camp and has so been for more than a quarter of a century.

The war of the lovers was the seventh religious war of France, waged between the years 1576 and 1678.

At the great battle of Bannockburn, 185,000 men fought, and of that number 38,000 were killed or wounded.

The "five nations of Europe" own 2,210 war ships, mounting 88,209 guns, all ready for immediate service.

The most expensive army of the world is that of Germany, which costs from $86,000,000 to $105,000,000 per year.

France boasts of a navy of 408 ships of 290,000 tons and 621,000 horse-power, and 80 others in process of construction.

The new German rifle ranges up to 4,000 yards, and at 900 yards the bullet will pierce ten inches of solid pine timber.

Since the Mannlicher gun came into use the ratio is four killed to one wounded—just the opposite to what it formerly was.

Since Napoleon "died like a caged lion in his exile home" 6,000,000 Frenchmen have perished in the wars of that country.

ORIENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

Seek not every quality in one individual.—Shoo King (bk. ii.); Keun (ch. xii.).

To see what is right and not do it, is want of courage.—Confucian An., Wei Ching (ch. xxiv.).

Beware. What proceeds from you will return to you again.—Mencius, King Hwuy (pt. ii., ch. xii.).

Great as heaven and earth are, men still find things in them with which to be dissatisfied.—Doctrine of the Mean (ch. xii.).

In ancient times men learned with a view to their own improvement. Nowadays men learn with a view to the approbation of others.—Confucian An., Heen Wan (ch. xxv.).

A poor man, though living in the crowded mart, no one will notice; a rich man, though dwelling amid the remote hills, his distant relatives will visit.—Confucian Proverb of Foo Chow.

The man who, in view of gain, thinks of righteousness; who, in the view of danger, is prepared to give up his life; and who does not forget an old agreement, however far back it extends—such a man may be reckoned a complete man.—Confucian An., Heen Wan (ch. xiii.).

MUCH IN LITTLE.

To-morrow I will live, the fool does say; to-day itself's too late; the wise lived yesterday.—Martial.

Nature knows no pause in progress and development, and attaches her curse on all inaction.—Goethe.

Pleasure and revenge have ears more deaf than adders to the voice of any true decision.—Shakespeare.

Nature is the time-vesture of God that reveals him to the wise and hides him from the foolish.—Carlyle.

The decline of literature indicates the decline of a nation; the two keep pace in their downward tendency.—Goethe.

The contagion of crime is like that of the plague. Criminals collected together corrupt each other.—Napoleon.

Nuptial love maketh mankind; friendly love perfecteth it; but wanton love corrupteth and embaseth it.—Bacon.

GATHERED ABROAD.

Some of the French railroads transport wine in bulk in tank cars.

Green tea cigarettes are said to be much used by English women. They are very injurious.

Court dress in Berlin is to be modeled on the Venetian costume of the renaissance.

In 1823 John I. Hawkins, an American, residing in London, attempted to solve the difficulty of the gold pen point by soldering bits of diamond or ruby to the points of gold pens.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Does Your Back Ache?

Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills

MAKE the Kidneys strong and healthy.

THEY cause the kidneys to filter all uric acid and other poisons or impurities from the blood.

Cure Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Anæmia, Pimples, Bad Blood, Bright's Disease, Malaria, Backache, Kidney Pains, Dropsy, Pain in the Abdomen, Frequent Urination, Inflamation of Kidneys, etc.

Are not a secret remedy, but contain highly concentrated extracts of Asparagus, Juniper Berries, Buchu, Corn Silk, Pareira Brava and Uva Ursa (all kidney healers) and are scientifically compounded.

Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills are endorsed by physicians and druggists. 50 cents a box. Valuable Book Free.

Hobbs Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco

ON GUIANA'S FRONTIER.

Warlike Adventure of a Party of American Prospectors.

A Noble Mastiff Saves a Thoughtful Master's Life During a Sharp Encounter with a Band of Venezuelan Guerillas.

Special Kingston (Jamaica) Letter.

Some ten years ago, or in 1886, when I was down there, the region of the newly discovered gold fields of British Guiana was about the most uncomfortable spot on the continent for any man of Anglo-Saxon tongue or race to occupy. Even Americans were not safe. The English troubles with Venezuela had just begun to assume an acute phase; the era of English police and Venezuelan troops had not arrived and the whole wide territory of the gold belt was patrolled by a horde of guerillas who, it was whispered, were secretly encouraged by Venezuela for the purpose of keeping back the advance of English settlement. These brigands were no respecters of persons. All was fish that came to their net, and the gold-seekers of that time and place, like our wild west pioneers, had to labor with pick in hand and the rifle at foot. As Sir Charles Bruce, the government secretary, said when granting us our license to prospect: "The gold is there and is yours for the taking, but you have no protection. You must look after yourselves. The risk you take, like the gold you get, is your own personal affair—and the extent of the one just now is as great as the other is alluring."

DELIVERED A RATTLING VOLLEY.

But we did not scare. We were a party of five American mining experts sent down by a wealthy New York syndicate to prospect and report to them on the reality of the auriferous wealth of the new gold fields. We were not sent to do fighting, but having got so far, and that being an incident, like yellow fever, we proceeded. Besides, the head of the party, Col. Layton Gibson, was a fire-eater of the civil war and would never turn back on account of burnt powder. But we got together some 20 hardy negroes, most of them time-expired privates of the Afro-West Indian "bush-whacker" regiments, armed them with rifles and the inevitable mashete, and plunged into the gloomy, repulsive forests along the tumultuous and raging waterways that intersect them and lead to the land of Raleigh's Eldorado.

The country is certainly an Eldorado. It oozes gold in clay, in gravel, and in quartz, and the river and creek beds are paved with it. But I should not advise any American or other white man who can earn $20 a week at home to go after it. The horrors of that journey linger with me still. From Baffin's bay to Magellan's strait, it is the worst part of America to penetrate. We traveled in the crankiest and crampiest of dugouts—Guiana's only conveyance. Once seated, you could scarcely move for fear of upsetting them. And in the first days we had to move in our own boat. Col. Gibson had with him a magnificent mastiff nearly as big as a calf, which, whilst a most intelligent and adaptable creature that was never in the way, brought on board a colony of fleas that nearly drove us mad. Incessant washings whilst passing cataracts soon cured that evil. But there remained the cataracts themselves, which are the fiercest and most complicated series in America. Only the life-trained skill of the Guiana "Bovieanda" boatmen can dare encounter them. Then there was the sun; a furnace door is no hotter than the rays he rained on us from the unclouded brazen sky through a perfectly stagnant a mosphere. The only winds of the Guianese penetralia are tornadoes. In the shade it was even worse. When winding through the dense forests that sunlight never pierces the rivers become pestiferous with the reek of nature's excreta, and to this and the intensified closeness of the air is added the incessant assailings of venomous vermin from the bushes that frequently meet right across the stream, and through which the boats have to drive.

THE ENCOUNTER BEHIND THE HUT.

The nighs are still worse. You camp at the most inviting or least repulsive spot met with during the afternoon. Here hammocks are slung between the trees—seldom or never is there room for the smallest tent—and the weary traveler "rests" among saurians from the river and reptiles from the forest. tBut the crocodiles seldom leave the water, and the South African serpent is not aggressive. Usually venomous, the latter is never vicious until attacked. Like Uncle Sam, he holds his overwhelming lethal power "for defense, not defiance." It is the insidious malaria that one really has to dread. At night you can smell, see and even feel it as it rises and floats on the tideless air. Happy he into whose system it does not soak! Then there is the sneaking vampire. He sucks your life-blood from exposed nose or toe, and, fit host for the malarial microbe that he is, ere departing fills you with the poison.

Ten days of this brought us to the heart of the gold region, and our work began. We naturally met many other prospectors, and all told the same tale: The land was sown with gold, but the guerillas were abroad. Victims who had escaped with life were numerous, but they had been robbed of their very clothes and turned adrift naked in the forests. Many a whitening skeleton that we saw told of others thus treated to whom succour had come too late. We, however, pushed forward, and soon made one of the best locations I have ever seen. When railroad transport is provided, it will be a true Eldorado. And here befell our great adventure. The spot was an open space between the forest and a creek, across which we were working, reef testing, in a clump of hills. Respecting our strength, probably, the guerillas had not attacked us, but sent word that we must go away as we were Engliish gringos and the land Venezuelan. The colonel told the messenger shortly "to go to thunder."-Next day came the attack.

Day had scarcely dawned when a scout brought news that the enemy were coming. In ten minutes we were under arms and assembling before the colonel's adjupa, or hut. But ere we could form up, a file of a dozen soldierly-looking fellows, in military caps and tunics, filed from the forest. Following came a mob of about 50 men dressed as they scampered anyhow. All were armed with guns carrying bayonets. Without parley the soldiers delivered a rattling volley!

KEEPING SAVAGE, JEALOUS GUARD.

Three of our men dropped and several were slightly wounded. The mob then delivered an ineffectual volley

"Ah! Bayonets. That won't do. Run for the trees, boys, and keep up an incessant fire on them; I'll looose the dog and give him a fighting chance and join you in a minute," said the colonel.

Firing as we went we rushed to cover, even as the mob of guerillas started on a wild bayonet charge at us. We won the race across the open, and then a real battle begun, the enemy frantically attempting to dislodge us and we to keep them from entering the forest. They outnumbered us two to one, but the advantage of cover and repeating rifles was overwhelmingly compensative, and after an hour's hot fighting our assailants made off, leaving half their original number for us to bury.

We had won, but where was our captain, the colonel? No one had seen him during the fight, and now he was missing! Our only other loss was three killed and 17 wounded, including myself, but none seriously. Most of the wounds were inflicted by chopped lead and shot from the guerillas' guns a they "rushed" the forest in the teeth of our rifle fire.

We found the colonel just behind his adjupa, prone on his face and unconscious, with the great mastiff keeping savage, jealous guard beside him. Some distance off lay the corpse of a guerilla with the throat torn out and body frightfully lacerated. The colonel had a bad blow on the head, and a bayonet thrust in one thigh which had bled profusely, and at first we thought him dead. But his worst trouble was loss of blood. He soon recovered and told us how it happened.

His delay in releasing the dog was the cause. The charging guerillas were already between him and us when he came out of the adjupa, so he passed to the back to take cover there and work his way round to us through the trees. But as he turned the angle of the hut, running with rifle over his shoulder and sword bayonet just drawn to adjust it, he actually ran against three guerillas who were charging along with guns at the "trail." A bayonet pierced his thigh, he struck out with the sword and received a crashing blow on the head, all in one instant. All he remembered else was the accompanying low growl and leonine rush forward of the dog.

"And that's how you took and repaid me for 'the fighting chance for life,' you dear, faithful old ochre?" concluded the colonel, feebly patting the great dog's head.

T. P. PORTER.

Mrs. Lowerten Rebels.

Mrs. Lowerten—Is Mrs. Upperten at home?

Servant (snappishly)—She's out!

Mrs. Lowerten (quietly)—I happen to know that she is in, but her directions to you are quite excusable. She probably thinks that I am a bill collector.—N. Y. Weekly.

As to His Own Knowledge.

"Banks," said Rivers, "speaking about the finances, isn't there what you call a 'better feeling' now?

"No, Rivers," said Banks, absentmindedly exploring his vest pocket with his thumb and finger. "There is no improvement in the feeling."—Chicago Tribune.

A Day of Rest.

Boarding-House Mistress (at Sunday dinner)—Mr. Jones, why do you not eat some chicken?

Mr. Jones (who has labored fifteen minutes trying to carve a leg)—Thanks; I never work on Sunday.—Tammany Times.

Very Likely.

Tommy—Mamma, why did they put Monday next to Sunday?

Mamma—Don't trouble me now, dear. I'm sure I don't know.

Tommy (after a pause)—Was it because cleanliness is next to godliness?—Texas Siftings.

Her Retort.

Gussy—Why do you so persistently wear the hair of another woman on your head?

Beatrice—For the same reason that you wear the skin of another calf on your feet.—The Great Divide.

A Sacred Duty.

First New Woman (at the club)—Have you finished your social duties for the day, dear?

Second New Woman—Horrors! no. I feel that I really must go home and call on my husband.—Chicago Record.

He Missed It.

Husband—I cannot sleep mornings now.

Wife—Why not?

Husband—It must be on account of your having broken the alarm clock.—Brooklyn Life.

They Sleep Too Naturally.

Haverly—I went in six different drug stores while I was in Philadelphia, without being able to get any morphine.

Austen—Great Scott, man! Nobody there needs morphine.—Truth.

A Horse on the Doctor.

Doctor—You need exercise. You should take long walks; walk, walk, sir.

"But, doctor, you forget. I am the father of twins."—Life.

Mrs. W. H. Zabuskie, of Glen Cove, L. I., is visiting Mrs. H. T. Smith, of Westervelt avenue.

E. L. Gifford and family have returned to their home on Westervelt avenue after spending a month in New York.

Miss Wilkins, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting at the home of her uncle, Eugene M. Cave, of Sandford avenue, returned to her home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Sutton, of East Third street, will go to house keeping March 1st. They will reside a few doors east from their present location.

—The Ladies' Christian Work Society, of Trinity Reformed church, met yesterday afternoon and completed arrangements for the supper to be given Thursday evening. Mrs. Buckley and her orchestra will render selections at that time.

TRUST IN FOOD.

Eat Proper Food and See That You Digest It.

Your health and strength depend on the food you eat—and the way you digest it.

Simplicity in diet and looking after your stomach may add several years to your life.

It will certainly make you happier, for unhappy people are generally dyspeptics.

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon are a peculiar people, with peculiar views. They may not be right in everything, but they know how to live a healthy life. They take care of their stomachs. They live to a ripe old age.

When they have indigestion, they take a few doses of a peculiar cordial which they have for years prepared from medicinal herbs and plants. It is called the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Shaker Digestive Cordial will cure indigestion immediately; permanently with the aid of a proper diet. It is a tonic for the stomach and for the whole system. It makes your food make strength, and this is the whole secret of strength, health and happiness.

Pale, thin, weary, worn out individuals, with no health, energy or ambition, will get strong and bright and healthy, by taking the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Sold by all druggists at 10, 25, 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

"Nothing Venture, Nothing Have."

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mon., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and is worth its weight in gold. I can use Ely's Cream Balm with safety and it does all that is claimed for it. B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds; old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

AT LAST.

Under Grant From the U. S. Government, the World Famed

HEALING WATERS

Of Hot Springs, Ark., Are Permitted to Be Used in the Preparation of

"PURA BLOOD."

Which has the merited reputation of being one of the wonders of the world. It is nature's own cure for rheumatism, gout, scrofula, eczema, catarrh, pimples, blood poisons (acquired or hereditary), dyspepsia, constipation, malaria, anaemia, paralysis, neuralgia and all other diseases arising from an impure state or low condition of the blood. "Pura Blood" is for sale by druggists, price $1. Physicians endorse it. Billups & Co., of 26 Cortlandt street, New York, are sole agents and will send descriptive book to any address free.

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

Hope Chapel Industrial Fair

And Loan Exhibition,

TO BE HELD IN

Hope Chapel,

—ON—

February 12, 13, 14.

Doors open at 2:30 p. m.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

Stages will run during the afternoon and evening from Crescent Avenue Church by way of 5th and 7th streets alternately to chapel, commencing at 2 o'clock. 2 8 6

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

New Embroideries, Laces, Flouncings, etc.

Our assortment of these goods for the coming season is handsomer, more varied and complete than any we have yet shown, and embraces regular Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edges, Insertions and match sets in all grades and styles and a line of Exquisite Novelties which for new and original effects, exclusive and unique designs, are unsurpassed if not unequalled by any in the market.

Pretty Edgings and Embroideries Very Cheap.

A thousand lines could not tell the story any better. Great heaps of snowy Embroideries that first saw light in far off Switzerland are here.

In connection with our regular line we have purchased, direct from the manufacturers in St. Gaul, Switzerland, three large lots of Embroideries, which we will place on sale at one-third less than regglar prices.

Lot 1, 4c Yd. Lot 2, 8c Yd. Lot 3, 12c Yd

The wise ones ask no questions, but take them away in huge quantities.

777 and 779 Broad Street,
Newark, N. J.

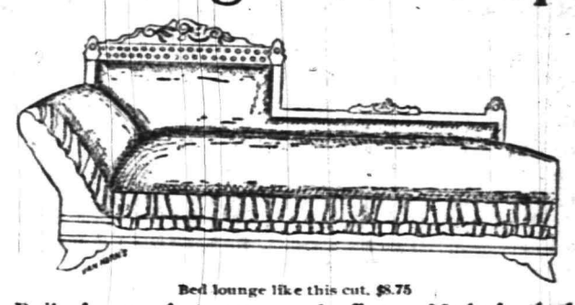
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

2½ Acres Of Furniture

ASK TO SEE THE FAMOUS "PORTLAND RAGE"

Carpets, Stoves, etc.,—that's what we have—every square foot of it's well covered—no chance for goods to go to seed here—all new lines, new designs, new everything. All unique prices—here's an instance or two:

Bed Lounges $5.00 up



Bed lounge like this cut, $8.75

Built for comfort, wear and effect. Made for bed and lounge. Variety of coverings.

Chiffoniers at $4.95

We've a real good line—many patterns—this especial one is worth every cent of $10.00. It's yours for $4.95.

Exactly like cut, $4.95

Carpets All Weaves

It's true gospel that we're selling a mulitude of Carpet patterns never to be duplicated again—they're at prices low enough to make them go.

Goods delivered Free of Charge to any part of the State. Purchases made now held until wanted—no cash needed

AMOS H. VAN HORN Ltd. Note the Name "AMOS"

Carpets, Stoves, Furniture, Etc.
Low Prices, Easy Terms
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST.
Near Plane St.
NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

One week commencing

Monday, February 10

Six nights and five matinees.
The Barnum of them all.

WAITE'S Comedy Company

Premium Band and Orchestra.

35 PEOPLE 35

in a repertorie of new comedies, dramas and society plays. Change of play every performance.

Prices 10, 20 and 30c

POPULAR DIME MATINEES,
daily, starting Tuesday.

Monday night—The Black Flag.

Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1 Seats on sale at Leggett's drug store.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

THE HOPE CHAPEL FAIR.

WILL BE AN EXHIBITION OF ARTICLES AGED, NOVEL AND VARIED.

Started This Afternoon With an Opening Address by Rev. W. R. Richards—General Description of What it Consists of.

Considerable has been said of the Industrial Fair at Hope chapel which opens this afternoon, but very few outside of those interested know what it is to be. A Daily Press reporter visited the chapel yesterday afternoon at the invitation of the committee in charge to learn something of the details of the fair. He found apparent chaos, but under the guidance of Chairman McGinnis, of the committee of arrangements, he was led, through the different departments and the entire plan of the fair explained.

If hard work and good material have anything to do with the success of the fair, then its complete success is already assured. It is no slight undertaking that has been planned, and the fair promises to excel anything of its kind held in this city.

But something of the fair itself. The usual attendant at the chapel may expect to be surprised with its interior appearance. Instead of a plainly furnished room, the newcomer will find himself confronted by booths of life and brightness. The ceiling will be one mass of flags and bunting, while on every side booths, artistically decorated, will add to the change. To the left of the entrance will be the stationery booth, where the Daily Press, paper, ink, and the like can be procured. This booth is located at the head of a hall that occupies the centre of the building. A stage has been built in the rear and here entertainments will be given every evening On the left is the loan exhibition, the supper rooms and kitchen. On the right come the booths which face a passage which, were it anywhere except in church, would be called the "Midway." The principal booths will be the men's and women's industrial booths, where articles manufactured by members of the congregation will be exhibited and sold. There will be some very nice things there, too.

Tea, fancy goods, candy, flowers and so forth will be represented at the different booths. There will be everything for sale from a candy doll to a flat iron.

The supper room does not need any explanation, while the loan exhibition is sure to attract many. Here, on one side is a collection of articles from or relating to the Holy Land while on the other is a genuine "old curiousity shop." Here George H. Fountain will reign supreme and his valuable archeological collection, augmented by numerous other contributions, will form a very interesting exhibit. Among the ancient relics is a portable military bootjack, owned and used in the military career of Gen. George Washington. Another curiousity is a copy of the New York Sun in 1833, marked "number one." But it is better to examine personally.

The fair opens this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and at three, Rev. W. R. Richards will deliver an opening address. The ladies orchestra will furnish musical selections during the afternoon. This evening the entertainment will begin at eight o'clock and include several selections by a double quartette from Princeton College. The fair closes at 10:30. The fair begins today and will be continued tomorrow and Friday.

Mr. Richards spoke as follows in his address opening the fair this afternoon:

I have been in some doubt what sort of address would be appropriate for an occasion like this, but certainly its tone ought to be cheerful. This seems like more feasting than fasting, and my first thought was that you would want something that would make you shake your sides with laughter. But on second thought, I am not so sure of that. This is a cheerful scene, but it has been no joke getting it all ready. It will be a time of good cheer and of merry-making, perhaps, for us who come together; but it has meant for some of you a great deal of solid work and self-denial. Whatever pleasure and advantage anyone is to get out of it, just so much devotion someone has put in it. And there has been a serious purpose in this devotion, this solid work. You have not taken all trouble for the sake of the good time that you expected to have here; but it was because you wanted to help along the service that has been rendered in this chapel in the name of Jesus Christ. That may be done in many ways.

One thing that this chapel has stood for is the truth that there are more ways than one of helping on Christ's work in this world. Just preaching at a man, or saying prayers for him, is not the only way to do him a Christian service. To give him a cup of water, if he is thirsty, may be a very Christian service; to give him a cordial welcome when he is lonely; to give him something good to read when his mind is dreary; or just a chance to come in and be warm when the cold storm is raging out in the dark; we have believed here that all these are forms of Christian service.

And so the pleasantest though to me in connection with this pleasant scene is that, so far as you have been moved to prepare all this for Christ's sake, He takes more pleasure in it than anyone else. Every stroke of hammer, every stitch of needle, every trouble cheerfully taken, have been known to Him, and are counted as a service to Him.

WEDDED AT BETHEL CHAPEL.

Miss Olive Lewis Last Night Became Mrs. Howard Grobes.

Bethel mission, corner of Fifth and Washington streets, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening, when Miss Ollie Lewis, of West Third street, was married to Howard Grobes. Horatio Randolph presided at the organ and gave pleasing selections while the guests were arriving. Owing to a misunderstanding the ceremony did not take place till 9:15. At that hour the bridal party entered, while the Lohengrin wedding march was being rendered. First came the ushers, Richard Norwood, Samuel Johnson, Wm. Burden and Charles Wyet. Then came the maid of honor, entering on the left. She wore a blue silk gown trimmed with lace, and carried pink roses. Following was the bride in a gown of pink silk trimmed with lace and white satin ribbon. She wore a tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She entered leaning on the arm of Benjamin Perkins, who gave her away. The three bridemaids, Misses Pauline Cole, Mattie Johnson and Miss Jackson came in succession as follows:

The groom entered on the right at the same time, accompanied by his best man, George M. Anderson, and Lewis Peterson. The bridal party formed a graceful circle around the altar where they were met by Rev. Mr. Alexander who performed the ceremony.

They retired from the church while Mendelssohn's wedding march was being rendered, and were immediately taken to the home of the groom, 314 Spooner avenue, where George M. Anderson and Benjamin Perkins gave the newly wedded couple a reception

A large collection of handsome presents were received by the bride and groom.

Old Vets Enjoy Themselves.

One of the best meetings ever held by Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G.A.R., was the one of last evening. There were about thirty comrades present, who revived the meeting by relating interesting war stories, and singing war songs. The campfire was lighted and it cheered the hearts of all present as the thrilling events of the past were recalled. An additional note of interest was the mustering of a recruit and he was warmly received. A smoker brought the event to a close.

Settling Up Township Business.

The North Plainfield Township Committee met last evening and paid bills amounting to about $600. The accounts of the Overseer of the Poor were adjusted, and the Collector reported $1,150 in the treasury, leaving a balance of about $500 after the payment of bills. The clerk, H. J. Martin, was instructed to make necessary arrangements for the spring election on March 10th. The committee then adjourned to Friday night, when all the business for the year will be closed up.

Officers Installed.

Last evening the Rathbone Sisters of Minerva Temple installed their officers for this term as follows: Most E. Chief, Mrs. Wm. J. Ford; E. S., Mrs. Bowman; E. J., Mrs. Haberly; M. of T., Mrs. Mattis; M. of R. and C., Mrs. J. F. Buckle; P. of T., Mrs. Stevens; C. of O. T., Mrs. Cox; P. C., Mrs. Boehm. Tonight all the Sisters will go to Newark, leaving Plainfield on the 6:04 train, to visit General Ward Temple to arrange for a grand temple.

Just Missed the Boy.

A large tree which has stood at the corner of Liberty and Front streets, fell yesterday morning, smashing the fence in front of Edward Nelson's residence. A small boy who was passing by narrowly escaped being killed, while the sled which he was dragging was demolished.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

ANTI-GARB BILL KILLED.

THE ENACTING CLAUSE STRICKEN OUT AFTER A SHARP DEBATE.

Few Senators Wanted to Commit Themselves. But Senator Daly Was Outspoken in His Denunciation of the Bill.

The Senate yesterday morning, by a vote of eleven to eight, ordered the enacting clause stricken from Senator Rogers' "Anti-Garb" which is copied from the Pennsylvania law, and prevents public school teachers from wearing in school any dress, insignia, marks, or emblems indicating the fact that such teacher is an adherent to or member of any religious order, sect, or denomination, and imposing a fine upon the board of education or school trustees permitting the same.

The bill was aimed at the Sisters of the Catholic church, but so far as is known there is none employed as a public school teacher; and at all events none wears the dress of the order. Senator Rogers poses as the leader of the "patriotic orders."

The Senators were not disposed to discuss the merits of the bill, remembering the efforts made by its friends last fall to defeat Senator Skirm because he spoke against it last year; and when Senator Daly, of Hudson, moved to strike out the enacting clause and expressed the opinion that it was the most iniquitous measure ever introduced in the Senate, the roll call was begun immediately.

When Senator Skirm's name was reached the vote as recorded stood 3 to 3, most of the Senators having refrained from voting. In explaining his vote, Mr. Skirm said that a more iniquitous bill could not be conceived and it ought to be killed at once with out any regard for Senatorial courtesy.

Senator Rogers denied that the bill was iniquitous. He considered it discourteous to the influences that sought the passage of the bill to move to strike out the enacting clause. He wanted it to go to third reading and be discussed on its merits on a day fixed for its consideration.

"What is the necessity for such a bill?" inquired Senator Daly.

"The necessity may arise at any time, the same as it did at McKeesport, Pa., where they undertook to introduce nuns in the public schools," replied Mr. Rogers.

"Whence comes the bill?" pursued Senator Daly.

"From the Junior O. U. A. M., the P. O. S. A., and kindred societies," answered Rogers.

"At the united request of all these societies? asked Senator Voorhees.

"It is," answered Rogers, and added: "At the request of the Executive Committees, who represent a membership close to 50,000 in New Jersey."

The discussion was out of order, but President Thompson permitted it to go on, as the Senators were anxious to have the bill disposed of at once. Senator Daly took the floor to speak in favor of his motion. The bill would promote discord and dissension where peace now reigns, and at a time when the leading minds of the Catholic and Protestant churches are seeking for common ground upon which they can all stand on the public school question.

Senator Rogers declared that the bill treats all sects alike, and simply emphasizes the constitutional provision.

"I don't think we have any right to pass this bill," said Senator Voorhees.

"One hundred and fifty thousand people do think so," exclaimed Mr. Rogers: "at least fifty thousand members of the patriotic orders do."

The subject having been pretty well discussed, Senator Rogers expressed a willingness to waive "Senatorial courtesy" and have a decisive vote taken at once. The eleven voting to strike out the enacting clause were: Messrs. Daly (Dem.) Gould, Herbert, Johnson, Ketcham, Kuhl (Dem.,) Parry, Skirm, Voorhees, Vreeland and Williams. Those in the negative were: Bradley, Engle, Hoffman, Packer, Rogers, Ross, Staates (Dem.) and Ward.

Many Assemblymen were present during the discussion, and expressed pleasure that the bill had been killed and that they would not be compelled to go on record on it in the House.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

CONCERT OF CHAMBER MUSIC.

The Programme Was Finely Rendered to an Appreciative Audience.

The chamber music concert held at the Casino last night was largely attended by the music loving public. The excellent programme, which was published in The Press last Saturday, was performed splendidly by the artists. Miss Nina Rathbone, the soprano, has a remarkably strong voice, well modulated and was loudly applauded. As an encore she sang "Calm as the Night," by Carl Bohm, with much feeling.

Mr. Gober, the solo 'cellist, ranks among the first artists. His playing is a marvel of technique and expression. He was recalled twice and played a slavic lullaby as an encore. P. Ludwig Conde played with his usual fine touch and feeling, and he proved himself a master of his instrument. E. Arthur Janke was the pianist of the evening. His playing shows a thorough technique, and he was loudly applauded. He also played the accompaniments for the soloists on a Mason & Hamlin piano.

The next chamber music concert will be held in April.

HIS SEVENTY-THIRD.

Alex. Willett's Friends Enjoy Themselves at His Birthday Anniversary.

A number of the relatives of Alex. Willett, the well known Park avenue shoe dealer, gave him a surprise party last evening, at his home on Craig place, in honor of his seventy third birthday. Conundrum and other games were indulged in, after which refreshments were gallantly served by Alburtus Swalm and T. S. Armstrong. The viands were well seasoned with humor and wit, blended in a manner as only these well known gentlemen can do it. After plantation and National songs had been sung, the friends returned to their homes to meditate on the fact that the next day was a birthday of another good man.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. Alburtus Swalm, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Armstrong, C. H. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Startup, the Misses Florence M., Alice V. and Daisy B. Kline, Edward J. Kline, Will Swalm, Clarence Swalm, H. Herbert Willett, Alfred Willett, Fred K. Armstrong and Miss Helen M. Armstrong.

A MASONIC FUNERAL.

Obsequies Over the Remains of the Late G. B. Nevius This Noon.

The funeral services were held over the remains of the late George B. Nevius, whose sad death was chronicled in these columns last Monday, at the First Presbyterian church this noon at 12 o'clock. The pall bearers were J. A Smith, Peter Emmons, ex-Judge W. R Codington, Hugh Knox, J. E. McClintock and Charles Sturtevant, members of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., of which the late Mr. Nevius was a member. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. C. E. Herring, after which the soleman and impressive Masonic service was conducted by C. C. Howard, assisted by the members of Anchor Lodge. Anchor Lodge attended in a body, while a number from Plainfield Council, Royal Arcanum, and many sorrowing friends, were also present.

The casket was covered with white Easter lilies, and a number of beautiful floral designs were placed about it. The interment took place at the Hillside cemetery vault.

Popular With the Force.

A most commendable feature of the present police force is that Councilman E. T. Barrows, who is chairman of the police committee, has become very popular among the men. He expects no more work from them than they are able to perform, and their duties have been clearly defined. Mr. Barrows is a man of system and this department will be looked after very carefully under his personal supervision. The committee are considering the advisability of a police signal service, and it is not unlikely that such a thing will be introduced at an early date. Oother improvements will be made from time to time as the demand requires it.

Borough Election.

The election in the borough of North Plainfield will occur on Tuesday, March 10th. The officers to be voted for are two councilmen, one justice of the peace, three commissioners of appeal and three pound-keepers. The boards of registry will meet on Tuesday, March 3d, in the First district in Powlison's second-hand store, while the Second will meet in the council chamber, over Spencer's store.

Somerset's Loss Will be $50,000.

After careful consideration and investigation the Somerset Board of Chosen Freeholders find that the damage to the county property will amount to about $50,000.

THE LINCOLN DINNER.

It Will Be a Gathering of Brilliant and Noted Men.

The Union County Country Club house will probably harbor this evening the most brilliant assemblage of men that has ever gathered there, the occasion being the annual dinner of the Union County Lincoln Association. The present officers of the association are as follows: President, W. C. West, of Roselle; vice president, Charles J. Fisk, of Plainfield; treasurer, M. W. Halsey, of Elizabeth; secretary, W. B. Timms, of Elizabeth; executive committee, E. M. Wood, of Elizabeth; E. C. Woodruff, of Elizabeth; E. W. Hale, of Cranford; H. B. Rollinson, of Rahway; M. W. Halsey, of Elizabeth.

The committee who have arranged for the speakers for this occasion is as follows: Congressman Chas. Fowler, of Elizabeth; G. W. Littell, of Cranford; J. H. Alexander, of Elizabeth.

The toasts that will be responded to at the conclusion of the dinner will be as follows: "The Memory of Abraham Lincoln" The company will respond to this by standing for a brief period in silence. "Abraham Lincoln," Jos. G. Cannon, of Illinois, Chairman of the House Appropriation Committee. "The Great Executive," John S. Wise, of New York, formerly of Virginia. "The Emancipation Proclamation and Its Results," Hon. E. C. Stokes, of New Jersey.

It is expected that about one hundred will be present.

INTELLIGENT DISCUSSION.

Progressive Plainfield Women Hear About Helen Hunt Jackson.

The study class of the Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women met at the Unitarian church yesterday and enjoyed a delightful study of "Helen Hunt Jackson." The paper was prepared and read by Miss Nettie Haviland and was one of thorough interest.

The paper treated chiefly of the noted woman's work among the Indians, which brought forth that remarkable book, "The Century of Dishonor," from her pen. Her knowledge of the race was gained while living in Colorado, when she heard two thrilling lectures by "Bright Eyes" and "Standing Bear," two Indians who gave an account of the way in which their race was being treated. This book was the means of the Government appointing her a special commissioner to the Indians. She suggested reforms which the Government has been following out. She died August 8th, 1885, and previous to her death sent a letter to President Cleveland thanking him for honors bestowed.

An enjoyable discussion of the subject followed the paper. A vote of thanks was given to Miss Haviland for her excellent paper.

AFTER NINE YEARS.

The Finders of a Stocking Full of Money Will Receive Their Shares.

This week the money found nine year ago in an old stocking in Elizabeth by five boys, who were playing along the railroad tracks, will at last be divided, each of the finders receiving an equal share. There was $755 in the stocking. The interest added to the sum since it was placed in the bank by the county detectives will bring the amount up to about $835. All of the lads have since grown to be men and two of them are married.

In Justice Nash's Court.

Justice Nash has given judgment for the plaintiff for $177.62 in the contract case of Lister against Clark; the case of Carter against Watt, on contract, has been settled, as was also the case of Force against Dejurion, on contract. Summons have been issued in the contract case of Soun et als against Stevens et als, returnable February 14th. The case of Green against Thorn, on contract, was adjourned till Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Justice has also issued a summons in the case of Dowd against Bindenberger, in tort, which is returnable February 13th. The defendant in the latter case was loaned some harness and he has failed to return it, hence the suit.

For Students.

A list of books in the Free Public Library on the Arabs and the Caliphate University Extension lecture:

Blunt, Bedouin tribes of the Euphrates.
*Freeman, History and conquests of the Saracens.
Gibbon, Roman empire, chapters 50-52.
*Gilman, Story of the Saracens.
Irving, Conquest of Granada.
Irving, Mahomet.
Lord, Beacon lights of history, v 2.
Muir, Life of Mohammed.
*Palmer, Life of Haroun AlRaschid.
Palmer's Translation of Koran.
*Poole, Story of the Moors in Spain.
Poole, Story of Turkey.
*Taylor, Travels in Arabia.
*Taylor, Lands of the Saracens
Thomson, Land and the Book, 3 v.
Watts, Christian recovery of Spain.
*Yonge, Christians and Moors in Spain.

Note—Students are also referred to the following articles in the Encyclopedia Britanica: Abbassides, Arabia, Caliph and Mohammed. The best books in this list are indicated by the asterisk.

ALL WERE TO BE EQUAL.

THAT WAS ONE OF THE ORIGINAL TENETS OF MOHAMMEDISM.

The Ninth Lecture By Dr. Riggs Delivered Last Night—His Subject Was "The Arab and the Caliphate."

A very interesting lecture on "The Arabs and the Caliphate" was delivered last night by Dr. James F. Riggs in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. This lecture was the ninth in the University Extension course on the Eastern Question. The attendance, as usual, was very large.

The lecture dealt with the history of the successors of Mohammed. Dr. Riggs said, in opening:

Mohammed established an ultra-democratic theory of life—a theocratic government, in which all men were to be equal before God, with one man as spokesman. The idea of a hereditary kingdom is alien to Mohammedanism; the Caliphs were not a dynasty in the conventional sense. But human nature is often too strong for the ecclesiastical theory, and the Caliphs became kings in reality if not in name. During the days of the four "orthodox Caliphs," Abu Bikr, Omar, Othman and Ali, a primitive simplicity of life prevailed among the Mohammedan rulers. But as soon as this primitive simplicity began to disappear the Caliphs became nothing but oriental despots.

During the first century after the birth of Mohammedanism, the soldiers of the new faith were animated by a wild fanaticism that enabled them to carry everything before them. They had embarked in a tremendous enterprise, the conquest of the world; and for about a hundred years they suffered no important defeat. Persia, Egypt, northern Africa and Spain, were conquered by their irresistible onslaught. But, early in the eighth century, their repeated attacks on Constantinople were rendered fruitless by the Jenins and gallantry of Leo, the Isaurian, and about the same time their invasion of Europe was checked, on the field of Tours, by the Franks under Charles Martel.

The golden age of the Caliphate covers the latter part of the eighth and the ninth century of our era, and was illustrated by the reigns of such princes as Almansor and the renowned Haroum-al-Rashid.

The four causes that led to the downfall of the Caliphate were the claims of rival Caliphs, the rise of anarchical and destructive sects, the separation of remote provinces, and the insolence of foreign mercenaries at home. The Arabs were no longer supreme, and the Caliphs of the south were about to make room for the Sultans of the north.

Dr. Riggs' next lecture will tell of the Ottoman Empire of today, with especial reference to the Armenians.

RECEPTION AT STREULI'S.

A Pleasant Event in Plainfield Society Last Evening.

A delightful reception and dance was given at the residence of H. A. Streuli on Prospect avenue last evening, and about four hundred from Plainfield's social circles were in attendance. The affair was given by H. A Streuli and Mr. and Mrs. Evarts Tracy to introduce Mr. and Mrs. H. Alfred Streuli, Jr. The guests were received by Mrs. Clifford Wharton, Mrs. Schipper, Mrs. Louis G. Timpson, Mrs. John Benson, Mrs. Jose Machado and Mrs. Howard Tracy.

The house was charmingly decorated with flowers, mostly roses, and the dining room presented a beautiful appearance. The dancing was continued until a late hour. Rogers furnished the music.

Church Notes.

The topic for the prayer meeting this evening in the M. E. church is, "That Neighbor of Mine."

Why not have a grand prayer meeting rally in all the churches tonight? Let every member in town and in health attend.

Let the "Rescue Mission" workers remember that it is a fundamental rule of that organization to attend the services of their own church.

The official members of the First M. E. church are reminded that an adjourned meeting of the official board will be held this evening after the prayer meeting. The attendance of all is urged.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

NO RED TAPE FOR HIM

Gen. Weyler Receives a Delegation of Consuls and Business Men.

HIS ASSURANCES MOST FRIENDLY

Will Promptly Attend to Any Case Brought to His Notice by Personal Calls. Several Political Prisoners Released by Him.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Havana, Feb. 12.—Captain-General Weyler last evening received a delegation of the political parties, foreign consuls and commercial bodies. To the consuls he gave assurances of the most friendly nature, and promised to give prompt attention to any cases brought to his notice by personal calls, without witing for formal communications or red tape proceedings. A number of political prisoners who were recently arrested in the province of Santiago de Cuba, and who were brought here for deportation by the steamer sailing to-day, were released by order of Gen. Weyler. His action was due to the fact that it was found that the charges against the prisoners were false. Gen. Sabas Marin, who acted as captain-general in the interval between the departure of Gen. Campos for Spain and the arrival of Weyler, has sailed for Porto Rico to assume the governorship. It is said that Gen. Canallas will be recalled to Spain on account of family troubles. J. FRANK CLARK.

Seiba Mocha Filled with Rebels.

Colon, Cuba, Feb. 1, via Tampa, Fla., Feb. 12.—Nunez, the rebel chief, was at Amarillas a few days ago. He forced thirty farm hands to assist in transporting the wounded men of his party. People from Seiba Mocha report that district as being filled with rebels. The rebel chiefs Garcia and Armas are at Seiba Mocha with two large bands. They visit the plantations and estates, asking for money and looting houses when their demand are refused. The rebel chief Varona has moved on to unite his forces with those of Pancho Perez. Lacrat has been recruiting his ranks from the farming classes in the department of Colon and Cardenas. The large central factory of the Jibuiabo sugar estate continued work until yesterday, affording employment to many laborers. It was one of the largest and most valuable. Last night it was surrounded by a band of rebels and set on fire. Its destruction throws the laborers out of employment and adds to the general misery.

PRESIDENTIAL POSTMASTERS.

A Long List of Nominations Confirmed by the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The senate has confirmed the following postmaster nominations: Maine—H. H. Harden, Ellsworth; G. R. Smith, Kennebunk; C. A. Wilber, Madison. New Hampshire—J. W. Bean, Derry Depot. Vermont—Mary W. Chase, Darby Line. Massachusetts—George Cushing, Hingham. Rhode Island—W. P. Clancy, Westerly. Connecticut—T. J. O'Sullivan, Derby. New York—A. R. Moore, Fredonia; D. C. Adams, Randolph; P. J. Kiernan, Rosebank; James McLean, Cohocton; Frank Pickard, St. Johnsville; John S. Tighe, Avon; Elmer Winner, Liberty; Patrick Hurley, Potsdam; R. C. Sargent, East Aurora. New Jersey—E. F. Dell, Woodbury.

Danielson's Fire Department Trouble.

Danielson, Conn., Feb. 12.—Charles N. Capron, chief engineer of the fire department, having refused to resign at the request of the authorities it has been voted to dismiss him, in spite of the petition of three-fourths of the firemen for his retention. Many of the members of the department are dissatisfied and talk of resigning on account of the dismissal.

Boston & Maine Railroad Earnings.

Boston, Feb. 12.—The statement of the Boston & Maine railroad for the six months ended Dec. 31, 1895, shows a gross income of $11,156,959, an increase of $2,203,529 over the same period of 1894. Operating expenses were $7,660,537, an increase of $1,856,154, and net income $3,815,615, an increase of $472,375.

Lister's Crew Rescued.

New York, Feb. 12.—Capt. John Robinson of the steam lighter Alfred Lister, which sank off Rockaway yesterday, and four men, the crew of the vessel, who were thought to have been lost, have arrived safely at Stapleton, S. I. They were rescued by the steam barge Two Brothers.

For an Oyster Commission.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 12.—In the house last evening Mr. Slover introduced a bill providing for the appointment of three oyster commissioners by the governor for a term of three years, who compensation shall be one-half of all fines collected for violations of the law.

Ice Blockade Raised.

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 12.—A change in the wind last night raised the ice blockade. All the shipping which has been waiting for an entrance has reached port. The steamers Barcelona and Portia which arrived report immense ice fields extending off the coast.

An Old White House Elm Blown Down.

Washington, Feb. 12.—During the heavy gale yesterday a giant elm tree that has stood at the west entrance to the circular driveway leading to the White House for nearly a century, was uprooted and fell.

Youngs Murder Trial.

Fonda, N. Y., Feb. 12.—The twelfth juror was secured last evening for the trial of William Youngs, the wife murderer, and the examination of witnesses begun. More than a hundred witnesses have been subpoenaed.

ENGLAND WILL AID.

Venezuelan Boundary Data To Be Furnished Our Commission.

London, Feb. 12.—A parliamentary paper has been issued containing the correspondence between Great Britain and the United States since 1887 relative to the boundary of British Guiana. The correspondence concludes with dispatches recently exchanged by Secretary of state Olney and Lord Salisbury. The first of these dispatches, sent through Ambassador Bayard on Feb 3, informed Lord Salisbury that the American commission had been formed and was sitting at Washington, and that being in nowise an arbitration tribunal, having had its duty limited to ascertaining the facts, it had suggested to Mr. Olney that it would be grateful for such assistance as could be obtainable through the co operation of Great Britain and Venezuela. Therefore, he applied to his lordship, if entirely consistent with his sense of international propriety, to furnish such documentary proof, historical narratives in the unpublished archives, or other evidence within the power of the government, and also any facilities conveniently possible. The dispatch quotes part of Justice Brewer's letter to Secretary Olney, and concludes that the purpose of the investigation is certainly hostile to none nor can it advantage any that the effort to procure the desired information should fail of its purpose, the sole concern of the United States being a peaceful solution of a controversy between friendly powers. Lord Salisbury replied on February 7 that any information at the command of the government upon any subject of inquiry occupying the attention of the United States would be readily placed at the disposal of the president. He announces the collection of documents for parliamentary proceedings, and promises Mr. Bayard advance copies as soon as they are complete. Mr. Bayard replied on February 10 thanking Lord Salisbury and assuring him that the United States government would appreciate his courtesy.

FOR QUAY FOR PRESIDENT.

Gov. Hastings Is in Favor of the Senator if He Is a Candidate.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb 12.—Gov. Hastings declared in an interview yesterday afternoon that he is in favor of Senator Quay for the presidency if he is a candidate. Recently the governor was assured by Senator Quay that if he desired the vote of the Pennsylvania delegation in the next national convention he (Quay) would be for him, but the governer declined. He said: "I knew there was no show for my nomination and was not hunting for compliments. Senotor Quay's candidacy would have a twofold effect in this state. It would reunite the party in broad and lasting foundations, which every true republican would welcome, and would help to dispel the idea abroad in the country that because Pennsylvania is the leading republican protection state and alway safe therefore she should never have a presidential candidate. Pennsylvania's constant republicanism should be the best argument in favor of a Pennsylvania candidate. I will be for Quay if he is willing to be a candidate."

"BA" SHEA'S REMAINS.

They Arrive in Troy This Morning from the Dannemora Prison.

Troy, N. Y., Feb 12.—It is not definitely decided whether the funeral of "Bat" Shea, who was electrocuted at Dannemora prison yesterday, will be held to-morrow or Friday morning. The dead man himself dictated all the arrangements for his funeral, even to the clothes in which he should be buried. He also selected his own pallbearers, and the men chosen by him will serve. The casket, which was taken to Dannemora to receice the body, is of Gothic oak and has elaborate brass trimmings. The body arrived here at 2:15 o'clock this morning and was taken at once to the home of Mrs. Shea, the dead man's mother. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church.

Railroads Blocked by Snow.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Feb. 12.—The snow storm continued with udabated fury until late last night. The wind blew a sixty mile clip from the northwest and the mercury fell rapidly. The Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley & Pittsburg road is completely tied up. All roads entering the city are badly effected by the storm. Reports from the surrounding country state that houses were unroofed and barns blown down by the high wind.

Confirmed by the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The senate in executive session confirmed the following nominations: Frank C. Richardson, collector of customs at Gloucester, Mass. James S. McCabe, United States marshal for Rhode Island.

Herring Vessels.

Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 12.—A meeting of owners of herring vessels was held here yesterday afternoon, and they agreed to fix prices, sell cargoes and purchase all the unsold frozen herring now at this port.

Gale on the New England Coast.

Highland Light, Mass., Feb. 12.—A northwest gale prevailed here all last night increasing at midnight to forty-five miles per hour. Several vessels are reported at anchor and in very dangerous positions.

Steamer Henderson Ashore.

Marcus Hook, Pa., Feb. 12.—The steamer Lizzie Henderson, Capt. Willetts, from Philadelphia for New York, is aground on the upper end of Chester island. Tugs pulled on her, but failed to move her.

Treasury Gold Reserve.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The treasury gold reserve at the opening of business to-day stood at $51,942,725.

L. A. W. CONVENTION

Sterling Elliott of Boston Elected President Over Mr. Willison.

LOUISVILLE NEXT PLACE OF MEETING

Growth of the National League During the Past Year Encouraging—Finances in Better Shape—State Charter Recommended.

Baltimore, Feb. 12.—The National assembly of the League of American Wheelmen has succeeded in disposing of a lot of important matters. First in importance was the election of officers, in which Sterling Elliott of Massachusetts gained a victory over his only competitor, Archibald C. Willison of Maryland, who was a candidate for re-election. M. F. Gossum of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was elected first vice-president, A. C. Morrison of Wisconsin, second vice-president, and E. S. Hartwell of Denver, Col., treasurer. For auditing committee, J. Fred Adams of New York, J. J. Van Nort of Pennsylvania, and G. A. McCarty of Denver, were chosen. Later, the convention passed upon the respective claims of Louisville and Toledo for the honor of entertaining the pedalers in their mid-summer meet, in which Louisville won. Preceding these events was the very important report of the racing board and the announcement of the reinstatement of the suspended Brooklyn rider, Chas. M. Murphy. The best part of the report of President Willison was devoted to advocating the incorporation of the league. It had always been a great drawback to the officers that the league was not incorporated, and several schemes which they desired to put in operation had to be abandoned on this account. President Willison recommended that the assembly pass a resolution for the appointment of a committee to ask the Maryland legislature for an act of incorporation. He said that by being incorporated in this state by an act of the legislature the league could continue on the same lines as heretofore and would not have to make any changes, as it would if it were incorporated in many other states or by the regular methods of incorporation.

Membership and Finance.

The treasurer's report on the financial status of the league showed a cash balance of $4,235. The cash balance on hand last year was less than a thousand dollars. The receipts from new members and renewals were $14,736; from other sources, $1,451; total, $16,187. The total expenses were $11,952. The racing board received from all sources last year $3,831 and paid out $3,164, showing that the board is self-supporting. Secretary Bassett's report showed that the membership of the L. A. W. has increased 13,183 during the year. The total figures are now 40,042. New York made a phenomenal record in new membership and jumped from third place to first, with a total membership of 10,414. New Jersey also made a big gain. Attention is called to the fact that the list embraces 1,470 lady members, a gain of 780.

Laidlaw-Sage Damage Suit.

New York, Feb. 12.—In the appelate division of the supreme court yesterday afternoon argument was heard in the appeal taken by Russell Sage from the verdict of $40,000 damages and $3,104.25 costs awarded William R. Laidlaw for injuries received in Mr. Sage's office December 4, 1891, by reason of the famous Norcross dynamite explosion.

New Trial Asked for Putnam.

Concord, N. H., Feb. 12.—Counsel for Warren F. Putnam, convicted of wrecking the Granite State national bank of Exeter, have filed a motion for a rehearing, the principal ground for which is that respondent failed to get justice. Putnam is under sentence of five years in the New Hampshire state prison.

Gibbons and Satolli Leave for New Orleans.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Cardinal Gibbons and party of Baltimore and Cardinal Satolli, apostolic delegate, and his private secretary, left Washington last night by a special car on the Southern railway for New Orleans to be present at the opening of the Catholic winter school in that city, February 16.

Another Life-Saving Station Needed.

Amesbury, Mass., Feb. 12.—A petition is being circulated in this and neighboring towns asking for a life-saving station to be established at Salisbury beach, the late disaster to the schooner Florida showing its necessity.

G. A. R. of Vermont.

Rutland, Vt., Feb. 12.—At the annual encampment, department of Vermont, G. A. R., the reports showed a total membership in good standing of 4,891, against 5,097 last year. Of the loss, death caused a falling off of 122.

Must Do Something.

"Mamma," said Jack, "may I go out and play?"

"No; you must sit still where you are."

Pause.

"Ma, can't I go down in the kitchen?"

"You may not. I want you to sit perfectly quiet."

Another pause.

"Mammy, mayn't I sit on the floor and play marbles?"

"Now, my dear boy, I have told you twice that I want you to sit just where you are and be quiet, and I mean exactly what I say."

Third pause.

"Ma—may I — grow?" — Harper's Young People.

Hereditary.

"There's one characteristic of old Adam that has clung to mankind during all stages of life."

"What is that?"

"Well, you know Adam didn't even make a kick when he was fired from Eden, but when he got home he proceeded to raise Cain."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Word to the Wise.

Sufficient, 'tis said, is a word to the wise;
This word to the wise I now speak:
Now is the time to advertise,
Be you Yankee or German or Greek.
—Detroit Free Press.

DIFFERENT EYES.

He (in love)—There she goes with her St. Bernard. Beauty and the beast over again.

The Other One—Yes; isn't he a beauty?—Life.

The First Sign.

Paterfamilias—My dear, I think that our daughter, Alice, is getting to be a woman now.

Materfamilias—I know it, love. But how did you come to notice it?

Paterfamilias—She jumped up on a chair to-day when Tommy yelled: "A mouse!"—N. Y. World.

Bill Escape and Fire Escape.

Guest—What does this mean?

Clerk—What does what mean?

Guest—This notice that says the guests who have rope fire escapes in their rooms must pay in advance?

Clerk—It means just what it says. We're taking no chances.—Syracuse Post.

Why He Gave It Up.

"Jones, why don't you go to work and earn a living?"

"My dear Smith, what's the use? I tried it once for a little while, and no sooner did I earn a dollar than I had to spend it. So I gave it up."—N. Y. Recorder.

Fly.

"Should I fly with Edwin, papa,
Would the bills be paid by thee?"
The old man sternly chid her
And said: "No flies on me!"
—Puck

THE COOK'S ALTERNATIVE.

Bridget—Mr. Bildad, yer wife come into the kitchen this marnin' and insoolted me, an' it's wan av two things—either she laves this house or I does.—Judge.

Supplying a Deficiency.

Hazel—Gilson has taken such an interest in his typewriter he is educating her.

Nutte—What is she taking?

Hazel—A course in spelling.—Brooklyn Life.

Economize.

One and a half teaspoonfuls

Horsford's Baking Powder.

gives better results than two full teaspoonfuls of any other. TRY IT.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. t

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND.

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

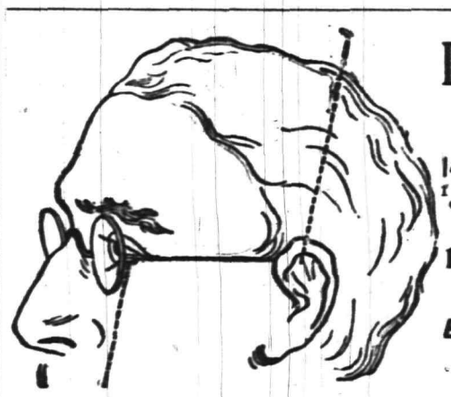
DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.



Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

107 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

No. 169 North avenue.
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
101 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER. Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair rates.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street.
6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
Chas. H. Herring, Contracting Agent, 403 East 2d st.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y
Write for Catalogue.

Hands Off.
Why try to press back a side ache with your hand, as so many do, when an Allcock's Porous Plaster
will not only relieve the pain but prevent its return. The best remedy known for weak back, strains, sprains, lameness and all local pains.
Bear in Mind—Not one of the host of counterfeits and imitations is as good as the genuine.
Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills.
A safe and sure remedy for diseases arising from impurity of the blood.

IF
You take advantage of the great closing out sale of Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at Edward Love's, and will let him do your spring decorating, you will be money in pocket.

NOTICE
Estate of Sarah C. Hanford, deceased.
Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the county of Union, made on the application of the undersigned administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of Dec., 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.
ANNA AUGUSTA GODWIN,
12 18—o a w Administratrix.

GEO. O. STEVENS
COAL
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

WALLER TO GO FREE

Must First Waive All Claims Damages Against France.

NEW FACTS IN THE CASE MADE PUBLIC

Fairly Convicted by French Tribunal—No Doubt of His Guilt—Probably Conspired Also Against Property and Lives of Americans.

Washington, Feb. 12.—A report from Secretary Olney, sent to both houses of congress by President Cleveland in answer to resolutions of inquiry, shows that John L. Waller, formerly consul of the United States at Tamatave, Madagascar, and now in a French prison serving a sentence of twenty years' imprisonment for treason, will be immediately released by the French government and given a full pardon when he complies with the agreement of the United States to make no claim in his behalf based on his arrest, conviction or imprisonment. Mr. Waller has not consented to the agreement, but it will undoubtedly be carried out, and Ambassador Eustis has been instructed to furnish him with means to reach the United States. The message from the president and Secretary Olney's report are accompanied by all the correspondence in this case. A full resume of that portion which pertains to Waller's arrest and imprisonment is contained in the report, which is devoted to a full discussion of the whole affair, considered from a legal and diplomatic standpoint.

New Facts in the Case.

The story leading up to Waller's arrest is of a character somewhat more interesting than has hitherto been made public. It begins with the death of W. F. Crockett, a citizen of the United States residing in Madagascar in 1892. Waller, as United States consul, assumed charge of the estate and so informed the state department, but, excepting a late report that he had converted the property into money, nothing further on the subject was heard. The official documents state that "the present United States consul, Edward T. Wetter, who took charge of the consulate at Tamatave the last of January, 1894, found the records of the consulate in a state of great confusion. Waller had disappeared, the consulate was in charge of an acting vice-consul named Geldart, and there was no account on the records relating to the Crockett estate subsequent to November, 1892, when Waller took charge of it."

Convicted of Mismanaging Funds.

Wetter called on Waller and Geldart for an accounting of the Crockett estate. Geldart answered that Waller had not turned over any part to him, and then Wetter entered a civil suit against Waller in the name of the United States, based upon averments of his negligence and mismanagement of fiduciary trusts, and took steps to prevent his leaving Madagascar until he had settled. The American citizen, Duder Poupard, sat with Consul Wetter as associate judge, but Waller objected to them and they were withdrawn and two other Americans were substituted. The court rendered a verdict "that Mr. Waller had been guilty of gross mismanagement of the funds of said estate; that Mr. Waller has been guilty of abuse and negligence of his fiduciary trusts, both as a citizen and an official; that we therefore adjudge him unworthy of further confidence and order his removal from said fiduciary capacities; that he pay into the United States consular court sitting in probate jurisdiction at Tamatave, within forty-five days hereof, the amount of the balance due said Crockett's heirs now in his hands, to wit, $1,961.67, in the currency of Madagascar."

America Would Have Prosecuted Him.

Consul Wetter asked the state department for permission to prosecute Waller criminally, to which the department replied that if the criminal law had been violated it was the consul's duty to take the proper measures. This reply was not received by Wetter until after Waller's arrest for treason. A letter from Consul Wetter to the department also contained an allusion to the Waller rubber concession, or land grant, near Fort Dauphin. After indicating various ways in which the Crockett money may have been consumed by Waller, there is a suggestion that some of it may have been spent in bribes to secure the concession. But no evidence to that effect is reported, and neither is there any proof of the nature, extent, validity or value of the concession. That it was believed to have some value is shown by the account of Mrs. Waller's efforts to raise money on it for the payment of the judgment against Waller. "On the other hand," says Mr. Olney in his report, "the value may have been supposed to be dependent upon the issue of the contest then going on between the French and the natives, while it is certain that the French authorities have always held the concessions to be without any validity."

Intended To Provoke the Hovas to War.

"In order to understand the significance of the information communicated," says Mr. Eustis, "it must be borne in mind that the French had a garrison at Tamatave and the Hovas had one at Faratafe. These two points were distant from each other a few miles. In a letter to Tessier he describes the condition at Tamatave; that smallpox is raging; that many are dying; that there are more than one hundred French soldiers in the hospitals; that they have dysentery and fever and unless there should be a change in the order very soon the fatality of both soldiers and citizens will be very great. Then he speaks of the scarcity of provisions; of the arrest of several Hovas, who were reported to have been shot. To have communicated the enfeebled and straitened condition of the garrison at Tamatave might certainly have provoked the attack by the Hovas from Faratafe, the information being given to an agent of the Hovas." Waller also described assaults and other outrages committed by French soldiers on Malagasy women, and speaks of Malagasy property destroyed. "Whether these statements were true or false," says Mr. Eustis, "they were certainly calculated to increase the horrors of war by provoking retaliation on the part of the Hovas."

Waller's Trial and Conviction.

On March 18 Waller was brought to trial before a French military tribunal charged with: First—The dispatching of a letter from Tamatave without the same having been vised by the French authorities, in contravention of a public order promulgated Jan. 18, 1895; and, second, attempting to correspond with the enemies of France and to furnish them information prejudicial to the military and political situation of France. Waller's attorney refused to act unless compensation was guaranteed and the French authorities assigned him counsel, who was assisted by Consul Wetter. The trial was open, and the court, by a unanimous vote, found Waller guilty on both charges and sentenced him to twenty years' imprisonment. An appeal was taken and rejected. When the matter was reported to the state department in April, 1895, Secretary Gresham instructed Ambassador Eustis to call upon the French government for a record of all the proceedings, including a copy of the evidence. Ambassador Eustis examined all the papers and discovered Waller's guilt upon the charge of sending a letter from Tamatave without permitting the French authorities to inspect it, stood confessed. Secretary Olney quotes copiously from Ambassador Eustis' report, particularly in reference to the letters sent by Waller to a friend, Mr. Tossier, and Mrs. Waller.

Guilty, and Fairly Convicted.

Further extracts in letters in Waller's handwriting, which he acknowledged at his trial, are given by Ambassador Eustis, who in a telegram of December 7 summarized his conclusions as follows: "It is proper to state that before examining the evidence I had been inclined to believe from the information I could gather that Waller was perhaps convicted on insufficient evidence, that on account of the prejudice against him he might not have had a fair trial. After examining the original letters of Waller I have no doubt whatever of his guilt. It was not a case of inadvertent or imprudent writing, but was a deliberate attempt to give information to the emeny to the prejudice of the military situation of France. The evidence fully sustains the charge. The whole tenor of the correspondence discloses his guilty intention and no court could have hesitated to condemn him."

Plotted Even Against Americans.

Secretary Olney declares that the letter and the minutes of Waller's counsel raise the serious question whether Waller was not intriguing not merely against the French but against the safety and lives of American citizens. Secretary Olney, after examining the evidence, found it impossible to do more for Waller than to accomplish his release and he determined that compensation for damages could only be sought later through the action of the United States or by suit of Waller in the French courts. "But in view of Waller's wilful and culpable attempt against the French authority in Madagascar," says Secretary Olney, "it is manifest that no claim for damages on Waller's account could be properly pressed." While there is some question as to irregularities in the proceedings of the tribunal that convicted him, no substantial injustice has resulted therefrom. The French courts are as open to Waller to bring action for damages against the government or any individual as they are to a French subject and Ambassador Eustis has been instructed from Washington to furnish security for costs of any suit before the French tribunals which Waller may institute, and the ambassador has already been authorized to supply Waller with the means of transportation home should he wish to return. The family of Waller, being left in destitute circumstances, this government has accorded them relief amounting thus far to $1,317.14.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot market demand dull and weak. February, 73¼c.; March, 74¼c.; May, 72c.

Corn—Spot easier; moderate demand. February, 36⅝c.; May, 36⅛c.

Oats—Spot held firm, but quiet. February, 25⅝c.; March, 25½c.; May, 25⅝c.

Pork—Spot quiet and unsettled. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $11.00@$11.25.

Lard—Contracts are dull and easy. May, $5.92.

Butter—There is a fair trade in fancy creamery and the tone of the market is firmer, but not higher. Creamery, western extras, 19c. State and Pennsylvania, seconds to best, 14@17½c.; creamery, western, seconds to firsts, 14@17½c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, seconds to firsts, 12@15c.

Cheese—Fancy September is held firmly with demand good. State, full cream, large size, September colored, choice, 9a10¼c.; September white fancy, 9@10¼c.; large common to choice, 7¼@10c.

Eggs—Receipts are liberal but not excessive and holders generally firm at 14½@15c. for best western.

Potatoes—The demand for choice grades continues slow and the market weak. State Burbank, per 180 pounds, 80c.@$1.00, and state rose and Hebron, per 180 pounds, 85@90c.

AGAINST SALISBURY

The Government's Foreign Policy Attacked by Liberals.

SCORED FOR ARMENIAN ATTITUDE

British South African Company Denounced—Harcourt Regrets Delay in Settlement of the Venezuelan Boundary Dispute.

London, Feb. 12.—In the house of commons Sir William Harcourt, the liberal leader, opposed the address in reply to the queen's speech. Referring to the brief reference to the Venezuelan boundary dispute, in which she said she expressed sympathy with the desire to come to an equitable arrangement, and trusted that further negotiations would lead to a satisfactory settlement, Mr. Harcourt said: "It was in the highest degree desirable that the misunderstanding between Great Britain and the United States over the Monroe doctrine should be removed in both countries at the earliest possible moment. The government of the United States had expressed a desire to cooperate in a friendly solution of the dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela, and he was rejoiced to see in the speech from the throne that the prospect was welcomed. The only practical question remaining was whether in the Venezuelan difficulty there had been any invasion of the rights of the United States, as upon that point no pronouncement had been made by the United States government." It was, in his judgment, a doubtful suggestion whether the United States could co-operate in the settlement of the Venezuelan difference in default of that government's having in its possession all of the information bearing thereon which was at England's disposal. He, therefore, regretted the delay in the publication of the case of Great Britain, and demanded that a prompt and honorable conclusion of the affair be arrived at.

Salisbury Attacked.

In the house of lords the late premier, Roseberry, made an eloquent speech, denouncing the chartered British South Africa company in its recent connection with the Boer disturbances, and demanded that its charter be revised. Lord Roseberry also severely scored Lord Salisbury's recent utterances on the Armenian question, and declared that such confession of utter impotency had never been made before by a British minister. Was this, he asked, peace with honor?

PAYING FOR THE BONDS.

Over $800,000 Received at Boston During the First Day.

Boston, Feb. 12.—When the doors of the sub-treasury were closed yesterday afternoon, $810,000 had been placed in Sub-Treasurer O'Neil's strong boxes, representing a partial payment by the bidders for the bonds recently offered by the United States government. Yesterday was the first day upon which the first 20 per cent. of the bids could be paid, and shortly after the treasury doors opened the gold began pouring in. It was carried in by messengers in strong cloth bags and leather satchels, and the gold pieces were piled high on the desks of the receiving clerks. Nearly all the gold came from banks and individuals in Boston. It is expected that the banks in the other cities in this state and other New England states will at once send in their gold, as Saturday is the last day upon which the first payment can be made.

Gold Deposited in New York for Bonds.

New York, Feb. 12.—Deposits of gold at the sub-treasury yesterday in payment for bonds were $6,774,716.11. The withdrawals were $920,000. Gold to the amount of $3,000,000 was deposited in the sub-treasury for exam ination and $3,000,000 was also deposited in the assay office. Both of these amounts will be applied on bonds.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

Annual Reunion of the Massachusetts Press Association at Boston.

Boston, Feb. 12.—The Massachusetts Press association held its twenty-seventh annual reunion and banquet at the United States hotel yesterday afternoon with over 150 present. At the business meeting these officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Benjamin Anthony, New Bedford Daily Standard; vice-presidents, E. H. Pierce, Revere Journal; Alexander Starbuck, Waltham Daily Free Press; A. C. Dowse, New England Grocer; R. S. Barrows, Jamaica Plain News; George W. Prescott, Quincy Patriot; secretary, Harwood B. Smith, Rockland Standard; historian, George H. Proctor, Gloucester Daily Times; auditor, G. A. Hanscom, Lowell Daily Times.

Royal Templars of Temperance.

Erie, Pa., Feb. 12.—The Royal Templars of Temperance of Pennsylvania are holding their fourteenth annual session here to-day. Two hundred delegates are present. The order extends over twenty-seven states and has 25,000 members.

Wanted in Rhode Island for Robbery.

Liverpool, Feb. 12.—John L. O'Brien, who was arrested in Rhode Island for robbery, and who fled after being released, has been arrested in this city on an extradition warrant. He was employed here as bartender.

Western Ontario Snowbound.

Toronto, Feb. 12.—Dispatches from western Ontario points indicate that railway traffic is badly blocked by yesterday's snow storm.

For Biennial Election.

Boston, Feb. 12.—The house has passed the resolve providing for biennial elections by a vote of 175 to 54.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

106 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD N. J., FEB. 12, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Nagle.)

Threatening Tonight and Thursday. Warmer Thursday.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 37 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 12—Lincoln Club's dinner at the Casino.
February 12—Entertainment of the Sons of Veterans.
February 12—Hope Chapel Industrial Fair opens.
February 12—Meeting of Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Grace P.E.Church chapel. 8 p. m.
February 13—Meeting of Boys' Branch of Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Grace P. E. Church chapel.
February 13—Supper in Trinity Reformed Church.
February 13—Adjourned business meeting of the W.C.T.U.

The three-cent car fare is being agitated in both the New Jersey and New York Legislatures.

The Legislature adjourned yesterday until Thursday in order to observe Lincoln's birthday today.

The States that observe Lincoln's birthday are New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Minnesota and Washington.

The Muhlenberg hospital managers complain of the lack of room for the number of patients they have to care for. A gift of $10,000 for increasing the facilities is greatly needed.

The Senate did well to kill the anti-garb bill of Senator Rogers, yesterday. It was a piece of legislation that had no place in the hearts of patriotic people. Religious intolerance will not stand in this country.

Union county appears to be the only section of the State where an influential portion of the people believe that everything should take a back seat until the anti-race-track feeling has become part of the fundamental law of the State, says the Tribune this morning.

Among the names mentioned for Councilmanic honors in the borough at the approaching election are Messrs. Martin A. Korff, of Watchung Park, W. Hull Western, of Washington Park, Lewis R. Blackford, of Grove street, Elston M. French, George Worth and W. F. Williams. A good list. Any one of which would make a good Councilman.

Governor Grigg has appointed former Judge Woodbridge Strong to succeed J. Kearney Rice as Presiding Judge of the Middlesex County Court, and John S. Voorhees to succeed Robert Adrain as Prosecutor of the Pleas in the same county. For the second office there was a hot contest among the Republicans, the leading candidates being Assemblyman Edward Hicks and George Berdine.

A large section of Somerset county did not feel any direct disastrous results from the flood last week, but the after effects will be felt by the property owners when they settle their tax bills next year. It is estimated that the taxes will be increased two-thirds next year by the damage to the county property, unless the Board of Freeholders extend the payments over a period of years and thus make the taxes as low each year as is possible.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Great sale of wall paper at Love's, North avenue. Let him estimate on your decorating.

—George White has set a good example for others to follow by purchasing the mantles and ceiling for his new house on Myrtle avenue of a Plainfield dealer, C. M. Thorpe.

—Both of the new roundsmen, Christopher Frederickson and William J. Mattox have secured bicycles and will be ready for their new duties whenever the police committee say the word.

—Some miscreant poisoned Edward Terry's valued hound dog. Mr. Terry, who resides on Jackson avenue, says that other dogs in that neighborhood have met the same fate recently.

—W. F. Gordon, of Burd & Gordon, of Trenton, is in town selling out the grocery stock of W. F. Fulper. In today's Press an advertisement appears telling of the low prices at which Mr. Gordon is disposing of the stock.

—Rev. Dr. Riggs has loaned to Hope chapel for exhibition at the fair, a valuable manuscript copy of the Koran, a lamp such as those referred to in the parable of the Ten Virgins, also an ancient inkhorn with pen case.

—Mrs. Winifred Dufficy, an aged lady, who resides on East Fourth street, while paying a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Killoran, of Washington street, yesterday, in stepping upon the stoop to her daughter's house, had the misfortune to have a large amount of the ice and snow fall on her from the roof. On account of her age the old lady is doing as well as can be expected.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Frankie Demarest, of Park avenue, is quite ill.

George Wills, of LaGrande avenue, is out again after an illness.

Miss Minnie Wilson, of Tunlaw, left today for Philadelphia to visit friends.

Irvin Mills, of Grandview avenue, has recovered from his recent illness.

Mrs. H. L. Shriner, of Duer street, is visiting friends at New Bedford, Mass.

Ex-Chief Marshal William N. Pangborn left today for Philadelphia on a business trip.

Rev. Herbert F. Randolph, of Grandview avenue, who has been very ill is much improved.

Mrs. J. H. Ackerman, of West Seventh street, is entertaining friends from New York.

Adam Neuman, of the firm of Neuman Brothers, is out again after several days illness.

Mrs. Luther, of New York, is stopping with Mrs. Harned, of Craig place, for a short time.

Mr. McCutchen, and family of New York, have leased Mrs. Weir's house on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Francis Whitley, of Steiner place, is confined to her home with the grip and bronchitis.

Mrs. Amos Giddis, of Bound Brook, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. DeMott, of Somerset street.

J. B. Miller, formerly of this city, together with his wife, will join the Barnum & Bailey show May 1st.

Herman Oberland, formerly of Somerville, has taken up his residence in this city at 728 West Front street.

Miss C. A. Petrie, a teacher in the North Plainfield Public School, has returned from a few days visit in New York.

Mrs. J. W. A. Bauersachs is quite ill at her home on Grandview avenue with rheumatism. Dr. Carman is in attendance.

Miss Lillie Walter, who has been visiting her brother, E. E. Walter, of Park place, has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

Mrs. J. C. VanDyke, of East Front street, still continues to improve and is able to sit up for a considerable time each day.

Arthur Mountfort, the young son of William H. Mountfort, of Somerset street, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is now convalescent.

G. M. Harte, representing the Central Monthly, a magazine to be issued monthly in the interests of the towns along the Central Railroad, was in town today.

Edward Lauffer, the husband of the lady who recently came into possession of a fortune, is ill at Hipp's Manhattan Hotel. Dr. D. C. Adams is in attendance.

Mrs. F. J. Stanley, for a number of years a missionary at Tokio, Japan, but now a resident of Newburgh, is the guest of Mrs. Robert W. Rice, of Emily street.

William Langdon, of Second place, who was formerly connected with Peabody & Co., wholesale importers, has taken a position as clerk for his father in New York.

Dr. J. H. Carman, of Somerset street, will move about April 1st, to the house on the corner of Watchung avenue and East Sixth street, formerly occupied by Dr. Ard.

Miss May Coyn and John Lindsey, both of Jersey City, will be married tonight at 8 o'clock in that city. The young people are well known in this city and a party of friends from here will attend the wedding.

Eugene and James H. Pope, of the borough, left yesterday for Blairstown, N. J, to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. William C. Pope, who was buried this afternoon from her residence in that town.

A. B. Lord, son of Wm. A. Lord, of Belvidere avenue, who has been dangerously ill at Lake Worth, Fla., is slowly recovering, but will not be able to be moved for some time. His mother still remains with him.

Miss Jeannette Mattison, who with her sister, Miss Francis, went to Ashville, N. C., has been compelled to leave there on account of the high winds that prevail at this time of the year. She is temporally located at DeCauter, Ga.

—A ball will be held at the Fanwood clubhouse on Friday evening, February 21st —Edward White, the enterprising dry goods man, has put into use the first bicycle carrier for delivering goods in this city.

Best Little Purgative

I ever used," writes one lady, in regard to Hood's Pills. "They are so mild and do their work without any griping. I recommend them to all suffering from costiveness. They will certainly bring your habits regular. We use no other cathartic." Hood's Pills are rapidly increasing in favor. 25c.

Take HOOD'S PILLS only

"Pure and Sure."

Cleveland's BAKING POWDER

"I use it in my kitchen and class work."

EMMA P. EWING, Principal Chautauqua Cooking School.

THEATRICAL.

Music Hall was confortably filled last night to see "The Inside Track" produced by the Waite Comedy Company There is no doubt that the Waite Comedy Company is the strongest organization on the road, and produces a play more acceptably than the large majority of one piece companies Their production of the Inside Track was fully the equal of any ever seen here before, even by Mr. Oliver Byron's own company. The specialties of the Gleasons, the Elmore sisters and Alfred Kelcy were new and made a hit, in fact with such clever artists they could not do otherwise. The dime matinee yesterday drew a good house, as did the one today. These matinees continue daily throughout the week. Tomorrow afternoon "Legally Dead" will be presented. Tonight, "The Boy from Boston" will be presented with the Elmore sisters in the leading speaking part. New specialties by the specialist and an entire change of programme by the orchestra will be pleasing features of the evening.

Nothing Like It.

Time brings many changes, but the climate of Calfornia, "The Italy of America," and the attractions of the many famous health and pleasure resorts, are the same yesterday, today and forever.

Tourists never will tire of speaking in praise of the soft and balmy air, the profusion of flowers, the magnificent display of fruits, the luxury of seabathing and the beautiful walks and drives.

Then, too, it must be conceded that with such excellent equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars, all heated by steam and lighted with Pintsch Light, the Union Pacific, "The Overland Route," is the tourists favorite. Ask your agents for tickets via this route.

E. L. Lomax, General Pass and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears The first dose greatly benefits; 75c. Sold by H P Reynolds, druggist, Park and North avenues. 2 12 y —A meeting of the Men's Branch of Grace Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be held this evening, and a meeting of the Boys' Branch tomorrow evening.

—Out of weakness comes strength when the blood has been purified, enriched and vitalized, the appetite restored and the system built up by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

—Hummer Brothers, contractors, have purchased from Miss Margaret E. McLoughlin, three lots on Stone street, on which they intend erecting three cottages in the spring.

—A large pine tree, which has stood for a number of years on the old Roome property, corner of Washington and Myrtle avenues, was blown down during yesterday's gale and blocked the thoroughfare for several hours before workmen succeeded in removing it.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—All the pupils in the public schools of this city were given a holiday today.

—Lincoln's birthday was observed at Leal's School today by a day's vacation.

—The ceiling and walls at Randolph's drug store are being papered and decorated.

—Woolston & Buckle are decorating and papering Hillier & Co's. store on North avenue.

—The contract case of O'Brien against Berbout has been adjourned in Justice Newcorn's court till Friday.

—An enjoyable dance was held in T. A. B. Hall last night by the T. A. B. Society. Prof. OReilly furnished the music.

—The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Seventh-day Baptist church will be held this evening.

—The last reception and dance of the Crescent Coterie was held at the Olympia last evening, and the attendance was large.

—Central Lodge, No. 48, A.O.U.W., will meet tomorrow evening and carry out the programme previously published in The Daily Press.

—Mrs. Lucy Kie, colored, died at her home in this city yesterday. The funeral services will be held from Mt. Olive Baptist church tomorrow afternoon.

—Crescent Division, No. 13, Uniformed Rank, K. of P., will meet this evening. Election of officers will be held and a party of staff officers from Phillipsburg will visit the meeting.

—The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company have secured thiriy-three signers in Westfield, and a central office will be established at Trenchard's drug store in a few days.

—Those attending the Y. M. C. A. State Convention, wishing to return at night, can take the train, C. R. R. of N. J., leaving New York at 9:15 and reaching here at 10:26, and via. Penn. R. R., leave Jersey City at 9:27 and arrive at Plainfield 10:26.

—The entertainment that was to have been given by Miantonomoh Tribe, No. 114, I. O. R. M., last evening was postponed on account of the serious illness of some of those who were to take part. Dancing was enjoyed by those present until a late hour The committee in charge consisted of Wm Newcorn, Charles Holstein N. C. Mague, D. C. Allen, A. J. Stiglitz and W. A. Westphal.

Miss Mabel Woodruff, of East Second street, is visiting her friend, Miss Evie Taylor, of Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Burr, of Sandford avenue, entertained a number of friends yesterday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. F. E. Bemis, of West Second street, under the skillful care of Dr. Davis, has recovered from a severe attack of bronchitis.

Infant Health

SENT FREE

It is a matter of vast importance to mothers. The manufacturers of the GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK issue a pamphlet, entitled "INFANT HEALTH," which should be in every home. Address, NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO., 71 Hudson Street, New York.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

You Will Never

get such chances again to buy good groceries at such surprising low prices. They have to be sold quick to close everything out. Store lately occupied by Fulper, so come quick, only a few days left.

Best flour	46c bag	40c teas go at	16c lb
Finest Java coffee	29c	50c teas are yours at	25c lb
Good coffee	13c	60c finest teas during this sale	33c lb
Best butter	18c	Soapine	3c
Best molasses	28c gal.	7 bars good soap	10c
Finest vinegar	15c gal.	10c ammonia	7c bottle
Golden syrup	23c gal.	VanHouten's cocoa	17c
Pure pepper, cloves, cinnamon	17c lb	Armour's soups	19c can
Good apricots	7c can	Fine French peas worth 15c, now	10c.
Finest apricots	10c can	New dried beans	5c qt
Egg plums	9c can	New dried peas	2 qts 7c
Finest egg plums	2 cans 25c	Dixon's stove polish	3c
Fine table peaches	10c can	and everything else in the stock at unheard-of low prices.
Good peas	6c can

W. F. GORDON,

207 West Front Street.

Fulper's old stand. Fixtures for sale cheap.

You Will Not Wonder

After Seeing Peck's Great Display of Wash Goods and Embroideries.

THE DALZIEL GRAMMAR, MANUAL AND ART SCHOOL, 309 East Front Street.

IS AN ESTABLISHED SUCCESS.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique, Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at the Women's School of Design, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

THE WET GOODS

The loss on the goods damaged by water caused by the bursting of the automatic sprinkler in the show window of Edsall's Commercial Palace has been adjusted and the goods will be offered for sale on Friday Morning, February 7th.

There is not a very large lot of them and they were but slightly wet with clean water, and damaged but very little. They are marked, however, at a very low price in order to turn them into quick cash.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

There are a dozen or fifteen handsome plush capes, elegantly trimmed with fur and silk lined; the original price was $25 to $35. They will go for about $9 to $11.

Some silk waists that sold for $9.75. The will go from $4.50 to $5.

Some extra fine separate Skirts that sold for $8.39 and up. They will go for about $5, and some as low as $1.98.

There is quite a lot of Ladies Muslin Underwear, Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset Covers and Drawers. Of course the mere wetting of these with clean water has not damaged them for use at all, but they will go at less than half price.

There are about seventy-five to one hundred fine Corsets sold from 75cts., to $1.50. They will go at 35cts. each.

Now, of course you understand that the quantity of these wet goods are limited. They cannot be duplicated and in order to prevent any one from being disappointed who may not be fortunate to secure some of the wet goods bargains, we have spent considerable time in the market picking up big bargains of various kinds to put in this sale, so as to make the occasion worthy of a large attendance. So come along with the crowd. There will be some very telling bargains on both floors of our immense store.

China Department.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

One lot fine China Cuspidores, finely decorated, floral designs. Sold at 29cts. readily. This sale only 21cts.

One lot fine China bedroom Lamps, handsomely decorated in colors and gold. Were good sellers at 97c. This sale only 69c.

One lot Library Lamps, various styles and prices. To reduce the stock, your choice for $1.09. They sold for much higher prices.

We also offer at this sale some rare bargains in a lot of Banquet Lamps. Space is too short to give details. Come in and see them. They talk for themselves.

A very telling bargain in a lot of beautiful glass fruit dishes. In appearance resembling cut glass, very handsome designs. The price is for this sale only 13cts.

Something very pretty in crystal glass Rose Bowls, looks like cut glass. They go at only 10cts.

Carpet Department.

One lot Samples of fine Velvet and Moquette Carpets, 1¼ yards long, finished ends. Choice for 90cts.

One lot of all-wool Art Squares, 2½ by 3 yards. For this sale only $4.79.

One lot of best Tapestry Brussels Carpets, 6 different patterns. This sale only 53cts.

Grocery Department.

Potted Ham, can	10c	Extra Can Pears	11c
" Tongue	10c	Fine Silver Prunes	12c
Ox Tongue, 1¼ pound can	45c	Condensed Milk	7c. up
Clam Chowder, box	10c	String Beans, can	6c
Smoked Halibut, "	10c	Soap	2½c
Mustard Sardines	8c	Dried Beans	8c
Boston Baked Beans	10c	Lard	6 & 10c
14 Can Fine Tomatoes	98c	Butter, good	20c
14 Can Sugar Corn	98c	Glass of Mustard	10c
Fine Early June and Mar. Peas	8c. up	Pint Jar Mustard	20c

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Putnam & DeGraw

THIS WEEK WE WILL SELL

SHIRT WAISTS—Ladies laundered shirt waists only 50c.
UMBRELLAS—Fast black, Paragon frame, only 75c.
HOSIERY—Children's 1x1 rib, extra quality, all sizes, 15c; ladies fast black seamless, extra quality, at 10, 15 and 25c; men's mixed half hose, extra quality 10c, 3 for 25c; men's mixed half hose, seamless, extra heavy, 15c, 2 for 25 cents.
WAISTS—Children's corded underwaists 25c; children's outing flannel waists 50c style for 40c.
NECKWEAR—A new and special line at 25 and 50c.
EMBROIDERIES—Our's are the talk of the city.
COTTON CREPONS—Evening shades at 12 and 15c a yard.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	21	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	20	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	19
Cranford	837	6	24

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	6	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631
Cranford C. C.	4	6	1557

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

George Ulrich, of the junior team of the Crescent Wheelmen, bowled a score of 208 on Monday.

A return game has been arranged by Captain Laing, of the Y. M. C. A. team, with the team of the New Brunswick Y. M. C. A., for February 27th, to be played at the latter place.

There is still uncertainty in the Standard League for the game between Roselle and Westfield, which was to have been rolled last night, was postponed on account of the illness of one of the important bowlers.

The junior team of the Crescent Wheelmen will bowl against the Y. M. C. A. team tomorrow evening on the Crescent Wheelmen's alleys. The Crescent Wheelmen's team will consist of Clarkson, Baker, Ulrich, Smith and Giles.

If the Y. M. C. A. boys are a fair sample of New Brunswick's bowlers, then that city had better burn her bowling alleys. The ten-men team from the Y. M. C. A., of that city, came here last evening and met a similar team from the local club. The visitors brought with them a wonderful broad-brimmed hat, something after the style of the cowboy's headgear, and each man on the team wore it as he bowled. It was expected to hoodoo the home team, but it must have been too large, for it completely extinguished the Brunswick boys, and they were buried under it when Plainfield won by 196 pins. At the start the game promised to be an exciting one. In the second frame the teams were tie, and in the next the visitors led by 20 pins. Nineteen pins separated them in the fourth frame, and then the home team began to roll as the E. A. C. is famous for doing. Only seven breaks were recorded against them in the fourth, fifth and sixth frames. By that time Plainfield was 54 pins ahead and New Brunswick was not in it There were a number of Rutgers College students among the visitors, and they rooted for all they were worth at the start, but the odds were too much and their rooting died a natural death. The individual scores were as follows:

PLAINFIELD.		NEW BRUNSWICK
Sutphen, C.	140	Coriell	100
Long	146	Watson	115
Smith, T.	154	Tindell	144
Morraller	113	Strickland	190
Smith, G.	136	Birdsell	111
Wagner	110	Rhestall	123
Sutphen, M.	114	Heath	110
Carroll	129	Whitlock	139
Lederer	128	Spelling	118
Laing	137	Manley	131
	1377		1181

BY FRAMES:

Plainfield 132 247 362 493 658 802 948 1062 1239 1377
N.Brunsw'k 120 247 382 512 633 748 855 977 1081 1181

Back in the lead again all alone, and the bump of self-satisfaction on the heads of the Crescent Wheelmen is beginning to swell again. Last evening the champion team of the Crescent Wheelmen, with some changes, went to Cranford and came home with her scalp. Cranford seemed to have fixed the hoodoo the wrong way round, as the home team certainly got it "in the neck." The Crescents did not do anything brilliant, scoring only 1516, but their opponents could not roll for a little bit, and only made 1382. Captain VanEmburgh was missing from the ranks of the Plainfield team, while Homan and Baker, of the Juniors, rolled with the ten. Although it was Homan's first championship game, he was only fourth from high man. It was Plainfield's game at the start when she led by 33 pins. In the sixth frame the lead had reached 126 pins, and there it remained, differing only a few pins either way. The windup was a poor one for both teams, but the Crescents won without trouble by 134 pins. Cranford's score was remarkable for its lowness, but that was all. The individual scores were as follows:

CRESCENT WHEELMEN.

	TOTAL PINS.	ST.	SP.	B.
Homan	158	1	6	3
Kiely	141	2	3	5
Vail	142	2	3	5
Wilbur	143	2	3	5
Baker	133	2	3	5
Buckle	179	4	3	3
Petrie	172	2	6	2
Maltby	133	1	4	5
Stephenson	153	3	4	3
Thiers	162	2	6	2
	1516	21	41	38

CRANFORD COUNTY CLUB.

	TOTAL PINS.	ST.	SP	B.
Page	140	1	5	4
Voorhis	129	2	3	5
Rice	138	1	4	5
Gudebrood	104	1	2	7
Wood	116	1	2	7
Rogers	188	5	3	2
Littell	113	1	1	8
Lawrence	116	0	3	7
Porcelly	175	2	9	2
Sharp	162	2	5	3
	1382	16	34	50

BY FRAMES.

C. W. 169 310 487 624 779 950 1086 1221 1383 1516
C. C. C. 136 282 429 566 695 824 965 1100 1245 1382

Umpire—C. C. Pearson, Jr. Scorers—H. H. Coward, C. S. Littell.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The Hunters' Arms Co., of Fulton, N. Y., have combined their gun and bicycle business at their New York store, 204 Broadway, from which the firm will soon remove to more commodious quarters in the same locality, as they find their present store wholly inadequate to meet the demands of their largely increased business. The New York branch will be under the management of C. E. Teel, of Plainfield, N. J., who is a well-known figure to wheelmen in the metropolitan district. In addition to his position as manager of the New York branch, Mr. Teel will also act in the capacity of superintendent of agencies.—Sporting Life.

BASKET BALL.

Among the most enthusiastic basket ball players in the Y. M. C. A. are the members of the business men's gymnasium class, which meets three times a week. For the last two meetings the members of the class have been divided into the Plainfield and North Plainfield teams. The borough team won the two games already played, but the city players make a strong fight for victory this afternoon.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Brenton C. Matthewson, of Rockview avenue, will ride an Orient wheel this year.

Charles Noble, of East Fifth street, left this morning on his wheel for his home at Mendham to spend the day.

Horsley Barker, the West Front street druggist, has purchased a Fowler wheel, which he will ride this year.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Hood's Pills cure nausea, sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. All druggists, 25c.

—The North Plainfield public school is closed today on account of it being a State holiday.

—The junior members of the Park Club will entertain their friends with a dance at the clubhouse Friday evening.

—The contractors have temporarily stopped work on the new house of the late D. M. Moore, until the affairs of the estate are settled.

—The superintendent's desk at the United States Express Company's office is being inclosed by a high rail and heavy wire netting.

—Samuel Taynor, of the borough, has purchased the old established blacksmith shop of Robinson, at Cranford, where he is now in business.

—Contractor Thomas Burke broke ground yesterday at the corner of Duer street and Gavin place for the erection of a new house for James H. Pope.

—The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian churches met in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church yesterday. Routine business was transacted.

—The students at the Seminary on West Seventh street continue their studies today at their own expressed wish. They will receive Friday as their holiday instead.

—The Westfield Italians were in an ugly state of mind Monday. The sewer laborers have not been paid for five weeks and the paymaster promised to settle that day. He did not appear.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front S

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be curred by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.
West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Dunellen.

L. Leach spent yesterday out of town.

Miss F. Moynahan is very ill at her home.

L. Apgar has returned from his visit out of town.

The boys about town are laying in a stock of comical valentines.

Mrs. W. Terry, who has been visiting friends at Brooklyn, has returned home.

J. Logan has entirely recovered from his recent illness, and has gone to work again.

Mrs. Wyckoff, of Lincoln avenue, is entertaining her mother-in-law, Mrs. Blackfare, of Lebanon.

Miss Nellie James, of Newburgh, is spending a few days with Miss Randolph, of Mountain avenue.

Miss Gertrude Debbs, of Elizabeth, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. James Randolph, of Greenbrook.

Miss Ethel Fenner has returned home from her visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fenner, of Pluckamin.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will give a birthday sociable this evening for the benefit of the Sunday school library fund.

Miss Francis Moynahan who has been very ill at her home for several weeks is no better. Physicians held a consultation Monday evening.

The barn of John McFadden was burned to the ground yesterday. It is believed that the fire was started by a passing engine at noon. It was first discovered by Mrs. Woods, who lives next door. She gave a cry of fire, which was taken up by others, and soon a large crowd had collected. The fire burned fiercely. All that was saved was the horse, cow and pigs. The things lost were about two and one-half tons of hay, a hay-cutter, and a quantity of cornstalks. There was no insurance on the place.

New Market.

Charles Kelley, who has been visiting at Hagerstown, Md., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph are entertaining Miss Anna Brower, of Lebanon, for a few days.

Elder Huffman will conduct this week of revival services in the First Baptist church, and commencing next Monday evening he will commence the week of revival in the Presbyterian church.

Some unknown person or persons have disfigured the front door and broken the plate of the Holy Innocents church of this place. The church has been disfigured many times before but the persons have never been caught.

—Sewing meeting of the W. T. A. S. in Reform Hall tomorrow at 2:30 p. m.

—An immense limb of a tree on Liberty, near Front street, was broken off last night by the heavy winds. It fell across the street and narrowly escaped hitting a carriage that happened to be passing at the time. The limb was removed to the sidewalk and today it was carted away.

—In order to furnish Easter music in the Trinity Reformed church, F. S. Cutter, chairman of the music committee, assisted by H. C. VanEmburgh and several other young people of the church, have decided upon a musical entertainment to be held in the lecture room on Friday evening, March 6th, at which some of Plainfield's best talent will be present and take part. The price of admission will be 25 cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

MISS BEDFORD

AT

Y. M. C. A. February 13,

At 10 a. m.—PASTRY.
At 2:30 p. m.—CHAFING DISH WORK.

Tickets, including both lectures, $1, to be procured of Mrs. Eaton, 36 Norwood ave. 2 11 2

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 20, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

R. H. Rushton. J. C. Hansen. A. Luthman.

Rushton, Hansen & Luthman,

PAINTERS & PAPER HANGERS,

P. O. Box 773, Plainfield, N. J.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 tf

DIED.

KIE—At the residence of her daughter, Chanie Daniels, 521 East 6th st., Feb. 11, 1896, Lucy Kie.
Funeral services at Mount Olive Baptist Church, Thursday, Feb. 13, at 3 p. m. Interment at Hillside.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

COOKS, chambermaids, waitresses, houseworkers, coachmen and gardener; promptly furnished. Room 209 Babcock Building.

LOST.—Last evening a fifty trip railroad ticket belonging to E. M. Laing. Reward for its return. 2 12 2

A GOOD cook would like a place or housework in small family. Call 70 Elm place.

LOST—Feb. 11 on West Front street or Central avenue, pair of carriage cushions. Reward by leaving same at this office. 2 12 2

OFFICE to let; centrally located. Inquire 612 Park ave. 2 12 2-w s

FOR SALE—Bull and fresh cows. Call Wm. A. Baldwin, Warreville, N. J. 2 12 6

WANTED—A competent woman for general housework; references required; wages $16; no washing. 72 Linden avenue, North Plainfield.

HORSE for sale or exchange; kind, gentle and sound; good roodster. Call or address C. J. Ackerman, Clinton avenue. 2 12 3

TO LET—House 13 rooms on Watchung avenue near Crescent Avenue Church; also on Putnam avenue corner Carlton, 16 rooms, all improvements. Apply 104 Crescent avenue. 2 12 2

WANTED.—Waiter or waitress, McVey's restaurant.

WANTED—A first class laundress, white; with Plainfield references; to go home nights. Apply 107 Crescent avenue. 2 10-tf

VERY handsome flat; all modern improvements. Apply Manning's city marble works. 2 11 5

FRESH cows for sale. Henry Burnett, Washingtonville. 2 10 3

WANTED—2 or 3 furnished or unfurnished rooms; private family only; good location. Address E. K., 325 West 2d st. 2 11 2

WANTED.—At once, experienced white cook. Apply 949 Central avenue. 2 8 tf

FOR SALE or to let for term of years, the very desirable residence 662 West 7th st., with large grounds, garden and barn; for terms apply on the premises. John E. Stewart. 2 7 6

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages. No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room; also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

Plainfield's GREATEST STORE.

There are many ways of running a business, but only one way that leads to success. Our way of procuring the best salespeople we can, paying fair salaries and having nothing but workers from the head of the house down to the boy. Hence our great success. It's why 75c and sometimes 50c does the work here that it takes a dollar to do in other stores. Wise buying and being on the inside of the market enables us to clip off profits that other merchants pay.

Now for February.

RIBBONS.

Prices broken in two on many lots of new ribbons. Just think of handsome Dresden and printed warp ribbons 29c the yard. We will clear out the odds and ends of our ribbon sale at 14c the yard. Many good things among them.

DRESS SILKS.

Today we are showing over fifty styles of new dress silks. The new Persian and Dresden designs that are going to be all the rage the coming season. Handsome black silks and satins and we are naming very little prices on them—39 to 98c the yard.

EMBROIDERIES.

Two immense lots of pretty new embroideries bought at half their real value. Will go on sale tomorrow. Lot No. 1, 5c the yard; lot No. 2, 10c the yard, and not a piece in the entire lot worth less than double what we ask.

TOWELS.

Tomorrow we place on sale 100 dozen fine huck towels, hemstitched borders, same as you usually pay 25c for. Our price will be 13 cents.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL HOUSEFURNISHING SALE.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left. 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. 250 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 2 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c. White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Until that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Are the Most Popular in the World.

Evidenced by the fact that there were more of them sold in '95 than any other make. Be sure to see sample before purchasing your '96 wheel.

Made by Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

F. L. C. MARTIN, AGENT. 1 27 eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

FEMININE FASHIONS.

Some New Features of the Dresses for the Season.

Embroidery is one of the features of seasonable costumes. There are many new dresses shown with skirt front, vest, collars, cuffs, wide revers and belt edged with needlework. This may be in the color of the fabric, or, what is better liked, in wreaths, garlands and bouquets in natural tints.

A dress of biscuit-colored cloth has the edges of the front breadth embroidered in a graduated design, wide at the hem and narrowing to a tiny vine at the belt. The vest is finished in narrow rows of embroidery, forming V's, one above another, down the vest front. The revers that turn over upon the sleeve-tops are edged with a slender vine, and on the corners over the shoulders there is a large design, almost covering the available space. The belt is almost of solid embroidery, and the cuffs have a vine around the wrists and a larger design extending up the outside of the arm.

A dress of plain and striped poplin in blue and black has a plain waist, cut out in the neck over a vest of plaited crepon. Where the waist is cut out there is an edge of the embroidery all around, and this extends down the fronts, around the bodice point and the postilion at the back. A turned-over collar is embroidered, as are also the cuffs, the latter in a quite elaborate fashion.

A tailor costume of navy blue cloth has the front breadth of the skirt well covered by a conventionalized design in chrysanthemums with spreading foliage. The cuffs are similarly finished. The vest is of light tan-colored cloth with a collar. This is almost covered with a design to match, only in very small pattern.

An evening bodice is made with the sides and back of pale-gray velvet. The front is cut away in a deep shield shape and filled in with a vest of rows of embroidery and puffs of crepon. The sleeves are pointed sections of the material box-plaited extremely full. There are two of these sections, one overlapping the other, the lower about four inches larger than the first. Both of these have the edge wrought with flower pattern done in silks, the natural colors of the flowers.

A handsome calling costume is of maroon velvet and French gray cloth. The skirt is of the cloth and has a band of fur at the hem. The front breadth is elaborately embroidered and braided and further enriched with large buttons of the most elegant description. The velvet waist has a deep basque skirt and a trimming of embroidery and braiding forming a square yoke with long tabs on either side of the vest of embroidery. There are large buttons on the waist also. The sleeves are in leg-o'-mutton fashion, but plaited in the form of an accordian bellows. The cuffs are of the braiding and embroidery.

A Paris dress is of brocaded satin in garnet and gold. The sleeves are a novelty. The cuffs are of white broadcloth, elaborately embroidered with roses and leaves. From the front and back of the cuffs long points extend up to the armholes. The space between these points is filled in with the dress material. A square collar turns back from the standing collar and forms a yoke, and there is a front of very narrow plaitings of plain silk. A vest of the broadcloth is embroidered to match the cuffs.

The front breadth of contrasting material is a feature of some of the new models. A dress of moonlight-blue satin, brocaded with pink roses, has a front breadth of velvet of the darkest shade of the blossoms. On either side of this is a cascade drapery of lace flouncing. The bodice is pointed and the neck is cut low. The sleeves are ruffles of lace, and lace epaulets extend up on to the shoulders almost to the jeweled collar. Across the front the dress is filled in with shirred silk muslin.

A costume of spotted camel's hair has a front breadth of velvet matching the darker shade of the material. The high turned-over collar, narrow vest, wide-pointed lapels and belt are of velvet. The lapels have folded extensions in jabot style. These are pointed, the points falling outside of the belt and down upon the skirt.—N. Y. Ledger.

IN THE DEPARTMENT STORE.

How the Charming Buyer Got to the Windward of the Merchant.

"What won't merchants nowadays do in order to gain a business advantage?" asked the drummer from Ohio, and then partially answered his own question by saying:

"I went into a big department store last week. I found that the buyer for my line of goods was a woman, a mighty handsome woman. I made an appointment for her next morning, and when I arrived with my samples I found half a dozen salesmen ahead of me and had to wait my turn.

"The buyer was busy just then with a fellow who sold cheap jewelry. He was a susceptible youth and the girl was stringing him for all he was worth. You'd have sworn she was dead in love with him. She called him by his first name, leaned her head confidingly against his as they looked over the samples and insisted on pinning the goods into his scarf and shirt front, to see how they would look. As a result, she bought all she wanted for a song. That young fellow's employers are probably wondering yet how he came to sell so cheap.

"Some male buyers are just as unscrupulous, though," continued the drummer from Ohio, "though not always on their employer's side. I went into a store in Providence, R. I. The buyer shivered and remarked that it was a very cold day and that he didn't have any coal at home. I excused myself, obtained his address and sent him five tons of coal that afternoon. The next day I called around at the store and took a big order at my own figures."—Buffalo Express.

Corporation Notice.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John J. Sullivan has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 518 West Third street in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

William H. Harding,	Peter W. McDonough,
Edward Connors,	James Deady,
John Kane,	Cormick Caufield,
Michael Spellane,	William Classen,
Thomas Lyons,	Martin Kane,
Fintin Hibbits,	Arthur Scott.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that James Day has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 545 West Third street in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

David Barry,	William J. Monsell,
Patrick Power,	Peter Galbraith,
John B. DeHart,	Michael Newman,
Patrick Traynor,	John J. Kelly,
Carl Filber,	John McCarthy,
Thomas Burke,	Patrick Kneeland,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Alexander D. Findlay has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 123 East Second street in the First ward, which application is signed by

E. P. Curtis,	John Richter,
Adolph Kahrmann,	John McCann,
Thomas O. Gorman,	Albert Brown,
Fred Hoffmeister,	John Wolf,
John Johnson,	A. Love, Jr.,
Charles Bock,	Henry Haurand,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John Rafferty has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 213 Park avenue, in the First ward, which application is signed by

John F. McIntyre,	Dennis Carney,
George McCusker,	Albert H. Enander,
James Ryan,	Thomas Curren,
Fred Caspar,	Thomas Callahan,
Edward Hannan,	Patrick O'Keeffe,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Henry Haurand has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 115 East Front street, in the First ward, which application is signed by

Carl Kaerth,	Felix Marx,
John M. Schorb,	Martin N. Whelan
Alex. D. Findlay,	James A. Saunders,
Harry Werner,	Elizabeth Schorb,
John Y. Staats,	James Brown,
	Michael Ettinger.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Joseph L. Welborn has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 214 and 216 Park avenue, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

Jacob Blimm,	Cornelius Guinee,
Werner Heideloff,	Cornelius Regan,
Moses Carney,	Geo. M. Phillips,
James Muldowney,	Kalman Rathberg,
George H. Moore,	Mike Walsh,
Alexander McGugian,	Philip Schauble, Sec. and Treas. of the Rising Sun Brewing Co.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John J. Goff has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a Hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at corner West 3rd and Liberty streets, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

John Donnelly,	Daniel McCarthy,
Thomas Johnson,	Frank Cullen,
John Flynn,	Joseph Johnson,
Frederick Westphal,	Charles McCann,
John S. Haskard,	John M. Carney,
Thomas King,	Mary E. Goff,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Charles Smith has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a saloon license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at corner Front and Somerset streets, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

Joseph A. Blatz,	Frank Droll,
Vincent L. Frazee,	Theodore Kurtzhals,
John Winzereried,	Samuel Dreier,
Andrew Schlick,	William Newcorn,
Bennett Britton,	Jacob Grieb,
Frank Linke,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hersby given that Fred Caspar has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 142 and 144 East Front street, in the First ward, which application is signed by

Joseph F. W. Famebrger,	John Rafferty,
Charles Vermeule,	George W. Moore,
Michael Wunderlich,	William Leitheusser,
George L. Henry,	Samuel L. Miller,
Rosa Caspar,	John Hopkins Reid,
Michael Harrington,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Jacob Blimm has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 37-39 Somerset street in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

Isaac Lederer.	Daniel Hogan,
Jacob Blimm, Jr.,	Christian Karl,
Peter Blimm,	Patrick Ward,
Michael McCarthy	Daniel S. Pound,
William Kitchen,	Mathias Hefti.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. February 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Frank Linke has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a wholesale license to sell spirituous, vinous and malt brewed liquors in quantities from one quart to five gallons at 227 West Front street, in the Fourth ward, which application is signed by

W. W. Coriell,	Peter V. Weaver,
P. J. Kreitling,	James E. Martine,
Chas. Smith,	James Weaton.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 3d, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that Wallace V. Miller has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at 111 to 119 North avenue, in the First ward, which application is signed by

Calvin Neighbour,	Lorenzo Paoli,
Chas. McGinley,	James Canfield,
C. K. Janson,	James Harding,
James H. Higgins,	Joseph Angerhauer,
J. W. Burdick,	William H. Miller,

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J. Feb. 3, 1896.

Notice is hereby given that John E. Peerbower has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a hotel license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at Cor. Park avenue and Second street in the First ward, which application is signed by

Dan S. Roberts,	J. H. Staats,
T. A. Rogers,	Alex. Sergeant,
Joel Walley,	James Staats,
Peter Gordon,	J. J. Unangst,
James Fitzpatrick,	Walter L. Hettle d,
	Peter Gordon.

Citizens and Freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the City Clerk on or before the 24th instant.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns, and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors."

J. T. MAC MURRAY, City Clerk.

W. L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork. Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset street.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we cannot care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue. Established 1869.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.—made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

J. T. VAll, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry

AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON.

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE

Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.

Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.

Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 63c.

Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

NOTICE.

Special Reductions

—AT—

Neuman Bros.

on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.

NEUMAN BROS.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.

Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.

Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., 000. North ave

Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 50, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 13, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 32, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35, 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 10, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43, 5 14, 6 35, 10 35, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 3 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 00, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 43, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R.; R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin, (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m., 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a. m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co.,

EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

—Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

OF

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

225 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

13 Grove street. 1113m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday eveningsof each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

IN

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's

Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

3,000 DEATHS A DAY.

Startling Statistics in Regard to Consumption.

Some Idea Also of the Proportion of Cures—Analysis of the Dread Disease.

When we visit a factory where there are the most delicate and most dangerous machines, we are amazed to notice how indifferent the workmen are to the danger about them. Saws and knives work rapidly, and yet no one seems to think of danger. Long association with danger causes indifference to it.

If the statement were made that there was a contagious disease abroad in the land which was killing people at the rate of 3,000 a day in Europe, thirty a day in New York State, and nearly 100,000 in one year in the United States, every one would be aroused to action. Yet such a condition exists to-day. Consumption is a contagious disease, and the above figures concerning it are taken from recent reports. But we have become so familiar with the disease in our midst, that we do not fully understand its terrible nature.

Yet it is surprising how many recover from this disease. Even after the germs of consumption cause serious damage to the lungs, thousands recover. As yet, no specific is known for the disease. The treatment consists in giving aid to the body in its efforts to destroy the disease germs. For two centuries, cod-liver oil has occupied the first place in the list of remedies. The next valuable remedies are the hypophosphites. Some rely on one alone, but as both are recognized as of great value, we think it best to combine them. Thus you are sure of getting every help which the best remedies known to medical science can afford. In Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, the oil is emulsified, that is the oil is broken up into minute globules of fat. The oil is digested and thus saves the weakened body from doing this work. What will Scott's Emulsion do for those with weak lungs?

If taken before the germs of consumption have secured a foothold in the lungs, it will so invigorate and nourish the body that the disease will be successfully resisted. In this way it prevents consumption. Even after the lungs are diseased, the body emaciated, and the health greatly affected it will often enable the system to come off victorious. And even in the last stages of the disease, when all hope of recovery has been abandoned, it lessens the severity of the attack, and makes the last days more comfortable. Scott's Emulsion brings hope and health to the great majority, while it brings comfort and relief to all.

Scott's Emulsion contains more pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil than any other emulsion in the world, that will stand the test of time as being a perfect inseparable emulsion. Ask your doctor.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

IN

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4¾c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5¾c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5¾c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice.

AT DENTON'S.

WHEN THE FIGHT COMES.

Points About the Contest Between Maher and Fitzsimmons.

A New Factor in Pugilism—How the Kinetoscope Interest May Affect the Battle—Is Football a Proper Pastime for Girls?

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

The coming fight for "the championship of the world," between Bob Fitzsimmons and Peter Maher will be notable in many ways. It will be chiefly notable, however, for the fact that it will be the first fight under the rules of the marquis of Queensbury to be photographed kinetoscopically. This statement may seem odd, in view of the fact that Jim Corbett and Peter Courtney, Young Griffo and Charley Barnett, Billy and Warry Edwards, and several other pairs of scrappers of lesser rank have boxed for the benefit of the kinetoscope; yet it will be strictly true, if the articles of agreement, signed by both Maher and Fitzsimmons, and finally agreed to, are faithfully carried out. When Corbett and Courtney boxed, the kinetoscope photographic apparatus was far from perfect, and the "waits" between the rounds were never less than three minutes. In one case the wait was almost 15 minutes long, and in another almost ten. In the other bouts the wait was shorter, but "time" was never called promptly at the expiration of a minute, as the Queensbury rules require. Now the Maher-Fitzsimmons articles of agreement provide that they are to "contest a fair, stand-up battle with five-ounce gloves, under the marquis of Queensbury rules." The eighth and last of the articles of agreement is:

"Eighth—All privileges appertaining to the contest to be at the absolute disposal of Dan A. Stewart."

Now the rules of the marquis of Queensbury say that but one minute shall intervene as a rest between the rounds, which are each of three-minutes duration. If either man shall fail to respond to call of time within eight seconds after its proclamation he shall be deemed to have lost the battle. This is not the exact phraseology of the rules, but it is strictly their purport. It is understood that the purse ($10,000), and the certainty ($10,000) secured in addition by Fitzsimmons, have been furnished by the company controlling the kinetoscope, and it naturally, in the language of the turf, will want "a run for its money." In other words, it will be advisable for it to have at least ten rounds. The question then naturally arises, if by any defect in the photographic arrangement it becomes impossible to photograph the rounds in regular sequence as fast as the rules require, will the company call a halt in the fight?

This is a very important thing for men who contemplate betting on the fight to consider. When Fitzsimmons and Maher fought before in New Orleans, it is claimed that Maher would have been the winner had the rules been strictly adhered to when he knocked Fitzsimmons to the ropes in a dazed condition. His seconds were so elated that they thought Fitzsimmons was "out," and so they did not look after the interest of their man as they would have done under ordinary circumstances. Suppose in the coming battle there should be a repetition of this New Orleans circumstance—would it not be very easy to claim that it was necessary to take more than the regular time between the rounds in order to give the dazed man a chance to revive and to prolong the fight in the interest of (exhibiting) "science?" It may be that nothing of this kind will occur, but history has a habit of repeating itself, and it is only mercantile thrift to get as much as you can for your money. The principals in the coming contest would do well to have this point decided in advance of the contest, and men who may intend wagering on its result should, as I said before, consider it well before posting their money.

THOSE LONG WAITS.

Football playing by women has caused quite a rumpus in religious circles in England. The archbishop of Manchester (Episcopal) only a few weeks ago took occasion at Rochdale, from the pulpit, to denounce the visit to that city of the feminine pig skin kickers as "a disgrace to the town." He also asserted that the club had been prevented from kicking football in other places on "the ground of morality." The club in question owes its existence, I understand, to Lady Florence Dixie, who is a sister to the marquis of Queensbury. That lady is separated from her liege lord, but she probably acquired her love of rough sport from him. I have seen pictures in the English illustrated papers of "the female football team." (They don't call all women "ladies" in England.) and they are depicted in bloomers which reach just below their knees. I am not a prude by any means, but I must say that I do not consider football a proper game for self-respecting women to play. Apart from the fact that no man worthy of the name would care to see any of his feminine relatives, friends or even acquaintances engaging in a scrimmage or such an undignified pull, drag and haul game as it is, it is too rough for females. Next to virtue and beauty, the chief charm of femininity is gentleness, and the imagination refuses to present a picture of a gentle footballer. There are some things which cannot be imagined.

J. B. ("MACON") MCCORMICK.

FOOTBALL PLAYING BY WOMEN HAS CAUSED QUITE A RUMPUS IN RELIGIOUS CIRCLES

POETICAL EFFUSIONS.

Children, Home and Flowers.

When I have lived, and loved, and suffered,
All that "In the Beginning" was mine to do and be,
When I have "passed within the veil," forever
No more this earth and earthly things to see,
When I have cast off mortal garb and garment,
When I have crossed the threshold of life's portal,
When I shall take on a new being closely,
And see and know of spirit realms immortal
When I shall halt for the rest in lone God's Acre,
Where tender memories are on fair breezes borne,
Where hearts break forth in fonts of tears o'erflowing,
And deep affections ruthlessly are torn,
Where flowers mingle close with dust and ashes,
And sadly pass away the gathering hours,
Let these words follow "earth to earth" recital.
He loved most dearly Children, Home and Flowers.

—Good Housekeeping.

"Mamma's Little Comfort."

I know a little girlie
With loving eyes so blue,
And lips just made for smiling,
And heart that's kind and true.
She wears no dainty dresses,
No jewels does she own,
But the greatest of all treasures
Is her little self alone.

Her name is "Mother's Comfort,"
For all the livelong day
Her busy little fingers
Help mother's cares away.
The sunshine loves to glisten
And hide in her soft hair,
And dimples chase each other
About her cheeks so fair.

Oh, this darling little girlie,
With the diamonds in her eyes,
Makes in mother's heart a sunshine
Brighter far than floods the skies.
But the name that suits her better,
And makes her glad eyes shine,
Is the name of "Mother's Comfort"—
This little treasure mine.

—Mary D. Brine, in Golden Days.

To a Poet of Obscurity.

Your verse is like a buhl-work desk; 'tis wrought
So splendidly; and holds rich gems of thought,

I do not doubt, but O dear friend of mine,
Pray, in your kindness, send one little line

And let the secret to me be revealed:
Where are the springs that open the concealed.

The well-hid drawers, in which these gems so rare,
These pearls of thought that surely must be there,

Are lying close? I prithee send the key
That I may doat upon my poesie.

It does not do to let your jewels lie
So close, they can't be seen by mortal eye,

And buhl-work verse, however richly wrought,
Can't hold a heart that cannot find the thought.

—John K. Bangs, in Harper's Weekly.

My Three Sweethearts.

Three charming faces haunt me,
Each perfect, in its way,
But each as widely differs
As differs night from day.

As each I fondly summon,
Before my mental view,
I gaze and softly murmur:
"Dear one, I love but you!"

My soul is torn with anguish,
No matter which I choose,
That one must be my portion,
The other two I lose.

Then let me scan them closely,
Each image on my heart,
In lines that wear forever
Imprint, before we part.

This lovely group—excuse me,
These tears are no disgrace—
Are proofs the artist sent us,
Of our sweet baby's face.

—J. F. Stephens, in Chicago News.

Incentives.

A youth who longed for fame, with ready pen
Wrote on grave themes, in manner learned and wise.
But no one heeded: striving for this prize,
In vain he toiled for love of fame, not men.

Then, through defeat, a miracle was wrought;
For he who had been blind to human need
Received his sight, and when, from self-love freed,
He worked for love of men, fame came unsought.

—Janet Remington, in Chautauquan.

The Other Fellow.

"We're going sleighing to-morrow night,"
Bright were her eyes as the stars are bright,
And I wondered, envious, who might be
The happy competent part of we.
I didn't ask, for I didn't dare,
But I promptly hated him, then and there.

"We're going sleighing, or rather, Joe
(Joe was her brother) asked me to go,
But he can't get away and he says if—you
Would drive me he'd like it, and—I would too!
We needn't get home till half-past ten."
Oh, where was the fellow I hated, then?

MORE GOOD NEWS

For All Women Who Are Sick.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

"I am happy to say your Vegetable Compound has cured me of painful menstruations and backache.

"My suffering every month was dreadful. The doctor gave me morphine to ease the pain, but nothing to cure me; and I was obliged to spend two or three days in bed. Now I have no pain at all.

"I can work harder, and be on my feet longer, than I have for years. I cannot praise your medicine enough. I am glad to tell every one that I was cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. NEWTON COBB, Manchester, Ohio. All druggists sell it.

Two Songs.

Imprisoned in a little book,
Two songs lay side by side:
The words of one with passion shook,
The other only cried

The sad one said: "Knew you love's bliss,
Before they put you here?"
"Ah yes, for I—I was a kiss:
And you?" "I was a tear."

—Claude F. Bragdon, in New Bohemian.

No White Horses.

No white horses are allowed in the German cavalry regiments.

INTERESTING MISCELLANY.

A New York electrician has succeeded in sending messages over a telegraph wire at the rate of 1,714 words a minute.

The statement is made that 4,290 bushels of potatoes marketed at Gaylord, Mich., recently brought $343.20, or but eight cents a bushel.

Nijni Novgorod's exhibition next year is to be a national one of Russian products alone. It will be opened soon after the czar's coronation at Moscow.

Diamonds are now engraved very artistically and are even perforated so they can be strung like beads, sometimes being used in alternation with pearls.

Ilka von Palmy, the celebrated Hungarian soubrette, will play a part written in broken English, in Gilbert & Sullivan's new opera, when it is brought out in London.

Princess Marie of Orleans, wife of Prince Waldemar of Denmark, has just startled her relatives by having her photograph taken in a fireman's uniform, helmet and all.

A free school in Dahomey, conducted by an Englishman, has been closed by the French governor on the ground that all languages were taught there except French.

Among Dr. Donaldson Smith's discoveries in the region of Lake Rudolph is that of the existence of 15 new tribes of Africans, one of them dwarfs, none over five feet in height.

Lecocq, the composer of "Le Fille de Mme. Angot," is trying to get a divorce from the wife to whom he has been married for 20 years on the ground of incompatibility of temper.

THIS WORLD OF OURS.

Lord Rosebery is said to be writing a novel.

Electric lights are to be placed in the Sivan Hindoo temple at Kochieadde, on the main road to Mutwal in Ceylon, and it is likely that other wealthy temples will follow this example.

At Accra, on the Gold Coast, the first daily newspaper of West Africa, the Gold Coast Express, has been started. It is a four-page sheet, each page the size of ordinary letter paper.

Spanish imports have decreased by 12,848,689 pesetas in ten months of this year, as compared with 1894. The receipts from customs are 5,000,000 pesetas less than the estimates and nearly 14,000,000 pesetas less than last year's.

Robinson Crusoe's musket, "a fine old specimen, with long barrel, flint lock, and beautifully balanced," is offered for sale in Edinburgh. It came into the possession of the present owner through Alexander Selkirk's grandniece.

Religious bigotry in politics appeals to women in Europe as well as in America. Dr. Lueger and Prince Lichtenstein, the anti-Semitic agitators in Vienna, in conducting their campaign are addressing crowded meetings of excited women.

Prince Christian Victor of Holstein-Schleswig, who has gone to Ashantee, is the first of Queen Victoria's grandchildren to see active service. The duke of Connaught served in the Egyptian campaign, and is the only one of the queen's many descendants who has been engaged in real warfare.

THE ANIMAL KINGDOM.

The legs and tentacles of the common barnacle form an effective net, by which all small animals and insects sufficiently near are entangled.

The principle of the hinge is seen in almost every joint in the animal kingdom. No animal is without a hinge joint somewhere or other in its anatomy.

The first clothmaker was the weaver bird, which, from threads and vegetable filaments, manufactures a faoric quite water-proof and of very dense structure.

Several species of sea anemone can form their jelly-like bodies into boats and float on the surface of the water, propelling themselves with their antennae.

The tusks of the walrus were the first ice anchors. The instruments of this description used by seamen in arctic regions are modeled after the walrus tusks.

THIS AND THAT.

The German government is now proposing to expend upward of 2,000,000 sterling on light railways.

Sir Hubert Maxwell, in his monthly budget of Naturalist Notes, speaks of a single fox fur fetching as much as $850.

Pressed by the builder, and unable to pay his bills, the owner of a boat on the Seine has named it "The Floating Debt."

The "fisherman's ring" is the signet of the pope. Its bezel bears an impression of St. Peter in his boat with fishing nets.

The German emperor has contributed 10,000 marks to the fund for the erection of a monument commemorating the battle of Leipsic in 1813.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills

are endorsed by physicians and druggists. They cause the kidneys to filter all uric acid and other poisons or impurities from the blood.

Cure Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Anaemia, Pimples, Bad Blood, Bright's Disease, Malaria, Backache, Kidney Pains, Dropsy, Pain in the Abdomen, Frequent Urination, Inflammation of Kidneys, etc.

"I Think the Preparation Excellent."

I have tried Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills on a case of an old man with kidney trouble, and the results so far are extremely gratifying, and my patient asks that I musn't get out of your pills. It affords me great pleasure to say, I think the preparation excellent. Rolfe Hughes, M. D. Abingdon, Va.

...ts a box. A Valuable Book Mailed free ...edicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Best Remedy in the World---It Makes People Well.

There is one true specific for diseases arising from impure blood and a debilitated nervous system, and that is Paine's celery compound, so generally prescribed by physicians. It is probably the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced. Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth College, first prescribed what is now known the world over as Paine's celery compound, a positive cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For the latter, Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

Never of Anything.

Timid Youth—Miss Gracie, perhaps my coming here so often may seem—may seem to—to smack of undue persistency.

Demure Maiden—George, your coming here has—has never smacked of anything yet.—Boston Beacon.

The Way of Some Women.

"Grace and Minnie have quarreled and both are miserable."

"No; they have made friends and are perfectly happy again."

"How do you know?"

"I saw them both crying together."—Tit-Bits.

Doesn't Cost Much.

Sweet Girl—Papa says you can't afford to marry.

Ardent Youth—Nonsense! I can get a preacher to perform the ceremony for two dollars.

Sweet Girl—Can you? How foolish papa is.—N. Y. Weekly.

Her Excuse Was Accepted.

Rev. Dr. Primly—I was sorry to see you come late to church yesterday.

Miss Flutter—But you'll forgive me, doctor. You know a new bonnet can only be worn once for the first time.—Brooklyn Life.

Two Cynics.

Blobbs—Do you think the average man is as stupid before he marries as he is afterward?

Cynicus—Certainly, or he wouldn't get married.—Philadelphia Record.

Persiflage at the Barracks.

"You are nothing but a hollow mockery," said the cannon to the drum.

"And you," retorted the drum, "shoot off your mouth much too often."—Town Topics.

Not Perfect Even in That.

He—I think Percy Gibletts is a perfect calf.

She—You misjudge him. He could not be perfect in anything.—Syracuse Post.

Frank, But Not Flattering.

Joseph—If I should die, would you get another feller, Mary Jane?

Mary Jane—There ain't no other feller around here, Joseph, or I wouldn't wait for you to die.—Puck.

To-Day's Resolve.

To-day no coward thought shall start
Upon its journey from my heart,
To-day no nasty word shall slip
Over the threshold of my lip.

To-day no selfish hope shall rest
Within the region of my breast,
To day no wave of wrath shall roll
Over the ocean of my soul.

To day I vow with sword and song,
To fight oppression and the wrong,
To-day I dedicate my youth
To duty and eternal truth
—Robert J. Loveman, in Ladies' Home Journal.

"Specially Me."

Beth, our pet, her prayer was saying
Close beside her mother's knee,
And this was the way she ended:
"God bless us all—'specially me"

And her words set me to thinking,
Was she selfish more than I?
Had not my own heart, half thoughtless
Made the same un-Christlike cry?

And my prayer that night was humbler,
For I plainer seem to see
God's great mercy, and the weakness
Of us all—'specially me.
—Mary M. Currier, in "Among the Granite Hills."

See-Saw.

An artist went to sea to see
What he might see at sea to draw,
He only saw what all may see—
The sea was all the artist saw.
And when he saw he'd seen the sea,
Proceeded he the scene to draw.
And since his scene I often see,
I've seen the sea the artist saw.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

An Abstruse Question.

The two men had just told the hostess that they had had a delightful evening, and were going out into the rainy night.

"You remember the old query as to where all the pins go," said one of them as he made a reach toward the hall rack.

"Yes."

"Well, there's a problem that has been bothering me more than that."

"What's the problem?"

"Who is it that buys all the umbrellas?"

And his companion also made a reach and gave the conundrum up.—Washington Star.

A Census of Heaven.

"Mamma, do liars ever go to Heaven?"

"Why, no, probably not."

"Has papa ever told a lie?"

"I suppose not; he may have."

"And, mamma, have you ever told one? Uncle Joseph has, and I have and almost everybody."

"I don't know but I have sometimes?"

"Well, it must be lonesome up there with only God and George Washington."—Life.

Sammy's Suggestion.

As I am learning French just now,
Mamma, I think it would be handy
To help each exercise along,
To have a little nice French candy.
—Puck.

IRISH THOUGHTFULNESS.

Mrs. Denis—It's raining, Moike!

Mr. Denis—It's mesilf knows it, Bridget.

Mrs. Denis—An' why don't yez cum in?

Mr. Denis—Oim waiting fur it to shtop, so I won't be bringing ther wet into the house, Bridget.—Truth.

The Kind She Needed.

Miss Dawson—Why, this box of writing paper is perfumed with a violet odor. How strange! Why do you do that?

Salesman—So that your correspondence may be kept inviolate, miss.

Miss Dawson—What a good idea! I will take two boxes.—Truth.

At the Cafe.

Mrs. Swellbones—They say that if you drink absinthe it makes your hand tremble dreadfully.

Mrs. Flasher—Really? Waiter, make that a large absinthe instead of a ginger ale. I am going to wear nine diamond rings at the opera to-night. — N. Y. World.

Very Liberal.

"So you wish to marry my daughter?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, now, tell me, what can you promise her?"

"Oh, she shall have her share of her income, I assure you."—Truth.

Cruel.

"The first time I heard that played, Miss Ethel, do you know, I was completely carried away."

"Indeed! Why, how delightful! If you'll sit nearer the door, Mr. Berthe, I'll play it over again."—Harper's Bazar.

Hope Chapel Industrial Fair

And Loan Exhibition,

TO BE HELD IN

Hope Chapel,

ON

February 12, 13, 14.

Doors open at 2:30 p. m.

TONIGHT—8 p. m., Princeton College Double Quartet.

Feb. 13—3 o'clock, instrumental music by ladie's orchestra. 8 p. m.—vocal quartette, Mr. E. E. Runyon, Mr. A. Holmes, Mr. Will Runyon, Mr. G. O. Stevens.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS

Stages will run during the afternoon and evening from Crescent Avenue Church by way of 5th and 7th streets alternately to chapel, commencing at 2 o'clock. 2 8 6

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard.
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

Dogs

IRON AND BRASS

FIRE-DOGS.

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

"Everything for the Fireplace."

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, February 10, 1896.

Adams J H	Leonard A W
Barton A J	Neugem Agnes Miss
Codington B	McMann Thos
Duchene E Miss	Moore Elmer
Feil A F S	McEvoy Kate J 3
Fisk Clinton B	McKeef Lara Mrs
Hustner Jno	Palmberg Elen Miss 2
Johnson Charlie	Perine Chas
Johnson Hilder Miss	Prentiss S S
Kline Mellie Miss	Storme G W
King T P 2	Sneciker Dare

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

New Embroideries, Laces, Flouncings, etc.

Our assortment of these goods for the coming season is handsomer, more varied and complete than any we have yet shown, and embraces regular Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edges, Insertions and match sets in all grades and styles and a line of Exquisite Novelties which for new and original effects, exclusive and unique designs, are unsurpassed if not unequalled by any in the market.

Pretty Edgings and Embroideries Very Cheap.

A thousand lines could not tell the story any better. Great heaps of snowy Embroideries that first saw light in far off Switzerland are here.

In connection with our regular line we have purchased, direct from the manufacturers in St. Gaul, Switzerland, three large lots of Embroideries, which we will place on sale at one-third less than regglar prices.

Lot 1, 4c Yd. Lot 2, 8c Yd. Lot 3, 12c Yd

The wise ones ask no questions, but take them away in huge quantities.

777 and 779 Broad Street,
Newark, N. J.

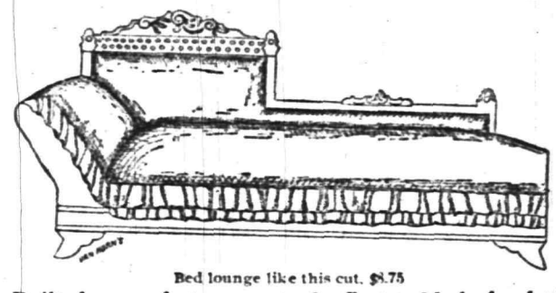
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

2½ Acres Of Furniture

ASK TO SEE THE FAMOUS "PORTLAND RAGE"

Carpets, Stoves, etc.,—that's what we have—every square foot of it's well covered—no chance for goods to go to seed here—all new lines, new designs, new everything. All unique prices—here's an instance or two:

Bed Lounges $5.00 up



Bed lounge like this cut, $5.75

Built for comfort, wear and effect. Made for bed and lounge. Variety of coverings.

Chiffoniers at $4.95

We've a real good line—many patterns—this especial one is worth every cent of $10.00. It's yours for $4.95.

VAN HORN'S

Exactly like cut, $4.95

Carpets All Weaves

It's true gospel that we're selling a mulitude of Carpet patterns never to be duplicated again—they're at prices low enough to make them go.

Goods delivered Free of Charge to any part of the State. Purchases made now held until wanted—no cash needed

AMOS H. VAN HORN Ltd. Note the Name "AMOS"

Carpets, Stoves, Furniture, Etc.
Low Prices, Easy Terms
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST. Near Plane St. NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

All This Week.

MATINEES AT 2 P. M.

Waite's Comedy Co

Premium Band and Orchestra.

35---PEOPLE---35

Prices 10, 20 and 30 Cts.

MATINEES 10 CENTS.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

IN HONOR OF LINCOLN.

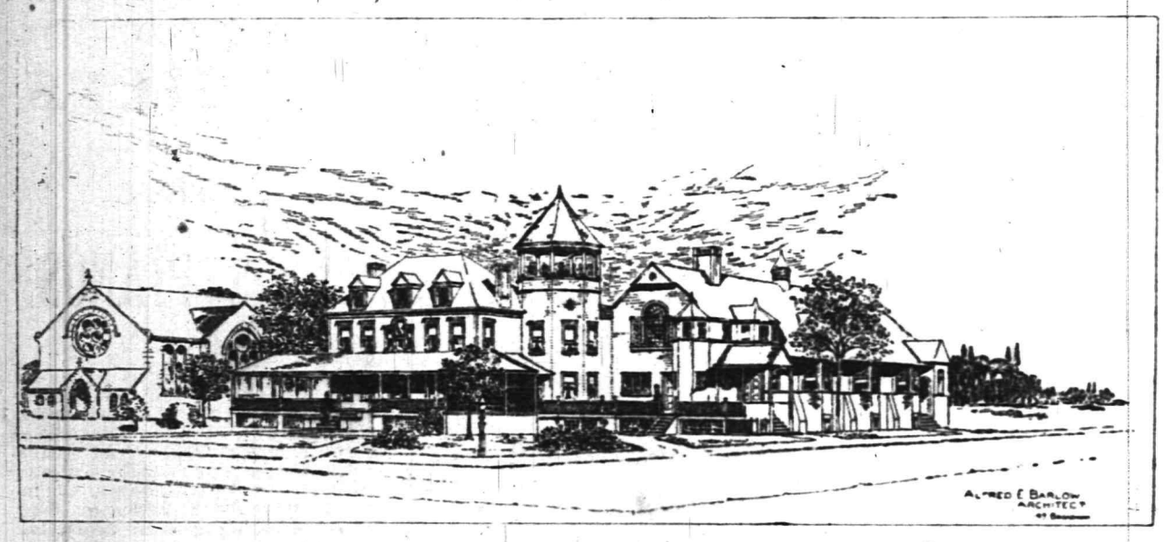
Brilliant Assemblage of Patriots Gathered in This City.

CHAS. J. FISK ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Three of the Announced Speakers Were Unable to Be Present, But Two Plainfield Clergyman Were Called on at the Last Moment and Carried Off the Honors of the Evening—Patriotic Address By Rev. Jocelyn Johnstone Took the Guests by Storm—List of New Officers and the Plainfielders Who Were Elected to Membership—John Kean the Centre of Attraction Among Politicians.

Brilliant thoughts and patriotic sentiments, combined with delectable viands and supreme sociability, made the fourth annual dinner of the Union County Lincoln Association in the Casino of the Union County Country Club last night an eminent success.

The diners were representative of Union county's best and most intelligent citizens, and it is pardonable for The Press, speaking with local pride, to say that in the line of toast-making the Plainfield speakers easily and gracefully carried off the honors, their remarks being inculcated with lofty sentiments that completely enthused the patriotic minds of those who were gathered to revere the memory of the man who saved his country—Abraham Lincoln.



WHERE THE DINNER WAS HELD.

At half-past seven the guests surrounded the tables and after divine invocation by Dean Rodman, of this city, were seated at the plates assigned to them. The menu, prepared and served by Max Wiertz, was an elaborate one and was ended at eleven o'clock with cigars. The tables, four in number, were presided over by William T. West, president of the association. The guests of honor who were to respond to the toasts were, with the exception of Hon. Edward C. Stokes, unable to be present. Hon. Joseph G. Cannon was detained in Washington on important Congressional matters. Hon. John S. Wise was unable to come from an important lawsuit in Virginia, and owing to a death and other urgent business, Hon. Roswell G. Horr was also compelled to be absent. The officers, however, resorted to Plainfield speakers as substitutes, and were more than pleased with the result.

During the time the dinner was in progress the guests, many of whom are prominent and influential in State political affairs, mingled among those at the different tables, chatting about this or that. Prominent among the politicians were John Kean and Senator Voorhees, but to the former there was constant homage paid by the lesser lights in the political arena. Mr. Kean occupied one of the seats at the speakers' table, and when he was not moving around the room—and he seemed to make it his business to greet everyone present with whom he had even a passing acquaintance—he was incessantly surrounded by a coterie of men who kept his attention with conversation more important than that which ordinarily passed over the dinner table. Mr. Kean was easily the lion of the hour, so to speak, among the guests.

Directly opposite him at the other end of the table sat Senator Voorhees. While the Senator was an attraction for many, yet it was plainly to be seen that the attention paid to his political antagonist completely overshadowed his personality. The cheery and familiar "I am very glad to see you" of the Senator, was heard, however, on all sides, and for a few minutes he and Kean were seen chatting pleasantly together.

But the great majority of the guests were not there to talk politics, and all such thoughts were banished from their minds when the popping corks and flowing product of the vine put them in a jolly mood. The diners mutually divided themselves into little parties, within easy hearing distance of each others voices, told jokes, anecdotes and experiences at other events, and had a time of mirth in general.

The toast card was as follows:

The Memory of Abraham Lincoln.
Standing and in Silence

"Strange mingling of mirth and tears, * * * of all that is gentle and just, humorous and honest, merciful, wise, laughable, lovable and divine, and all consecrated to the use of man; while through all, and over all, an overwhelming sense of obligation, of chivalric loyalty to truth; and upon all, the shadow of the tragic end."
Robert G. Ingersoll

Abraham Lincoln. Jocelyn Johnstone

"President Lincoln excelled all his contemporaries, as he also excelled most of the eminent rulers of every time, in the humanity of his nature; in the constant assertion of reason over passion and feeling; in the art of dealing with men; in fortitude, never disturbed by adversity; in capacity for delay when action was fraught with peril; in the power of immediate and resolute decision when delays were dangerous; in comprehensive judgment which forecasts the final and best opinions of nations and of posterity; and in the union of enlarged patriotism, wise philanthrophy, and the highest political justice, by which he was enabled to save a nation and emancipate a race."
George S. Boutwell

The Great Executive. Ira B. Wheeler

"He grew according to the need; his mind mastered the problem of the day; and as the problem grew, so did his comprehension of it. Rarely was a man so fitted to the event. * * * He is the true history of the American people in his time; the true representative of this continent—father of his country, the pulse of twenty millions throbbing in his heart, the thought of their minds articulated by his tongue."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

Emancipation Proclamation and its Results.
Hon. Edward C. Stokes

"And so, vicariously all suffering.
Over stupendous ills he rose supreme,
Set Freedom free made that a real thing
Which all the world had thought a splendid dream!
Across the red and booming tide of war
He sped the evangel of eternal right.
The message brave that broke the ancient spell
And rang and echoed far;
Above the battle at its stormiest height
He heard each chain of slavery as it fell."
Maurice Thompson

His Place in the Hearts of the People.
Rev. A. H. Lewis

"No other name has such electric power on every true heart from Main to Mexico. If Washington is the most revered, Lincoln is the best-loved man that ever trod this continent."
Theodore L. Cuyler

After the physical repast was over and the guests settled themselves for the mental feast that was to come, William T. West, president of the association, rose in his place. He was greeted with a round of cheers. "Plainfield, Union county's second and fairest daughter, has acquitted herself most nobly tonight," he said, and then he thanked the Plainfielders for their kindly reception of the association and the magnificent repast which had just been concluded, and said that from the way in which it had disappeared Plainfield must never again doubt the "voracity of Union county."

The administration of President Lincoln was, he said, the focal point of American history. Freedom to all was a new thing in government for individuals and had never before been recognized by countries. He remarked on the unstable condition of the country when Lincoln was called to its head, but that, somewhat different from the Administration of the present day, the Executive called to the head of the Government the best and brightest of his party. Lincoln, however, remained the true head of his Administration and directed all its movements. Mr. West next dwelt on the fact that Lincoln was almost unknown to the people and inexperienced in executive affairs when he was elected, and how his great ability made itself felt while he won his way into the hearts of the people.

"Few people," exclaimed the speaker, "are born never to die and all agree that he was one of them." Mr. West compared Lincoln's directness of speech and his writings, so easily understood by the people, with those of the communications of the executives of the latter days which, he said, had to be read and re read before they could be understood, and not always then. He praised Lincoln's quickness of thought and his ready answers that made him such a great debater, and told of an incident that happened at Hampton Roads when Lincoln was conferring with the Confederate commissioners. Lincoln would not recognize them as commissioners of another Government and one of them tried to argue with him. The southern man cited the example of Charles I who recognized the Commonwealth. "But," said Lincoln, "although I don't know much about history, it seems to me that Charles I lost his head."

In closing Mr. West said: "Never has man risen from such abject poverty as Lincoln. This man, unaided and alone, rose to a power recognized, not only by ourselves but by similar organizations all through the country, as one of the foremost men of his time. It is but right that we should pay tribute to a man to whom this country is under such obligations. Is it but right that we should contribute something to the man who has contributed so much to this country. Abraham Lincoln was the foremost one of his time and second only to that Greater Power that directed him. Let me ask you all to rise in memory of him."

As one man everybody rose and silently drank the toast "The Memory of Abraham Lincoln."

Congressman Cannon was unable to be present on account of pressure of duties, and President West said in excusing him: "Illinois furnished us not only with a Lincoln but a Grant, and I am sure, out of respect to her, we will forgive her for not giving us a Cannon to celebrate with."

Rev Jocelyn Johnstone, D. D, was introduced as the speaker on the toast "Abraham Lincoln." His speech was a magnificent one, since as he had had no time to prepare it, only having been asked after the dinner had commenced. The sentiment of the toast was read by Mayor Alex. Gilbert. Dr. Johnstone spoke of the sudden call to speak and said he considered it the greatest honor that had ever been conferred on him since his arrival in this county, to come before such a distinguished assemblage of freemen and speak on such a wonderful man. During his stay in this country he had learned to love the country, its institutions and people, and was proud to be a citizen of it. He told how, in the prime of manhood, when studying at a European university, he had first learned of Lincoln and his grand and noble conduct, and how he then learned to worship him. His speech was interrupted every little while by loud cheers and applause. As is usually the custom among ministers, Dr. Johnstone said he would divide his speech into three heads and, as a famous English divine suggested to those who should never come to the pulpit without a sermon prepared, he would go all around the subject in the first head, go away from in the second, and never come back to it in the third.

He spoke of Lincoln typifying the true American institutions, which included the liberty of individuals. Lincoln sprang from the people and was distinctly a true representative. He remarked, from personal experience on the feelings of one who comes to a country where there are no class distinctions and all the people enjoy equal rights. He knew that this country was greater than all others because it recognizes political ability and intellectual power in all. The applause at this point was deafening. The speaker next discussed the secret power of Lincoln, and spoke of him as self-schooled, self-disciplined, and self-contained. His speeches showed that he was saturated with the spirit of the Gospel and the immortal Shakespeare. The greatest piece of Anglo-Saxton composition was, he said, the speech at Gettysburg by the greatest orator, the greatest statesman and the greatest man this country ever produced. Lincoln was never disturbed by adversity. When that terrible storm of Civil War was raging over this country he was at the helm of the ship of State and steered it safely into harbor. Although he had a sympathetic heart, he did not turn aside at the sights of anguish, but worked with might and main to strike the shackles off the slaves and see all men free and equal. Dr. Johnstone spoke of the critics of Lincoln and how they claimed that he was not orthodox.

The speaker, declared, however, that Lincoln was an agent of Jesus Christ in aid of humanity.

Dr. Johnstone told most feelingly of the end of Lincoln and how he died a martyr to humanity. The hand of the assassin struck down, he said, a man with greater heart and intellect than ever before was seen in the history of the world. Judging his life from a standpoint of dollars and cents, it was a failure but, looking with humanity's eyes, it was a glorious success. And then the speaker closed with an eloquent burst of patriotism that stirred the hearts of those that heard it, and brought forth such applause as was never heard in the Casino before.

President West read a telegram from Hon. John S. Wise stating that it would be impossible to come as he was engaged in an important suitin Virginia. President West expressed his great regret at the absence of so many of the advertised speakers and declared it their duty to come after they had promised to. But, he said, as others had been conscripted into the war, so Ira B. Wheeler, of Elizabeth, had been conscripted into service tonight and would respond to the toast, "The Great Executive." Senator Foster M. Voorhees read the sentiment of the toast.

Mr. Wheeler referred to the grave of the substitute for Lincoln and said that he would be willing to die to have a similar inscription over him. Mr. Wheeler spoke of the hardness to understand the conflicting currents Lincoln had to meet. He was called upon to show great wisdom and forethought. Although Lincoln was born and spent his early life in obscurity, he was not degraded by it, for some of the best blood in the country ran through his veins. It is a misconception of him to say he was frivolous. He had, however, an exquisite sense of humor. And Mr. Wheeler told several incidents illustrating it. Lincoln's prevailing mood was not humor, but melancholy. The most pathetic figure in all the war was that man bearing his country's burdens and weeping for her sorrows.

The leader of the opposition to the race track bill, Hon. Edward C. Stokes, was introduced by President West as the next speaker. Senator Voorhees read the sentiment attached to the toast, "Emancipation Proclamation and its Results." In starting Mr. Stokes remarked that although he was the only advertised speaker to respond it was not the survival of the fittest. He spoke of the great proclamation and how its author had pronounced it the chief act of his adminstration and the principal event of the nineteenth century. He then discussed the causes of the destruction of slavery, that old institution whose power was so strong that it seemed invulnerable and said that the nation had to choose between the absolution of the slaves and dissolution of the country. He told how after the issuing of the proclamation and the joining of the fight for liberty and the fight for freedom, the flag advanced until all was over.

A new civilization followed it, for before labor was dishonorable, but it then became respectable, and this country literally went to work. It inaugurated the reign of the people, the principle of which was laid down in the Declaration of Independence.

Rev. A. H. Lewis next responded to the toast of "His Place in the Hearts of the People," in place of Hon. Roswell G. Horr. Dr. Lewis said in part: Lincoln was of the people, and the people recognized their own. He was a warrior, he was a statesman, but above all was the man. All felt that he was their brother. All through the nation he is enshrined as not being above the nation but being one of it. He always said in his proclamations "let us." Dr. Lewis then referred to that sad April day when the news of Lincoln's death was spread over the land. It was then that we knew what he was to the nation.

It was the funeral of the pride of the nation. The shadow of that pall was in every home. He was the Lincoln of no State or of no party; he was the Lincoln of the people. Let not his spirit be forgotten; we need statesmen now when personal greed, and not war,

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.]

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

IN HONOR OF LINCOLN.

John Hand Camp, Sons of Veterans, Enjoy Themselves.

John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, very appropriately observed Lincoln's Birthday by giving a fine entertainment last evening in their rooms on East Front street.

The attendance of comrades from both G. A. R. posts and the Woman's Relief Corps, together with their friends, did not leave much unoccupied space in the room.

Captain Willard V. Sutton had the programme in charge. The first number was a piano solo by Miss Allis. The selection was finely executed and everyone was pleased. Miss Maude Mosher followed with a recitation, "The Whistling Regiment," with piano accompaniment by Miss Allis. The selection is full of fire and enthusiasm, as well as pathos, and Miss Mosher brought out the fine points in a highly commendable manner.

Rev. Dr. Livermore was then introduced and gave one of the best addresses listened to. It contained chiefly his personal experience of Lincoln, gained while he was a soldier in the late war, and a better person could hardly have been selected. His address was filled with many intensely interesting anecdotes of the great man, and his style of delivering made the address one of pleasure to all. At the close he gave several sketches showing that there was a decided humorous side to Lincoln, and that he could enjoy a good story as well as anyone.

The last portion of the programme was the exhibition of war pictures on canvass. It was given Past Commanders Charles Stephens and M. C. Dobbins. The series of pictures were enjoyed by those present, and the excellent rendition of "Marching Through Georgia" by H. J. Martin brought the entertainment to a close.

A New Art Studio.

The art department of the Plainfield Business College was opened yesterday afternoon, and a large number of visitors were present at the studio during the afternoon and admired the various works of art, oil paintings, water color sketches, crayons, hand painted china and the like, which were on exhibition. They were all the work of Miss Adella C. Phelps, who is to take charge of the new department.

More Back Taxes Than Ever.

Collector H. N. Spencer, of the borough, says that the collection of back taxes this year exceeds that of any previous year, and that the collection of 1895 taxes was also in advance of past years' collections. Mr. Spencer is certainly to be commended for his faithful and earnest work in looking after the taxes, and very few people escape his eagle eye when he balances up his accounts.

Turns Out to Have Been Well to Do.

Robert Peters, who died at the Elizabeth hospital last week was to have been buried in Potter's Field, but it has been found that he was in comfortable circumstances. He had a one-third interest in a large farm at Manhasset, L. I., where his brother and sister live. The property is said to be worth about $15,000. The body will now be held until his relatives are heard from.

History of the Friends.

A. M. Shotwell, of Concord, Mich., is preparing a history of the Friends' Society, in which will appear a sketch of the establishment of the Plainfield meeting, and a synopsis of the early generations of the Webster, Pound, Moore, King, Laing, Vail, Thorn and other Quaker families of Plainfield and the Rahway Valley.

An Elizabethport Lot for $7,000

One of the most valuable tracts of land at Elizabethport has been secured by the Elizabethport Banking Company for $7,000. It is at First and East Jersey streets, and the site is one of the most eligible in the city for a bank. The purchasers will put up a fine building. The price was $2?0 a foot.

Only Three Flags Up.

The North Plainfield residents were not as patriotic yesterday as might be expected of them in such a live, healthy borough. Dr. J. H. Cooley, Simon Braider and Collector H. N. Spencer were the only ones that displayed flags in honor of Lincoln's Birthday.

—A Plainfield cyclist is negotiating for the agency of the new Aluminum wheel.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

FAIR IN FULL BLAST.

PLENTY TO INTEREST ALL WHO ATTEND THE HOPE CHAPEL EVENT.

Booths Presided Over by Those of Persuasive Tongues Who Will Make the Fair a Profitable Venture for the Chapel.

Lord Chesterfield very aptly said, "What is worth doing at all is worth doing well," and a better demonstration of the above words has seldom been seen than at Hope chapel, where the Industrial Fair and Loan Exhibition is now in progress

Everything possible to make the affair a success has been done, and to say that it is complete would be a mild way of expressing it.

After hard, earnest work by those in charge, under the direction of Donald McInnes, the interior of the chapel has been transformed into one of the most cheery and delightful places imaginable. Those who are wont to attend this place of worship hardly recognize it now as the same place.

The first thing that strikes the eye when entering is the abundant display of the National colors, red, white and blue, and this gives one a feeling of patriotism, for no true American could witness such a display without having a stronger love for his country.

The stationery booth, which is the first on the left, is arranged in the most artistic manner through the use of red and white bunting. Here you can purchase anything to be found in a first-class stationery store. The Daily Press is also on sale and last evening the demand was great when it was learned that Dr. Richards' opening address was to be found in its pages. Those in charge are the Misses Stewart, Lillian Newman, Carrie Dewey, Griffen, Marguerite Burnett, Booraem, Ellen Low, Scott, Marie Newman, Elizabeth Colony.

Just to the right of this booth is to be found the "tea room," one of the coziest places in the chapel, and the tea was just to the taste. Pink and white were the prevailing colors and the decorations were artfully arranged. Here Mrs. F. Wharton, Mrs. F. Canfield, Mrs. C. Leland and Miss Ada Nash were in charge, while Miss Helen Hall was the cashier.

Adjoining, was the men's industrial booth, where the handiwork of man was finely displayed. There were novelties in steel and wood, all made by the men in the chapel, and they found ready sales. Messrs. Harris, Mundy, Holland and assistants from Mr. Munger's class, were in charge and had no trouble in disposing of their wares.

One of the most familiar sights was the "Country Grocery," where anything from fire-wood to a bag of flour could be purchased. Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Bushby, Mrs. Radin and Mrs. T. Chamberlain, in old-fashioned gowns and hats, carefully looked after the trade with the skill of a thorough business man.

One of the prettiest booths is the Woman's Industrial. Here ths art of woman is at its best. Everything on sale has been wrought by her hands and the sight is really beautiful as one looks upon the endless variety of articles.

At this booth you will meet Mrs. Donald McInnes, Mrs. Struthers and Mrs. Neal Head, who made good bargains for all who wish to buy.

The fancy booth, in charge of Mrs. R. Gray, Miss Firstbrook, Miss Naylor and assistants from Mr. Travell's class was a pretty sight and received special mention.

In a cozy nook is to be found an artistic booth where fruits and flowers are supplied by Burton Metler, John Cose, Clarance Leland and assistants from Rev. G. K. Newell's class.

One of the striking features, and really an important one, is the candy booth, with a thatched roof covered with straw. A choice variety of delicious home made candies are in charge of Mrs. H. C. Squires, Miss Emma Schoonmaker, Miss Louise Bushnell, Miss Gertrude Walz, Miss Gertrude Andrews, Miss Mary Bushnell, Miss Marguerite Yates, Fred Squires, Charles Squires, while Mrs. Harry Squires is the efficient cashier.

The orange tree laden with luscious fruit was in charge of Miss Carrie

CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

READ-MONEY WEDDING.

A Brilliant Event in Official Society at Washington Last Night.

Washington, Feb. 13.—One of the most brilliant events of the season in official society was the wedding last night at Epiphany church of Miss Lillian Gwin Money, youngest daughter of Hon. Hernando D. Money, the new senator-elect from Mississippi and at present a representative from that state in congress, and Beverly Allen Read of Texas. There was a large attendance of senators and representatives and their families, and social Washington, particularly the southern contingent, was fully represented. The church was crowded to the doors. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Read left for New York, where the honeymoon will be spent. They will return to Washington for a short stay and will then go to their future home in Corpus Christi, Texas. Mr. Read is the adopted son of Congressman Culberson of Texas, and a cousin of Gov. Culberson.

WITNESSES SPIRITED AWAY.

Jonoph Calo, Charged with Murder at Waterbury, May Be Freed.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 13.—Assistant State's Attorney Terry says that when the Waterbury superior court convenes here next week he will ask Judge Elmer for advice concerning the case of Jonoph Calo, now awaiting trial for first degree murder, in killing Marciano Pugliese in Waterbury last August. All of the state's witnesses have been spirited away to Italy, and while the belief in Calo's guilt is strong, no evidence is available. It is generally thought that the case will be nolled. Four prisoners are now lying in New Haven county jail awaiting trial for murder in the first degree.

NOT FREE FROM SUSPICION.

Mr. Dillon Asks for a Statement Regarding British Chartered Companies.

London, Feb. 13.—In the course of the debate in the house of commons yesterday on the address in reply to the queen's speech John Dillon, nationalist, who sits for the east division of county Mayo, demanded that a statement be published showing the allotment of shares of the chartered companies, especially those of the British South Africa company. He said he made this demand because there was a widespread conviction that members of the press and men of prominence in the financial world and in parliament were not free from suspicion.

BOARDED BY SPANIARDS.

An American Schooner Searched by a Spanish Cruiser Off Manzanilla.

Lewes, Del., Feb. 13.—Schooner Navarino, Capt. Warner, from Manzanilla, reports that when she was coming out of Manzanilla harbor flying the American flag she was boarded, searched and detained twenty-four hours by a Spanish cruiser. On the 8th instant she met a hurricane when 100 miles south of Hatteras, which swept her deck and flooded her cabin and forecastle. The free use of oil by the crew saved the vessel from destruction.

PATTISON INDORSED.

Pennsylvania Democrats Name Him for the Presidential Nomination.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 13.—The Pattison boom for the presidency was launched with much enthusiasm yesterday at the meeting of the state democratic committee to arrange for the next state convention. A resolution indorsing ex-Gov. Pattison's candidacy was offered by John M. Carman of Luzerne and unanimously adopted. The state convention will be held at Allentown, April 29.

State Anti-Gambling Laws.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts introduced in the house yesterday a bill to prevent state anti-gambling laws from nullification through interstate gambling by telegraph, telephone or otherwise. To accomplish this object the measure extends to such gambling the penalties provided for interstate gambling by mail or express, which provides a punishment for such offense of fine and imprisonment.

Two of the Crew Frozen to Death.

Halifax, Feb. 13.—A telephone message from Lunenburg states that the British schooner Donzella parted chains while riding at anchor at Baccaro point, Barrington, during the gale last night. The crew took to the boats and two were frozen to death.

Gentry's Trial Set for Feb. 20.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—The trial of actor James B. Gentry for the murder of actress Margaret M. Drysdale, "Madge York," has been fixed for Feb. 20. Gentry shot and killed Miss Yorke in Zeiss' hotel on the night of Feb. 17, 1895.

Rescued by Firemen.

Hudson, N. Y., Feb. 13.—A fire in the knitting mill of the Harder Knitting company last evening spread so rapidly that a number of the employes, male and female, had to be taken out of the building by the firemen.

Associate of the Royal Academy.

London, Feb. 13.—Edwin Austin Abbey, the American artist who moved to England in 1878, and J. Solomon Solomon, the English painter, have been elected associates of the Royal academy.

Off on an Official Visit.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Mint Director Preston has gone on an official visit to Philadelphia and New York. He will be absent a week.

Raleigh Sails for Norfolk.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 13.—The United States cruiser Raleigh has sailed for Norfolk.

RISK IS TOO GREAT

Accident Insurance Men Consider Bicycle Riding Dangerous.

RATES OF PREMIUMS TO BE RAISED

Hereafter the Cyclist Must Pay Double for His Insurance, Receive Less Indemnity or Stand Responsible for Any Injury He Receives.

Boston, Feb. 13.—The conference of mutual accident insurance companies of the United States which assembled here to discuss the bicycle rider as an accident risk has finished its deliberations. The companies have unanimously resolved that bicycling is a hazardous occupation, which they cannot insure against at the present rates of premium, and that in future the cycler will pay double for his insurance or receive less indemnity, or give up cycling, so far as his accident insurance is concerned. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, that the use of the bicycle should be covered by additional cost or reduction of death and indemnity benefits; and it is recommended that this be provided by either of the following methods: The adequate increase of premiums to cover the added risk, or the classification as an occupation of bicycle riders in a class twice as hazardous as the "preferred" risk. That benefits by accidents by bicycle riding be specifically reduced. The including of bicycling under the policies to be covered only by specific permits and extra premium.

L. A. W. CONVENTION.

The Abolition of Class B Greeted with Considerable Rejoicing.

Baltimore, Feb. 13.—In consequence of the action of the L. A. W. convention, there are now but two classes of bicycle racing men. Class B, generally known as proamateurs, is wiped out of existence. There are 573 of this class of riders, all of whom will be given the option either of becoming amateurs or of accepting professionalism. This definitely settles an agitation that has been in progress among wheelmen for years and has taken a most prominent part in their affairs ever since the sport was known. Class B, which is now abolished, was a middle ground between amateurism and professionalism, and was adopted by the bicyclers' body at the suggestion of Howard B. Raymond of Brooklyn, then chairman of the national racing board, at the convention in Louisville in 1893, it having been withdrawn at the convention in New York the year before. When cycling began to assume its present large proportions and the making of bicycles opened a wide field for profitable investment, competition demanded advertisement. It was found by the makers that if they could get fast racing men to ride their wheels it aided greatly in the sales, as some of the guileless assumed that it was the wheel, and not the man, who won the races. The reputation of some of the great manufacturers of this country and England were built on that basis. The competition then became keen among the makers for the services of the flyers, and the rewards of them reached large proportions and thus started the scandal of bicycle racing which has just been wiped out.

How the Change Was Brought About.

There has been growing for years a sentiment to class these men as professionals, and the present action is a fruition of that agitation. The immediate result of this is to remove the cloak of amateurism from professionals. The agitation which led up to the decision was most unexpected. Amendments to the constitution and bylaws were under consideration, and several having a bearing upon Class B had been adopted without an effort in the direction of abolishing the class. In the discussion on a proposed amendment offered by Chairman Gideon of the racing board, several amendments to the amendment were made until finally Albert Mott of Baltimore made a motion to strike out all reference to Class B and to make a new heading in the constitution of "professional." The suggestion was debated with growing excitement until the convention was in an uproar. The unanimity of the sentiment in favor of abolishing Class B was unexpectedly pronounced. Cries of "vote!" came from all parts of the hall, and Mr. Mott's motion was carried almost unanimously. Three cheers were given when the result was announced.

Mr. Cherry's Railroad Concession.

Colon, Feb. 13.—The government of the United States of Colombia has decided to suspend the cancellation of the concession granted to Mr. Cherry, the American contractor, in connection with the Cauca railroad, and Mr. Cherry will continue operations until the Colombian congress shall have considered the matter and arrived at a decision.

Leser-Agnus Nuptials.

Baltimore, Feb. 13.—Miss Emily Annett Agnus, daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Felix Agnus of Baltimore, was married last evening to Oscar Leser of Philadelphia, at Grace Protestant Episcopal church, which was handsomely dressed in palms, lilies and cut flowers and was thronged with friends of the bride and groom.

Denied Use of the Mails.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The postoffice department has denied the privileges of the mails to the Southern Mutual Investment company of Lexington, Ky., for conducting a bond investment scheme.

Earthquake at Colon.

Colon, Colombia, Feb. 13.—A severe shock of earthquake was felt in this city at noon yesterday.

MUST SETTLE THE CLAIMS.

Verdict Against Insurance Companies for the Death of A. G. Mitchell.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 13.—In the United States court the administrator for the estate of A. G. Mitchell has given a verdict for $16,000 against the Travelers Accident company; $16,000 against the Fidelity & Casualty company; $6,000 against the United States Mutual; $6,000 against the Standard; $6,000 against the Union Casualty & Surety and $6,000 against the Preferred Accident of New York, with interest. The total is $60,000. Mitchell bought all the insurance in St. Louis, November 7, 1894, and was killed in the suburbs of Memphis by falling from a train on the following morning. The companies alleged suicide or gross negligence. One company, the Aetna, settled the claim against it for $6,000. This is the second trial, the first resulting in a hung jury.

GOLD PAYMENTS AT BOSTON.

Second Day's Receipts for the Bonds Amounted to $1,700,000.

Boston, Feb. 13.—The second day upon which bidders for the government bonds could make the first payment of 20 per cent. resulted in the sub-treasury receiving $1,700,000. Every state in New England, with the exception of Connecticut, which is connected with the New York sub-treasury, was represented in the gold that came to Mr. O'Neil. It came from banks and bidders far in Maine and from adjacent towns of Boston. This city, too, contributed a large amount; but it is expected that to-morrow the banks in this city will turn in their first payment. One concern alone will deposit $500,000 in gold in payment of the bonds it personally bid for and also for its customers.

VENEZUELAN DISPUTE.

Sir Frederick Pollock Completes His Task of Preparing England's Case.

London, Feb 13.—Sir Frederick Pollock, professor of jurisprudence in Oxford university, who has for some time been engaged upon the preparation of Great Britain's case in the Venezuelan dispute, has completed his task and the result of his work will be submitted to parliament next week, when concurrent statements intended to define the procedure for a settlement of the Venezuelan dispute will be presented in the house of lords by Lord Salisbury, and in the house of commons by Rt. Hon. George N. Curzon, parliamentary secretary for foreign affairs.

Lincoln's Memory Honored.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—The anniversary of the birthday of Lincoln was observed here last night by two republican organizations—one the Lincoln club of the Union League club, which is composed of members of the league of twenty-five years standing, and the other the Young Republicans of Philadelphia. The observation of the martyred president's natal day was in the unusual form of a dinner, and both organizations sat down to crowded tables.

Lincoln Banquet at Boston.

Boston, Feb. 73.—Nearly two hundred members and guests of the Middlesex club attended its annual Lincoln night banquet at Youngs last evening. The special guests of the occasion were Gen. James A. Walker, an ex-Confederate soldier, now a member of congress from Virginia; Hon. William H. Eustis, ex-mayor of Minneapolis, Minn., and Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana.

Lincoln Day in New York.

New York, Feb. 13.—Lincoln's birthday, which is a legal holiday in this state, was generally observed in this city yesterday. After noon business down town was mostly suspended and the exchanges were not opened at all. Chauncey M. Depew was the principal speaker at the Lincoln dinner given by the Republican club last night.

Mrs. Kezia Westbrook
Manning, Mich.

Common Sense Reasoning

Hood's Sarsaparilla Had Cured Others, and It Cured Me.

"It was sixteen years ago my right leg began to swell and pain. Four years ago it broke out in three dreadful sores. I tried all kinds of salves and liniments but the worse the sores became.

I Had to Walk on Crutches and a greater part of the time was confined to my bed. I could not sleep nights and my eyes became affected. I have worn glasses for over six years. Since I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills two of the worst sores on my limb have healed and the third is almost closed. My sore eyes have been benefited as I can see to read and write and also thread my needle for sewing without the use of glasses. I came to use Hood's Sarsaparilla by noticing advertisements. I reasoned that what has cured others would cure me and it has proved so. It is a splendid medicine." MRS. KEZIA WESTBROOK, Manning, Michigan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25c. per box.

Dyspepsia, Gastritis and all stomach troubles where that great life-maintaining organ refuses to dispense nourishment to every part of the body, and the sufferer gradually wasting away and losing flesh daily, finally meets his death from the perforation of a gastric ulcer or dies by actual starvation, can be cured, as has been done time and again, by the use of that great blood enricher, flesh and muscle builder, and strength creator. Give the vital centres of the body strength to perform their regular functions and perfect health is a natural sequence. Dr. Louis Faust, of Schenectady, N. Y., says of Bovinine, "In the severest cases of gastritis the stomach will bear it. For one month my mother lived almost exclusively on it during such a sickness." Over 25000 physicians use and endorse it.

Bovinine

In Buying a Piano or an Organ

do not fail to examine the latest Mason & Hamlin models. Recent improvements render them unexcelled. Old pianos or organs taken in exchange. Instruments sold for cash or easy payments.

Catalogues and full information free.

Pianos of reliable makers from $200 upwards.

Mason & Hamlin Co.
136 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

MUSIC AND ART.

A window, representing the American flag, in the best style of art, adorns a Catholic church in Anderson, Ill. No other church in the world has a window thus ornamented.

An expedition sent out from St. Petersburg four months ago to collect Russian popular songs in the provinces has already secured over a hundred songs, many of them of great antiquity.

It is an interesting fact that Maine was the birthplace of three noted singers—Annie Louise Cary Raymond was born in Durham, Me.; Lillian Norton Gower (Nordica) was born in Farmingham, Me., and Emma Eames Story was born in Bath, Me.

Jose D. Benjumea, a Sevillian, who resides in New York, owns a Murillo which is hung over the side altar of St. Andrew's church, corner of 127th street and Fifth avenue. The work is probably a genuine example, and represents the "Martyrdom of St. Andrew."

The portrait of Pocahontas which hung in the Woman's building at the Chicago world's exposition has been purchased by Mr. H. S. Wellcome, an American resident of London. He intends to present it to the United States senate.

The friends of Austin Blair, Michigan's war governor, are dissatisfied with the model of his statue which Gustave Trentanove, the sculptor, has made, because it represents him as an old man. The sculptor says he will make another model of Gov. Blair as a young man, if the state will pay him for his time.

THE UNUSUAL AND QUEER.

Horses sold at auction in Chillicothe, Mo., a few days ago at eight dollars apiece.

George F. McQuillan, of Portland, Me., has a cherry tree, on which a pear grew this year. A pear tree stands close to the cherry tree.

A corporation has been formed at Des Moines, Ia., "to insure banks against burglary and the loss of money in transit."

Georgia jokers are having much fun over the recent Honey-Mooney wedding in Rome, Ga., where Mr. William Honey was married to Miss Mattie Mooney.

Louis Peters, residing at Schnecksville, Pa., put a large cat in a cellar recently to catch mice, but in the morning his wife found that the rats and mice had killed the cat.

Doylestown (Pa.) people were treated to a novel sight several days ago, when a coach passed through the borough with a little red pig trotting along behind like the proverbial yellow dog.

On one of the calmest forenoons recently two Peak's Island (Me.) fishermen were startled by the sudden descent upon them, while in White Head passage, of a whirlwind of sufficient force to lift the bow of their boat fairly out of the water. It lasted hardly half a minute.

SCRAPS FROM NEW ENGLAND.

A cat 24 years old is owned by a man in Biddeford, Me.

One of Maine's curios is Machias, a town of 200 inhabitants without a debt.

Thorndike, Me., is distinctly ahead as an up-to-date town. A new street has been named Bloomer street.

Two fishermen of Eastport, Me., were out in the harbor one day recently fishing with hand lines with the temperature at six degrees below zero.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa. t.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,
88 FIFTH AVE.,
near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,
132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street. Plainfield, N. J.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,
301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.

Leech, Stiles & Co.,
EYE SPECIALISTS,
1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.,
Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at
107 East Front Street,
Dunham's real estate office,
EVERY THURSDAY
from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,
No. 169 North avenue.
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

First-class Insurance at Lowest Rates.

WM. H. ABBOTT,
General Insurance Agent,
COR. FRONT and NEW STS.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
131 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
120 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent.
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER. Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at fair prices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street. 6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given. charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
Chas. H. Herring, Contracting Agent, 403 East 2d st.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y
Write for Catalogue.

Ten Sweet Caporal Little Cigars
for 5 cts.
SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.

IF
You take advantage of the great closing out sale of Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at Edward Love's, and will let him do your spring decorating, you will be money in pocket.

A. Lusardi,
120 North Ave.,
will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

GEO. O. STEVENS
OAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

PIANOS.
You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at
J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

No Place Like Home

on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

QUAY IS A CANDIDATE

The Senator's Name To Go Before the St. Louis Convention.

ANNOUNCEMENT IS AUTHORITATIVE

Yielded at Last to the Importunities of His Friends in Pennsylvania — The Senator Himself Declines To Be Interviewed.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The United Press is able to announce this morning positively that Senator Quay of Pennsylvania has consented to permit his name to go before the republican convention at St. Louis. The senator is now in the hands of his friends and his prominence as a factor in the race will depend upon their efforts. It is understood that the senator has full knowledge of the statement thus made public. For several days he has been besieged by his friends and the members of the delegation from his state to permit them to announce him as their candidate, but thus far he has declined to give his consent. After considering the matter carefully, that consent was given, and Mr. Quay's personal friends and political lieutenants throughout the state were doubtless notified of the fact at once. Mr. Quay himself declines to be interviewed.

MUST REMAIN A TERRITORY.

Members Who Voted Against the Admission of Arizona to Statehood.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The members of the house territories committee who voted against the bill admitting Arizona to statehood, thus defeating the measure, are Messrs. Hadley of Illinois, Knox of Massachusetts, Taft of Ohio, and Lowe of New York, republicans, and Harrison of Alabama and Owens of Kentucky, democrats. It is said that Mr. Lefevre, territorial delegate, is satisfied with the defeat of the bill and will not ask for a reconsideration. When seen this morning he stated that he had not committed himself in the matter and would not say how he would proceed. Nobody, he said, had authority to state that he would not ask for a reconsideration.

KENTUCKY DEADLOCK.

Hunter Further from Election Than He Was Five Weeks Ago.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 13.—The balloting for United States senator in the joint assembly shows no essential changes from that of yesterday and the day before. Hissem, Carpenter and Rummons, republicans, still voting for Holt, Bennett and Cochran, and Hunter is further from election than he was five weeks ago. Sound money democrats are divided between Carlisle and McCreary and Populist Poor sticks to Bate. On the last ballot taken only 67 votes were required to elect and the result stood: Hunter, 62; Blackburn, 61; scattering, 9.

Big Orders for Steel Rails.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—The Pennsylvania railroad company has awarded contracts for 31,000 tons of steel rails at $28 per ton; 23,000 tons for the lines east of Pittsburg and 8,000 tons for the western lines. The contracts have been divided among the following companies: Carnegie, 9,000 tons; Cambria, 6,000; Pennsylvania Steel, 6,000; Lackawanna, 2,000 and Illinois Steel, 8,000 tons.

Kosciusko's Memory Honored.

Washington, Feb. 13.—In commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the birth of the Polish patriot Kosciusko, his statue in the capitol yesterday was appropriately decorated with wreaths and flowers. Although there were no formal exercises, a large portion of the Polish residents of this city called during the day and deposited floral tributes at the base of the pedestal.

Massachusetts G. A. R.

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 13.—The state G. A. R. encampment has elected the following officers: Commander, William P. Derby of Springfield; senior vice-commander, John M. Deane of Fall River; junior vice-commander, John E. Gilman of Boston; chaplain, Frank B. Taylor of Canton; medical director, F. W. Graves of Woburn.

Big Railroad Project.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 13.—Projectors of the new Ohio River, Augusta & Savannah railroad have completed their plans preparatory to organization. The road will be built from Savannah to Hulen Gap, a distance of 296 miles, and thence through Knoxville to its terminus on the Ohio river.

Abandoned Vessel Passed at Sea.

Yarmouth, N. S., Feb. 13.—The steamer Boston, just arrived from Boston, met with heavy gales. Capt. Stanwood reported passing, thirty miles northeast of Boston light, a dismasted and abandoned vessel, about 150 tons, apparently of New Brunswick build, high house aft painted white.

Indorse McKinley for President.

Columbus, O., Feb. 13.—The state league of republican clubs in convention adopted resolutions strongly indorsing the candidacy of Major McKinley, and it was determined to open headquarters at St. Louis during the national republican convention for the purpose of working for his nomination.

Gold Reserve Growing.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The treasury gold reserve to-day at the opening of business stood at $64,841,379, a gain for yesterday of $12,901,976, being the second day's receipts of gold for the new bond issue.

Russia and Bulgaria.

Vienna, Feb. 13.—A report is in circulation here that a military convention has been concluded between Russia and Bulgaria.

EVE OF THE BIG FIGHT

Sports Express Confidence of Outwitting the Authorities.

BATTLE GROUND HAS BEEN SELECTED

Mexican Troops in Readiness—They Will Be Ordered To Shoot Spectators as Well as Participants — United States Soldiers Ordered Out.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 13.—The situation twenty hours before the time originally set for the appearance of Fitzsimmons and Maher in the ring is in nearly every respect a counterpart of the situation that preceded the meeting of Sullivan and Kilrain at Richburg in July of 1889. The Texas and federal authorities and those of the adjoining Mexican states are apparently determined to prevent the mill, as were the executives of Louisiana and Mississippi seven years ago. By the same token the promotors of the contest are just as cool and collected and going ahead with their arrangements with as much energy as did Bud Renaud and his associates at New Orleans. There is no question but that they carefully laid their plans and that they are confident of their ability to bring off the big fight at least.

Only the Big Fight To-morrow.

The battle ground has been finally selected. The arrangements for the transportation are effected and every detail, including the hour at which the tip is to be given to the ticket holders to rendezvous, has been carefully planned to the end that the powers that be of the locality selected may be outwitted. As to the remaining events of the carnival everything depends upon the outcome of to-morrow's venture. The fight managers admit that it will hardly be possible to bring off two contests at the same spot and their ability to find safe locations is seriously doubted. There is talk today that an effort will be made to pull off the Everhardt-Leeds contest and that the others would be abandoned, but this the managers would neither deny or affirm. Their coolness and assurance concerning the big fight, however, has given renewed confidence to local people and visiting sports.

Soldiers Will Be Ordered To Shoot.

Meanwhile Gov. Ahuamada, with his headquarters at Juarez, is keeping in close touch with the situation. A detachment of the national cavalry, twenty-five strong, arrived from Chihuahua during the morning and is quartered at the Juarez barracks, where there is also a company of fifty of the Peons' infantry. There are no rurales on the border or within a distance of 200 miles, and the governor is emphatic in his statement that none are needed and that none will be brought on. "This fight must not, and shall not take place in Mexico," he said, "and if its promoters come to our side of the line our soldiers will have orders to shoot without discrimination between combatants or non-combatants. Principals or spectators, everybody has been given a fair warning, and if they disregard it, then it will be at their own peril."

U. S. Troops Held In Readiness

Information reached the United Press this morning from Fort Bliss that orders had been received from Washington countermanding until further notice the fifteen days' practice march upon which company H of the Fifteenth infantry should have started to-day, and also ordering the troops to be confined in barracks. The orders are interpreted at the fort as indicating that the troops will be ordered out in the event of indications pointing to the selection of New Mexican ground for a battlefield. Al Smith of New York, who arrived last night has a good-sized roll to post a forfeit when challenging the winner in behalf of Corbett.

Railroads Sold at Auction.

Petersburg, Va., Feb. 13.—Under a decree of the Hustings' court of this city the Petersburg & Asylum railway was sold at public auction yesterday afternoon; also the Petersburg street railway. The latter was knocked down to Messrs. Lloyd Nash of Westport, Conn., E. C. White of New York and Frederick Gillen of Brooklyn, N. Y., who represent the bondholders of the road.

Doorkeeper of Senate.

Washington, Feb. 13.—At a caucus of democratic senators last evening it was decided to unanimously indorse the resolution that will be called up in the senate to-day by Mr. Sherman selecting Alonzo Stewart of Iowa as assistant doorkeeper of the senate and amended by Mr. Gorman to include the selection of Bernard Layton of Ohio, dem., as acting assistant doorkeeper.

Testing Coins in the Mint.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—The assay commission appointed by the president to examine and test the weight and fineness of the gold and silver coins received by the mints of this city, San Francisco and New Orleans during the year 1895, met yesterday afternoon at the mint in this city and began the work required of them.

Moorish Prince Towed to New York.

Boston, Feb. 13.—The disabled British steamer Moorish Prince started for New York last night in tow of the Storm King. In some unaccountable way yesterday the steamer's propeller became loosened, dropped out of its position and was lost. The repairs to the vessel will detain her at New York for some time.

Alex Smith Signs with the Brooklyns.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 13.—Alex Smith, the well known local back stop, has signed with the Brooklyn, N. Y., club. Last season he did excellent work for Scranton, of the Eastern league.

HARDENS ALUMINUM

Mr. Edison Believes He Has Made Another Great Discovery.

HIS EXPERIMENTS WITH THE X-RAY

Aluminum, He Now Believes, Is Not a Simple, But a Chemical Compound—No Actual Photograph Yet Secured.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 13.—Although Mr. Edison is not yet ready to photograph a human brain by means of his newly discovered vacuum tubes, nevertheless he has continued to pursue his experiments with the new force in many directions at his laboratory here. He tested the distance of penetration of the X-rays through a funnel eight feet long. The result was not satisfactory after forty-five minutes' exposure, but he says that he will make another attempt at a greater exposure in the near future. Mr. Edison has discovered the interesting fact that aluminum electrodes after being in use a short time become hardened, or tempered, so that while at first they are so soft that they can easily be bent after a few hours' use they become so hard that it is impossible to bend them even with the use of great force. Mr. Edison thinks that the hardening is caused by some parts of the material becoming separated from the aluminum and are projected through the interstitial molecular spaces in the glass. He thinks that the discovery may mean that aluminum is not a simple, but a chemical compound. Mr. Edison in the course of his experiments yesterday discovered that a tube of low vacuum after being used for some time got a high vacuum, and the process being continued all the residual air disappeared. This, he thinks, was caused by decomposition of the molecules in the air, and that the oxygen uniting with the alumium electrodes, caused hydrogen to be projected through the interstitial molecular spaces of the glass.

No Actual Photographs Yet Taken.

Roentgen's discovery of the wonderful penetrating power of the so-called X-ray has excited great popular interest. As yet no actual photographs have been taken. Shadowgraphs alone have been produced. As to how they are obtained the experiments being made by Mr. Edison will serve as a good illustration. He has been working in a partially darkened room, although it is known that satisfactory experiments can be made in daylight with the X-ray. His apparatus consists of an accumulator, a large induction coil with Leyden jars, a vacuum tube, and an ordinary sensitized plate in a holder such as every photographer uses. The vacuum tube, which is practically the same as a Crookes tube, is an ordinary electric light bulb without the carbon filament. It has two platinum electrodes, one at the top and one at the bottom, just penetrating the glass. The current is first passed through the induction coil and thus raised from a low to a very high potential. A mechanical device rapidly opens and shuts the circuit and gives a great number of alternations. Then the vacuum tube is connected in the circuit and the cathode and X-rays are generated.

How the Pictures Are Made.

In making the picture the sensitized plate in its holder is placed on a table about eighteen inches from the tube. It stands in a perpendicular position of course, since it is known that the X-rays move on straight lines from their source. No ordinary light can affect the plate, because during the whole operation it is kept in its holder completely encased in wood, which the X-ray alone will penetrate. The object to be pictured is placed between the tube and the plate, about three inches from the latter. Supposing it is a hand. The hand is held in front of the plate and the electric apparatus set in operation so the tube obtains its state of fluorescence. The X-rays cannot be seen; no light is observed either on the hand or on the plate. The X-rays—they are so called because their nature is as yet unknown—will penetrate the fleshy parts of the hand and go right through the wooden cover of the plate to the plate itself. Such portions of the plate as the rays penetrate to are affected the same as they would be by any light, blackened. The X-rays will not penetrate calcareous matter, such as bone. So none of the rays passes through the bones to the plate, and the result is that the plate shows the bones in that portion of it which has been unaffected by light.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Belmont Sail.

New York, Feb. 13.—Oliver H. P. Belmont and Mrs. Belmont, formerly Mrs. Alva Vanderbilt, sailed yesterday afternoon for Liverpool on the White Star steamer Majestic. Master Harold Vanderbilt, the young son of Mrs. Belmont, accompanied them.

Well Known Musical Composer Dead.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The death is announced here of Charles Louis Ambroise Thomas, the celebrated musical composer. M. Thomas was born at Metz, August 5, 1811. He was the composer of many works well known to music lovers.

To Consolidate Gas Companies.

Boston, Feb. 13.—There has just been filed at the state house a bill which provides for the consolidation of the various gas companies doing business in this city, and also the Brookline Gas Light company.

"Dr." Ella Bates Pleads Guilty.

Boston, Feb. 13.—"Dr." Ella A. Bates pleaded guilty in the superior court yesterday to the indictment charging her with criminal malpractice on Elemine Keyes, which caused the latter's death. She will be sentenced later.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE. Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

108 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 13, 1896.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Rain and Warmer Tonight; Friday Clearing and Decidedly Colder.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 38 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 13—Meeting of Boys' Branch of Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Grace P. E. Church chapel.

February 13—Supper in Trinity Reformed Church.

February 13—Adjourned business meeting of the W.C.T.U.

It is probable that Arizona will not be admitted as a State, because there is an inclination on the part of those in control not to inject any further silver element into Congress.

Plainfield acquitted herself finely at the banquet of the Lincoln Association last night in the line of speech-making. The Rev. Jocelyn Johnstone and Rev. A. H. Lewis could not have spoken more lofty sentiments or drawn more apt conclusions if they had had a month to prepare them in.

Nothing Like It.

Time brings many changes, but the climate of Calfornia, "The Italy of America," and the attractions of the many famous health and pleasure resorts, are the same yesterday, today and forever.

Tourists never will tire of speaking in praise of the soft and balmy air, the profusion of flowers, the magnificent display of fruits, the luxury of sea-bathing and the beautiful walks and drives.

Then, too, it must be conceded that with such excellent equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars, all heated by steam and lighted with Pintsch Light, the Union Pacific, "The Overland Route," is the tourists favorite. Ask your agents for tickets via this route.

E. L. Lomax, General Pass. and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

Damages to Bridges.

The Somerville Messenger prints the following this week in reference to the damage done Somerset county bridges last week by the flood. In addition to the Finderne bridge, new bridges will have to be constructed at Neshanic station, Burnt Mills, over the North Branch near G. S. Shurts', and innumerable smaller ones in every township. The bridge near Captain Davey's at Weston was washed away, but can be replaced, as can also one near Charles Zanders', below Basking Ridge, which floated about 100 feet down the road. The bridge near Bock's mill, in Dog Watch Hollow, was completely destroyed, notwithstanding Tom Collins' efforts to hold it in place.

Borough Reality Transfers.

The following real estate transfers from the borough have been recorded in the Somerset County Clerk's office:

William J. Boome et ux to Benjamin Hegeman, North Plainfield, $2,350.00; Mary J. Thickstun to Addie M. Phillips, North Plainfield, $1.00; Addie M. Phillips and husband to John F. Wilson, North Plainfield, $1,500.00; Catharine E Hegeman and husband to William J. Boome, North Plainfield, $2,350.00; John B. Mills et als to Edward J. Perrine, North Plainfield, $200.00; John B. Mills et als to Edward Maurer, North Plainfield, $100.00; Lena Limberger and husband to Hobart E. Rider, North Plainfield, $2,700.00; Margaret E. McLaughlin to Katharina Ruppert, North Plainfield, $400.00; Newton B. Smalley et ux to John P. McIntyre, North Plainfield, $3,500.00; Ignatz H. Boehm et als to Adolph Levy, North Plainfield, $1.00; Adolph Levy to Jeanette Boehm, North Plainfield, $1.00; William G. Gilchrist to Caroline S. Pangborn, Plainfield Park, $225.00; Caroline S. Pangborn and husband to Charles Greder, North Plainfield, $375.00.

Going to the Grand Lodge.

The meeting of Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., last evening, was an interesting one and the attendance was large. Next Wednesday the Grand Lodge will meet at Trenton. I. N. Wyckoff is the representative from Unity, and he will be accompanied by the following past chancellors: J. W. A. Bauersachs, Jeremiah Van Winkle, Jr., Bateman Thatcher, Joseph Sheppard, A. W. TenEyck, L. B. Blackford and Charles W. DeGraw.

He Had "Them."

A man at the North Avenue station last evening had "them" badly, and probably mistook Roundsman Frederickson for one of the visions, for he was very abusive. The officer helped him to jail and this morning Judge DeMeza gave him his choice between a fine of $5 or fifteen days in jail. The man, who had recovered from the attack, gave his name as James McArdle, and his occupation as hackman. He paid the fine.

A Dance at Fanwood.

The Four-in-Hand Social Club, of Fanwood, gave one of their most charming dances at the Fanwood club house last evening, which was attended by eighty guests from Brooklyn, New York, Plainfield and Elizabeth. The costumes of the fair sex were exceedingly pretty. Refreshments were served by the club during the evening.

R. B. Smith Dead.

R. B. Smith died at the home of his father in Brooklyn, February 7th. He formerly lived in this city on Elm place. He was the father of Mrs. Charles Van Nest, of New street.

IN HONOR OF LINCOLN.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

is at the front; when Senators risk the welfare of their own nation for a silver mine. Let us hope that something will come from this meeting to show our children that there is still that patriotism in us that was shown in '60 and '61. Let us rise higher to our conception of citizens and be men who think more of country than of personal interests. Dr. Lewis seemed to have found the keynote of the meeting, for his eloquent address moved even the most sluggish heart, and his words could hardly be heard above the tumultuous applause.

Dr. Lewis was the last speaker, and after he had concluded, the visitors from down the road hurried to the special train that left Plainfield soon after one o'clock.

Previous to the dinner the annual meeting of the association was held in one of the parlors of the Country Club and the following officers elected: President, Clarles J. Fisk; vice-president, Ira B Wheeler; treasurer, M. W. Halsey; secretary, W. B. Timmis; executive committee, W. T. West, Frank Bergen and Judge Joseph S. Cross. Twenty-five new members were elected, the following Plainfielders being among them: R. F. Murray, W. R. Cock, W. P. De Witt, H. G. Runkle, W. T. Kaufman, Hon. B. A. Hegeman, Mason W. Tyler, Henry G. Wright, George De Meza, Dr. J. B. Probasco, A. L. C. Marsh, Frank Bushnell, G. Jarvis Coe, J. B. Dumont, J. W. Reinhart, Boardman Wright, DeWitt C. Ivins.

The officers were authorized to have the association incorporated if it was deemed advisable.

The following guests were present: Wm. T. West, Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, Rev. Erskine M. Rodman, Charles J. Fisk, Hon. Edward C. Stokes, John C. Rankin, Jr., Alexander Gilbert, Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, Hon. John Kean, R. F. Murray, W. R. Cock, W. P. DeWitt, H. G. Runkle, W. T. Kaufman, Hon. B. A. Hegeman, Jr., John W. Murray, Mason W. Tyler, Henry G. Wright, F. A. Dunham, C. B. Corwin, J. A Hubbard, George DeMeza Dr. J. B. Probasco, Charles C. Dilts, E. B. Horton, Kenyon Messick, E. W. Austin, John A. Hicks, A. L.C. Marsh, Frank Bushnell, G. Jarvis Coe, J. B. Dumont, H. M. Stockton, J. W. Reinhart, C. A. Marsh, Boardman Wright, DeWitt C. Ivins, J.B Coward, J.Frank Hubbard, E. R. Pope, W. R. Codington, J. W. Ferguson, James B. Irwin, Henry Krouse, Jasper C. Hunt, Geo W. Littell, E. S. Atwater, F. H. Davis, W. B. Timms, W. W. Willett, A. H. Bull, A. Mackintosh, George T. Parrot, Charles F. Day, John I. Howe, R. H. Howes, W. P.Stevenson, George H. Warner, Charles F. Abbott, George Kyte, John B. Green, C. C. McBride William Howard, Wm. Chamberlain H. B. Rollinson, Ira B. Wheeler, Geo. H. Golden, A.S.Crane, Dr.W. Woalsey, C. S. Kiggins, J. S. Tucker, C.A. Swift, E. L. Tillou, W. C. Hope, Charles H Pennell, G. DeWitt Smith, John L. Warner, George Sloan, L. W. Serrell, L. W. Miller, V. W. Nash, George D. Patten, Dr. C. B. Holmes, C. W. Codding, Wm. A. Clark, A. D. Crowell, James Morrison, Joseph Gales, Wm. C. Carr, James Calvert, M. F. Gannon, S. S. Moore, F. A. Price, C. D. Ward, Dr. G. H. Bridgeman, John P. Woodruff, Charles E. Mears, H.E. Duncan, Jr., M. W. Halsey, E. C. Woodruff, H. A. Wise, Joseph Cross, Melville Egleston, P. R. Gray, H. H. Isham, P. H. Gilhooly, T. M. Belknap, A. K. Moore, F. W. Runyon, W. D. Harrison, John D. Barr, Charles E. Reed, F.W.Coyne, James C. Ogden, W. A. Coddington, W. T. Kirk and E. M. Wood.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Augustus Wise, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Plainfield friends today.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grobes will be at home, 514 West Third street, Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4.

Dr. Stephenson, of West Fourth street, is not so well, and there are slight hopes of his recovery owing to his advanced age.

Matthew Heintzman, of Johnson's Somerset street bakery, leaves Saturday for his old home, Port Jervis, where he will open a bakery.

Commander I. L. McVoy and Past Commander W. W. Coriell, of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., attended a muster and ball last evening given by Farragut Post at their Armory on Sixty-second street, New York.

Miss Eudora Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Grant, of West Sixth street, has returned from a visit with her sister, Miss Sadie Grant, at Buffalo. On account of the heavy fall of snow two engines were used in bringing the train through.

—Paves the way to prosperity—that is what the present condition of affairs mean, and Peck is right here to be at the opening.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

FAIR IN FULL BLAST.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

Hunter and Miss Estelle Place, assisted by their classes.

Next came the "Old woman in a Shoe." Pretty dolls were on sale, and an attractive feature is the large shoe in which was comfortably seated one of the little ones. Mrs. Robert Gow, Miss Emma Forster and Miss Lilly Duckworth are in charge. The booth is daintily decorated with blue bunting.

At the chocolate table Miss Sadie Hunter is in charge and serves a delightful cup of chocolate for twenty-five cents, and then makes the purchaser a present of a cup and saucer.

After wandering around one becomes thirsty and wants to stop at the lemonade table where this refreshing beverage is served by Mrs. Percival Danis, Miss M. Devere and assistants from Mr. Schoonmaker's class. The decorations are yellow and white and exceedingly attractive.

In the refreshment room, which is an attractive place, neatly decorated with red and white bunting, you can secure one of the best meals for twenty-five cents that was ever served. Those who look after your wants here include the Misses Hayden, M. S. Yakes, Mary Brunson, Swazye, VanDeventer, Mrs. S. Smith and Mrs. William Gray. Miss Mabel Firstbrook is the cashier.

The last but not least is the loan exhibition and curiosity shop in charge of Rev. and Mrs. G. K. Newell and George H. Fountain. Here you find curious relics of Revolutionary times, works of art and manufacture, and besides many articles from the Holy Land that will interest everyone, such as English and Dutch Bibles over 300 years old, a miniature representation of the Tabernacle, and a large collection of Indian relics.

One very important feature is the handsome platform arranged similar to a parlor. The work is that of Rushton, Hansen & Luthman, the new firm of painters and decorators. It is really a work of art. The fair was crowded with patrons last evening and besides the many good things enjoyed was a fine programme of vocal music by a double quartette from Princeton University. This afternoon a musical programme arranged by Miss C. Dewey will be given, and this evening an orchestra will be present and in addition E. E. Runyon, Wm. N. Runyon, G. O. Stevens and Alfred Holmes will give choice vocal selections.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Louise Snediker, of Grove street, is confined to the house with an attack of the grip.

N Carman Dunn, of Philadelphia, spent Tuesday with his mother at her home on Park avenue.

Mrs. Worthington, who is resident in New York this winter, is spending the week with Plainfield friends.

Mrs Walter Dodge, of Newton Centre, Mass., is visiting at the home of her cousin, R. M. Stelle, of Central avenue.

Miss Anne Winslow Crane, of Brooklyn, who has been the guest of Miss Emma V. Fish, of Franklin place, returned home yesterday.

Miss Boughton, of Philadelphia, who has been spending a week with her friend, Miss French, of West Seventh street, has returned to her home.

Percy Fish, of Chicago, who has been visiting at the home of his uncle, Frederick K. Fish, of First place, has gone to Brooklyn to visit friends in that city.

Miss Lizzie Kingston, of East Second street, is improving from a serious illness. She regained her voice yesterday for the first since she has been confined to the house.

Benjamin Eddy, of Muhlenberg place, has secured a position with the "Trip to Chinatown" company. He will join the company in Philadelphia in about two weeks.

Miss Charlotte Williams will entertain the members of the Young People's Progressive Euchre Club at the home of Miss Sallie Gray, at Dunellen, on Friday evening.

Irwin Cooley, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooley, who is a student at Cornell University, now holds first medals for high and broad jumping. He is considered one of the best athletes in the college.

Constipation

Is the most common form of Dyspepsia. Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills (white wrapper), one after each meal, cure the most obstinate cases. They contain no mercury, do not purge nor gripe, and impart a natural healthful tone to the stomach and bowels.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills.

25 cts. at druggists'. Send to us for a free sample.
DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston, N. Y

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

ONLY RUN DOWN.

Many People Complain of Being Out of Order.

By No Means Sick, But They Don't Feel Just Right.

Are Weak, Nervous, Tire Easily and Work is an Effort.

There are numberless people who do not call themselves sick, and yet who feel weak, nervous, languid or tired; they have lost their vim, power of endurance and ambition to work. They feel miserable, not because they are actually sick but because they are not well.

People complain that they are weak, nervous, tired and exhausted; that they have a poor or variable appetite, no strength, no nerve; they become irritable, cross, blue and discouraged. In some cases there are pains and aches in various parts of the body and there is often indigestion, dyspepsia, belching of wind, dull, cloudy head, and general dispirited feeling. Sleepless, restless, wakeful nights follow. The brain tires easily and there may be a tendency to drowsiness during the day. Neglect of these symptoms results in excessive nervous prostration or paralysis, with numbness, trembling cold feet and legs, prickling sensation and weakness and weariness of the limbs.

MISS BERTHA A. ELMER.

Look to the symptoms in time, nervous sufferers, to avert the dread results. Do as did Miss Bertha A. Elmer, of Etna, N. H., who says:—

"About two years ago last fall I was obliged to leave off work on account of ill health. The doctor told me I had overworked. I suffered from severe headaches and grew so poor and pale that people told me if my eyes were closed they would believe me dead.

"My nerves seemed all unstrung. I suffered in this way all winter and there was nothing that seemed to help me. At last my mother persuaded me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I took one bottle and that helped me, and I decided to try another. I took three bottles in all, after which I was as well, or even better than I had ever been before.

"Please publish this testimonial if it would be likely to help others, for I feel sure Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy saved my life."

Remember that this marvelous medicine Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, will make you strong and well: that it is the discovery of the successful specialist in nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who can always be consulted without charge, personally or by letter, in regard to the action of the medicine. Try it; you will not regret it.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits; 75c. Sold by H. P. Reynolds, druggist, Park and North avenues. 2 12 y

—The members of the Independent Scheutzen Corps are enjoying their weekly shoot today in Hyde's Grove.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

A Card to the Public

For nearly 20 years the public of Plainfield and vicinity have given me the largest share of their patronage in the purchasing of hats and gent's furnishings, showing that honest effort, low prices and reliable goods are appreciated. I have now associated with me Mr. Charles Clark, of Westfield, N. J., who comes to us highly recommended as a competent, honest young man. We will add to our stock of hats and gent's furnishings, a full line of men's and youth's shoes and rubbers, keeping only reliable goods and selling at the lowest possible prices.

Thankful for past favors, we are yours for business, U. B. CRANE,
120 West Front st.
Succeeded by Crane & Clark.

DIED.

KELLER—In North Plainfield, Tuesday, Feb. 11, 1896, Charles J., son of Charles and Anne Keller, aged 2 years, 11 month and 17 days. Funeral services Friday, Feb. 14, from parents residence, No. 66 Harrison st. at 2 o'clock. Friends and relatives respectfully invited to attend. Interment in North Plainfield cemetery.

WISE PEOPLE

are Buying Their Wash Goods and Embroideries at Peck's. The Experience of Former Years Has Warned Them That Disappointment Follows Delay.

THE DALZIEL
GRAMMAR, MANUAL AND
ART SCHOOL, 309 East Front Street.
IS AN ESTABLISHED SUCCESS.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique, Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at the Women's School of Design, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

Items of Interest

At Edsall's Commercial Palace the Spring trade begins to be brisk.

Our new improvements and changes are the subject of many nice comments from our patrons.

The increase of trade in our much improved and enlarged Grocery department still goes on. Many who were accustomed to buy groceries at the New York department stores, now buy at ours, and that is just as it should be. Home trade first, when the same inducements are offered.

Our new buyer in the China and House Furnishing departments has made some astonishing purchases for the Spring trade. By the complete reorganization of this department, and the introduction of the most modern and right down up-to-date methods of close buying. We are enabled to save our patrons at least from 15 to 20 per cent on their every-day needs. Think of 15 to 20 per cent saved in buying alone. Here is a sample to the point, and we have plenty more to tell you about later on. One thousand two hundred (1200) finely made brooms, direct from the factory to the Commercial Palace. All the intermediate profits, and freight, and even the ten-day cash discount, saved for our patrons. That's the way we undersell; the quantity makes the price. Every broom is first quality and well made from fine green whisk. The "Atlas" 3 and 4 sewed No. 6 and 7 at 15c and 18c.; they are the regular 20c and 25c grade. The "Champion Brace," 3, 4, 5 sewed, No. 6, 8, 9, at 21c., 27c., and 29c., well worth 30c to 35c. "Little Maid" 3-sewed special parlor broom, No. 6, at 23c. value 35c. "Little Jewel" 3, 4, 5 sewed, No. 6, 7, 8, 9, 24c, 28c, 31c, 33c, sold regular at 35c, to 50c. The "Liberty" 3, 4, 5 sewed, No. 6, 7, 8, 9 at 26c, 27c, 29c, 31c. Good value 33c to 45c.

There is a great craze on the "surface print" and "warp print" Dresden and Persian ribbons. The "surface p ints" are the cheaper goods. Some merchants advertise them as "warp goods," when in fact they are only "surface print. They are easily detected. The genuine warp print has a filling of all one color, while the warp is printed and shows both sides alike. If you have purchased any, just ravel out the filling and see if it is all plain. One call at our ribbon counter and our saleslades will explain the difference to you. We have just opened a new lot of Dresden, in real "warp print," No 40 and 60, at only 29c. And a new lot of "surface print," at only 15c. They are elegant and cheaper than anything we have yet heard of.

Have you seen the newest fad for house wrappers? Vicuga cloth in beautiful Persian effects. They will surprise you at only 10c. a yard. New and elegant French satines, spring styles, at only 15c. a yard. New handsome spring Percales in a large variety of patterns at only 8c yard. The new spring Dimities in Dresden effects, very dainty and pretty, are only 10c. and Grass Cloth for dresses, 14c yard.

Have you tried Edsall's baking powder? Those who use it say it gives as good satisfaction as any in the market. Only 18c. lb. It is well worth your while to come in and see the many new things we are showing this Spring. We stand by our old motto of doing the very best we can for our patrons, knowing that the better we do for them the better than can do for us.

EDSALL'S

DO YOU NEED RUBBERS

We can show you as large an assortment as any house in the State. Women's Rubbers from 24 cents a pair up. Men's $5. Cork Sole Shoes, $2.48. Women's $3, $4 and $5 Shoes $1.48. These are samples of the many bargains we are offering this month in the Shoe Department.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Putnam & DeGraw

THIS WEEK WE WILL SELL

SHIRT WAISTS—Ladies laundered shirt waists only 50c.
UMBRELLAS—Fast black, Paragon frame, only 75c.
HOSIERY—Children's 1x1 rib, extra quality, all sizes, 15c; ladies fast black seamless, extra quality, at 10, 15 and 25c; men's mixed half hose, extra quality 10c, 3 for 25c; men's mixed half hose, seamless, extra heavy, 15c, 2 for 25 cents.
WAISTS—Children's corded underwaists 25c; children's outing flannel waists 50c style for 40c.
NECKWEAR—A new and special line at 25 and 50c.
EMBROIDERIES—Our's are the talk of the city.
COTTON CREPONS—Evening shades at 12 and 15c a yard.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	21	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	20	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	19
Cranford	837	6	24

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	6	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	5	4	1789
New Jersey A. C.	4	5	1631
Cranford C. C.	4	6	1557

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

While bowling on the Park Club alleys, Wm. N. Runyon made a score of 237, which is now the high individual score for February at the Park Club, being six higher than Matthews tournament score.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Dr. J. H. Cooley, of the borough, now enjoys his spare time riding a Premier wheel.

Frank Dencklau, of East Second street, met with a slight accident yesterday while riding his wheel on Watchung avenue. He had his wheel repaired at once and is again able to ride.

Among the most useful and practical arrangements of the bicycle is the bicycle carrier. It made quite a hit at the bicycle show and has been proved to be very useful in the delivery departments of large stores. The Frank L. C. Martin Cycle Company are agents for the bicycle carrier in this city, and Edward White, with his usual enterprise is the first merchant to introduce it into Plainfield. The machine is very simple. The rider sits in front and propels it as he would a safety while behind him, between the rear wheels, is a large box to contain the packages. It is now in use in many of the large cities, and will soon become a common sight in Plainfield in good weather.

BASKET BALL.

The Central Y. M. C. A. basket ball team that so signally defeated the local Y. M. C. A. team, defeated the team from the Bay Ridge Athletic Club Tuesday evening by a score of 7 to 0.

THEATRICAL.

The Waite Comedy Company played to the capacity of Music Hall yesterday afternoon and last evening. They gave general satisfaction as an acting company, and that the specialities were well liked was evidenced in the loud applause given each one. This evening "The Prince of Liars" will be presented. "Young America" will be the attraction for the matinee tomorrow afternoon.

Despite the inclement weather of the past week, Rice's "Excelsior Jr.," at the Olympia Theatre in New York, has been playing to large audiences, who were so thoroughly enthused with the solid beauty and dazzling brilliancy around them that they seemed to forget that the elements were not as bright as the production. Fay Templeton continues to charm the audiences. Mlle. Violette, who so cleverly imitates Yvette Guilbert, has taken the place of Miss Theresa Vaughn, who appears in the title role of "Little Christopher." Irene Perry and Marie Cahill claim a large share of the audiences' enthusiasm. Deyo, the beautiful young solo dancer, it is rumored, will introduce a new and extremely novel dance on Souvenir Night. Walter Jones and Arthur Dunn are continually introducing new and ludicrous novelties.

—The women's prayer meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Park Avenue Baptist church on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Subject—"Prayer."

—There will be initiation at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M., this evening. The Oriental degree will also be worked on several.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be curred by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.
West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. All druggists, 25c.

—Neuman Bros., the Watchung avenue grocers, have a new telephone. The number is 146.

—The street railway cars are running in pairs today on account of the very slippery condition of the rails.

—"Pura Blood" has the merited reputation of being one of the wonders of the world. Cures blood diseases.

—The Order of True Reformers will celebrate their first anniversary this evening in their hall on West Front street.

—Harry DeMeza, of West Second street, captured four mink and a muskrat on the McNabb property at Netherwood a few days ago.

—An annual supper will be given by the ladies of the Monroe Avenue M.E. Chapel, on Thursday, February 20th, from 6 to 8 p. m. If stormy the following night.

—The first sociable of Old Glory Council, No. 62, Daughters of Liberty, of North Plainfield, will be held in Red Men's hall, on Tuesday evening, February 25th.

—Ninety per cent of all the people need to take a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla at this season to prevent that run-down condition of the system which invites disease.

—The meeting at Reform Hall this evening will be of special interest. A programme consisting of vocal and instrumental music and recitations will be rendered. All are cordially invited.

—H. M. Jaquett is having a big sale of boys' and children's suits this week only. Next week he will cut the prices on men's overcoats. Great bargains are offered at this popular store.

—Mr. Honeyman's Old Point Comfort excursion goes February 21st, and gives one an opportunity to spend Washington's birthday and Sunday and Monday following at that delightful resort.

—The decorations at the Casino last night were furnished by Miss A. E. Lincoln, the Park avenue florist, and lent a charming effect to the scene. They consisted of American beauty roses, palms, ferns and azelias.

—Captain Jack Crawford will deliver a lecture for the benefit of Marconnier chapel in the Crescent Avenue chapel on Saturday evening, February 29th. The date was heretofore erroneously reported to be next Saturday night.

—The next entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. star course will be held on Monday, February 24th. Miss Addie Parker Jackson, Plainfield's popular reader, and the Young Men's Symphony Orchestra, led by P. Ludwig Conde, will be the entertainers.

—At the regular meeting of Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., last evening, one candidate was elected and six propositions were received. There were a large number of visitors present from Old Glory Council, No. 62, of North Plainfield, and Pride of Pioneer Council, No. 66, of Bound Brook.

Charles J. Keller, the young son of Charles and Annie Keller, died at the home of his parents in the borough yesterday.

Miss Mabel Schenck, after spending ten days with her mother Mrs. Oliver P. Vosseller, of East Second street, has returned to her home in Somerville.

Charles Clark, of Crane & Clark, of 120 West Front street, has been in New York today buying spring gloves and neckwear, and has some beauties at a bargain.

New German Society.

The German Beneficial Society was organized in the borough lasi night with the followiag officers: President, A. Wolff; secretary, H. Becker; treasurer, M. Menzenback; committee on by-laws, Otto Keller, Harry Becker and M. Menzenback. The next meeting will be held March 2d.

Everything Working Satisfactory.

Thus far eighty connections to the sewers have been made and one hundred and fifteen permits granted. The sewage matter now going through the pipes is not able to keep one bed in use. Everything at the beds is working satisfactory and no trouble has been experienced.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

The Living Topics Magazine.

The Living Topics Magazine is a unique publication which will greatly interest all who wish to keep informed concerning the progress of the world, and especially all owners of cyclopedias

It records such items concerning current events and the progress of knowledge as one would naturally look for in a first-class cyclopedia were it up to date—which no cyclopedia is or possibly can be. Even the latest cyclopedias are generally one to five years behind date of consultation; and yet the average reader inquires more concerning things of the past three years than concerning things of the preceding three centuries.

Topics are treated in strict alphabetical order, and as often as the alphabet is covered a new volume begins and the same course is resumed. Subscriptions only 50 cents for each 500 pages. Specimen sent free on request. John B. Alden, Publisher, 10 and 12 Vandewater street, New York.

Bound Brook Concern's Receiver.

Walter Bound, of Hackettstown, was yesterday appointed by Vice-Chancellor Emery receiver of the Merrill Manufacturing Company, of Bound Brook. Walter Ferguson, Jr., son of the president of the company, holds a mortgage for $15,000 on the company's plant. The company had a capital of nearly a quarter of a million dollars, but of late had met with reverses.

Dunellen.

Mrs. H. Swackhamer has been visiting at Pluckamin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Liable are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son

Mrs. Slape and family, of North avenue, have been entertaining Mr. Bullock, of New York.

John Rhenhart, of North avenue, who has been visiting at Highland Beach, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Harman, of Front street, who have been visiting at Somerville, have returned home.

Miss Libbie Dennick has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Gildersleeve, of New York.

The ceiling in the lecture room in the Methodist church gave way during the severe storm last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lyons, of North avenue, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a young daughter.

The members of the Epworth Leage were tendered a reception at the M. E. parsonage, Tuesday evening, by the Junior League.

New Market.

Mrs. Richards, who died Monday, was buried today.

A number of persons will be baptized in the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill, have returned home to Phillipsburg.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

"Nothing Venture, Nothing Have."

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mon., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and is worth its weight in gold. I can use Ely's Cream Balm with safety and it does all that is claimed for it. B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

Supper,

under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, in the lecture room of

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening,

FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

Tickets, including a first-class hot supper, 35c. Instrumental music during the evening.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

The Jolly Whisters.

The Jolly Whist Club was delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Woolston, at their home, on Fairview avenue, last evening. Mrs. R. I. Tolles secured first prize for the ladies and L. B. Woolston first for the gentlemen. A feature of the event was the refreshments which were excellent. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Tolles, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Woolston, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Buckle, Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff.

Sprained Both Legs.

Frank Humpston, of Dunellen, met with a painful accident yesterday while at work in Brown Bros. clothing store, Somerville. He fell off of a large box and sprained both legs. He will be confined for several days.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 21, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

R. H. Rushton. J. C. Hansen. A. Luthman.

Rushton, Hansen & Luthman,

PAINTERS & PAPER HANGERS,

P. O. Box 773, Plainfield, N. J.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 tf

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

WANTED—In private family, a young woman for general housework; no washing, assist with ironing; good reference required. Stelle avenue, two doors from Plainfield avenue.

REV. E. Kionka, pastor of the German Lutheran Church, Grove st., desires 2 or 3 rooms, furnished or unfurnished, in a private family; location must be good. Call or address 325 West 2d st. 2 13 2

WILL exchange guaranteed watch for second hand pneumatic tire bicycle. Address Exchange, care Press.

GENTLEMAN wishes to procure a furnished room with stove heat only, and close to bath room; state size and location of room with full particulars and price. Howard, Lock Box, 61, Elizabeth, N. J.

LOST.—Last evening a fifty trip railroad ticket belonging to E. M. Laing. Reward for its return. 2 12 2

LOST—Feb. 11 on West Front street or Central avenue, pair of carriage cushions. Reward by leaving same at this office. 2 12 2

FOR SALE—Bull and fresh cows. Call Wm. A. Baldwin, Warreville, N. J. 2 12 6

HORSE for sale or exchange; kind, gentle and sound; good roadster. Call or address C. J. Ackerman, Clinton avenue. 2 12 3

TO LET—House 13 rooms on Watchung avenue near Crescent Avenue Church; also on Putnam avenue corner Carlton, 16 rooms, all improvements. Apply 105 Crescent avenue. 2 12 2

VERY handsome flat; all modern improvements. Apply Manning's city marble works. 2 11 5

WANTED.—At once, experienced white cook. Apply 949 Central avenue. 2 8 tf

FOR SALE or to let for term of years, the very desirable residence 662 West 7th st., with large grounds, garden and barn; for terms apply on the premises. John E. Stewart. 2 7 6

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room: also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

Plainfield's GREATEST STORE.

There are many ways of running a business, but only one way that leads to success. Our way of procuring the best salespeople we can, paying fair salaries and having nothing but workers from the head of the house down to the boy. Hence our great success. It's why 75c and sometimes 50c does the work here that it takes a dollar to do in other stores. Wise buying and being on the inside of the market enables us to clip off profits that other merchants pay.

Now for February.

RIBBONS.

Prices broken in two on many lots of new ribbons. Just think of handsome Dresden and printed warp ribbons 29c the yard. We will clear out the odds and ends of our ribbon sale at 14c the yard. Many good things among them.

DRESS SILKS.

Today we are showing over fifty styles of new dress silks. The new Persian and Dresden designs that are going to be all the rage the coming season. Handsome black silks and satins and we are naming very little prices on them—39 to 98c the yard.

EMBROIDERIES.

Two immense lots of pretty new embroideries bought at half their real value. Will go on sale tomorrow. Lot No. 1, 5c the yard; lot No. 2, 10c the yard, and not a piece in the entire lot worth less than double what we ask.

TOWELS.

Tomorrow we place on sale 100 dozen fine huck towels, hemstitched borders, same as you usually pay 25c for. Our price will be 13 cents.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL HOUSEFURNISHING SALE.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left. 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. 250 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 2 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c. White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

REMOVAL.

On April 1st we move to 202 West Front st. Uutil that time we offer our entire stock of Boy's and Children's Clothing

AT COST.

Sebring's, Park Avenue.

Headquarters for Gloves and Sweaters

As Well as for Hats, Shirts and Neckwear.

Everything sold at lowest prices.

U. B. CRANE. Hatter, 120 West Front st

Telephone, Brooklyn, 366.

COMINS & EVANS.

Acorn Brand Asphalt Roofing.

Gravel and Metal Roofing, Tile and Brick Roofing, Water-Tight Cellars.

45 WAVERLY AVE, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

New York office, 38 Dey st. 1 18 y-eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

HOW THEY STEAL JEWELRY.

Men and Women Engaged in This Business Are Clever.

They Are Likewise the Aristocrats of the Criminal World—Interesting Chat with a Chicago Diamond Importer.

Special Chicago Letter

Tricks and schemes for stealing jewelry are as numerous as they are shrewd and well planned.

The professional jewelry thief is an aristocrat among his fellows. He is not, like the vulgar shoplifter, an outwardly abject specimen of humanity with the marks of depravity ill-concealed by dress and bearing, but he appears to be a perfect gentleman. He is invariably well dressed and educated. The nature of his profession conditions this. Jewelry and precious stones are guarded by their owners with such tender solicitude that unusual sagacity and a certain finesse de monde are required of the thief who would approach his victim without arousing suspicion. Moreover, the small size of the valuables gives the robber an opportunity to play all sorts of tricks which could not be utilized in stealing bulkier goods. It is in the devising of new plots in which the brain of the jewelry thief is constantly engaged; one scheme after another is "worked" on the poor jeweler, until—to use technical language—"the trade gets the hang of it," when a new scheme is substituted.

A TYPICAL DIAMOND THIEF.

The writer of this article had opportunity, a few days ago, to learn something of the tricks of jewelry-stealing. He and several other visitors were sitting in the office of a diamond importer on State street, Chicago, chatting with the proprietor, when an elegantly-dressed lady entered the establishment, and asked to be shown an assortment of loose diamonds. The proprietor produced a package containing a score of high-grade stones, which the woman picked up, not with the tweezers provided for the purpose, but with her fingers. Meanwhile the proprietor watched her closely. She fumbled nervously amongst the stones, when the importer suddenly remarked in a sharp voice: "Excuse me, madam, didn't you drop one of those stones just then?"

"I guess not," was the haughty answer.

The diamond dealer smiled sarcastically and said: "Permit me to examine the sole of your shoe, madam; you may have stepped on the stone."

"Sir, what do you mean by insulting me?" cried the woman, as she stamped her right foot furiously. "I shall have you arrested at once."

"The arresting will all be done by me," the importer replied, "unless you allow me to pick that diamond out of the sole of your right shoe before you have stamped it completely into the leather."

At this the "lady" succumbed. She raised her foot slightly, the proprietor picked the missing stone out of the sole of the shoe, and the prospective customer was gone.

The diamond dealer grinned—a joyous, triumphant grin. "I fooled her that time," he said, as he counted his diamonds and locked them up in his safe. "I'm on to those people as soon as they come into my office. The woods are full of expert thieves who make a specialty of jewelry, especially precious stones."

A GEM TUCKED AWAY IN HER SHOE.

"Are they all as swell as this woman?" one of the visitors asked.

"They all dress stylishly," the proprietor answered, "and most of them come in carriages. Women are more dangerous than men. In the first place, they are more skillful, more polished and often shrewder than their male coworkers; then they have thick hair, puffy dresses, nooks and corners everywhere to hide stolen property, and lastly, even when our suspicion is aroused, we are less likely to express it to a woman than a man. Men and women thieves alike are very blue-blooded. Why, the rascals are so stuck on themselves they wouldn't think of stealing anything except what is strictly in the line of their specialty."

"Have you been robbed very often?"

"They don't get ahead of us very often," the diamond dealer began, wistfully. "Our house has suffered several losses by confidence games. These are very common. A party, giving the name of a wealthy family, orders samples of jewelry sent to the residence for selection. An accomplice, who through some pretext has entrance to the house, is in waiting there, and takes the samples from the messenger at their delivery. He steps into the house, remaining there only until the messenger has disappeared. The jeweler finds great difficulty in handling such cases, for if he expresses any suspicion toward the parties with whom he is dealing, he takes the chances of making a mistake and of losing a very profitable customer."

By this time the diamond dealer had "warmed up," and told story after story about shrewd jewelry thieves who didn't succeed in fooling him.

"When I was in business in New York," he continued, "I was almost tricked one time by an elderly man who inspected my stock of loose rubies. He pretended to be very near-sighted, and put his nose so close to the stones that it seemed to rub right against them. After much rummaging, he bought a cheap stone and paid for it. Just as he was leaving I discovered the loss of several of the finest rubies. We held him to account, but the stones were not found on his person. Close examination, however, and the timely effects of a dose of medicine, disclosed the fact that the rubies were not on, but in his person. The rascal then admitted that he had had a certain kind of extremely sticky gum on his nose, with which he had picked up the stones. A skillful maneuver of his handkerchief transferred them first into his pocket, and then, when detection was imminent, into his stomach. A sticky gum is very frequently used. The lightest touch will make the stones adhere to it. The thieves press it between their fingers, or under their finger nails, or behind their ears, or on the sole of their shoes, as the woman did who came here to-day.

"Here is one of the gum tricks. The first thief—a woman—chews gum, which she pastes after the vulgar fashion, under the lid of the counter. In an unguarded moment she presses a ring, perhaps, into the gum. The loss is discovered; she is accused, is searched, but the missing jewelry is not found, neither on her nor elsewhere, as no one thinks of its being pasted under the counter. Soon after the first thief has left the accomplice arrives. He has been informed of the exact location of the gum, and it is an easy matter for him to take it away. No suspicion will ever rest on him, as the loss was discovered before he ever entered the store. The trick is obsolete now, for the jewelers have got the hang of it."

THREW THE CORE TO AN AGED BEGGAR.

"How about stealing bulky goods?" some one asked.

"Well, that is a branch of the profession that requires less ingenuity. Umbrellas, half open, are useful receptacles. Half the stock of a jewelry store can disappear in the puffy sleeves, the bushy hair and the stockings of one woman. Toy babies of rubber are favorite playthings. They are huddled up to look quite natural, but they are fed, not on milk and taffy, but on necklaces, amulets and gold chains."

Just then another diamond dealer entered the office.

"Talk about jewelry stealing!" he exclaimed. "Have you heard of the trick tried on me last week? It was a woman—swell as usual. She wanted to see my loose pearls, and while examining them she munched an apple, the core of which she threw out of the window. A beggar woman who stood outside picked up the core as if to eat it. My suspicion was aroused. I told my clerk to stop the woman. What do you think? There were four of the finest pearls pressed into that apple core. That trick didn't fool me, but the two women called on X., Y. & Co. the same day, and X., Y. & Co. are out two pearls and one loose diamond."

Then the two dealers chuckled at their own sagacity and the stupidity of their competitors. E. T. GUNDLACH.

Let Great Britain Pause.

The British lion may roar and roar,
The Yankee eagle will soar and soar.
Twice he has twisted his tail before,
And is ready to twist it a whole lot more.

These lines, which were sent to the Chicago Tribune by an agonized poet residing in that neighborhood, are printed in order to convey to the misguided people of Great Britain some idea of what awaits them if they deliberately provoke this country to war. This probably is not a circumstance compared to what will follow when hostilities actually begin. Let England pause.

Population of Washington.

Washington city has gained 12,000 population in three years, and the total is now placed at 270,000.

Language for Everybody.

The University press at Oxford has appliances for printing 150 different languages.

Evidently a Victim of Occult Arts.

Madge—What would you say if I told you that Mr. Swellehedde has actually proposed to that odious Miss Elderby?

Marrette—I'd say that hypnotism is making tremendous strides.—Chicago Record.

Two-Ended Sarcasm.

"Hugh," snipped the boarder, "can you give me a word to rhyme with hash?"

The landlady smiling answered him: "Suppose, sir, you try cash."—Detroit Tribune.

The Tables Turned.

"I caught a burglar in my room last night," said the editor.

"Indeed?"

"Yes; but I only got six dollars out of the poor fellow!"—Atlanta Constitution.

He Needed It.

"Scaggs is getting fat," said Willoughby.

"He's developed a double chin."

"Well, he needed it," said Parsons. "His original chin was overworked."—Harper's Bazar.

That Ended It.

Maud—What makes you treat Jack so coldly? You used to find him so interesting.

Marie—Didn't you know I was engaged to him now?—Brooklyn Life.

In the Game's Interest.

Miss Endrush—Oh, my brother's been hurt! He's being carried off the field.

Her Escort (Yale '98)—Never mind; we have a substitute and who's just as good.—Yale Record.

Policemen Never.

Blobbs—What's the difference between gloves and policemen?

Slobbs—Give it up.

Blobbs—Well, gloves are usually on hand.—Philadelphia Record.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Does Your Back Ache?

Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills

MAKE the Kidneys strong and healthy.

THEY cause the kidneys to filter all uric acid and other poisons or impurities from the blood.

Cure Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Anæmia, Pimples, Bad Blood, Bright's Disease, Malaria, Backache, Kidney Pains, Dropsy, Pain in the Abdomen, Frequent Urination, Inflamation of Kidneys, etc.

Are not a secret remedy, but contain highly concentrated extracts of Asparagus, Juniper Berries, Buchu, Corn Silk, Pareira Brava and Uva Ursa (all kidney healers) and are scientifically compounded.

Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills are endorsed by physicians and druggists. 50 cents a box. Valuable Book Free.

Hobbs Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco

W. L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st.. Plainfield N. J.

Telephone Call 42-B.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.

Established 1869.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.—made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry

AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON.

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

THE Bee Hive

Men's Unlaundered Shirts.

Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.

Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.

Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.

Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

CITY HOTEL,

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Eagle Meat Market,

35 Somerset Street.

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.

C. ARNOLD, Prop.

NOTICE.

Special Reductions

—AT—

Neuman Bros.

on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.

NEUMAN BROS.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.

Tuning and regulating a specialty

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.

Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

S. D. FRAZEE,

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., ooo. North ave

Music furnished for all occasions.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 39, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 50, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 25, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35; 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 30

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 38, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 38, 10 35, 7 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 06, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 48, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night, Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m. 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co., EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son.

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

—OF—

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

328 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

132 Grove street. 1113 m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday eveningsof each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.
C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street.
D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

—IN—

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

Shall we whip

a poorly nourished horse when he is thoroughly tired? He may go faster for a few rods, but his condition is soon the worse for it. Better stop and feed him. Food gives force. If you are thin, without appetite; pale, because of thin blood; easily exhausted; why further weaken the body by using tonics? Begin on a more permanent basis. Take something which will build up the tissues and supply force to the muscular, digestive and nervous systems of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, meets every demand. The cod-liver oil is a food. It produces force without the whip. Every gain is a substantial one. The hypophosphites give strength to the nervous system. An improved appetite, richer blood and better flesh come to stay.

Scott's Emulsion

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been indorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites.

Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby. All druggists.

Just as Good is not SCOTT'S EMULSION.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5½c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2½ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5½c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice.

AT DENTON'S.

THE SAME SWEET SONG.

EDWARD OXENFORD. FREDERICK PRESTON.

Andante cantabile.

con moto.

1. Long, long a - go in youth's bright days, When first our path - ways met, You
2. Now au - tumn - tide of life is nigh, And gold is fleckt with grey, Yet sang to me a mel - o - dy That I can ne'er for - get! Life's hours of youth seem still, in truth, As near as yes - ter - - day! Our way we now have roamed a - long For ma - ny and ma - ny a year, But lives have smooth - ly flowed a - long, And clouds have loom'd in vain; We still that strain, the same sweet song, In mem - 'ry I can hear:— How both have prized the same sweet song, So sing it dear, a - gain! How rall.

Copyright, 1895, by THE NEW YORK MUSICAL RECORD CO.

Tempo di valse.

sweet is love! How sweet is love when kin - dred hearts are blend - ing; It cres. f

will not die as years go by, For love is nev - er end - ing, No lapse of time its gold - en bonds Can make less strong, or sev - - er; No!

ritard. a tempo. D.C.

once a heart to heart re - sponds, It true re - mains for ev - - er.

ritard. a tempo. FINE.

The Same Sweet Song.

A MOTHERS' MEETING.

Entertained by the Junior Endeavors of the First Presbyterian Church.

The members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church entertained their mothers and friends in the chapel yesterday afternoon. Miss Mary Lowe read a short sketch of Abraham Lincoln, written by herself. The sunshine committee, which is composed of the youngest members of the society, recited a poem in concert.

There was a duet by the Misses Mildred Ulrich and Beatrice Miner, a vocal selection by the society and another by a quartette composed of Irwin Leland, Will Hepburn, Miss Mildred Ulrich and Miss Beatrice Miner. An informal social followed the programme, at which refreshments were served. The visitors were greatly pleased with the entervainment. Miss Mildred Ulrich is president of the society, and Miss Mabel Pruden is the superintendent in charge.

A Big Broom Purchase.

One thousand and four hundred finely made brooms direct from the factory to Edsall's Commercial Palace. All the intermediate profits, freight and even the ten-day cash discount, saved to the patrons. This, Mr. Edsall says, is the result of the complete reorganization of his china and house-furnishing departments and right-down up-to-date cash buying. The list of brooms and the astonishingly low prices in the adververtisement in another column tell the story more fully.

Entertained at Euchre.

The Progressive Euchre Club met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ladd on Franklin place, and the playing was really good. Mrs. Lucius Ryce and Mrs. Joseph Sandford, Jr., were awarded first and second prizes for the ladies, while for the gentlemen E. M. VanBuren and L.G.Timpson secured first and second prizes. At the conclusion of the games dainty refreshments were served by the host and hostess.

At the North Pole.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 13.—A despatch from Iakutsk, Siberia, says that a Siberian trader named Kouchnareff, who is acting in the capacity of agent for Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, has informed the Prefect of Kolymsk that he has received information that Nansen has reached the North Pole, where he found land, and that he is now on his way back.

A Pink Tea.

The ladies of Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., will give a pink tea this evening in their lodge rooms in the Babcock building. The members of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, and Queen City, No. 226, I. O. O. F., have been invited.

Baked Beans and Oysters.

Mt. Pleasant is to enjoy a novel supper next week. A baked beans and oyster supper will be given in the vacant house of P. J. Rowley, on the evenings of February 20th and 21st, for the benefit of the chapel.

—Doane & Edsall have just received a new stock of trunks and bags.

—Take tea with the ladies at Trinity Reformed church this evening. Tickets, including musical entertainment and supper, 35 cents.

—The Thursday Evening Music Club will hold a musical this evening at the home of the president, Miss Julia J. Ketcham, of 315 East Fifth street.

D. F. Randolph, of West Seventh street, is very ill with pneumonia.

George Scribner, of Edsall's Commercial Palace, has been detained at home for a week with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Vandeventer, of Washington avenue, are rejoicing over the birth of a little boy that arrived on Saturday last.

Miss Mary Luckey, of East Fifth street, and her guest, Miss Lulu Gunning, were pleasantly surprised by a few friends last evening.

Miss Elsie Smith, of Westervelt avenue, is very ill with pneumonia. The crisis was passed safely last evening, and it is now thought that she will recover.

Zone-shaped belt clasps, incrusted with small stones and receiving additional enrichment from colored enamels, lend distinction to the simplest evening gown.

Silver pen extractors are a new accessory for the writing desk this season, and, although small, are strong enough to extract the most stubborn pen from its holder and fill a long-felt want.

The present mania for Louis XV. styles has added to the sumptuousness of the modern woman's jewel case, for many of the brooches, coronets and watches are copies of the old court jewelry.

PEN POINTS.

Advice is one of the unpleasant smaller vices that the truly good forget to condemn.

Don't persist in error—after you're found out; and don't be found out if you can avoid it by persisting in it.

Paste this in your hat: "The easiest way to become immortal is to be the first to say what is self-evident.

The average man feels complimented when you call him bad in a laughing sort of a way.—Truth.

HOME-MADE SIRUPS.

The Most Delicious Are Made of Common Sugar.

The most delicious sirups for buckwheat cakes are those made at home from sugar. Either maple sugar, granulated or pure brown sugar may be used. When the pure brown sugar of the cane can be obtained, as it can on sugar plantations in the south, this is as delicious as any maple sirup. Unfortunately, it is no longer an article of commerce. The only brown sugar we have is the refuse of the cane sugar which will not become refined. The old-fashioned brown sugar was the pure cane sugar, from which the white sugar is made. It is still valued in the south, and is sometimes sent to the north to special customers in boxes of oranges or other southern produce. If the pure brown sugar cannot be obtained, it is cheaper to use granulated sugar, because it is considerably sweeter than the refuse brown sugar of to-day. Add to five pounds of sugar about a pint of water, or only enough to melt it. Boil it three minutes, so it will not go back to sugar. This will make a delicious heavy sirup. If you wish it thinner use more water, but it is not as good as when thicker.

The prettiest sirup cups for light sirups are those of old-fashioned wedgewood with a silver top. They cost much less than vulgar-looking pitchers of showy plated ware, and with care will last a lifetime. An English majolica cup or pitcher, as some persons prefer to call them, is a picturesque piece. It seldom costs over a dollar, and is a heavy, glossy ware, richly colored and without the raised figures of the common majolica of the shops. It is not easy to find in this country, even in the large cities. There are certain shapes in Flanders gres, intended formerly for covered beer mugs, which make very strong and picturesque sirup holders. This ware is never expensive, and can always be found in large city shops where German wares are sold. The only objection to the use of this ware is its rough surface and raised figures, which unfit it for any general use in the kitchen or on the table.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE CHEERLESS HOME.

The Club His Only Refuge After the Loss of His Old Slippers.

He had taken off his boots and was down on his hands and knees in the room searching for something, when his wife noticed him.

"What are you looking for, William?" she asked.

"My slippers," he replied.

"Oh, I gave those old things away today," she said.

"You gave them away!" he repeated, and then he added, solemnly: "Mrs. Miffler, are you trying to drive me away from home?"

"Of course not. I—"

"What is home without slippers?" he interrupted. "What is an evening at home with heavy boots on your feet? Mrs. Miffler, what do you think constitutes home?"

"Why, you can get another pair," she protested.

"Of course I can," he exclaimed. "I can get a new pair of stiff-soled slippers, and spend 30 days breaking them in."

"The others were torn, and—"

"That's why I liked them! They were comfortable. When I got them on, things seemed homelike. I was settled for the evening, and a four-horse team could not get me out again. But now—now I am ready for the club or theater or any old place. Slippers, Mrs. Miffler, help me to make the difference between the home and the office, and old slippers make the difference greatest."

"I can't see why—"

"Of course you can't. No woman ever can, but I tell you, if I were running things I'd make every woman take a course in slippers. That's what is needed more than suffrage or anything else in that line. Just slippers, nothing but slippers."

He got up, stamped around the room in his stockinged feet for a minute or two, and then put on his boots again.

"This isn't home," he said, bitterly. "It isn't a bit like it. I'm going to the club."—Albany Argus.

Enormous Sales

—OF—

"PURA BLOOD."

Prepared With Famous Healing Waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas,

Under Grant From the United States Government.

Why suffer longer when, under grant from the United States Government, the curative waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas, are permitted to be used in the preparation of "Pura Blood," and thus placed within the reach of all afflicted with blood diseases. Pura Blood is a sure cure, as tens of thousands of people can testify who have received this same treatment at Hot Springs, Arkansas, and been cured. "Pura Blood" has received the indorsement of the most prominent physicians, and is for sale by druggists at one dollar per bottle. Billups & Co., of 26 Cortlandt st., New York, are sole agents, and will send free to any address descriptive book.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

MUNYON'S RHEUMATISM CURE.

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back speedily cured.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Nerve Cure stops nervousness and builds up the system. Price 25c.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in 3 minutes. Price 25c.

Munyon's Pile Ointment positively cures all forms of piles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates all impurities of the blood. Price 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost powers to weak men. Price, $1.00.

A separate cure for each disease. At all druggists 25c a bottle.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

Editor Hammett a Benedict.

Newport, R. I., Feb. 13.—Fred Hammett, ex-alderman, editor of the Newport Daily News and one of the most prominent men in Newport, was married to Miss Emily S. Crandall yesterday afternoon. The wedding was a very fashionable event, but very exclusive.

Cablegram from Dunraven.

New York, Feb. 13.—A cable message was received at the New York Yacht club from Lord Dunraven late last night, but Secretary Oddie said that he was not at liberty to divulge its contents before it was laid before the club at this afternoon's meeting.

Nominated for Mayor of Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 13.—The city republicans have nominated A. Schoelkopf, president of the Niagara Falls Hydraulic Power & Manufacturing company, for mayor, and an entire city ticket. The democrats have in the field two tickets.

Pingree a Candidate for Governor.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 13.—At an informal conference of political friends of Mayor Pingree, which was held at his honor's residence here last night, Mr. Pingree assented to the formal announcement of his candidacy for the nomination for governor of Michigan.

Two Children Burned to Death.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 13.—The residence of Frederick Perchin at Pittston was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. His two children, Henry, aged 4 years, and Emma, aged 15 years, were burned to death.

Great Fire at Guayaquil.

Panama, Colombia, Feb. 13.—A dispatch from Guayaquil, Ecuador, says that city has been visited by a disastrous conflagration. The loss is estimated at 3,000,000 sucres.

New London, Conn., will celebrate next May the 250th anniversary of the founding of the settlement, and preparations are already making for a big time.

The highest liquor licenses in this country are paid in Massachusetts. In Great Barrington the license fee is $2,300; in Haverhill, $2,000; in Pittsfield, $2,000.

In a factory at New Haven a few days ago a girl fainted and fell to the floor, whereupon, out of pure sympathetic nervousness, 11 other girls fainted one after the other.

Massachusetts had a population of 2,500,183 on May 1, last, according to the statistics, just published, of the census then taken. The number of legal voters is 560,802.

ROD AND GUN.

Maine's game commissioners estimate that fully 4,000 deer have been killed in the Maine woods this season.

An albino 'possum, pure white in color with the exception of its ears, which were jet black, was caught near Tonganoxie, Kan., a few days ago.

Bears are this year more numerous and rapacious than usual in Okefenokee Swamp, Ga. One farmer who dwells near the swamp recently had 16 hogs killed by bears in one week.

A skate measuring five feet ten inches in length and four feet two inches from fin to fin, and weighing 90 pounds, was taken by hook and line in San Francisco bay the other day. It was the largest fish of the kind ever caught thereabouts, and it took half an hour of pulling and hauling by half a dozen men to land it.

CATARRH ELY'S Cream Balm

COLD IN HEAD

Is quickly absorbed, cleanes the nasal passages allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from additional cold, restores the senses of taste and smell.

It will cure. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50c. at druggists or by mail. ELY BOTHERS, 56 Warren st., New York.

Hope Chapel Industrial Fair

And Loan Exhibition,

TO BE HELD IN

Hope Chapel,

—ON—

February 12, 13, 14.

Doors open at 2:30 p. m.

TOMORROW—Children's matinee, special entertainment from 3 o'clock until 5:30 p. m. 8 p. m.—Franklyn Hart Monologne Entertainer, songs and stories.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS

Stages will run during the afternoon and evening from Crescent Avenue Church by way of 5th and 7th streets alternately to chapel commencing at 2 o'clock. 2 8 6

If You Don't

READ THIS AD

You Don't

GET THE BENEFIT.

Van Emburgh & SON'S

Fine Bleached Pillow Muslin

No. 246, 42 inch, 6½c. yard.
No. 246, 45 inch, 7½c. yard.

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor and Utica Pillow Muslin, 42 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch, all cut in same proportion.

Heavy Bleached Sheeting Muslin

2 yards wide, 14½c. a yard.
2¼ yards wide, 16c. a yard.
2½ yards wide, 17½c a yard

Fruit of the Loom, Dwight Anchor, Boston and Utica Sheeting, 2 yards, 2¼ yards, and 2½ yards wide, all cut in same proportion.

100 yd spool silk 4c.
200 yd machine cotton 2c.
Large spool basting cotton 1 cent.
Good pins, full papers, 1c.
Hair pins, full count, 1c.
Darning cotton on balls 2c.
Lyon's tooth powder 18c.

We are selling bleached yard wide muslins at

4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 7¼c, 7½c Yd.

Cut This Out and Bring It With You for Reference.

VAN EMBURGH & SON,

Corner Store, Babcock Building.

Dogs

IRON AND BRASS

FIRE-DOGS.

Curtis M. Thorpe,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

"Everything for the Fireplace."

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, February 10, 1896.

Adams J H	Leonard A W
Barton A J	Neugem Agnes Miss
Codington B	McMann Thos
Duchene E Miss	Moore Elmer
Feil A F S	McEvoy Kate J 3
Fisk Clinton B	McKeef Lara Mrs
Hustner Jno	Palmberg Elen Miss 2
Johnson Charlie	Perine Chas
Johnson Hilder Miss	Prentiss S S
Kline Mellie Miss	Storme G W
King T P 2	Snediker Dare

HEATH & DRAKE.

Established 1841. Newark's first-class Dry Goods House.

New Embroideries, Laces, Flouncings, etc.

Our assortment of these goods for the coming season is handsomer, more varied and complete than any we have yet shown, and embraces regular Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edges, Insertions and match sets in all grades and styles and a line of Exquisite Novelties which for new and original effects, exclusive and unique designs, are unsurpassed if not unequalled by any in the market.

Pretty Edgings and Embroideries Very Cheap.

A thousand lines could not tell the story any better. Great heaps of snowy Embroideries that first saw light in far off Switzerland are here.

In connection with our regular line we have purchased, direct from the manufacturers in St. Gaul, Switzerland, three large lots of Embroideries, which we will place on sale at one-third less than regular prices.

Lot 1, 4c Yd. Lot 2, 8c Yd. Lot 3, 12c Yd

The wise ones ask no questions, but take them away in huge quantities.

777 and 779 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

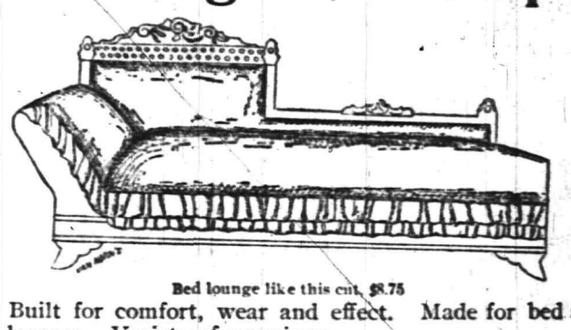
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

2½ Acres Of Furniture

ASK TO SEE THE FAMOUS "PORTLAND RAGE"

Carpets, Stoves, etc.,—that's what we have—every square foot of it's well covered—no chance for goods to go to seed here—all new lines, new designs, new everything. All unique prices—here's an instance or two:

Bed Lounges $5.00 up



Bed lounge like this cut, $8.75

Built for comfort, wear and effect. Made for bed and lounge. Variety of coverings.

Chiffoniers at $4.95

We've a real good line—many patterns—this especial one is worth every cent of $10.00. It's yours for $4.95.

VAN HORN'S

Exactly like cut, $4.95

Carpets All Weaves

It's true gospel that we're selling a mulitude of Carpet patterns never to be duplicated again—they're at prices low enough to make them go.

Goods delivered Free of Charge to any part of the State. Purchases made now held until wanted—no cash needed

AMOS H. VAN HORN Ltd. Note the Name "AMOS"

Carpets, Stoves, Furniture, Etc.
Low Prices, Easy Terms
TELEPHONE 580.

73 MARKET ST. Near Plane St. NEWARK, N. J.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

Rich & Maeder.....Lessees and Managers.
John Daly.....Resident Manager.

All This Week.

MATINEES AT 2 P. M.

Waite's Comedy Co

Premium Band and Orchestra.

35---PEOPLE---35

Prices 10, 20 and 30 Cts.

MATINEES 10 CENTS.

LAST EDITION.

THE DAILY PRESS

LAST EDITION.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1896. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR

REDUCING THE SALARIES

REPUBLICANS WILL SUPPORT SENATOR VOORHEES' MEASURES.

War Will Be Continued on the Coal Combine—New Game Laws Proposed—Other Business Brought Up.

The Legislature reassembled yesterday after a holiday, but did little work. The coming together was mainly for the purpose of enabling the Republicans to hold caucuses to decide what action to take in respect to the reported coal combine and the pending and contemplated amendments to the Constitution.

The Republican Assemblymen decided to have new resolutions drafted concerning the coal combine. They are to be based on information given to the leaders by the Attorney-General at an informal conference on the matter. The resolutions will be introduced next Monday evening, and will declare war on the alleged combine.

The joint caucus discussed the proposed constitutional amendments, but decided that no decisive action could be taken at present, in view of the fact that another hearing is to be given to the lawyers in an attempt to have them agree on some plan to reorganize the Supreme Court and Court of Errors and Appeals. The sentiment was general that if nothing is done the anti race track amendment would be adopted later in the session and submitted to a vote of the people next summer.

It was stated that the Citizens' League would not embarrass the Legislature by insisting on action on the amendment this year if there was a probability of action on other important amendments. In that case the anti-race track amendment will be amended and allowed to go over for another year.

Some of the Republicans are dissatisfied with the present system of electing Assemblymen by counties, brought about by the action of Essex county Republicans two years ago in having declared unconstitutional the law under which the large counties were divided into Assembly districts. The subject was discussed in caucus yesterday morning. Senators Voorhees, Thompson, and Stokes, and a number of Assemblymen, favored an amendment to the Constitution providing for Assembly districts, with guarded provision against the unfair gerrymandering system introduced by the Republicans in 1881, and improved upon by the Democrats to the latter's advantage in 1891. They fear that a revolt against the Republicans in Essex county would result in a solid Democratic delegation, as is now the case in Hudson, and there is danger of a similar condition in other counties. Then the Republicans would lose control of the lower House. Senators Skirm and Parry and a part of the Essex Assemblymen were opposed to the change, and no decision was reached. Another caucus will be held to determine the question.

The caucus decided to support the bill introduced by Senator Voorhees yesterday morning, fixing the salary of the Chancery and Supreme Court Clerks at $6,000 a year, making them responsible to the State for the collection of all fees, and imposing a penalty of $100 a day for failure to file monthly reports with the State Comptroller of the financial transactions of the offices.

Senator Parry introduced a bill fixing the salaries of the Chief Justice and Chancellor at $7,000 a year, and of the Associate-Justices and Vice-Chancellors at $6,000. This is a reduction of $3,000 a year for each. Mr. Parry also introduced a series of ten bills relative to the game and fish laws. They were prepared by the Fish and Game Commissioners. They prohibit the use of nets in inland tidewaters between May 15th and September 1st, under a penalty of $100; require pound-net fishermen to pay a license of $100 a year for each net or pound used; they must not fish within 1,000 feet of the shore at low tide; the size of the mesh is restricted to not less than four inches for leaders and two inches for pockets, and the owners must raise their nets at noon on Saturday and keep them up until the following Monday at noon; lobsters less than 10½ inches long must not be caught or had in possession under penalty of $20 for each; prohibit menhaden fishing within three miles of shore, except with the consent of the Commissioners, under penalty of seizure of vessel and apparatus; give the Commissioners power to appoint a game protector and fifteen wardens; provide method of procedure in enforcing the game and fish laws; appropriating $5,000 a year for maintaining fish hatcheries; fix the open season for game birds and fish, and cover some minor subjects.

In the northern game district, comprising Mercer and the counties north, the open season for partridges and gray, black and fox squirrels is from October 1st to December 10th, both inclusive; for quail, hare, rabbits, European pheasants and grouse, October 25th to December 10th; English or Wilson and gray snipe, March and April and between August 10th and December 10th; grass or upland plover and doves, August 10th to September 10th; reed and rail birds and marsh hens, August 25th to December 10th; black bass, May 30th to December 1st; trout, April 1st to July 15th; pickerel, May 1st to the following February 1st; eel pots and baskets for eels and catfish may be used all the year. In the southern district the season for hare, rabbits, quail, partridges, squirrels, pheasants, grouse and woodcock, is between November 15th and January 1st; for other game and fish the season is the same as in the northern district.

Among the bills passed in the House was that appropriating $5,000 for the erection of monuments, markers and tablets to designate the positions of New Jersey troops on the Chickamuga battlefield. Both Houses have adjourned until Monday evening.

In executive session of the Senate all the nominations sent in by Gov. Griggs were reported except those for the two District Court Judges in Jersey City and for law Judge and Prosecutor of Middlesex county. It is said that the new Judges desire to exchange and each take the district for which the other was appointed, so action was delayed in order to permit the change to be made. In Middlesex county it was said that there are a number of important cases pending with which Judge Rice and Prosecutor Adrain are familiar, and it would not be fair to make a change immediately.

A BRILLIANT GATHERING.

Mrs. Alexander Gilbert Entertained Fifty Friends Yesterday.

High lights are brought out by deep shadows, and the beauty of Mayor Gilbert's home and the brilliancy of the scene yesterday, when Mrs. Gilbert's large progressive euchre party was assembled, were enhanced by contrast with the storm and dullness outside. Fifty ladies were present and twelve tables were played. The prizes were handsome and were won by the following ladies: Mrs. A. H. Atterbury, Mrs. Irving Brown, Mrs. E. C. Perkins, Mrs. C. L. Case, Mrs. L. H. Bigelow, Jr., Mrs. F. O. Herring, Mrs. Howard Flemming, Mrs. E. W. Conklin, Mrs. G. A. Chapman, Mrs. O. B. Leonard, Mrs. J. G. Foster and Mrs. W. J. Roome. Mrs. Gilbert is a charming hostess and she succeeded in giving each of her guests a good hand, and when after delicious substantial refreshments, the ice-cream was served in the form of a closed hand grasping three miniature cards.

Borrowed But Not Returned.

Justice Nash rendered judgment in the case of Doud against Bindenbender, in tort, yesterday afternoon, for $10 and costs. Some time ago the defendant borrowed a set of harness from Thomas Doud, the well-known contractor in the borough. Doud asked for its return several times but it did not appear, so Doud brought suit. The defendant did not appear at the trial.

Death of An Old Resident.

William Firstbrook, of West Fifth street, an old resident of Plainfield, died at his home at 1 o'clock this morning after a long illness from consumption. Mr. Firstbrook was closely identified with Hope chapel and all religious movements, and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Retail Jewelers Meet.

Asa Collier, the popular Park avenue jeweler, attended the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Retail Jewelers' Association, Wednesday, at Philadelphia. Mr. Collier was re-elected to the office of first vice-president.

Another Amateur Presentation.

St. Mary's Dramatic Association will present the "Shamrock and Rose" in Music Hall, Tuesday evening, March 17th. It is a very clever play and no doubt will be liberally patronized.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with any thing. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

Y. M. C. A. MEN MEET.

STATE CONVENTION CONVENED IN JERSEY CITY LAST NIGHT.

Reports Read Showing the Growth of the Association—New Officers Who Were Elected and Other Business.

The streets of Jersey City in the vicinity of the several railroad stations were crowded with well-dressed young men yesterday afternoon. They were delegates to the annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, held in Hedding M. E. church, in Montgomery street. The convention will continue three days. As fast as the delegates arrived they reported to the local rooms, in Wayne street. There they were received by a committee, of which ex-Assemblyman William E. Drake was chairman.

During the convention the out-of-town delegates will be cared for by the members of the Jersey City Association. Yesterday's session opened at 3:30 p. m. with a prayer service, which continued until 5:30 p. m., when the exercises opened with the election of President E. S. Cowles, of the local branch, as chairman. His opponent for the honor was Senator J. B. Vreeland, of Morris county. The evening session consisted of the reading by Chairman Elkanah Drake, of the executive committee, of the reports of the work of the organization throughout the State during the year, and addresses by David M. S. Conaughy, Jr., secretary for India, and Rev. Lindsay Parker.

The membership of the Young Men's Christian Association is divided into two classes. The active members are connected with evangelical churches. The associate members are the non-church members.

As a result of its development, this organization, while hardly fifty-two years old, has over 5,000 societies spread all over the globe with a total membership of about 650,000. In the United States alone there are 1,500 branches and about 200,000 members.

The convention elected these officers for the ensuing year: President, Elijah W. Cowles, Jersey City; first vice-president, J. H. DeGraw, Madison; second vice president, G. R. Waite; third vice-president, Wilson Farrand, Newark; secretary, Cleveland W. Childs, Orange; assistant secretary, W. P. Schell, Lawrenceville.

The meeting was opened by W. D. Murray, of this city, last year's president. Plainfield was represented by the following delegates: Harry Manning, D. A. MacPhie, A. C. LaBoyteaux and W. D. Murray.

ACCUSED OF VANDERVEER'S DEATH.

Coroner's Jury Bring in a Verdict Against Three Colored Men.

The inquest in the case of the late John Vanderveer was concluded yesterday afternoon in the city court room.

Dr. Whitehead, the physician who performed the autopsy, and Mr. Hewson, colored, of Bound Brook, were the only remaining witnesses. The case was then given to the jury, composed of W. W. Coriell, H. E. Cramer, J. E. Mosher, Charles Howard, I. D. TenEyck and Garrett Wood. After a short deliberation they brought in a verdict that John Vanderveer met his death caused by a blow from a blunt instrument in the hands of Benjamin Hall, and that he was aided by Horace Hall and George Brokaw. The three men who are now held in custody will be placed on trial for causing the death of Vanderveer, and steps will be taken immediately toward that end.

Rebekah Lodge's Good Time.

The meeting of Friendship Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, No. 4, I. O. O. F., last evening, was of special interest. Guests were present from New Brunswick and Hope Lodge, of Newark. After the meeting all adjourned to the banquet room where a bountiful supper was served. Those present then went back to the lodge rooms where vocal and instrumental music and recitations were rendered. Altogether the members had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

A Social Dance.

A social dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferris, at Lebanon, last Tuesday, and an entertaining time was passed. S. D. Frazee, of this city, furnished the music, and gave satisfaction to the guests. About thirty couple were present.

The Farmers' Friend.

Assemblyman Reed is aiming to help the farmer with his tax burden, by introducing a bill making the day when taxes are due a month later. Such a change would enable a farmer to sell his grain without necessitating a sacrifice in price.—Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

Ice May Be High.

The price of ice will be very high this summer, so say some of the local ice dealers, owing to the adverse disposition of the elements.

PROMINENT MAN DEAD.

DANIEL DODGE RANDOLPH EXPIRED AT HIS HOME THIS NOON.

He Had Been a Resident of This City for Thirty Years and Was Well and Favorably Known Among All.

After a brief illness of five days, Daniel Dodge Randolph died this noon at his home at the corner of West Seventh and Liberty streets. Mr. Randolph was under the care of Dr. Boone, but owing to his advanced age the ravages of pneumonia, with which he was afflicted, he was unable to survive.

Mr. Randolph was seventy-four years of age and was born on a farm in the vicinity of New Brooklyn. He moved to this city about thirty years ago, became identified with its social and business interests and has seen the city grow to its present size and influence. For a number of years he and his son, Theodore, conducted a prosperous boot and shoe business in the store on West Front street where U. B. Crane's business is now located. Several years ago he retired from active business. He was a stockholder in the First National Bank and has been a director in that institution for several years.

He was a member of the First Baptist church and a member of the Board of Deacons. In politics he was a Republican. He leaves a wife, two daughters, who resided with him, and one son, Theodore, who is in business in New York.

Want a Home for Aged Members.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., met last evening and received two propositions for membership. Past Master Workman Randolph introduced a resolution providing for the establishment of a home for disabled and aged members of the order, and after a lively debate it was adopted, with the recommendation that the representative to the Grand Lodge use every legitimate means to secure its adoption there. The question of the endowment fund was laid over to a subsequent meeting, as was also the question of the lodge running an excursion this summer. In the good of the order there was singing by Brothers Clark and Spicer. Owing to the illness of C. T. Rogers the quartette did not appear.

First Anniversary.

The Plainfield Fountain, No. 717, United Order of True Reformers, held their first anniversary exercises in their hall on West Front street, last evening. The attendance was excellent considering the inclement weather. Several speakers from out of town were expected, but they did not arrive. Eugene O'Reilly and his orchestra were present and furnished delightful music for dancing. During the evening those present joined in a grand march.

A Fair Association Dissolved.

The Somerset County Fair Association has disbanded. This is the corporation that conducted the fair last fall. They held a meeting on Tursday evening, February 6th, and found that they could pay all expenses and come out a little ahead. The understanding is that they can reorganize at any time if it is thought best. A dinner followed the meeting at the Somerset. President Stelle, James J. Meehan, A. P. Sutphen and others made addresses—Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

A Westfield Surprise.

A surprise party was tendered to Mrs. J. T. Burke, of Westfield, last night. Music was furnished by Frazee. Among those present were the Misses Miller, Attrich, Michals, Foley, Brennan, McCormick and Loughlin, Mrs. Fogarity and daughter; Messrs. George Sheelien, James Fogarity and W. O. Littfield.

A Plainfield Evangelist.

After conducting a very successful series of revival meetings at Franklin, N. J., Rev. Arthur Crane, of Carleton avenue, left last Monday for Elgin, Ill., where all the churches in the city have united to hold a series of revival meetings, of which Rev. Mr. Crane will be in charge.

No Longer Gavett & Co.

It is no longer Gavett & Co. Joseph W. Gavett, the junior member of the firm, has assumed charge of the business under his own name.

Miss Nellie Provost, of New York, formerly of this city, will spend Sunday with Mrs. T. O. Doane, of West Fifth street.

Our people are growing more and more in the habit of looking to Reynolds' pharmacy for the latest and best of everything in the drug line. They sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds, croup and whooping cough. When in need of such a medicine give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result.

FUNNY FARCES.

Ludicrous Antics and Sayings Enjoyed at Holy Cross Parish.

The parish building of Holy Cross church was filled last night with an audience that greatly appreciated the many good things the programme rendered. There was music by an instrumental trio, consisting of Messrs. Harold, Menzel and Parabouk; piano solos by H. M. Western and Arthur Horton; contralto solo by Miss Wood, of Jersey City; a duet by Miss Westphal and Miss Richardson, and a quartette, composed of Mrs Westphal, Miss Page, B. S. Hall and C. C. Western. The prominent feature of the evening was the two short plays entitled "Here She Goes and There She Goes," and "Shoemaker, Stick to Your Last."

The honors of the evening were carried off by John H. Carney, who played the German doctor in the first play, and the German shoemaker in the second. He was very funny, and his broken English and comical expression caused many a roar of laughter from the audience. Other parts in the cast were well filled by Mr. and Mrs. Westphal, C. L. Murphy, J. W. Klein and B. S. Hall. During the evening Mr. Carney gave a short but comical monologue. Altogether the affair was a great success both dramatically and financially.

HIBERNIANS INSTALL.

New Officers of the A. O. H. Took Their Places Last Night.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians met last evening in their rooms, Sons of Temperance hall, and transacted routine business after which County President Canty, of Elizabeth, installed the officers-elect as follows: President, P. Casey; vice-president, E. Birmingham; recording secretary, D. J. Shea; financial secretary, C. Ryan; treasurer, M. Nugent; sergeant-at-arms, Wm. Casey. The meeting was then thrown open and a large number of persons were admitted as guests. A feature of the affair was the refreshments, which were served in great abundance, after which a smoker was enjoyed. Everybody had a good time and with speeches and songs the evening passed very pleasantly.

White Gets Pargiter's Stock.

Edward White, the progressive dry goods merchant, this morning consummated a deal whereby he takes the stock of goods of Alex. Pargiter, who has been conducting a fancy goods store on the corner of Park avenue and West Second street. Mr. White will move the stock of goods to his own store next week, and cut the prices on all articles right in half, selling them at fifty cents on the dollar. The goods are all fresh and of late styles, as Mr. Pargiter has only been in this city for a short time.

Uniformed Rank Elect Officers.

A meeting of Crescent Company, No. 13, Uniformed Rank of Knights of Pythias, was held Wednesday evening and the following officers were elected: Captain, J. E. Flannery; first lieutenant, M. Turton; second lieutenant, Jacob Blimm, Jr.; Sir Knight recorder, Charles McGinley; Sir Knight financial recorder, G. H. VanNess; Sir Knight guard, Joseph C. Blimm. The company was then inspected by Col. F. H. Arndt, of Phillipsburg. The new officers were also installed by the same officer.

Taking Advantage of the Schools.

The Elizabeth Board of Education has ordered the superintendent of public schools to prepare a list of all children who attend the public schools whose parents reside out of the city. This action was brought about by a communication which was received last night by the board to the effect that a number of children were receiving a free education in the public schools there whose parents not only did not live in the city, but were residing in other States.

A New Road Proposed.

The trustees of Fairview Cemetery in Westfield have announced plans whereby they hope to make a new road from the cemetery leading to the county road between Westfield and Cranford. At present to reach the cemetery from Cranford necessitates a drive of about four miles, while the grounds are only two miles in a direct line. The owners of the property through which the proposed road would run do not object to the project.

To Increase the Membership.

The Parliamentary Club met yesterday with a good attendance. The president was in the chair in the absence of the one who was to preside. The meeting was a very profitable one. It is thought likely that the membership will be raised from fifty to a higher number, as there are a great many who are desirious of joining.

TRINITY'S GOOD TIME.

DELECTABLE VIANDS SERVED BY THE LADIES OF THE CHURCH.

The Lecture Room Decorated for the Occasion Gave it a Most Hospitable Look—Those in Charge of the Affair.

Pedestrians on Park avenue early last evening had their attention attracted by a transparency, displayed in front of P. M. Demarest's grocery store, on which were the rather suggestive words, "Supper at the Trinity Reformed Church Tonight." Those that took the implied invitation found that they made no mistake in doing so. The night was not a particularly pleasant one but the congregation of the Trinity Reformed church is always a loyal one and the people turned out remarkably well, while a number of outsiders were also attracted by the good things. The supper was given under the auspices of the Ladies Christian Work Society of the church.

The appearance of the lecture room where the supper was held was a pleasing one to the new comer. Each table was lighted by a handsome piano lamp, while snowy linen, pretty china and silver-ware, and well-served dishes tempted all to try the excellent supper that had been provided. Besides the regular supper tables there were three others where lemonade, candy and fancy goods and aprons were sold. At one, Miss Jennie Quick and Miss Emma Gillem, served lemonade, not of the "Sunday-school picnic" style, to the crowd of thirsty buyers. At a prettily decorated table, candies of all kinds were sold by Miss Virginia VanWinkle, Miss Minnie Williams and Mrs. Will F. Williams, members of "Whatsoever Circle," King's Daughters. The fancy goods and apron table was presided over by Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mrs. William C. Startup and Mrs. J. Beckman.

The first of the tables at which supper was served was presided over by Mrs. A. L. Force, assisted by Miss Lizzie Dunn and Miss Jennie Ross as waitresses. Mrs. Oscar W. Dunham presided over the next, and her waitresses were Miss Cora Laire and Miss Adelaide Baxter. Mrs. T. E. Hazell was in charge of another, assisted by Miss Florence Smalley and Mrs. E. E. Anthony. Guests at the fourth table were looked after by Mrs. P. A. Emmons, assisted by Miss Laura Emmons, while Mrs. Henry VanName, Miss Florence White and Miss Emma Cutter were established at the other table. Frank A. Church guarded the door and received tickets.

Although the visitors did not see the kitchen, it was by far the most important part of the supper and the good things that came from that direction testified as to the ability of those in charge there. Mrs. P. M. Demarest, chairman of the committee that arranged the affair, made that room her headquarters and looked especially after the welfare of the eatables. Mrs. J. F. MacDonald was her first assistant and looked after the supper room and the treatment of the guests. The dainties were prepared by Mrs. F. A. Church, Mrs. A. M. Gillem, Mrs. J. Krymer and Mrs. Seaman Williams.

After nearly everybody had finished their supper and an informal social was in full swing, the ladies orchestra, of Dunellen and New Market, rendered a number of selections in a pleasing manner. The orchestra was led by Mrs. J. H. Buckley and consisted besides the leader of Miss E. L. Nelson, violin; Mrs. J. D. Anderson, cornet; Miss Irene Day, piano.

The musical programme was arraged by a committee composed of Mrs. T. E. Hazell, chairman; Mrs. J. C. Van Dyke, Mrs. G. W. Saums and Mrs. C. M. Thorpe.

The evening closed with an auction sale, conduted by E. E. Anthony who kept his audience in a laugh and sold all the articles remaining, at good prices.

The supper was given to secure money to pay for refurnishing the lecture room and a considerable sum was netted despite the stormy weather. A great deal of credit is due to the ladies for the splendid supper they served and the 136 who partook agreed that it would take a remarkably good one to beat it.

Threw Away His Canes.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by T. S. Armstrong, Manager Reynolds' pharmacy, corner Park and North avenues.

TROY POLICE HAPPY

Breathe More Freely Since "Bat" Shea's Unique Funeral.

HOW ALL TROUBLE WAS AVERTED

The Ceremonies Held One Day Before the Date Set—Remarkable Features at the Burial of the Murderer of Robert Ross.

Troy, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The police of Troy are to-day again breathing freely and congratulating themselves that no serious trouble occurred at the funeral of "Bat" Shea, the murderer of Robert Ross, yesterday. There is no doubt in their minds that there would have been trouble, perhaps a riot, if the funeral had not been held one day before the date fixed for the event. The funeral was one of the most extraordinary of which there is any record. The most unique feature of the event was contributed by the girls employed in the collar and cuff factories.

Death Chair as a Floral Emblem.

Shea's sister is an ironer in one of the factories, and for this reason almost every girl employed in the factories was in sympathy with her. They raised money to buy flowers, and in two of the places the girls refused to work, compelling the managers to shut down. Not content with this manifestation of their sympathy the girls trudged through the heavy snowstorm that continued all day and crowded about and into the humble dwelling occupied by the Shea family in River street. There were 3,000 people around the house long before the funeral and another thousand of them jammed into it. The policemen around the house almost had to club the girls to keep them from breaking in, and they stood in the snow and gave free vent to their grief in tears. The girls in one factory sent probably the most novel floral tribute that ever graced a death chamber. It was a perfect reproduction of the chair in which Shea was shocked and singed to death. Upon the back rest of it in red immortelles was the word "Innocent." The number and beauty of the floral tributes was remarkable. There were sixty-two set pieces ranging in size from a modest basket to horseshoes five feet high.

Evidences of Intense Grief.

All of the larger pieces bore some inscription. Thirteen horseshoes and broken columns were labelled "Not Guilty," four "Innocent," two "Murdered" and three others "Rest." From the moment the coffin left the house, borne by eight sturdy young mill workers, until it was carried away in the hearse, the women crowded the street, wailed and exhibited every evidence of intense grief. It was the same along the route taken by the cortege and at St. Patrick's church, where the girls fought with one another for admission, and at St. Peter's cemetery, too, where Shea's remains were interred.

NEARLY COMPLETED.

Details of the Republican Party's Fortieth Anniversary Celebration.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Arrangements for the celebration of the fortieth birthday of the republican party to be held in this city the night of February 22 are about completed. The celebration is to take the form of a meeting to be held in the Centre Market hall. There will be music and speeches. The speakers of the evening will be Hon. Joseph Hawley of Connecticut; Hon. Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois; Hon. Charles A. Boutelle of Maine; Hon. Charles N. Brumm of Pennsylvania; Hon. Robert G. Cousins of Iowa; Hon. George C. Perkins of California; Hon. Charles A. Towne of Minnesota, and Hon. James S. Sherman of New York. The celebration is held under the auspices of the Union Republican club of Washington.

BALM FOR A WOUNDED HEART.

Mary Wood Wants $25,000 for Breach of Promise of Marriage.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 14.—Supreme court commissioner Charles K. Cannon has issued an order that Martin Haussling, a liquor dealer, Newark, be arrested and held in $1,000 bail to answer to a suit for $25,000 damages to be brought against him by Mary A. Wood of Hoboken for breach of promise to marry. Hanssling is a married man and is prominently connected in New York. Senator Daly is counsel for Miss Wood, who formerly lived in Newark.

BAENY LOCATED.

The Providence, R. I., Cashier Discovered in Cincinnati.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 14.—Cashier Charles H. Baeny of the Western Union telegraph office here, who mysteriously disappeared on the 4th inst., has been located in Cincinnati. He wrote a letter from a New York hotel the day following his departure indicating he would leave for Cape Town on a steamer which sailed last Saturday. The Western Union auditors are hard at work on Baeny's tangled accounts and he may be pursued and apprehended.

Kemeny and Showalter Matched.

New York, Feb. 14.—Emil Kemeny, of Philadelphia and J. W. Showalter of this city have been matched to play a game of chess for the championship of the United States and a stake of $750 a side. The match will be played in the rooms of the Franklin Chess club at the Union league in Philadelphia, and the first game will be called on February 24.

New Government Bonds Listed.

New York, Feb. 14.—The governing committee of the New York stock exchange has listed the new $100,000,000 government 4 per cent. bonds.

FORTY DROWNED.

Others Fatally Injured by a Steamboat Accident in Australia.

Brisbane, Queensland, Feb. 14.—The steamer Pearl, having on board eighty persons, met with a peculiar accident yesterday that resulted in the death of forty persons. The Brisbane river has been greatly swollen by heavy rains that have fallen lately and the current is running very strong. The Pearl was not powerful enough to stem the current, and was swung broadside on and carried down the river. Before she got way enough to carry her out of danger she was carried athwart the cable chains of the Lucinda, which was lying at anchor in the stream. The Pearl struck the chains with such force that she was almost completely cut in two. Then the current turned her over and she went down. Before she went down, however, a vast volume of steam was seen ascending from her, and it was afterwards learned that her steam pipes had been broken. Many of those on her lower deck were fatally scalded, while forty others were drowned. The work of rescuing the survivors was extremely difficult, as they were carried seaward with great rapidity by the flood. Thousands gathered about the scene of the disaster, and there were many affecting scenes as the living and dead were brought ashore. Some of the bodies will never be recovered.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Large Crowd Attends the Fourth and Last of the Series.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Bad weather has marked the evenings on which three of the series of four official receptions given by the president and Mrs. Cleveland have occurred. The last of these receptions took place last night. It rained during most of the day, and while there was a clearing up last evening the atmosphere was sufficiently damp to make things disagreeable. Last night's function was to the general public and the crowd was large. Carriages were not so plentiful as at the affairs given to the diplomatic corps, the army, the navy and the marine corps, and to congress and the judiciary, but those who came on foot made up in numbers what they lacked in style. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland were assisted by the ladies of the cabinet. Col. J. M. Wilson, U. S. A., made the introductions. The whole lower floor of the White House and the conservatories were given up to the purposes of the reception and were filled during the evening with crowds of people. The state apartments were handsomely decorated with growing plants and cut flowers. In the public lobby the United States marine band was stationed and rendered operatic and popular airs during the time allotted to the reception, from 9 o'clock until 11 o'clock.

HIS LIFE FOR ANOTHER.

Killed While Attempting to Save a Drunken Man from Death.

New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 14.—Edward Masterson, the usher at the Pennsylvania railroad station here, was almost instantly killed last evening while attempting to remove Thos. Dolan, who was intoxicated, from the track in front of an approaching freight train. It is said that Dolan resisted Masterson's attempts to remove him, and when the train was almost upon the former pushed the latter in front of the engine. Masterson's legs were cut off and his skull was fractured, death ensuing within a few minutes. Dolan was arrested.

MILITARY MATTERS.

Springfield Rifles for the National Guards of Every State.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The senate committee on military affairs has ordered favorable reports upon the bills authorizing the issue of Springfield rifles to each state and territory for the national guards in exchange for other rifles now held; to indemnify the state of Pennsylvania for money expended in 1864 for militia called into military service by the government under proclamation of the president of the United States; to amend the law providing for the appointment of surgeons and other medical officers of the various national soldiers' homes so that these officers may be appointed from others than those who have been disabled in the military service of the United States.

Held for Extradition Papers.

London, Feb. 14.—J. L. O'Brien, who, while acting as a bartender in Liverpool, was arrested on the charge of having robbed his former employers, Goodrich & Co., Providence, R. I., was arraigned in the Bow street extradition court yesterday. He was remanded to await the arrival of extradition papers from the United States.

The Scudder a Total Wreck.

New London, Conn., Feb. 14.—The schooner Henry J. Scudder, Raynor, that went ashore on Orient Point Sunday is a total wreck. The severe weather of the last few days has carried one side out of the vessel and the cargo has gone overboard. She was laden with coal for this port.

Declines To Interfere.

Washington, Feb. 14.—President Cleveland has declined to interfere in the case of John Harris, a colored man under sentence of death for the murder of another colored man, committed in this city.

Want Dunraven's Resignation.

New York, Feb. 14.—At the meeting of the New York Yacht club last night Capt. Ledyard offered a resolution requesting the resignation of Lord Dunraven, but action on the matter was postponed for two weeks.

John Russell Young Ill.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—John Russell Young, ex-minister to China, is seriously ill at his home here.

BIG FIGHT POSTPONED

Maher's Condition Prevents His Entering the Ring.

BOTH EYES ARE BADLY INFLAMED

Fitzsimmons Agrees to Wait Until Monday To Meet the Irish Pugilist—The Latter's Arrival in El Paso. Under a Doctor's Care.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 13.—This morning the prospects of the Fitzsimmons-Maher contest being pulled off on schedule time are exceedingly dubious. This condition of affairs is not due to the efforts of the federal, state or Mexican authorities to prevent the two men from coming together or to any inability on the part of Dan Stuart to guarantee a safe battle ground, but solely to the fact that Peter Maher is suffering from a temporary affliction of the eyes that would make it impossible for him to make a decent showing in the ring. About a week ago, while taking a morning spin at Las Cruces in a brisk wind, several particles of sand were blown into his left eye, and later in the day, while kicking a football in his improvised tent, a quantity of dust was knocked from the roof into the same optic. The next day inflammation set in and the services of a local doctor were called into requisition.

Arrival of Maher at El Paso.

The trouble, however, was obstinate and refused to yield to treatment and a couple of days since the right eye also became affected. When this became known here telegrams were at once sent to Las Cruces urging him to come to the city by the first train. They arrived over the Santa Fe shortly before 7 o'clock last night. The party was driven to the offices, in the Grand Central hotel, of Dr. S. T. White, an oculist. After a thorough examination, Dr. White came to the conclusion that Maher was suffering from an aggravated case of ophthalmia, caused by alkali dust entering the eyelids and he could not enter the ring with any prospect of being on equal terms with his opponent in the matter of eyesight at least.

The Fight in Statu Quo.

A conference between the managers of the fight was then held, and it was decided that the fight should remain in statu quo until Monday.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Michael Chirillo, Wanted at North Adams, in Custody at Troy.

Troy, N. Y., Feb. 14.—An Italian named Michael Chirillo was arrested in this city yesterday by Detectives Spotten and Tyler for the murder at North Adams, Mass., on Wednesday night of Vincengo Sica. The men lived at the same boarding house and indulged in a game of cards. A quarrel arose and Sica fired two shots at his companion. Chirillo retaliated by stabbing Sica in the chest with a pocketknife. When arrested Chirillo was preparing to leave for Chicago. A knife, with which it is supposed he committed the crime, was found on his person. He is held to await the arrival of an officer from Massachusetts.

FOR A SHIP CANAL.

By Water from the Great Lakes to the Hudson River.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The house committee on railways and canals ordered a favorable report on the bill of Mr. Chickering of New York directing the secretary of war to cause to be made accurate surveys, examinations and final estimates of cost of construction of a ship canal by the most practical route wholly within the United States, from the great lakes to navigable waters of the Hudson river of sufficient capacity to transport the tonnage of the lakes to the sea. An appropriation sufficient to enable the survey to be made is authorized.

QUAY CONFIRMS IT.

The Report of His Candidacy True in Every Particular.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Senator Quay, whose candidacy for the presidency was announced yesterday in the United Press dispatches, to-day received a great many telegrams and letters from friends in various parts of the country. "The report sent out by the United Press," said the senator, "is accurate in every particular. I have consented to permit my name to be used at the St. Louis convention. My friends have urged me to become a candidate and I have consented."

Murdered by His Brother.

Winston, N. C., Feb. 14.—Will and Jesse Stewart, brothers, got into a dispute in the western part of this county yesterday over a game of cards. Jesse stabbed his brother to death with a knife. He has not been captured.

Connecticut Naval Battalion.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 14.—The engineering division of the naval battalion of the Connecticut national guard was inaugurated last night, when Lieut. Reynolds enlisted a number of men for the new organization.

Treasury Gold Reserve.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The treasury gold reserve at the opening of business this morning stood at $63,764,371. The withdrawals yesterday amounted to $1,271,600.

Pastoral Call Accepted.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 14.—Rev. Percy Barnes of Yantic has accepted the call to the pastorate of Grace Episcopal church of this city. He will begin his work here next Sunday.

The Tramps Get the Contract.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The contract for building the new revenue cutter to be stationed on the Pacific coast has been awarded to Cramp & Son of Philadelphia at their bid of $198,000.

That Distress

In the stomach or feeling of fulness after eating is effectually prevented by Hood's Pills They aid digestion and assimilation of food, move the bowels easily and thus prevent and cure Biliousness, Torpid Liver, and Constipation. They are tasteless and do not gripe or cause pain. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents. Insist upon HOOD'S.

HOOD'S the Best After Dinner PILLS

W. L. & J. M. Smalley,

—DEALERS IN—

HIGH GRADE

Meats,

& Meat Specialties

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal and Pork
Poultry and Game in season.

94 Somerset st., Plainfield N. J.
Telephone Call 42-B.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON.

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

New Fish Market,

125 Park Ave.

E. P. THORN

solicits a share of the public patronage. First quality

Fish, Oysters, Clams, &c

TERMS CASH. 11 7 tf

PIANOS.

You can buy the best in the market at Factory Prices, at

J. C. DYER'S, 218 WEST FRONT ST.

EXTRA FINE

Jersey Poultry

AT LOWEST PRICES.

Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Genuine Philadelphia Scrapple, Taylor's Prepared Ham, Pork Tenderloins.

Great Reduction

in price of all kinds of

MEAT

Headquarters for Jersey pork, bologna and Delacatessen. Jersey pork and Sausage 10c lb.

A. G. Vogeler.

131 West Front st.

NOTICE.

Special Reductions

—AT—

Neuman Bros.

on fancy brands goods. Full quart bottles table oil 60c, finest quality; whole canned ox tongue 45c; lunch tongue, whole, 25c; a special reduction given on Curtis' strawberry and assorted jams, 16c; fresh roasted coffees received every week, quality unexcelled.

NEUMAN BROS.

What! $30.00?

Yes, thirty dollars will buy a piano, in first-class condition, at

W. R. BROKAW'S

Piano Parlors, 311 Madison ave.
Tuning and regulating a specialty

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, February 10, 1896.

Adams J H	Leonard A W
Barton A J	Neugem Agnes Miss
Codington B	McMann Thos
Duchene E Miss	Moore Elmer
Feil A F S	McEvoy Kate J 3
Fisk Clinton B	McKeef Lara Mrs
Hustner Jno	Palmberg Elen Miss 2
Johnson Charlie	Perine Chas
Johnson Hilder Miss	Prentiss S S
Kline Mellie Miss	Storme G W
King T P 2	Snediker Dare

Holiday Millinery Goods.

MRS. L. ADAMS,

114 EAST FRONT STREET,

Opp. First National Bank.
Dressmaking and Bazar Glove Fitting Patterns.

S. D. FRAZEE.

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

FRESH FISH.

Fresh every day. Terms cash. Goods delivered.

230 Park ave., ooo. North ave

Music furnished for all occasions.

California IN

THREE DAYS

without change of cars. All meals served in dining cars. Palace drawing-room sleeping cars and tourist sleepers are run through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without change, leaving Chicago daily via

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Through Tourist sleeping cars Chicago to California daily and personally conducted excursions every Thursday. Variable route tourist tickets at

VERY LOW RATES.

Detailed information and descriptive pamphlets will be mailed free on application to W. B. Kniskern, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago. Agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the

Chicago & North Western Railway,

or address: H. A. Gross, G. E. P. A., 423 Broadway, New York, or T. P. Vaille, S. E. P. A., 112 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A NEW AND FULL LINE OF

OVERALLS.

Painter's, Carpenter's and Machinist's, never rip, white, blue stripe and brown check, with and without aprons. PRICES 50 AND 75 CENTS.

D. L. GULICK. G. A. HALLOCK.

Freshest Oysters

will be found at

Rogers' Sea-Food Market.

THE HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

Have stood the test of over fifty-five (55) years

and are not surpassed by any in the world. Prices, $300 and upwards. Our special 3-year payment plan makes purchase easy. We have other makes of new pianos at $200. Good squares at $75, and we give a full 5-year warranty with everything we sell. Old instruments taken in exchange. Send for illustrated catalogue giving full information.

The Tway Piano Co.,

88 FIFTH AVE.,

near 14th st., New York.

"Tway's Musical Guest," containing 8 pages of music, interesting reading matter and theatrical news, mailed free on application. 10 3 6m

COAL

F. W. HAND,

132 North avenue.
929 South avenue.
197 North avenue.
Telephone No. 139.

"Ever Ready" PREPARED

Buckwheat Flour.

Home-made and sold on its merits. Sold by all grocers and made by

FRENCH BROTHERS,

City Mills. 24 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,

—DEALERS IN—

Lumber, Coal Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.

Leech, Stiles & Co.,

EYE SPECIALISTS,

1413 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.,

Formerly with Queen & Co. H. A. Stiles will be at

1o7 East Front Street,

Dunham's real estate office,

EVERY THURSDAY

from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Skilful attention given to all cases of eye strain, headache, etc. No charge for examination. All glasses guaranteed.

Bargains in Real Estate For sale or to let.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage.

E. C. Mulford,

No. 169 North avenue.
Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.
BROKER.

Communications pertaining to the business mentioned, either by letter or otherwise, will receive prompt attention. Carriage service supplied.

INSURANCE.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 22c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
V. L. FRAZEE
151 West Front st.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

CITY HOTEL,
Plainfield, N. J.
Corner Park avenues and Second street.
J. E. Beerbower, Prop
Stables attached

Eagle Meat Market,
35 Somerset Street.
Jersey pork and poultry a specialty. Orders called for and delivered free of charge.
C. ARNOLD, Prop.

L. A. HUMMER'S
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
120 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent.
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Finest Assortment
of Lace, Celluloid and Card
Valentines
in the city.
HARPER'S,
411 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

W. N. Pangborn,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER,
Residence, 33 Linden Ave.
Personal attention. Prompt service.
1 14 tf

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.
The remainder of Fur Capes, Jackets and Boas from H. Kohn, 318 West Front street, will be sold at
Karet's Fur Parlor,
49 Craig Place. All fur repairing done.

William Hand & Son.
STAGES
For Picnics and Parties, 518 Park ave.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a

TOWNSEND'S
Marble and Granite Works,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our motto—Good work, good material at air rices.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market.
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave. and Somerset street.
6 12 tf

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of
FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.
Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

JOHN P. EMMONS,
Mason and Builder,
Washington avenue and Prospect place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.
All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,
Carpenter and Builder.
985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

C. W. LINES.
Mason and Builder,
Plainfield, N. J.
Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

HOTEL—
Grenada,
NORTH AVENUE.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:15 a.m., 2:45, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 15 and 9:20 a. m., 1:30, 4 30 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:00 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

J. M. HETFIELD, P. M.

CODDINGTON'S
Furniture and Freight
EXPRESS.
Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87—F.

David Bowden,
General Contractor,
109 PARK AVENUE.
Sewers and Sewer Connections a Specialty.
Chas. H. Herring, Contracting Agent, 403 East 2d st.
All work executed in a practical and skillful manner. 28 years experience. Best of references furnished. Charges moderate. 1 13 m

PLAINFIELD SEMINARY
re-opened
SEPTEMBER 19, 1895.
(28th year.) Miss E. E. Kenyon, Principal.

Kindergarten Only.
FROBEL SYSTEM,
525 Madison Avenue.
Re-Opened September 25.
Children received from 3 to 6 years of age. For particulars address
MISS ELEANOR DEMAREST.
9 4 tf

Miss Fawcett's School
And Kindergarten,
25 WASHINGTON AVENUE.
North Plainfield, N. J.
Re-opened Thursday, Sept. 12.
Primary, Intermediate and Academic Dept's. Boys received until 10 years of age.

FISCHER PIANOS.
56 YEARS ESTABLISHED.
GRAND AND UPRIGHT.
Nearly 100,000 Manufactured.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
REASONABLE PRICES.
FISCHER PIANO WAREROOMS,
110 Fifth Ave., cor. 16th St., N. Y.
Write for Catalogue.

THE Bee Hive
Men's Unlaundered Shirts.
Lot 1—The Cast Iron Shirt, made of good heavy muslin, good 3 ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, patent facings, 38c.
Lot 2—New York mills muslin, 3-ply, fine linen bosoms, reinforced front and back, patent facing, 48c.
Lot 3—Our New York mills shirt, made of New York mills muslin, 2 and 3-ply linen bosom, reinforced front and back, continuous facings and hand-made button holes, equal to the best custom-made shirt, 69c.
Boys' unlaundered shirts 38 cts. Laundered shirts 50c, 75c and $1.
Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

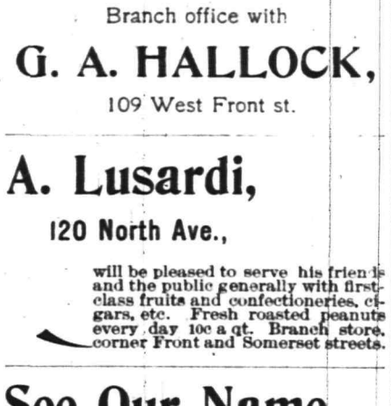
IF
You take advantage of the great closing out sale of Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at Edward Love's, and will let him do your spring decorating, you will be money in pocket.

GEO. O. STEVENS OAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.
Branch office with
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front st.

A. Lusardi,
120 North Ave.,
will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

See Our Name,
Take Our Number,
Call and See Our Goods.
Woolston & Buckle,
141 and 145 North ave.

No Place Like Home



on Christmas day. No day like Christmas at home. Christmas will be merrier the more home like the home. Our great holiday sale of wall paper should attract all whose houses need papering.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.

SACKING AND BURNING

Cubans Continue Their Destruction in Pinar del Rio.

MANY IN DANGER OF STARVATION

Government Relief Measures Imperatively Necessary To Save the Unfortunate People from Death—A Severe Blow to One of Cuba's Chief Industries.

Batabano, Feb. 7, via Tampa, Fla., Feb. 14.—The coast steamer Lersundi arrived here yesterday from the ports on the south coast of Pinar del Rio. The general situation in the western department remains the same. The sackings and depredations of the rebels continue as before. In San Juan y Martinez the rebels surprised a party of four men and a boy working. They hung them and subsequently hacked the body of the boy with machetes. The rebels prohibit all labor. In the same town the rebels fired and destroyed fourteen tobacco warehouses, together with their contents. They sacked a printing office and took the outfit, including the press, to the Guatamayo estate, where the plant will be used in their propaganda.

In Profound Misery.

The whole region between Pinar del Rio and Cape San Antonio is in dire want and profound misery, town after town being without food. Salt cannot be had. For a considerable time no supplies have reached them either by land or by sea. Unless the government institutes instant relief measures starvation and death awaits the unfortunate people. Martinez Campos' policy of protecting the towns was wise and humane. The whole situation there is aggravated by the absence of troops who have been concentrated to push Maceo to the wall. Maceo's troops are foraging, for his army seize all the food products and cattle. They will not allow farm hands to till the soil. Hence, there are no vegetables of any kind. The rebels do just as they please, looting towns, stores and residences. A thousand troops would insure order and safeguard the proprietors and tenants.

At the Mercy of the Rebels.

In San Juan y Martinez the rebel chief Varona has issued orders to his men to seize all the tobacco in the warehouses. He also has issued an imperative order to the inhabitants of Pinar del Rio to gather no tobacco, except for their own smoking. This action is a severe blow to one of Cuba's chief industries, Pinar del Rio being the famous Vulta Arriba tobacco district. The whole of the interior of Pinar del Rio or western Cuba, from near Havana to cape San Antonio, is completely at the mercy of the rebels. Maceo and his following is kept advised of every move of the royal troops. The rebels pursue their old policy of avoiding battle while they control the interior.

POSTOFFICE ORDER.

To Prosecute Newspapers Publishing and Mailing Obscene Literature.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The postoffice department has issued instructions to postoffice inspectors in the larger cities, such as Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Kansas City and other western points, to arrest and bring up for trial managers and proprietors of newspapers who violate the postal laws and regulations by sending obscene articles, pictures and advertisements through the mails. The success of the recent prosecution in Chicago has decided the authorities to take vigorous action to suppress these offenses. They have three publications especially in view.

CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE.

Two Collectors of Customs, a U. S. Attorney and Several Postmasters.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The senate in executive session confirmed the following nominations: Collectors of customs—J. H. Brocklesby, Hartford, Conn.; Daniel W. Andrew, Plymouth, Mass. J. Kearney Rice, United States attorney for New Jersey. Postmasters—Massachusetts—E. W. Nutter, East Bridgewater. Connecticut—S. B. Wheeler, Westport. Pennsylvania—T. P. McAndrews, Whitehaven; Sarah A. Bachman, Slatington.

JAMES L. CRANE'S DEATH.

Commanded the Union Transport Perry During the War.

New York, Feb. 14.—James L. Crane, who died suddenly in Brooklyn, was in command of the United States transport Commodore Perry during the war. He was born at Jamaica, L. I., sixty-three years ago, and was the son of a Presbyterian minister.

Schooner Disabled at Sea.

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 14.—The schooner Henry S. Woodruff, Capt. John Leaver, has arrived here disabled. She came from the island of Hayti in the West Indies with a cargo of wood for the Stamford Manufacturing company. A gale came upon her while all her sails were set, and they were torn into shreds.

Military Academy Appointees.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Boards of officers have been appointed by the secretary of war to meet at stations in various parts of the country for the mental and physical examination of appointees to the United States military academy. One of the boards will meet at Fort Adams, R. I., and another at West Point, N. Y.

For Mayor of Hornellsville.

Hornellsville, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The democratic city convention last night nominated George Waldorf for mayor and an entire city ticket with the exception of city chamberlain, on which there was a tie vote.

FOR M'KANE'S RELEASE.

Gov. Morton Will Not Act Until Certain Conditions Are Fulfilled.

Albany, Feb. 14.—In the petition which George W. Broderick of Brooklyn yesterday filed with Gov. Morton for the pardon of John Y. McKane, stress is laid upon McKane's previous good character and the fact that if he had totally destroyed or mutilated the registry lists he would have been guilty only of a misdemeanor, punishable by one year's imprisonment. McKane was convicted of advising the registry board to refuse to allow any person who applied to examine the registry list and was convicted of a felony punishable by from two to ten years in state prison. The plea for mercy and clemency in his behalf made by the jury in the strongest possible language is held to be, alone and aside from the other considerations offered in McKane's behalf, sufficient to justify the pardon at the expiration of the two years' imprisonment, the minimum term prescribed for the offense. The petition, in conclusion, suggests that Justice Bartlett, the trial judge, and Hon. Benjamin F. Tracy and Edward M. Shepard, who had charge of the prosecution, be notified of the application and be requested to give opinions on the merits of the case now. The only signer of the petition is Mr. Broderick, who is McKane's counsel. Gov. Morton will not act until the trial judge and the prosecuting attorneys sign the petition.

NEW MEXICO'S AMBITION.

Delegate Catron Advocates the Territory's Admission to Statehood.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Delegate Catron of New Mexico made an argument before the senate committee on territories yesterday favoring the admission of New Mexico as a state. The committee has not yet taken up these statehood bills for serious discussion, but the expressions made in the committee room are such as to indicate that the majority of the committee are opposed to the admission of any additional states at this time. The senators believe that none of the territories now seeking admission have reached such a stage that congress would be justified in permitting them to assume sovereign powers. Behind all of this there is also a feeling that it would be unwise to increase the power of the advocates of the free coinage of silver by such admission, the members of the committee believing that the senators who would represent these new states would be for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. This phase of the case has never been openly discussed in committee, but it is supposed to be the most potent argument against the further admission of territories.

FOR SMUGGLING DIAMONDS.

Capt. Loeswitz Held in $2,000 Bail at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—Capt. Loeswitz of the American line steamer Rhynland, who was arrested yesterday charged with attempting to smuggle diamonds into this country, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Bell and held in $2,000 bail for court. The only witness was Special Customs Agent Gallen, who secured the jewels from Capt. Leoswitz on board the steamer on Tuesday. He stated that there were 563 diamonds in the lot, that they weighed 225 karats and are valued at about $10,000.

NEW YORK RED CROSS.

Its Object the Same as That of the American Association.

Albany, Feb. 14.—The New York Red Cross has been incorporated with the secretary of state. The principal office of the society is to be located in New York city, and it is formed to establish a corps of physicians, surgeons and nurses for attending the sick or wounded of all nations, creeds and sexes in time of peace or war, to supply the association of the American Red Cross with nurses, medical and surgical aid and assistance.

Charged with Embezzling $5,000.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Feb. 14.—Jacknowicz, the deposed priest of the Polish church at Mount Carmel, who was arrested at Buck Mountain yesterday, acted as banker for many of his parishioners and is alleged to have embezzled sums approximating $5,000. He disappeared a month ago, and has since been in hiding. He was lodged in the Sunbury jail.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot market is slow, prices firm. February, 73¼c.; March, 74¾c.; May, 72⅝c.

Corn—Spot easier; moderate demand. February, 36⅜c.; May, 36⅛c.

Oats—Spot held firm, but quiet. February, 25⅜c.; March, 25⅛c.; May, 25¼c.

Pork—Spot quiet and unsettled. Extra prime nominal, short clear, $11.50@$12.50; family, $10.75@$11.00; mess, $11.00@$11.25.

Lard—Contracts are dull and easy. May, $5.92.

Butter—There is a fair trade in fancy creamery and the tone of the market is firmer, but not higher. Creamery, western extras, 19c. State and Pennsylvania, seconds to best, 14@17½c.; creamery, western, seconds to firsts, 14@17½c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, seconds to firsts, 12@15c.

Cheese—Fancy September is held firmly with demand good. State, full cream, large size, September colored, choice, 9a10½c.; September white fancy, 9@10¼c.; large common to choice, 7¼@10c.

Eggs—Receipts are liberal but not excessive and holders generally firm at 14¾@15½c. for best western.

Potatoes—The demand for choice grades continues slow and the market weak. State Burbank, per 180 pounds, 80c.@$1.00, and state rose and Hebron, per 180 pounds, 85@90c.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS

Interest To-day Centres in the Speech of Mr. Crisp.

TO SPEAK ON FREE SILVER SUBSTITUTE

Messrs. Hall and Dearmond Engage in a Personal Controversy—Urgent Deficiency Bill Passed by the Senate—House Tariff Bill.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The interest in the doings of congress to-day centres in the speech which Mr. Crisp, dem., Ga., will make in the house this afternoon in favor of concurring in the senate free coinage amendment to the bill providing additional revenue for the government, which the house yesterday in committee of the whole, after nearly two weeks of almost continuous debate, recommended non-concurrence in by a vote of 190 to 80. Members of the ways and means committee opposed to that action will reply and then will ask a vote upon the recommendation of the committee of the whole.

A Personal Controversy.

In the latitude of debate still enjoyed under the rules of the house, Messrs. Hall and Dearmond, dems., were engaged in a personal controversy, conducted with considerable bitterness of expression, within proper parliamentary methods, however, over the conversion of the former to the cause of sound money, as contradistinguished from free coinage of silver This. Mr. Hall had announced in a speech last Saturday, and on Tuesday, in his absence, Mr. Dearmond criticized his action. When they had concluded, matters were left in much the same state as at the beginning. The incident, however, seemed to afford much entertainment to the members, and they resented efforts made to restrict and limit the verbal onslaughts of the gentlemen upon each other. The report of the committee on elections No. 2 upon the contest of Van Horn versus Tarsney, from the fifth Missouri district, in favor of Van Horn, was presented by Chairman Johnson. The house at 4:10 p. m. adjourned.

Business in the Senate.

The senate refused by a vote of 29 to 21, to take up the house tariff bill, with the free coinage substitute, and that measure continues to remain on the vice-president's table. The motion had the support of none but republicans, the democrats voting solidly against it together with the four populists—Messrs. Allen of Nebraska, Butler of North Carolina, Jones of Nevada and Peffer of Kansas—and three republicans, Messrs Carter of Montana, Dubois of Idaho and Teller of Colorado. The urgent deficiency bill, carrying appropriations to the amount of about $6,000,000, was passed, and the military appropriation bill was taken up and is now the unfinished business. The resolution of Mr. Allen, pop., Neb., calling on the interior department for a great mass of information touching the past history and present status of the Union Pacific railroad company, gave rise to some discussion and was eventually modified so as to instruct the Pacific Railroad company to furnish the information, and that committee was also authorized to examine the witnesses who come before it under oath—that condition being insisted upon by Mr. Morgan, dem., Ala., a member of the committee, who referred to Mr. Huntington by name as one whose statements he desired to have made under the sanctity of an oath. At another stage of the proceedings the Pacific railroad problem came up, Mr. Pettigrew, rep., S. D., making a violent speech against the reorganization committee and its plan. The resolutions on the subject of Cuba were taken up under an agreement made a few days previous, but Mr. Call, dem., Fla., who had them in charge, consented to let them go over for the day. At 5:10 p. m. the senate adjourned until Monday.

UHL QUALIFIES.

The New Ambassador to Germany Takes the Oath of Office.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Edwin F. Uhl has qualified as ambassador of the United States to Germany, and vacated the office of assistant secretary of state. William Haywood, his private secretary, administered the oath of office. Although not officially an officer of the state department, Mr. Uhl will remain at his desk there until he has cleared up all the business connected with his late position, and will then make a short trip to Michigan to put his private affairs in condition for his absence abroad. William W. Rockhill, the new assistant secretary of state, would have qualified for that office yesterday if a severe cold had not confined him to his house.

Sandbagged and May Die.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Samuel Rogers, who was sandbagged in the doorway of his home, is dying from his injuries. Rogers had been out during the day collecting money and the robbers took $200 in cash and his gold watch and chain. Members of Rogers' family found him bleeding and unconscious in the hallway of his home.

Ship Destroyed by Fire.

London, Feb. 14.—Schooner John M. Bell, Capt. Azulay, from New Bedford, which arrived at Goree, January 31, reports that she landed at St. Louis the crew of the Italian bark Santa Rosa, Capt. De Rosa, from Hamburg for Rio Janeiro, which was abandoned on fire January 18.

Niagara Falls Snowbound.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 14.—A furious snow storm has been raging here for some time and the snow is now over a foot deep on the level. Traffic is practically suspended.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

106 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., FEB. 14, 1896

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

(Furnished by Weather Observer Neagle.)

Fair and Colder Tonight: Saturday, Fair and Warmer.

At 2 o'Clock Leggett's Thermometer Registered 42 Degrees.

COMING EVENTS.

Announcements of all meetings, etc., will be made in this column, free of charge, if copy is furnished by 10 a. m.

February 14—Dance of juniors at the Park Club.
February 14—Somerset Council, Jr. O. U. A. M. meets.
February 14—Hope Chapel Fair.
February 15—Hope Chapel Fair.
February 15—Basket ball at Y. M. C. A.
February 17—Masquerade ball at Sangerbund Hall.
February 17—Last Assembly at the Casin.

Here is a novel distinction: The Clinton Democrat classes Senator Tillman as the New York World of the Senate.

Quay as a Presidential candidate is showing that gentleman in a new light. Few people ever thought he would have the nerve to pass as such.

District representation is as much a matter of justice in the Legislature as ward representation is in the Plainfield Common Council. The minority should have some representation.

Senator Sewell yesterday withdrew his opposition to the appointment of J. Kearney Rice, of New Brunswick, as District Attorney for the District of New Jersey, and the appointment was confirmed by the Senate yesterday afternoon.

It is announced that Robert S. Green, of Elizabeth, will be made a member of the State Board of Railway Assessors. He is a son of the late Robert S. Green, and is a Democrat. Such nominations, if followed out all through Governor Griggs' administration, will make him a popular executive.

New Jersey now has 200 miles of macadam roads built under the State Aid Road Law, and fifty miles additional will be built this year. The State appropriation this year for roads is $100,000. In the past four years the roads of the State have been benefited through the State Aid law nearly one million dollars.

Things look dubious for the sports of fistic proclivities who dote on the real article of bruisers. After Corbett and Fitzsimmons had each articulated several thousand yards of threats several hundred miles distant from each other, and then failed to lift a finger, the fraternity of the ring put dependence in the alleged good intentions of Pugilists Fitzsimmons and Maher. The sand (sometimes designated as confidence, nerve, etc.,) which the man of Shamrock nativity supposedly possessed, has shifted and filled his optics. And now the fight is off. What is the use of Legislatures and other officials wasting time enacting laws prohibiting prize fighting? The latter-day breed of pugilists are talkers, not fighters. Their professional designation is a misnomer.

THEATRICAL.

The hard rain of yesterday did not prevent the Waite Comedy Company from drawing two good houses to Music Hall. The play last evening was "The Prince of Liars," and it proved itself to be a farce comedy of the highest class, with an interesting plot cleverly developed and devoid of the horseplay of most farce comedies. "Young America" drew a big house to the matinee this afternoon. To-night Bartley Campbell's masterpiece, "The Galley Slave," will be presented. This is without doubt one of Campbell's best efforts, and its production by the Waite Company has been highly commended. "The Two Kids" will be presented at the last dime matinee tomorrow. At the request of a large number of the patrons, a limited number of reserved seats will be sold for the Saturday matinee at twenty cents each. They can be had at the box office where they are on sale.

—The regular monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will be held this evening.

—The Somerville Social Club will give a dance in Germania Hall, Somerville, next Thursday evening. A number from this city have been invited.

—When you read J. F. MacDonald's ad, did you stop to think that twenty cents per pound for creamery butter was a very low figure for the middle of the winter?

—The eighth annual masquerade ball of the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein will be held at their hall Monday evening. Prof. O'Reilly will furnish the music.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Alfred Holmes, of East Fifth street, is ill with the rheumatism.

Dr. Whitford, of New Market, is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs Charles Kiederling, of East Front street, is very ill at her home.

Willie VanDyke, of West Second street, is confined by illness to the house.

Mrs. Richardson, of East Sixth street, is recovering from a serious illness.

Mrs. Vail, of Orange, is visiting Mrs Phebe Vail, of Church street, for a few days.

Mrs. A. L. Fellows, of East Front street, has about recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs Allen, of East Front street, who has been very ill for some time past, is much better.

George Perry, Westfield's popular ice dealer, was the guest of Plainfield friends yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of South Second street, are the proud parents of a child.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haffner will take up their residence at 223 East Fourth street, March 1st.

A card party was given at the home of E. H. Ladd, of Franklin place, on Wednesday evening.

Thomas Barrett, of North Plainfield, has resigned his position in Edsall's Commercial Palace.

—"For Forty Days." See Hambidge's Painting in Truth, tomorrow. All trains and news stands.

Mrs. Abram Dunham, of Dunellen, was the guest yesterday of Mrs. Jennings, of West Second street.

Miss Nellie Backer, of Prospect place, left yesterday for White House where she will visit her parents.

Mrs. Meeker, of East Front street, mother of Street Commissioner R. A. Meeker, is kept at home by illness.

W. V. White and family, of West Front street, will move to their new home in Flatbush, L. I., April 1st.

Elsie Tier, of Bank place, is not as seriously ill as reported, and hopes of her speedy recovery are entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyckoff, of East Fourth street, will remove March 1st to East Second street, near Richmond street.

Peter Gayety, of Fourth street, was taken to the hospital yesterday. He is suffering from a slight trouble with his legs.

Charles Armstrong, of Camden, who has been visiting his brother, T. S. Armstrong, of Craig place, has returned home.

Mrs. L. E. Linderman's cousin, of New York State, who has been stopping with her for a few days, has returned home.

The condition of Miss Elsie Smith, of Westervelt avenue, is slightly improved, which fact will please her many friends.

Mrs. Williams and her granddaughter, Miss Lillian Livingston, of Somerset street, will move to New York April 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxson Dunham, of South Plainfield, spent yesterday with their daughter, Mrs. J. C. VanDyke, of East Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, of West Seventh street, have returned from St. Louis, where they have been stopping since Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Lulu Gunning, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Mary A. Luckey, of East Fifth street, returned to her home yesterday.

W. W. Stratton, of East Third street, has been appointed one of the Deputy State Councilors for this district by the Board of Officers of the State Council, D. of L.

The marriage of Miss May Coyne, of Jersey City, to John Lindsey, took place Wednesday night at the bride's home in Jersey City. Miss Coyne has many friends in this city.

Mrs. Uhler, of East Front street, will leave town on Monday for her home in Pennsylvania, where she will remain for a month. Mr. Uhler will stop in New York during her absence.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills

are endorsed by physicians and druggists. They cause the kidneys to filter all uric acid and other poisons or impurities from the blood.

Cure Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Anaemia, Pimples, Bad Blood, Bright's Disease, Malaria, Backache, Kidney Pains, Dropsy, Pain in the Abdomen, Frequent Urination, Inflammation of Kidneys, etc.

"Gained So Much Strength and Comfort."

I have doctored all over the country and after taking the first three boxes of Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills, have gained so much in strength and comfort, that I have been convinced of the great merit they possess, and would not do without them.

Frank Iliff, Columbus, O.

Fifty cents a box. A Valuable Book Mailed free Hobbs Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct that liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

"Pure and Sure."

Cleveland's BAKING POWDER

Manufactured originally by Cleveland Brothers, Albany, N. Y., now by the Cleveland Baking Powder Company, New York.

has been used by American housewives for twenty-five years, and those who have used it longest praise it most.

Receipt book free. Send stamp and address. Cleveland Baking Powder Co., New York.

Nothing Like It.

Time brings many changes, but the climate of California, "The Italy of America," and the attractions of the many famous health and pleasure resorts, are the same yesterday, today and forever.

Tourists never will tire of speaking in praise of the soft and balmy air, the profusion of flowers, the magnificent display of fruits, the luxury of seabathing and the beautiful walks and drives.

Then, too, it must be conceded that with such excellent equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars, all heated by steam and lighted with Pintsch Light, the Union Pacific "The Overland Route," is the tourists favorite. Ask your agents for tickets via this route.

E. L. Lomax, General Pass and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

Zachariah Titus, engineer of the Emergency Hospital, of Somerville, and night clerk at Voorhees & Cawley's establishment, was a welcome visitor in town yesterday. Mr. Titus expects to open a bologna factory here shortly. He will locate in the borough.

—The Park Club juniors have a dance this evening.

—White's advertisement tells of many good things that they are offering for the coming week. A special sale this week for the laundry consisting of wash boilers, tubs, clothes lines, baskets and pins. All to be sold at cut prices.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

A Card to the Public

For nearly 20 years the public of Plainfield and vicinity have given me the largest share of their patronage in the purchasing of hats and gent's furnishings, showing that honest effort, low prices and reliable goods are appreciated. I have now associated with me Mr. Charles Clark, of Westfield, N. J., who comes to us highly recommended as a competent, honest young man. We will add to our stock of hats and gent's furnishings, a full line of men's and youth's shoes and rubbers, keeping only reliable goods and selling at the lowest possible prices.

Thankful for past favors, we are yours for business, U. B. CRANE, 120 West Front st.

Succeeded by Crane & Clark.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits; 75c. Sold by H. P. Reynolds, druggist, Park and North avenues. 2 12 y

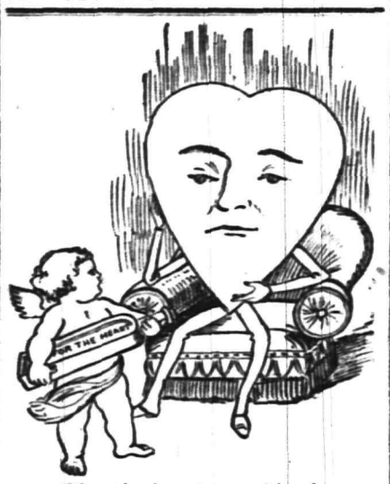
Don't be Foolish and take some other brand of condensed milk, thinking it is "just as good" as the

GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND

It Has No Equal

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.



Give the heart pure blood.

Randolph's Sarsaparilla,

A great blood cleanser.

Only 50c Per Bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

VISIT BOEHM'S CROCKERY DEPARTMENT,

113 WEST FRONT STREET.

Everything in the housefurnishing line up to date. Prices brought down to the lowest possible notch. We guarantee satisfaction in every respect. It is therefore to your own benefit to visit this department—it will pay you.

Novelties in Dress Goods.

AT 19C—30 inch Brilliantines, were 25c.
AT 50C—38 inch extra heavy black mohair sicilians, cheap at 65c.
AT 25C—40 inch new spring novelties, changeable effects, were 35c.
AT 25C—36 inch plaids, silk stripe effects, were 33c.
AT 12 1-2C—A very handsome line of worsted plaids well worth 19c.
AT 50C—The very latest novelties in all-wool dress goods, suitable for spring wear, fully 40in. wide, a bargain at 65c.
AT 32C—38 inch wide black brilliantines.
AT 45C—40 inch black brilliantines, silk finished, regular 59c quality.
AT 50C—Silk finished brilliantine, 40 inches wide, the 65c grade.
AT 65C—Extra fine black brilliantine, 1¼ yards wide, with an extra heavy lustre, the regular 75c quality.
Our leader for this coming season—38 inch wide black figured brilliantine in a number of new and novel designs at the uniform price of 35c a yard, well worth 45c a yard.
AT 25C—Storm serges in black and blue, 3 in. wide, were 34c.
AT 45C—Beautiful fine black serges, 1¼ yds wide, a bummer, were 55c.
AT 19C—Light colored brilliantines, the very newest effects, reduced from 25c.

BOEHM'S, 113 WEST FRONT ST.

You Will Never

get such chances again to buy good groceries at such surprising low prices. They have to be sold quick to close everything out. Store lately occupied by Fulper, so come quick, only a few days left

Pilsbury's best flour	59c	40c teas go at	16c lb
Finest Java coffee	29c	50c teas are yours at	25c lb
Good coffee	13c	60c finest teas during this sale	33c lb
Best butter	18c	Soapine	3c
Best molasses	28c gal.	7 bars good soap	10c
Finest vinegar	15c gal.	10c ammonia	7c bottle
Golden syrup	23c gal.	VanHouten's cocoa	17c
Pure pepper, cloves, cinnamon	17c lb	Armour's soups	19c can
Cerealine only	10c box	Fine French peas worth 18c, now 10c.
Finest apricots	10c can	New dried beans	5c qt
Egg plums	9c can	New dried peas	2 qts 7c
Finest egg plums	2 cans 25c	Best imported pickles	16c bottle
Fine table peaches	10c can	and everything else in the stock at unheard-of low prices.
Good peas	6c can

W. F. GORDON,

207 West Front Street.

Fulper's old stand. Fixtures for sale cheap.

WISE PEOPLE

are Buying Their Wash Goods and Embroideries at Peck's. The Experience of Former Years Has Warned Them That Disappointment Follows Delay.

THE DALZIEL GRAMMAR, MANUAL AND ART SCHOOL, 309 East Front Street.

IS AN ESTABLISHED SUCCESS.

Free-hand drawing from the Antique, Pen and Ink Sketching, Clay Modeling, Painting, Designing and Mechanical Draughting. Directed by John Dalziel, late Professor of Drawing for Illustration, and Engraving at the Women's School of Design, Philadelphia, Pa.

WE are NOW preparing for Spring and Summer Outdoor Work.

Items of Interest

At Edsall's Commercial Palace the Spring trade begins to be brisk.

Our new improvements and changes are the subject of many nice comments from our patrons.

The increase of trade in our much improved and enlarged Grocery department still goes on. Many who were accustomed to buy groceries at the New York department stores, now buy at ours, and that is just as it should be. Home trade first, when the same inducements are offered.

Our new buyer in the China and House Furnishing departments has made some astonishing purchases for the Spring trade. By the complete reorganization of this department, and the introduction of the most modern and right down up-to-date methods of close buying. We are enabled to save our patrons at least from 15 to 20 per cent on their every-day needs. Think of 15 to 20 per cent saved in buying alone. Here is a sample to the point, and we have plenty more to tell you about later on. One thousand two hundred (1200) finely made brooms, direct from the factory to the Commercial Palace. All the intermediate profits, and freight and even the ten-day cash discount, saved for our patrons. That's the way we undersell; the quantity makes the price. Every broom is first quality and well made from fine green whisk. The "Atlas" 3 and 4 sewed No. 6 and 7 at 15c and 18c.; they are the regular 20c and 25c grade. The "Champion Brace," 3, 4, 5 sewed, No. 6, 8, 9, at 21c., 27c., and 29c., well worth 30c to 35c. "Little Maid" 3-sewed special parlor broom, No. 6, at 23c. value 35c. "Little Jewel" 3, 4, 5 sewed, No. 6, 7, 8, 9, 24c, 28c, 31c, 33c, sold regular at 35c, to 50c. The "Liberty" 3, 4, 5 sewed, No. 6, 7, 8, 9 at 26c, 27c, 29c, 31c. Good value 33c to 45c.

There is a great craze on the "surface print" and "warp print" Dresden and Persian ribbons. The "surface prints" are the cheaper goods. Some merchants advertise them as "warp goods," when in fact they are only "surface print. They are easily detected. The genuine warp print has a filling of all one color, while the warp is printed and shows both sides alike. If you have purchased any, just ravel out the filling and see if it is all plain. One call at our ribbon counter and our salesladies will explain the difference to you. We have just opened a new lot of Dresden, in real "warp print," No 40 and 60, at only 29c. And a new lot of "surface print," at only 15c. They are elegant and cheaper than anything we have yet heard of.

Have you seen the newest fad for house wrappers? Vicuga cloth in beautiful Persian effects. They will surprise you at only 10c. a yard. New and elegant French satines, spring styles, at only 15c. a yard. New handsome spring Percales in a large variety of patterns at only 8c yard. The new spring Dimities in Dresden effects, very dainty and pretty, are only 10c. and Grass Cloth for dresses, 14c yard.

Have you tried Edsall's baking powder? Those who use it say it gives as good satisfaction as any in the market. Only 18c. lb. It is well worth your while to come in and see the many new things we are showing this Spring. We stand by our old motto of doing the very best we can for our patrons, knowing that the better we do for them the better than can do for us.

EDSALL'S

Shoe Notes.

If You Have Tender Feet Why Not Try a Pair of Our Common Sense Boots, made on the same lines of the Kahler make. Our price $3 and $5. This is at least $1 a pair under New York City prices on the same goods. A woman's genuine dongola kid button boot for $1.19. One of our specials—woman's rubbers 24c and up. How can we undersell the other fellows? We buy direct from the manufacturers and give you the middleman's profits.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Putnam & DeGraw

THIS WEEK WE WILL SELL

SHIRT WAISTS—Ladies laundered shirt waists only 50c.
UMBRELLAS—Fast black, Paragon frame, only 75c.
HOSIERY—Children's 1x1 rib, extra quality, all sizes, 15c; ladies fast black seamless, extra quality, at 10, 15 and 25c; men's mixed half hose, extra quality 10c, 3 for 25c; men's mixed half hose, seamless, extra heavy, 15c, 2 for 25 cents.
WAISTS—Children's corded underwaists 25c; children's outing flannel waists 50c style for 40c.
NECKWEAR—A new and special line at 25 and 50c.
EMBROIDERIES—Our's are the talk of the city.
COTTON CREPONS—Evening shades at 12 and 15c a yard.

SPORTS

STRIKES AND SPARES.

TEAM POSITIONS IN STANDARD LEAGUE.

	H. S.	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	884	21	9
Roselle	893	18	10
Park	885	20	12
Union C. C. Club	831	9	19
Cranford	837	6	24

TEAM STANDING IN CENTRAL JOURNAL LEAGUE.

	Won	Lost	Highest Score.
Crescent Wheelmen	6	4	1618
Elizabeth A. C.	6	4	1789
New Jersey A. C.	4	6	1631
Cranford C. C.	4	6	1557

TEAM STANDING IN DIOCESAN UNION.

	Won.	Lost.	Highest score.
Catholic C	7	2	1597
Elizabeth	5	2	1670
Orange Valley	6	3	1534
Plainfield	4	4	1506
Newark T. A. B.	2	6	1584
Institute	0	8	1516

The game between the Crescent Wheelmen Juniors and the Westfield Y. M. C. A's, which was to have been rolled on the Crescent Wheelmen's alleys on Monday night, has been indefinitely postponed.

The Central Journal League team of the Elizabeth Athletic Club are making a record for themselves of which any team might well be proud, says The Elizabeth Journal. They followed up their established custom by defeating last night the ten that represents the New Jersey Athletic Club. Moreover, in defeating the Jerseys, they put up a great score, though that was not necessary to victory. Again are ties created in this very interesting struggle for the league championship, and again are the Elizabeth Athletic Club and the Crescents at the top, with the Cranfords and New Jerseys close behind. Wednesday night's game, which brought about this condition, was very interesting. The score:

E. A. C.		N. J. A. C.
Karr	180	Jenkins	148
Ahern	161	Wilmerding	146
Vanderveer	167	Rhoderick	141
Faulks	178	Cooper	134
Cook, H.	156	Currie	145
Bogart	149	Coleman	1 6
Wells	148	Blanchard	165
Chamberlain	174	Cobb	158
Ogden	200	VanWinkle	137
Howards	173	Lewis	179
	1686		1499

BY FRAMES:

E. A. C. 158 334 492 666 852 1019 1201 1392 1523 1686
N. J. A. C. 148 283 428 601 731 908 1031 1201 1353 1499

The younger members of the Crescent Wheelmen are fast following in the footsteps of the veterans and putting up a winning game. They took two games last evening from the local Y. M. C. A. team, on the Crescent's alleys, the first by 111 pins and the second by 9 pins. The first game was a cinch for the home team, but in the other, although the start was not auspicious for the visitors, they made a lively finish. It was not lively enough, however, to win them the game. The individual scores were:

CRESCENT WHEELMEN JUNIORS.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
Clarkson	137	163
Ulrich	188	130
Giles	150	158
Smith	151	137
Baker	180	163
	806	751

Y. M. C. A.

	1ST GAME.	2D GAME.
M. Sutphen	121	155
R. Carroll	154	126
A. Lederer	131	162
C. Sutphen	137	168
E. Laing	152	121
	695	732

CHESS.

The eleventh annual tournament and meeting of the New Jersey Chess Association will be held at Paterson, in Turn Hall, on February 22d. Officers will be elected and the State chess championship played for. The first tournament was held in 1836, and the State championship was won by Hon. Edward C. Stokes, who spoke here last Wednesday evening. The first Plainfielder to capture it was R. B. Keys, now of Mexico, in 1888 The next year the tournament was held in this city, under the auspices of the Plainfield Chess Club, and Clarence L. Murphy, of the borough, won it. Soon after that Mr. Keys left Plainfield and the interest in the game began to flag. Plainfield will probably not be represented in the tournament this year. Governor John W. Griggs, of Paterson, is the present president of the association.

—Eight candidates were given the Oriental degree at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M., last evening.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggists handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

CYCLING COMMENT.

Stahl's puncture-proof tire, so well known by its trademark, an elephant on a bicycle, is now represented in Plainfield by the F. L.C. Martin Cycle Company.

The Eldridge Bicycle Company has received a new supply of Columbia catalogues which may be obtained by asking for them at the salesrooms on Park avenue.

One of the famous Bidwell-Truckham bicycle carriers, for which the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company is agent, is now on exhibition at their salesrooms on Park avenue.

Prof. Johnson and his team of bicycle riders, of Murray Hill Lyceum, will entertain at the Columbia Cycle Academy on Washington's Birthday, under the auspices of the Eldridge Bicycle Company. A matinee and evening performance will be given.

BASKET BALL.

Since their victory over the team from the Twenty-sixth Ward branch of the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. the local basket ball team has gained considerable confidence, and will put up a strong game against the team from Company E, 13th Regiment, N. G. S. of N. Y., in the Y. M C. A. gymnasium tomorrow evening. The game will be called at 8:30 o'clock.

WITH ROD AND GUN.

John Welch shot a red fox in the dismal swamp near South Plainfield, last Monday. His dog tracked it for along distance. It is thought by some to be one of the foxes liberated at Campbell's some time ago.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—A tea will be held at the Grace M. E. church on Washington's Birthday.

—Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., will meet this evening and initiate one candidate in the first rank.

—Rev. A. A. Phelps will speak on "The Analysis of the Bible" at the Y. M. C. A. Hall next Sunday afternoon.

—There will be a very important meeting of the Young Men's Association of Monroe Avenue chapel this evening.

—The women of Grace M. E church will present an enjoyable entertainment in the church Thursday evening, Feb. 20th.

—To date there has been thirty-five conversions at New Market as the result of the revival services. The interest does not decrease.

—Sebring is closing out a big line of men's and youths' overcoats and ulsters at greatly reduced prices before moving to West Front street.

—Owing to a wreck on the Jersey Central railroad at White House early this morning the east-bound mail did not arrive here until 8:48, instead of 8 o'clock.

—Do not despair because you have tried many medicines and have failed to receive benefit. Remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail to do any good whatever.

—Summons were issued yesterday by Justice Nash in the cases of West against Drake, demand for premises, and Griffen against Negley, on contract, both returnable on Feb. 18th.

—The Columbia College Glee and Musical Club will produce "The Buccaneers" in Plainfield and Orange during the week beginning April 13th. They will appear at the Casino in this city.

—The disgruntled Italians at Westfield returned to their work on the sewers yesterday, having received their wages. Young Tobin, very much frightened at their demonstration of the day before, is also at work.

—Every tenant in the Stelle building, at the corner of Park avenue and Front street, has been requested to vacate by April 1st, as the intended improvements for the City National Bank will then be commenced.

—A team of horses belonging to Adam Fritz, and in charge of a workman, escaped serious trouble this morning near the Jackson building. One of the horses slipped on the ice and fell down. Both animals began to kick and the assistance from several bystanders averted any damage.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Dunellen.

A prize is to be given to the pupil selling the most number of votes for the new flags.

Mrs. H. Swackhamer and her sister, Miss Ethel Fenner, spent Wednesday in New York.

Paul Reusch has subscribed for twenty-five shares for the new town hall to be built.

Miss Annie Blair, of Hackensack, is spending a few days with Miss Todd, of Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adgar, who have been visiting relatives at Irvington, have returned home.

Miss Edna Coriell and Miss Maude Wilcox spent Wednesday visiting friends in Westfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher, of New Market, are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son.

Miss Scribner, of Manasquan, is spending a few days with Miss Gaskin, of Washington avenue.

Miss May Thompson, of Jersey City, is visiting her cousin, Miss Syphers, of Front street.

The Junior League of the M. E. church met this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the parsonage.

The two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Lindsey died Thursday morning of pneumonia.

Although Wednesday was a holiday none of the stores or places of business were closed except the post-office.

Mr. Samuel Giles, of Port Richmond, S. I., who has been visiting George Giles, of North avenue, has returned home.

Rev. Frank Fletcher, of New Market, conducted the funeral services of the late Mrs. Richards yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment was made in the cemetery at Scotch Plains.

A valentine leap year party will be given by a number of young ladies of this place to their gentlemen friends this evening at the Park Hotel. Prof. Wendall, of Bound Brook, will furnish the music for dancing.

A birthday sociable will be held this evening at the M. E. church for the benefit of the library fund of the Sunday-school. The committee in charge are composed of Rev. and Mrs. Custard, Herbert Waters, Miss Emma Apgar and Mrs. Harry Vail.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church held their annual meeting on Tuesday. The following were elected to fill the offices for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. I. Martine; vice-president, Mrs. L. Schneider; secretary, Mrs. S. C. Bodine; treasurer, Mrs. M. L. Rarick; selecter of good literature, Mrs. J. L. Louzeau.

AN ORDINANCE

for the licensing of shows, circuses, exhibitions and the like.

The Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That no person, corporation or association shall have, make, give or exhibit in the Borough of North Plainfield any entertainment, theatrical performance, circus, show, exhibition or device of any kind whatsoever for money or gain, except such as are given by residents of the borough for benevolent purposes, nor shall combine the selling or vending of any article or thing with any such performance, circus show, exhibition or device, nor shall open or keep any skating rink in said borough, without first obtaining a license therefor from the Mayor of said borough.

Sec. 2. That the Mayor shall have power to grant or withhold such licenses and to determine what sum shall be paid therefor in each instance, which sum shall in no instance exceed the amount of two hundred dollars. Such license when granted shall be countersigned by the borough clerk and shall state the name of the licensee, the purpose and period of time for which granted and shall not be effective until the license fee fixed by the Mayor therefor has been paid to the borough clerk for the use of the borough together with an additional fee of fifty cents for the clerk.

Sec. 3. Any person violating the first section of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty dollars or imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten days, besides costs, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 4. That this ordinance shall take effect on the 29th day of February, eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

Approved February 7th, 1896.

B. A. HEGEMAN, Jr., Mayor.

Attest—JAMES K. ARNOLD, Borough Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE

Amending an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance prohibiting the use of bicycles and other conveyances upon the sidewalks of any of the streets or avenues of the Borough of North Plainfield," approved January 8th, 1887.

The Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield do enact as follows:

Sec 1. That section one of the ordinance, the title of which is recited in the title of this ordinance, be and is hereby amended so that the same shall read as follows:

Sec 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person over eight years of age to ride or use any bicycle or other vehicle, except baby carriages and conveyances for invalids, upon any sidewalk of any street or avenue in the Borough of North Plainfield.

Sec. 3. That this ordinance shall take effect on the 29th day of February, eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

Approved February 7th, 1896.

B. A. HEGEMAN, Jr., Mayor.

Attest—JAMES K. ARNOLD, Borough Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE.

Repealing An Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance relating to shows and circuses, exhibitions and skating rinks or vendors with or without shows," approved August 24th, 1885, and the amendment thereto, approved October 6th, 1885.

The Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That the ordinance named in the title of this ordinance and the amendment thereto approved October sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. That this ordinance shall take effect February twenty-ninth, 1896.

Approved February 7th, 1896.

B. A. HEGEMAN, Jr., Mayor.

Attest—JAMES K. ARNOLD, Borough Clerk.

A Corn Cure THAT CURES CORNS

We have never said much about our Corn Cure—though it is one of the best made—because the market is full of cures, so-called. But such positive testimony to its merits has recently been volunteered that we feel justified in "talking-up" this little specialty. Our COLLOID CORN CURE is easily applied, gives relief quickly and will cure every case of corns, hard or soft, that can be cured, if used as directed. Sold in square vials with brush for applying. REYNOLDS' PHARMACY, Park and North Avenues.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately subsisting between William L. Gavett and Joseph W. Gavett, of the city of Plainfield, county of Union and State of New Jersey, under the firm name of William L. Gavett & Co., was dissolved on the fourteenth day of February, 1896, by mutual consent. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by said Joseph W. Gavett, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to him for payment.

Dated at Plainfield, N. J., this 14th day of February A. D., 1896.

W. L. GAVETT.
JOSEPH W. GAVETT.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscriber, executor of Elizabeth A. Wet, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the county of Union, on Wednesday, the fifteenth day of April next.

Dated Feb. 13th, 1896.

WILLIAM A. SHOTWELL,
JOHN H. VAN WINKLE.

2 14 10-caw

DIED.

KINGSTON—In this city Feb. 14, 1896, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph and Mary A. Kingston, in her 26th year.

Funeral services from her late residence, 518 East 2d street, Sunday afternoon, Feb. 16, at 2:30. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. 2

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS,

181 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

February 21, to Old Point; Easter week to Washington; June 27, Coaching trip abroad, with Switzerland and Italy; August to New England; December to Mexico.

E. H. Rushton. J. C. Hansen. A. Luthman.

Rushton, Hansen & Luthman,

PAINTERS & PAPER HANGERS,

P. O. Box 773, Plainfield, N. J.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 tf

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

BIG opportunity to buy store fixtures, ice box, coffee cans, good horse, wagon and everything else in store lately occupied by Fulper, 207 West Front street.

WANTED—Two respectable boarders in a nice family, near Pond Tool Works. Inquire Henry Uhric's bakery, 102 West 3d st. 2 14 2

REV. E. Kionka, pastor of the German Lutheran Church, Grove st., desires 2 or 3 rooms, furnished or unfurnished, in a private family; location must be good. Call or address 325 West 2d st. 2 13 2

SITUATIONS wanted by nurse girl, chambermaid and coachmen. Room 209, Babcock Building.

LOST—This morning, insurance policy on house of P. Moran. Please leave with W. D. Thickstun, 197 North avenue.

RELIABLE Swedish girl wants situation, chambermaid or nurse. Address for references Box 36, South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 14 24

WANTED—Cooks and general houseworkers; must have reference. Apply Mrs. Day's office, 134 E. Front street.

TO LET—A corner store, 22x65 feet; suitable for dry goods or grocery; a corner flat of 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; a 12-room house on West 7th st; large lot with stable, chicken house, etc., house recently fitted up with all improvements. City Mills. 2 8 14 15

FOR SALE—Bull and fresh cows. Call Wm. A. Baldwin, Warreville, N. J. 2 12 6

HORSE for sale or exchange; kind, gentle and sound; good roadster. Call or address C. J. Ackerman, Clinton avenue. 2 12 3

VERY handsome flat; all modern improvements. Apply Manning's city marble works. 2 11 5

WANTED.—At once, experienced white cook. Apply 949 Central avenue. 2 8 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, att'y, corner Park and North aves. 2 3 2w

TO LET—Store on Park avenue now occupied by G. Q. Packer, with or without floors above; a great chance to start a furniture business. Apply to C. A. Marsh, or Wm. M. Stillman. 2 4 tf-2aw

GOOD accommodations for horses; horses boarded by the month at reasonable terms. W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville, N. J. 12 3 tf

FOR RENT—Two cottages, No. 830 and 832 West 3d st. Inquire of S. B. Wheeler, Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. 10 30 tf

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

133 EAST 2d street to let a large sunny front room; also a hall rooms; furnished, 2 minutes from depot. 12 19 tf-m w t

TO LET—Stores, flats, dwellings. Bargains for sale. Mulford, Broker. 1 6 tf

TO LET—Stable on Sycamore street, from April 1st, seven stalls and a box stall, city water and electric lights, also three rooms over stable suitable for light house-keeping. Apply P. Lynch 1 2 tf

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

We Ask

you to take nothing for granted. 'Tis easy to advertise, and the printer will print anything you say as long as you pay him for it. Once in awhile we hear a howl way back in the rear that tells us our low prices are hurting, but we are out for business and are getting it by offering such values as THESE.

CREPONS.

Tomorrow morning we place on sale fifty pieces of fine printed crepons, beautiful styles. The regular price has been 12c the yard, our price will be 5c.

PRETTY

edging and embroideries. A thousand lines could not tell the story. Great heaps of snowy embroideries from far off Switzerland come to you and ask only 3c, 5c, 7c and 10c the yard. The wise ones are buying for future needs.

CORSETS

and corset waists for ladies and children of the right sort, the kind that fit and wear well. See our 75c corset as good a one as you would pay a dollar for if bought elsewhere. Ferris corset waist for children 47c, Ferris corset waists for ladies, 89c, the $1.25 quality.

UNDERWEAR.

Weather has been scarce this winter but it will come. We are making a clearing sale of fine warm underwear for ladies, gentlemen and children with prices cut in half. Men's $1.00 scarlet shirts, 50c; Men's $1 natural wool shirts, 59c; Men's $1.50 double breasted scarlet shirts, 69c; Ladies' vests and pants, 25c, 50c and 75c.

Snap shots 54 in. ladies cloth, 27c, 45 in. black serge, 31c, 25c Turkish towels, 13c, 70 in. table damask, 47c, 20c hemstitched towels, 13c, lace curtains, 39c each, Men's heavy half hose, 3 pair for 25c; Children's heavy seamless hose, 10c; Ladies' heavy seamless hose, 10c; Large size dinner napkins, 98c doz. Fruit of the loom, Dwight, Anchor and Lonsdale muslins, 7c the yard; Ladies' chamois gloves, all colors 75c.

Housefurnishing Department.

Our department is now complete—everything new in the housefurnishing line for sale here. Glance over the following prices, for this sale only.

Granite Iron and Crystal Steel Ware. Bargain Table first floor, left. 1000 Pieces on Sale, consisting of Sauce Pans, Coffee Pots, Stew Kettles, Oatmeal Boilers and Cooking Vessels of all kinds, at about the price of Tinware. 250 Stewing Kettles, Lipped, with bail, uncovered, at 17c. each. Size 2 quart.

Clothes Wringers, hard rubber rollers, warranted, at $1.37. Retinned Dish Pans, 14 qt. well made, at 15c. White Willow Clothes Baskets, No. 2 size, at 29c. 5 Gal. Galvanized Iron Oil Cans, with Faucet, at 69c. Good quality Roll Toilet Paper, at 3c. Hardwood Tooth Picks, per package, 2c. Silexo Scouring Soap, as good as Sapolio, per cake, 2 1-2c. 2 Hook, Wire Ear, Oak grained Water Pails, at 10c. each. 12 inch Hardwood Chopping Bowls at 7c. each. Japanned Square Bread Boxes, No. 1 size, at 19c. each. Wash Boards, Hardwood Frame, Heavy Zinc, at 10c. each.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

Removal Sale.

These Are the Goods that Must Go.

Boy's reefers $5	now $2.45
Youth's overcoats $8	now $4.75
Youth's overcoats $10	now $6.50
Men's overcoats $10	now $7.75
Men's ulsters $10	now $6.00

SEBRING'S,

Park Avenue. April 1st, West Front Street.

SEE THAT CURVE on all the new spring styles IN HATS

Shown in those sold by

HALLOCK, Hatter, 109 West Front St.

Waverley BICYCLES. Highest of High Grades. Are the Most Popular in the World.

Evidenced by the fact that there were more of them sold in '95 than any other make. Be sure to see sample before purchasing your '96 wheel.

Made by Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

F. L. C. MARTIN, AGENT. 1 27 eod

"He Never New"

We kept Hanan & Son's Shoes,
But what could the poor boy do?
His wife found it out—
He had never been on Park avenue.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

INTERVIEW WITH DOLE.

A Letter from Our Special Correspondent in Hawaii.

Hawaiian Situation Explained—Sentiment Still Strong in Favor of Annexation—British Protectorate Possible—Attitude of the Natives.

[COPYRIGHT, 1896.]

As I was standing on the steps of the palace—or Executive Building," as Hawaiians now prefer to call it—awaiting a military parade and review, Miss Kate Fields, the brilliant American lecturer and writer, favored me with an introduction to President Dole. He is a gentleman of distinguished and commanding bearing, more than six feet in height, and able to tip the scales at 200 pounds. After the usual interchange of courtesies, I received from him a very cordial invitation to come to his home that afternoon.

At the appointed hour I entered a spacious garden, containing tropical plants of every variety, with many winding paths and driveways. In the center stands the "White House" of Hawaii—which, however, is brown in color. Here, sitting in a beautiful fernery in the midst of which played a refreshing fountain, I enjoyed a delicious Havana and listened to the president's clear and concise account of the Hawaiian situation.

SANFORD B. DOLE, FROM HIS LATEST PHOTOGRAPH.

In substance, President Dole spoke as follows:

"The government is stronger to-day than it ever was, and I have no doubt that any resistance which may be in store for it will be met as effectually as the rebellion of last January. The principal opposition to the government springs from the Englishmen living here—yet many of them are with us. The natives, too, are becoming reconciled gradually. Every means is employed to gain that end, and as much favoritism as possible is shown them. For example, if a native and a white applicant seek a certain government position, other things being equal, the native secures the place. Our police force is composed entirely of natives, which fact has made many of them favorably disposed toward us. At present we are especially interested in the reports that President Cleveland contemplates submitting the question of annexation to a vote by the inhabitants of the islands. We have heard indirectly that congress is about to pass this bill."

"What would be the result of such an action?" I asked.

To this the president answered: "If universal suffrage is to be extended upon this question it is hard to tell what would be the result. If, however, the vote should be taken basing suffrage upon the constitution of 1887, I have no doubt that a vote in favor of annexation would be the outcome. If we are not annexed now we shall simply wait patiently until another administration secures the reins of government, when we hope to be admitted into the fold of the union."

"If the United States continues to refuse annexation, is it probable that Great Britain will be asked to assume a protectorate?" I queried.

"We are Americans in spirit," he responded, "and do not like even to contemplate such a step; yet our safety may oblige us to take it."

I asked: "Is it true that the government is running heavily into debt and that this may prove a source of weakness?"

"Our financial condition has been very good, indeed," he replied. "The cholera epidemic was a source of great expense, yet our bonds are quoted above par in foreign countries. We have a small tariff upon revenues, and levy a one per cent. tax."

It is often stated in American papers that Japan, flushed by the victory over China, will soon take possession of Hawaii, if the United States does not annex, and then in the event of war between Russia and Japan, Russia might secure the island. This would place one of the greatest military powers just outside the Golden Gate, ready to demand entrance at any moment. On this point I secured the personal, not the official, opinion of Consul Shisnizu, the Japanese consul. He said:

"Japan does not want Hawaii for several reasons. It is too far away, it would be too expensive to keep and would be of no benefit whatever. If Japan should get possession of Hawaii the reciprocity treaty which now exists between the islands and the United States would change, and the sugar industry—practically the only one of importance in the islands—would be ruined; for it would be impossible to import sugar to the United States, which is virtually its only market."

One needs to be in Hawaii but a very short time to be convinced of two things—first, that the monarchial rule never can be again established; second, that there is a strong sentiment among all classes in favor of annexation. It is at once evident that the part to be played by the natives in the future is insignificant. Why? One reason is that they are rapidly dying out. The demon of alcohol is playing a more deadly game with them than cholera a few months ago. There are now only about 30,000 of them left, which number constitutes less than one-third of the population of the islands.

FORMERLY THE MANSION, NOW THE EXECUTIVE BUILDING.

The Kanakas, as the natives are called, are easy going and apparently perfectly content to live on "poy"—an extraction from the faro root which, when cooked, forms a thick paste, eaten by putting the fingers into it and then sucking them.

Although the natives, when asked what kind of government they prefer, would invariably answer: "Me vote our queen," not one of them for a moment would think of asserting that wish by force, except in a feeble way under the lead of some white adventurer. And though they favor a reestablishment of the queen in preference to the continuance of the present government, everyone with whom I have spoken would like to have his country annexed to the United States.

The Americans, who form the backbone of the population, have but one wish, that these islands, beautiful as a necklace of sparkling diamonds, may at last be brought to adorn Columbia.

A few of the planters are opposed to annexation for the reason that it would prohibit the importation of contract labor from China and Japan, without which they say the industries cannot be cared for successfully. Another objection to annexation is the ex-queen, Liliukalani, who, liberated from prison last Fourth of July, is now living here in the utmost retirement, scarcely seeing anyone except her servants. She impresses one as a crushed and bitterly disappointed woman.

OPHIDIAN GRATITUDE.

Sceptical Readers May Take This Story Cum Grano Salis.

The Gentle Professor's Act of Mercy Amply and Ingeniously Paid For—Rattlesnake Captures a Burglar and Gives an Alarm.

Edgar B. Haymond, one of San Francisco's barristers, has been a close student of natural history and has succeeded in gathering some very interesting information regarding the birds of the air, the beasts of the land, the fishes of the seas. Incidentally, says the San Francisco Call, he has been able to collect a few snake statistics.

"I once knew a case," said Mr. Haymond to some listeners the other night, "wherein a snake displayed not only an unusual amount of affection but a great deal of courage. It appears that some years ago a professor of natural history from an eastern university was sent to the southern part of Yucatan to investigate the snakes of that section. I might state that he was a very humane man and frequently displayed it. One afternoon while walking over a desert, thinking of little but the time he would arrive at camp, he heard a peculiar rattling sound that seemed to come from under a pile of rocks. He at once made an investigation and was rewarded by the discovery of a mastodon rattlesnake, which he was on the point of dispatching so as to put it out of misery, as the rocks had so fallen that a portion of the snake's body was badly mangled and torn. In the matter of taking the reptile's life he hesitated, owing to the pathetic and pleading expression in the wounded creature's eyes. It quite unnerved him, so he rolled the rocks off and awaited results, which came in the shape of very pronounced gratitude.

"The delighted and thankful creature wriggled over to him and rubbed his leg with a grateful air that was bound to last. The professor was moved by this exhibition, and, having some cotton in his valise, he bound up the wounded part and left the snake as comfortable as possible. And next day he left Yucatan for Guatemala and was gone over five years. On his return to Yucatan he again had occasion to pass over the desert, and, greatly to his surprise, encountered the same reptile a few miles from where the previous incident had occurred. The recognition was mutual and the joyful rattler coiled about his leg, licked his hand with a friendly tongue and showed marked and industrious appreciation. When the professor took up his march again the snake followed him and even insisted upon getting into the wagon and becoming a regular occupant."

FOUND A MASTODON RATTLER.

"Look here, Edgar, ain't you going a little too far with that yarn?" inquired a friend.

"Not as far as the snake is going. To continue: He finally got back east and had for a traveling companion the snake, which was allowed to wander at will. As a natural consequence the professor and his dumb companion became the best of chums, and it was a common thing to see the naturalist walking out in the road with the snake gliding along beside him. Well—now here comes the real point of the story—one night after the professor had retired and left the snake downstairs in the dining-room he was suddenly awakened by the crash of glass, followed by the falling of a heavy body. He rose up in his bed, only to hear a groan and the crushing of bones. In a flash he bounded into his dressing gown and repaired to the room whence came the sounds of strife. Imagine his horror on striking a light to see his pet snake coiled around a man's bleeding body, which it had lashed to the stove and was hugging violently. On the floor was a burglar's dark lantern and a kit of tools, while the snake, in order to display its presence of mind, had his tail out of the window—"

"What for?" inquired a listener, in breathless excitement.

"Rattling for a policeman."

The Trouble with the Clock.

A jeweler in Tuscola, Mich., says that during the past year one clock has been brought to him seven times for repairs, and each time all that was wrong with it was that it needed winding. Each time he explained the cause to the owner; but after a few weeks, or sometimes months, the clock, being neglected, would stop—the owner would shake it, blow in it, and then take it to the jeweler, who would astonish him by winding it and handing it back.

A Unique Dancing Hall.

In a pasture near Grafenber, Bavaria, there is a large flat bowlder lying prone upon the ground in such a manner that the smooth surface forms a splendid dancing floor. It is locally known as the Teufelstisch, or devil's table, and tradition says that in ancient times his satanic majesty and a large concourse of imps danced upon it from midnight until morning.

Removal Sale!

Will remove to the much larger store, 129 East Front st., now occupied by Mr. Gavett, on or about March 25, 1896. I will therefore offer the following lines at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing,

also Neckwear, to reduce stock previous to removal.

Men's Overcoats $4 05, $7 20, $9.00, $10.80, $12.60 and Upward.

Men's Suits $4.05· $5.40, $6.30, $7.20, $9, $10.80 and Up

Boys' and Children's Clothing in proportionately low prices. 50c Neckwear in four-in-hand and tecks at 25C. A beautiful assortment. All the above goods are new this season. Watch this ad.

HARRY M. JAQUETT,

123 East Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

One Price CASH One Price

and money refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

Will Remove

IN MARCH TO

JACKSON BUILDING

And Are Now Selling

At Reduced Prices

Our Stock of Fine China, Cut Glass, Lamps, Bric-a-Brac, and Decorated Dinner Ware, Bedroom, Parlor, Library & Dining Room Furniture.

Gavett & Co. -- Garret Q. Packer.

Help the Blind Man!

To restore sight to the sightless is a miracle we do not care to attempt, but where the judicious application of glasses can aid the vision we can be of great assistance. The glasses themselves should be of the best, the lenses that is. The frame may be anything the taste and pocketbook prompt—but it's the fitting of the required glass to the eye that tells the story. Whether you shall continue to suffer pain and annoyance or be relieved rests with yourself. We are ready to do our part.

Collier, 103 Park Avenue.

Established 1869.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

FOR GIFTS and LIGHT buy "MILLER" LAMPS

Elegant designs (a thousand styles), Beautiful finishes, and the best lamp made—up-to-date in every respect. Call and see it, also our Fine Brass and Onyx Tables. Buy only "Miller" lamps from dealers. We have been manufacturers since 1844.—made "The Rochester" Lamp.

EDWARD MILLER & CO., 28 & 30 WEST BROADWAY, (66 Park Pl.) bet. Park Pl. & Barclay St., N. Y.

Convenient to all "down-town" Ferries, and Elevated Stations at Park Place and Barclay St.

☞ For Cool Weather buy a "MILLER" OIL HEATER.

FOR SALE BY W. L GAVETT & CO.

Creamery Butter

20c Per Pound at

J. F. MACDONALD'S

Uptown Grocery.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 17, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 04, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 30, 7 53, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 9 25, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 04, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 24, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 01, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 35, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 35, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 30, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 1 35, 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 35, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 03, 3 43 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 30, 7 48, 8 20 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 4 59, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 35, 8 03, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a m; 12 32, 3 49, 4 49, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 02 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 5 14.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh. Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 11 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin. (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays For High Bridge for High Bridge Branch Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 24, 7 03, p. m., Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 5 24 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 17, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17, 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a. m., 2 25, 4 55, 5 14* 6 45 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, a. m. 12 46, 2 17, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m. 2 25, 4 55, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a m., 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Jones & Co., EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

—Cesspools Built.

Sewer Connections Made

Properly and Earth Replaced Carefully.

PLUMBING TESTED.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119 East Front street.

CLASSES FOR

Women and Girls

IN

Gymnastic Exercises, Swimming and Fencing.

Miss Elizabeth C. MacMartin, Inst'r.

will meet applicants for membership Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3, at the Y. M. C. A.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Randolph's

COMPOUND

Wild Cherry Syrup

FOR COUGHS

has immense sales. Children take it readily.

Only 25c Per Bottle.

Every family should have it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist,

143 West W. Front st., Plainfield, N.J.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. L. W. Randolph, 143 W. Front St.

Your Spring Clothing

Rather early to speak of it, but if it needs cleaning or dyeing, it isn't too early to have us do that work for you. This is our dull season—our employes are here ready for work. We'd like to have your goods now. We can give them better attention than in the rush of the spring season. Then we'll have to have more time or rush them at the expense of good work. Now we can take our time, do the work better than if hurried and you'll have the clothing all ready for warm weather.

Look in the closet or trunk and find your spring wear that needs cleaning and dyeing and bring it to us now, or better still, our wagon will call for it if you will send us word.

Hillier & Co.,

179 North ave., Plainfield.

Special Sale

OF

Muslins

SATURDAY ONLY.

Fruit of Loom, Hill Lonsdale and other standard brands, 10 yards 65c.

The best brands unbleached muslins at 6 cents per yard.

Good quality in bleached and unbleached at 5 cents per yard.

The standard brands of white sheetings at lower prices than quoted elsewhere.

LEDERER'S.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

ERNEST BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

All work guaranteed. Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

325 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Sixty Day Reduction in Teeth.

For the next 60 days I will make sets of teeth that generally cost $12 or $15 for

$8 and $10.

These sets are of the best materials and excellent workmanship, but the low price applies only to cash orders.

C. R. THIERS, DENTIST,

132 Grove street. 1113m

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

Coal & Wood.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Telephone 49-A.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets second and fourth Tuesdays in the Babcock Building. C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Babcock Building, West Front street. D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
Harry C. Adams, Regent.
Frederick C. Pope, Secretary.

MONEY

Cannot buy better

Men's Suits,

in fine imported Black and Blue Cheviot, Diagonal or fancy weave, single or double breasted at $9.90.

reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

Valentines

IN

Lace, Cards, Novelties, and Comics.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front street.

THIS IS

the season most people need a

TONIC,

and no better can be found than

Leggett's Malt Extract.

It is a pure concentrated extract of malt and hops.

Price 20 cents a bottle, $2 a dozen.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. Building.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year.

RANDOLPH RUNYON

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

43 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Residence over office. 1 18 m

SOMETHING NEW.

How Some People Follow Every New Fad.

But the Majority Prefer That Experiments Should Be Tried Upon Somebody Else.

Some persons are always so anxious for something new that it is astonishing they still continue to eat plain bread and butter. They have always thrived well on beef, eggs, and potatoes; but somebody writes an article for a scientific journal, and attempts to show that these foods are neither as cheap nor as nutritious as some other kind of food. Therefore, some persons drop this standard diet and take up whatever some young scientist directs. We cannot understand this. When anything has been thoroughly tried and tested, and found in every way satisfactory, why do some people persist in running after some new-fangled notion? Take cod-liver oil for instance. It has been used for two hundred years with most marvellous success, and in a large variety of complaints. Its success has been no greater in the past than it is to-day. More skillful methods of preparing it, and emulsifying it (for it is generally acknowledged that it should always be given in the form of an emulsion), gives assurance that its future use is bound to be even far greater than ever.

And yet some people talk about a "substitute for cod-liver oil"! Substitute? Why, it is almost laughable. It certainly would be so, were the question not such a serious one. There can be no substitute for cod-liver oil, for there is nothing at all like it known to medical science. When Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with the Hypophosphites has been used for over twenty years, and when thousands have testified to its curative properties, is it not strange that any one would think of trying an experiment with some new preparation of cod-liver oil? When you know you are safe in taking Scott's Emulsion, is it not too risky business to try something new? Do you think Scott's Emulsion could have stood these twenty years, and have a larger sale to-day than ever before, unless it had true, genuine merit. Where do you suppose these substitutes, which do not contain a particle of oil, will be twenty years from now? And where will all the fancy preparations, as the various wines of cod-liver oil, be at that time? It is perfectly safe to predict that before they are half as old as Scott's Emulsion is, they will be forgotten. Do not allow yourselves to be experimented upon; be satisfied with the best; and take advantage of twenty years of ever increasing prosperity.

Scott's Emulsion contains more pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil than any other emulsion in the world, that will stand the test of time as being a perfect inseparable emulsion. Ask your doctor.

Boehm's

Annual Sale

—IN—

Muslins, Sheetings & Embroideries.

Bleached and unbleached muslin, 1 yd wide at 4½c. A very good sheeting muslin in unbleached and bleached, fully a yard wide, the 6c quality, at 5c yd. Extra heavy muslin in bleached and unbleached, 36 inches wide, the 7c quality at 5¾c a yard. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, fully 2¼ yds wide, special for this sale at 16c a yd. Unbleached sheeting, good quality muslin, 2¼ yards wide, at 15c a yard. Amoskeag, ginghams in blue, brown, green and red plaids, best goods made, at 5¾c a yard.

Embroideries and Edgings.

Never before could Embroideries be bought at the price we are selling them now. Our styles are exclusive, as an inspection will amply prove. 2 inch wide embroidery at 3, 4, 5 and 6c a yard. 6 inch wide embroidery at 10c yd. 8 inch wide embroidery at 12½c. Insertions at one quarter their actual value. 27 inch flouncing, the 50c quality, at 35c a yard.

Don't Miss This Sale.

A dollar with us secures you more value than $1.50 anywhere else in town. This is an undisputable fact and facts as a rule, count with everybody.

Boehm's

113 West Front St.

PROSPECT HILL Must Be Sold.

Azalias, Chinese primrose, palms, ferns, begonias and variety of blooming plants. Wedding decorations and floral designs and all equipments for church and house decorations. Southern smilax at 15 days notice

AT DENTON'S.

I do not believe that the most enthusiastic lover of that "useful and noble animal," the horse, will claim for him the charm of geniality, humor or expansive confidence. Any creature who will not look you squarely in the eye—whose only oblique glances are inspired fear, distrust or a view to attack; who has no way of returning caresses, and whose favorite expression is one of head-lifting disdain, may be "noble" or "useful" but can be hardly said to add to the gayety of nations. Indeed it may be broadly stated that with the single exception of gold fish, of all animals kept for the recreation of mankind the horse is alone capable of exciting a passion that shall be absolutely hopeless. I deem these general remarks necessary to prove that my unreciprocated affection for "Chu Chu" was not purely individual or singular. And I may add that to these general characteristics she brought the waywardness of her capricious sex.

She came to me out of the rolling dust of an emigrant wagon, behind whose tail board she was gravely trotting. She was a half-broken colt—in which capacity she had at different times unseated everybody in the train—and although covered with dust, she had a beautiful coat, and the most lambent gazelle-like eyes I had ever seen. I think she kept those latter organs purely for ornament, apparently looking at things with her nose, her sensitive ears, and sometimes, even a slight lifting of her slim near foreleg. At our first interview I thought she favored me with a coy glance, but as it was accompanied by an irrelevant "look out!" from her owner, the teamster, I was not certain. I only know that after some conversation, and a good deal of mental reservation, and the disbursement of considerable coin, I found myself standing in the dust of the departing emigrant wagon with one end of a forty-foot riata in my hand, and Chu Chu at the other.

I pulled invitingly at my own end and even advanced a step or two toward her. She then broke into a long disdainful pace, and began to circle round me at the extreme limit of her tether. I stood admiring her free action for some moments—not always turning with her, which was tiring—until I found that she was gradually winding herself upon me! Her frantic astonishment when she suddenly found herself thus brought so close to me was one of the most remarkable things I ever saw, and nearly took me off my legs. Then when she had pulled against her riata until her narrow head and prettily arched neck were on a perfectly straight line with it, she as suddenly slackened the tension and condescended to follow me at an angle of her own choosing. Sometimes it was on one side of me, sometimes on the other. Even then the sense of my dreadful contiguity apparently would come upon her like a fresh discovery, and she would become hysterical. But I do not think that she really saw me. She looked at the riata and sniffed it disparagingly, she pawed some pebbles that were near me tentatively with her small hoof; she started back with a Robinson Crusoe-like horror at my footprints in the wet gully, but my actual personal presence she ignored. She would sometimes pause, with her head thoughtfully between her forelegs, and apparently say: "There is some extraordinary presence here!—animal, vegetable or mineral—I can't make out which, but it's not good to eat and I loathe and detest it!"

When I reached my house in the suburbs, before entering the fifty "vara" lot inclosure, I deemed it prudent to leave her outside while I informed the household of my purchase, and with this object I tethered her by the long riata to a solitary sycamore which stood in the center of the road—the crossing of two frequented thoroughfares. It was not long, however, before I was interrupted by shouts and screams from that vicinity, and on returning I found that Chu Chu, with the assistance of the riata, had securely wound up two of my neighbors to the tree, where they presented the appearance of early Christian martyrs. When I released them it appeared that they had been attracted by Chu Chu's graces, had offered her overtures of affection, to which she had characteristically rotated with this miserable result. I led her with some difficulty, warily keeping clear of the riata, to the enclosure from whose fence I had previously removed several bars. Although the space was wide enough to have admitted a troop of cavalry, she affected not to notice it, and managed to kick away part of another section on entering. She resisted the stable for some time, but after carefully examining it with her hoofs, and one affectedly meek outstretching of her nose, she consented to recognize some oats in the feed box, without looking at them, and was formally installed. All this while she had resolutely ignored my presence. As I stood watching her she suddenly stopped eating: the same reflective look came over her. "Surely I am not mistaken, but that same obnoxious creature is somewhere about here," she seemed to say, and shivered!

It was probably this which made me confide my unreciprocated affection to one of my neighbors—a man supposed to be an authority on horses, and particularly that wild species to which Chu Chu belonged. It was he, who, leaning over the edge of the stall where she was complacently, and as usual, obliviously, munching — absolutely dared to toy with a pet lock of hair which she wore over the pretty star on her forehead. "Ye see, captain," he said, with jaunty easiness, "hosses is like wimmen; ye don't want ter use any stand-offishness or shyness with them; a stiddy but keerless sort o' familiarity, a kind o' free but firm handlin', jess to let her see who's master—"

We never clearly knew how it happened! But when I picked up my neighbor from the doorway, amid the broken splinters of the stall rail and a quantity of oats that mysteriously filled his hair and pockets, Chu Chu was found to have faced around the other way and was contemplating her forelegs with her hind ones in the other stall. My neighbor spoke of damages while he was in the stall, and of physical coercion when he was out of it again. But here Chu Chu, in some marvellous way, righted herself, and my neighbor departed hurriedly with a brimless hat and an unfinished sentence.

CONSUELO FLEW PAST AT AN UNACCUSTOMED SPEED.

My next intermediary was Enriquez Saltello, a youth of my own age, and the brother of Consuelo Saltello, whom I adored. As a Spanish Californian he was presumed, on account of Chu Chu's half Spanish origin, to have superior knowledge of her character, and I even vaguely believed that his language and accent would fall familiarly on her ear. There was the drawback, however, that he always preferred to talk in a marvelous English, combining Castilian precision with what he fondly believed to be California slang.

"To confer then as to thees horse, which is not—observe me—a Mexican plug! Ah, no! you can your boots bet on that. She is of Castilian stock, believe me, and strike me dead! I will myself at differen times overlook and affront her in the stable; examine her as to the assault, and why she should do thees thing. When she is of the exercise, I will also accost and restrain her. Remain tranquil my friendt! When a few days shall pass much shall be alleviated, and she will be as another. Trust your oncle to do thees thing! Comprehend me! Everything shall be lovely and the goose hang high!"

Conformably with this he "overlooked" her the next day with a cigarette between his yellow-stained finger tips, which made her sneeze in a silent, pantomimic way, and certain Spanish blandishments of speech which she received with more complacency. But I don't think she ever even looked at him. In vain he protested that she was the "dearest" and "littlest" of his "little loves;" in vain he asserted that she was his patron saint and that it was his soul's delight to pray to her. She accepted the compliment with her eyes fixed on the manger. When he had exhausted his whole stock of endearing diminutives, adding a few playful and more audacious sallies, she remained with her head down as if inclined to meditate upon them. This he declared was at least an improvement on her former performances. It may have been my own jealousy, but I fancied she was only saying to herself: "Gracious! can there be two of them?"

"Courage and patience, my friend," he said, as we were slowly quitting the stable. Thees horse is yonge, and has not yet the habitude of the person. To-morrow at another season I shall give to her a foundling, ('fondling,' I have reason to believe was the word intended by Enriquez); and we shall see. It shall be as easy as to fall away from a log. A leetle more of this chin music which you friend Enriquez possesses, and some tapping of the head and neck, and you are there! You are ever the right side up! Houp la! But let us not precipitate this thing. The more haste we do not so much accelerate ourselves."

He appeared to be suiting the action to the word as he lingered in the door of the stable. "Come on," I said.

"Pardon," he returned with a bow that was both elaborate and evasive, "but—you shall yourself precede me—the house is yours."

"O, come along," I continued, impatiently. To my surprise he seemed to dodge back in the stable again. After an instant he reappeared.

"Pardon, but I am restrain! Of a a truth, in this instant, I am grasp by the mouth of thees horse in the coat tail of my dress. She will that I should remain. It would seem—" he disappeared again—"that"—he was out once more—"the experiment is a success! She reciprocate! She is, of a truth, gone on me. It is lofe!"—a stronger pull from Chu Chu here sent him again—"but" he was out now triumphantly with half his garment torn away—"I shall coquet!"

Nothing daunted, however, the gallant fellow was back next day with a Mexican saddle, and attired in a complete outfit of a Vaquero. Overcome though he was by heavy deer-skin trousers open at the side from the knees down, and fringed with bullion buttons, an enormous flat sombrero and a stiff, short embroidered velvet jacket, I was more concerned at the ponderous saddle and equipments intended for the slim Chu Chu. That these would hide and conceal her beautiful curves and contour, as well as overweight her seemed certain; that she would resist them all to the last seemed equally clear. Nevertheless, to my surprise, when she was led out, and the saddle thrown deftly across her back she was passive. Was it possible that some drop of her old Spanish blood responded to its clinging embrace? She did not either look at it or smell it. But when Enriquez began to tighten the "cinch" or girth a more singular thing occurred. Chu Chu visibly distended her slender barrel to twice its dimensions; the more he pulled, the more she swelled, until I was actually ashamed of her. Not so Enriquez. He smiled at us, and complacently stroked his thin mustache.

"Eet is ever so! She is the child of her grandmother. Even when you shall make saddle thees old Castilian stock it will make large—it will become a balloon! Eet is a trick—eet is a leetle game—believe me. For why?"

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

TRUST IN FOOD.

Eat Proper Food and See That You Digest It.

Your health and strength depend on the food you eat—and the way you digest it.

Simplicity in diet and looking after your stomach may add several years to your life.

It will certainly make you happier, for unhappy people are generally dyspeptics.

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon are a peculiar people, with peculiar views. They may not be right in everything, but they know how to live a healthy life. They take care of their stomachs. They live to a ripe old age.

When they have indigestion, they take a few doses of a peculiar cordial which they have for years prepared from medicinal herbs and plants. It is called the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Shaker Digestive Cordial will cure indigestion immediately; permanently with the aid of a proper diet. It is a tonic for the stomach and for the whole system. It makes your food make strength, and this is the whole secret of strength, health and happiness.

Pale, thin, weary, worn out individuals, with no health, energy or ambition, will get strong and bright and healthy, by taking the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Sold by all druggists at 10, 25, 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

A Tin Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrison, of Fourth street and Watchung avenue, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage last evening. The time was passed pleasantly in dancing and singing. A very large collection of useful presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Morrison. Supper was served late in the evening, after which the following guests who were present departed for their homes: Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bogert, Mr. and Mrs. John Mosher, Mrs. Amy Lorton, Miss Maude Mosher, Miss Naylor, Mrs. King, Charles Bogert, Arthur Mosher and Victor Lorton, of Plainfield, and George Babbitt, of Newark.

At the Chapel Fair.

The second night of the Industrial Fair and Loan Exhibition at Hope chapel was a great success and the chapel was well filled with patrons. Every booth did a large business and the receipts were very satisfactory. An attraction for the evening was the vocal selections by E. E. Runyon and Wm. N. Runyon. They entertained the audience with popular selections. The fair will be continued tomorrow afternoon and evening. In the evening the Crescent avenue quartette will be present and give some choice selections.

A First-class Meat Market.

To visit a first-class meat market you can do no better than to call an W. L. & J. M. Smalley, of Somerset street, the borough butchers. They are selling the finest capons in the city. Jersey capons are 25c; Jersey chickens, roasting, 15c, boiling, 14c; Jersey turkeys, 20c; Jersey ducks, 18c; Jersey pork and sausage, our own make; Jersey lambs; Jersey veal. They have on hand some extra fine heavy beef. The quality cannot be surpassed.

An Estimable Woman Dead.

After an illness of about four weeks Miss Mary Elizabeth Kingston died at her home, 518 East Second street, this morning. She was well known among a large number of friends and acquaintances, who will be shocked to learn of her death. She was a most estimable young woman, possessing many high qualities. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from her late home, 518 East Second street.

Getting Established.

The New Jersey Mercantile Agency are getting their branch in this city in working order. The methods of the agency for collecting bad debts for retail merchants have been investigated and are approved of by the best business men. They have come here to become a permanent institution of the town and will be an admirable adjunct for every business man to associate himself with.

In Justice Newcorn's Court.

In Justice Newcorn's court the contract case of Brooks against Conklin has been adjourned to Feb. 17th, and the case of Fogg against Fulper to the 21st of February. The case of Lawler against Keely will be tried February 17th.

John Did Not Escape.

John, the last of the Kennedys, came up before Justice Huff, of Dunellen, this morning on the charge of being disorderly at Taylor's Hotel, recently. He was fined $10, the same amount as the others.

A Brakeman Killed.

Brakeman William Flowers, of drill engine 187, in the freight yard at Elizabethport, fell under the engine yesterday afternoon about 3:50 and instantly killed. He leaves a wife and three small children.

—Bargains that are bargains are in Boehm's advertisement today.

—The Raymond and Whitcomb tourists left Jersey City this morning at 10:15 with seven sleepers and one baggage car, drawn by engine 386, enroute for Mexico.

—Miantonomoh Tribe, No. 118, I. O. R. M., will adopt one candidate and reinstate two at the meeting this evening. The entertainment committee will report and there will be a good time enjoyed after the transaction of the business.

—Foot-weary people should read Doane & Edsall's advertisement today. Mr. Doane claims that he was the first retailer in the country to get the manufacturers to make a genuine common sense shoe on the principle of the Kahler make. The large manufacturers, with all their improved machinery, being able to make as good a shoe for much less money.

William L. Smalley received a letter yesterday from his brother, A. I. Smalley, who is in the south. The latter stated that the trip down by boat was very rough and many were seasick. They arrived at their destination on Monday.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

ENOCH UP A TREE.

This Nebraska Woman Had No Liking for Romantic Outcomes.

A paper in western Nebraska contains the outline of a story that should be slung into undying verse by a poet as good as the author of "Enoch Arden." Some years ago in the town where the paper is published there lived a man who had a wife and daughter. He seemed prosperous and his credit was good for anything he desired.

One fine starlight night he disappeared, taking with him nearly everything that wasn't nailed down. He had made about every man in town a creditor, and when he went away the people betook themselves into outer darkness for awhile and wailed and gnashed their teeth.

ENOCH CLIMBED A TREE.

The wife and daughter were treated the same as the rest. They found themselves destitute. The fiend in human form who had so long officiated as husband and father had left them not a dollar. The lady and her daughter were, of course, looked upon coldly for awhile, as people believed them to be in collusion with the departed. But they were not depressed by this. They went manfully to work like heroines in a play, the mother did sewing and the daughter did whatever she could get to do. They prospered as they deserved to prosper. The older heroine in time established a millinery store, which captured all the trade, while the younger became principal of the schools. They had money in the bank and could eat ice cream whenever they wanted to.

The other day a seedy tramp called at the back door of the lady's residence and asked for a drink and something to eat. The good woman looked at him intently and recognized her husband. And now the really beautiful part of this story comes in. Did the lady kill the fatted calf for the prodigal and bid him welcome and forget the past? Not to any great extent.

She called the family dog, a large creature, with a penchant for human remains, and no man ever climbed a tree quicker than did the erring husband.

SHOWED GREAT NERVE.

Desperate Negro Crook in St. Louis Cuts the Lynchers' Rope.

For several weeks past a negro has been stealing all sorts of things from the butchers and hucksters at the Union market house in St. Louis, but he always escaped arrest, and the tenants of the market became exasperated over their losses. The other morning the negro was caught while carrying off two horse blankets and the cry of "lynch him" went up. A crowd of angry men seized him, bound his wrists, put a rope around his neck and strung him up by a block and tackle hanging in the market house.

But the negro was a fellow of great nerve, and while his tongue was protruding fom his mouth and his eyes bulging from their sockets he made a violent struggle, broke the cord which bound his arms, and before the mob realized what he was doing he whipped a big knife from his pocket, cut the rope round his neck, dropped to the ground and ran like a deer.

CUTTING HIMSELF DOWN.

He was chased by the mob and overtaken, but he turned, and with his big knife showed such a desperate fight that the crowd halted and wavered and the negro dodged into an alley and escaped.

She Did Not Reform Him.

A little more than a year ago a young woman in Frankfort, Ind., married a loose character named Emory, in the hope that she would reform him. Last week he once sanguine woman was sent to a reformatory for a year after conviction in the courts for assisting her husband to steal poultry.

To Encourage Matrimony.

People in Madison county, Ky., who have paid their taxes are entitled to be married free by the sheriff.

Death-Dealing Weapons.

The largest Krupp guns have a range of 17 miles, and fire two shots a minute.

THE TRANSVAAL.

President Kruger Is a Brave Old Dutchman, Who Knows No Fears.

Although the Transvaal is in name a republic, it is really governed by a despotic oligarchy. Indeed, it might be said to be ruled by a triumvirate, consisting of President Kruger, Gen. Joubert and Gen. Smit. The chief and best known of these is President Kruger, or "Oom Paul," as he is almost universally called by the Boers. He is a robust old man of something more than 70 years. In early life he was physically the strongest man in the whole Transvaal, and he is even now by no means decrepit. He has a long, narrow head, with small, cunning eyes deeply set under furrowed brows, a large and rather coarse nose and mouth and a straggling beard. There is little of the phlegmatic Dutchman in his manner and conversation; on the contrary, he is voluble, excitable and given to a profusion of gestures.

In religion he is "Dopper"—that is, a member of the most conservative and bigoted sect among the Boers. He used to be a great fighter and leader of raids against the natives. When he was a mere lad he distinguished himself in a campaign against the Zulus. A Boer expedition on the upper waters of the Vaal river received tidings at the close of a day's fighting that a Zulu impi was advancing to attack them. The Boers, all excepting young Kruger, refused to believe it and lay down to sleep, but Kruger believed the news, determined to keep watch all night and persuaded one comrade to sit up with him.

Sitting on wagons on opposite sides of the camp, their rifles in their hands, they watched all night. At length, just before daybreak, Kruger's keen ear caught the sound of approaching feet. He had just time to give the alarm when a thousand or more Zulus charged full upon the camp. There was a desperate struggle, but the Boers were at last successful and the Zulus were repulsed. But had it not been for Kruger's watchfulness there is little doubt that every one of the Boers would have been slaughtered.

Kruger bears upon his body many scars of bullets and spearheads. His left hand is minus a thumb, which he lost many years ago. He was out hunting when his gun burst and terribly mangled the thumb. He was afraid lockjaw would set in, and so entreated his comrades to amputate the member. One of them tried to do so, but his heart failed him and he gave it up. Thereupon Kruger seized a knife with his other hand and himself cut off the mangled thumb. The very small scar now remaining shows how good a job he made of it. He has several times visited England on missions for his countrymen.

He first went wearing the broad felt hat, the short jacket and shoes of untanned leather which form the usual costume of a "Dopper" Boer. But on his return home his astonished friends beheld him clad in a high silk hat, a long black frock coat and polished boots. He told them that England was a good enough country and contained some fine houses, but all the land seemed to belong to some one. Even outside of London you could not sit down under a tree to smoke a pipe without having some one come up and say the land was his and ask you what you were doing there. Kruger has stubbornly refused to learn a word of English, and there is no man in the whole republic who regards Englishmen with more hatred and contempt than he does.—N. Y. Tribune.

HE COULD PLAY THE JEWSHARP.

